Big Island Is Solid

For Republicans

Says Delegate Kuhio

Delegate Kuhio returned today from a campaigning tour on Hawaii and is well pleased with Republican prospects in all parts of that Island. He spoke in every part of both districts on that island, from Kalapana down in Puna to northern Hamakua and back down the coast on West Hawaii. He wound up his campaign with a speech at Kailua yesterday, Iaukea speaking from the same stand to the same audience. The Prince was an easy favorite at the Kailua meeting and from the reports brought on the Mauna Loa, the Democratic candidate has not much show on the Big Island.

"Hawaii can be carried by the Republicans this year without any question," said Kuhio, "if the workers in every precinct will stand by their guns. Our Legislative ticket is strong on both sides of the Island and we can elect our men without a doubt.

"I spoke in all the principal places along both sides of the island and could not ask for a better reception. I consider the chances for Republican victory a great deal more flattering than two years ago. At Kalapana where the Home Rule party has always been so strong, I would not be surprised to see a Republican majority. I found that we have some work before us to carry Olaa, and Waipio valley continues to be a knotty problem. Down there the natives claim to have abandoned Home Rule for the Democratic party, but I find also that the list of Republicans is about 75 per cent larger than it ever was before.

"We landed in Kohala so unexpectedly that our meetings were not well advertised, but the sentiment through that district is with the Republican party. Through the Konas we are strong. I apprehend no difficulties there. Our meetings were everywhere well attended and the people showed great interest in what was said.

"I will now do campaigning on Oahu, speaking at the Orpheum Saturday night and then in the outer districts. After Oahu I will take in Kauai and Maui, returning to Oahu before election."

INSPECTORS OF ELECTION.

Inspectors of elections are being asked to address the Secretary of the Territory as to whether they intend to continue to serve. There are three inspectors in each precinct. Those on the other islands have all been heard from, but Oahu inspectors have failed to communicate their desires. Where former inspectors do not wish to serve this year the Secretary is ready to make appointments next Monday.

JOHN POE, JIM WEEKS AND NORMAN FRAZIER FINED FOR A TURBULENT HOUSE AT LIQUOR CLUB.

Elama, a Hawaiian, appeared before Judge Lindsay this morning charged with larceny in the second degree. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth read the charge alleging that Elama had stolen a coat, valued at $5, a pair of trousers, valued at $5, and a shirt valued at $1.25, from a Japanese named Fujiyama.

"What kind of clothes were they?" asked the Court.

"Your Honor can see for himself," replied the Deputy. "The prisoner has them all on."

Not only was the prisoner shamelessly wearing the clothes he had stolen but the manner in which he had procured them showed that he was in

Some of the trial jurors of Judge Gear's criminal court have a most strenuous kick coming and one of these crowded mornings they are likely to arise in their seats and make speeches to the Bench, ventilating a few of their long close-kept opinions as to attorneys and things in general in no half-hearted manner.

One of these long-suffering gentlemen sought the ear of the Court this morning, during a momentary lull in the gale of: "May it please your Honor, I have a motion to make! I would ask time in this! I am not ready in such-and-such a case! I would beg a ruling on this matter! Will the court fix bail for my client? I protest! I plead! I

GEAR WILL NOT GRANT MOTION TO DISMISS FRANCA

Judge Gear this afternoon denied the motion of Attorney J. J. Dunne, representing defendant, to dismiss the case of the Territory against M. F. Franca, alleged selling of liquor without a license at Franca's half-way house on the Pali road.

Dunne's motion was based on the contention that the court had no jurisdiction in the case, inasmuch as the statute provides that one holding a license, violating the provisions of the license, shall be liable to a penalty of $200. Defendant did hold a license, a Federal license. The statute says nothing as to the nature of the license and, beyond declaring that a violation shall render holder liable to a penalty of $200, provides for neither prosecution or punishment.

Franca's case is still on, the defense putting on witnesses this afternoon, and is likely to occupy the rest of the day. Trial jurors not serving on the Franca case were ordered to be in court at 2 p. m. At that hour they were excused until 10 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

YOUNG BURGLARS ENTERED VERY MANY PLEAS

Detective McDuffie this forenoon took in hand the cases of Louis Freitas and Bob Keliaa, who were arrested this morning for burglarizing the Guy Owens residence last night. It was found that besides Owen's place the youthful burglars had entered no less than five different places. The victimized places are as follows:

Frederick S. Harrison, Lunalilo street. Electric pocket light and Hawaiian money taken.

Mrs. Halstead's residence. A trunk was removed and a silk skirt and a silk coat taken. The trunk and some of its contents were found near the place a few days after the robbery had occurred.

Silva's dairy on King street. From this place the boys removed a trunk. They broke it open and extracted from it $17.50. The trunk was found in an empty lot near the dairy a few days later.

Mrs. Lewers' Japanese servants' quarters at Punahou. From here $1.50 in silver and a silver watch was taken.

Dr. Herbert's Japanese servant's quarters on King street. Two silver watches, a chain and $27.50 in cash taken.

Both boys took part in all these burglaries with the exception of that in Mrs. Lewers' servants' quarters, which was performed by Keliaa alone.

McDuffie has already located all the stolen jewelry and clothing. The money the boys have spent in fast living.

DEMOCRATIC ASPIRANTS

Captain Chas. J. Campbell and C. J. Hutchins, the insurance man, are reported to be aspirants for a place on the Democratic legislative ticket for the Fourth District.

BIG BAIL CAUSES PROTESTING UPROAR IN COURT

Attorney C. C. Bitting this morning asked that Judge Gear fix bail in the matter of a couple of Japanese indicted for having had che fa tickets in their possession.

"Two thousand dollars!" said the Court.

Bitting at once strenuously protested against what he termed excessive bail. "Why," said he, "one of these defendants was fined but $20 in the Police Court, while the other was only fined $75.

Attorney J W. Cathcart, representing another alleged che fa man, joined with Bitting in emphatic protest.

Judge Gear stated that the code provided that bail could be fixed in a sum double the amount of the fine prescribed. One thousand dollars is the amount of maximum fine.

Both attorneys contended that even if defendants were found guilty it was hardly to be imagined that so high a

TWO FORTS ARE CLAIMED

CHAIRMAN VIDA ON FIFTH'S TICKET

H. C. Vida, chairman of the Fifth District Republican Committee resents the criticism that has been directed against the Republican Legislative ticket of that district by a pretended Republican paper. He also repudiates as unjust the insinuation that the party leaders in that district dictated nominations. He says the Fifth District candidates represent the best Hawaiians, are well educated and have occupied responsible and worthy positions in private life. He says they were chosen by their respective precincts without outside dictation and that each precinct is responsible for its representative.

"I admit," said Mr. Vida, "that the ticket is short of haole representatives. This cannot be charged to Fifth District politicians. Our leaders waited on such men as S. E. Damon, F. T. P. Waterhouse, A. A. Adams, K. R. G. Wallace, A. F. Judd and others and urged them to run for the Legislature. Our efforts were in vain. Each one pleaded the pressure of private business. Everyone had an excuse. After Adams was out of the Senatorial race, he was urged to run for the House but he refused. I think we have put up a fair Hawaiian ticket from the Fifth considering the attitude of these men and others who were asked to run. Our ticket is a great improvement over the one of two years ago.

