CANNON TWICE BEATEN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 17.—The Democrats and Insurgent Republicans of the House won two notable victories today over the regular Republicans supporting Speaker Cannon. The points at issue were items in the census measures before the House. The Insurgents' combination defeated the regular Republicans, amid scenes of great excitement and enthusiasm.

NO-STOP-ENGINE RUN TODAY

Local Auto Man Will Try For Endurance Record

Mr. Odell, of the Associated garage started on his 500 miles no-stop-engine run at two o'clock this afternoon. All the seals were put on the machine, and they must be intact at the close of the run. The Hudson Twenty is the car selected for the run, and the little machine is expected to come through the ordeal in good style.

Odell will run about the island day and night and during the few hours that he will spend in bed, the engine of the car will still keep going just the same as if running on the roads. The test of the engine would have been made sooner only that other matters cropped up that required the expert's attention. The no-stop-engine run is attracting a lot of attention among auto people and the result will be looked forward to with interest.

ALLEGED ASSAULT BY CHINESE WITH CLUB

This morning at eleven o'clock a Chinese named Chew Tai arrived at the police station and endeavored to swear out a warrant for the arrest of a Hawaiian named Kahakaula, who the Chinese stated, had assaulted him. Just while Deputy Sheriff Rose was listening to the Chinese story, the Hawaiian reached the police station, and his version of the affair was very different. He swore that he and the Chinese had had trouble about some eggs and chickens and that this morning as he was mending a break in his backyard fence, the Chinese and two friends attacked him and beat him up badly.

The Hawaiian's head had a bad cut in it which he claimed one of the Chinese did with a club. The blood from the wound was carefully preserved, and the whole side of the man's head was covered in dried gore. The deputy listened to the Hawaiian's story, and then ordered the Chinese to be held for investigation. The Hawaiian is a husky looking fellow and one who should be able to take care of himself.

SUSPENSION SURE TO BRING EVILS, SAYS MATSON

Shows How Island Prosperity Will Be Affected

STRONG ENEMIES WILL BE DEVELOPED AT ONCE

Declares Labor Union Men of States Will Retaliate for Giving Traffic to the Japanese.

"The people of Honolulu should understand that if they want first-class steamers they must support them," said Captain Matson of the Interoceanic Navigation Company this morning.

"You see, the wireless from the Wilhelmina says that she carries eighty-eight cabin passengers, about half her capacity, and eleven thousand tons of freight. At that rate, we pay quite a sum for the transportation of the people in first-class style, and it seems to me we have given you a pretty comfortable ship.

"The people have got to support the local enterprises if they want to see the enterprises go ahead in a live manner. They ought to understand that if the coastwise shipping law were suspended the way some of them are talking about, the Wilhelmina would go out of business in a mighty short time. I don't know; perhaps I made a mistake in building the ship on such an expensive plan.

"I don't believe the people of the islands realize what a great opposition to island interests they will stir up if they are successful in the move to suspend the coastwise shipping laws in their application to the passenger trade here.

"There is a deep feeling among the laboring men of the country that the protected sugar of the islands is the product of Japanese labor, and the mainland workman doesn't like the Oriental. Now, if

PLUCKY OFFICER STOPS RUNAWAY

Policeman Thomas Aver's Very Serious Accident

Police Officer Thomas performed a very brave feat this morning at the corner of Nuuanu and Hotel streets, when he ran to the heads of two madly rushing horses and grabbed the lines. The animals were frightened at something, and the driver not being on the seat, the horses got away at full speed.

Two baby girls were toddling across Hotel street as the wagon came dashing down, and lookers on held their breath as the police officer raced alongside of the team and just managed to reach the lines and swing the horses around in time to avoid the children.

The wagon belongs to the Aloha Building Co., and the driver was a thankful man when he reached Hotel street and found his team in the possession of officer Thomas. No damage of any kind was done to horses or wagon, and what might have been a terrible accident was averted through the pluck and skill of Thomas.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY IN THE MORNING

Loyal Irishmen Feasting and Celebrating The Day

There is too much harmony among the different nationalities and religions in Honolulu to allow of St. Patrick's Day making much of a stir, but, all the same, the Lads from Erin are in a quiet way having a good time all over the city.

Here, in the Paradise of the Pacific, the Orange and the Green are friendly enough for anything, and the way in which the factions blend and "frigate" together is good to see. Men with names as Irish as possible may be seen in the houses of refreshment, quietly toasting the Green Isle in company with men bearing names that would have provoked a free fight if mentioned in Belfast on March 17.

Tom McTigue, the Irish Consul, is at home today to all his friends, and they are legion in this city. The Harp of Erin flag flies at the mainmast—no, that's not right; this is not the sporting column. Anyhow, the flag does fly on the building, and Colonel McCarthy is also to the fore as usual with the emblem of the "Ould sod."

national guard was made the subject of long discussion by Governor Stuart, Mayor Reuburn, Brigadier General Bowman of the First Brigade and Adjutant General Stewart. Among the actions of the mob inflamed by the trolley men's strike was the seizure of cars laden with ashes and the dumping of the ashes and other refuse on the tracks in order to impede the progress of the cars. Assaults on strike breakers led to many dramatic scenes in which the central figures were very glad to be rescued from strikers and sympathizers with their cause.

BANK NOW OWNS JUDD BUILDING

By the purchase of the Judd interests in the corporation owning the Judd Building, the Bank of Hawaii completed a deal today by which it now holds the control of the Judd Building property. The amount of stock held by the Bank of Hawaii is now sixty-nine per cent of the total one thousand shares. Manager Cooke stated that the bank has gradually been acquiring the stock of the Judd Building corporation, and took up the last lot at par.

