PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, NOV. 29, 1893.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

This morning's Advertiser publishes the most absurd Washington dispatch which appeared in the San Francisco Examiner, and the annexationists seem to derive lots of comfort from it. It is a statement that Minister Willis did not present his credentials to the Provisional Government for some days, because he wanted to make an investigation as to how the P. G. suited the Hawaiians, and when he found out that it was O. K., then he decided to call and present his credentials. The annexationists must indeed be hard up if they can believe in such bosh. Minister Willis arrived on a Saturday—a day on which the government offices close at noon. The following day was Sunday, on which day remarkably enough the government takes a rest. On Monday the Minister communicated with the government stating that he desired to present his credentials and asked that a time be appointed for the performance of such function. The government accordingly notified the minister that the following Tuesday would be suitable, and consequently the minister made his official visit on that day at the appointed hour. Minister Willis is here to represent his government in an executive capacity and not for the purpose of investigating. That he moreover should consider himself competent in three days, in which he only received a few short calls from a few citizens—to judge of the situation in Hawaii which it took Blount about five months to investigate is ridiculous in the extreme. The Advertiser should take a rest and cease to delude its readers with false hopes which can be exploded in a minute.

Mr. Hatch at the meeting of the revolutionists the other night said that they have no quarrel with the Hawaiians, but only with the Hawaiian monarchy. May we ask the learned counsel if he does not consider it a hostile act to deprive a people of self-government and to steal the independence of their country? If the government and its supporters desire to be friendly with the Hawaiians why in the name of Heaven don't they submit the question of annexation and the question of self-government to a vote? They claim that a majority of the voters are annexationists. They claim that there are 6595 voters enrolled on the books of the Annexation Club. But in spite of this and in spite of their protestations that they have no quarrel with the Hawaiian people, they refuse to submit to a vote, even a vote cast by qualified noble-voters alone. We should cheerfully have advocated that the question of the Provisional Government's continuance be made dependent on the will of the noble-voters. We have no doubt of the result even under such circumstances, and are convinced that in spite of their loud talk the revolutionists would be snowed under and out of sight. Cease to be hypocrites, and come right out like men and admit that the movement of January 17th is a deliberate attack on Hawaiians and their institutions—a quarrel with the Hawaiians.

The recriminations of the Star against Mr. Wundenberg and others who furnished Mr. Blount with statements in regard to the revolution are very characteristic of that sheet and of the annexationists generally. The Star whose editor by the way wasn't here at the time, and knows nothing of what transpired—does not attempt to disprove any of the statements which appear in Blount's report, but simply indulges in a lot of abuse which undoubtedly will lead to some more libel suits. It would be interesting to know in what instances Mr. Wundenberg "perjured himself or lied." Why doesn't the Star come out and prove its assertions against him and the others? The Star forgets that everything which has been said by Mr. Wundenberg has been corroborated by the men now high in the government who took part in the original conspiracy. The Star might like to know that Blount inquired from a number of the men whom he examined as to the character of Mr. Wundenberg, and that especially the Reform Party spoke about him in the highest terms in regard to his honesty and veracity. That the truth which Mr. Wundenberg spoke to Blount doesn't suit the P. G. is of course to be regretted—by them. But a man cannot make himself a liar and falsifier even to suit a provisional government, an annexation club or a Star editor. And therefore Mr. Wundenberg preferred to tell truth and be an honest man.

Mr. Samuel Damon, the Minister of Finance, whom the Star doesn't dare to abuse furnished Mr. Blount with exactly as much of the inside history of the revolution as Mr. Wundenberg did—and all honor is due to him. Mr. Wundenberg has never signified that he was in favor of annexation and he answered, we presume, willingly the questions of Mr. Blount. Mr. Damon on the contrary was unwillingly injuring his cause, but he was not prepared to sacrifice his high reputation for integrity by telling what was not true even if lies could have helped his cause. Mr. Damon has once more proven himself an ornament in our community. If the annexation party had only a few more men like him the outlook for their cause might be very different to-day.

The Safety committee demands the official scalp of Wundenberg. If the interesting gentlemen who constituted that committee should read the judiciary act especially the section referring to the tenure of the offices of the clerks perhaps they would learn something to their advantage.

Of course the usual monthly whining about "turning the rascals out" is to be found again in the columns of the Star. We don't know if it wouldn't be charitable on the part of the "royalists" holding Government offices to resign in a body tomorrow and let the Star's hungry dogs have the bones. It will only be for a week or so in which the boys could enjoy a vacation—and their hungry successors would never "be in" long enough to see a pay-day.

Ex-Minister Stevens Tells More Lies.

