The Daily Bulletin.

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party. But Established for the Benefit of All. MONDAY, APRIL 9, 1894.

Tax-paying and representation having been divorced, Ministers non-resident at their posts and military chiefs absent from their command have a fine time of it.

The Attorney-general wants a supplementary vote for his special police (Note—"special" read "alien"). He may yet want another extra for payment of damages inflicted by alien policemen on inoffensive tourists.

The Attorney-General wants $721,212 of non-represented taxpayers' money for police of Oahu and incidentals, but he has forgotten to put at the end of his "act to appropriate" ("convey the use it calls"), as he did to his "Dangerous Persons Act," the clause, "No provision of the constitution shall be held to invalidate any of the provisions of this act."

One who was on the car that struck a Chinaman writes to say that the driver was not to blame. It was dark and as soon as he saw the man on the track he put on the brakes. The writer of the note does not think it fair for the Advertiser to represent the tramcars as dangerous on such evidence. That is not so bad, however, as the other evidence offered by that paper—the knocking down of a man by another vehicle—to show that the tramcars are dangerous.

NOT THE FIRST.

The Advertiser remarks that the mass meeting called for this evening "will be the first open political gathering of Hawaiians since Monday, the 16th of January, 1893." That journal is, as usual, mistaken. On the evening of March 25, 1893, within two months of the revolution, a monster mass meeting of Hawaiians and foreigners assembled at Emma Square, under the auspices of the Hawaiian Civil Rights League, euphemistically dubbed by the Advertiser, the "Black Flag League" and, by resolution, protested against the action of the P. G. Commissioners to the United States Government in advocating a system of government for Hawaii in which Hawaiians, or any class previously enjoying the voting privilege, should be excluded from the franchise; and protested against the imposition upon Hawaii, by the United States, of any form of government except a "government of the people, by the people, and for the people." That was the largest meeting ever held in Honolulu, and it, too, was opposed by certain of the officers of the Hui Aloha Aina, who now oppose the meeting called for this evening. Mark the coincidence.

REGISTRY REFLECTIONS.

This is constitutional government! First, the thirteen elected themselves, then they elected the electors, and these elect the eighteen.

This is a constitutional convention! Eighteen delegates elected by voters who have taken an oath of allegiance to the nineteen of the P. G.

Register, register! No compulsion—only you must, or lose your livelihood.

The P. C. A. is trying to drum up voters, but there are no free voters in the country. The nation is disfranchised, and an oath of allegiance to the P. G. (present government) made the sole qualification of re-enfranchisement.

In monarchical England avowed republicans not only vote at the polls but sit in the House of Commons. In republican France avowed royalists not only vote at the polls but speak in the Chamber of Deputies and in the Senate.

In France it is "no election" unless one-fourth of the electors cast their votes. The principle of election is "universal suffrage."

The Attorney-General has presumed to attempt to define and interpret the law, thereby relieving the courts of their principal function. Perhaps it was a sense of gratitude for this relief that prompted the Chief Justice to write a letter in the Kuokoa, urging the Hawaiians to exercise their political rights. It is to be hoped that the political impartiality of the C. J. has urged him to point out to the Hawaiians that an oath of allegiance to the P. G. is the only means of gaining permission to exercise their political rights.

It is not usual for Attorneys General to publish by newspaper an interpretation of the law, or for Chief Justices to appear as political party advisers. Indeed such action by such officials would in some countries occasion a vacancy in the seat of the Attorney-General in the Cabinet and another in that of the C. J. on the bench.

Did not a certain Mrs. Bond once call to the ducks in her pond: "Dilly, dilly, dilly, come out and—Register."

The eighteen elected members must take an oath of allegiance to the nineteen non-elected.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Sundry Decisions C. A. Brown Sued on a Trust—The Banning Case.

Judge Whiting has rendered a decision on the contested will of C. Manalo, admitting it to probate and appointing J. Alfred Magoon as administrator under $1500 a bond. Magoon for proponent; C. W. Ashford for Elizabeth Harvey, contestant.

Judge Whiting has filed a decision, allowing T. W. Rawlins ten days in which to amend his complaint against the Honolulu Soap Works Co. C. Brown and W. A. Kinney for plaintiff; A. S. Hartwell and F. M. Hatch for defendant.