"The faultfinding is unjust. Take it in the Governor's own precinct, where white men have the absolute control. They could have managed matters to suit themselves. In the Sixth Precinct, J. A. Low and other plantation people strongly endorsed Tom Kalawai. He is a young Hawaiian and holds a responsible position on the Honolulu plantation. W. W. Goodale and other haoles from Waialua backed Oscar Cox, who holds one of the highest positions on the Waialua plantation. Charley Board, nominee from the Tenth Precinct, is foreman in Lewers & Cooke's lumber yard and has been faithful and competent. Mahelona is in business for himself, was once in the Auditor's office and has an excellent reputation. Kuliopu of the Eighth Precinct, is a bright young Hawaiian, a printer by trade, a graduate of St. Louis College and a good man. Jim Shaw, from the haole precinct, is a graduate from the Royal School and with the backing of his precinct is a strong man on our ticket. I see no reason for any Republican to be ashamed of the ticket in the Fifth."

penalty as $1000 would be inflicted.

Attorney E. N. Watson, championing another supposed gambler, declared that it was absolutely repugnant to a fair idea of justice to fix bail at $1000 or $2000 in a matter where a man was practically caught with a poker chip or a che fa ticket in his possession.

Deputy Attorney General M. F. Prosser, after the general uproar, came to the rescue with the suggestion that the prosecution deemed $500 bail sufficient.

"At the request of the prosecution," said the court, "bail is fixed at $500 each."

POLICE QUICKLY LOCATE BURGLARS

Guy Owens' Residence On Anapuni Street Entered.

BOYS CONFESS HAVING ROBBED MANY PLACES

MOUNTED PATROLMAN BARNEY JOY GAINS CREDIT BY ARRESTING PARTIES GUILTY OF CRIME.

The Police Department is today to be congratulated on one of the swiftest pieces of work ever recorded in its annals. Not only did it do prompt work in bringing an offender to justice within a few hours after a crime was committed, but it also succeeded in explaining several burglaries which have taken place of late. Mounted Patrolman Barney Joy, whose good sense in making the arrest was very commendable, is highly praised by his superior officers.

Last night the residence of Guy Owens, the electrician, was entered. The house is on the corner of Anapuni street and Wilder avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Owens were absent during the evening, attending the wedding of Miss Fernandez. Mr. Haskett, chief pay clerk of the Naval Station, who lodges with Mr. Owens, was at the house. He retired at 9:30 p. m. and was asleep while the burglars ransacked the premises.

Mrs. Owens returned to the house at about 11:30 p. m. She heard a peculiar noise in the back of the house, but attributed it to the Japanese servant and paid no attention to it. Guy Owens returned a little later. He went to open the front door when he found to his surprise that the door was open.

On entering the house Owens found that several rooms had been ransacked. Three valuable rings, forty Hawaiian quarters, two Hawaiian dollars and four Hawaiian half-dollars, and some American coin was missing. Further investigation developed that the burglars had broken in the door to the Japanese servant's quarters by means of a large pair of shears. From here they had taken a pair of Japanese shoes and three shirts.

Owens telephoned to Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, who arrived on the scene in short order. He saw that the burglars had entered through the front door by means of a skeleton key and had made their exit through the back door, which is fastened with a catch.

Chillingworth telephoned to the police station, giving orders that all the officers on beats should be notified of the occurrence and told to keep a sharp look-out for suspects.

The order reached Mounted Patrolman Barney Joy, who had the King street beat. At about 12:30 a. m., Joy passed some boys on King street by August Dreier's place. At about 2 a.m. he saw the boys at the same place. He decided that they were suspicious characters, but did not show his suspicion. Instead, he entered into a good-natured conversation with them.

During the conversation Joy noticed a ring on the finger of one of them, named Bob Keliaa. He asked Keliaa where he had gotten the ring. Keliaa said that a boy, named Koa, who is at present confined in the Reform School, had given it to him. Joy searched the boy's pockets and found in them a pocket electric search light, some skeleton keys, and some money. This decided Barney that he had the guilty party. He placed Keliaa under arrest and took him to the station house, where he was locked up.

Keliaa this morning had an interview with Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth. In the course of this he admitted that he and another boy, named Louis Freitas, had entered the Owens house. He said that part of the booty was hidden under the bridge near

"Drink More" And What To Drink.

Dr. Titus Munson Coan, in Harper's Magazine, declares in favor of "Soda Water" for table use. "Soda Water (more properly called Carbonated Water) whether manufactured or natural is a POWERFUL AID TO DIGESTION by stimulating the stomach and also probably aiding to dissolve the mineral ingredients of the food. It is very appetizing, it corrects acidity in the stomach, checks the disposition to nausea and cools the system in febrile complaints and is indeed the ideal beverage for the water drinker."

G. O. P. WORKERS MEET

CAMPAIGN OUTLINED BY PARTY OFFICIALS

COMMITTEES APPOINTED AND SCHEDULE OF MEETINGS ARRANGED BY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The first meeting of the Republican Central Committee was held last evening at Republican headquarters. All except two of the entire committee throughout the Islands were present either in person or by proxy. These two were H. J. Lyman and S. L. Desha of Hawaii. There was considerable of a margin over a quorum present, with A. G. M. Robertson in the chair.

The committee decided to hold a big Republican meeting Saturday night, September 24, at the Orpheum. All three of the nominees for the Senate and the fifteen Republican candidates for the House are expected to be present. Kuhio will also be there. The meeting is to be the first gun in the Oahu campaign and a ratification of the work done in the Fifth and Fourth District conventions.

Chairman Robertson announced last night that the executive committee had made out a list of meetings to be held on Saturday nights from now until election and asked that the schedule be approved. The list is as follows:

September 24, mass meeting at the Orpheum.
October 1, Oahu Railroad station.
October 8, Kakaako.
October 15, Aala Park.
October 22, corner Bethel and Hotel streets.
October 29, Waialua.
November 5, Orpheum theater.
November 7, Union Square (last meeting.)

On motion of D. Douglass, seconded by John Lane, a committee on speakers and meetings, consisting of three from each district, was appointed by the chair. This committee is made up of the following:

Fourth District, Messrs. W. W. Harris, E. W. Quinn and Sam Johnson; Fifth District, John Lane, Chas. Clark and D. Douglass.

This committee will at an early date make out a schedule for Republican meetings, working in conjunction with the District organizations.

The following committee on literature and printing was appointed: Fourth District, Carlos Long, Mr. Beal; Fifth District, F. T. P. Waterhouse and Mahelona.

These two committees will meet Thursday evening at Republican headquarters.

Considerable discussion took place concerning the work of the campaign. The special work required in each District and Precinct was considered to belong to the District Committee, while the general campaign should be directed by the central body. The fiscal policy was also discussed, the ideas of Chairman Robertson as to management seeming to meet with approval.

Treasurer E. F. Bishop stated that he received no balance from the old treasurer, but understood there was an amount on hand from the last campaign, which, however, would be about wiped out by old bills standing against it. Referring to present needs, Treasurer Bishop said while the general situation which compels care in spending of money, both public and private, would be recognized, still there was no doubt that enough money would be secured to carry on the campaign creditably to the Republican party.

The questions of naturalization and registration was discussed, it being the sentiment that these matters should be closely looked after by the precinct organizations in each district.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AND DIABETES NEWS.

