Maui Trip Completed; Party Homeward Bound

(Special Bulletin Wireless)
 WAHLUKU, Sept. 13.—Congressional party arrived at Kahului Sunday forenoon, and were accommodated at the hotel and private homes. Auto rides were taken during the day. Ten landed at Hana early in the morning, had breakfast with Manager Chalmers, then took an overland trip through Nahiku and around the ditch trail. The scenery was the most beautiful imaginable. Mr. Pogue was in charge of the party. A sixty-mile trip through to Wahluku with twenty-five on horseback was made in record time. Today the Congressmen inspect Kahului harbor, where the government is surveying. A trip will be made to Iao valley, where the party will lunch at noon. A reception will be held in the afternoon at the town hall at Wahluku, and the Congressmen will go overland to Lahaina, leaving there for Honolulu tonight.

Admirals and Captains Pay Visit to Governor

With the usual naval honors accorded to foreign diplomats, the Consuls representing England, Japan, France, Portugal and China were received on board the Flagship Tennessee. Shortly before 11 o'clock the carriages bearing the visitors came down the Alakea street dock, and when they reached the gangway the side was manned by six side boys and the full marine guard and band were lined up at attention on the quarter deck. Captain Benson, chief of staff, received the visitors at the gangway, who were escorted to Admiral Sebree's cabin, where he received them. After a few minutes, in which pleasant topics were discussed, the Admiral had to excuse himself, as his official call on the Governor had been arranged for 11 o'clock. By special request of the visiting Consuls no salute was fired as the party left the ship. Consul Uyeno of Japan and the Chinese Consul were the only ones in full dress uniform, while the others were attired in the conventional frock coats and high hats. Admiral Sebree and his staff will return to the calls some time this week.

Officers Tour.
 A party of officers from the Tennessee will make an automobile tour of the island next Wednesday. The usual route of "circumnavigating" the dot on the map will be pursued and the officers are prepared to make the most of the day's outing.

The Whole Thing.
 It is interesting to note that with the exception of the North Carolina and the Montana recently commissioned, and the rebuilt New York and the Brooklyn, of less modern design, the eight cruisers now in port represent the entire armored cruiser strength of Uncle Sam's navy.

The Glacier.
 The navy refrigerator ship Glacier now at Mare Island, did not leave with the Pacific fleet as intended, owing to the fact that certain necessary repairs have taken longer to complete than was expected. Pay Director Leeds C. Kerr, who is in charge of the navy pay office in San Francisco, is making arrangements with the chief wharfinger for a berth at one of the San Francisco city wharves, where the Glacier will lie until Sept. 21, loading the stores from which Admiral Sebree's ships will restock their larders on the other side of the Pacific.

Music Militant.
 Local music lovers will be given a treat some day in the near future when the crack minstrel troupe of the U. S. S. West Virginia will give a performance at the Opera House. The troupe of the West Virginia is considered to be the best in the navy, and a very interesting program is being arranged. Among the troupe are a number of very good singers and dancers, and they have always been able to bring down the house with their cleverness. It is almost certain that the minstrel troupes from all the other ships will join with the West Virginia's some time after the fleet returns from their speed trials and give a joint show at the Opera House. The West Virginia also has a very fine orchestra, which will be heard at one of the dances which will be given while the fleet is in port.

Sunday Rest.
 With the exception of the regular Sunday morning quarters, little work was done yesterday on the ships of the fleet now in port. Promptly at 10 o'clock the bugle sounding all hands to quarters was heard on all the ships of the fleet, and the routine which is carried out on all ships (Continued on Page 6)

A Thousand Farmers For Each Island

(Special to The Bulletin.)
 HILO, Sept. 14.—Representative J. M. Miller of the Inter State Foreign Commerce Committee, has very decided ideas on the conditions of the Territory. "The Hawaiian Islands are facing a very grave condition of affairs," he said. "You have imported a large number of Japanese, and in comparatively few years from now their offspring, Hawaiian born Japanese, will be voters, and will be able to control the legislatures of the Territory. Of course, this will be an intolerable condition, but it must be faced. It is the result of the fact that the cultivated lands here are massed in great estates, and the only way to face the problem is to ent up these immense estates into smaller holdings, and place on these American farmers who will cultivate the (Continued on Page 4)

