Hawaii Ticket Of Democrats

Campbell, Frear and Hapai Scored—Discredited Home Rulers Picked Up—Boss Talks

(Special Bulletin Wireless.)
HILO, Hawaii, Sept. 22.—Democrats of Hawaii county, acting under the direction of Boss McCandless, opened up the batteries of criticism and let fly a platform that condemns everything in sight and the Frear administration in particular.
The platform adopted by the Hawaii county convention condemns the Territorial administration of the land laws and pledges the legislators elected by the Democratic party to endeavor to remove Superintendent Campbell from office. The platform also roasts Henry Hapai, saying that Governor Frear and Superintendent Campbell have not the nerve to make him do his duty and build sidewalks about his Hilo property.
When the nominations for county offices were made, Heen withdrew and Irwin was named as County Attorney without opposition.
Other nominations made were: County Sheriff—Pua. County Treasurer—Maguire. County Auditor—Ewaliko. County Clerk—Richardson. Senators—Metzger and Makekahu. Representatives—Kauifio, K. Mello, Kamoku, Kepoo, Kealawaa and Campbell.
Supervisors—Hussey, Kalaivaa, Shipman, Irwin, Keaki and Pirez.
This evening a mass meeting will be held to ratify the action of the convention, and Boss McCandless, who arrived by the Mauna Kea, will be the principal speaker.

SMALL FIRE IN BREWERY

A fire was discovered in the bottling department of the Honolulu Brewery this afternoon at about quarter to three. The fire department responded promptly, but the waterman at the brewery had got the fire under control and completely out by the time the firefighters got there. While Chief Thurston was rushing to the fire in his auto, he struck a Japanese at the corner of Union and Beretania streets, knocking the man clear out. The Japanese was picked up and is now at the Queen's Hospital, under the doctor's care. He is in pretty bad shape.

BOURBONS' TEARS MAY MOVE M'CARTHY

Democrats Plead With the Colonel to Manage Campaign

CANNOT GET WORKING ORGANIZATION TOGETHER

Now Look to Man Who Has Declared McCandless Platform Against Interests of Hawaii.

C. J. McCarthy, whose voluntary retirement from active participation in politics has been regarded as final, may be brought back into the fight by his fellow Democrats in an effort to get together a working campaign organization. After two days of casting about for a county campaign manager, the Bourbons are still at sea, and McCarthy's name is hailed with the relief a drowning man hails a plank floating towards him.

In fact, a movement among the Democrats to patch up an agreement with Colonel McCarthy is already well defined, and it is probable that by next Monday night, when the county campaign committee meets, there will be either a refusal or an acceptance from McCarthy.

Among the politicians around town, the feeling is evident that under no circumstances will McCarthy reenter politics. His retirement, whether from political or other reasons, has been considered as permanent, at least with the present Bourbon regime, and one of his friends declared this morning that there is no chance whatever of getting McCarthy into the whirl of the coming fight. At the same time, it is admitted that the Democrats will not let this prevent them from trying to secure his counsel and active service, and the Democratic leaders profess to believe that with McCarthy at the head of things, every one of the present Democratic office-holders in Oahu county could be rejected and the whole ticket fairly well assured.

E. M. Watson, the attorney who has been prominently mentioned as a possible choice for campaign manager, has definitely refused to serve. He says his name was used by the politicians without his consent and that he has never considered taking the place. He seems to have no inclination whatever for the job, and says he will feel a whole lot better when the party can get someone who will not only take the position, but do it justice.

"I have no time to handle the campaign and have already stated to those who have asked me that I am not a candidate for the managership, and that I shall not take it in any event," said Mr. Watson this morning. "I wish we could get Col. McCarthy back into the campaign, though."

POLITICS AND MARKET SLUMP

Present indications are that the Democrats will be rather slow in starting the campaign. The lack of a manager, coupled with the fact that some of the "unterrified" favor a short instead of a long fight, will probably result in the postponement of real work among the voters for a week or more. It is felt that two months is too long for a political campaign, and the feeling of listlessness due to the warm weather is as apparent among the politicians as anywhere else. They regard the inevitable trips to the country with considerable dread, the experience of the past having taught them some painful lessons in bad roads and worse accommodations in the outlying precincts.

Opium Valued At $5000 Is Seized

United States Attorney Breckons Raids Chinese House And Finds Contraband Drug

Concealed in the little bedroom of a Chinese dwellinghouse on Kukui street, near Aala lane, $5000 worth of contraband opium was found this morning by United States District Attorney R. W. Breckons in a carefully planned raid that was a success in every way.
The opium seizure as carried out this morning is one of the largest and most successful that has ever been executed by the United States authorities.
All of the wit and cleverness that a Chinese woman could muster in leading Breckons away from the scene was of no avail, and it was but a few minutes after the United States Attorney and his assistant, Chinese Interpreter Loo Joe, were in

BURGLAR IS IN CUSTODY

Clue Is Obtained to Hawaii County Store Robbery Case.

