Part-Time/Evening Program
The Part-Time/Evening program is tailored to meet the needs of students or family obligations that make it difficult to attend law school full-time. Monday through Thursday, typically between 5:30 and 9:00 pm. A few who maximize their credits each semester and/or take additional credits graduate in four years. Other students may prefer to proceed more slowly. Admissions criteria, and graduation process are the same as for the Full-Time Law Program.
International Programs

We maintain exchange programs with:

- Chinese University of Hong Kong
- National University of Singapore
- Monash University, Australia
- La Trobe University, Australia

Our joint degree program with the University of British Columbia Faculty of Law allows students to earn a Canadian law degree as well as an American JD in four years.

Students also participate in study abroad programs offered in universities throughout Europe and Asia.