ASKS INJUNCTION AGAINST SALE
 Executrix Of Winam Estate Files Petition

A bill for an injunction has been brought in the Circuit Court by Ching Tam Shee, executrix under the will of C. Winam, against the Oriental Life Insurance Company, Ltd., and Deputy Sheriff Charles H. Rose and pending a hearing a temporary injunction has been granted by Circuit Judge Whitney. The petition states that in November 1904, prior to the death of C. Winam, the Oriental Life Insurance Company recovered a judgment in the Circuit Court against C. Winam in the sum of $2489.25. It is stated that no execution pursuant to the judgment was secured during the lifetime of Winam and that after the death of Winam the company secure a writ of scire facias in the Circuit Court whereby the company was given judgment for execution against the Winam estate, together with interest and costs of court. Deputy Sheriff Rose is named as a respondent because he levied on the real property to satisfy the judgment which the petition states was (Continued on Page 4)

RIOTER MISSING; BOND FORFEITED
 Bench Warrant Issued For Arrest Of Morita

The $500 bond filed in behalf of Morita, one of the ten defendants in the riot trial, was declared forfeited this morning by Circuit Judge De Bolt when it was discovered that he was not present in court, having failed to appear at 8:30, the hour set for the beginning of the second trial of the men charged with riot at Waipahu on June 8 last. Goo Wan Hoy and Lam On were the sureties on Morita's bonds and unless the Japanese can show that he was unable to come to court by reason of serious illness, the two sureties will be out $250 apiece. When court convened at 8:30 the prosecution was represented by City and County Attorney Cathcart and Mr. Prosser. It took but a minute to discover that one of the defendants was missing. The other Japanese professed to know nothing of his whereabouts and Judge De Bolt immediately issued a bench warrant for Morita's arrest and after the formality of calling his sureties declared his bond of $500 forfeited. A determined effort was made to locate Morita this afternoon, but without avail. Attorney Lightfoot of the defense and nine other Japanese defendants searched Waipahu, and although a desperate search was made by the police, no trace of the man could be found. It is stated that he gathered his clothing together and it is believed that he is hiding in the mountains. Bulletin Business Office Phone 256. Bulletin Editorial Room Phone 183.

DANCE AT YOUNG HOTEL TONIGHT
 The management of the Alexander Young Hotel has planned another of their enjoyable dances for tonight. The dance is given in honor of the officers of the Pacific fleet and all Army, Navy and society people generally are cordially invited to attend.

SEBREE'S MEN CREDIT TO NAVY
 Fleet Patrolling Squad In Police Station, Keep Peace

Although the police station is crowded with the officers and men of Admiral Sebree's cruisers, none of them are there charged with violating any of the laws of the Territorial or City governments. They are there to keep peace and preserve order. Their duties are to see that none of the men from the ships disturb anyone or become disorderly while enjoying shore liberty. According to the officers in charge of the fleet patrolling squad no arrests have been made since Saturday. The men are peaceful and orderly and a credit to the navy. In the Police Court this morning a large number of Chinese and Japanese were charged with being present at a place where gambling games were carried on. The Chinese defendants, on pleading guilty, were each fined $5 and costs of court, while the Japanese defendants were fined $6 and cost each. Chee Mun, charged with selling opium and poisonous drugs, pleaded guilty and his sentence was suspended for thirteen months. Ah Tang, a Chinese (Continued on Page 4)

