Warrant For Edmunds

On Serious Charge

Issued On Complaints

Trouble is at present breeding for H. W. S. Edmunds, the promoter, in connection with certain of his actions as manager of the new Inter-Island Fish and Refrigerating Company. The police this morning got wind of the fact that Edmunds has been charging Japanese fishermen of this city for mooring their boats. A number of the little brown men visited the police station today with their complaints. As a consequence, there is a warrant out for the arrest of Edmunds on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth heard today that Edmunds, by representing that he is manager of the Inter-Island Fish Co., had a right to collect wharfage, had collected a considerable sum of money from the Japanese fishermen. He sent Court Interpreter H. Miki to investigate the matter.

Miki soon found all manner of evidence to show that Edmunds had been collecting. He found over a hundred receipts for sums of $2 and $3. While some of these were signed by Edmunds as manager of the company named, some of them were signed with his signature alone. A sample of these receipts follows:

"Live Fish & Refrigerating Co.

"Received from Kanale Umakichi, $3 for rent of mooring, King St., No. E. 5.

"H. W. S. EDMUNDS."

This noon a great number of the Japanese fishermen went to the police station with their receipts. They were much agitated over the affair. They said they had already taken steps to bring the matter before the Japanese Consul. They seemed to be well satisfied that the police had taken the matter up.

The Japanese say that for the past three months Edmunds has been carrying on his collections. The Japanese fishing sampans moor in two places, some in Nuuanu stream near the King street bridge, and others makai of the channel wharf. The frequenters of both places were taxed. The Japanese stated that Edmunds taxed them $2 to $3 a month, representing to them that he as manager of the company had the right to collect this money for wharfage. If the men did not pay up promptly he, with the aid of a couple of men, would stop their sampans when they were going out fishing and demand the money. If this was not immediately forthcoming he would take from the sampan the rudder, oars or any other necessary implement without which the boat could not go to sea. When payment was delinquent the rate was doubled.

As proof of their charges the men brought along two painted sign boards, the like of which are said to be posted up all about the waterfront. These signs bear inscriptions in the Japanese language stating that all the fishing sampans must pay wharfage dues to the company and further that upon delinquency of payment the rate will be doubled.

High Sheriff Brown this noon called four of the fishermen into his office and personally investigated the matter. One of the men told him he had been in the habit of mooring his boat in Nuuanu stream. On March 9, as he was going out to sea to fish Edmunds and two Japanese had stopped him and demanded wharfage. As he did not have the money his rudder was taken from him. The owner of the sampan had to go up town and borrow the necessary money before he could get his rudder back. He was then allowed to proceed to sea.

The men said that Edmunds represented that he had the right to collect fees from all fishermen who fished inside of a limit three miles from Fort street and for mooring at all the wharves of the harbor. They also said that he had recently made a new regulation according to which all those who fished outside the three-mile limit and who did not sell to the company the fish they caught, would have to pay a tax of two cents per pound on fish caught.

The police figure that as there are about 120 sampans engaged in the fishing business in the waters near this city and as Edmunds has been collecting about three months there should be about 400 receipts extant. Of these over a hundred have been found and now in the possession of the police. The holders of the others are now at sea. Their receipts will be collected, as they return to the city.

High Sheriff Brown had a warrant made out for Edmunds' arrest this noon. He stated that Nuuanu stream as well as its walls were public property and no private party had the right to collect any wharfage from boats mooring there.

DENIES A QUASH

Judge Robinson this morning overruled pleas in abatement and denied motions to quash indictments against Sol. Meheula, Enoch Johnson and Jonah Kumalae for alleged voucher frauds, setting hearing of pleas for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. C. W. Ashford for defendants; E. C. Peters for the Territory.

HERE IS A MAN WITH NO COUNTRY

Juror Challenged As Not American Citizen.

BORN ON PLEASANT ISLAND OF A NATIVE

HIS FATHER BELONGED TO UNCLE SAM—CAME HERE IN 1869 AND HAS VOTED OFTEN.

John Andrews was this morning excused from serving as a juror in the Jones murder trial on the ground that he is not a citizen of the United States.

There was never a more surprised man than Andrews.

Leaving the jury box with a lost expression he steered straight for the office of the clerk of the United States District Court and stated that he wanted to become an American citizen at once.

He was referred to Judge Dole, to whom he related the strange revelation which had come to him in Judge Robinson's court.

Andrews was called to the jury box to be examined as to his qualifications to serve as a juror.

Deputy Attorney General Peters touched on his citizenship.

"Did you ever take the oath of allegiance to the Hawaiian Monarchy" asked Peters.

"I voted in this way; at the time there was a mass meeting of citizens to take away some power from King Kalakaua; they got anybody, British, American or any other, to vote, and I voted."

"Did you ever have papers of denization issued to you"

"No!"

"You were never admitted as a citizen of the United States?"

"No!"

Peters challenged the juror for cause.

Robertson denied the challenge.

In answer to Robertson's questions, Andrews stated that his father was an American and his mother a native of Pleasant Island. He married a part Hawaiian about twenty-one years ago. He had always voted and believed that he was an American citizen.

Robertson asked if Andrews had taken out any papers when he married. Andrews said he had.

"What papers?" asked counsel.

"Marriage papers," was the ready answer, to the amusement of all.

A. G. M. Robertson, for the defense, asked Andrews if he knew of the old Hawaiian law that upon marrying an Hawaiian a man became a citizen.

Peters declared he had never heard of such a law.

Robertson said there were many things Peters had not heard. Denying the challenge, he contended that Peters had not shown that Andrews was not a citizen.

Peters argued at length that because Andrews' father had been an American citizen and because Andrews had come to Hawaii at the age of nine and had twenty-one years ago married, did not prove that he was an American citizen. He had not shown that he had ever taken an oath of allegiance to the Monarchy, the Provisional Government or the Republic of Hawaii. He was not shown to be a citizen of Hawaii at the time of annexation and, although he had voted, he was not shown to be a citizen of the United States.

Robertson, after contra argument, asked for a recess to look up the naturalization records in the Secretary's office. This was granted and the rec-

BALFOUR VOTED DOWN

Half Million For Hawaii's Defences

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15.—The Senate today passed the Fortification Bill. This measure, as approved by the Senate, carries an item of $526,100 for the purchase of sites for defenses in Hawaii.

Carter's Attitude As To County Government

"Are you in sympathy with those of the Republican party who would put county government in the background in the next campaign?" was asked of Governor Carter this afternoon.

"That is a question difficult to answer," replied Mr. Carter, "my first impulse is to answer in the negative.

"Not to evade the question—but it altogether depends on what kind of county government is meant.

"We do not want to make the mistake that we made last time. There is no sense in repeating the same mistake; it would be foolish.

"To use 'county government' as a fetish in the next campaign, without first knowing something of the form of county government desired, would be like crying for a steam-engine without first making up our minds whether we wanted a steam-roller, a railroad locomotive or engines to equip a steamship.

"I am in favor of county government, yes; but any form of county government would have to be much modified as compared with our last attempt, unless we go to Congress.

"I do not stand as opposed to the principle of county government.

"There is a great need of recording offices in these islands. I have noticed some criticism of affairs on Reed Island, Hilo. On the mainland when a man buys a piece of land he goes to a recording office the same day, if possible. In Hawaii a man may buy land in Hilo and it may be several weeks before his deed is recorded in Honolulu. In the meanwhile there is the chance of the original owner disposing of the property to some one else. Should such a thing occur there would be good ground for criticism as to the system being lax. I understand that certain lands on Reed Island were found to have been mortgaged.

