PROVERBS FOR THESE DAYS.

Beware of false prophets and patent toothache drops.

Look not upon the horse race and monkey with the pool seller, for it is not wise to bet unless you can win.

Try not to gully the stranger who sojourneth in thy land and seemeth meek and sad; for of such are three-card monte men made.

A resident of Park street had a photographer come up the other day for the purpose of taking a view of his residence, and the man of the camera had just got in position when along came an old coon with a buck-saw on his arm and wanted to know what was up.

"Going to photograph the house," was the reply.

"Then I guess I'll pose," remarked the old man. "I'll take a position at the left of the gate and represent the statue of industry."

The members of the family came out and arranged themselves and the man called out:

"Here, old man, you want to get out of that!"

"Can't I represent industry?"

"No, sir!"

"Can't I stand over there and represent laziness?"

No, sir! We don't want you in the group at all."

"Lemme represent the sleeping beauty."

"You go away!"

He drew off to one side, the passing teams halted to give the artist a chance, and directly the plate was made. Everybody rushed forward when it was ready for inspection, and the old man was one of the first. As the plate was held up he giggled and tickled, and finally burst into a loud laugh. He had dodged around the corner of the house and his full figure was revealed behind the family.

"What do you represent in that attitude?" sternly inquired the photographer.

"Well, I reckon that's a pretty good pose for contentment."

"Very well, I will now represent dissatisfaction."

And the artist took the festive old chap by the ear and walked him out of the crowd and put in a couple of kicks which changed the pose of contentment to that of sorrow.—Det. Free Press.

"Why, Tom! another holiday?"
"Yes, papa. That's the reason I go to that school."

THE EVILS OF PAINTING
And their Remedy.
"It has been said with much truth, too, that house painting might, with study and acquirement of taste, resume its rank as a liberal art."—Painters' Manual.
Believing the above to be true, A. B. KERR has now re-organized his system of working the business in Honolulu. In the first place he has secured the services of that celebrated artist, Mr. MAX KOHN, formerly of San Francisco, whose work in the line of plain and decorative paper-hanging, frescoing, &c., is up to the present time unsurpassed, and on these Islands has never been equalled. For house painting jobs first-class mechanics only will be employed. In future patrons can depend upon my filling every order on the most scientific basis known to the trade.
The Sign Painting and Lettering department will be permanently presided over by Mr. GEO. STRATMEYER, (further comment unnecessary.)

THE BAND CONCERT

on Monday night, although not as largely attended as usual, was enjoyed by many. A fair sprinkling of our naval visitors could be seen about the grounds. The polka, "Love and Truth," and the waltz, "Gloire de Dijon," were simply splendid, the playing seemed so thoroughly to have interwoven itself with the sentiment of the composer. The prayer, from the opera "Moise in Egitto," by Rossini, was received with loud applause, and the selection from Verdi's, "Il Trovatore," was enjoyed by many as a waking up of old-time reminiscences of opera-going.

CONCERT.

The Band will give an extra moonlight concert at the Hawaiian Hotel this evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Following is the programme:

- March—Defilir.....Jeschko
- Overture—Huntsman Farewell.....Mendelssohn
- Ballad—Morning.....Beethoven
- Waltz—My Queen.....Wagner
- Selection—Lohengrin.....Wagner
- Echo Piece—Ka Hea a Hiku.....Berger
- Medley—A Trip through Europe.....Conradi
- "Watch on the Rhine," "Russian Hymn," "Hawaii Pono."

SUPREME COURT.

Before Justice Austin and a Hawaiian Jury. Rex vs. Akana and Akiona.

Thursday, April 19—The defendants in this case are police officers, charged with conspiracy in the first degree.

The Attorney General for the Crown; Messrs. Hartwell and Castle for prosecuting witnesses. Mr. Russell for Akiona, and Mr. Hatch for Akana.

The Attorney General, in opening the case, said that on the 16th January the two defendants went to the house of one, Kom Kwei, suspected of importing opium. Kom Kwei was arrested and taken to the Station House. The defendants searched Kom Kwei's room and found 40 tins of opium. Akana suggested to Ah Lin, Kom Kwei's partner, that he should pay him $800. Ah Lin told Akana that he had only $400, which sum Akana agreed to take. This amount was paid to Akana in the presence of Akiona, in gold coin, Hawaiian certificates, silver, and one draft on Messrs. H. Hackfeld & Co. The latter bears the signature of Akiona. Of the 40 tins of opium seized, only 3 tins have been produced, 37 of them never having yet been discovered.

Ah Lin, sworn, stated that his place of business was on Hotel street, and that Kom Kwei was his partner. He related at great length the circumstances attending the search for opium in his house on the 26th, and the payment of $400 to Akana as water money. (This was explained by the interpreter to imply bribery.) The counsel for the defence reserved the right to examine the interpreter as to the application of the Chinese word translated in English, water, as applicable to certain things other than bribery.

Among, a shoemaker, stated that he was employed by Lin Wo & Co. about twenty days in January and February last. He made an entry on the 26th January in the book of daily occurrences. He saw Ah Lin take some money out of the safe on the 26th January, but he did not know how much. Ah Lin requested Kom Kwei to make the entry in the books of the payment of money to Akana, but he refused to do so.

Kom Kwei, now under sentence of imprisonment for importing opium, stated what he remembered about his arrest and the accompanying circumstances.