We hardly consider it a clever idea for the Advertiser to have published a series of lies which have appeared in the Kennebec Journal over the signature of John L. Stevens, because it cannot fail to further emphasize the corruptness and maliciousness of the man who caused the trouble in Hawaii nei. No fair-minded man who was in Honolulu at the time of the revolution can endorse Mr. Stevens' statements. Even high members of the Provisional Government like Damon and Soper have in their affidavits to Minister Blount given the direct lie to the preposterous assertions of Stevens. Mr. Damon stated to Blount that he called at the Station House and found it so well guarded and fortified that he considered it impossible to capture it without the assistance of United States forces. The cruel disappointment of the old ex-diplomat who finally has been shelved has evidently deprived him of his memory. He says in regard to the occupation of the Arion Hall by Boston troops, that "the Committee of Public Safety and the supporters of the Provisional Government had no more responsibility than Secretary Gresham himself." The facts are that the Hall in question was obtained by a member of the Committee—Mr. McChesney; that an attempt was made to get the Opera House, situated next to the Arion Hall, from Mr. W. M. Giffard who refused; that the lessee of the Arion Hall Mr. Jos. M. Poepoe called on Minister Stevens and protested against the troops occupying the Hall and was answered "my good man we are there now and we are going to stay there." These facts have slipped the vicious mind of the diplomatic failure and he further more by his next statements confirms the accusations against him that he was a co-conspirator of the revolutionists by stating that "from Saturday afternoon January 14, to January 16 there was no government in Honolulu except in the united and self-possessed attitude of citizens." And yet he communicated officially with Her Majesty's government and received the ministers in their official capacity up till January the 17th at about 5 p. m. What infernal rot to say that there was no Government! He further on says, "that when he did recognize the provisional government every thing was in their possession and that the Station House was surrendered, and at the mercy of the Provisional Government." And yet Mr. Blount has the affidavits of Minister Damon, of Colonel Soper, of Dole, of officers of the Boston that the Provisional Government's forces never went near the Station House or the barracks—strongly fortified—or the Palace, the seat of the government, before Minister Stevens had recognized the provisional government and offered it his moral and physical aid of which fact he informed the Queen's cabinet at about 5 o'clock p. m. and even then the forces of the Queen did not surrender before 7 o'clock p. m.—and only under false pretenses and promises never to be kept. Mr. Stevens states that whoever denies his lying assertions "has no other basis for his denials than perjured affidavits, hundreds of which are obtainable in the slums of Honolulu at $2.00 each." Great Scott! so all the affidavits in the hands of Mr. Blount are obtained for $2 each. We congratulate Messrs. Waterhouse, Soper, Damon, Wundenberg, Swinburne, Smith, Carter, Macfarlane, and innumerable others for having made such a handsome income by contradicting the assertions of John L. Stevens. How about the letters and documents belonging to the Legation which Mr. Blount had to force out of the old scoundrel? Were they also bought? They form a very important and very prominent part of the report of Mr. Blount. Mr. Stevens has through his article in the Kennebec Journal stamped himself as unworthy of all credence and perfectly deplete of all decency, honesty and morality.

HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

Latest News Regarding the Settlement of Hawaiian matters.

[COMPILED FROM LATE NEWS EXCHANGES.]

SENATOR GRAY GIVES HIS OPINION.

Senator Gray, of Delaware, paid his first visit to Washington to-day since the adjournment of Congress. Mr. Gray is second on the Senate committee on foreign relations, which will deal largely with the future policy of the United States in reference to Hawaii. This is what Mr. Gray said relative to the present attitude of the American Government to the islands: "Without assuming to be familiar with the contents of Commissioner Blount's report and his recommendations as to our policy contained therein, I should say, as the evidence strongly indicates, that the Queen of the Hawaiian Islands was deposed by the stand taken by Minister Stevens, in connivance with a coterie of foreign residents and others and with the aid of United States marines, who were accepted as representatives of the authority of the United States. The deposition of the Queen may, therefore, be regarded as the result of the use of force or policy totally at variance with the democratic policy. The restoration of the Queen, it seems to me, if brought about by any intervention of the United States through a vote of the islanders, who are much more interested in their government than we can possibly be, can be the only policy which can bring about eventually the annexation of the islands or the establishment of a protectorate, whichever should be decided upon, and this policy, when once established and which is to be established by the Hawaiians themselves, is the only policy which can be permanent because it will rest upon the voluntary action of the islanders themselves. Is not this in perfect accord with the democratic doctrine? Does it not permit the rule of the majority? In other words, the action of Minister Stevens was entirely unwarranted, and the policy established by him must be reversed before the United States will have a clear way to declare its permanent policy toward the islands. If the islanders themselves, after the Hawaiian Government returns to its first principles, shall declare in favor of annexation or a protectorate, this government can act in perfect accord with its established principles, and not until then. It seems to me, therefore, that the present administration is acting upon the only lines within its power to act. As to the adverse criticism which the administration is receiving upon what is generally accepted as its policy toward Hawaii, I should say that it comes mostly from republicans and republican newspapers, who can only see a reversal of a policy established by a republican, Minister Stevens. Some democratic newspapers, which have never agreed with the administration on the Hawaiian question, may also interpose objections to the policy on this issue as at present outlined."