"I am not in favor of opposing the principle of local representation, if that is what you mean by county government."

Governor Carter was exceedingly busy and had but a moment between engagements with various heads of departments to give to a consideration of the question recorded above.

WARRANT FOR LAMBERT

A warrant of arrest was this noon made out on information by John Gouvea, the hackdriver, against Charles Lambert, the barkeeper of the Anchor saloon. The complaint charges that Lambert, who is employed as a barkeeper by D. H. Lewis, did on February 17 permit Edward Vivian Richardson, D. H. Lewis and others whose names are unknown, to gamble, to-wit, by shaking dice for money in the Anchor saloon. John Gouvea drove for Vivian Richardson on February 17, the night on which he is alleged to have taken $100 from the Water Works office safe. Lewis was last week fined $75 for allowing gambling in the Anchor saloon, the license of which he holds.

TRASK CAN SPEAK ONLY LIGHT ENGLISH

Albert Trask's qualifications as a trial juror were argued at length in the Jones murder trial this morning.

Deputy Attorney General Peters challenged the juror on the ground that he did not understand sufficient English to intelligently hear the case.

A. G. M. Robertson denied the challenge.

Trask is a contractor. He testified that he did his own figuring on jobs and made out his own bids. He did not have much use for books or newspapers. "Never bothered his head" with reading, although he could understand the sense of what he saw in the papers.

"I can understand light English," he said, "but I'm not sure of the hard words.

Asked as to what the word "innocence" meant, Trask replied that it signified something "bad."

Trask did not know what "presumption" meant.

"Doubt," he said, "is the balance of the mind."

Robertson thought the juror sufficiently conversant with English to serve. The argument waxed hot.

Trask had seen little of the Jones story in the newspapers. He had passed the account of the tragedy by; "it is always the case in the world, that way," he said, "and so I did not bother my head with the story."

Robertson thought Peters' standard, to which he was endeavoring to subject jurors, could not be reached by one juror out of fifty.

Trask was finally excused, Robertson noting an exception.

E. S. Gregory was excused on account of an opinion. He is a member of the California bar.

FEDERAL JURORS.

Judge Dole has drawn grand jurors for the next term of Federal Court as follows: Honolulu E. E. Paxton, W. S. Withers, Thomas Hollinger, W. H. Hoogs, C. H. Gilman, C. H. Atherton, Arthur Harrison, Fred Johnson, J. P. Howatt, John Ellinger, E. D. Tenney, W. H. Holokahiki, M. G. Hopkins, W. D. Bancroft, W. W. Bruner, J. R. Higgby. Hilo: Henry E. Kelsey, G. F. Affonso, W. A. Birkholden, A. L. Greenwell, Kealakekua; Hugh McCorriston, Kamalo; F. W. Carter and August Gramberg, Waimea, Hawaii.

Jurors will appear in court April 11. The Adachi case will be one of the first to demand attention.

Dr. H. N. Churton, Protestant Episcopal bishop of the Bahamas, was drowned on January 20 while attempting to go aboard a mission yacht off Rugges Island, near Nassau.

Defeated On First Ballot and Upheld On the Second

[Associated Press Special Cable.]

LONDON, England, March 15.—The Balfour Government suffered a defeat today in the House of Commons by a vote of 141 to 130.

The issue was raised on a motion of Mr. Redmond for a reduction of the Irish educational estimates.

The Government leaders refused to resign and on the second ballot were sustained by a majority of twenty-five. The incident caused intense excitement and gives evidence of the very weak hold the Balfour regime has upon its tenure of office.

HE FROWNED.

"Full well the busy whisper, circling 'round,
Conveyed the dismal tidings that he frowned."

Goldsmith's "Pedagogue" was a man of moods, and his pupils understood them.

He frowned, probably because his eyes were defective; it was an indication that he needed glasses, but in those days they were not to be had, scientifically adjusted for such defect.

We live in a different age.

Here we supply glasses for all defects of vision—properly adjusted.

WAS TEN HOURS AHEAD OF TIME

The steamer Mauna Loa arrived from Kau, Kona and Maui ports at 5:50 o'clock this morning with 3500 bags H. A. Co. sugar, 4067 bags A. H. Co. sugar, 918 bags coffee, 32 head cattle, 20 kegs butter, 5 barreds oranges, 14 bundles hides, 71 bunches bananas, 22 bags awa, 16 bags taro, 17 pigs, 3 boxes chickens, 7 boxes fish and 215 packages sundries.

The following sugar is reported at Hawaii ports ready for shipment: Honuapo, none; Honokaa, 4700; Punaluu, 3 bags; Kukuihaele, no report.

Purser Conkling reports as follows: "On the outward trip we experienced fine weather with little wind and smooth sea. We made the run to Kau on Wednesday landing passengers and mail at Honuapo ten hours ahead of time. During our stay at Kau the weather was fine. Several light showers fell.

"On account of lack of water we got but 3500 bags of sugar from H. A. Co. At Honuapo we got 4000 bags from Naalehu mill. Honuapo mill will start grinding in about a week. Pahala mill is expected to shut down for repairs at about the end of this month.

"Smooth weather with little wind on the inward trip, except at Kailua, where it began to blow and a high choppy sea arose just before we left. Heavy showers crossing the channel. Weather at Hamakua was fair. Heavy showers crossing the channel. Plenty of rain on Maui. The island of Kahoolawe appeared to be flooded as we passed on our way to Maalaea."

WATER POURED OFF KAHOOLAWE

The officers of the steamer Mauna Loa report that the island of Kahoolawe seems to be flooded by heavy rains. Yesterday, when the Mauna Loa passed the island, while on her way from Kailua to Maalaea, it was noticed that vast masses of water were pouring off the island into the sea.

Captain Simerson, who has sailed in these waters for over thirty years, reports that never before has he seen a similar occurrence off Kahoolawe. The soil of the island consists principally of red dirt, which soon cakes and forms a clay. This prevents the rain from seeping into the ground and as a consequence most of the water pours right off into the sea. The officers of the Mauna Loa are of the opinion that Kahoolawe must have been visited by tremendous rains.

PRINCE OF ENTERTAINERS

Mr. Gavin Spence, the celebrated Edinburgh tenor, and Miss Flora Donaldson, the Scottish prima donna, who give their famous "Song and Story" recital in the Opera House on Monday evening next, are the happiest combination of entertainers hailing from the "land o' cakes". Highly gifted vocally, their delightful solos and duets alone would form a splendid program, but to his merits as a singer Mr. Spence adds the wonderful gift of story-telling which has earned for him the title of "Prince of Scottish Entertainers". He is an entertainer who can keep the attention of the audience firmly riveted on him as he relates his humorous Scotch stories. He knows the value of a climax and the power of witty repartee, redressing old anecdotes and relating new ones with the gusto of a born raconteur.

The Clinton (Missouri) Democrat describes Mr. Spence as "A canny Scot who has traveled 'aboot the countrie wi' his een open' and who can not only see the oddities of America, but the added wisdom has enabled him to see the whims and singularities of his own people."

Mr. Spence as a reader has been favorably contrasted with Byron W. King, the great American elocutionist, and perhaps no higher compliemnt could be paid him.

The box plan for this high-class entertainment opens tomorrow morning at Wall, Nichols at 9 a. m. and reservations should be made early as there is likely to be a big demand for seats.

KANAE IN TROUBLE.