Chief McDuffie has quite unexpectedly dropped across a clue, that may clear up a store robbery that occurred at Oohala, Hawaii a short time ago. Goods to the value of several hundred dollars were stolen and no trace found of the burglars.

This morning the chief was informed that a certain Filipino, who had arrived from Hawaii lately, had told a countryman of his that he had some of the stolen goods. The man described how he had watched the store until there was nobody around and how he had entered and stolen watches and cash.

Officer Kellett was dispatched to arrest the Filipino, and he found him near School street. Upon arrival at the police station the man was searched, but only a few cents were in his pockets. Then the Filipino officer at the station stated that he thought the prisoner had got rid of a watch or something shortly after he was arrested. Kellett returned to the spot where he had caught the supposed burglar and there, on the sidewalk found a watch.

Chief McDuffie will send a wireless to Oohala and inform the people there of the arrest of the Filipino, and ask for a description of the stolen goods.

LOOKING FOR BEST SEASON

Secretary Wood Listing All Boarding and Lodging Houses.

Secretary Wood, in his report to the Promotion Committee, says: "This is our busiest seed-sowing time. Every steamer leaving port for the mainland for the next sixty days will carry from five to ten thousand folders, special letters, marked papers, etc., with the object of increasing travel to Hawaii during the next winter season. Mr. Wm. R. R. Potter has submitted a most attractive design for a special mailing card, entitled 'Winter Sports in Hawaii,' which, if it meets with the approval of the committee, will be printed and sent out to some 20,000 railway and steamship agents the world over.

"In preparation for the many inquiries we are likely to receive regarding rooms and board, I am now revising our list of home hotels and rooming houses, bringing the information up to date.

"Next year's carnival season promises to be an unusually interesting one, and we may look for the largest crowd of tourists in town at that time that we have ever had in Hawaii.

"Through the efforts of Mr. James McCandless and others, the Shriner excursion is assured beyond a doubt. The latest information concerning the Seattle Chamber of Commerce excursion is contained in the following letter dated September 6:

"In connection with our letter of September 2, in relation to the commercial excursion, we neglected to advise that our rate included the expense of excursionists' stop at Hilo and their rail and stage fares to the crater and return.

"All passengers will be allowed to use the ship as their hotel during their stay in that port.

"As there will be over 220 in the party, we would ask you to use your good offices in obtaining a special rate for our chamber for the expense of those excursionists between Hilo and the crater.

"At Honolulu the passengers will be at their own expense while ashore. Other than this, our rate includes the expense for the trip.

"Let us have your program as early as possible, as this information will be asked for by excursionists as soon as they begin to arrange details for their booking."

Mrs. Headlee writes concerning her work, as follows, her letter being dated September 7:

MIXED CASE AT POLICE COURT

Merry Party of Men and Women Appear Before Judge Andrade.

This morning at the police court there were four cases that all dove tailed into one another in a way. Two wabines were charged with malicious injury to some flowers and plants, and two Chinese were up on a charge of having assaulted the women.

The case was an amusing one in parts, and the naive way in which the wabines acknowledged, when testifying in one case, that they were guilty in the other, convulsed the court. The whole affair seems to have been the result of a duel between the whole party and a demijohn of wine to say nothing of a bottle of square face.

According to everybody's account, all were drunk, and yet everyone seemed able to remember just what evidence suited them. The former Mrs. Anderson Grace gave testimony in the case; she was Grace's first wife but is divorced from him at present. According to Mrs. Grace the whole outfit were fighting and as far as she knew most of those present got a licking.

An everybody seemed to be equally guilty. Judge Andrade decided to give the girls a good lecture, and then suspend sentence on them for thirteen months. The Chinese were treated in the same manner and allowed to depart after getting a talking to from the judge.

LAND BOARD TO HEAR ABOUT IT

Leasing of 10,000 Acres to Portuguese or Cornwell Estate Up Again.

Additional light on the subject of leasing 10,000 acres of land on Maui to the Cornwell estate, or of letting it out in smaller tracts to general settlement, is to be shed at the meeting of the land board this afternoon—that is, providing enough members show up to constitute a quorum.

The additional light that is expected by the members is a communication either from the Maui attorney, Tavares, who came to Honolulu last week to represent a number of Portuguese, or a statement from the Portuguese themselves. Tavares declared that he had a petition signed by a number of Portuguese asking that the land be cut up into smaller tracts, ten pieces of 1000 acres each, and that the small farmers get a chance to lease.

