THE TREASON CASES.

Preliminary Examination Before Judge Dole.

MONDAY, JUNE 6.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Session opened at 1:30 o'clock.

Geo. MARKHAM, witness, resumed
—Last conversation with S. Nowlein was at Ashford's house; after I had expressed my views I took the oath:
"I solemnly swear, in the presence of the Almighty God, that I will not reveal the secrets of the Hawaiian Patriotic Association. I solemnly swear to uphold the government of the people, lawfully and legally. The penalty to traitors shall be death.
So help me, God!" Ashford gave explanation that those who were not willing to take the oath can retire; if there was any conflict during the taking of the oath, to ask; and ask for explanations; everyone joined willingly and willfully; Ashford said the methods were to be accomplished through the Legislature, and was translated by Wilcox.

Cross-examination—Joined organization beginning of April; took oath at every meeting; oath was administered verbally, hands on the Bible, holding each other and hands up; oath administered by Ashford, interpreted by Wilcox, at every meeting; the prime and main object is not to allow the Queen to promulgate the new constitution; think the Queen did harbor the idea of a new constitution and the Hoff and I opposed it; the way to stop it was to go everywhere to tell every native to oppose it, as it was a revolutionary measure; I purchased only two rifles from Mr. Hingley during March and April for myself; purchased one from Mr. Walker for the purpose of self-defense; the other two were the same pattern; went with a native to S. Lederer's to negotiate for the purchase of a rifle; went and examined it with a native; have not the three rifles, but have one, having sold two; never went to Levey's, auctioneer, to the best of my recollection; Association was opposed to a new constitution illegally; nothing was said at any of the meetings with regard to obtaining a new constitution; main object not to get a new constitution; the objects were to promote equal rights for the Kingdom of Hawaii through the Legislature and abolition of the property qualification; these were the two main objects and were discussed before every oath was taken; was a member of the central committee; object of the committee was to divide up in squads of the executive committee; nine members were in the executive; nine squads or platoons in the committee of nine members; when new members were admitted they were assigned to squads; a squad depended on how many men were admitted; there were 18 men in my squad; the members of the other squads all depended on how members were admitted in the district; the purpose of these squads was if the Queen should promulgate a new constitution, to tell everybody to resist it; was a member of the central committee of the Liberal party, so was Wilcox; these other defendants were not; never made any speeches politically; know Bipikane, member of the party; the patriotic league is not a secret but; Bipikane, Wilcox, Ashford, members of the central committee, no officers in the organization; the patriotic league is no way affiliated with the Liberal party; Wilcox discussed the questions in which he mentioned the Queen's name; Wilcox said that the Queen wanted him (Wilcox) to support her in promulgating a new constitution, because Wilcox was against revolutionary measures, as he has left revolutionary ideas, and has been converted no doubt.

Hartwell objected to a question, and asked if the prosecution were going into the present, past and future of Wilcox.

Creighton said the object of his questions was to prove that the witness was deliberately lying.

Witness—Captain S. Nowlein spoke to me about the Queen's idea of promulgating a new constitution; was in last of March outside the Eiele office in the morning; spoke to me only once; am uncertain but think Wilcox was present; somebody else told me; not exactly as Sam told me; these parties were common soldiers of the Household Guards; they told me the Queen wished to promulgate a new constitution; Kanui also told me; he told me that the Queen and a few Hawaiians were going to establish a daily newspaper, and asked me to take a few shares; the policy was to issue daily, a new constitution; the Queen told them that she was going to take $1500 worth of

THE TREASON CASES.

TUESDAY, JUNE 7.

The Court opened at 10:08. There was a delay of several minutes more, while Mr. Hartwell consulted with the defendant Ashford.

Mr. Hartwell at 10:23 addressed the Court, saying the defense would content itself with putting on the principal defendants.

V. V. ASHFORD, sworn—Neither the subject of an attack on the Palace nor of sending for pistols, mentioned by Nawaakoa, was ever referred to at the meetings described by him; he (Nawaakoa) simply lied from beginning to end on those points; never anything of the sort said about my wanting a definite understanding about time of making an attack before my leaving for Hilo; in my presence Wilcox never used such words as that it was necessary to dethrone the Queen, nor in the English language and I don't understand the native.

Cross-examined by Mr. Creighton—Yes, there was a league in existence. Q.—How long has it been in existence?