Deputy Sheriff Rex Hitchcock, of Molokai, arrived in the Claudine from Kahului Sunday and left again in the Lehua last evening to serve a bench warrant on Attorney Kanae who is to appear before the Maui Circuit Judge. Kanae is to be tried for unprofessional conduct and his license as an attorney may be taken from him. It is alleged that he was given some bills to collect by a Chinese storekeeper. The latter state that they never received the money. They kept after the attorney and finally agreed to accept his note. Nothing has been paid on the note, although it is two years old. The matter came up before the Circuit Court and witnesses were summoned. Two of the witnesses communicated with Hitchcock and asked him if they should obey the summons. They had been told by Kanae that they need not respond to the order. A bench warrant was thereupon issued by the judge.

WATERHOUSE TRUST CO. REORGANIZED

There has been a reorganization of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., action having been taken yesterday afternoon. Robert W. Shingle, who has been associated with the concern for the past six years, is head of the reorganized corporation.

The Waterhouse stock in the concern changed hands last Saturday. The purchasers of the one-half interest were Bishop & Co., bankers, D. W. Anderson, Bruce Cartwright, W. R. Castle and A. N. Campbell. At a meeting yesterday, the following officers were elected: President, R. W. Shingle; Vice President, Bruce Cartwright; Secretary, D. W. Anderson; Treasurer, Albert N. Campbell; Director, W. R. Castle; Auditor, A. W. T. Bottomley and Bishop & Co., bankers.

Th einterests held by Albert Waterhouse personally, together with those of his father, the late Henry Waterhouse, and R. H. Trent, were purchased by the new shareholders. Mr. Waterhouse goes out of the concern to devote his time to the interests of the Waterhouse estate. Mr. Trent is also out and may go to Manila to accept an offer which he has been considering for some time past. For the present he will continue his office at the Trust Company and will still represent the Volcano House Co.

Korea Beef Cargo Was Not Contraband

It is stated that the P. M. steamer "Korea's" cargo of provisions, shipped at San Francisco for Port Arthur, is now lying at Nagasaki, and if any attempt is made to remove it to its destination it will be treated as contraband of war.

The cargo consists of 12,240 casks of beef, each containing 50 lbs., and 10,080 casks, each containing 5 lbs., consigned to a firm in Port Arthur by the Cudahy Packing Company of Chicago. It is stated that a broker who came across the Pacific in charge of the cargo paid duty to the Japanese Customs of yen 150,000. According to the statement of the Superintendent of Customs at Nagasaki, the cargo will only become contraband of war if shipped to the enemy's country. The owners are therefore free to dispose of it or re-ship it to America, and for this reason the Prize Court has not taken measures for the seizure of the cargo. It is considered probable that the provisions will be returned, as the warehousing of the goods involves a large expenditure.

Messrs. Holme, Ringer & Co., are the agents for the cargo, and applied to have the provisions entered by the customs. The fact that war had not broken out when the cargo was shipped at San Francisco has saved the provisions from being confiscated as contraband.—Kobe Chronicle.

RUSSIAN STORY OF FIRST ATTACK ON PORT ARTHUR

St. Petersburg, March 5.—A letter from an officer of the Russian cruiser Pallada has been received here describing the first attack by the Japanese upon Port Arthur. The writer denies the story that the officers of the Russian fleet were ashore and confirms the statement that the Japanese made use of false lights. He asserts that at 11 o'clock at night a practice drill to repel a torpedo attack was executed and that toward midnight four Russian torpedo boats, which simulated the enemy, headed back toward Dalny, from which place they had come. The crews of the fleet had retired, only the watch remaining on deck. The ships were in the outer harbor and the captain of the Pallada, which vessel occupied the advance position, had descended from the bridge for a last look around before going below, when he perceived lights advancing. The ship's lights shown were white above red—being those of the Rusisan warships when they enter the harbor. The captain of the Pallada supposed the approaching vessels were the Russian torpedo boats returning from Dalny and his suspicions were only aroused when upon drawing nearer they covered and uncovered their lights at irregular intervals. The signal tower signalled that the lights were not understood.

At this moment the Pallada's captain, through the thick night, made out the outlines of the torpedo boat destroyers' smokestacks in pairs, amidships. As the stacks of the Russian destroyers are in line fore and aft, the crews of the Russian ships were instantly called to quarters.

In less than three minutes the Pallada's men were at their posts, orders were given that the guns be charged with grape and a fierce fire was opened on the on-coming Japanese. The battleships Cesarvitch and Retvizan, which were in the first line, a short distance astern of the Pallada, also opened fire almost immediately. A terrific explosion occurred under the hull of the Pallada, raising a torrent of water which submerged the cruiser's deck, but did not stop her firing or maneuvering, which now, however, were complicated by the measures taken to close a breach amidships, below the water line, made by the explosion of the torpedo.

Soon afterwards two other torpedoes exploded almost simultaneously, one under the bow of the Retvizan and the other under the stern of the Cesarevitch. This double explosion ended the attack, the Japanese vessels retiring at full speed.

A naval expert writing to the Novosti predicts that Korea will prove a mouse-trap to the Japanese, adding that "not one-hundredth part of the yellow Napoleons will get out alive."

The weather at Port Arthur during the last few days has been much warmer, indicating the approach of Spring.

A RAPID TRANSIT EPISODE.

This morning about half past ten, a tall lady with a half-sized husband boarded a King street car, the lady was wearing her husband on her right hand, when they entered the husband looked up, and said to his wife: "You're tall enough to reach a strap, but what can I hold," she said, "If I was as short as you are, I'd hold my tongue," so he took hold of his tongue, the car started and he fell down, whereupon his dutiful spouse hollored, "What's the matter, can't you stand up?" Said hubby, "They both slipped." "Both what," said the wife. "Both my feet and my tongue," said the little husband, but let's get off the car and go and see Bath the plumber and have a look at that new line of Douglass Patent Closets that have just arrived. His telephone is 61 Main.

TUESDAY.....MARCH 15, 1904.

Curtis Iaukea had to get into the Home Rule party for his first encounter with the real thing in factional politics.

Doings of the Turk family day by day is a news department in the morning press that takes the place of a lull in stratoogy.

Japan's orders on what not to publish indicate that reports of any reverses or serious losses in the army or navy will not come from Japanese sources.

"Build Christian homes in Utah." What's the matter with building Christian homesteads in Hawaii. It is always easier to preach reform abroad than practice it at home.

Political recommendations from the Advertiser are timely reminders that lines are being laid to secure the defeat of Republican principles and the Republican party in Hawaii.

To keep pace with its non-smoking rule and the spirit of the hour, the Rapid Transit or the police department should promulgate a regulation against passengers matching nickels for carfare.

Admiral Terry expresses the true American sentiment when he says "We can't be too neutral" in the war between Russia and Japan. Russia was a true friend of this country when our new found friends and closer relatives were giving moral support to those who would destroy the nation.

It will be a happy day for Hawaii and the Hawaiians when the Home Rule party becomes a thing of the past and its followers distribute themselves in the Republican and Democratic camps. Home Ruleism has been and ever will be a weapon in the hands of Hawaii's enemies to use against the Hawaiian-Americans.

The financial status of the Territory rests largely with the test case which ought to be in process of determination. The Attorney General's department is admittedly busy, but the importance of this case to the business interests of the Territory make it imperative that the proceedings shall not longer languish on the shelf. Where there's a will there's a way.

The Boston Transcript is responsible for the story that the late Senator Hanna in his fevered delirium was making a nominating speech for Roosevelt. This is the only incident since the death of the great President maker that has suggested a feeling of doubt as to Roosevelt's nomination on the first ballot. If this yarn is promoted by the President's friends he has occasion to request that he be saved from them.