Nothing in the way of a petition was introduced, and Attorney Tavares returned to Maui last Tuesday, but Jacob F. Brown, a member of the board, has been in communication with the Portuguese in the interval and may have some definite information. The board, it was stated this morning, is willing to listen to any legitimate proposition, but wants something definite upon which to proceed.

MAN ROBBED OF LARGE SUM

Alcc. Lothian Is Relieved of Pocketbook and Japanese Money.

Alcc Lothian, a well known hack-driver of this city, was robbed this morning of 750 yen which he had in a pocketbook. The robbery took place when the man was changing horses at the stable. Lothian left his coat in the back whilst he went for a new horse and, when he returned, the coat was alright but the pocketbook had been removed.

Lothian has just returned from a trip to Japan, and he brought many Japanese paper yen back with him. Besides the yen that were stolen today, there was some other money in the pocketbook and it was all taken.

LESSONS IN WARFARE STUDIED BY OFFICERS

Practical instruction in the tactics of warfare is the program at the camp of instruction at Fort Shafter today. The "tactical walks" instituted by Col. R. L. Ballard, U. S. A., the directing head of the camp, were begun yesterday afternoon and continued this morning. Col. Ballard impresses on the Hawaiian Guard officers in attendance at the school the necessity of practical lessons, and this morning he put before them a problem that will come up in actual warfare. At the conclusion of the morning the officers very quick to grasp the points he presented.

The man who earns the money isn't always the one who gets it.

WATCH YOUR FINGERS; EACH HAS A MEANING

Prof. F. M. Blanchard Tells Significance of Digits Following a Lecture.

Every finger has a meaning of its own, always the same and always recognizable, even though not always noticed. The flat of the political demagogue and the curling little finger of mimicry at 5 o'clock tea are equally full of significance, according to a lecture given late yesterday at a class in public speaking at the University of Chicago by Frederick Mason Blanchard, associate professor in the university.

"The use of the different fingers in gestures is of the greatest importance," he said. "The voice of a speaker may be likened to the solo of a singer, and the gestures may be taken to represent the accompaniment. I spoke to the class yesterday on this subject because of the one-fingered gesture made by one of the students.

This young man, in a five-minute speech, waved his arm thirty-seven times by actual count, and each time he pointed with the index finger, thus confining his gestural meaning to only one kind of explanation.

Included in DeSarte Theories.

"Part of what I explained to the students is included in writings on the theories of DeSarte. It is a well-established psychological fact in the theory of speaking that the use of the index finger is for pointing out one thing in particular. If a speaker mentions, for instance, the Mississippi valley with a gesture that shows only this finger, he falls short of the full meaning. He should use the open hand.

"The second finger is the finger of intellectual force. The use of this and the index finger give the significance of a forcible pointing to one particular thing. It may be combined with the use of the thumb, which signifies brute force.

"The first gives the idea of force in a more emphatic fashion, but with a difference.

Shows Gesture of Brute Force. Here Prof. Blanchard doubled up his hand, clapping the fingers with the thumb, and menaced the inoffensive atmosphere.

"This means that if you oppose the speaker you are going to be struck," he explained. "It is brute force alone. But the idea is contained in the thumb though not so strongly, and by combining the thumb and the intellectual index and second fingers one gives the same idea with the added meaning of intelligence that is backed by the power of the thumb. As to Richelieu's Curse.

"There is a tradition with actors that the curse of Cardinal Richelieu must be delivered with the hand upraised, but without the use of the third and fourth fingers. For all I know to the contrary, it may be a custom of the Roman Catholic church to present the idea of the Holy Trinity and its power by the use of these three fingers on such an occasion, but I believe it is also true that no actor would make the gesture in a different fashion. It has the rule of psychology behind it.

"In contrast to the index and second fingers, the third or ring finger tells of affection. The other fingers are not used in a caress. The whole hand is used, but the third finger is brought forward and it is the one that strokes the face or hand of the person to whom affection is to be shown.

Why Ring's Place is Fixed.

"This finger always bears the engagement and wedding rings. There may be objection made that the placing of the rings on this finger is merely a custom, but even if that be so there is some reason for the origin of the custom. The reason here, I believe, is wholly psychological. The third finger is the finger of affection, and must always remain so."

Little One Shows Delicacy.

"There is no strong emotion left for the little finger to show," continued the educator. "I have noticed that Dr. Campbell of London uses the little finger as an index, but I do not know that it is anything more than a memorium. The use is ordinarily different. The little finger denotes delicacy. It is separated from the others and is not required to emphasize the meanings of the stronger fingers.