San Francisco, Sept. 13, 1904.

To the People of Honolulu:

As San Francisco druggists personally acquainted with the facts we are asked to certify to you the curability of chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes, and however unreasonable it may seem to you yet such is the fact. Up to a year ago we never heard of a genuine case of chronic Bright's Disease or Diabetes recovering. Now it is a common occurrence in this city. A great discovery has undoubtedly been made. Many prominent people here have recovered and every one of us whose names are appended hereto have either had recoveries among our customers or have genuine chronic cases now recovering. And the percentage of efficiency seems to be very high, for there are very few failures.

CAPT. E. F. CAMERON DIED AT RIPE AGE

Captain Edward Frederick Cameron died last night at 9 o'clock at his home on Beretania street from an attack of locomotor ataxia. The deceased had suffered from the disease, which caused his death, for some time. He leaves besides the widow, two sons and two daughters. Further than determining that the body will be cremated, the funeral arrangements have not been settled.

Captain Cameron was in his 65th year at the time of his death, having been born in New York September 25, 1839. He followed the sea all his life. He came to the Hawaiian Islands in 1880 and entered the employ of the Inter-Island Steamship Company and had been identified with Island shipping ever since. He was a man who made many friends and retained them. He was for many years connected with the Wilder S. S. Co. and had been harbor pilot for this port since 1900.

Before coming to Hawaii Captain Cameron saw several years of service as captain of one of the P. & O. liners out of Calcutta.

Fernandez-Cutter Nuptial Last Night

Miss Minerva Umikalakaua Fernandez and Stanley Cutter were married last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Fernandez at Kalihi-waena. The ceremony was performed by Mr. Fernandez, the bride's father, who is an elder in the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints. Only the members of the family and a few intimate friends were present. Miss Ahola was bridesmaid and Samuel Chillingworth best man.

At 8:30 the couple gave a reception, a large number of guests being present. Later the receiving party and guests retired to the lawn where a dancing lanai had been erected for the occasion. It was beautifully decorated with flags and excellent music had been provided for the occasion. The dance was started by the bride and groom and lasted during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutter will reside at the Bromley residence, Anapuni street.

Peck To Coast For Health and Business

P. Peck of Hilo, accompanied by Miss Peck, will leave for the Coast in the Mongolia. Mr. Peck goes to recuperate in health but while away he will be very much occupied with the Kohala-Hilo railroad business. Mr. Peck said this morning: "The work on the survey and location of lines is going right along. When I get back from the Coast I think I will be able to give you a good piece of news about the railway, which is going right ahead until it is an accomplished matter."

CHANGE IN "SAID PASHA".

"Said Pasha" will be produced a third time next Saturday night at the Hawaiian Opera House. The management has reduced the price all over the house to $1 a seat, including the first row in the balcony. Owing to the departure of R. C. Brown to Hilo, the title role will be played by Captain Jorgstroff.

WAR'S NAVAL LESSON

WIRELESS TELEGRAPH PROVES MOST VALUABLE ASSISTANCE

RUSSIAN COMMANDER SAYS BATTLESHIPS HAVE NOT LOST THEIR FIGHTING MACHINE PRESTIGE.

Tsingtau, Sept. 2.—Captain Matouzevitch, the late Admiral Withoeft's chief of staff, who arrived here wounded on the Russian battleship Cesarevitch on August 12, in an interview today on the naval lessons of the war, said:

"I do not believe that the operations of either navy have demonstrated anything which will materially change naval warfare. The greatest lesson has been the usefulness of wireless telegraphy. In the fighting of August 10 we used the wireless system in signaling until the apparatus was shot away. We found it worked more reliably and quicker than flags. I believe that in the near future every ship in all the navies, even gunboats, will be fitted with wireless apparatus.

"Much has been learned about mines and torpedoes. The only defense against mines is good judgment, or insight, as to where they are likely to be placed by the enemy. If it is imperative that ships must go to that vicinity, send 'sweppers' in advance. The war has demonstrated that the most powerful searchlights cannot pick up floating mines, which were unknown before this war.

"The Japanese made as many as fifteen ineffectual torpedo attacks in one night. Torpedo nets are of very little use. When a ship is in action they cannot be used successfully, as they retard her speed and hamper her movements. If several ships are together and they concentrate their searchlights it is almost impossible to successfully attack them with torpedoes. I do not agree with the critics who say the battleship is a thing of the past. In the Port Arthur movements the battleships, cruisers and torpedo boats did the work cut out for them.

"Since I have been at Tsingchou I have had an opportunity to read the Japanese reports of the Port Arthur engagements and I find them inaccurate. The Russians have done much damage to the Japanese warships which has not been reported by either side."

Captain Matouzevitch is still in the hospital, but is improving. The other Russian wounded are convalescing.

Source has the shrill-tongued chanticleer
Aroused the slumbering morn
When, on the gently stirring breeze,
You see my coat tails borne.
I rush along up hill and down,
Like captive deer set free,
And loud the welkins ring my cry—
Wiki-wiki, Japanee.

Nor tropic heat can stay my course,
Nor tropic rains abate
The energy that burns within,
Supreme o'er ev'ry fate:

And urge the weary with my cry—
Wiki-wiki, Japanee.

The days for me are all too short,
The nights are all too long:
Cessation cloys my ardent soul
As tho' to rest were wrong.
I toss, and turn, and twist about,
—Such sloth is death to me—
I must be up and shouting round—
Wiki-wiki, Japanee.

Ambition claims for me her slave,
Heart, body, soul and mind,
The keenest joys that life can yield
Those joys in her I find,
On one great cast my life is set,
One only goal for me,
My reputation lives in this—
Wiki-wiki, Japanee.

Come, rouse ye, then, my little men,
And heed no ache nor pain;
Come, buckle tight your belly belts,
And hustle might and main;
Such toil is noble, and your fame
Shall ring from sea to sea,
Borne on the winds that bear my cry—
Wiki-wiki, Japanee.

Let Germans growl "Die Wacht am Rhein,"
The French scream "Marsellaise,"
John Bull with "Rule Brittania" join
His country's boast to raise,
Columbia "Yankee Doodle" shout,
From seaboard unto sea,
Mine is the ringing, rousing cry—
Wiki-wiki, Japanee.

O' blest the fate that brought me here
To these fair, sun-kissed Isles,
Whose guarding Goddess beams o'er all
Thro' garland wreath of smiles:
Her favors rare all richly share,
But best she gave to me
To care the watch-word for her Isles—

THOS. KALAWAIA.

King Peter's coronation hymn should properly have one stanza extolling the fine art of national murder.

Law making for this Territory is safer in the hands of Governor Carter and Fifth District Representatives than left to the manipulation of the factional critics.

Candidates on the Fifth District ticket are men whom leading business men of the Territory trust. This would naturally displease the organ of Republican enemies.

Between their unsuccessful sorties on sea and land the Russians ought soon to learn that the only hope of success at Port Arthur is to wait for the other fellow to move.

Admiral Goodrich's squadron is out for target practice. Isn't it about time for the business men to promote a visit from the Pacific and Asiatic squadrons for a Christmas rendezvous at Honolulu?

Delegate Kuhio returns from his Hawaii tour confident that the island is safe for the Republican ticket. Others express equal confidence that they have the island, but Kuhio will get the votes.