The same judge decides for the plaintiff in the assumpsit suit of J. L. Dowsett vs. Flora Jones and her husband P. Jones, awarding $200 principal and interest of $108.40—total $308.40. Magoon for plaintiff; Hartwell for defendant.

Ignacio de Fraga has obtained judgment against the Portuguese Mutual Benefit Society, by a decision of Judge Whiting, for the amount of benefits claimed, $170, with interest from Nov. 9, 1893, of $5.55. Hartwell and Perry for plaintiff; Neumann for defendant.

Z. S. Spalding and C. V. Dudoit, by their attorney, F. M. Hatch, have filed an answer to the libel of the Sun and Alliance insurance companies against the steamer Waimanalo. It renounces the assertions of Spalding's libel against the companies, and further denies all the allegations about the willful wrecking and abandoning of the vessel.

Judge Cooper has granted temporary letters of administration to Mrs. F. S. Pratt, under bond of $500, in the matter of her late husband's estate. W. Foster for petitioner; W. R. Castle for Mrs. Theresa Cartwright.

H. Waterhouse and A. S. Hartwell, trustees under the will of John H. Wood, and Florence Jones and Pierre Jones, her husband, have brought a bill in equity to construe will and to authorize trustees to pay income, against Stella M. Dixon and Albert F. Dixon, her husband, and John A. W. Dixon, their minor child, and George Douglas Jones, Nalana-lua M. Jones and Maude Jones, minor children of plaintiffs, Florence Jones and Pierre Jones. Judge Cooper appoints W. A. Kinney as guardian ad litem of the minor defendants and orders that process issue. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Dixon are daughters of the testator, to whom one-third each of the income is devised, the other one-third being ordered interested for the testator's grandchildren. One-third now amounts to $726.33, and the object of the bill is to get authority, as it is claimed the will contains, to the trustees to pay the proportion of the income of the remaining one-third belonging to the Jones children, for helping to maintain and educate them. Mrs. Jones to be constituted their guardian to sign receipts.

The Olowalu Sugar Co. has taken proceedings to eject S. Kaalawa from a piece of crown lands, claiming $1000 damages from defendant for wrongfully occupying the land. The Banning estate appeal has been before the Supreme Court for several days—Chief Justice Judd, First Associate Justice Bickerton and Mr. Paul Neumann present, the latter in place of Second Associate Justice Frear, disqualified from having been of counsel. Henry Smith has appraised the land belonging to the estate of A. A. Corniot on King street at $4500. As master in chancery the same gentleman has reported the value of the estate outside of this land as $16,087.39, which would make the total $20,587.39. He submits questions as to the liability of certain bequests to the new legacy taxation, and as to the commissions to be due to the executor.

Judge Whiting has approved the accounts of Nicholas Peterson as guardian of the estate of Mary P. Apou. They show $35.50 due to the guardian.

In the matter of the bankruptcy of S. Ehrlich, before Judge Whiting this morning, 15 creditors proving claims amounting to $12,534.72, and J. F. Hackfeld was elected assignee under $20000 bonds.

The final account of E. F. Dillingham, administrator of the estate of A. L. Smith, has been referred to C. F. Peterson, master, for examination.

A bill in equity has been brought, by Irene H. Brown, wife of C. A. Brown, joined by her two minor children and A. F. Judd, guardian ad litem, against C. A. Brown, to obtain a construction of the will of the late John H. father of the plaintiff. The bill alleges a trust in favor of the two minors, subject to the life interest of Mrs. Brown, and charges waste and other ill-usage of the property against defendant Brown. Carter & Carter and W. A. Kinney for plaintiff.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd

Saturday, April 7, 1894.

Did you ever notice how an ant combines business with pleasure when out on a promenade, how he will investigate when he runs up against a bread crumb and then go back and tell a large circle of acquaintances who soon become a nuisance. It is to obviate this that we sell the new fangled Bread and Cake Knives. You may cut warm or cold bread, or cake with icing on it and not make a crumb. The set of three—a parer, cake cutter and pie cutter—goes to you for a dollar, and when you've used them once you will say you have a three dollar value.