FREAR WELCOMES FLEET OFFICERS
 Received By Governor And Members Of Staff

The Territory of Hawaii extended its formal welcome to the officers of the Pacific Fleet this morning when Governor Frear received Rear Admirals Sebree and Barry and their staffs at the Capitol. The two admirals, captains and lieutenants were serenaded by the Hawaiian band as they entered the capitol grounds and also when they left for their ships after the conclusion of the reception and the words of welcome that were spoken by Governor Frear and the members of his staff. Governor Frear was assisted in receiving by Colonel Cooper, Aid Short, and Captain George Smithies, the officers entering the Governor's room in order of rank and being welcomed by the Territory's Chief Executive. Governor Frear remarked to Rear Admiral Sebree that the Pacific fleet had won a lasting place in the esteem of the people of the Territory and that the visits of the ships to this port were always looked forward to with interest. The officers leaving their cards were Rear Admiral Sebree and Rear Admiral Barry, Captains Benson Moore, Mayo, Smith, Gilmore, Rogers, Commander Orchard and Lieutenant Holmes.

FINE SPORTS FOR SAILORS
 Program Of Baseball, Boxing, Rowing and Tennis

Things are looking up as regards sporting events for the fleet; a good program is being arranged, and although all of the events have not yet been decided on, a fairly good idea of the general scheme of the sports can be had. Baseball there will be in abundance, and, as for boxing, the men who use the mitts will be amply provided for. There will be lightweight and heavyweight scraps, and it is also on the boards that some wrestling matches will be quilled off. Tuesday. The following events have, so far, been decided on: Tomorrow at the Athletic Park there will be two games of ball; the West Virginia nine will play the Washington team for the fleet championship, and a very fast game it should be. A second game will be played between the Kalihis and a nine from the Tennessee, and as the latter nine is said to be very strong, a tough struggle should eventuate. Six hundred of the Washington crew and eight hundred of the West Virginia boys will have shore liberty (Continued on Page 4)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 13.—The government has awarded the contracts for the building of two modern dreadnaughts, one to Cramp and the other to the New York Shipbuilding Company. The battleships will be two of the most powerful fighting machines yet turned out for Uncle Sam's navy.

BODY IS EXHUMED.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The body of Lieut. Sutton, whose murder is still a mystery, was disinterred today, and an autopsy revealed a bruise on the forehead and cheek.

The absence of Morita made a continuance unavoidable and the trial went over to 8:30 tomorrow morning. In the meantime no effort will be spared to apprehend the missing man.

"I myself have not been here in Hawaii for 21 years, and I am very anxious to see what is being done on our new base. I think that we will be able to allow every one to see the new station, and I hope that we will be able to use the lighthouse tender Kuku, and the Inoquoals for the trip."

PETITIONS COURT TO CHANGE DEED

Alleging that she deeded away her property without knowing what the terms of the deed actually were Kaahana Lopez is the petitioner in a bill to reform a deed, C. M. V. Forster, trustee, et al., being named as respondents.

The complaint states that Mrs. Lopez and her husband deeded to Forster in February 1905 property at Lahaina. The complaint declares that Mrs. Lopez cannot understand the English language and that before her husband's death she trusted him implicitly with the management of her property and that she signed the deed without knowing that it included the property at Lahaina.

The petitioner asks for a writ of habeas corpus for the respondents to appear and answer the allegations in the complaint and for an order reforming the deed so as to conform to the ideas of Mrs. Lopez at the time she signed it.

RACE ARBITRATION SETTLES MATTER.

(Special Wireless to Bulletin.)

The arbitration board appointed to investigate the Fourth of July races at Hilo have decided that the owner of Webber was quite justified in pulling his horse, as he had another entry, Adrian, in the race, and had declared to win with it.

The judges' action in ruling Webber off was declared incorrect, and the ruling off of the jockey was also criticised. No purse was paid in the Merchants' stakes, and the entrance fees for the races that were not run are all returned. It was decided that there was no right to award prizes where less than three horses started in a race.

The judges were sustained as regards the harness races. Charges of unfairness of judges and crookedness of owners unfounded. The arbitrators will pay over monies.