Dearborn Awaiting Results

The citrus fruit trade is a big thing on the Pacific Coast, and there is no reason why the large fleet of freighters now operated by the American-Hawaiian line need remain idle or go out of commission, should the Sugar Factors Company, Limited, decline to accept the option for a three-year continuation of the freight service in transport-

WHERE IS THE ALDEN BESSE?

Old Vessel Making Very Long Passage To Coast

For several days past considerable speculation has been rife in shipping circles concerning the probable condition and location of that ancient marine relic, the wooden bark Alden Besse, which sailed from Honolulu on the evening of February 10th with destination as Honolulu, California.

The Alden Besse, with Captain Frederick Miller, of the Miller Salvage Company, in command, and a picked crew from Honolulu has not yet been reported as having arrived at the Southern California port with her shipment of nine hundred tons of scrap iron.

The Alden Besse is thirty-five days out from Honolulu today. This however is not considered as exceptional or in the least alarming by many shipping men when the fact is taken into consideration that this is the season for slow passage. It is contended that should the vessel take forty or even a few days more, on her trip across the Pacific no great concern need be exercised over the probable safety of the vessel and her crew.

The family of Captain Miller are worried over the time taken by the bark on her present voyage. The Alden Besse was given a general overhauling before she sailed from the port. It is stated that about twelve

JAPAN TO OFFER PLAN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 17.—It is reported that most important negotiations between the United States and Japan are about to take formal shape and set at rest the problem of the open door in China, as well as other points of difference between the leaders of the Orient and America. It is anticipated that Japan will soon submit formal proposals to the Secretary of State outlining an agreement between Japan and the United States under which the two countries will guarantee the open door in China and demilitarize the Orient.

Anti-American Riots In Bogota

BOGOTA, Colombia, Mar. 17.—Serious riots occurred here today as a result of the attempt to resume the running of the American cable line that has recently been established. In order to prevent an attack from the mob, the American Legation was placed under a heavy guard by the authorities.

Edwin A. Oliver of the Yonkers Statesman said to be the father of the "conversation joke," has gathered a bunch of them into a book. However, there are many more at large making farewell tours on the American stage about twice a season.

LUSTY ALOHA TO STEAMER ALAMEDA

Empty Cabins But Plenty Of Freight For Frisco

"We have room for thirty-five more first-class passengers declared Purser 'Tom' Smith of the Oceanic steamer Alameda as he looked down the room ahead of the vessel, just before the sailing of the ever popular and old reliable Honolulu-San Francisco "ferry boat" for the mainland, this morning.

The Alameda is leaving today with five empty staterooms and in at least a half dozen other cabins where but one passenger reigns supreme. The departure of the Alameda this morning drew out an unusually large crowd. The demonstration savored of a rousing farewell to the liner which returns to San Francisco and will go out of commission for a number of months.

The steamship Sierra will replace the Alameda on the island run and when the alterations and repairs are completed, the Alameda may be transferred to a coasting run or sent to Tahiti for a season.

Eight hundred first class passengers sailed by the vessel while the steerage was well filled with persons of every race and class. The cargo was a bumper one in that it included a wide variety of Hawaiian products. In addition to 6014 sacks of sugar the Alameda's holds carried 12,000 cases of canned pineapples, 1450 sacks coffee, 10000 sacks rice, 250 packages miscellaneous freight, 137 boxes, 12 crates pineapples and no such was a shipment of 4412 banana bunches. The usual belated passenger caused a slight delay in the departure of the vessel but as the Alameda steamed out the harbor and through the channel a farewell toot was forthcoming from a number of steam craft lying at the wharves.

The Alameda has come but she took her leave amid a blaze of color, a blast of melody and a joyous sounding of sirens.

DEARBORN AWAITING RESULTS. (Continued from Page 1) ing sugar cargoes from the islands to the east coast of the United States by way of the Isthmus of Tehuantepec.

General Manager Dearborn not only intimates that the American-Hawaiian line could make a strong bid for this business, but that the vessels now operated by the company could enter the business of carrying grain and other commodities.

The Sugar Factors Company are familiar with the service which the American-Hawaiian line has rendered in the past. We are now giving speedy and frequent transit of sugar from the islands to the Atlantic seaboard.

Mr. Dearborn appeared optimistic concerning the result of the deliberations now under way toward a renewal of the contract with the Sugar Factors and the American-Hawaiian line.

TAMON MARU WAS ONCE A SUBMARINE ON TENYO MARU. Figured Conspicuously At Bottling Of Port Arthur. Is and Business Is Falling Off Fast.

A vessel which still bears the scars and disfigurement of a siege of shot and shell and afterward a long period under the waters near Port Arthur, is at present a visitor at Honolulu under the name of the Tamon Maru. The vessel was captured by the British navy in 1904 and was used as a submarine. It was captured by the British navy in 1904 and was used as a submarine.

That the Japanese merchants, business agents and interpreters residing in Hawaii, particularly those in Honolulu, are not making out as well in their different lines of business as in former days is substantiated by the fact that a large number of them are booked to leave for Japan in the Tenyo Maru which is due to arrive here from San Francisco next Monday, the 21st.

Mr. K. Ono, wife of one of the well known Japanese business agents and interpreters in this city is also leaving on the same steamer to remain away permanently. She will probably be followed by her husband in a near future. Mrs. Ono is an accomplished English scholar.

According to one of the intended Japanese passengers Hawaii is no longer a place where man can make a living. He remarked that owing to the decrease of the Japanese residents here there was very little business from which the Japanese merchants and business agents can depend upon for trade.

IMMENSE AUDIENCE HEARS J. T. MOORE ART TREASURES NOW ON VIEW

International Secretary Lectured at Central Union Church
Thirty-Fourth Exhibition Pronounced the Best Ever Held

The Central Union Parish House was crowded last evening when John F. Moore, international traveling secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who is here for ten days, gave a stereoscopic lecture on the "World Wide Y. M. C. A. Movement." The lecture was prefaced with hymn singing, a short prayer by Rev. Dr. Scudder, a message from the scriptures, and another hymn. Dr. Scudder stated that: "Young men were dedicating themselves to the great work of redeeming men, and that the day was not far distant when there would be Y. M. C. A. buildings in every land."