The anti-Trust Law has been upheld. In other words, the country is not yet so completely in the hands of monied manipulators that the Government may be supplanted by a Wall street oligarchy. As a campaign document for the Republican party the fight against the Northern Pacific merger will be of much value. Its most powerful influence, however, is the reassertion of the American principle that liberty is not license.

Hearst's capture of the Rhode Island delegation means that his candidacy for the Presidential nomination is based on something more material than the youthful dream usually charged to his account. While Gorman and Parker have been planning what they would do when President, Hearst has been gathering delegates in conservative strongholds. With Bryan's support assured he is reasonably certain of the radical wing.

Admission of the four remaining mainland Territories as two States is on the boards as probable during the present session of Congress. This will leave Hawaii as the only organized Territory of the country. If this means greater Congressional interest in Hawaii, it will receive unanimous endorsement. The unpleasant feature is the probability of Hawaii being thereby side-tracked into the new-possession class and dealt with accordingly.

According to published statistics of last year's shipbuilding rendered to the State Department the number of vessels launched in the whole world was 2,441, with a tonnage of 2,679,531 and an indicated horsepower of 2,352,485. For 1902 the number of vessels launched was 2,394, wit ha tonnage of 2,715,670 and an indicated horsepower of 2,017,254. More than one-half the new tonnage of 1903 was produced within the United Kingdom, England turning out 871 vessels of 766,295 tons, Scotland 362 vessels of 484,853 tons, and Ireland 25 vessels of 158,482 tons. With the exception of the United States, no other country launched an aggregate tonnage equal to the Clyde alone, which built during th eyear 277 vessels of 446,869 tons. The statistics show that there were decreases on the Clyde, th eTay, the Dee, the Tyne, the Wear, the Tees, the Hartlepools, the Tames, in Ireland, Germany, France, and Holland, and increases on the Forth, the Mersey, the Humber, the English Channel, in the colonies, the United States, Russia, Norway and Sweden, Italy, Austria, Hungary, Japan, Denmark, Belgium, and China.

FIGHTING COUNTY GOVERNMENT.

Opponents of local self-government have been good enough to openly declare themselves. The principal contest in the Republican party, in its primaries and conventions to be held previous to the fall campaign, will be over the old question of county government. The party and the Territorial Administration have made positive declarations in favor of a county law that will give the island communities as large a measure of local self-government as was contemplated by the county law which failed before the courts on a technicality. The opposition has begun its campaign to defeat the party and the administration.

The program of the law's opponents is one of repudiation. Repudiation of the Administration's specific declarations, reversal of the chief plank of the Republican party platform, the promotion of a retrogressive centralized policy, a continuation of the old plan that has been voted as incompetent and unsatisfactory by every political organization in the Territory;—this is the program that is now being fostered by the old-time enemies of popular government. The same old cry is used—lack of confidence in the electorate and the threat of increased taxes. Failure of an independent American form of government in the court predominated by centralized theorists is warped into a declaration from the people.

The situation is changed from that of two years ago only in the attitude of the Administration. Governor Carter has taken a flat-footed stand for county government as against his predecessor's steadfast opposition. In this position the Governor has gained the confidence of the people and support for his administration. Popular sentiment has not changed, and it is still true that the party that declares against or takes a shifty position on this question courts certain defeat.

It is not true that county government means increased taxation. It is true that such a result is what the enemies of local self-government have constantly attempted to accomplish. This element, while preaching economy, has always stood for high Territorial salary-rolls, and will continue to advocate such extravagance, hoping that the people may be hoodwinked into believing that readjustment of Territorial and county government so that the expense may come within the present income is impossible.

The campaign is now on, and is being daily fostered by L. A. Thurston, to overthrow the Republican Administration policy and defeat government of, by and for the people. It is up to the rank and file to determine whether the party shall suffer defeat at the hands of a minority faction.

Delegateships Are Under Discussisn

The coming primaries is the subject for discussion among Republicans today. There have been but few names mentioned outside of the list published the other day consisting of Governor Carter, Delegate Kuhio, Hon. Samuel Parker, C. L. Crabbe and R. W. Breckons. E. C. Winston, manager of the Sanitary Steam Laundry, and Archie Mahaulu, of Ewa, are other names that have been mentioned. Parker, if he goes into the fight, will probably run on Hawaii and rumor has it that he will win out.

It is alleged that R. W. Breckons cannot run, as he has not only not voted here but his position as a Federal officer and a candidate for a delegateship is said to be against the sentiment of the Republican party.

Maui has not come out very strong for a delegate but there is some talk that Hon. H. P. Baldwin will be mentioned when the time comes. Should he run, Mr. Baldwin is pretty certain of election.

Kauai will be a unit in favor of George N. Wilcox as its representative in the delegation.

ords in the Capitol were consulted, but Andrews' name was not found.

Judge Robinson allowed Peters' challenge for cause and Andrews was excused.

So John Andrews, who has lived here since 1869, who married here in the early eighties, whose father was an American citizen and whose mother was a native of Pleasant Island of the Gilbert Group, is said not to be a citizen. For twenty years he has voted in Hawaii, but he is not a citizen.

"Of course I will be uglier some day," she whispered. "Impossible!" he replied gallantly. And he wonders that she sent his presents back. — New Yorker.

SATURDAY'S ACTION OF HOME RULERS BEING INVESTIGATED

There is something doing in Home Rule circles today but no information could be secured. Both fusionists and non-fusionists have been very busy indeed flying about the streets, holding conferences, and then going to headquarters on Maunakea street.

Perhaps the action of Saturday in ousting Iaukea from the chairmanship of the executive committee is sitting rather heavily on those who were responsible for the unlucky vote of 13.

It has been learned that neither Curtis P. Iaukea, chairman, nor Jonah Kumalae, vice-chairman, issued the call for the special meeting of Saturday last. By the rules of the party, the chairman is the one who should call the meeting and, in the event of his absence, the vice-chairman. Now Iaukea, chairman, was in the city and he had absoltuely no knowledge of the meeting. Again, the chairman of the committee investigating Iaukea's case was not present and many others have been found who were not notified of the special meeting of the executive committee.

For this reason, there is a general kick, and it is supposed that this is the cause of all the activity today. The result may be a reversal of the action of Saturday. Strict Home Rule party men are not satisfied and there is trouble brewing which may lead to a call of a meeting, proper notification of which will be given to all those concerned.

The contention of those who voted against deposing Mr. Iaukea the other day is that the action taken Saturday was not legal and that Mr. Iaukea is still at the head of affairs.

It has been further learned that the party rules prescribe particularly that in a case such as the one of Saturday, a two-thirds vote is necessary before action can be taken. This means at least 44 votes and there were only 13 cast against Iaukea.

Developments will be forthcoming in a day or so. The claim is made that the meeting was called by someone who is not an officer of the executive committee and that it was stuffed with representatives of the old, old school.

Those who voted to oust Iaukea at the meeting of Saturday were as follows: Kalelhuia, Charles Notley, David Notley, Kaona, Kamakaia, Kaaikaula, Polikapa, Kalaehao, Waihoe, H. Meheula, E. W. Palau, Wm. Kahele and David Kupihea. Those who voted against such action were as follows: J. M. Poepoe, George Markham, Kanealii and Jonah Kumalae.

BERGER'S BAND TO WORLD'S FAIR

Bandmastre Berger has conceived a scheme whereby Hawaii maybe partially represented at the World's Fair at St. Louis without expense to the Territory. Berger's plan, in fact, if proved successful, will save the local Government a few hundreds.