"The little finger also shows intuition. A woman will hold this finger curled away from the others, but a man, who does not care much about delicate meanings, will let it fall in line with the others. Thus it will measure the difference in temperament between different persons.

Don't Keep Your Thumb in Palm.

"I can see the character of an unstructured student by the way he holds his fingers. If he gestures naturally with the thumb and index and second fingers together, I know that he is a forceful person. If he lets his thumb fall within the palm of the hand, I can see that he is not insistent. The thumb of a weak man is not closed over the fingers. The thumb of a dead body or of a person that has fainted falls into the palm of the hand. In a conscious, living person the lack of strong vital force is shown in the same way."

THE FREIGHTER Masunda is still lying outside and will probably come into the inner harbor and dock late today in case the Seladon gets away from the Channel Wharf in time. ETHER HABIT NEW MENACE IN ENGLAND Consumption of Drug Increasing—Many Jags in a Single Day.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—A remarkable habit which has developed in certain districts in Ulster has been brought before the notice of medical men by Dr. William Calwell of Belfast, who in the Medical Journal has an interesting article dealing with ether drinking in Ulster.

Dr. Calwell has for some months been investigating the prevalence of this habit, and in the course of an interview yesterday he stated that this pernicious practice had for many years been undermining the health of the inhabitants in certain districts of counties Derry and Tyrone.

The subject was brought before the notice of Dr. Calwell several months ago owing to a resolution passed by the magistrates at Cookstown Petty Sessions.

"With ether drinking," said Dr. Calwell, "intoxication comes on very rapidly, and acute ether intoxication is produced by variable amounts, though a dram, worth about one penny, is the usual treat. The drinker at once becomes hilarious; commences dancing, shouting and gesticulating. The effects pass off in an hour or so, and the stage of depression rapidly follows." Another inebriate can get drunk and sober several times in one day. Dr. Hetherington of Derry Lunatic Asylum informed Dr. Calwell that the secondary effects of ether drinking seemed to be much the same as produced by the use of bad whiskies.

When it comes to the sticking point, some people have a porous plaster beaten. It is better to be damned with faint praise than to be damned with none.

NEW RULING MAY KEEP HINDUS OUT

Immigration Bureau Construes Law Against Pauper Labor to Include All Aided.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 9.—That the authorities of the bureau of immigration intend to take unusual steps to cut down immigration in the country is indicated by an order that has been sent to a number of stations along the Atlantic coast and will soon reach San Francisco.

The new order is a liberal construction of that section of the immigration act which provides that no person whose passage has been paid by a society or corporation shall be admitted.

The intention of this section is to prevent the admission of pauper labor.

Under the new interpretation of this provision the authorities intend to hold that the section also applies to all persons who receive aid of individuals. If they receive their ticket from a relative in this country it will be taken as an indication that they are not self-supporting and they will be deported.

Under this ruling, if adhered to, immigration may be cut in half. It certainly will have the effect of preventing the importation of pauper labor.

The increased precautions that are being taken by the department to protect American labor indicate that restrictions will be increased all along the line. With this new interpretation of the law it is not likely that any Hindus will get through the San Francisco station, as the officers can exclude all persons deemed undesirable, and there are few Hindus who come here unaided.

LEARNED LINGUIST A CANDY PEDDLER

Sells Sweets From a Tray in London Streets—Literature His Recreation.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Outside office hours, business men of London have a wonderful and cheap method of absorbing culture. There is stationed on Lothbury, a street just behind the Bank of England, a paragon of learning with whom anyone desiring to improve his French, German, Spanish, Italian, Latin, Greek or English may converse by buying a penny-worth of chocolate. William Shepperly, a street-seller of candy, is this learned linguist.

Seven years ago Shepperly found himself, no longer a young man, out of employment, at the end of his resources, and with no prospect of obtaining work. His wife and three young children were dependent on him, and he purchased a large tray, stocked it with chocolates, and took up a position in the city. He has remained in Lothbury ever since, and would not change his way of living except for something absolutely permanent.

Satisfied with an occupation that procures him a living, he has his books and his pen for intellectual companionship. Every morning he gets up at 3 o'clock in order to read and write for some hours before taking up his stand on the street. He has written four one-act and two four-act society plays, one of which has been highly praised by a leading London manager and a leading provincial manager.

INVENTS BIG AIRSHIP

German Engineer Gets Up Flier of Novel Design.