With the briefest introduction, Mr. Moore got right down to his subject and told of the wonderful work the Association was doing among the army, navy, railroad, students, city and country and among industrial workers in all parts of the world. "I call it a privilege that young men are able to come forth and proclaim Jesus as their Savior," stated Mr. Moore. Many of the slides were impressive as they portrayed the magnitude of the work accomplished by the Y. M. C. A. movement. The speaker paid a fitting tribute to Sir George Williams, the founder of the Y. M. C. A., who, with twelve young men, started this great movement among men by holding Bible meetings on the top floor of a dry goods store in London.

Pictures of Robert R. McBurney, Richard C. Morse and other well known leaders in the Y. M. C. A. were thrown upon the canvas. A magnificent picture of the Victoria railway station at Bombay, India, was exhibited. Mr. Moore stated that the officials of the running shops at Jamalpur were in sympathy with the Y. M. C. A. movement among their employees and were ready to subscribe $100 a month towards subscribing to a fund for that purpose. One of the most interesting slides was a copy of a letter from the Emperor of Japan to the Y. M. C. A., in which it stated that $5000 had been sent to the Association in recognition of the splendid work done by the Association during the Russo-Japanese war.

Another unique picture was that of the launch given by Miss Helen Miller Gould to the Y. M. C. A. for use on the rivers of Alaska. The military posts were few and far apart and religious services were seldom held. The soldiers asked that someone might be sent to conduct services. Miss Gould gave the launch and the Y. M. C. A. now conduct regular services.

Mr. Moore showed pictures of men being instructed in automobile work in order that they might qualify as chauffeurs, or as the speaker humorously stated, to prepare themselves for an active campaign against the "Quick and the Dead" brigade, who were responsible for so many deaths and accidents each year, by careless driving and management of automobile slides.

Other pictures portrayed men and boys learning the poultry business, or as Mr. Moore humorously stated: "They were preparing to take their degree as professors of 'Chicology.'" At noon today Mr. Moore spoke at the Honolulu Iron Works and will confer with the building committee of the Y. M. C. A. at 4 p. m. At 5:30 p. m. he will speak at the Marine Barracks; at 7:30 he will meet the membership committee and at 9 p. m. will address the boys' gym class. On Monday at the members' rally, special music will be played, as Cunha's Glee Club has been secured and Mr. Moore will speak on "How to Make Things Hum."

LEWIS SAYS IT'S FALSE
 E. H. Lewis the automobile man has entered an emphatic denial to a story appearing in a morning paper to the effect that one of his machines containing a number of round the island tourists had a narrow escape in going over the fall.
 "Every knock is a hoax," declared Lewis in stating that the yarn was absolutely false.

 "The Road to Wellville" Pointed the Way.

Down at Hot Springs, Ark., the visitors have all sorts of complaints, but it is a subject of remark that the great majority of them have some trouble with stomach and bowels. This may be partly attributed to the heavy medicines.
 Naturally, under the conditions, the question of food is very prominent.
 A young man states that he had suffered for nine years from stomach and bowel trouble, had two operations which did not cure, and was at last threatened with appendicitis.
 He went to Hot Springs for rheumatism and his stomach trouble got worse. One day at breakfast the waiter, knowing his condition, suggested he try Grape-Nuts and cream, which he did, and found the food agreed with him perfectly.
 After the second day he began to sleep peacefully at night, different than he had for years. The perfect digestion of the food quieted his nervous system and made sleep possible.
 He says: "The next morning I was astonished to find my condition of constipation had disappeared. I could not believe it true after suffering for so many years; then I took more interest in the food, read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," and started following the simple directions.
 "I have met with such results that in the last five weeks I have gained eight pounds in spite of hot baths which take away the flesh from anyone.
 "A friend of mine has been entirely cured of a bad case of indigestion and stomach trouble by using Grape-Nuts Food and cream alone for breakfast.
 "There is one thing in particular—I have noticed a great change in my mental condition. Formerly I could hardly remember anything, and now the mind seems unusually acute and retentive. I can memorize practically anything I desire."

THURSDAY MARCH 17, 1910

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again: The eternal years of God are hers; But error, wounded, writhes with pain.

Philadelphia wisely postponed the St. Patrick's mass during the strike, in order to prevent any unhappy returns of the day.

Here's to Ireland, the country that has given the world its greatest men but which is yet unable to deliver itself from bondage.

It may be that the Senatorial slate was developed in the councils of an executive committee other than the Republican Territorial Committee.

When lining up business candidates for the Territorial Senate, it will be a good idea to reckon Hon. Cecil Brown in the list of live ones and popular ones.

Hawaii would be St. Patrick's happiest resting place outside old Ireland. The snakes are absent, and the people are so like the Irish at times in being at war among themselves.

Honolulu by exaggerating unpleasant conditions that often arise can do more needless harm to the islands generally in one day than can be repaired in months of promotion effort.

It should be noted that one of the most recent arrivals to make a noise about Honolulu's transportation facilities was guaranteed passage at the first steamship office he visited in Honolulu.

Let the Stock Exchange record be what it may, you may bank on it that there has been no depreciation in the value of securities and property that Honolulu offers the people who want certain returns on their money.

HANDLING PLAGUE EXAGGERATION

Only an evil reputation can be gained for the Territory of Hawaii by shouting "plague" from the housetops, when not a fraction of that evil repute is justified.

Every principal American city and not a few smaller towns with harbors on the Pacific Coast have had experiences with plague during the last five years. In all these cities, with notable exceptions on special occasions in Honolulu, the disease has been handled without unnecessarily alarming the people.

