FAT'S PENSION CLAIM.

"Among those who went from old Bridgetown To help put the Rebellion down, Was Patrick Dennis Mike McGown. On many a field where brave men fell, Mowed down by cannon ball and shell, Patrick performed his duty well. So when the war was closed at last, And pension claims were gathering fast, Pat for a small allowance asked. After the surgeon took his name, And found that Fat could write the same, He asked on what he based his claim. Patrick assumed a look profound, For o'er his heart a scar was found, Caused, no doubt, by a bullet wound. Said he, "From pains here in my chest, That oft disturb my midnight rest, A bullet must have pierced my breast!" "Absurd! absurd!" the surgeon cried, "A ball through there, and you had died, 'T had pierced your lung and heart beside!" "Hold on!" said Pat, with some delight, "For, sir, in that day's awful fight I had, like others, quite a fright. The bullets flew so near my face My heart jumped clear out of its place Into my mouth!" Fat won his case. T. F. PORTER.

Where the Days Begin.

The maritime powers of the world have agreed to make London the time center, and the 180th degree of longitude from London (or Greenwich) as the point where the day changes. This meridian, therefore, leads the day. Its passage under the 180th, or midnight, celestial meridian marks the beginning of a new day for the earth; hence to-day becomes to-morrow. We have a new date for the month, and a new day for the week in the transition. It is here, then, that Sabbath was born just to the west of Honolulu, but bear in mind that the day travels westward, therefore this new-born day does not visit Honolulu until it has made a circuit of the globe. Honolulu and New Zealand are only about thirty degrees apart in longitude, but they are a whole day apart as regards any particular day, because the point at which the day changes lies between them. Sabbath was born on the 180th meridian and is a long way off from Honolulu. It is morning there, too, but it is Saturday morning, while in New Zealand it is not yet day, but the Sabbath dawn is breaking. It is clear, then, that if it is Friday (near midnight) at Honolulu to the east of the line and Sabbath (near 1 a. m.) to the west of it, a ship which sails from Honolulu to New Zealand, or from east to west, must sail out of Friday into Sabbath, and thereby skip the intervening Saturday, and gains a day; and vice versa, a ship which sails from New Zealand, where Sabbath has begun, to Honolulu, where Friday has just ended and Saturday begun, or from west to east, must lose a day.—Goldthwaite's Magazine.

Hawaii's Queen No Coward

A Woman Still Holds the Fort.

Will Act Only in Accordance With Law.

ANGLO-SAXON STRANGERS ACTING AS TERRIFIERS.

Uncle Sam Will Protect the Queen.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The dispatch (No. 3) which Minister Willis sent to his government has finally been given to Congress. It reads as follows:

No. 3.—Mr. Willis to Secretary Gresham. Legation of the United States, Honolulu, November 16th, 1893.—Sir: In the forenoon of Monday, the 13th inst., by pre-arrangement, the Queen, accompanied by the royal chamberlain, Mr. J. W. Robertson, called at the Legation. No one was present at the half-hour interview which followed, her chamberlain having been taken to another room and Consul-General Mills, who had invited her to come, remained in the front of the house to prevent interruption. After a formal greeting the Queen was informed that the President of the United States had important communication to make to her and she was asked whether she was willing to receive them alone and in confidence, assuring her that this was for her own interest and safety. I then made known to her the President's sincere regret that through the unauthorized intervention of the United States she had been obliged to surrender her sovereignty and his hope that with her consent and co-operation the wrong done to her and her people might be redressed. To this she bowed her acknowledgments.

I then, said to her: "The President expects and believes that when reinstated you will show forgiveness and magnanimity; that you will wish to be the Queen of all the people, both native and foreign-born; that you will hasten to secure their love and loyalty, and to establish peace, friendship and good government." After waiting a while, I continued: "The President not only wishes to help you, but tenders you his sympathy. Before fully making known to you his purposes, I desire to know whether you are willing to answer certain questions which it is my duty to ask." She answered: "I am willing."