The Attorney General said that after consulting with his colleagues, he had decided not to carry on the case any further. He would ask the Court to direct the Jury to render a verdict on the evidence before them, of not guilty, to which Counsel for defendants consented.

Without retiring, the Jury returned a unanimous verdict of not guilty.

POLICE COURT.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.
Thursday, April 19—M. Gerstley, violating Express Regulation 25, remanded to the 20th, also charged with assault and battery, and remanded to the same date. G. Fitzsimmons and Kuaia, drunks, fined $5 and $1 costs each. O. Stillman, assault and battery, fined $5 and $3 costs.

CIVIL CALENDAR.

J. P. Mendouca vs. B. F. Dillingham et al, continued from the 12th, continued to the 23rd. J. E. Wiseman vs. C. J. Wall, continued from the 12th, continued to the 23rd. Z. S. Spaulding vs. F. Miller, action in case, damages $200, continued to the 4th June. Allen & Robinson vs. Ching Hin Chong, action on promissory note, $127.61; judgment confessed for $127.61; attorney $10.60; costs $3.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Emma brought 761 bags sugar and 31 bbls molasses.

The bk Lizzie Marshall arrived yesterday 22 days from Port Gamble with lumber.

As the Mokolii came alongside the Coptic to take away the remaining Chinese, she collided with the Malolo (who was loading the Coptic with coal) and damaged the latter slightly on the stern.

The wharf for landing cattle was being repaired yesterday.

The Schr Parallel from the Sound was off port on Wednesday bound to Anahola, Kauai, with lumber.

LOCAL & GENERAL ITEMS.

His Majesty is expected to visit H. I. R. M. S. Navezdnk early next week.

The dimensions of the Coptic are:—beam 42 feet; depth of hold 31 feet; length 430 feet; tonnage 4700.

Mr. B. W. Kawainui was objected to by the Attorney General as a jurymen, inasmuch as he is under indictment for a criminal offence.

The local Chinese newspaper made its first appearance this week. As we have not yet received a copy we are unable to speak of its contents.

The authorities have taken a hint from our repeated suggestions, and begun to remove the Kerosene from Brewer's wharf and stuck it up outside the old Kerosene warehouse.

In the conspiracy case yesterday there were five lawyers engaged, the Attorney General and two ex-Attorney Generals for the prosecution, and two aspirants for that high office for the defence.

The dust has been frightful during the past day or two. In the Supreme Court lawyers attending have had their heads filled with it, almost to the exclusion of the dusty cobwebs of law.

On Wednesday night at the Fort Street Church prayer meeting Dr. Happer and Miss Field, passengers by the Coptic, gave very interesting accounts of the missions in China and their work there.

It was hinted yesterday that Akana and Akiona will enter a suit for damages against the Chinese firm that prosecuted them. This little opium business will prove a costly matter to the firm of Lin Wo & Co. before it is ended.

We learn from the Hongkong papers that the Ordinance restricting Chinese emigration to the Hawaiian Islands has been rescinded. The opportunity was immediately seized to rid the Colony of a few of the numerous vagrants that are always on hand.

YESTERDAY His Majesty visited the Coptic accompanied by the Hon.

A. S. Cleghorn, the Acting-Governor. They returned in the afternoon in the Leipsic's steam-launch. As they passed the Leipsic its Band struck up Hawaii Pono.

Mr. H. J. Agnew is having an enormous grain and feed warehouse erected on the makai side of Queen street, just beyond Mr. G. West's carriage factory.

GREAT complaints are heard of the water supply. The amount of Uru (weed) in the pipes is enormous, and certainly does not tend to improve the health of the people or the cleanliness of the water.

YESTERDAY morning Judge Austin announced that on to-morrow morning the portrait of Judge Robertson (late Justice of the Supreme Court) would be unveiled in the Supreme Court Room. All members of the Bar and others interested are invited to be present.

THIS Evening the grand Lottery consisting of five beautiful prizes advertised in another column comes off. Those who have not secured tickets had better apply to H. J. Nolte J. M. Oat jr. or J. E. Wiseman. The Lottery will take place at H. J. Nolte's (Campbell's Block) at 7 o'clock and all the prizes can be seen there.

On Wednesday night, at the Band concert, a crowd of young boys were carrying on and annoying some ladies present by their behavior. Not a policeman could be seen, but a gentleman very kindly put a stop to the annoyances by dispersing the young rascals with his cane.

Amongst the passengers on board the Coptic was a Mr. Byron, a grandson of Lord Byron, captain of the frigate Blonde, in which, in 1824, the bodies of Kamehameha II. and his Queen were brought here from London. Byron Bay, at Hilo, received its name in commemoration of him.

DURING the Chinese causes celebres heard yesterday at the Supreme Court, there was assembled quite a large gathering of Celestials. The three Chinese witnesses that occupied the attention of the Court from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. afforded their countrymen an opportunity of hearing how grossly the truth can be perverted even by members of the Chinese Church.

On Wednesday night a crowd of young men were standing outside a well-known restaurant, and one of them whistled in imitation of a police whistle. A policeman arrived promptly on the spot, and the young men showed their good sense (?) by chaffing him. Such hoodlumism ought to be promptly punished, and we wouldn't blame a policeman for arresting the perpetrator.