Meanwhile, if the Promotion Committee or the sane business men of these islands feel that three plague cases or a dozen cases call for exaggerated advertising of garbled facts, there is no way in which they can do

EVENING SMILES

An old negro in a neighborhood town arose in prayer meeting and said: "Brederin and sisterin, I been a mighty mean nigger in my time, I had a heap er ups and downs—specially down—since I joined de church. I stole chickens and watermelons, I cussed, I don't got drunk, I shot craps, I slashed udder coons wid my razer, and I done a sight er udder things; but, thank the good Lawd, brederin and sisterin, I never yet lost my 'ligion.'"

A young goat had been shipped on a freight train to a farmer in Minnesota. A tag, with shipping directions thereon, had been tied securely around his neck with a rope, but in the course of the journey the goat's appetite tempted him to chew up the tag and rope. This gave the negro brakeman much concern. He hurried to the conductor.

"Marse George," he cried, "for de land's sake, where y'o specks is put off dat goat? E done eat up whah the city and Territory more injury without accomplishing the slightest reciprocal good for the improved sanitation of the plantations or island towns, than by blazing the way with scare talk and headlines.

SUGAR FREIGHTS AND PASSENGERS.

Let your opinions be what they may, you must have the Bulletin, if you want the news. There is no more important matter before the leaders of Hawaii's industry today than the transportation of the bulk of their outgoing freights. Handled with a view to promoting the broad community interests, this subsidy of freights can be made the basis of greater progress for this city and the Islands generally. Dealt with in a narrow, purely selfish way, it can set the Islands back ten years or more in their development.

Through the enterprise of the Bulletin the plans that are on foot in connection with this paramount transportation problem have been put before the people. Everyone in the Territory has the opportunity to be heard before the bargain is closed, and if the influence of individuals or organizations counts for anything, they have an open way to make that influence felt for community growth and Hawaii's progress.

This paper believes the carrying contract should be given to the company that will give, with a first-class freight service, the largest reciprocal accommodations for passenger traffic between these islands and the mainland. Sugars of Hawaii are just as much the sugars of the thousands of stockholders in the Islands as they are of the Sugar Factors Co., Ltd., and the disposition of the freights by the managers in charge of a freighting should be made with a careful regard for all stockholders, some of whom may have other interests than their sugar securities, but who are devoting all their energies in every line of business to the upbuilding of these Islands.

TEN DOLLAR POLL TAX.

Poll tax ten dollars, with an eight dollar rebate for the voter who will go to the polls and cast his ballot on regular election days.

This is one of the propositions put before the people of Massachusetts introduced and discussed in the Legislature of that State.

First off, it sounds like a freak, but the principal supporter of the measure at the hearing before the legislative committee was the acting president of the Essex County Associated Boards of Trade, and he was seconded by the president of the Lynn Board of Trade. So it is well vouched by business men, and they are presumed to oppose freaks.

The purpose of the bill is to get out the vote. It is not a blow at the alien, but a pointed reminder for the citizens who whine and snarl because the government is not so good as it ought to be, and then assist the government in becoming worse by not coming out to vote. It strikes at the pocketbook of the voter, and it is generally conceded that the pocketbook is the shortest route to the average man's heart these days. Briefly put, the plan is to tax the citizen who does not vote ten dollars a year for the privilege of being indifferent. The tax is reduced to two dollars a year for the citizen who does his duty.

The advocate of the bill, in his remarks before the legislative committee, stated that the associated boards of trade for which he spoke included business organizations of the cities of Lawrence, Haverhill, Gloucester, Salem, Lynn, Peabody, Saugus and Lynnfield. This is a sufficient certificate that a good number of hard-headed business men are behind the measure.

In explaining their attitude and the reasons for their support, the leader of the combined business bodies said: "They are business organizations purely, and know no race distinction, no creed, no political organization. They exist only for the progress of Essex county, and the purpose of this bill is to induce some thought on this question. The first duty of the good citizen is to exercise his right of elective franchise. For over 150 years, on every forum, the people have been educated to exercise the franchise, and the indifference to this duty is increasing, rather than decreasing, in spite of all the instruction they have received, all that has been said as to its importance."

"It is this indifference of the citizen that brings the form of the city and town governments we have in some communities today. I believe that every citizen should exercise his franchise, and if there was the general exercise of the elective franchise that we should have there would be no need of government by commission."

"Our purpose is to put this legislation in this form rather than as a penalty, although it really is a penalty. It is appalling when you face the indifference of citizens to expressing their opinions on a political question. The whole community is too commercially active. They say 'we haven't the time to spend an hour and a half going down to be registered, or to vote.'"

"In 1909, in this State (Massachusetts), there were 915,637 assessed polls, and out of that number only 579,724 were registered. There were 334,913 citizens of this Commonwealth who did not even make the effort to register at the State election. The percentage of those not eligible to vote last year was very small. Certainly all of the citizens who registered must have been citizens of this country, who were eligible to exercise their right of franchise. Out of the entire number registered, 168,687 did not vote at the last State election; over a quarter of the registered voters did not vote. It was the same at the city and town elections, as shown by document document 43 for 1910 just out."

"The percentage of assessed polls, not citizens, runs about three and one-half per cent., through the State; so you can see from the number of polls assessed that there were 402,137 who voted and 513,500 who did not vote. Over 50 per cent. of the citizens of the State did not vote. Now that, I take it, you will agree is a most deplorable state of affairs."

"You gentlemen have personally faced it and know what it is to get out the vote at the polls. The ques-

Riches take unto themselves wings and fly away," read the teacher. "Now, boys, can any of you tell me what kind of riches is meant?"

The bright lad at the foot of the class said: "I reckon they must be ostriches."