I then asked: "Should you be restored to the throne, would you grant full amnesty, as to life and property, to all those persons who have been or who are now in the Provisional Government, or who have been instrumental in the overthrow of your Government?" She hesitated a moment, and then slowly, calmly answered: "There are certain laws of my Government by which I will abide. My decision would be as the law directs." I then said, repeating very distinctly her words: "It is then your feeling that these people should be punished?" She replied: "It is." I then said to her: "Do you fully understand the meaning of every word I have said to you and of every word which you have said to me, and if so, do you still have the same opinion?" Her answer was: "I have understood and mean all I have said, but I must leave the decision of this to my ministers." "I replied: "Suppose it was necessary to make a decision before you appointed any minister, and that you were to be asked to issue a general proclamation of royal amnesty, would you do it?" She answered: "I have no legal right to do that, and I without my Ministers or Legislative consent would not do it." Pausing a moment, she continued: "These people were the cause of the revolution and constitution of 1887. There will never be any peace while they are here. They should be sent out of the country, or punished and their property confiscated." I then said: "I have no further communication to make to you now, and will have none until I hear from my Government, which will probably be three or four weeks."

I then inquired whether she had any fears of her safety at her present residence, Washington Place. She replied that she did have some fears, that while she had trusted friends that guarded her house every night they were armed only with clubs, and that men shabbily dressed had often been prowling about the adjoining premises—a school-house with a large yard. I informed her that I was authorized by the President to offer her protection either on one of our war ships or at the Legation, and desired her to accept the offer at once. She declined, saying she believed it was best for her at present to remain at her own residence. I then said to her that at any moment, night or day, this offer of our Government was open to her acceptance.

Mr. Willis, in his confidential dispatch of November 11th, intimated that the question as to whether the United States was prepared to protect the person of the Queen had been officially asked of him by the British Minister Major Wodehouse. Mr. Willis says:

"I replied (to the British Minister) that without reference to her royal claims, the Queen stood in such relation to the United States that she was entitled to, and would receive, the amplest protection at their hands. As a matter of fact I had already ascertained that at present she did not desire our protection. After next Monday, however, and earlier if necessary, I shall insist on her coming to the Legation."

Mr. Willis, under date of Nov. 11, 1893, make the following: "The United States steamships Philadelphia and Adams are connected with Honolulu by telephone, but in the event of riot Admiral Irwin, now in command, has made arrangements for rocket signalling.

There is undoubtedly in this Government, a class of reckless, lawless men, who, under the impression that they have the moral support of some of the better class citizens, may at any moment of bring about a serious condition of affairs. Fortunately the men at the head of the Provisional Government are acknowledged by all sides to be of the highest integrity and public spirit, which combined with the large material interest they represent, will it is hoped cause them to stand firmly and successfully for peace and good government.

The Japanese Consul-General, Mr. Suburo Fujii, has just called, to say that his people, who now number nearly one-third of the male population, are very apprehensive of immediate disturbances. He desired to know whether I would advise him to send for a man-of-war. I declined to give him any advice. He then inquired whether his people could expect protection from the United States troops. I told him that if it was his request, and that if his people were non-participants in any trouble, that he could probably rely upon the protection of our Government. The American interests here are so extensive, and all interests are so close that it is impossible to touch one without involving all.

San Francisco, Jan. 16.—In regard to the item published here on Tuesday last that the ex-Queen of Hawaii had given up the contest for the throne, and would sue the United States for damages, S. Parker, Prime Minister to the ex-Queen has wired Secretary

Gresham denying these assertions. Both Parker and A. P. Peterson (the ex-Queen's Attorney General) state they saw Liliuokalani half an hour before they sailed from Honolulu on the Australia, and she was very firm in her determination to maintain her claim to the throne. The possibility of presenting a claim for damages had never been mentioned.

San Francisco, Jan. 14.—Several Hawaiians arrived on the Australia. Among them were Capt. Wm. Clapper, late of the Provisional Government police. He declares that adherents of the Government tried to blow up the Queen with dynamite and that they put the threatening placard on Claus Spreckels' gate.