The array of talent sought for the Fifth District ticket without success shows conclusively that the just criticism if any falls on those within the ranks who are now devoting their energies to knifing the ticket.

It is gratifying to learn that the Russians have recovered their spirits. Unless they have secured a few points in military capacity to win the spirit will aid them only in keeping up heart while taking up the long walk to Harbin.

What some so-called Republicans appear to want is a Legislature whose members give allegiance to no party or principle. An aggregation of free lances who will do nothing and care less for what is for the progressive interests of the Territory.

A short review of the work and life of John R. Musick by the Bulletin Bookman will soon be published in the Bulletin book review department. Every hypocrite in the Territory should read, mark, learn and inwardly digest the Bookman's pointed conclusions.

Does any sane man believe he can strengthen the Legislature by endorsing a Republican ticket in the Fourth District and a Democratic ticket in the Fifth? The inevitable result will be the election of a Home Rule ticket from both Districts. This is what the Advertiser is driving at.

Republicans have this year set the plans for a short campaign in order to relieve business men from a long worry over politics. This leaves the opportunity open for the citizens to respond with a fair share of their time for personal devotion to the business of marshalling votes for the Republican ticket.

It is a favorite passtime to speak of Russia as the representative of all that is evile despite the fact that citizens of our own country burn fellow citizens at the stake. Yet Russia of all the Powers on earth is the only one that remembers the events that brought King Peter to his throne and refuses to take part in his coronation.

Mr. Deering will find a place among the public benefactors by promoting the pleasures of auto tours in Hawaii. The improved roads of the Territory offered all the auto travellers could ask and the scenery along the routes is not excelled anywhere. Knight Templar conclaves come but once a year, while the automobile tourists are always looking for something new.

Mr. Brown is likely to have a large vote at the expense of Carlos Long, who is regarded as a political vacuum —Advertiser.

A more gratuitous knife thrust from an alleged Republican paper could not be made against the Republican ticket than this slur upon Candidate Long Brown's vote by no possible chance can effect the vote for Long. Brown has announced himself an independent candidate for the Senate. Long is a Republican candidate for the House from the Fourth District. It furnishes further proof that Mr. Thurston and his paper have no love for the Carter administration and would gladly accomplish the defeat of the Republican Congressional and Legislative ticket in the coming campaign.

NOT REPUBLICANISM.

Republicans of Oahu at the outset of the Territorial campaign have presented to them two instances of refusal to accept the action of the conventions made up of regular delegates regularly elected at Republican primaries to nominate the party candidates.

Cecil Brown refuses to accept the action of Senatorial convention and has declared himself an independent candidate.

Mr. Thurston's paper—the Advertiser—refuses to accept the action of the convention for the nomination of Representatives and is using what influence it has to destroy party regularity and promote a split-ticket vote all along the line and, if possible, defeat the party candidates.

The radical stand of Brown and the knifing tactics of the Advertiser lead to identically the same result, though prompted by different motives. Of the two, Brown's position is the least serious since the fate of an independent candidate in these days of party organization is very doubtful. Brown has come out as an open enemy of the organization. The Advertiser, while claiming regularity, constantly preaches a doctrine of dissension in party ranks, a doctrine of prejudice that arouses an alignment similar to what existed in the early days of the Territory and found expression in the Home Rule party.

The Republican party has not thus far stood for prejudice or the elimination of any class of voters on the basis of race division which the morning paper has harped on without ceasing. Republicanism has not thus far stood for chicanery in dealing with the people, seeking their favorable votes and then lambasting them with sneers and innuendo when the result of party conventions does not meet the narrow views of factionalists. Honest Republicanism opens the door to the honest voters of all classes who believe in its principles. And to preserve regularity, to preserve the organization, it must demand loyalty and readiness to abide by majority rule. Otherwise, it heads for chaos and becomes a mixture of anarchy and folly.

The doctrine now preached by the morning paper represents both political chicanery and factional dishonesty. It seeks to assist in the election of Republican opponents while claiming a place within the ranks of regularity.

The natural outcome of the Advertiser's campaign is the breaking down of party fealty, the enthronement of prejudice, and the election of a solid Hawaiian delegation to the House of Representatives regardless of party. This is not Republicanism. It does not represent an average standard of civic decency. There is no reason why the Advertiser should be considered an exponent of Republicanism any more than Brown's independent candidacy should be put down as an aid to the advancement of Republican regularity.

IDLE JURORS

object! I insist! I contend! I will just take one minute to draw Your Honor's attention to the two-hundred-and-eleven indisputable authorities which clearly prove that Your Honor does not know what he is talking about (or words to that effect, politely handled).

"This is fearful!" declared the business man who had the Court's ear; "here we jurors have wasted one whole hour for nothing, except to listen to forty or fifty outside matters thrown at Your Honor by a bunch of lawyers who are never ready when a case is called, but are always over-ready in some matter that the Court is not at the time giving attention.

"We got here, we twelve jurors, in the case of the Territory against M. F. Franca, per order, at 10 o'clock, ready and willing to proceed with the trial of the matter at that hour. Here it is 11 o'clock and Territory vs. Franca has not been called; Your Honor has been besieged for one whole hour by extraneous matters.

"We are business men, Your Honor; we are willing to do our duty in the service of the Territory as jurymen, but is it our duty to sit up here in the jury box for an hour or so each day, doing nothing but trim our finger nails, read paper-covered novels, rub our heads against the wall, kick our feet against the rotten railings, sweat like coal-heavers and listen, half-asleep, to the ranting verbiage of a bunch of enthusiastic legal lights in matters in which we are not engaged as jurors?

"I feel like getting up in open court and speaking my mind, only I thought I'd first speak to Your Honor, to be sure that I was about to do nothing objectionable. Next time the opportunity offers, I will do so, if Your Honor does not object."

Judge Gear stated that he had deferred arraignments until tomorrow morning, just on this account,—to get the trial jurors to work.

About fifteen attorneys this morning, between 10 and 11 o'clock, had something to tell or ask the Court while the Franca jury sat like prisoners in the box, profusely perspiring and, some of them, repeating little Scriptural quotations to themselves.

This condition of affairs is not new, but it often takes worms and jurors a long time to turn.

The juror who addressed himself to the court stated that his office down town was left in charge of Orientals. He was giving his time to the Territory and objected to having it wasted. Other jurors felt the same way.

FEELINGS SHOCKED

possession of no small amount of "gall". The complaining witness, Fujiyama, explained that he lived at Kukui street. The other night he left his room and went into the common bath room to bathe. In the meantime Elama entered the unsuspecting bather's room, took his clothes and put them on. Fujiyama emerged from his bath just in time to catch the thief in the act of leaving the place adorned in the stolen clothes. He raised the alarm and had Elama arrested.

It was developed, much to Elama's discredit, that he had been in contact with the police on previous occasions. Judge Lindsay accordingly sentenced him to imprisonment for one year.

Kamaka, a Hawaiian, also charged with larceny in the second degree, had his case nolle pros'd.

Hamada, a Japanese, is certainly a victim of very tough luck. Yesterday afternoon the Grand Jury returned a true bill against him on a charge of having che fa tickets in his possession. Officer Henry Espinda went to serve the bench warrant in the case on Hamada, and lo! he found Hamada again dabbling with the compromising che fa tickets. Hamada was consequently arrested on a fresh charge, besides the old one. His case was continued until tomorrow.

