Evening Part-Time Program
The Evening Part-Time Program is tailored to meet the needs of students or family obligations that make it difficult to attend law school full time. It is Monday through Thursday, typically between 5:30 pm and 9:00 pm. Advantages: Students who maximize their credits each semester and/or take a full load to graduate in four years. Other students may prefer to proceed at a process, admissions criteria, and graduation process are the same as for International Programs

The Law School and University maintain exchange programs with:

- Chinese University of Hong Kong
- National University of Singapore
- Bucerius Law School, Germany
- La Trobe University, Australia

Our joint degree program with the University of British Columbia Faculty of Law allows students to earn a Canadian law degree as well as an American JD in four years.

Students also participate in study abroad programs offered in universities throughout Europe and Asia.

Those who have professional, financial, required courses are scheduled. In-class classes may also be held on Saturday. Additional credits during summers will be lower pace. The application for a full-time program.
