Insurance. WHY THE Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States is the Best company with which to Assure. I.—Because of its Safety. Its surplus is larger than that of any other assurance company. II.—Because of its Promptness. Of 1,043 death claims paid in 1885, nearly one-half were paid the very day proofs were received; while of the remainder, the majority were paid within the following three days. No other company can show such a record. III.—Because of its Liberality and Reforms. All policies are INCONTTESTABLE after three years. All incontestable policies are payable immediately upon receipt of proofs of death. The Society's policy contract is clear and simple, and liberal in its conditions. Its Non-forfeiting Tontine (or Semi-Tontine) policy affords all the ultimate benefits of the full Tontine, and has during its earlier years the surrender value and other material advantages of ordinary life policies. IV.—Profit. No other company is paying on its policies, as large profits as are shown under the Equitable's matured Tontine policies with fifteen-year periods. Persons desiring assurance may obtain estimates of the probable results of similar policies, and of policies with twenty-year terms, which are expected to show even larger profits. V.—Prospective Advantages. The unexampled progress of the Equitable in the past is the best guarantee of the increasing future value of assurance with the Equitable. Assets, $66,553,387.80 Liabilities, 62,691,148.37 Surplus, $13,862,239.13 Surplus on the New York Standard, $17,495,329.40 New Assurance in 1885, $96,011,378.00 a larger business than that of any other company. THE TRUTH.

This morning's Advertiser finds consolation for the want of a quorum at the Legislative Hall on Saturday morning, in the belief that if members had not absented themselves "Messrs. Dole and Thurston, aided by their lieutenants, Messrs. Dickey and Kalua, would probably have wasted the day in the discussion of some frivolous question." The Advertiser admits that it may be mistaken in this conclusion, but takes shelter behind the assertion that it is "the rational inference to be drawn from their antecedent course," at the same time expressing regret that these gentlemen should pursue a course, "chiefly because it tends to discredit and bring the Legislature into contempt." Now, we do not agree with our contemporary, and seriously doubt if it can find a dozen intelligent men in the entire community who do. With regard to the gentlemen named, we are not in their confidence. We seldom see them in the streets or elsewhere. When we do, we never converse with them upon political matters. They are not in the habit of visiting this office, nor of suggesting, directly or indirectly, matter for publication. We have taken occasion more than once to appear in their defence, and more than once have been in opposition to them. But have always followed our own convictions, uninfluenced by them or their friends. We believe in fair play, and in the interests of fair play have occasionally put in our humble defence for these gentlemen, whose treatment by our contemporary has almost invariably borne the stamp of dastardly meanness. Moreover, although not agreeing with their entire Legislative course we believe that in the main they have been on the side of right and justice, and the intelligent public believe the same. These gentlemen are represented by this morning's paper in a light that is positively unfair, unjust, and untrue. Their course has not had a tendency "to discredit and bring the Legislature into contempt," but the general course of the majority on the other side certainly has had that effect. Indeed, these gentlemen of the opposition are applauded on the outside for having manfully, bravely, and persistently fought the people's battles against overwhelming odds, and having checked the operations of those who seemed disposed to run riot among public interests. This is the public sentiment, whatever our contemporary may say or affect to believe to the contrary. The Opposition have not obstructed public business, as charged. They have opposed and obstructed, as in duty bound, foolish and injurious measures. Wise and beneficial legislation has received their support and assistance, whether initiated by the government or not. This is truth, and what is inconsistent therewith is error.

AN INDUSTRY TO BE ENCOURAGED.

The South Sea Island trade, by no means a thing to be sneered at, is no doubt increasing year by year, and will in time assume those proportions due to enterprise, and become an object of consideration to all trading countries. As it is now, the traffic there is greater than one would suppose. Brigs, brigantines, and schooners, chiefly from Hongkong, Australasia, the United States, and Germany, visit the Islands and trade extensively in copra, coral, shells and shark-fins. Stations have been established at various points on the Islands, and vessels have only to go there and load, as the station keepers do all the gathering of the trade produce. The Pacific Navigation Co. of Honolulu have made many efforts to establish trade between the South Sea Islands and Hawaii. Copra in large quantities has been brought here by the Pacific Navigation Co., shipped to Germany, there converted into oil, and sent back to Honolulu. That is like grinding down a crowbar to make a needle. The oil is considerably used here in many ways, and if it were cheap enough would do away with the Chinese peanut oil to some extent. The oil-cake, (copra after the oil is pressed out) is in demand here by stock owners, for fattening purposes, but is not easily available because of its expensiveness. Could not a factory be put up here? There are several parties in the country who would gladly take the matter in hand, if they were encouraged by the Government. They would put up proper works for manufacturing cocoanut oil and oil-cake. They would spend thousands of dollars in the country, not only in the building and machinery, but by employing labor and purchasing all the cocoanuts grown on Hawaii nei. It would stimulate cocoanut planting, increase the trade with the South Sea Islands, and convert cocoanuts, that are daily going to waste, into hard cash. What more could be asked?