Manuel Antone, a young Portuguese, appeared on a charge of vagrancy, he having been found last Saturday night in the developing room of the Honolulu Photo Supply Company without being able to satisfactorily explain his presence there. His case was continued until Thursday.

"Sweet Emalia," the famous faded rose of bygone glories, appeared in the court this morning; this time, however, virtuously posing as the complianing witness in the case of Kalohe, an old Hawaiian woman, charged with profanity. Chillingworth explained to the Court that "Sweet Emalia' had sworn to a warrant for the arrest of Kalohe. After investigating the case he had arrived at the conclusion that both parties concerned were equally guilty. He therefore asked that the defendant be discharged, which was done.

Norman Frazier, John Poe and Jim Weeke were fined $5 and costs each for assault and battery on John Wahilani. The row arose in a liquor club of which all those concerned in the case were members. In imposing sentence Judge Lindsay roundly scored them all.

The case of Tang Moon, charged with assault and battery on Chee Wung, was continued until Thursday.

The case of Ma Yee and Apia, both charged with assault and battery, were nolle pros'd.

POLICE LOCATE BURGLARS

Dreier's house, where it was found by the police later on.

Joy was sent for Freitas. He soon found him and took him to the police station. In the presence of The Bulletin police reporter, Freitas made a full confession to Chillingworth. He said that Keliaa had told him to enter the Owens house with him last night. The front door was opened by means of a skeleton key and the house was ransacked. Keliaa took all the booty, giving Freitas $2.50 as his share.

"He forced me to go in with him Every time he forced me to go in, said Freitas complainingly.

This gave Chillingworth confirmation of a suspicion he already had in his mind, and he pressed Freitas to confess about other burglaries he had taken part in . Freitas admitted that he and Keliaa had entered the Harrison place, which was robbed last Sunday night, together. The electric light, which was stolen from that place, was the one which was found on Keliaa by Joy.

The police have a strong suspicion that the pair were the ones who burglarized Mrs. Lewers' premises at Punahou last week, and also Dr. Herbert's place, which was entered last week and robbed of about $50 in cash. The police further believe that the boys are possibly members of an organized gang of the kind which have during the past few years been found to have been guilty of burglaries of the character described. Efforts will be made to elicit further confessions.

Bob Keliaa has been in trouble of a similar nature before. He recently completed a sentence of several years. As far as is known this is Freitas' first unpleasant contact with the law.

KALAUOKALANI: TELLS OF WORK ON HAWAII

D. Kalauokalani Jr., who returned from Hawaii with Delegate Kuhio today, believes that Notley will pull more votes on that island than Iaukea and says that Kuhio is pulling votes away from them both.

"The strongest work done by the Notley crowd," said Kalauokalani, "was in their misrepresentations about Kuhio. Notley had spread the story that Delegate Kuhio introduced a bill in Congress to disfranchise the Hawaiians after ten years. They also told a big story of Kuhio's abuse of his secretary. In every place Delegate Kuhio discussed both of these misrepresentations and the people were always satisfied with his statements. The disfranchisement story was a fearful distortion of a bill introduced by the delegate providing that the Hawaiian and English languages might both be used as official languages in the Legislature. When the people saw the deception in the Home Rule story it made them stronger for Kuhio.

Kuhio also told everywhere how he had at three different times given his secretary money to pay his way home to Hawaii. Each time it was spent and followed by a request for more. Two days before Kuhio left for Hawaii he gave his secretary money to come home with. When Kuhio arrived in Hawaii he heard that Morris was in trouble again. The more the other side misrepresents the more support they create for Kuhio.

"Our party contained in John Wise and Archie Mahaulu two excellent campaigners who did good work all the time.

"The story that I have made a deal with the Delegate whereby he is to make me his secretary is false in every particular. I am working for Kuhio and the Republican party because I think their success will be for the benefit of Hawaii. We have never discussed rewards or offices. I am not ambitious to go to Washington or to hold office.

"You can put Hawaii down in the Republican column."

FRANCA ON TRIAL

Judge Gear this morning, in the case of the Territory vs. M. F. Franca, alleged selling of liquor without a license, denied defendant's motion, by J. J. Dunne, that the testimony of H. W. Flint be stricken out on the ground that "it is against public policy to allow testimony obtained by police methods to be used for the conviction of any man."

After 11 a. m. the case proceeded, being continued from yesterday. Dunne is now contesting jurisdiction on the ground that the statute simply says that a violater "shall be liable to a penalty of $200", saying nothing of prosecution or punishment.

Weisbarth Will EXPLOIT Palmyra Island

Captain Weisbarth is preparing to go on another expedition. His schooner, the Lavinia, is lying at the Irmgard wharf and is ready to start this afternoon.

This time Captain Weisbarth intends to go south. Although he is rather reticent concerning the objective point of the trip, he hints that he is going to Palmyra Island. This island lies to the southward of Hawaii and close to the westward of Fanning Island. The Lavinia will probably be absent about two months.

While Captain Weisbarth has been on Palmyra before, it is very long ago. The island is known to have guano beds, but it is said that they are not so rich that it would pay to work them. There are also pearls in the lagoon. Some time ago Captain Walker of this city tried to organize a company which should go into pearl fishing at Palmyra, but the scheme fell through.

Captain Weisbarth said this morning that he wanted neither pearls nor guano. There were many cocoanuts on the island and he hoped to get a load of these. He also thinks that the island is overgrown with ironwood, which makes excellent firewood. On the present expedition he merely intends to exploit Palmyra to ascertain if any paying business can be developed from it.

Masonic Lodge TO BE Installed On Maui

A delegation of Pacific Lodge Masons, headed by H. E. Cooper, 33rd degree and District Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, leaves today in the Claudine to install a new Masonic lodge on Maui. The delegation will include Past Master C. J. Hutchins, Senior Warden C. R. Frazier, Junior Warden Chas. F. Murray and Treasurer W. O. Atwater of Pacific Lodge.

The new Maui lodge is made up of prominent Masons, hitherto members of local, mainland and European lodges and will have a charter membership of over twenty-five. Years ago Maui had a Masonic lodge but its charter was finally surrendered owing to many of its members leaving the island. The new lodge has every promise of a most successful career, including, as it does, many of the leading men of the island.

The Lavinia will have on board Captain Weisbarth, his young son, a white mate, and two Japanese sailors. Captain Weisbarth expects to sail this afternoon. He was busy this forenoon getting his ship's papers in order.

FAST DRIVER INDICTED

TRUE BILLS TRANSFERRED FROM SECRET TO OPEN FILE

WAH SIN OF THE INFAMOUS CRIME CASE HAS BECOME A FAMOUS CHARACTER AND IS PROUD.

Indictments today transferred from the secret to the open file, defendants having been placed under arrest, were:

Territory vs. Makamoto, selling liquor without a license.

Joe Capernio Haniela, robbery in the second degree.

Matsamuda, heedless driving.

Pang Kau, assault and battery.

Akana, Akeona and Hamada, separate cases, having che fa tickets in possession.

Under Judge Gear's famous Wah Sin decision relating to "infamous crime," the least offenses punishable by imprisonment in this Territory, under present conditions, being infamous by virtue of the possiblity of imprisonment in the penitentiary, indictment for so trifling a matter heedless driving becomes necessary.