E. C. Macfarlane, ex-Minister of Foreign Affairs, said that comparative quiet prevails in the Islands. He denies the stories that the Queen's life is in danger from heart disease, but said, on the contrary, that she is well and that herself and her supporters were perfectly willing to wait for the consideration of her case by Congress, and will abide by whatever result may be reached by it.

THAT the government has been suffering from chills since the diplomats refused to take any notice of it on the 17th inst. is obvious. Mr. Dole who is not very brilliant or noted for any great excess of tact has actually gone so far as to write a circular letter to the members of the corps diplomatique asking them for an explanation. As any fool could have known, the result of Mr. Dole's action was that he and his government received a second snub, in that, none of the representatives answered his letter or took in any way the slightest notice of it. And poor Mr. Dole pockets the snubs, and Mr. Sam Damon does the grinning.

THE annexation papers are now squabbling between themselves about the diplomatic representatives. The Advertiser patronizes in a very condescending manner the American-consul general while the Star demands his gore in the most hostile and insulting manner. Both papers claim that Mr. Mills has sent a letter of explanation or apology for his absence on the 17th inst. but none of them produces the tenor of the letter. We shall simply deny that any such letter exists. The Star has access it seems to the archives of the Foreign Office, and there can be no trouble for it to obtain and publish the apocryphical document. But then the Star never deals in facts.

THE irrepressible John Thos. Waterhouse appears in this morning's Advertiser with one of his usually rambling letters, in which he kicks against his former friend of the Star to whom, he at one time tendered "gold and silver" (a five dollar gold-piece and a dollar silver-piece—one year's subscription.) Now the old Vandemonian objects to "swapping horses while crossing the stream." We are surprised that a man who has swapped his English birth and citizenship for an occasionally used American citizenship is so scrupulous as it appears Mr. Waterhouse, in his old age, has become. We would by the way like to know who the "mechanics" are whom he employs steadily. In spite of a careful enquiry among the best known mechanics in town, we have failed to find anyone who lately has seen a dollar from John Thomas. The truth is that only Asiatics have a place in the heart of the "patriot" from Van Dieman.

THE Star came out this afternoon with an extra in which it makes a great display of headlines of the most sensational and ghastly nature. After reading through these blood-curdling lines the reader gets highly surprised by finding—absolutely nothing. Mr. Willis, now published despatches refer simply to his interview with the Queen at the time when he was ready with his preliminary work and opened negotiations with her. The Queen has later on granted a general amnesty an act which she did not think that she was empowered to do knowing her limited power under our constitution. The Queen did not consider herself authorized to bind herself to an act which of course is unconstitutional. The right of granting a pardon lies with the Privy Council and not with the sovereign. But extraordinary situations demand extraordinary measures and Her Majesty now being convinced of the propriety of acceding to the proposed conditions of President Cleveland has done so. It is pleasant to see that the President through his Minister holds himself responsible for the safety of the Queen and that in spite of all ruffian element among the rebels there is no fear whatever for her safety.

THE news brought by the C. & A. S. S. Warrimoo is of but little value as regards information of the present status of the Hawaiian question before the U. S. Congress. Some very old news, sixty days of age is dished up with the usual partisan headlines by a local paper whose only cause for existence is the disturbed condition of the country and the straining but impotent efforts made by its stockholders to bolster up a lost cause although they are, as the least radical of them will admit, now on the edge of the last ditch. The Australia due here from San Francisco is expected to have definite news relative to the consideration of the question in Congress, but the editorial prognostication of the HOLOMUA is that the news of definite and final action will be brought hither by one of Uncle Sams own special conveyances about February 7th.

THE boast of the secret league now, is, that the existing Government could have suppressed them, at one time, now they are in a position to almost suppress the Government. There are however a member of law and order, mechanics, and working-men who will maintain the existing status quo; secret League to the contrary notwithstanding.

Clean Cut Criticism

While holy peace reigns in the Hawaiian islands, a Hawaiian war of singular bitterness continues to be waged at Washington between the blatant annexationists in the senate on the one hand and the quiet, conservative gentleman who occupies the executive chair on the other. The primary object of the Hawaiian belligerents in the senate appears to be, not to secure a decorous settlement of a diplomatic question, which might easily and quickly be disposed of under ordinary circumstances, but simply to demonstrate that a coalition of immoderate Republicans and disgruntled Democrats is competent at any time to pursue and hamper the chief executive in the discharge of his duty and to add to the record of rapid imbecility already earned by the upper branch of the federal legislature.