The latest coast news tells us that all of the treaties under the McKinley bill are repealed under the new Tariff bill. This is going to bring anguish to the breasts of some people, but Hawaii is all right. McKinley did not give us a treaty but he wrestled hard to give us "Ballyhooly." So far as treaty relations with the United States are concerned the sun seems to be shining on the sugar industry of Hawaii; and so long as the sun shines to the extent of a cent and a quarter on sugar every one will be prosperous and happy. Haviland ware takes a step or two forward in this community when its quality is compared with other decorated china. We have sold this crockery ever since we have been in business and it is now the favorite ware here. Our method of selling it makes it popular because we do not insist upon people buying a full set. We sell, for instance, a half dozen cups and saucers as a starter. If the buyer's friends comment on their beauty and quality it is quite likely the lady of the house will want some plates to add to it. With each piece there will be a growing desire for more until it culminates in the necessary dishes for soup, fish, roasts, vegetables, salads, etc. It is quite the proper thing for people to have different decorations for each course; some people may have a complete set but would like a change for soup or fish. We can make up such a set at a price that will surprise you.

The Fischer Steel Range is by far the best range manufactured; it will heat up quicker and burn less fuel. The first invoice of these ranges that we received were made of material just one half the thickness of the present lot and they cost us more money. While those we now offer you are superior in every respect, we sell them for ten dollars less money. We've sold these ranges to people who have used iron stoves all their lives and who do not hesitate to say that the "Fischer" burns one-third less fuel than any other stove the same size. This means that you will save the extra cost of a steel range in a very short time.

For people who want a cheaper article we have several makes of iron stoves which we can recommend. We make a leader of the "Pansy" at $15, because we believe it to be the best. These iron stoves burn coal or wood and are wonderfully good bakers.

The dry season is coming on and the "25th annual kick of the Water Consumers Protective Alliance" will soon take place. It is not that there is a scarcity of water on the Islands but because the people do not search for it. We have saved the ranch man, the plantation manager and the vegetable grower large sums of money by accepting our advice and erecting Aermotors. Our 8-foot wheel will do the same work that a 10-foot wooden wheel will perform, and an 8-foot mill is all that is required for stock or irrigation purposes unless large quantities of water are required. The Aermotor has many advantages over wooden mills, and one of them is the fact that no matter how violent the storm the mill will close up automatically.

Secured His Services.

Mr. V. G. Potter, crayon and water-color artist, who has been visiting the islands for his health, has made an engagement with Mr. J. J. Williams. Mr. Potter's work while in San Francisco was second to none. Samples will be on exhibition at our studio, 102 Fort street.

National Cane Shredder

PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE BEEN APPOINTED SOLE AGENTS FOR these SHREDDERS and are now prepared to receive orders.

The great advantages to be derived from the use of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER are thoroughly established and acknowledged by Planters generally.

The large number of Planters using them in the United States, Cuba, Argentine Republic, Peru, Australia and elsewhere, bear witness to the above claim.

The use of the SHREDDER very largely augments the quantity of cane the mill can grind (25 to 30%), also the extraction of juice (5 to 12%).

It is a great safeguard, making known at once the presence of any pieces of iron, stakes, iron cans, or anything which would be liable to damage the mill, and allowing ample time to remove same before damaging the mill.

The SHREDDER is very strongly made, and from the manner of its operation it cuts or tears these pieces of wood or iron without often breaking the SHREDDER; and if anything breaks, it is simply some of the knives or cutters, which can be quickly and economically replaced. The SHREDDER, as its name indicates, tears the cane into shreds of varying lengths, perfectly opening it and allowing the mill to thoroughly press out the juices without requiring the immense extra power necessary to grind or crush the whole cane. The SHREDDER spreads the shredded cane uniformly and evenly to the mill rolls, and does away with the necessity of spreading the bagasse by hand between the mills, where regrinding is in use. No greater amount of boiler capacity is required to operate the SHREDDER than that which was sufficient for the mill, for the above reasons. We furnish full working drawings for the installation of our SHREDDERS, enabling any competent engineer to successfully install and start them.

In ordering SHREDDERS from us, please send small sketch, showing the diameter and width of the mill rolls, with which SHREDDER is to be connected, also the side (either right or left hand as you face P. delivery side of the mill), upon which the mill engine is located, also the height from floor line to center of front mill roll shaft, and distance between this shaft to front end of bed plate. These SHREDDERS are now being used by the Hilo Sugar Co. and Haver Mill, Kohala, where they are giving great satisfaction.