Wah Sin, by the way, the Chinese who was charged with selling opium without a license, represented successfully by R. W. Breckons, is very much raised in the estimation of his countrymen in this part of the world because, by frequent legal and popular reference his name has identified the famous "infamous" decision which set Grand Juries to work indicting everything for which "infamous punishment" is prescribed.

"There goes Wah Sin, the inventor, or the father, or the cause, or the sponsor, or the discoverer of the Wah Sin case!" say his friends, pointing him out with pride.

In the matter of indictments, arraignments, owing to the crowded condition of the calendar in Judge Gear's court this morning, were deferred until tomorrow morning.

TEN MILLION JEWS.

New York, Sept. 7.—A Jewish year book just issued for the period from September 10, 1904, to September 29, 1905, the Jewish year 5665, contains statistics showing that the Hebrew population of the world is now 10,932,777. Of this number Russian has 5,189,401; Austria-Hungary, 2,076,378, and the United States, 1,253,218. Germany comes next with 586,948, and then Turkey with 466,361. Of the 600,000 Jews credited to the State of New York about 500,000 are residents of New York City.

Books, Bookish People and Things

We get no good by being ungenerous even to a book.
E. B. Browning.

"Insecta." By Alpheus Hyatt and J. M. Arms. Clo. 4½ x 6½ in., 300 pp., indexed. D. C. Heath & Co., Boston.

Number 8 in "Guide for Science-Teaching" series, which is a valuable hand-book for teachers as well as for parents who desire to instruct their own children in the elements of science. The book needs an adjunct and goes well with Packard's "Entomology for Beginners", "Guide to the Study of Insects" and Morse's "First Book of Geology".

The illustrations which are clear, consist of figures printed on sheets folded into the book. These will soon crease and wear off, so I suggest to others a plan I have adopted, viz., cutting the sheets out and pasting them on cards, not forgetting to place number of plate and page on each card. This saves the drawing and makes it convenient for frequent reference.

We understand that Dr. Branner's "Geology of the Hawaiian Islands", published in a magazine last October, will be reissued in a pamphlet form.

The Out West Magazine is now published by the Out West Magazine Company and not by the Out West Company, as before. The editor, C. F. Lummis, is president, and the assistant editor, C. A. Moody, manager. Mr. Wm. Smythe's department, "20th Century West," has been discontinued, and we notice that more fiction is being introduced. From a literary standpoint, this is a decided improvement.

If Mr. Lummis will exploit his several new societies (with the objects of which, however, we are in deep sympathy) less, and repress somewhat his tendency to figure as The Only Accurate Writer on Anything Whatsoever, his good magazine will be still better.

Mr. Lummis (in his books) is a delightful writer, but since he has fallen into the strenuous, Adelstic style of writing, the swash-buckler, I'll eat-you up kind of prose that we get so much of "In the Lions' Den," we feel like modifying an early opinion. For the Lion roars continually. He paces back and forth, greedily watching for something to pounce upon; he leaves no uncaten Daniels in his cage—there is no God for anyone who falls into his clutches—at least, it would seem so to those who only read Mr. Lummis, who have not met him face to face.

Unofficially, he is not only kind—he is lovable. He stands bravely for irrigation, for the humane treatment of our trees and our Indians, for the saving of the California Missions, for archaeological and historical research. He has done more for these causes (except possibly irrigation) than any other man in the West, and he will do more, for he is aggressive, persistent, indomitable — one of the Yankee breed that have made the United States what it is.

In all real ways he stands for Truth and Justice, though academically he is often very unjust.

I believe that his perpetual scolding is a habit and done automatically like the tiradings of a fond mother who between times gathers her offspring in her arms and smothers him with kisses.

Politically, Lummis is a Mugwump, which means that he stands for his principles, and, I guess, no one will doubt his sincerity. It would be a nice little psychological study for Dr. Bridge or any other philosopher to analyze Lummis' mind when he undertakes to praise Roosevelt, who does so many things that Lummis believes are running the country to the dogs. Read Out West and enjoy the matter for yourselves.

I have said this much about the man because he is worth it; he is a Large Figure, and if we had more men of his stamp a great crowd would follow better leaders. He is a man to make a Governor of. With all his impulsiveness and wrong-headedness; with his wrath and rage, over the thunder of his words, he is one of the safest men for responsibility in the United States.

He is wrong on the Philippine question, kinky on Cuba, and a few pet creole-colored points, but he is in rather good company, as it chances. I have found fault with him before about his opinions on Hawaii—but if we had a few more of his stamp on these islands they would be more deserving of the name "Paradise of the Pacific" than they are today. If California knows its best interests it will make him Governor some day.

Mr. Chas. T. Bateman has written a life of Mr. George Frederick Watts, R. A., to be included in the "Miniature Series of Painters," by Messrs. MacMillan & Co. This is bound to be of great interest to all painters or lovers of art.

Another volume of the series is the biography of Whistler by Mrs. Arthur Bell. A feature of the work will be its illustration by reproductions from Whistler's pictures.

SHORT STORY FOR EVENING HOURS

AS YOU HAVE OPPORTUNITY

Mr. Frazier sat reading in his counting room. He was in the midst of an interesting piece of news, when a lad came up to the door, and said:

"Do you want a boy, sir?"

Without lifting his eyes from the paper, Mr. Frazier answered, "No!" to the applicant, and in rather a rough way.

Before the lad reached the street, Conscience had compelled the merchant to listen to a rebuking sentence.

"You might have spoken kindly to the poor boy at least, said Conscience. "This is an opportunity."

Mr. Frazier let the paper fall from before his eyes, and turned to look at the lad. He was small—not 12 years old, to all appearance—poorly attired, but clean. The merchant tapped against one of the windows in the counting room, and the boy glanced back over his shoulder. A sign from the merchant caused him to return.

"What did you say, just now?"

"Do you want a boy, sir?" The lad repeated the words he had spoken, hesitatingly, a few moments before.

Mr. Frazier looked at him with a suddenly awakened interest. He had a fair, girlish face; dark brown eyes and hair; and though slender in appearance, stood erect, with a manliness of aspect that showed him to be already conscious of duty in the world. But there did not seem to be much of that stuff in him that is needed for the battle of life.

"Take a chair," said Mr. Frazier, an involuntary respect for the lad getting possession of his mind.

The boy sat down, with his large, clear eyes fixed on the merchant's face.

"How old are you?"

"I was 12, sir, last month," replied the boy.

"What splendid eyes!" said the merchant to himself. "And I have seen them before. Soft, dark and lustrous as a woman's."

Away back in the past the thoughts of Mr. Frazier went, borne on the light from these beautiful eyes; and for some moments he forgot the present in the past. But when he came back into the present again, he had a softer heart toward the stranger lad.

"You should go to school for a year or two longer," he said.

"I must help my mother," replied the lad.

"Is your mother very poor?"

"Yes, sir, and she's sick."

The lad's voice shook a little, and his soft woman's eyes grew brighter in the tears that filled them.

Mr. Frazier had already forgotten the point of interest in the news after which his mind was searching, when the boy interrupted him.

"I don't want a lad myself," said Mr. Frazier, "but maybe I might speak a good word for you, you know. I think you would make an honest, useful lad, but you are not strong."