TSUKAMOTO WINS TEN MILES RACE

JUDGES GAVE DECISION TO MAN WHO NEVER CROSSED FINISHING LINE—KAOO DID GRANDSTAND STUNT AND LOST BY A FOOT—THE OLD RUNNER DIVED FOR LINE AND FELL SHORT BY THREE INCHES.

"Fair play is a jewel." It is an old saying but a true one. It matters not what the sport—or as a matter of fact any affair—in, the public wants a square deal for all nationalities and creeds.

All this apropos of the decision given by the judges of the ten-mile championship, which was run at the Athletic Park on Saturday last.

The race was given to Kaoo, who never finished, and Tsukamoto, who really won by a foot was placed second.

The judges evidently did not know the difference between a baseball match and a footrace. The other officials knew less about the game. The whole layout was more like a comic opera than anything else and, finally, the Hilo runner was robbed of first prize.

Not for a moment is the integrity of the judges questioned. They are upright, honest men. But, and a big "but" at that, they were utterly mistaken as to the rules and regulations of footracing.

To win a footrace the winner must cross the finishing line first. In other words, he must be the first to break the worsted, or breast the tape.

In this particular instance there was no tape stretched at the winning line. No such idea entered the heads of the "experts" who were in charge of the event. A whitewashed line indicated the exact finish. It was four or five inches wide, and it is quite possible that one runner could pass one side of the line while his opponent would only be level with the other side—a difference of four or five inches, and how many world's championships have been won or lost by that number of inches?

In the race on Saturday, Kaoo was a foot ahead ten feet from the finish line. The race was his if he kept his feet. But no, when within eight feet of the line he made a spectacular dive for the tape—which was not there—and having misjudged his distance, landed with his hand more than three inches from the whitewashed line!

He saw that he was short of the line, and at once stretched his arm out and, at the second attempt, did touch the line.

Tsukamoto, in the meantime, passed the winning post and did so before Kaoo's hand touched the line.

And as to touching the line, that does not count worth five cents. As a matter of fact Kaoo did not complete the ten miles course on Saturday, and has not yet done so either! He never crossed the winning line, and even when his friends peked him up and carried him on to the centerfield, they did not carry him across the line!

The Japanese won the race and the present writer, who was seated on a line with the finish, and who was cool and collected and making notes all the time, is in a far better position to say who won the race than a lot of excited individuals who were surrounded by a yelling mob of spectators.

The morning paper states that Kaoo touched the winning line, two seconds ahead of Tsukamoto.

A more absurd statement is impossible to imagine.

Does the sporting writer for the "Tiser" know what two seconds represents in a foot race?

In first-class company, where 100 yards is always covered in 10 seconds, 2 seconds represents 20 yards!

Now Kaoo and Tsukamoto were by no means running at that rate of speed but they certainly covered the last 100 yards at half that rate, which would on the 2 seconds difference idea, mean 10 yards space between Kaoo and Tsukamoto at the finish!

It is unfortunate that such a gross error should be made in what was really an international event, and it is to be hoped that if ever any such events are brought off again, that competent men are appointed on the list of officials.

The whole affair was mismanaged and the climax was when the judges gave their decision. The prestige of the white man, as sports, was tarnished on Saturday, and the best way out of the difficulty is to give Tsukamoto first prize. And then let the admirers of Kaoo get a purse together for him.

The Race. Now for a more pleasant duty. The writer has seen many, many 1000 races but outside of a couple of 440-yards championships, cannot remember ever seeing a more exciting or brilliant finish than the old "Waiialua Horse" made in the race on Saturday.

The old chap made the pace from the crack of the pistol, and although Addison dashed off for a few lays at the start, and ran himself out, Kaoo was the man who stood the brunt of the race for mile after mile.

Kaoo's Style. Kaoo's even pace, and easy style was beautiful to see. He looped along like a deer, and people who remembered what the old ped had done in the past, over short distances, began to think that the Waiialua man would outprint the Japanese at the finish.