A.—As it has been described—Mr. Davidson objects that the cross-examination should be confined to matters brought out in the direct examination.

Mr. Hartwell remarks that he had explicitly stated he would only examine this witness on the evidence of Nawaakoa as to language used by Mr. Ashford and Mr. Wilcox, and he contended the cross-examination should not go any further than the direct. If the prosecution goes further into the League's history, he should not restrict himself to the line laid down.

Mr. Creighton replied that as witness had included all meetings in his testimony, he had a right to go into the whole history.

The Court ruled that the cross-examination should be restricted to the particular line of the direct examination.

Witness—I never at any meeting or anywhere else used the language attributed to me by Nawaakoa; I don't know how many meetings were held; more than one; don't know what you mean by "quite a number;" don't know if there were more than ten.

Q.—Was it a secret organization? A.—I would like the ruling of the Court whether I answer that.

The Court rules out the question, on the ground that the cross-examination cannot go beyond the direct.

Was Nawaakoa present at these meetings? A.—Specify the meetings and I will tell you, if I was present; I said I never used that language, and I say so again; Nawaakoa was present at some of the meetings; I might locate the date of meetings if I had access to certain other data; there was what we called an executive committee and sometimes we met together; I was a member of the executive committee; you can call them what you like, but there were meetings open to everybody; if you mean would you be kicked out if you came, I would say you are too much of a gentleman to come to a man's house without being asked.

Q.—What was the topic of conversation at those meetings if not as Nawaakoa testified? Mr. Hartwell objects.

The Court, after a parley with Mr. Creighton, allows the question. Witness—There was no particular catechism gone through; (at suggestion of the Court, counsel asks the same question as to the meeting of the 18th of May) as I said before, without reference to other dates; I cannot locate any particular meeting; do not believe there was a meeting on a Monday; cannot answer a question with an "if" in it; I do know whether there was a meeting at Bipi-kane's on Sunday evening, April 24; there was no meeting that date; know because it was the Sunday before the Tuesday I left for Hilo; am absolutely certain I was at no meeting that night.

Mr. Creighton remarks he has no more questions, as he is confined to general denials.

Mr. Hartwell asks witness to give additional reasons for his knowledge of there being no meeting attended by him April 24. Witness describes his movements that evening in detail, showing he was visiting at a house on Keeaumoku street till 10 or a quarter before or past.

To the Court—My impression is that there were no Monday night meetings previous to my going to Hilo.

ROBERT W. WILCOX, sworn—Heard testimony of Nawaakoa, in which he testified that I used the words "Ka pae i ka Moiwahine" (set aside the Queen); I never used those words; nor the words "Kapae i ka Moiwahine me ka kaikaika" (set aside the Queen with force); that was a falsehood, I never used those words; never used language about obtaining equal rights by force; the way I said was to get equal rights through the Legislature, as I am a member of it; never used words at any of those meetings about using force against the Queen; never suggested removing the Queen.

Cross-examined by Mr. Creighton—Never, at any of these meetings; I am not here for any other meetings. Mr. Creighton—You must answer my question.

Mr. Hartwell objects under the previous ruling, and the Court sustains the objection.

Witness—I mean at these meetings before the Court, you ought to know as you are Deputy Attorney-General; don't mean the meetings at the old Armory; don't know how many meetings of the Patriotic Association were held; was present at a meeting in Printer's lane; it was held at a native's house next to Bush's; know Chas. Warren and Kaahu, they were present, they were brought there by somebody, and another soldier was there.

Re-direct, by Mr. Davidson—Recollect what witnesses said about meeting in Printer's lane; it was a falsehood that I said the intention was to establish a republic; I say frankly I never said such a thing; I asked the men what they wanted and they said they wanted to join the hui, and I told them the object was to get equal rights in the Legislature and I swore them in.

Cross-examined by Mr. Creighton—Yes, there was an oath in this organization; form of oath has already been stated in substance here; I administered the oath at other meetings of the association (repeats oath in Hawaiian); there was a clause added, that whoever turned traitor should be punished with death, they might as well say they would be hung up to the moon; meeting was not very secret, if his excellency the Deputy Attorney-General came there he would be sworn in just like a soldier.

To the Court—Witness denies having said what witnesses testified about no hope of getting rights from the Legislature, about force of arms, getting arms and ammunition, etc.; at general meetings there was only explanation about equal rights, etc.; if I went to tell about what was said in executive council it would take all day, it would complicate the Queen.