Prices and further particulars may be had by applying to

After the concert many of the visitors were privileged to inspect a partly made model map of the college grounds. Its artificers are the Brothers themselves, who thus have been spending their "leisure" time. The work is going to be one of the finest compositions, mechanically and artistically, ever produced on the islands. It is constructed on a board six and a half feet square. Every building is put in—not in rude, solid blocks, but in delicately wrought walls, roofs, verandas, etc., neatly joined together,—and all the trees are going to be there, the stately palms being already in place. The various playgrounds are laid down, also the pet alligator's pond, drives, walks, etc. Everything is made to scale, so that the result will be a reproduction of every external feature of the institution in miniature. Speaking of the alligator—it arrived from Florida in a cigar box a few years ago, and is now five and a half feet in length.

Senator Steve White's Speech.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Great minds do not always run in the same channel; for instance, there is a difference of opinion between Senator White of California and Prof. Alexander of Honolulu on the Hawaiian question. The Professor thinks his party has clear sailing and that annexation is sure. But the Senator apparently thinks differently. Inclosed is Senator White's speech from the S. F. Examiner of February 22 last. We will all admit that the Professor is the best posted on kanaka history, but when it comes to American politics he is not in it with the Senator. The Hon. S. M. White is an able man, and he should be noted for at least one thing: he is the first man whose brains instead of his wealth secured him a seat in the U. S. Senate for California for a long time. Neither Senator Stanford nor Senator Hearst on the Democratic side would have had their seats in the U. S. Senate if they had been as poor as Steve White is. You humble servant was in Sacramento, Cal., U. S. A., that land of pure politics, when Senator Stanford was elected, so he knows what he is talking about. Stick to kanaka history, Professor, and let politics alone, is the advice of ANOTHER TOURIST. Honolulu, April 5, 1894.

P. S.—If you can spare the space please give a few extracts from the speech for the benefit of the elect.—A. T.

The following are extracts from the telegraphed report of the Examiner's correspondent:

Senator White delivered a nearly three-hour speech on Hawaii in the Senate. The California Democratic representative in the upper branch of Congress carried a good many people in the course of his lengthy speech, because of the fact that he supported the present Administration's course almost entirely in its dealings with Hawaii.

The Californian was in excellent voice and was given more than ordinary attention during the delivery of his oration.

It can be stated that White's speech was a very strong one. He spoke as a senator to present in support of the position he took, and his speech was, if not satisfactory to everybody, interesting because of the new phase he brought out in connection with his arguments.

Following is the substance of the Senator's argument:

The efforts of Cleveland to restore the Queen were in the nature of a protest against the previous illegal acts of the representative of our Government. He sought to undo as far as possible the improper transactions of our diplomatic agent. He repudiated and condemned that agent's conduct. He adopted the most positive method in carrying out this laudable purpose. After exhausting his powers in endeavoring to right the wrong he commended the whole subject to Congress.

As to the recognition which the Dole Government had received from President Harrison, White contended that it was the duty of President Cleveland under the suspicious circumstances surrounding the case to investigate and ascertain whether any Government had in fact been established by the people of the islands.

I am surprised that any Senator should assert that it is a crime to take down our flag when it is placed in a position unfitted for its influence. The flag typifies the power of the Republic. It heads onward a movement of rectitude. Its foes are wrong and dishonest. * * * Our banner was not designed to wave over alien lands or over alien people. It was intended to float over America's battles, over America's manhood. * * * Yes, about the man who seeks to tear down the flag when it waves where honor calls, but remit to condign punishment the wretch who makes patriotism a trade and uses the stars and stripes for ulterior ends, shields fraud and protects crime. Our flag is raised for justice. It must be taken down when it cannot float without injustice. Its mission is in the cause of integrity. It is desecrated when otherwise devoted. It must not assist in the establishment of a Government against the popular will, even though we believe that the change will bring improvement. We must leave to the erosive processes of time and civilization the obliteration of inferior races and the overthrow of corrupted dynasties. Not by the sword of this republic or before her victorious banner shall one be annihilated or the other subverted.

The Provisional Government does not represent the people. In proof of this assertion the speech delivered by Stevens in Boston was quoted, in which that gentleman said that it would not do to submit the question of annexation to the Hawaiian people, because they would be corrupted, and he also referred to the circumstance that no one pretended that Dole would be sustained as a result of a popular vote.