Tsukamoto Graceful. Tsukamoto has an easy, graceful style of running, and has a tremendous stride for a man of his size. He outented himself with letting Kaoo make the pace for the whole distance.

The rest of the field, with the exception of Charlie, Cordeiro and Jackson were in the "also ran" class. Eight Miles.

At eight miles Jackson was overlapped and out of the race as far as first place went. Charlie was running a beautiful race and Cordeiro was going strong.

Ninth and Tenth Miles. At nine miles Kaoo still led with Tsukamoto second, Charlie third, Cordeiro fourth and Jackson—overlapped—fifth. The first five laps in the tenth mile were merely a repetition of all the others.

The Last Lap. When the two leaders entered on the last lap they both dashed out like an arrow from a bow. The pace was terrific and looked more like the start of a quarter-mile run than anything else.

At the first turn the flying peds were blocked and jostled by a couple of "has been" or "never was" runners, who for some unknown reason, still stuck to the track, although far behind.

Kaoo and Tsukamoto both lost a few yards through these would-be runners, but quickly got into their stride again. At the second turn the men were running even, and the spectators came to their feet with a yell. Flags were waved and sober-minded citizens went crazy.

At the Last Turn. Just as the runners neared the turn beyond third base, Tsukamoto forged ahead for a few yards. Then did the old Waiialua Horse show his mettle and pace.

Cinching his teeth, he made his last effort, and the final hundred yards was covered at a pace that was marvelous, considering the distance the men had already run.

Kaoo was at his top speed but nobly did Tsukamoto respond. His final challenge was made sixty feet from the finish, and he got to within a foot of Kaoo.

The Finish. The excitement was intense as it was seen that the finish was to be so close. The Japanese section was frantic, and the yelling was something to be remembered in the future.

Within eight feet of the winning post Kaoo dived for the line, but fell short and Tsukamoto won by a foot.

The Real Verdict. The final result was: Tsukamoto, first; Charlie, second; Jackson third; Cordeiro, fourth. Time for full distance 1:07:30.

The first mile was done in 6 min. 10 sec.; two miles, 12 min. 10 sec.; three miles, 19 min.; four miles, 27 min.; five miles, 35 min. 10 sec.; six miles, 43 min. 10 sec.; seven miles, 51 min. 4 sec.; eight miles, 59 min. 4 sec.; nine miles, 67 min. 10 sec.; and the full ten miles in 1:07 min.

The last mile was the fastest, and was covered in 5 min. 50 sec. The last lap was cut out in 45 seconds.

Athletic Park Not to Blame. The Athletic Park people had nothing to do with the race, having rented the park to Kuke, who ran the show. Tsukamoto's representatives have entered a written protest with the stakeholder against paying over the prize money until the whole matter has been investigated.

Tsukamoto Not Well. Tsukamoto was not in the best of condition on Saturday. He was suffering from a stomach trouble, and said before the race that he would run a mile and see how he felt.

Fleet Tennis Tournament. Local lovers of tennis will be treated to some fine tennis while the fleet is in port, as the inter-fleet tournament will be started some day this week, probably on Wednesday, and some of the best players in the navy will be seen in action.

Paymaster Nicholson of the U. S. S. South Dakota is considered to be one of the best players in the service, and it is very possible that he will play against Gee, the local champion, before he leaves.

Through the courtesy of the officers of the Beretania Club, the courts of that club will be used for the matches, and no doubt a large number of local society people will be on hand to watch the games.

Another crack pair of players with the fleet are Lieut. Landenberger and Ensign Parker of the U. S. S. Tennessee, who will no doubt mate up in the doubles together.

Double Header At Athletic Park

There were two good games of baseball at the Athletic Park on Sunday, and in one a record was established. Apau of the C. A. C. pitched a marvelous game and did not allow a single Kalihua man to make first.

Twenty-seven men went up to bat, and not one of them got to first base safely. Six of the twenty-seven fanned, and the rest died at first. The game ended in a win for the C. A. C's, by a score of 6 to 0.