This morning the veteran leader of the Territorial band called on Governor Carter to lay bare his idea and to seek the gubernatorial approval and support.

Through the months when the great exposition will be running, numerous bands are to be employed by the fair. Berger sees no reason why Hawaii's famous aggregation of musicians should not be one of those bands so employed. He informed the Governor, that, with his permission, he would write on to the exposition authorities and make them a reasonable proposition. If the offer of the Government band be accepted, the full company of instrumentalists and singers would lose no time in going to the scene of action.

During the absence of the band from Hawaii the Government would be relieved of any expense of maintenance and would be in pocket the amount which would be expended for the salaries and other items of expense connected with the band should it remain here.

Governor Carter favored Captain Berger's plan and granted the leader permission to put his proposition to the St. Louis fair authorities.

Berger will at once communicate with the proper parties and use every effort to have his band employed by the exposition for the season.

Hawaii, Honolulu particularly, will miss the music, but the presence of the band boys and the girl singers at the fair, it is thought, will prove a splendid advertisement for the Territory and will at the same time relieve the treasury at a time when every dollar is needed. The entire expenses of the band would be borne by the exposition, which will retain numerous such aggregations for entertainment purposse.

BUFORD ON WAY HERE.

U. S. Depot Quartermaster Captain McK. Williamson has received a cablegram stating that the U. S. Army transport Buford left San Francisco for Manila, via Guam and Honolulu last Friday at 10 a. m. She is expected to arrive here Saturday morning. The Buford will probably remain here at last two days as she will take 700 tons of coal.

MEXICO HAS TROUBLES.

Tacoma, Wash., March 2.—Col. H. H. Thompson, who has become familiar with Mexican affairs through a long residence near the Texas border, believes that a revolution will follow the transfer of governmental power by President Diaz to Limantour, whom Diaz will supposedly appoint Vice President when he leaves Mexico on his prospective two years' tour of the world.

Thompson has just returned from Mexico, and claims to base his belief on the opinions of men familiar with Mexican politics. Diaz long ago absolutely separated church and state, but lately has been more lenient toward the church through the influence of his wife and Limantour. Thompson believes that if Limantour returns confiscated lands to the church a revolution will follow, headed by General Bernardino Reyes, who remains popular with all classes. Thompson's informants figure that Limantour's chief support will be the police of the City of Mexico and about 2,600 country police. Limantour is a Frenchman, while Reyes is a native.

TREMBLE TO COME TO HONOLULU TO FIGHT BARRY

The talk in sporting circles today is on the subject of the next series of fights at the Orpheum, which Mr. Cohen has already started on.

By today's mail went a letter to Tremble, of Los Angeles, instructing him to come to Honolulu during the latter part of April to fight Dave Barry, the champion of the islands. The offer made is a liberal one and it is quite certain that Tremble will come.

As is well known, this fighter was given a decision over both Barry and Murphy in fights on the Coast with these men. In the case of Barry, the fight lasted for the full ten rounds, Tremble unquestionably defeating his opponent.

Since that time, Barry has improved wonderfully and it is believed by many of the members of the sporting fraternity here that he could now hold his own with the man who now seeks to wrest his laurels from him.

Another event being talked of is a fight between Ulysses Harris and Silva, the Portuguese fighter, but it is probable that the latter will go up against Ackerman.

Jackson and Modlin are just itching for another chance to get at each other, the draw of Saturday night last being satisfactory to neither one or the other of the men. They will unquestionably be granted their wish.

Castro, the Telephone Smasher, will probably be seen in the ring no more. He has a very bad side, having been once injured in the place where Modlin hit him such a hard blow on Saturday night last. Several days previous to the fight he wore a plaster over the injured portion of his body and had the management known of this he would not have been allowed to enter the ring.

Since Saturday night last there has been considerable comment on the streets on the difference in weight between Barry and Murphy and it is being claimed by admirers of the latter that his opponent should have trained down in weight before meeting him in the ring. The claim is that Murphy weighed 151½ and that Barry tipped the scales for 162, a difference of 11½ pounds.

It has been suggested that Millet be sent for to come to Honolulu to fight Barry and this may be done after the Tremble-Barry contest during the latter part of April or early in May.

Rules Laid Down For War Reports

Yokohama, March 1.—The Superintendent of the Yokohama Chief Police Station summoned the representatives of the local foreign press to his office on February 29th and issued the following instructions, regarding matters which should not be published:

1. Strategical affairs.
2. Future military movements.
3. Organizations of squadrons.
4. Damages inflicted by warships including torpedo-boats and transports.
5. Disposition of the army in the field.
6. Distance of cannonades and quantity of ammunition.
7. Position or name of places where troops concentrate or what places are used as military bases.
8. Stations of warships including torpedo-boats and transports.
9. Conditions with regard to coal, drinking water, and military necessities on warships, including torpedo-boats and transports.

It was added that if any news is printed such as to enable readers to understand the meaning of any such movement, though important names are omitted, the paper concerned will be prosecuted. Such reports must first be inspected by the authorities before being printed.

The police also handed over a pamphlet, containing a speech by Major Nogawa of the Army, delivered in Tokio for the guidance of journalists in regard to the affairs. This pamphlet dwells upon the necessity for preserving military secrets and summarized the tactics pursued in the Japan-China and Franco-German wars with regard thereto.

JAPAN'S WAR TAXES.

Yokohama, March 3.—It is reported that the Government intends to obtain about seventy million yen additional revenue by means of increased taxation. It is rumored that the land and the income taxes will be doubled. The tariff for the sale of leaf tobacco will be raised. The sake tax will also be increased. It is added that a silk cloth tax will be instituted. These taxes will be either restored to the original rate or decreased upon the restoration of peace, but as it is certain that the national expenditures will increase after the war, the Government is considering the creation of permanent sources of additional revenue.

WRITTEN IN BLOOD.

Tokio, March 1.—Admiral Togo reports to Admiral Viscount Ito that in response to his call for volunteers to man the five steamers which were intended to block the harbor at Port Arthur, two thousand men volunteered, and one of them wrote his application in blood. On eman was killed on the Jinsen Maru, and three were wounded on the Hokkoku Maru. These are the two vessels that were sunk on either side of the Retvisan.

TO SUBMIT TEST CASE SATURDAY ON BRIEFS

Deputy Attorney General E. C. Peters stated this forenoon that the appropriations test case would be submitted to the Supreme Court on briefs.

Peters, representing the Hawaiian Star Newspaper Association, which, for the sake of the test, appeals from the refusal of the Auditor to issue a warrant on a printing bill, and Holmes & Stanley, acting for Auditor Fisher, will present their briefs on Saturday of this week and it is expected that by Wednesday of next week the Supreme Court will have ready a decision in the matter which has, in one way and another, been pending since the Supreme Court rendered a decision knocking out the County Act.

Upon the death of the County Act, it will be remembered, Governor Carter sought conference with members of the Legislature as to the best method of financial procedure, the elimination of the county system having left the affairs of the Territory in a tangle of questions in regard to money matters. Members of the Senate advised proceeding on the basis of certain appropriation bills, but recommended that the question of how far the Government could proceed should be submitted to the Supreme Court in the form of a test case. Governor Carter then went to Hawaii for a tour of the Island and left the matter in the hands of Attorney General Andrews. Nothing was done and finally Andrews went to Washington to represent the Territory in the fishery cases, leaving Peters to bring the test case. A case was prepared and submitted to the Supreme Court at chambers, but, for the last ten days, nothing more was heard of the affair until today. The Attorney General's Department, with Andrews away, has been very busy with the Jones murder case, the Grand Jury and other business and it has been understood that for this reason argument in regard to the test has been held up. Submission on briefs simplifies matters and light on the situation is expected next week.