Senator Hoar's arraignment of the President for daring to send a commissioner to Hawaii without the consent of the senate is but one of a series of incidents showing the intemperate folly of the annexationist clique. The detailing of special commissioners to secure information for diplomatic use without asking the senate's permission is a privilege growing naturally out of the powers of the President in the matter of conducting negotiations with foreign nations and one that has been repeatedly exercised without evoking adverse comment in any quarter. When resorted to by Mr. Cleveland, however, this privilege becomes a crime and the commissioner who did duty in Hawaii is gravely set down as a criminal subject to indictment and punishment.

It is a question whether the senile asininity which prompts recourse to expedients of this character as a means of embarrassing, not only Mr. Cleveland but the nation itself, the honor of which is at the stake in the Hawaiian affair, is not even more offensive to the intelligence of the American people than was the recent senatorial exhibition of trifling with the silver repeal bill.

Of course, the handicap which the senate seeks to put upon him will not prevent the President from doing his whole duty as far as performance lies in his power. As far as he has gone, up to the present, he has acted as, there is every reason to believe President Harrison would have acted had he been re-elected, and thus enabled to undo the damage done by Minister Stevens. Neither Mr. Harrison nor his Secretary of State comprehended the nature of the alleged revolution in Hawaii. They relied upon Stevens' reports, and, as everybody knows, Stevens' reports were no more nor less than campaign documents of the carpet-bag revolutionary junta now in power and which were designed to pull the wool over the eyes of the authorities at Washington and to force the accomplishment of the annexation scheme before the truth became known.

The ex-President requires no vindication at the hands of his party, in or out of the senate, as regards his course in the Hawaiian affair, and it is to his detriment rather than otherwise to assume that, if he had obtained the opportunity, he would not have done exactly as his successor has been doing.

Port Surveyor Sanders states that he received information to the effect that the Miowera had arrived out, alright in a ten or eleven days passage.

Mr. Palmer Woods leaves for Hawaii to-day and will assume the duties of manager of Puuhue Ranch. Mr. Eben Low the former manager has resigned.

The Councils had a harmonious meeting yesterday afternoon. One of the communications presented and most creditable was that from the Scheutzen Verein corps.

The Warrimoo arrived in port here early this morning having been compelled by bad weather to make a 9 days trip from Vancouver to here. She sailed at 11:30 this a. m. for the Colonies.

To-morrow, and lovers of the game should not forget it, there will be a return match, of cricket, between teams from H. B. M. S. Champion and the Honolulu Club. Game will be called at 11:30 a. m. sharp, and the Maki Recreation grounds will be the place of contest.

Exempt From Roll-Call.

John Warner a well-known long time member of the old volunteer fire department of this city and later driver of Engine Co. No. 1, in the paid department, died at the Queen's Hospital, in this city, on the 24th inst., and was buried yesterday afternoon in the "Fireman's" plot in Nuuanu cemetery. "Jack" as he was familiarly called, was born in New York, but was a long time resident of San Francisco before his arrival here where he was an active member among those whose duties and bravery were used in the protection and care of life and property. The deceased was about forty years of age and many appreciative old time comrades were present at the last rites which took place in the Catholic Cathedral.

Slandrous Insinuations.