The second game was between the J. A. C's and the Marines, and the former team won by a score of 6 to 5. The Marines looked all over winners up till the last inning, when the J. A. C's made one run and won out.

There was a fair sized crowd present, although the Japanese fans were conspicuous by their absence. Many sailors took in the game and seemed surprised at the class of ball put up by the Chinese and other teams.

H. C. C. Team Defeat Sailor Cricketers

On Saturday at the Makiki cricket grounds the Honolulu team defeated a combined eleven from the two British boats now in port. It was an exciting game, and for a time it looked as if the local men would be defeated.

The H. C. C. put up a score of 95, and the sailors could only respond with 54. There was not time to play two innings, and the game had to be decided on the first.

A fair sized crowd journeyed out to the grounds, and the play was watched with great interest by everybody. A return match is in the air, and the probabilities are that the sailors with a little practice will put up a much better fight and make the H. C. C. pile up a big total of runs to win.

Australia Offers $50,000 Purse

Out in Australia they are all agog over the prospect of a match between Tommy Burns and Sam Langford. The sporting papers there make it appear that the matter is as good as arranged and that Promoter Hugh Macintosh will send the men together at the Rushcutters Bay Stadium, near Sydney, some time during the coming summer. This involves the explanation that the summer is approaching in Australia, the seasons being directly opposite to what they are here.

It is evident, however, that the Australian sports are doomed to disappointment. Macintosh, who sailed for London from New York today, says that he has abandoned the matter on account of the high terms demanded by Burns. Tommy wanted $20,000 for his share of the plunder, and in view of the fact that Burns is no longer the world's champion, Macintosh cannot see his way to conform to Tommy's views and make the venture a success.

Macintosh, by the way, still has hopes of landing the Jeffries-Johnson affair. In a communication to an Australian sporting writer he wrote that he had an assurance from Jeffries that England would be regarded as a suitable battleground if Jeffries received his price.

"I don't know exactly what time Jeffries will ask when the time comes," wrote Macintosh. "I have offered a purse of 10,000 pounds ($50,000) and I believe it is the biggest amount of real money that has been placed before Jeffries and Johnson. The offer still stands, and I have an idea it will attract attention from the big fellows when the bids are being offered out."

Macintosh hopes to know his fate in regard to the Jeffries-Johnson match within a few weeks, as he intends sailing for Australia from England with Bob Fitzsimmons, who is to star the Antipodean theatrical circuit under Macintosh's direction.

LATHAM TO TRY ENGLISH CHANNEL FLIGHT AGAIN.

Hubert Latham, the aviator who attempted to cross the English channel in a flying machine and fell into the water ten miles out from Calais, has announced that he will keep at it till he succeeds. Latham's flying machine, which is an oddly constructed monoplane, was only slightly injured in the recent flight. He took it at once to Paris, had it repaired, and now insists that he can cross the channel with ease.

Otto Warmersay, a broker's clerk in New York, was swallowed up by quicksands at Far Rockaway. Two companions who sought to rescue him narrowly escaped.

Fine Golf Play By Professionals

As a result of the first half of the 72 hole match, played on the links of the San Francisco Golf and Country Club at Ingleside on August 17, Macdonald Smith of Claremont gained a lead of three holes over the local professional John Black. It was generally conceded that Black would gain a lead on his own course but this he failed to do and the odds are now all in favor of young Smith winning by a good margin, as the second half will be played on his home links at Claremont.

In the morning round of eighteen holes both players repeatedly failed to judge the strength of the greens and as a result their play hardly came up to expectations. Their medal scores for the morning rounds were Black 76, Smith 77, leaving Black with a lead of one up.

In the afternoon Smith, after taking forty to go out, to Black's forty-one, Black at the twenty-seventh hole being one up, came home brilliantly in thirty-three and gained four holes on the last nine, making him three up on the day's play. Smith's brilliant iron play was the feature of the match, Black completely failing to do himself justice with the long. The home professional never seemed to get properly settled down to his game and it is probable that the importance of the occasion had something to do with this. Smith, on the other hand, was cool at all stages, and, for such a youth, his steadiness and accuracy were remarkable.