Little five-year-old Lola had been told by her nurse that the Mississippi was sometimes called the "Father of Waters."

"You must be mistaken, nurse," rejoined the bright little miss. "If it is the father of Waters it ought to be called Mister-Sippil."

"It is a deplorable condition of affairs, and I do believe that this committee can report this bill and that will throw the whole matter into the arena of public discussion. If you do no more than report this bill in the House, you throw it into the arena of discussion and out of that something may come, along this same line, of great value to the Commonwealth. The figures of the indifference of the citizen are really appalling if you stop to analyze those figures. Think of it, 915,637 who could be registered and vote, and only 402,137 who voted. Year after year this indifference of the citizen is getting more pronounced. It does seem to us who favor good government and do not favor restrictive statutes upon the privileges that some legislation along these lines will obtain a more general exercise of the elective franchise. I believe if this committee can see enough in this bill to report it that it will bring out the discussion we need."

It is reported that the committee-men who at first took this bill as a joke soon began to think very seriously on its many good features. There is much in it that is well worth while, and Hawaii may find that the plan has many advantages that warrant Territorial legislation.

M. E. CONFERENCE

IS NOW BEING HELD

Distinguished Visitors Present—Annual Report Read

At the fifth annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which is being held in this city, is presided over by Bishop Hughes who said this morning that: "Our Mission was founded here only six years ago, and that 19 members of the M. E. Church in these islands were now taking the examination as candidates for holy orders."

There were several distinguished visitors from the mainland present, who made brief addresses, notably: Rev. Mr. Bovard, editor of the Christian Advocate, who stated that: "Uncle Sam was planting great defenses on this island and that Hawaii would be a hinge upon which the Union would turn and that it was our duty to remain steadfast in the faith as the eyes of the whole world were upon us and we must not go backward in religious work but ever forward."

Dr. E. Talmaz, a relative of the great divine preacher of that name was next introduced, after which Mr. J. F. Moore, international traveling secretary of the Y. M. C. A. was asked to speak to the audience. Mr. Moore spoke briefly but to the point. He said: "I congratulate you Koreans, Japanese and Chinese converts to christianity for the firm stand you have taken by putting on the armor of righteousness for the betterment of the community at large. Limit your preaching to Jesus Christ, so that your ministry may be blessed and that your reward may be great in the service you have taken up. May you men go forth to do the great work which a bountiful Saviour has given you."

The annual report by the Rev. J. W. Wadman was then read, from which the following interesting data was gleaned: There are 74 Methodist Mission Stations in the Territory; 215 converts were baptized last year; 317 new members joined the church during the last twelve months; $5,200 was collected for the upkeep of these missions by Japanese, Chinese and Korean residents of the Territory.

A very interesting map was displayed on the walls of the church. Illustrative of the mission's activity in these islands. This map was executed by Mr. C. S. Kim. Dr. Wadman stated that six new mission stations had been opened during the past year and that three new chapels had been built. WHERE IS THE ALDEN BESSE?

The work also included the installation of a five inch steam centrifugal pump which is believed would cope with any ordinary leakage that might be caused by the vessel meeting with rough weather.

The Alden Besse is a craft of wood and has been in more or less constant service since 1871. Before coming down here the bark was engaged in coasting trade along the west coast of America. She was operated by the Mexican Trading Company and afterward came down here and remained at the harbor for many months, a conspicuous figure at the local "Rotten Row."

Captain Miller has the reputation of being a careful navigator. He is believed will take his time in making the passage to Southern California and to avoid running into anything savoring of real bad weather if possible. Within the next few days, news from the Alden Besse will awaited with interest.

"Tommy," said the teacher to a small pupil in the grammar class, "what are the dead languages?" "Languages that were killed by being studied too hard," was the prompt reply.

USE OF SUGAR IS ON THE INCREASE

World Conditions Reviewed By Large Producer Of Raws

R. B. Hawley of Galveston, Tex., formerly a member of Congress, who is at the Wolcott, is the president of the Cuban-American Sugar Company, which is said to be the largest individual producer of raw sugar in the world. The company owns 350,000 acres in Cuba and last year turned out 150,000 tons of sugar, says the New York Sun of February 16.

Mr. Hawley individually has been interested in sugar production for twenty-five years and is the owner of a big plantation in Louisiana. The company also owns sugar properties in that State, including a refinery. Mr. Hawley was a kind yesterday when he thought about the possibility of sugar's entering into calculations on the higher cost of living.

"Sugar is about the only thing that has not figured in the discussion that is going on about the higher cost of living," said Mr. Hawley, "though in statistical journals it has been pointed out that its consumption is rapidly on the increase."

"In fact the production and consumption of sugar have increased enormously during the last decade. In the last quarter of a century the increase has averaged from four to four and a half per cent. a year, and now we have reached a point where increased consumption and the increasing demand seem to have grown greater than the supply that can be provided."

"Porto Rico has practically reached its limit of supply because of its limited territory, and Hawaii can grow no more a year than it has done for the same reason. In Java the Government controls the agricultural output, and lands which might be devoted to sugar are needed for the production of other foodstuffs to support the 28,000,000 inhabitants. The European beet growers under the influence of the higher prices obtainable for other products have reduced their beet output and the industry in the United States has not grown and will not except under the influence of higher prices."

"So readily has consumption increased upon supply in countries that have hitherto met increased consumption with increased supply that the natural inquiry arises. How can the world be further supplied with sugar at the present moderate level of prices? For it should be noted that the American people today at five cents a pound are supplied with sugar at the lowest cost of any people in the world except the English and for the first time in history very nearly as low as the price paid by consumers there."