THE OPIUM LICENSE BILL.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—It is not my habit to express my opinions in the newspapers, but I feel moved at this time to say a few words in reference to a matter, which is of vital importance to all living on the Hawaiian Islands. With others, I had shared the hope that the present session of the Legislature might close without the introduction of a bill to license the importation and sale of opium, though this possibility had been threatened some time ago. It is with the greatest regret that I learn that such a bill has been formally brought before the House. It is not my purpose here to rehearse the arguments which have been so frequently and with such force, employed by those, who are opposed conscientiously to the opium traffic. The terrible evils resulting from the use of this pernicious drug are patent to all, and here in these Islands we have most overwhelming evidence of what this poison is able to accomplish, morally and physically. Brought in contact, as I am in my missionary work throughout the group, with those whose life has been wrecked by opium, it is no wonder that I foresee with apprehension the great increased extension of so ruinous a vice, a result which would certainly follow the licensing of this now forbidden drug. It is simply playing with the truth to say that the use of opium would not be increased. Intelligent Chinese with whom I have spoken on this point, have laughed at such an idea. I am willing to acknowledge that the present state of illicit importation and sale is most deplorable and calls for the severest investigation, and I hope no man or woman, high or low, who engages in this meanest kind of illegal trade will escape detection and punishment. It is a difficult matter, but what are our constituted authorities for, if not to put down evil and wrong doing? License the vice and you raise up a host of evils which the authorities will find it still more difficult to deal with, while the moral evil which will be wrought will be incalculable. Such a step would result in greatest injury to both employer and laborer. Our plantations would be among the greatest sufferers. Those engaged in the traffic would use every means in their power to awaken the appetite for, when once created, they are sure of their victim and his wages. The Chinese who become so early addicted to the use of opium would speedily show the evil effects of this new departure—but all nationalities would suffer as well in a greater or less degree. It can scarcely be possible that Japan, which has so rigorously prohibited opium within its own borders, would view with satisfaction, this new temptation laid in the way of the laborers of that nationality who have come here. As I understand it, it is designed by the provisions of this bill to prohibit the sale of opium to native born Hawaiians. With opium otherwise free in the country, is it possible that it could be kept from any one nationality and especially one which could be tempted so easily to its use, as past history has shown us? One might as well apply fire to combustible material, and not expect a conflagration. The passage of such a bill would be a retrogressive, a fatal step for public minds in this kingdom. I cannot see how men of wisdom, thoughtful foresight and love for humanity can for a moment entertain such an idea. It will place an obstacle in the way of the moral, intellectual and spiritual elevation of the mass of the inhabitants of these Islands, which will with difficulty be overcome. God grant that this calamity may be averted! I write at a distance and hence am not aware what progress this bill has made but pray most fervently that it may suffer the defeat it deserves, and if this be not the case, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to veto it, when it comes before him.

Yours truly,
FRANK W. DAMON.
Hilo, Hawaii, Aug. 27, 1886.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—

After a residence of nearly forty years of missonary life in China, having had abundant opportunities of seeing the evil effects of opium, I would most heartily endorse all that has been said above by my friend Mr. Damon, and join with him most sincerely in the hope that the importation and sale of opium may never be legalized in the Hawaiian Islands.

Yours sincerely,
R. LECHLER,

THE LEGISLATURE.

EIGHTY-NINTH DAY.

MONDAY, August 30th.
The house met at 10 A. M. After prayer by the Chaplain the roll was called. The following members answered to their names: Ministers Gibson, Creighton and Dare; Nobles Walker (President), Cleghorn, Bush, Kaa, Kapena, Martin, S. Parker; Reps. Hayselden, Keau, Liikalani, Baker, Kaubi, Amara, Kaulia, Pahia, Kaunamano, Wight, Nahale, Nahinu, Kauhane, Kalua, Aholo, Kaukau, Castle, Kaai, Paehaole and Palohau. The minutes were read in Hawaiian and English and approved.