"Oh, yes, sir, I'm strong!" And the boy stood up in a brave spirit.

"What is your name?" he asked.

"Charles Leonard, sir."

There was an instant change in the merchant's manner, and he turned away his face so far that the boy's eyes could not see its expression. For a long time he sat still and silent—so long that the boy wondered.

"Is your father living?" Mr. Frazier did not look at the boy, but still kept his face away. His voice was low and not very even.

"No, sir. He died four years ago."

"Where?" The voice was quicker and firmer.

"In London, sir."

"How long since you came to America?"

"Two years."

"Have you been in this city ever since?"

"No, sir. We came here with my uncle a year ago. But he died a month after our arrival."

"What was your uncle's name?"

"Mr. Hoyle, sir."

There came another silence, in which the lad was not able to see the merchant's countenance. But when he did look at him again there was such a new and kind expression in the eyes which seemed almost to devour his face, that he felt an assurance in his heart that Mr. Frazier was a good man, and would be a friend to his mother.

"Sit here for a little while," said Mr. Frazier, and turning to his desk, he wrote a brief note, in which, without permitting the lad to see what he was doing, he enclosed two or three bank bills.

"Take this to your mother," he said handing the note to the lad.

"You'll try to get me a place, sir, don't you?" The boy lifted to him an appealing look.

"Oh, yes. You shall have a good place. But stay, you haven't told me where you live."

"Number —— Melon street."

"Very well." Mr. Frazier noted down the street and number. "And now take that note to your mother."

The merchant did not resume his paper after the lad departed. He had lost all interest in its contents. For a long time he sat shading his face, so that no one saw its expression. If spoken to on any matter, he answered briefly, and with nothing of his usual interest in business. The change in him was so marked that one of his partners asked him if he were not well.

"I feel a little dull," was evasively his answer.

Before his usual time Mr. Frazier left the store and went home. As he opened the door of his dwelling, the distressed cries and sobbings of a child came with an unpleasant shock on his ears. He went up stairs, with two or three long strides, and entered the nursery from which the cries came.

"What's the matter, darling?" he said, as he caught the weeper in his arms. "What ails my little Maggie?"

"Oh, papa! papa!" sobbed the little child, clinging to his neck, and laying her face close to his.

"Jane," said Mr. Frazier, looking at the nurse, and speaking with some sternness of manner, "why is Maggie crying in this manner?"

The girl looked excited but pale.

"She's been naughty," was her answer.

"No, papa! I ain't been naughty," said the child, indignantly. "I didn't want to stay here all alone and she pinched me and slapped me so hard, oh, papa!" And the child's wail rung out again, and she clung to his neck, sobbing.

"Has she ever pinched and slapped you before?" asked the father.

"She does it most every day," answered the little girl.

"Why haven't you told me?"

"She said she'd throw me out of the window if I told. Oh, dear! oh, dear! Don't let her do it, papa!"

"It's a lie!" exclaimed the nurse, passionately.

"Just look at my poor leg, papa." The child said this in a hushed whisper, with her lips laid close to her father's ear.

Mrs. Weisslitz, president of the German Womans' Club of Buffalo, N. Y., after doctoring for two years, was finally cured of her kidney trouble by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Of all the diseases known with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless prompt and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave careful study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—made sure that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was certain to control that dreaded disease, woman's kidney troubles. The Vegetable Compound acts in harmony with the laws that govern the entire female system, and while there are many so called remedies for kidney troubles, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women.

Read What Mrs. Weisslitz Says.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For two years my life was simply a burden, I suffered so with female troubles, and pains across my back and loins. The doctor told me that I had kidney troubles and prescribed for me. For three months I took his medicines, but grew steadily worse. My husband then advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and brought home a bottle. It is the greatest blessing ever brought to our home. Within three months I was a changed woman. My pain had disappeared, my complexion became clear, my eyes bright, and my entire system in good shape."—MRS. PAULA WEISSLITZ, 176 Seneca St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Proof that Kidney Trouble can be Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel very thankful to you for the good your medicine has done me. I had doctored for years and was steadily growing worse. I had trouble with my kidneys, and two doctors told me I had Bright's disease; also had falling of the womb, and could not walk a block at a time. My back and head ached all the time, and I was so nervous I could not sleep; had hysteria and fainting spells, was tired all the time, had such a pain in my left side that I could hardly stand at times without putting my foot on something.

"I doctored with several good doctors, but they did not help me any. I took, in all, twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, five boxes of Liver Pills, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and feel like a new woman, can eat and sleep well, do all my own work, and can walk two miles without feeling over tired. The doctors tell me that my kidneys are all right now. I am so happy to be well, and I feel that I owe it all to your medicine."—MRS. OPAL STRONG, Dalton, Mass.

Battling Nelson Won In Twenty Rounds

Butte, Sept. 5.—After twenty rounds of the fiercest milling ever witnessed in this city, Battling Nelson of Chicago before 10,000 persons was this afternoon given the decision over Aurelio Herrera, the Mexican. From the tap of the bell for the opening round the two featherweights waded into each other hammer and tongs.

Nelson carried the fight to Herrera almost without cessation throughout the twenty rounds. Herrera scored the only knockdown of the fight, sending the Chicago lad to the floor with a hard right on the jaw, and Nelson took the count to nine. Under the rules Herrera was obliged to return to his corner, and before he could get at Nelson again the latter had recovered partially from his dazed condition and was able to block the rain of blows the Mexican was swinging wildly at him.

Herrera in his frantic efforts to land a knockout, dropped his guard and Nelson, with a right swing, caught the Mexican on the side of the jaw, staggering him. A rush by Nelson then sent the Mexican up against the ropes, and Nelson, although groggy himself, appeared to have the dark-skinned fighter dizzy. The gong saved a knockout, though honors were even, both men retiring to their corners with an unsteady gait.

The Chicago lad was fighting at such close quarters as to place the Mexican at a disadvantage. Though Herrera repeatedly crossed his right on Nelson, his blows lacked their former force and seemed to only sting the clever Chicago man into greater activity and fierceness. The capacity of Nelson to take punishment was marvelous, and his tenacity in pushing the issue with his swarthy opponent following a rain of blows from the Bakersfield lad called forth prolonged applause.

In the twentieth round Herrera went after Nelson in a wild manner, his blows being cleverly blocked by the Chicago lad, who sent in his left and right to the Mexican's body with telling effect. The men fought for a purse of $3,500, 60 per cent. for the winner and 40 for the loser.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The Act to provide a Government for the Territory of Hawaii provides that a general election shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1904, and that at least forty days before any election, the Governor shall issue an election proclamation, and

Whereas, It is provided in the Rules and Regulations for Administering Oaths and Holding Elections that no change shall be made as to the boundaries of any precinct within sixty days of election,—

Now, Therefore, In accordance therewith, I, George R. Carter, Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, hereby give notice that a general election for a Delegate to the House of Representatives of the United States to serve during the Fifty-ninth Congress, and for Senators and Representatives of the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii, will be held on Tuesday, November 8th, A. D. 1904, throughout the Territory between the hours of 8 o'clock a.m. and 5 o'clock p.m.