REPRESENTATIVE OATES AGREES.

Representative Oates said that the question presented in the report of the Secretary of State was one of the law as well as of fact. Certainly this Government would not be justified in taking any steps toward the restoration of the Queen if we were not directly responsible for her overthrow. He opposed annexation; but the proposition to restore the Queen presented a different question and he was not prepared to discuss it beyond this point.

JUDGE TURNER CONCURS.

Judge Turner of Georgia, who is one of the best lawyers in the House, said that he early opposed the annexation of Hawaii and was inclined to agree generally with what the Secretary of State said in connection with the Hawaiian affair.

REPRESENTATIVE BOATNER WISHES

THE WRONG CORRECTED.

Representative Boatner of Louisiana said he did not think this Government had any right to interfere in the former Government of Hawaii, and if it appeared to be the case that the Queen was deposed with the assistance of this Government, we should do everything in our power to correct the wrong.

SENATOR PFEFFER WANTS A COALING STATION.

Senator Pfeffer, when asked about Gresham's letter, replied that he had not yet read the statements on which Gresham based his conclusion and did not care to express an opinion. "All I care about Hawaii," he said, "is that it may be used for a Government coaling station."

The W. G. Hall, yesterday, brought the sad news of the death of J. F. Gilfillan, who died from the effects of an accident, which happened last Thursday morning. His remains were brought to this city for temporary interment. The funeral, takes place this afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, from St. Andrews Cathedral.

Conspicuously Unpleasant.

The P. G. prowlers are evidently also hired to listen to people's conversation, and to report the same to headquarters. Last night, one of the gang had the impudence to stop a few paces from a party of four who were engaged in social conversation, to listen to what was being said. The topic was immediately changed to that of conspiracy, and a plan of attack on this government was argued, but was not decided on, for fear of the "spy" catching on. The four parted company to meet again at two a. m. Wonder if the "spy" turned up? And what report he made this morning?

It is reported, that the Minister of Foreign Affairs returned the visit of the Captain, Commanding H. B. M. S. Champion, at the British Legation, on last Monday forenoon. Why did he not call on board of the ship? This is rather surprising, after the Tiser's statement, "that the present government has been lawfully and legally acknowledged by every other government having relations with it." Was the matter of "honors" the cause?

LOCAL NEWS.

The "rascals" will not be turned out.

The Executive Council was in session to-day.

The Republic would not be recognized. Hoka again.

The military were busy to-day filling sand bags. "BLUFF."

There were services in several Churches yesterday it being Independence Day.

Independence Day was celebrated in many private homes. There were no public demonstrations.

POOR STAR MAN. Would it not be a good plan for him to keep clear of the official "headsman."

The banks and principal business houses will close to-morrow at 10 o'clock it being Thanksgiving's day.

The Arawa which takes the place of the Miowera is due to-morrow from Australia en route for Victoria (B. C.)

Thanksgiving services will be held at St. Andrews Cathedral and at the Central Union Church to-morrow forenoon.

Will the Kauai Colonel "let up" on what he knows about Cleveland, and tell us what he knows about acquiring plantations. That would be more interesting.

It is reported, that His Excellency the United States Minister Plenipotentiary, addressed a communication to the Provisional Government yesterday.

There are as many papers—if not more— which support President Cleveland in his Hawaiian Policy, as there are papers against it. The N. Y. World, Washington Star, and Baltimore Sun, although on the Tiser's list of those papers against, are all supporting Cleveland's Policy.

Mr. H. W. Severance, said to an Examiner reporter that, "Mr. Willis presented his credentials an hour or two after the China sailed; it may be somewhat amusing to note that the Provisional Government appointed an hour after the departure of the Australia to receive him."

The Star man calls Mr. F. W. Wundenberg "a spy, a perjurer, and a sneak," because he gave Mr. Blount some truthful statements. S. M. Damon and H. Waterhouse verify these statements. J. H. Soper rather gives things away, and yet the Star man does not call them "spies, perjurers or sneaks."

POOR JIMMIE CASTLE, he isn't "BOSS" after all. He undertook to "fire" one of the Custom House clerks without consulting his "SUPERIOR." He was made plainly to understand "HIS POSITION." He wanted to argue the point, he was immediately "SHUT UP."

Hon. J. A. Cummins yesterday entertained a number of the leading members of the Patriotic Leagues besides many personal friends at an elegant luau at his residence at Pawa. The hospitable entertainment was a most elegant affair and was fully appreciated by all present. The Hawaiian National Band was in attendance.