PETITIONS.

Rep. Wight, on suspension of the rules, read a petition with one hundred and fifty-one signatures, from North and South Kohala, praying that Dr. L. S. Thompson, Government physician, be removed, and Dr. Bond appointed in his place, for the reasons: that he does not practice his profession, as he is dispensed by the people, that he is planting sugar and practising law, instead of attending to his work. The hon. member stated that he was aware that the matter of appointing and dismissing physicians was in the province of the Board of Health. Two years ago a similar petition was sent in but no notice was taken of it. Rep. Hayselden had said that Dr. Bond had gone round and got the petition up. Rep. Hayselden, in making such a statement was perfectly ignorant, as Dr. Bond was a different man to that.

Rep. Hayselden said he had not stated that Dr. Bond took the petition round. He said it was reported that he had.

Rep. Wight said he did not want to misstate anything, probably it was as Rep. Hayselden said.

Rep. Hayselden said the papers had reported him correctly. A petition was started and in favor of Dr. Bond, and also one against Dr. Thompson.

On motion of Rep. Kalua the petition was referred to the Sanitary Committee.

Rep. Paehaole presented a petition from Molokai praying 1st, that Kimona be not appointed district magistrate at Kaluapapa; 2d, that Hanapule be not appointed deputy sheriff at Kalawao; 3d, that R. W. Meyer be continued in his capacity as agent of the Board of Health.

Rep. Kalua moved the petition be referred to the President of the Board of Health.

Rep. Kaunamano moved it be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Kaulukou moved it be laid upon the table.

The petition was laid upon the table.

RESOLUTIONS.

Rep. Thurston read a first time an act to authorize and regulate special partnerships.

On motion of Mr. Castle the rules were suspended and the bill read a second time by its title.

Noble Kapena moved the bill be referred to the Printing Committee.

Rep. Thurston said he did not object to its being printed, it was very long and technical.

Rep. Hayselden favored the referring to the Printing Committee. He hardly thought the bill necessary as the law for cooperations covered the ground.

The bill was referred to the Printing Committee and will then go to a special committee.

Rep. Castle presented the following resolution: Resolved, That the bill to create a board of road commissioners be taken from the table out of its regular order and made special order of the day immediately following the bill to provide for taxing Chinese. Adopted.

Rep. Hayselden read a first time an act to amend article 69, of the Civil Code, relating to auctioneers. On suspension of the rules the bill was read a second time by title, and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Kaulukou moved that the rules be suspended and the bill to appoint five judges for the Supreme Court be taken from the table and made special order of the day immediately following the bill to create a board of road commissioners. The motion prevailed.

Rep. Kaunamano gave notice of a bill to encourage the manufacture of cocoanut oil and oil cake.

Incidental Expenses Police Department $5,000
The hon. member said this was a new item and one that was necessary. He did not know out of what appropriation the telephones on Hawaii were paid for. They came to $300 a year on that island alone, and this item would cover the expense for telephones not only on that island but on the other islands. The sheriff on each island ought to make a regular trip to see how his deputies were getting along. The expense incurred would come out of this new item.

Rep. Aholo said that if there was some report as to how much it would cost for telephones it would be a guide as to how much to insert. A report ought to be made in this matter.

Rep. Kaunamano said that if they went into telephones it would encourage laziness. The police will want to serve summons by telephones. If there was some estimate he would probably favor the item.

Minister Dare did not feel that there was any call for the appropriation. Such telephones on the other islands as are used by the police, and are paid at a monthly rental out of incidentals of Attorney-General's department. At present he was not advised of any condition of affairs to render this item necessary.

Rep. Kaulukou withdrew his motion.

Rep. Kaunamano moved the committee adjourn to 1:30 o'clock.

Minister Gibson said he had an item to insert which would no doubt cause discussion, but as it was so near twelve o'clock he was in favor of a recess.

The committee at 11:50 adjourned to 1:30.

By the steamer Kinan pleasant weather is reported. Two plantations at Hamakua and two at Hilo, have suspended grinding for the season. The Volcano is booming.

MR. Alford Carter, a member of the Myrtle Boat Club, employed in the banking house of C. R. Bishop & Co., had his left leg badly cut by a mooring cable, while bathing at the Myrtle boat house last Friday afternoon.

