"We offer an excellent foundation in American law within a highly supportive environment. We also specialize in environmental law, indigenous rights, and the law of Asian nations. As the only ABA-accredited law school in the Asian and Pacific region, we are uniquely situated to celebrate our diversity and to enjoy and care for our incomparably beautiful natural surroundings."

Our namesake - William S. Richardson - served as Chief Justice of the Hawaii Supreme Court from 1966-1982. In this role and in many other ways, "CJ" was instrumental in changing Hawaii. He led the fight to launch a law school anchored in concepts of opportunity, excellence, and diversity. We strive to realize his dream of justice for all, especially those in our community who most desperately need legal protection.

Evening Part-Time Program
The Evening Part-Time Program is tailored to meet the needs of students or family obligations that make it infeasible to attend law school full time. Monday through Thursday, typically between 5:30 PM and 9:00 PM. Attend Saturdays. Students who maximize their credits each semester and/or take be able to graduate in four years. Other students may prefer to proceed at the usual process, admissions criteria, and graduation process are the same as for the International Programs

The Law School and University maintain exchange programs with:

- National University of Singapore
- Bucerius Law School, Germany

Students also participate in study abroad programs offered in universities throughout Europe and Asia.

Advanced JD Program

The Advanced JD program may allow foreign lawyers to earn their JD in as little as two years. AJD graduates meet the educational requirements to take the bar examination in all U.S. jurisdictions.