He affirmed that it was against the interests of the United States to acquire the islands. * * * He took up the suggestion of Senator Sherman that the islands should be annexed to California. He much preferred, he said, that annexation should be made to Ohio. He respectfully declined to admit that it would be a good thing for California to bring within her jurisdiction 90,000 people of whom no more than 5 percent have the slightest fitness for self-government. He did not wish any such population as Stevens declared the islands to possess to be inflicted upon the Golden State.

Senator White took up the boasting of Republican Senators that Cleveland's policy had destroyed his party, saying: Do not flatter yourselves that any process of disintegration is working here or that I and my colleagues contemplate suicide. We are and will be ready for you. You may have observed that we sustained no loss upon the Election Repeal matter. Our majority was quite comfortable. We are prepared to stand by the Democratic Administration. We may criticize a little, but do not be misled by this, for a small-sized family row does not mean absolute divorce. We have followed Cleveland through three campaigns. We are not prepared to recant or retrograde. * * * The President is not perfect; to assert that he was so constituted would be to deny his humanity. We do not claim as much for him in that respect as our modest opponents daily claim for themselves. Cleveland has for many years, notwithstanding the doubts of individuals and slanders of political enemies, had the respect and admiration of the best minds of his country to a greater extent than any other man.

At the close of the day's session White, in reply to Teller, said in effect that the natives of the islands do not depend on the justice or equitable character of the Queen's Government. In this country we must be guided by the will of the people of the Hawaiian Islands. * * * We separated ourselves from England upon the theory that the will of our people must control, and we can never feel ourselves justified in the recognition of the Provisional Government until Stevens and Dole withdraw their declarations to the effect that the natives of the islands, people who are to the manner born, do not want either annexation or the destruction of that system which prevailed before Stevens interpolated his influence. Under the prevailing circumstances it will not be advisable to make any further efforts towards the restoration of the Queen. * * * In any event we can afford to accept the prevailing conditions. Annexation is a question for the future. It is certain that no person interested in California affairs will ever consent to any treaty which can by any possibility result in the invasion of Mongolian interests or the contribution to California Statehood of an element, Hawaiian or Mongolian, which may prove inimical to the welfare of our people. In considering the condition of the population on the Hawaiian Islands we must not forget not only the presence of Japanese and Chinese but also the fact that nearly all native Hawaiians are unfit for self-government, and that, in addition to this, its Portuguese are really natives of the Azores, of more than one-half negro blood, and wholly disqualified to comprehend American institutions.

Descent of a Judge.
EDITOR BULLETIN:—The idea of His High Honor Judge descending from the heights of the Supreme Bench, to issue a penny proclamation of political lying addressed to the voters is very characteristic of the times and of the straits in which the P. G. find themselves. But, outside of this strange prostitution of judicial position to the political intrigues, Mr. Judge's move is perfectly ridiculous, for every one knows what very little influence he has amongst the natives. The Judge's family has been absolutely hated by the Hawaiians, and his Honor knows personally that if, at any time, the natives had had their own way, he would have been the first to be kicked out of office. But it is not yet too late, and for the present his Honor's political advice will certainly make the natives still more certain to register and vote, on this principle: "Beware of any advice given by your enemies."—KNOWLEDGE.

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co.

Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their "EAGLE" Brand Beer.

Are Receiving New Invoices of ST. LOUIS, MO., 28, 1893.

Messrs. MACFARLANE & CO., Ltd., Honolulu, H. I.

Dear Sirs:—We have inclosed you a copy of the Times containing the great victory won by the ANHEUSER-BUSCH ASSOCIATION with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

(Signed) ANHEUSER-BUSCH BREWING ASSOCIATION.

(Special Despatch to Globe-Democrat.)

World's Fair, Chicago, Ill., Oct. 30.—No award has ever been made so gratifying to St. Louis people and so justly merited as the one given today by the Columbian jury of the World's Fair, consisting of eminent and chemists of the highest rank, to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association. By means of unrivalled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, excluding corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorites with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which had to be considered by the Columbian jury. The high character of the award given today by the jurors will be best understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many points for the various essential qualities of good beer, combine among the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a fac-simile of the Label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In ordering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.