NEXT Thursday afternoon H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani will give a birthday party and Iuau, at her Palama residence. The Nihoa party, the Liliuokalani Educational society and the Princess' Own military company, have been invited to attend.

Two handsome wedding cakes for the Stillman-Molteno wedding are on view at the Elite ice cream parlors. One of the cakes is four stories high, beautifully decorated with sugar roses and ornamental leaves, and is surmounted with a wedding symbol.

In the Police Court to-day, J. Ryan, on two charges of assault and battery, was fined $50, ($25 on each), and Geo. Patterson his associate in the Garlton case, $25. Both were ordered to give bonds, Ryan in $100 surety, and Patterson, in $50, to keep the peace for one year.

At Lahaina, Maui, last Wednesday a Japanese laborer committed suicide, by hanging himself, and at Olowalu on the following Saturday, (Aug. 20) a Chinaman ended his existence by strangulation, he having hung himself by the neck on a tree. An inquest was held in both cases.

A NEAT little upholstery establishment has been started in new Armington block, King street, near the bridge, by a Hawaiian named J. P. Kanakalili, who is prepared to fill orders, great and small, in his line. Making and repairing mattresses, and repairing couches, &c. are his specialties.

THE juvenility of Honolulu was fairly represented at the Aginton matinee Saturday afternoon, and about 100 persons assembled to witness the performance in the evening. In both the afternoon and evening exhibitions Mr. Aginton greatly improved on Friday night's skating, going through the intricate movements of numerous windings and apparently confused evolutions, with perfect ease and grace.

A RIDING PARTY. A party of twelve went over the Pali to Koolau yesterday. They were twice drenched by rain before reaching the Pali, and were cooled off again by a brisk shower at Heeia. On their return trip, last night, one of them fell into a ditch on the side of the road, near the old ice works, and came near being killed. It was dark as pitch and raining heavily when the cavalcade of 12 came down the road, and all went well until one of the horses disappeared with his rider, as though the earth had opened to receive them. The Water Works people had made an excavation to lay pipes, but left no light there or any other danger signal. The ditch is a nasty place to fall into on a dark night, as it might cause permanent injuries or death. As it happened last night, the horse and rider rolled over twice, without either being seriously hurt.

A BULLOCK'S ESCAPE.

On Saturday last, the James Mabee put into Nawiliwili harbor for the purpose of embarking some cattle for the Honolulu market. An animal, not appreciating the situation, (in the slings) slipped out when over the deck, marched aft and jumped overboard. The boatmen were despatched after him and in less than five minutes, the bullock was safely on board again. He was secured on deck and landed at the cattle pen yesterday morning.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Mr. Williams, a Swede of middle age, was accidentally shot and killed at Paauhau last Thursday. He went into a harness room on the above day, to get a shotgun, with the intention of firing at some quail. He reached over a railing and was drawing the gun, muzzle first, towards him, when it went off. The shot entered his left side, and penetrated to the heart. He walked about ten feet after the discharge of the gun, and then dropped dead. Williams was a teamster on the plantation, and was spoken of as a good man. He was buried on the next day, leaving a brother on the same plantation and many friends to mourn his loss.

THE MARAROA, ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE.

The Oceanic Steamship Company's Mararoa came to the wharf from Australia and New Zealand, about 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and left for San Francisco at about 8 o'clock the same evening. The through passengers came ashore, and made good use of the short stay in port to see what was to be seen in Honolulu. An immense crowd of people gathered on the wharf to bid adieu to departing friends and to see the steamer off. The King and suite went aboard and remained to the last. The indefatigable Berger was in attendance with his band of musicians, and filled the air with animating sounds. As the noble ship steamed out of the harbor in the darkness, with her electric lights full ablaze and emitting illumination through every window and porthole, she presented a grand sight.

The Mararoa brought 6 adult passengers for Honolulu, and a little freight, and had 94 passengers for San Francisco. She took from here 12 cabin and 21 steerage passengers, a little freight, and the mails.

CONCERT AT KILAUEA, KAUAU, IN AID OF KILAUEA CHURCH.

On Saturday the 14th inst., a concert was given at Kilauea Church, in aid of the Church funds. The talent engaged was purely local, and proved very successful. Miss Bernice Barnard rendered valuable assistance as accompanist, and to her is due the enthusiastic reception of the vocalists. The choir from Anahola Church, under the direction of the Rev. Kaiaapa, sang two or three Hawaiian gloss, concluding with "Aloha Oe" and "Hawaii Pono," which sent every member of the audience home feeling happy.