SENN CHANGES PLANS

Some time ago it was stated that Dr. Nicholas Senn, of Chicago, a man well known here, had planned to go to Japan with a corps of physicians and trained nurses, the idea being to care for the wounded of the Japanese army and navy.

Among those who were to go with Dr. Senn was a former Honolulu doctor. A letter received from the latter in the last steamer states that Dr. Senn had given up his plan for the present. No reason is given for this change although it is stated by some that the Japanese Government was very probably communicated with and had announced that the Japanese medical men of the army and navy were perfectly capable of caring for the wounded among their own people.

This change of plans will also nip in the bud the proposition of Blanche Bates, the actress who, at last accounts, was organizing a corps of nurses to go to the front.

John Millikan, the oldest editor in the State of Indiana, lives in Crown Point, in good health and at the age of 89 years. He is still connected with the Lake County "Register."

CARTER LAND POLICY

Editor Evening Bulletin:—With your indulgence I would like to make a few remarks anent the Advertiser's attack on Governor Carter's land policy.

While I am in favor of giving as much land to as many homesteaders as possible, and while I believe that were there the land here available to do this it would undoubtedly result to the great benefit of the Territory, yet I am unable, under the circumstance, to give the Advertiser and its inspirators the least credit for sincerity. On the contrary, it is my firm belief that those behind that newspaper are working as neat a "double-cross' or bunco game in this matter as can be conceived. They do it in order, no doubt, to be able to make some kind of a showing at Washington when their Americanism is questioned. Should they be charged at Washington with endeavoring to prevent the advent of good American farmers in Hawaii, they can point with injured innocence to their "crusade for homesteaders" through their hireling, the Advertiser. There are several things to be considered in doubting the sincerity of this paper in this matter, a few of which follow:

He is also president of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry. This board has, I believe, the power of establishing forest reservations. Most of the Government land remaining is at a considerable elevation, the majority of the low-lying and most desirable lands having long ago passed into the hands of corporations and "kamaainas". This board, it is understood, has adopted a certain elevation, above which all Government lands are to be reserved for forests, which leaves, as all can see, but a strip of land between certain elevations available for homesteads. Yet L. A. through his servant howls for "small farmers".

The Board of Agriculture and Forestry also has the power of condemning all plants, seeds, striplings, shrubs, sprouts, etc., imported into this Territory, from foreign parts where these growths may be diseased or infected with contagious plant maladies. This theory is all right, but the practice—well, we should certainly demand that uninterested parties have charge of the execution. Only recently they condemned and destroyed thousands of pineapple plants imported from somewhere because they heard that pineapples were sick in that country. Now, with this power, what could (and they certainly would) they do to a "small farmer" who might happen to import some vanilla cuttings or any other plant? They could do as they pleased. If they thought an industry inimical to their established interests was about to be born they could (and would) murder it in its infancy. The Board has, as can be seen, confined the available Government land for homesteads to the minimum, and should some man be fortunate enough to secure some of it they can virtually dictate to him what he shall raise, outside of things already growing here. Neat, isn't it?

Another thing, the quality and quantity of Government land left is generally poor and very small, and the Advertiser can safely howl for homesteaders from the top of its gigantic monument of hypocrisy.

But when they try to criticize the Governor from behind such a fictitious barricade, it is time to bombard them.

CARTERITE.

WANT OUR FRIENDSHIP.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—The Russian Government earnestly desires the conservation of friendship between the United States and the Empire. The opinion is expressed here that the two countries are now on the eve of a better understanding of the points concerning which differences have existed. The campaign of recrimination which is progressing in a portion of the press of both countries is deprecated, and the Government here specifically disavows responsibility for the utterances of some Russian papers against the United States, which in turn have inflamed a portion of the American press against Russia. An official of the Foreign Office today pointed out the erroneous impression prevailing abroad that Russian newspapers, owing to the censorship exercised over the news, expressed only news sanctioned by the authorities, whereas, as a matter of fact, the newspapers editorially, have the widest latitude and they frequently embarrass the Government by their unrestrained criticism of other countries.

The correction of the original version of the Vicksburg incident at Chemulpo has already affected Russian public opinion favorably. The report of Commander Marshall, captain of the Vicksburg, has been communicated to Foreign Minister Lamsdorff by United States Embassador McCormick, and the formal thanks of the Russian Admiralty will be tendered as soon as a detailed report is received from the captain of the Variag.

KUMALAE VOTED.

Jonah Kumalae, vice chairman of the Home Rule executive committee, stated to a Bulletin reporter today that he had voted at a meeting of that body on Saturday last when the laukea matter was brought up and it was proposed to depose him as chairman of the committee. The vote stood 13 to 4 in favor of ousting laukea, instead of 13 to 3 as reported in the Bulletin yesterday, it having been reported that the presiding officer did not vote.

LAZARRE

BY

MARY HARTWELL CATHERWOOD

(Based Upon the Mystery Surrounding the Fate of the Dauphin, Son of Louis XVI. and Marie Antoinette.)

Copyright, 1901, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY.

The blood must have rushed over my face. I had a submerged feeling, looking out of it at the priest.

"Well, monseigneur?"

"It is like her heavenly goodness."

"Do you see nothing but her heavenly goodness in it?"

"This is the message?"

"It is the message I crossed the ocean to bring."

"With the consent of her uncle?"

"Mme. d'Angouleme never expresses a wish contrary to the wishes of his majesty."

"We are, then, to suppose that Louis XVIII. offers me, through you, monsieur, the opportunity to sign away my rights and, failing that, the opportunity of taking them?"

"Supposing you are monseigneur the dauphin, we will let our supposition run as far as this."

I saw distinctly the position of Louis XVIII. Marquis du Plessy had told me he was a mass of superstition. No doubt he had behaved, as Bellenger said, for the good of the royalist cause. But the sanction of heaven was not on his behavior. Bonaparte was let loose on him like the dragon from the pit. And Frenchmen, after yawning eleven months or so in the king's august face, threw up their hats for the dragon. In his second exile the inner shadow and the shadow of age combined against him. He had tasted royalty. It was not as good as he had once thought. Beside him always he saw the face of Marie Therese. She never forgot the hushed mystery of her brother. Her silence and obedience to the crown, her loyalty to juggling and evasion, were more powerful than resistance.

A young man, brought suddenly before the jaded nation and proclaimed at an opportune moment, might be a successful toy. The sore old king would oil more than the royalist cause, and the blessing of heaven would descend on one who restored the veritable dauphin.

I never have seen the most stupid man doubt his power to ride if somebody hoists him into the saddle.

"Let us go further with our suppositions," I said, "Suppose I decline?"

I heard Mme. de Ferrier gasp.

The priest raised his eyebrows.

"In that case you will be quite willing to give me a signed paper declaring your reasons."

"I sign no paper."

"Let me suggest that monseigneur is not consistent. He neither resigns his supposed rights nor will he exercise them."

"I will neither resign them nor exercise them."

"This is virtually resigning them."

"The abbe will pardon me for saying it is not. My rights are mine, whether I use them or not."

"Monseigneur understands that opportunity is a visitor that comes but once."

"I understand that the most extraordinary thing has happened today that will ever go unrecorded in history. One Bourbon offers to give away a throne he has lost and another Bourbon refuses it."