Every word that comes from Hawaii, except in official dispatches, is from annexationists, embittered by the failure of their plans and full of hate for the Democratic Administration. The insinuations contained in the dispatches printed continually against the administration and Mr. Blount are false, of course. They are part of the political game now being played by the Republicans in both the United States and Hawaii. It is impossible that the Royalists in Honolulu and the Englishman Davies, guardian of Princess Kaiulani, were informed of the intention to restore the Queen early in March, unless all the statements made by the President and Secretary of State were false and the published instructions given Mr. Blount intended merely as a blind to deceive the public while the commissioner, acting under secret instructions, plotted with the royalists. Who is there that will believe this? All of these gentlemen have bitter enemies, eager to believe evil of them, but we do not think there is a sane man, even among these enemies, who believes either of them capable of the sneaking, cowardly conduct charged upon them by insinuation in these despatches. Cowardice is not a characteristic of either of them. They have acquired most of their enemies by the boldness with which they have upheld them. It would be an act out of line with his whole career for Mr. Cleveland to send Mr. Blount to Hawaii ostensibly to make an impartial investigation but really to undermine the government to which he was accredited. It is against such conduct on the part of Minister Stevens that he protests. It would be equally uncharacteristic for Mr. Blount to accept such a mission.—Macon Ga-Telegraph.

How Hawaiian Scots Celebrated His Birthday.

The cosy room of the Scottish Thistle Club on Merchant street, was crowded to its utmost capacity last evening, the occasion being the celebration of the anniversary of the Scottish plowman-poet's birth. The committee and all concerned did their utmost to entertain their guests which was most thoroughly appreciated by those who were present, Mr. Daniel Logan of the Bulletin was the presiding chief and had as supporters chief and past chief Lindsay and Laing. The committee in charge consisted of Messrs. Eadie, Garvie, McDowall, McKay and Steele. Representatives of the Star, Advertiser, Bulletin and HOLOMUA were present. A detail of the events is unfortunately withheld by reason of an unexpected pi. It will appear to-morrow.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.]
EDITOR HOLOMUA:
I understand that one J. H. Maby former manager of the defunct exeresence on Kilauea, that once sailed under the alias of an Hotel, has put in an application in the English language as "she is writ" for the position of manager of the now splendid hostelry known as the Volcano House. We imagine that Maby expects to succeed the present extremely popular manager and run the Hotel on the scientific plan.—There is such a thing as counting your chickens before the eggs are large, and we imagine that this brilliant Captain of Hilo police, who travels on his shape and his "London metropolitan whistle" has done so in this instance.
Any person, be they black, white, or scientific cranks who have ever travelled to the Volcano knows mine host Lee so well that to impute charges such as these self named scientists, called Friedlander, have imputed to this popular boniface know them to be absolutely untrue. In ten years of experience Mr. Lee has met all sorts and conditions of men and gentlemen, but it was reserved for the end of last December for him to meet such objects in the guise of man as these two sprigs of Israelitish Fatherland. The letter in the Advertiser of the 9th inst., is a malicious falsehood evolved from the brains of men who were not clearly enough to escape the criticism of the other guests when they came in close contact with them. Cleanliness is next to Godliness and these men have neither.
ONE WHO KNOWS.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Montevideo, Jan. 15.—The garrison of Bage, which is being besieged by the insurgents, have become so seriously pinched for provisions that they have been consuming for the last few days horses, cats and other animals.
Rio de Janeiro, Jan 15.—Admiral de Gama says the policy of the insurgents is to hold out till help comes. They have not men enough to hold the main land. The insurgents, he says, recaptured the Government's magazine on Ilha da Governado recently and secured a large supply of ammunition.
Rio de Janeiro, Jan 16.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs, acting for President Peixoto, has authorized the representative of the United Press to send the following: "The siege of Bage by the insurgent forces has been released after a duration of eighteen days, the sorties of the Government troops, commanded by General Carlos Telles, having finally put the insurgents to flight. It was a complete rout for the insurgents, who abandoned their baggage and munitions of war."
San Francisco, 15th.—The Mid-Winter Fair was opened to-day. Good attendance, weather bad.
Visalia, Jan. 15.—Chris. Evans and his pal are surrounded in the fields near Kelsey station, on the Visalia and Goshen railroad, and were keeping up a running fight.

They Die Young.

So hints Anti-Tobacco in the Advertiser of the 25th inst. And we wish to verify the statement by the following clipping from the Washington Evening News. Salem, Mass., Dec. 23.—Daniel Haggerty died at his home on Boston street last evening at the age of nearly 104 years. He was born in Ireland in January, 1789. He has been in this country since 1848, and he had smoked for more than eighty years.