REBUTTAL.

J. A. THOMPSON, sworn.—Am clerk to the Police Court; know Puhili; took part in examinations in treason cases; acted as interpreter; Puhili made statement in my presence; it was on Sunday, May 26th, after defendants were arrested; the Marshal, Kenyon and Nahoolewa were present; remember Puhili said something about guns, that he was at one of the meetings of the Patriotic Association, that object of meetings was equal rights, that he was present at meeting at Printer's lane, and object was to be gained by use of arms; he was not intimidated by anybody to my knowledge; he was again examined that day, and stated he was at two meetings at Bipi-kane's.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hartwell—He appeared to have been drinking a little; (to the Court) first examination was a short one; he did not appear much intoxicated; said he was a member of the hui and would tell the truth.

SAM'L NOWLIN, sworn.—Am Captain of the Queen's Guards; know Geo. Markham; in front of the Elele office, in the month of March, I did not tell Geo. Markham that I was the Queen's intention to promulgate a new Constitution, to be backed up by force of arms of the Guards and the Police; never told him so at any time; (to the Court) never told him anything of the kind.

Recess from 12 to 1:30.

A Washington man has a bright youngster who succeeded recently in getting even with his father in a very telling, though unconscious manner. His father was reproving the little fellow's table manners. "Don't do that," said he, "or we'll have to call you a little pig." The warning seemed to be lost, for the fault was repeated. "Do you know what a pig is?" was the inquiry, put in a solemn manner. "Yes, sir," "What is it?" "A pig is a hog's little boy." The lesson in etiquette was suspended.—Washington Star.

INSURE IN THE Equitable Life Assurance

Society of the United States.

An Eminently Conservative and Safe Company.

FINANCIAL STRENGTH.

The consideration of first importance in judging of the condition of any financial institution (and notably of a life assurance company, the majority of whose contracts extend over long periods of years) is its surplus strength. The Equitable has, over and above all liabilities, a larger surplus than any other assurance company.

Assets, Dec. 31, 1891,	$136,198,518.38
LIABILITIES, including the Reserve on all existing Policies, (4 per cent. Standard) and Special Reserve (toward the establishment of a 3 1/2 per cent. valuation) of $1,500,000	109,905,537.82
Surplus,	$ 26,292,980.56

This Surplus remains after making provision for every obligation, on a rigid calculation of Liabilities based on the standard prescribed by the Insurance Law of the State of New York, which assumes that Assets will be invested so as to realize interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. In addition to this, in a spirit of conservatism, the Directors of the Society, on the recommendation of its Finance Committee, have set aside a Special Additional Reserve, looking towards even a more stringent and conservative future standard of valuation than the law now prescribes.

shares in the newspaper; don't know whether she did or not; that was the only way to get the people to back the Queen; have read the paper, and the policy has been followed, the paper is "Ka Leilani o Hawaii;" the paper is not opposed to this agitation for a new constitution; no one else has told me about obtaining a new constitution with force; we were to obtain equal rights by enacting laws in the Legislature; the franchise to abolish the property qualification was pretty generally discussed by Wilcox in the last campaign and prior to it; this patriotic league was not a secret league; the oath did not contain a phrase with regard to assisting brothers and comrades; a secret organization is where members are asked to join, that is if you had a password; don't take any stock in the oath I took in the league meetings; took it about ten or fifteen times; the number of times did not wear out its solemnity; the oath in 1889 was more binding; am thirty.

The Court—Do you remember the first meetings at Ashford's house?

Witness—It was on a Sunday evening; the next meeting I attended was within a week; never attended meetings in Printer's lane.

The Court—What is the reason of the organization keeping their meetings secret?

Witness—So that the Queen's party would remain in ignorance of its existence.

PULLI, sworn.—Was arrested at Kihale two weeks ago; no warrant was presented to me; saw a man with spectacles and Marshal; wanted me to be witness for the Crown; stated what I knew; told them I went twice, once at Bipikane's, second one at Theresa's; asked Wilcox and he told me object was a hui aloha aina, also to uphold the throne; asked me if there were any guns spoken of in the meetings and told the Marshal no; the following Wednesday I was called again to attend the Police Station; I repeated my answers as at a previous meeting and when it came to guns, I again denied; the man with the spectacles had prepared a document in which he (witness) was made to say something about guns, and we had quite an argument and I said "I swear before God Almighty I never said that;" owing to these people insisting upon the gun statement I finally gave in; Rosa told me to go and state the truth, and if you state a falsehood in Court you will be liable to arrest, and the two penalties would be being shot or hung; on Thursday I was questioned again, and the penalties shooting and hanging were repeated by Rosa; on Saturday the same performance was gone over again, and was told for myself if I did not tell the truth I'd be shot or hung; had taken something before I went to be interviewed at the Police Station; at the first meeting I attended nothing was said against the Queen.

