"We offer an excellent foundation in American law within a highly supportive environment. We also specialize in environmental law, indigenous rights, and the law of Asian nations. As the only ABA-accredited law school in the Asian and Pacific region, we are uniquely situated to celebrate our diversity and to enjoy and care for our incomparably beautiful natural surroundings."

- Avi Soifer, Dean & Professor

Our namesake - William S. Richardson - served as Chief Justice of the Hawai‘i Supreme Court from 1966-1982. In this role and in many other ways, "CJ" was instrumental in changing Hawai‘i. He led the fight to launch a law school anchored in concepts of opportunity, excellence, and diversity. We strive to realize his dream of justice for all, especially those in our community who most desperately need legal protection.

Evening Part-Time Program
The Evening Part-Time Program is tailored to meet the needs of students or family obligations that make it difficult to attend law school full time. Monday through Thursday, typically between 5:30 PM and 9:00 PM. Additional days: Students who maximize their credits each semester and/or take advantage of the flexible schedule are able to graduate in four years. Other students may prefer to proceed at a slower pace, and thus a process, admissions criteria, and graduation process are the same as for full-time students.
International Programs

The Law School and University maintain exchange programs with:

- Chinese University of Hong Kong
- National University of Singapore
- Bucerius Law School, Germany
- La Trobe University, Australia

Our joint degree program with the University of British Columbia Faculty of Law allows students to earn a Canadian law degree as well as an American JD in four years.

Students also participate in study abroad programs offered in universities throughout Europe and Asia.