During processes to supply this product at about the present level of prices so as to maintain his own industry on a perfectly safe, stable and prosperous basis than to witness a further diminution of supplies with an accompanying surprise in prices that would bring into the field countries that are capable of producing sugar only artificially, resulting only in injury to the interests of the consumer alike whose interests, in my opinion, are identical. "New and improved methods by which producers can meet these questions are being rapidly produced, and when the business now established is being conducted with intelligence and energy the output should be adequate to meet the situation for some time to come, which otherwise will be a serious problem."

HUNDRED CAN GO ON SIBERIA

One Hundred persons can be accommodated on the Pacific Mail liner Siberia which has sailed from Yokohama for San Francisco by the way of Honolulu and should arrive here according to the calculations of H. H. Hatfield and Company here agents, on Friday of next week.

The present list of bookings at Hatfield's would indicate that there will be room for all intending passengers to the east. The Siberia is bringing about eight hundred tons of oriental freight to the port and should arrive here early on the morning of March 25th the vessel will receive a prompt dispatch for San Francisco and will presumably get away the same evening.

"The Siberia will probably get to the Alakea street wharf though this has not been definitely settled.

"Say, Johnny," said his small sister, "I know something. Papa has got a new set of teeth!"

"Oh, dear!" sighed Johnny. "Now I'll bet mamma will cut his old ones down and make me wear 'em."

"Increased consumption would be restricted if prices should largely advance, and the producer has to be confronted with the problem as to what he can do to provide for the consumer's wants on a basis of prices that would not be higher than all consumers can afford to pay."

HOME DEFILER GETS BEAT UP

Young Cudahy Lays Trap and Finds Banker Lillis Easy Game—Disturbing Peace Only Charge Against Husband.

KANSAS CITY (Mo.), March 7.—Jere S. Lillis, president of the Western Exchange Bank, who was slashed with a knife early Sunday morning when John P. Cudahy, son of the wealthy Omaha packer, came home and found him with Mrs. Cudahy, was removed to his home this evening. He will recover.

His wounds, while severe are not dangerous, but his face will be scarred for life. Lillis will not prosecute Cudahy who will be arraigned in court next Monday on the simple charge of disturbing the peace. He is out on $100 bonds.

After a lengthy talk with her father tonight Mrs. Cudahy announced she would not institute divorce proceedings against her husband.

"I will stay here and take care of my children," she said. "They are the best children in the world. My father will not bring suit for divorce. But never again will I live again with their father. The man should be shot."

All characters in the tragedy except their story except Lillis. His lips were sealed literally—for he was so shocked about the face that he could not open his mouth.

Mrs. Cudahy told her story and her could corroborated it. Cudahy told his story and it did not agree with his wife's version. The physician who was summoned added a few details. And finally, the policeman who arrested Cudahy completed the story by giving graphic particulars which the others overlooked.

Cudahy has been "out wise" on several occasions to the actions of Mrs. Cudahy with the gay banker.

Whatever he may have learned Cudahy decided upon a trap. Saturday night he elected to spring it. He notified his wife he was to leave the city on a late train.

That evening Mrs. Cudahy and Lillis dined together. At midnight, and a short while after Mrs. Cudahy had returned home her husband and the chauffeur went quietly to the home at 166 East Thirty-sixth street. Slipping off their shoes, they went inside and found Lillis and Mrs. Cudahy in the library.

Cudahy and the chauffeur grasped him and tied him while Mrs. Cudahy ran from the room to telephone the Westport police station.

Returning to the library Mrs. Cudahy pleaded with her husband to spare Lillis. Freda Uroert, her maid was awakened by the commotion and ran downstairs to join her cries with the pleading of her mistress and the pleadings of Lillis. But Cudahy continued his attack on the prostrate banker.

A most graphic story of the affair was told this morning by the maid Freda Uroert.

"I had gone to bed that night," she said, "after Mrs. Cudahy had returned from the theatre, and was asleep by midnight. I was awakened a little after 12 o'clock by Mrs. Cudahy calling me. Her voice sounded frightened and I hurried toward her room as fast as I could. I heard someone swearing and some one else crying down in the library, and I went down the stairs. Maid Describes Scene.

"In the library which opens directly off the reception hall was Mr. Cudahy and his chauffeur. Mr. Lillis was on the floor all bound up in ropes. Mr. Cudahy was bending over him, beating him in the face with the heavy brass searchlight from his machine. The chauffeur was kicking him in the side and swearing.

"Mrs. Cudahy was standing there very much frightened. The chauffeur saw me and grabbed a big revolver. He ran at me and said if I did not go upstairs he would kill me. I was scared and ran back upstairs.

"I came back down in a little while and Mr. Cudahy had got the big family carving knife down from the side board in the dining room and was cutting Mr. Lillis. Mr. Lillis's face was bloody. And the rope was tied about his legs and throat so that when the chauffeur pulled it the rope would choke him and cut his throat.

"He had been cut three times on the chin, one cheek was cut from the temple to the throat, there were three cuts on his hand, and three on his forehead. The brass lamp had bruised his face terribly. All his front teeth had been broken out by the lamp. There was blood all over everything.

"Mr. Lillis tried to say something and every time he did they would jerk the rope and choke him. There was a cut on his leg nearly six inches long made by the rope and the other leg was badly cut too. Mrs. Cudahy had called a policeman and when he came up he just stood in the door and watched Mr. Cudahy drag Mr. Lillis around the room by the rope, while he and the chauffeur kicked and beat him.

John Cudahy refused to discuss the case in any way or to tell what happened in his house. "I cannot talk about the case at this time," he said, "for many reasons. I am the father of five children for whose future I must think. There is no charge against me except that of disturbing the peace and until there is I can say nothing.

"The public will have to believe what it can get," Cudahy continued. "I guess I can stand gossip by this time. I have had my share of it."

POLICE PROTECTION IN LARGE CITIES

Statistics Show That Towns Are Well Looked After by Officers of the Law.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—Interesting facts concerning the police in the 158 largest cities in the United States, each having a population of over 30,000 in 1907, are comprehensively assembled in the U. S. Census Bureau's special annual report on the statistics of American cities for that year which is now in press.