The Misses Maboe acquitted themselves creditably as vocalists, and it is hoped that their voices will be again heard ere long. Mr. J. B. Alexander, the pastor of the Church, returned from Waimea in the middle of his vacation in order to take part in the concert. He sang "The Lost Chord" with telling effect, and in trio with the Garstin Bros., his high clear notes were heard with delight. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Macfie, Jr., took an active part in the performance and to its success. Mrs. Macfie's "Cup of tea" was a relish to all, and brought fourth rounds of applause, while Mr. Macfie's success lay in a serio-comic solo on cane cultivation. The Bertelmann family were ably represented by the two boys from St. Louis College, and Miss Katie Bertelmann, who played instrumental pieces to the delight of their parents and the entire audience.

Financially, the concert was a success, there being over 200 people who contributed towards the desired fund. The next step will be to apply the money to a practical purpose which we hope to see realized in a few desired improvements. The members who took part in the scheme have every reason to feel proud of the results, and when again in similar need, will not hesitate to have recourse to similar means.

PRESENTATION TO MR. ROBERT GRIEVE.

At the close of the day's and week's work at the Hawaiian Gazette office, on Saturday afternoon last, the employees and proprietors met in an informal way, by preconcerted arrangement, in the printing office. Mr. Robert Grieve, who has recently retired from the proprietary and the management, had been asked, without any specified reason, to be there at that time.

Mr. A. T. Atkinson, editor of the Gazette, stepped forward from the company of assembled employees, with an unpretentious-looking paper parcel in his hands, at the same time intimating a desire for Mr. Grieve's attention, who was at the time conversing with a friend.

Attention secured, Mr. Atkinson said that he had been deputed by the employees of the office to make a presentation of the parcel he held in his hands to Mr. Grieve, as a token of their respect and esteem, at the same time expressing his own and the employees' admiration for the many good qualities of the gentleman whom he was addressing, which years of close connection had begotten.

Mr. Grieve was taken by surprise, the affair being quite unexpected to him. He thanked his former employees for their kind sentiments, stating that he had endeavored to deal fairly and justly with them, and was gratified with their gift, as an expression of their satisfaction with his treatment, and an evidence of their continued good feeling towards himself. It would be kept as a remembrance of past agreeable relations and many wrestlings together in the struggle of life.

The removal of the paper covering from the parcel revealed a large and beautiful silver ice pitcher, bearing the following inscription:—"Presented to Robert Grieve by the employees of the Hawaiian Gazette Publishing Company, Honolulu, August 28, 1886."

FOREIGN NEWS.

The following foreign news items are gleaned from the New Zealand Herald, to hand by the Mararoa, Saturday 28th instant:—

At a meeting of the British Cabinet, Sir M. Hicks-Beach, Chief Secretary for Ireland, reported that the state of the country was reassuring. The Cabinet decided that Parliament be prorogued as soon as supply has been obtained. A committee of the Cabinet was appointed to consider the position of affairs in Ireland.

The Republique Francaise insists on France retaining the New Hebrides by right of first occupation. The London Standard, referring to the same question, considers that it is time France left the Island. A few days later the official journal published an article regarding the Franco-German protocol of December last, relating to the future operations of those countries on the West Coast of Africa and the South Pacific. The journal advocates the taking of the New Hebrides by France, and argues justification for such a step.

A vessel arrived at Newcastle, New South Wales, on the 14th inst., bringing among her passengers 31 returned diggers from Kimberley. They give discouraging, though indefinite, reports as to the state of the field.

NEW ZEALAND. An extraordinary application came before the Supreme Court at Christchurch recently. The liquidator of Montgomery & Co. (Limited), a company which was being voluntarily wound up, had failed to induce two of the shareholders to accept the money they were entitled to, and applied for an order to liquidate the amount in court, so that he might complete the liquidation. The amount involved was about £1,800, and His Honor, while granting the order, expressed surprise that in these dull times persons should find in their hearts to refuse money awarded them under such circumstances.

Mr. Locke Richardson gave one of his popular recitals at the Freemasons' Hall, Auckland, on the 11th instant, to a full house and an appreciative audience. He was listened to with pleasure, and heartily applauded at the close, as well as at intervals throughout the evening's entertainment. This was the last but one of a series of entertainments given in Auckland. Mr. Richardson was shortly to leave for Australia.

