UNIVERSITY OF Hawaii

1940 Summer Session
June 24...August 2

1. Ocean Voyage . . . . .

FIVE careless, happy days, each way, aboard a sleek Pacific liner are in store for you . . . days filled with exciting games of deck tennis, shuffleboard, sunbathing, and swimming . . . days of play or rest, as you desire . . . and nights of dancing and strolling under the stars . . . a dream trip and then . . . Hawaii . . . a first view of Honolulu and a feeling of romance and mystery . . . the colorful and fragrant welcome with flower leis . . . this enchanting voyage may cost as little as $85, your nearest travel agent will tell you, but you must book early for next summer.

2. Study in the University . . . . .

IN MANOA, "Valley of the Rainbows," is the spacious, palm-studded campus of the University, which is Pacific crossroads for cultural and scientific study. Almost twenty visiting educators will supplement the distinguished resident faculty drawn from Europe, Asia, and mainland United States. The University is accredited by the North Central Association. The Summer School offers wide choice of courses in varied fields.

3. Play at Waikiki

TOTAL cost for mainland students may be as low as $300, which includes steamship fare to Honolulu and return, room and board for six weeks, tuition fees, and textbooks. Living accommodations may be had in University dormitories or in apartments at Waikiki. Tuition is only $5 per credit hour. Two glorious months for as little as $150 per month . . . no more than you would spend at home.

YOU'LL thrill to mountainous waves on a flying surfboard and get a hearty tan at Waikiki . . . You'll make visits to Buddhist and Shinto temples . . . attend Hawaiian pageants . . . visit fern forests . . . tour Honolulu's world-famous waterfront, its Japanese, Indian, and Chinese bazars. . . . In short, you'll have a never-to-be-forgotten vacation.

TOTAL cost for mainland students may be as low as $300, which includes steamship fare to Honolulu and return, room and board for six weeks, tuition fees, and textbooks. Living accommodations may be had in University dormitories or in apartments at Waikiki. Tuition is only $5 per credit hour. Two glorious months for as little as $150 per month . . . no more than you would spend at home.

YOU'LL thrill to mountainous waves on a flying surfboard and get a hearty tan at Waikiki . . . You'll make visits to Buddhist and Shinto temples . . . attend Hawaiian pageants . . . visit fern forests . . . tour Honolulu's world-famous waterfront, its Japanese, Indian, and Chinese bazars. . . . In short, you'll have a never-to-be-forgotten vacation.
Combine Study and Play at the

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII
SUMMER SESSION
June 24 :: August 2

• FULLY ACCREDITED—offers graduate, undergraduate and teacher courses.
• POLYNESIAN CULTURE—and Oriental studies are a feature.
• OCEAN VOYAGE—enjoy exciting days crossing the blue Pacific.
• LOW COST—two months, including ship fares, as little as $150 a month.
• WAIKIKI VACATION—swim, tan, and surf at this world-famous beach.
• TROPICAL SCENERY—see giant fern forests, volcanoes, and Oriental bazaars.
• FACULTY—visiting and resident, from all parts of the world.

What you will see and do . . . .

(Please Unfold and Post)