The police protection afforded the inhabitants of different cities is indicated by showing the number of police per 10,000 inhabitants, per 1,000 acres of land area, and per 1 mile of improved streets.

It is stated that the number of police to each unit increases with the size of the city. In cities of over 300,000 population, the number of police per 10,000 inhabitants was 19.4 as compared with only 10.5 in cities of from 20,000 to 50,000 population. The cities with the greatest protection according to this unit of measure, were Atlantic City (25.1), Washington (23.4), St. Louis (23.2) and New York (21.5).

The compensation of patrolmen was much larger in the cities of over 300,000 population than in the smaller cities. The average annual pay of patrolmen in cities of over 300,000 population, was highest in San Francisco ($1,164) and New York ($1,229) and lowest in New Orleans ($783) and Buffalo ($780). In cities of from 100,000 to 300,000 population it was highest in Portland, Oregon ($1,200) and Newark ($1,176), and lowest in Grand Rapids, Michigan ($796) and St. Paul ($858); in cities of from 50,000 to 100,000 population, it was highest in Oakland, California ($1,200) and Houston, Texas ($1,161), and lowest in Kansas City, Kansas ($780); in cities of from 30,000 to 50,000 population, it was highest in Butte and Sacramento ($1,200), and lowest in Kalamazoo ($699) and Oshkosh ($709).

ARE WE RIGHT?

IN order that we may prove to you the strenuous reliability of the "HUDSON 20" we will today start a 500-mile non-engine stop, sealed bonnet run.

This means that the hood and dust pan will be completely sealed up with lead seals, precluding all adjustments to the engine. The engine will then be started not to be stopped until the speedometer shows that the car has covered 500 miles, which should take about 45 hours.

For this test we will use our demonstrator which has already had over 5000 miles of hard service on all the Islands.

A careful record of gasoline and oil consumption will be kept and published later with other details of the run. You as prospective purchaser are entitled to these details. Are we right?

One or more observers will be carried at all times to prove that the engine was not permitted to stop.

Starts at 1.30 today, March 17.

YACHT RACE.

HAWAII'S CAPTAIN TO BE CHOSEN

FRISCO WANTS TO SEE THE START

Thirty Minutes Per Foot Will Be Handicap Adopted — Crew of Local Yachts to Be Amateur.

It has been decided that the Hawaii will be sailed by amateur sailors, and that a captain be selected in the near future. There is not much doubt as to who the fortunate individual will be, and a better man could not be obtained for the job.

A regular mariner will be asked to go along with the crew, and he should be of great help to the amateurs. The handicaps for this year's race will be the same as for last, and Commodore Wilder has recommended that thirty minutes a foot for the full distance be adopted.

The S. F. Chronicle is giving much space to the transpacific race, and the following remarks with reference to the starting point on the Coast will be read with interest:

Through the proposed race to Honolulu is still some months away, the local yachting enthusiasts are showing considerable interest in it at present. The story published in the Chronicle during the week has stirred up the yachtsmen, and every effort will be made to have the race start here instead of San Pedro, as in the past.

The amateur tars around the bay feel that they have the right to assume the management from this end. It was originally agreed that the race should start from here in 1906, but the fire made this impossible, and the South Coast Yacht Club stepped in and agreed to handle the race. Now the Northern California clubs want a chance at it. They do not say that they want to handle the race every year, but they at least want to alternate with the South Coast Yacht Club in having the start in Northern and Southern California.

There is every reason why the clubs hereabouts should have something to say in regard to the matter. First and foremost, it is the fact that there are so many more clubs about the bay here from which to draw entries than there are in the south. Then, too, the course is a more favorable one from the local bay to Honolulu than from San Pedro. If the race should start from the bay here, it is not unlikely that some of the Northwestern clubs might be induced to enter a boat or two. The Lurline would be a likely starter, even though her owner, ex-Commodore Sinclair, might not be able to make the trip. Such yachts as the Aggie and Marion could no doubt be induced to start, as well as a number of others. There is considerable expense attached to a race of this kind, but there would be no difficulty for the local clubs to arrange that matter in so far as this end is concerned. The South Coast Club will no doubt make a hard fight to have the race start from San Pedro again this year, but the local clubs appear to have an equal chance of bringing it here.

DOTS AND DASHES.

Dick Sullivan is having a good time at the Volcano House, where he is resting after a year's hard work. Dick sends a postal card to the Bulletin, and makes the statement that he has gained ten pounds in weight, and that he thinks he will be heavy enough to challenge the winner of the Jeffries-Johnson fight before long.

The tug-of-war rules as published in the Bulletin have been favorably received, and all the contestants are pleased with the clear way in which the rules settle all questions.

On March 30 the Pacific Coast Baseball League will start its schedule, and Portland, Sacramento, Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Vernon teams will play games.

HARVEY WINS OUT IN WEEKLY CUP SHOOT

Champion Breaks Possible Number of Clays—Twenty Out of Twenty Is Record.

By grassing all his birds, both at known and unknown angles, J. W. Harvey once more showed his ability with the gun yesterday, and captured the weekly shoot of the Hawaii Gun Club.

The shoot was a combination one, and ten birds at known and ten at unknown angles had to be pulled on. Harvey did some fine, crisp shooting, and he seemed equally at home at either trap. He "killed" the possible number, and has seldom shown as brilliant form as he did yesterday.

The shoot started over the Leggett trap, and the unknown angles did not seem to worry the gunners much; in fact, many of the men appeared more at home shooting at unknown angles than at the known. I. Spaulding was the runner-up in the weekly cup, and he accounted for sixteen out of twenty. He brought down the same number, viz., eight, at both traps. The cup shoot will be continued weekly, and as the members get into form, Champion Harvey will have to keep up his very best figures to win out.