Matters at Samoa were reported to be much more pacific and encouraging. The troubles appeared to be over, and everyone was heartily glad of restored tranquillity. The German Consul had received permission to visit Europe, and was expected to leave by the Mararoa.

THE LEGISLATURE.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 27th.

On suspension of the rules the bill was read a second time by title. Rep. Kaulukou moved the bill pass to engrossment.

Noble Cleghorn gave a history of the bill in the house and before the committee, and, proceeding, said the statement of the Minister that they did not need a loan very much surprised him. He was not opposed to a loan, because he thought a loan judiciously made and applied would be beneficial to the country. The Minister of the Interior had foreshadowed in the early part of the session that he was in favor of a loan, but later he announced that he changed his mind. It was a mistaken statement the Minister made, that they would do without a loan. An old saying was that a wise man changed his mind, but a fool never. He thought that bonds not less than $500 was a mistake. There ought to be bonds starting at $50 and running up to $1,000. In Australia, France, and nearly all other countries, loans were taken up by their own people in small sums. A great many people could save money and take up a $50 bond, who could never save $500. The strength of a country was in having money borrowed from its own people and not from outsiders, and from many of its own people rather than a few large capitalists. It was better that the Government should owe a thousand people at home than a hundred abroad. Section 3 of this bill ordered a commission of 5 percent to be paid to any person negotiating the loan. This looked like a "nigger in the fence." That would be a large commission on a small transaction, and in this transaction of two millions would amount to $100,000, or a twentieth of the whole. One percent, or $20,000, would be a very liberal allowance. A man offering a very large bonus in a business matter made a person suspicious. They were paying a liberal rate of interest, six percent free of all taxes. He believed that a loan was absolutely necessary, but he thought the Cabinet should introduce, through the Finance Minister, a bill stating precisely what they wanted. Such a thing as a loan bill being introduced in Great Britain by anybody but the Chancellor of the Exchequer would not be thought of. A loan was now necessary for wharves, waterworks, immigration, and other urgent works of improvement. Japanese and Portuguese immigration was very important, having proved a great benefit to the country. To stop Japanese immigration at this stage would be disastrous. It would cause the Japanese Government to feel that it was being trifled with, especially after the visit of His Majesty to that country and the sending of an envoy there. He thought the Japanese immigration must be admitted to have been a success, for which the Government deserved more credit than anything else. He should like to see the Japanese coming here in their own vessels and to see a line of steamers between this country and Japan. The Japanese in Hanakua wanted to bring their wives out, which would be difficult if immigration was stopped. He was therefore in favor of a reasonable measure and he hoped that, instead of going into consideration of this bill, the Government would bring in a new and more reasonable one. The speaker referred approvingly to the work the Minister of the Interior was doing, in laying the water pipes that had been lying idle so many years, whereby he understood that the water supply of Honolulu would be greatly increased at an expense of not more than $20,000. He thought it would not be wise to spend a large sum on waterworks. They had spent enough on engineers from abroad to lay those pipes. There were able men born here, as competent as those imported for such purposes. There should be a special item for deepening the entrance to Honolulu harbor, which had always been a pet scheme of his. If full particulars were advertised, he believed people in London or elsewhere would come and do it for a reasonable sum, say $100,000. He believed in the Government subsidizing one railway, and only one, and that from Waipio to Hilo. Plans and details had been prepared by an hon. Noble (Wildler) at great personal expense. But he was opposed to the Government going into that job itself.

Rep. Kaulukou moved the house consider the bill section by section. Carried.

The first section was read, authorizing the Minister of Finance, with the approval of the King in Cabinet Council, to issue coupon bonds of the Government of a denomination not less than $500 and in the aggregate not exceeding two millions of dollars.

Rep. Thurston was opposed to taking action on a loan bill till the Government produced some policy on the matter, different from the shifting, shiftless course that had been pursued on this question. He gave a history of the question from the first of the session, when the air was full of "loan," mentioning next the announcement of the first Minister that a loan was not necessary, and, lastly, the revival of the loan bill. He had heard from not one, but many people, an explanation of this very changeable policy. It was that Mr. Spreckels had declared that a loan was unnecessary, but now the hands of the Ministry were forced from another quarter: hence the sudden change of tune.