The Senatorial Districts are as follows:

FIRST DISTRICT—The Island of Hawaii;
SECOND DISTRICT—The Islands of Maui, Molokai, Lanai and Kahoolawe;;
THIRD DISTRICT—The Island of Oahu;
FOURTH DISTRICT—The Islands of Kauai and Niihau.

The electors in the said Senatorial Districts are entitled to elect Senators as follows:

In the First District—two;
In the Second District—two;
In the Third District—three;
In the Fourth District—one.

The Representative Districts, Registration Precincts and Polling Places are as follows:

FIRST DISTRICT.

Puna, Hilo and Hamakua, Island of Hawaii.

FIRST PRECINCT—That portion of Puna lying south of Keaau and from the eastern boundary of Kau to the eastern boundary of Kamaili, following that boundary to and along the western boundary of the Kaohe homesteads and a line the extension thereof to the boundary of Keaau.
Polling Place—Kalapana School House.

SECOND PRECINCT—The lands of Keaau and Olaa.
Polling Place—Road Board Stables; 11¾ miles Volcano Road.

It Will Improve Your Game

The Pneumatic Golf Ball is the only ball made that combines great liveliness off the wood and iron clubs with reliability in approaching and putting. Experts agree that, in adopting rubber-cored balls, distance was gained only at the cost of accuracy in the short game.

Horace Hutchinson, the English authority on golf, in a recently published article on the rubber-filled ball, says: "The truth is that you do not want a lively ball for approaching and putting: you do not want a ball that runs far off the pitch, nor one that is easily displaced by little roughnesses of the ground."

THAT'S WHY YOU WANT THE PNEUMATIC.

While as lively as the liveliest for the long game, it pitches dead on approach shots; does not hop and shy at slight unevenness of the putting greens; does not "gobble" nor jump out the cup. It "stays put".

The first time you try to put it you play short. That is because you have been playing a ball that is over-sensitive at the surface.

It is this slowness in putting that makes the ball so deadly accurate.

You will see on a moment's reflection that it is easier to calculate and control a strong putting stroke than an over-delicate one.

Once you recognize the advantage of this quality, a little practice puts you right.

Pneumatics are guaranteed not to cut. We have a lot of these balls, fresh from factory, which we are selling at 50c each, or $5.00 per doz. Try them.

Gentiles and Mormons Divide Utah Politics

Salt Lake, Sept. 7.—As a direct result of Senator Smoot's recent political activity a Gentile party is in progress of formation in Utah and leading Gentile Republicans, headed by Senator Kearns, have refused to support the Republican State ticket named two weeks ago. The convention was controlled by Smoot.

The Salt Lake Tribune, Senator Kearns' paper, has refused to indorse the ticket, charging that the Mormon church, through Smooth, is exercising absolute dictation of politics in Utah. Kearns and the manager of the Tribune have served notice on the State committee that the paper will support the National Republican ticket, but will have nothing to do with the State ticket unless the church announces that it will keep its hands off politics. The Salt Lake Telegram (independent Republican) will take a similar course. Chairman William Spry of the State Committee, a Mormon, says the ticket can win without the support of Gentiles.

"Where they get one Gentile Republican from us in Salt Lake," he says, "we will get two Mormon Democrtas in the country, so let them go ahead with their liberal party."

The Gentile movement was started by leading Gentiles, Republicans and Democrats, and has gained considerable size, although its work has been quietly done. Its membership embraces several millionaire mine owners and other men of wealth and it is said on authority that a campaign fund of $250,000 has already been pledged.

David Keith, business associate of Senator Kearns, and Frank Kno, president of the National Bank of the Republic, two prominent Gentiles, have reufsed to serve on the Republican State Finance Committee, the other members of which are known as Smoot men.

KOREAN PRINCE IN LOVE.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 30.—Prince Penkeel Euiwha, known as Prince Yee of Korea, is in love again. This time the object of his adoration is Miss Mary Buttles, who is 16 years of age and pretty. She belong to a prominent family of this city.

The Prince, while he was a student at Delaware, Ohio, had several love affairs and at one time his affection for a pretty girl of Cincinnati was broadly published. Since leaving Delaware he has been studying with a private tutor at Salem, Va. He met Miss Buttles and her mother at Mountain Lake Park, Md.

Rosebud Landholders Are Now Dissatisfied

Bonesteel, S. D., September 3.—There are about 2000 disappointed men and women scattered through the West who think that Uncle Sam handed them gold bricks in the Rosebud reservation opening.

In addition to these there are 104,000 holders of unlucky numbers in the big lottery, who declare the latest scheme for throwing open Government lands is the biggest frost ever known in the West. This discovery was made, they say, when an investigation of the reservation land began, and it was discovered that not over half the land is worth more than the Government price.

As a result, probably not over half of the 2412 winners in the lottery will file upon the claims they drew. Of the first 600 supposed winners of $5000 fortunes, 10 per cent dropped out, refusing to take the land after looking it over. When 1200 numbers had been called, 250 had concluded the land was not worth the price of a deed.

Che Foo, Sept. 8.—The Russian drydock at Port Dalny has been repaired and a Japanese torpedo boat destroyer is now undergoing repairs there. The Japanese raised the vessel which had been sunk at the entrance of the drydock by the Russians when they evacuated Port Dalny and they recently discovered the gate of the dock, also sunk by the Russians. With this in their possession the dock was speedily made effective.

RUSSIAN CAVALRY VICTORS.

Che Foo, Sept. 8.—Chinese who left Port Arthur on Monday arrived here today. They report that severe fighting occurred September 3. The Japanese attacked certain positions on the East and West of the ranks and the Russians allowed them to approach to within a short distance, when they opened a heavy fire and compelled the Japanese to retreat after three hours' fighting. An incident of the engagement was a clash between Japanese and Russian regiments of cavalry, resulting in the retreat of the former.

There is quite a color scheme involved in the attempt of Russia to get her fleet out of the Black Sea, through the Red and into the Yellow.—Toledo Times.

MAUNA LOA ARRIVES

The steamer Mauna Loa arrived from Kau, Kona and Maui ports this morning at 5:20 o'clock with 6000 bags H. A. Co and 2473 bags A. H. Co. sugar, 30 head cattle, 213 bags coffee, 387 hides, 101 bunches bananas, 87 bags Jap. taro, 42 boxes fish, 13 crates chickens, 19 cases fruits, 24 bags awa, 27 pigs, 3 crates pigs, 26 kegs butter, 4 tins butter, 69 pieces koa timber and 267 packages sundries.

The following sugar is reported at Hawaii ports ready for shipment: Kukuihaele, none; Honuapo, 117 bags; Honokaa, no report; Punaluu, none.

Purser Conkling reports as follows: On the outward trip we had smooth seats with little wind and occasional showers along the Kona coast. Made Honuapo and Punaluu Wednesday, landing G. H. Robertson and with cattle for the latter place.

During our stay at Kau the weather, which was good on our arrival, became rough. It was quite choppy at Honuapo Saturday with strong trades. Had moderated on Sunday.

Honuapo mill is still closed down for an overhauling. Pahala and Naalehu mills grind steadily. Plenty of rain in Kau and Kona. Three inches of rain had fallen in Hamakua during the latter part of last week. Coming home moderate trades and sea crossing the channels.

How time flies! In a month or so all the little George Dewey Smiths and George Dewey Brown will be celebrating their sixth birthdays.—Boston Globe.