The first hole went to Black, four to five, Smith missing a short putt. The second was halved in five and Black took the third in five to six. The fourth hole was halved in four, both men failing to hole their putts for three. Smith holed a good putt of ten feet for a three and a win at the fifth hole. The sixth and seventh were holed in five each, both men missing chances for fours.

The eighth hole went to Black, four to five, Smith again missing a comparatively easy putt. The ninth was holed in a perfect three, giving Black a lead of two at the ninth hole.

Smith won the tenth, three to four, the eleventh being halved in a perfect four. The twelfth was also halved into, both men playing perfect golf. Both men approached weakly at the thirteenth hole, the result being a half in five. Black missed a putt of three feet at the fourteenth, Smith squaring the match with a four. Black again duffed his run up shot at the short fifteenth, Smith winning, three to four. The sixteenth, both were short with their approaches, but Black recovered well and won in four to five. The seventeenth hole was halved in a perfect three. Coming to the home hole, Smith made his first mistake off the tee, driving out of bounds, losing the hole in four to five.

This left Black one up on the morning's play.

The attendance, which was good in the morning, was greatly augmented when the men drove off for the second eighteen holes.

The first hole was halved without anything special occurring in four. On the second green Black made a serious error of judgment. He was stymied by Smith's ball, and instead of playing safe tried to hole the putt, striking his opponent's ball. He missed the resulting putt of four feet and gave a half.

At the long third hole—560 yards—Smith laid a full cleek shot ten feet from the hole, and holing the putt won in four to six. This was probably the finest shot of the match and put Smith even. The fourth hole Black played indifferently, Smith winning four to five. The fifth went to Black, three to four and the sixth was halved in five. The seventh was won by Black in a good four to five. At the eighth hole Black won in four, Smith missing another putt. The ninth was Smith's, three to four, leaving Black one up on the twenty-seven holes.

The tenth and eleventh hole were halved in perfect golf in three and four. The twelfth hole Smith won, four to five, again evening the score. The thirteenth hole was halved in five, Smith having hard luck for a four. Smith had a magnificent approach shot to within twelve feet of the fourteenth, and holing his putt won in a grand three to four. The fifteenth hole was halved in a perfect three. Going to the sixteenth hole Smith played a beautiful approach onto the green out of the rough. Black duffing his approach and losing the hole in four to five made Smith dormy two. The short seventeenth was halved in three, and the eighteenth Black was again weak on the putting green. Smith winning easily in four to six, leaving him with a lead of three holes on the thirty-six played.

The young professional—he is only eighteen years old—was heartily cheered for his splendid finish.

C. D. Whyte was referee and Vincent Whitney and Arthur J. Owen acted as umpires.

Gentleman Jim Admires Welsh

Jim Corbett's arrival in Ireland drew the following comment from a sporting paper there:

The term "Gentleman Jim" has been assigned to Jim Corbett, the once famous pugilist and now the well known actor, who arrived at Queenstown last night from New York on board the great Cunarder Lusitania.

During a chat with Jim Corbett previous to his departure from Cork to Dublin he gave our correspondent an outline of his tour. First of all, he said that he was going to Dublin. He intends to give an exhibition of his play and humorous sketches in the Irish metropolis. Then he will travel to Belfast, Manchester and afterward London, where he will stay two weeks. His stay at this side of the water will extend to six weeks altogether, when he will return again to the United States to resume his plays.

Referring to pugilism, he said that recently he had the pleasure of meeting in the United States Freddie Welsh, Owen Moran and Jim Driscoll, England's famous lightweight boxers, who were the greatest marzels in the world. They had not held equal. He had seen the trio on repeatedly in America, and their outings were phenomenal. The Yankee boxers were all out-classed by them.