THE MISSES ALBU.

England's Latest Sopranos.

The Misses Albu two gifted young Sopranos who are touring the world and now waiting for the opening of the Mid Winter Fair, are expected to leave San Francisco by the Australia. The celebrated vocalists will remain in Honolulu sometime and arrangements are being made for them to give a series of Concerts. Both the Misses Albu have taken all the highest honors in England, their first appearance in the Capital was at the Alexandra Palace, when such vocalists as Madama Patti, Albani, Jrebelli, Iolii, Santley, Barrington Foot, Sims Reeves and others took part, at which these artists gained the golden opinion of the press and musical circles. The enthusiastic reception accorded the young ladies was a signal of success, the papers stating that such applause had never been heard in the building.

The list of teachers will show the school the ladies have been, both intrusted to the care of Jenny Lind, Arabella Goddard, Sir Julius Benedict, Dr. Parry, Dr. Bridge, Ernst Paue, R. Gompertz, G. Garcia, Otto Goldschmidt and other leading musicians with the famous London actress Mr. Rendall as instructor in elocution. Miss Albu holds a certificate from the Prince of Wales as President of the Royal College of music and signed by Sir George Grove as director stating that the lady singer held an open Scholarship to all comers for ten terms and is now the head of that Institute.

St. Andrews Cathedral.

The service at this Cathedral to-morrow will commence at 10 a. m. Rev. Alexander Mackintosh will conduct the service. The following music will be rendered by the choir.

To Deum, in F.....Kotzschmar
Jubilate, in D.....Sullivan
Anthem—"Ye shall dwell in the land"

President Dole addressed the pupils of Punahou College at the Preparatory School this morning in the presence of the trustees and officers of the school. The subject of the address was the life of General Armstrong.

So the Committee of Safety, wish Mr. F. W. Wundenberg "instantly dismissed"—if not sooner—from the public service. We take the liberty of suggesting, that the names of S. M. Damon, J. H. Soper, W. O. Smith, and H. Waterhouse also be inserted in the petition. Have not they showed just as much "disloyalty to the Government" as Wundenberg? Mr. Blount's report proves it to be so.

The Examiner, says, that during an interview, Mrs. J. H. Soper said: "I can say one thing, and that is that Liliuokalani would never live to take her seat on the throne if a hint was given that she was to be restored to power."
"Oh, she might be Queen for twenty minutes or so," suggested Mrs. A. Young, who was traveling with Mrs. Soper. They are "christians."

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.]

EDITOR HOLOMUA:

Minister Thurston's advice as published is too funny, "not to oppose the landing of American troops only, as a woman would, by a warning and then retire with all the stolen munitions of war to a safe place, and when the Queen is restored and the troops retire then to immediately take charge of the government in an unconditional manner." Great Scott! why he must be a royalist; that is the programme that only a royalist could relish. Let the Queen be reinstated and the government as it was, and those brave annexation troops only attempt to seize the government when so left, and we will give such an account of them that there will be no trouble hereafter, but Thurston, Emerson and the rest of that ilk would be where the one inscription Requiescat in pace would answer for the whole tribe of scandal-mongers.

ROYALIST.

STEVENS LOWERS THE RECORD.

If, as Mr. Stevens alleges, perjured affidavits are on tap at the Honolulu Slums at $2 each, what finite mind can size up the whopper of a sanctimonious hypocrite fortified by a silver set?

If Mr. Stevens can date the extinction of the Monarchy before it expired, and establish the birth of the P. G. before it was conceived, why not carry the clock turning further back and set both events at the time when humanity, civilization, and international law were outraged by the incarceration of his Chinese cook?

TRUTH.

FROM THE BALTIMORE SUN.

The report of Commissioner Blount will show that the monarchical government in the Hawaiian Islands was overthrown by preconcerted schemes of dishonest persons and that the provisional government of the islands had its birth in the United States under assurances made by persons connected with the Harrison administration that the country would promptly recognize the new government. A gentleman close to the President states that Mr. Cleveland considered the whole Hawaiian question carefully and was forced to the one and only correct conclusion, that a wrong had been done in displacing the Queen of the islands and that it should be remedied. Through Sir Julian Pauncefote, her ambassador at Washington, Great Britain knew of what action the United States contemplated with reference to Hawaii and assured Secretary Gresham, she would not interfere in any move this country might make. There is a well settled belief that the democratic party in both houses of Congress will sustain fully the action of the President in the Hawaiian imbroglio.

Her Idea of It.

Maudie's papa is night-editor on a newspaper—a fact which Maudie apparently has n't learned; for when someone asked her a few days ago what her father did for a living, she replied: "I div it up. I dess he's a burglar, 'tause he's out all night."