"You may well say it will go unrecorded in history. Excepting this lady"—the abbe bowed toward Eagle—"there is no witness."

"Wise precautions have been taken," I agreed. "This scrap of paper may mean anything or nothing."

"You decline?" he repeated.

"I think France is done with the Bourbons, monsieur the abbe. A fine spectacle they have made of themselves, cooling their heels all over Europe, waiting for Napoleon's shoes! Will I go sneaking and trembling to range myself among impotent kings and wrangle over a country that wants none of us? No; I never will! I see where my father slipped. I see where the eighteenth Louis slipped. I am a man tenacious beyond belief. You cannot loose my grip when I take hold. But I never have taken hold, I never will take hold of my native country, struggling as she is to throw off hereditary rule!"

"You are an Amerian!" said Abbe Edgeworth contemptuously.

"If France called to me out of need I would fight for her. A lifetime of peaceful years I would toss away in a minute to die in one achieving battle for her. But she neither calls me nor needs me. A king is not simply an appearance—a continuation of hereditary rights!"

"Your position is incredible!" said the priest.

"I do not belittle the prospect you open before me. I see the practical difficulties, but I see well the magnificence beyond them."

"Then why do you hesitate?"

"I don't hesitate. A man is contemptible who stands shivering and longing outside of what he dare not attempt. I would dare if I longed. But I don't long."

"Monseigneur believes there will be complications?"

"I know my own obstinacy. A man who tried to work me with strings behind a throne would think he was struck by lightning."

"Sire," Mme. de Ferrier spoke out, "this is the hour of your life. Take your kingdom."

"I should have to take it, madame, if I got it. My uncle of Provence has nothing to give me. He merely says: 'My dear dauphin, if Europe knocks Napoleon down will you kindly take hold of a crank which is too heavy for me and turn it for the good of the Bourbons? We may thus keep the royal machine in the family!'"

"You have given no adequate reason for declining this offer," said the priest.

"I will give no reason. I simply decline."

"Is this the explanation that I shall make to Mme. d'Angouleme? Think of the tender sister who says, 'Louis, you are recalled!'"

"I do think of her. God bless her!"

"Must I tell her than monseigneur planted his feet like one of these wild cattle and wheeled and fled from the contemplation of a throne?"

"You will dress it up in your own felicitous way, monsieur."

"What do you wish me to say?"

MARKHAM'S MESSAGE

Editor Evening Bulletin:—Having received a thrust from the P. C. Advertiser in an editorial of the 5th inst. which is quoted as follows: "It is said that the Governor has interviewed Kumalae, Geo. Markham and Jimmie Boyd and all other responsible Home Rulers indicted and unindicted, and they have promised to be good. Just put them in charge of the appropriation bill and the printing and the translation committees, and they will demonstrate what real simon-pure, dyed-in-the-wool economy is. We know they will, for they have done it before. The earnest conviction of this community is that the Home Rule leaders cannot be trusted any further than you can throw a bull by the tail, or even pickings are in sight." I ask to allow me space in your columns to explain for myself and associates.

The public well knows the attitude of the Advertiser, directed in its propaganda by Thurston, Smith, Hartwell & Co., of (rule or ruin policy). We Hawaiians well know that Mr. Thurston is the leading light of a tenacious character of which he is credited by saying in the House of Parliament under the Monarchy "That he would associate with the devil" in furthering and of accomplishing his object in view. There is no doubt that the "virus" of Mr. Thurston character was inoculated into the old fossil's character Mr. Dole during his term of office as dictator in Hawaii nei, of which I presume that the same virus may not be applicable to the present Governor.

The attitude of Mr. Dole's administration during his incumbrancy has been hostile from beginning to end and more especially to the people, but obliging and subservient to a select few, corporations, trusts and land-grafters. His policy may do very well with such government as Russia but not applicable to an American form of government as it now exists.

We Hawaiians did have a conference with the Governor upon topics of vital interest, viz: First, the Financial situation; Second, the calling of a special session of the Legislature; Third, is the electorate capable of self-government and various other matters of details. The conference was harmonious and a good will prevailed between the leaders of Home Rule and the Governor from beginning to the end, and assured Mr. Carter that when the Executive powers has exhausted, we Hawaiians will be gladly to assist on the part of the people of assisting on striking off a balance sheet of keeping within the revenues of the Territory when a special session is necessary.

The Governor mentioned of reducing permanent salaries 20 per cent. from top to bottom, and on that point I disagreed with him, and drew conclusions it was not fair and just on the part of the middle and poor classes of people. I proposed and will stand pat on this proposition, that reduction may be made over and above one hundred dollars per month, for the reason that the cost of living here would come just about right in or about one hundred dollars per month.

The attitude of Governor Carter is a vast difference from that of his predecessor, Mr. Dole, of which the Advertiser does not appreciate. We Hawaiians well know that Governor Carter was not the choice of the "family compact" corporations, trusts, monopolies and a majority of the business houses in this community, but it was of President Roosevelt individual selection, believing that Mr. Carter would be able to relieve the anxiety and strained relations existing of troubles galore which was continually directed to the late President McKinley and Roosevelt by protests, resolutions and correspondence of facts existing, that was cherished and nourished by Mr. Dole's personal cohorts in the P. C. Advertiser sanctum sanctorum.

I do honestly believe if the Governor is sincere in his attitude of mingling with the people, rich and poor alike, and if there are any differences of opinions, come half-way and meet the electorate with honest and sincere intentions of building up this Territory on American traditional lines for the future of this Territory, its progress, prosperity and future happiness, the greatest good for the greatest number may be accomplished for my children and your children.

The leaders of the Hawaiian people did and will always contend that this is our home, the land of our birth, the fatherland of our ancestors, the flag and our independence, but now no more of ours, succumbed to the inevitable, that might was right, which was contrary to our liberty of scious, but now an American citizen and that we intend to enjoy to its utmost extent all of the privileges under the Constitution of the United States.

Such carpet baggers as is often repeated in certain daily journals that wields the pen of the Advertiser and Star, that has no interests at heart in Hawaii nei except of drawing their salaries, prompted and dictated to by such envious men as Thurston, Smith, Hartwell & Co., and also by sons of the old puritan missionary stock in Hawaii nei. They are stubborn and of a very vicious nature, if you have an opinion of your own, but not the least the concentration of their wealth that they have such a grip on the balance of power.

The inception of an American form of Government has been very severe to them financially and politically when there are about six of them at Washington lobbying for positions and lucrative franchises. A decided front must be brought to bear upon the electorate en-masse of standing pat on your hand and then show down, then and there pluck root and branch and leave no vestige of such rule.

It is also quoted that Home Rule leaders cannot be trusted & etc., certainly not, when Thurston & Co. cannot lead us by our noses, pull the wool over our eyes, throw up both our hands and feet whether right or wrong, as Mr. Dole was accustom to of personal gain, we are then put down as untrustworthy. The Hawaiian people were so taken in their confidence that their land kuleanas and even the clothes of their back were stripped and then turned out on the streets. The educated and intelligent Hawaiians of the present era are of a very different type, more especially when inoculated by the virus of the Anglo Saxon race, for an old adage is "diamond cut diamond".

An incident happened not very long ago on the eve of the last Legislature when twenty of the Advertiser's representatives assembled in secret and pledged themselves that majority must rule, Kumalae was chosen speaker of the House by a majority of thirteen and so ended the episode, till the next morning, when seven of the twenty voted for the opposition directed by Thurston & Co. There is an instance that the Hawaiian leaders will never forget, and will meet the opposition on every turn in the future and keep them off at a safe distance.