"Freddie Welsh is a wonder," he said. He added that Welsh had met Abe Attell, the premier boxer of America, and had disposed of him in the easiest fashion. Attell had fated to him in the course of conversation relative to the fight that Welsh's boxing powers were something that he could not realize. The English boxer had rained blow after blow on him, and delivered them in such a scientific fashion that he was completely outfashioned.

But the manly way the trio fought in the ring and through fair and honorable tactics throughout they had won the esteem and good will of all Americans. Jim Corbett remarked that it was his great desire and wish to meet Freddie in England or Wales, and hoped to see him box with Josephs near Pontypridd soon for the championship of the world, and predicted for him a certain victory.

COMMISSIONERS TO INVESTIGATE

Senator Dillingham, of the Federal Immigration Commission, arrived at Kailua yesterday by the Mauna Kea. The commission consists of three Senators, three Congressmen and three men appointed by President Roosevelt. The members who came to Hawaii want to find out what immigration has been effected in these islands from the beginning, what is being done now toward obtaining immigrants, or otherwise; what the needs of the islands appear to be from the various opinions of people nearest to the problem, and, particularly, what is the sentiment of the people, all the people, in regard to immigration. Their system of gathering information will mean such a collecting of facts as, when abulated, will reveal all conditions and circumstances; who and what the laborers here are; how they came here; how they are getting along here; what their prospects are; whether they are the people to benefit the country; whether they are the people best adapted to the country; the nature of their employment; what kinds of living they make; what manner of workmen they are; their health conditions, the hospital records, the school records, the criminal records; together with the changes that come to themselves and to the country in which they work, whether better or worse, as generation succeeds generation. They want to know the degree of civility of the various people that have come or are coming; whether they have made, or are making or will make good American citizens.—Hilo Tribune.

New York, Aug. 16.—William Winter, the dean of American dramatic critics, has severed his connection with the New York Tribune, which he accepted in 1865 at the invitation of Horace Greeley. His resignation was announced today in the following statement by Hart Layman, the editor:

"Mr. Winter has resigned entirely of his own accord and much, to my regret, and I have no reason to expect that he will reconsider his decision. I thought it right to publish a small part of the large amount of matter he wrote for the Sunday Tribune of August 8. Mr. Winter did not agree with me and his resignation followed."

CHICAGO CAR MEN VOTING TO STRIKE; MAYOR BUSSE, WHO ACTS AS MEDIATOR.

Following the vote of about 13,000 Chicago street railway employees to strike if their wage demands were not met by the companies, Mayor Busse and city officials generally took prompt action to prevent a walkout of the men and bring about arbitration. The mayor called a conference in his office and appointed Walter L. Fisher, an eminent attorney who is well acquainted with the traction situation, to represent the city. Under the Chicago traction ordinances the city is virtually the partner of the street railway companies, and under this law the city is empowered to take a hand for mediation in the event of disputes between the employees and the company. President Milton of the Chicago City railway issued a statement showing that the company is gradually increasing the scale of wages as it is able to increase the average speed of cars. The men demand that the scale be advanced to 27 and 30 cents an hour for various kinds of duty. The voting of the men was conducted without any disorder, the balloting being carried on in a careful and orderly manner and each ballot being fully protected by secrecy. These snapshots were taken during the voting. One of the pictures shows M. C. Boyle, a member of the executive board of the Street Railway Men's union, depositing the ballots in the box. Boyle is indicated by an arrow. The other snapshot shows a line of street railway men waiting in front of one of the polling places.

Do you know what Lager Beer really contains? You SHOULD know if you don't. Most people have peculiar ideas about it. Lager Beer contains:

1. Plenty of well-boiled water; that makes it a safe drink.
  2. Carbonic acid gas; that makes it a lively drink.
  3. Less than 3 per cent. of alcohol; that makes it a stimulating and refreshing drink, but not an intoxicant.
  4. Malt extract in solution, that makes for nourishment
  5. A little hop extract; that gives it a tonic effect
  6. Nothing injurious; that's all.
- So there's no reason why you shouldn't drink