Austin, another fine shot, will be getting into the game soon, and then there will be some competitions worth going miles to see. The official scores yesterday were as follows:

J. W. Harvey—Unknown angles, 10; known angles, 10; total, 20; possible, 20.
H. D. Bowen—Unknown angles, 7; known angles, 5; total, 12; possible, 24.
N. Bobo—Unknown angles, 10; known angles, 8; total, 18; possible, 28.
I. Spaulding—Unknown angles, 8; known angles, 8; total, 16; possible, 20.
C. White—Unknown angles, 5; known angles, 5; total, 10; possible, 30.
Major Long—Unknown angles, 5; known angles, 8; total, 13; possible, 30.
H. B. Odell—Unknown angles, 6; known angles, 4; total, 10; possible, 30.

MARATHON.

MANY ENTRIES IN FOR BIG RACE

ANTONE KAOO TO BE ONE OF THE RUNNERS

Old "Waialua Horse" Is in Good Form and Training Hard for Haleiwa Event

Antone Kaoo has entered for the Marathon race of April 3, and all doubts about his competing in the event have been set at rest. The old "Waialua Horse" is doing steady work over long distances, and is almost ready to run today. He will, with a couple of weeks' more training, be fit to run for his life, and it will be a very fine man who will extend the champion over the long journey to Haleiwa.

Nigel Jackson is running better than ever, and he is improving every day. His stride has been lengthened a lot, and the game little ped is making fast time over twenty-mile runs every day. F. Enos is another fine runner who will make most of the Marathon men set a sharp pace right through the whole journey.

Gomes is also running in fine style, and those who know what the young fellow can do are predicting that he will be in the first flight at the finish. Gomes is doing his training out toward the Pali, and he gets over the ground in fast time.

All the arrangements are about complete for the three races, and the bicycle races are going to be equally as good as the foot event. There will be two cycle races, and the first will be for youths of under eighteen years; the second event is for those of over eighteen years. The prizes will be liberal, and the list is growing longer every day. Yesterday the following were added: T. H. Davies & Co., one safety razor; Mike Paton, $5 worth socks; Fred Makino, one hot best perfume; Advertiser, six months' subscription; Regal Shoe Store, one pair shoes; Louis Warren, one pair $5 shoes.

The runners will be taken care of at Haleiwa Hotel, and a cottage will be provided for them to bathe and dress in. Return tickets will be given all the peders and they can come home in comfort on the train.

The entries so far for the Marathon and two bicycle races are as follows:
Marathon—F. Enos, George Kane, L. Rosa, Nigel Jackson, A. V. Ornelas, David Martin, M. Platt, V. Gomes, A. Martin and Antone Kaoo.

Over Eighteen Years Bicycle Race—Harry Gilman, Henry H. Williams, Joseph Gurrillo, Solomon Kuaahne, Wm. O'Brien, J. K. McSakuma, M. L. Gomes, Paul Kahoa, Antone Gomes Silva and G. M. Addison.

Under Eighteen Years Bicycle Race—Alfred Baptist, Harry Decker and Tong Hoy.

Many more runners and cyclists will put in their names during the next two weeks, and the entry lists do not close till two days before the race.

M'Loughlin Defeats MELVILLE LONG

State Champion Beaten After Close Match—Three Sets to Two is Score.

Melville Long, the State champion, was defeated yesterday afternoon in the finals of the men's championship on the Hotel Virginia courts by Maurice M'Loughlin, says the Pasadena Times. It required five of as hard-played sets to determine the final result as the tennis enthusiasts have witnessed this season. The scores, 2-6, 2-6, 8-6, 7-5, 9-7.
Florence Sutton met defeat in her match with Hazel Hotchkiss. The national champion surpassed Miss Sutton in every point of the game and there was never a minute when

PLANTATION LEAGUE SCHEDULE ARRANGED

Games to Start May 1 and Run On Till End of September—Ewa Loses George Clark.

On May 1 the Plantation League will start operations, and from then on to September 25, there will be games played every Sunday. The Ewa team will be without the services of their crack pitcher, George Clark. The clever young ball-tosser is now employed in the city, and may not be seen on the diamond again. Clark was a really good pitcher, and besides playing for the Plantation team last season, he did excellent work for the Kalia in the Oahu series at the Athletic Park.

The Plantation League caused some excitement last year, and the game they played at the close of the season at the Athletic Park was attended by all the "farmers" of Oahu. The managers of the big estates all used to roll up to see their representatives at work, and the fans of all nationalities woke things up in style. The schedule of games for the coming season is as follows:

First Series.

ALL-SCHOOLS TRACK MEET ON SATURDAY

Pick of Athletes Will Compete in Races and Field Events—Records Almost Sure to Go.

On Saturday afternoon at the Alexander Field, the much-talked-of all-school track meet will take place, and then once and for all the best present sprinters and other athletes of Oahu schools will be known. Bill Rice and McKenzie have both been cutting out the hundred in a couple of yards outside even time, and it will be a treat to see the pair extended to their limit. If the race is a close one, and everything points to that, the ten-second mark should be about touched, if not gotten inside of.

Then the 220 will be another fine race, and in it the same two runners should fight it out up to the wicket.
The pole vault and high jump promise to be interesting events, and the winners, although they can not be expected to get near the heights cleared at the Stanford University meet, should establish new marks for the group.

Norton will be on deck for his school, and the man who beats him in the half mile will have to go some. The High School will probably win the most first places, but the Puna and Kama seem to have a mortgage on the other places in the different events.

The referee and sporting writer appear to have a fine scrap on their hands, and it may go on for some time to come.
George Heckert, manager of the Trenton Club, denies that he is signing men and paying salaries above the Tri-State limit.