Cross-examined—Never heard anything about a new Constitution; Olepau, Bipikane, Kaohiwaena, Lane, Nawaakoa, were at the meeting; I took the oath; was at a meeting at Theresa's, near Bush's place; Warren, Kaahu, E. Boyd, Wilcox were present; did not hear anything said about a new Constitution, nor about equal rights; the statement about arms was not made by me; on Wednesday I was requested to come again; my statement was read by Rosa; when I came on Sunday I made a statement, and on Wednesday I was asked to identify what I had said and I objected to the gun clause; don't know whether others told the truth, but what I know is the veracity of my own statements; never made this statement "Wilcox said if we did not get the new Constitution otherwise, we would get it by force of arms;" that was their own talk; heard Rosa read that statement; would have brought that statement if Rosa hadn't said some other things to me; Rosa intimidated me on Wednesday, saying that if I didn't do the right thing I would be tried for perjury and hung or shot; I came here as a witness in this case and not in my own affairs or previous cases; I have been convicted of drunkenness, bigamy, furious and heedless driving, also grand larceny while a member of the Household Guards, but have been pardoned since and am eligible to vote; made two statements at two examinations on the first Sunday.

To the Court—Meeting at Bipikane's and Printer's lane nothing was said about promulgating a new Constitution; was not familiar with the object of the meetings except having seen some Government officials there, and I joined to uphold the Constitution; did not wish to oppose anything the Queen might do.

BALOKA, sworn.—Was at a meeting at Ashford's and Bipikane's; don't remember date of attending; swore on a Bible; the object is love of throne, love of country and people; don't know that Wilcox was in the league; Wilcox said one object was to get a new Constitution equal to both rich and poor; if handed to him Wilcox would submit it to the Legislature; don't know anything about meetings.

Cross-examined—Went out walking on a Saturday night and heard some people talking about an equal rights meeting; Lot Lane acquainted me with the fact, but was not asked to go; was a cantonier; Lot Lane was my luna; one of the main objects was to get a new Constitution; never heard Wilcox express anything that if the Legislature would not give them the Constitution what he would do afterwards.

MANUEL ESPINDA.—Was only at one meeting in April I think, at Bipikane's; V. V. Ashford was there, also Wilcox; don't know what Ash-ford said; never heard anything said about the Queen or guns; all that I remember said was love of nation.

Cross-examined—Sometimes work for the Union Feed Co.; saw lots of people going to Bipikane's, so I went there; nobody told me to go there; was at home when I saw the people in a body of five or six on their way to Bipikane's, on School street; questioned them where they were going and was told they were going to a meeting; followed after; took the oath from Wilcox; don't know what the nature of the oath was; don't know whether there was a penalty in the oath; did not hear the object of the meeting; don't understand whether I said yes or no, or nodded my head, after the oath was administered to me at the meeting; nothing was said about the Queen; don't understand how long I was there; (to the Court) put up my hands only in imitation of the others, and leaning against the wall.

Mr. Creighton challenged Mr. Hartwell as to the statement by him that witnesses have been schooled for the past two weeks, declaring that it was untrue.

On the witness being asked he answered that he had not had any conference with the authorities while in prison.

Court adjourns at 4 p. m. till 10 a. m. Tuesday.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. Fifty cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents.

When in need of SOAP you will be better suited every way by going to a store that keeps a large assortment of the article required. We believe it may interest you to know that this store is that place. This week we call your attention to a new soap in this market. As the manufacturers have not been in business for centuries they are willing to part with their products for less money than old-fashioned soaps, and you receive the benefit. Jas. S. Kirk & Co. are striving to make as good an article as the other soap makers and their Shandon Bells soap is equal to the best. These cuts do not represent the size of the cakes, but the difference is in the price. The store that sells the best soap will sell the most soap. You are a judge of good soap.