Minister Gibson said the hon. member for Molokai had once made a calculation that their time cost over $80 an hour, and he was just wondering how much the hon. member had cost during the last ninety days. The hon. member often spoke about innuendo and statements not based on fact. What business, then, had he to bring in here street talk. He ranted and raved on matters about which he had no information. In reply to Noble Cleghorn, he said he had not changed his mind on this subject. If he had done so he should have moved the withdrawal of the bill. But the bill had been allowed to come up in its regular order. Early in the session the Ministry were very earnest in considering certain local improvements. Then a period of reflection came, a cry of retrenchment arose, not alone among the Ministers but also other people. The country was represented to be staggering under a load of debt. That was the description of their condition, notwithstanding that one item of their assets—the waterworks—would bring in the market sufficient to pay off all the debt. There was a message from the King recommending retrenchment, and for a time the Assembly was in a very economical mood. Under the influence of this prevailing mood he had written to their agent in Japan, telling him that the Legislature seemed to be opposed to bringing in more immigrants, and advising him to wait awhile until the mind of the Assembly was more definitely expressed. The speaker believed that the Assembly would be disposed to vote more for immigration now than they were then, or even six weeks ago; that, instead of the small appropriation for bringing in one shipload, they might, on third reading, be disposed to provide for three or four shiploads. The course of the Government was not due to the dictation of the gentleman—the good friend of this country—who had been referred to. Mr. Spreckels had told him, about the time he introduced this bill, that he thought it was advisable for the Government to borrow money, and he believed that the whole amount could be obtained in San Francisco. The Government was now ready to proceed with the consideration of this, their own, bill, than which no other loan bill had been introduced. He moved to amend the first section by making the denomination of bonds $100 instead of $500.

Rep. Thurston, in reply to the Minister of Interior's reference to his waste of time, said he would be willing to put the amount lost by the waste of time by the Minister on top of what was lost by himself, and the Minister could take a pick and shovel and would not get at the speaker's pile if he dug for a week.

Rep. Dole asked the Minister if he favored this loan bill now. Minister Gibson said he did, with amendments that he desired—more amendments probably than he would have allowed two months ago.

Rep. Dole considered the question to have been a fair one, as he distinctly understood the Minister to say a few days ago that the Government considered a loan unnecessary, looking to other sources for the means of public improvements. There was no matter in which it was more important for the Government to have a policy than that of borrowing.

Rep. Thurston thought this was the proper time for the Assembly to discuss whether it was desirable to effect a loan or not. Until this moment they were not aware whether the Government was in favor of a loan or not. He was opposed to borrowing money, except for the purpose of paying off the debt, on part of which nine percent was charged. Proceeding to discuss the present debt and interest, he was interrupted by Minister Gibson, who said that the loan was to pay off the debt, also that the Government might not want to borrow more than three-quarters of a million. In reply to this, he said they could depend on it that this Government would borrow every dollar it could get anybody to lend it. He believed the statement of the Minister the other day was true, that they did not need a loan. For the past few years the revenue was larger than ever before, and the Government had been borrowing hundred of thousands of dollars, yet the country was never in such a bad financial condition as at the present time. The newspaper inspired from the Government side, in its "campaign truths"—he was going to say "lies" but wouldn't—boasted that the debt of this kingdom was only $13 per head. This, however, was not $13 for every voter, but for every babe that had breathed an hour and every granddame throughout the islands. If this proposed loan was effected the debt per capita would be $39 per head. Where was the money to come from to pay $240,000 interest to be paid at the end of the next period? They might lay a noose on the ground and place corn in the midst of it, and a chicken might step into the snare without seeing it, until the noose tightened about its neck. So their people might see immigrants stepping on the wharf, and everything lovely, but the noose would be felt by-and-by.

Rep. Dole, at 4:30, moved the house adjourn till 10 o'clock to-morrow, which carried.

Mrs. Mary Colby of Vienna, Me., although 78 years old, has just personally worked out her road tax of $4.

Lucrétia Mott recognized her husband as the treasury of the family firm, but she did not hesitate to draw "orders." Miss Anthony tells how Lucrétia once said to her: "Sister, I am going to give thee $50 to carry on the work." Then turning to James Mott, she said: "Out of that corner of thy pocket-book where thee put my pay for keeping thy house, mending thy clothes, etc., please hand Susan the money." James was too just a man to withhold his hand.