If it is necessary that the Legislature is called in session, economy is necessary, I am confident that one-half may be cut on several items of the House expense and perhaps the printing and typewriting may be done the same.

There is no doubt that an element under the Dole administration would like to see Governor Carter make a failure in his policy which he has now in view. The Advertiser was the organ of the Dole clique his boom was heralded broadcast whether right or wrong, but to my surprise and also of the public, it has the "cold feet" since the inauguration of Governor Carter, for the reason I am told that Thurston & Co. cannot run Governor Carter, and that is why the shoe pinches. The people will stand or fail with the Governor upon a policy "the greatest good for the greatest number."

PORT ARTHUR BOTTLING.

Nagasaki, March 2.—The Japanese hospital steamer Kobe Maru, which arrived at Sasebo on Monday with seventy-one invalids, including six naval engineers who were employed on board the vessels which were sunk at Port Arthur, bring confirmation of the report that the attempt to obstruct the entrance to that harbor was partly successful. It is reported that the hulks of the Hokoku Maru and Bushi Maru now block part of the channel. The explosions on board these steamers were caused by electric wires operated from the torpedo-boat destroyers, which afterward saved the crews.

Ah In, charged with assault and battery on W. McCandless, was discharged by Judge Dickey in the Police Court Monday morning.

MAUI COURT WORK

Wailuku, March 12.—The March, 1904, term of the Circuit Court of the Second Judicial Circuit convened at Wailuku, Maui, on Wednesday, March 9 at 10 o'clock a. m., Hon. John W. Kalua, presiding.

The court officials are W. T. Rawlins, Deputy Attorney General; Sheriff, L. M. Baldwin; W. J. Coelho, Clerk; Charles Wilcox, Hawaiian Interpreter; Chang Kim, Chinese interpreter; J. A. Thompson, acting court reporter.

The attorneys present on the opening of the court were C. W. Ashford, J. L. Coke, J. M. Vivas, A. G. Correa, John Richardson, G. B. Robertson, J. L. Kauiukou, A. N. Hayselden, W. F. Crockett.

On Thursday morning the Court delivered its charge to the Grand Jurors as follows:

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury:—Under our system of law, you are called here to investigate charges of a serious nature made against individuals in our community. Our law demands that these charges be substantiated to your satisfaction before a person be put on trial.

I shall hand you a copy of the Rules Relating to Grand Juries, which I trust you will carefully read, and, if at any time you desire information not found therein, you may request the Court to further instruct you.

The scope of your investigations is limited to such matters as (1) may be called to your attention by the Court, or (2) may be submitted by the prosecuting attorney, or (3) may come to your knowledge in the course of your investigations of the matter brought before you, or from your own observations or that may come to your knowledge from the disclosures of your associates on the Grand Jury.

It is especially within your power to investigate alleged irregularities in public office. Through you the light of day can be turned upon any transaction in public life where there is suspicion of criminality. In your investigation of encroachments on the public thoroughfares—the crossing of railroads, etc., and such other matters of public interest, I would suggest that you take into consideration the reports and recommendations of former Grand Juries. The Sheriff of this Circuit has called this Court's attention to the absence of any sanitary regulation concerning market places, without which, the recommendations of the last Grand Jury could not be carried into effect. Another matter the Sheriff submitted is that regarding the use of the public highways as hack stands by licensed vehicles—in Wailuku as well as in Lahaina. Being a representative body, and with the power vested in you, such recommendations as to localities you may make, with such suggestions as to regulations to be enacted, would very materially assist the department of the Government having jurisdiction of such matters in complying with this public need.

Your deliberations must be governed without fear or favor, and with absolute secrecy. All persons appearing before your council should be admonished to keep inviolate what transpires before you. As the accused is not to be brought before you, care then should be strictly adhered to by you in making out a prima facie case before you return a "true bill." It must satisfactorily appear to you that there is reason to believe that a jury would and could legally convict, before you find an indictment.

There must be at least thirteen (13) jurors present at each sitting. No indictment should be found, nor shall any presentment be made, without the concurrence of at least twelve (12) grand jurors.

A prosecuting officer will be in attendance upon you to assist in all matters you may require; also an officer to do your bidding. You may appoint one of your number to act as clerk and to preserve the minutes of your proceedings.

I now appoint Mr. A. G. Dickens your foreman.

And now gentlemen, you may retire to the apartments provided for your accommodations and proceed with your work.

W. T. Robinson, Edgar Morton, E. H. Rodgers and J. G. Ralston have been licensed to practice in the District Courts of the Second Judicial Circuit.

The license of J. K. Kaupu to practice in the lower Courts of the Second Judicial Circuit has been revoked by order of Judge Kalua.

The fishery cases have all been continued until the next term of court.

In the ejectment case of Meleaka Ah On et al vs. Amoe Ah Ho, et al., the jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiffs with one dollar damages.

Many other civil cases have been disposed of during this week.

In the case of D. K. Uwekoolani vs. Jerry Burns, a replevin suit, the jury this afternoon rendered a verdict for the defendant.

Captain Nahora Hipa, who has been here the last two weeks, returns to Honolulu by the Claudine.

It is expected that the Grand Jury will make a partial report next week.

RUSSIA'S FAIR EXHIBIT.

Moscow, March 5.—The St. Louis Exposition Commissioner, Mr. Smith, is working to induce Russian firms who intend to exhibit to petition the government to reconsider the withdrawal of the projected Russian display. In an interview Mr. Smith declared that Washington is friendly to Russian and that the American authorities are not responsible for the anti-Russian utterances of a limited section of the press.

SMITH ON COTTON.

Jared G. Smith, director of the U. S. Agricultural Experiment Station, interviewed this morning on the subject of cotton growing in the Islands, had the following to say:

"It has been clearly demonstrated that cotton plants will grow in any place in the islands and produce most excellent cotton. The question of whether or not it would be a paying industry is one that would have to be determined by the men who go into the business."

SACHS' EASTER OPENING

Perhaps the most noticeable signs of approaching Easter, aside from church devotions, are the Easter millinery preparations made by local dry goods houses, and perhaps the most noteworthy of these is the beautiful showing of new shapes and trimmings in hats and bonnets at the N. S. Sachs Dry Goods Co.

Hundreds of ladies were shown about the establishment all day yesterday despite the inclement weather and this morning brought out a still larger gathering of admirers, all with exclamations of surprise and pleasure as they examined the new creations made on the latest lines laid down by Dame Fashion.

Three of the leading shapes this Easter are the "Torpedo", "Tricome" and "Continental", which are made in dress hats as well as ready-to-wear shirt-waist hats. The shirt-waist hats this season are very stylish and inexpensive.

As this will be a flower and lace season, lace-draped hats will be in vogue, chantilly valenciennes having the preference. Suit hats to match the dress will be equally popular. It is interesting to note that the leading colors will be madonna blue, reseda green, champagne and red. Pale blue and pink will be used for contrasts and that these are happy combinations can be seen in the trimmed hats on exhibition at the Sachs' store.

Fashion is steadily putting greater style and beauty into children's hats and the new straws from New York are the handsomest yet made. Children's sailors in white and mixed colors are prettier than ever.

As it takes an artist to construct these beautiful Easter hats, so it would take a greater artist to properly describe one, but the invitation extended by the Sachs' management to visit the millinery department gives everyone the opportunity to admire what is most pleasing to their own eyes. Suffice it to say the styles are all unique and distinctive and the assortment is larger and more varied than ever before shown at the Sachs' store. The Easter opening is open to all today and tomorrow.