BERLIN, Sept. 2.—An airship of a decidedly novel design has been invented by an engineer in this country. Perhaps the most important advantage claimed is that in an airship of this design the escape of gas would be 2000 times less than in the case in an ordinary balloon. This novel dirigible is made entirely of wood, the balloon itself consisting of three layers of Canadian pine. It is reported that the length of the airship is 400 feet, the diameter 45 feet, and that its motive power is supplied by two 75-horsepower engines. It is well known that wood is an excellent non-conductor of heat, and it is owing to this feature that the inventor claims that so small an amount of gas will be able to escape.

Should the designer's anticipations prove correct he will certainly have done much to make it possible to undertake flights of a very great length, and he is said to be confident that a dirigible manufactured according to his design would be capable of remaining in the air for weeks together. In the event of its being possible to carry a sufficient amount of petrol, voyages across the Atlantic or the Pacific oceans should therefore be within measurable distance of being accomplished.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.
FAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded.—Made by PARIS MEDICINE CO., Saint Louis, U. S. of A.

KIDNAPERS OF BOY OUTWIT DETECTIVES

Three-Year-Old Michael Scimeca's Father Denies that He Paid Ransom.

NEW YORK, September 16.—Although Michael Scimeca, the three-year-old son of Dr. Michael Scimeca, a well-known Italian, is today with his relatives after having been held for nearly three months a captive by kidnapers, the abductors of the boy have so far escaped the police dragnet.

The lad was returned late last night to the home of Dr. Scimeca's father-in-law, Dr. Michael Petrella, in Brooklyn. The police had heard that Dr. Scimeca was trying to raise $7,000, which had been demanded as a ransom for the boy. Dr. Scimeca, however, denied that he had paid a cent for the return of the child. Fifty detectives failed to find trace of the kidnapers though they knew the boy was to be returned.

Much mystery surrounds the circumstances of the child's reappearance. It was said at the Petrella home that a telephone message was received during the evening that little Michael would be found walking in Fifty-six street, Manhattan. The Petrellas drove in their carriage to that locality, they said, and spotted the lad alone on the sidewalk. The boy uttered a cry of joy when he saw his relatives and was soon snugly wrapped up in the carriage and on the way to the Petrella Brooklyn home.

Up to this afternoon the boy had not been taken from the Petrella home to that of his parents on the lower east side of Manhattan. Lieutenant Vanchris of the Italian squad declared that he knows the identity of the boy's captors and arrests are considered probable.

NORTH POLE EXPLORER CHARTS NEW COUNTRY

Wire From Labrador Says Professor MacMillan Has Reached George River.

NEW YORK, September 12.—Professor Donald B. MacMillan of Worcester Academy, who accompanied Commander Peary on his trip to the North Pole, sent word to friends here today that his party, which explored the land west of Davis Inlet, had been successful. In a dispatch from Labrador, dated August 30th, Professor MacMillan says:

"It might interest you to know that our trip has been successful. Our plan was to strike due west from Davis Inlet across country, through an unexplored section, until we came to the George river, hoping en route to discover many unknown lakes and the regular trail of these people to the coast.

"We did all that we planned and more; took sights for longitude and latitude at various points on the trip, passed through three large lakes, the largest Mis-Ter-Nip, about 25 miles, and came to the George, 150 miles from the coast. We passed one night in a lodge with the Indians at Chen-E-Tee-Via, on the banks of a river."

"President Taft has taken more interest in church matters since he came into office," Mr. Thayer said today.

Seven inches of rain on the island of Oahu ought to help out unless it has all been dumped this side of the Nuuanu dam.

Hawaii County Democrats appear to have sidestepped when it came to directly approving the immigration folly of Boss McCandless.

Stock market conditions prove that no lacking in high principle that the people holding Hawaii sugar securities hate to come down to the new crop basis.

Democracy taking with it the incompetents of the Home Rule party should send the progressive Hawaiian-Americans to the progressive Republican ranks.

Hawaii County Democrats appear to have patched up their ticket with such rag-tag and bobtail of the Home Rule Party as could be picked from the scrap heap.

Suspension of immigration means a suspension of prosperity for Hawaii. That need not worry the Democratic capitalistic boss, but where does the workman get off?

President Taft ought to carry a rabbit's foot when conferring with the leaders of Ohio politics. His experience with New York conferences was such as to suggest a need for charms to keep off evil spirits.

Roosevelt may be credited with having done things towards developing an answer to the ancient query about what Vice Presidents are good for. At least the latest victim of the Vice Presidency has been brought from oblivion.

Col. Roosevelt has no sins of omission or commission that will not be paraded before the public. He has entered the fight in a style that upsets any claims he might have to the specially kind treatment an ex-President is supposed to enjoy.

Denial of everything that has been said of him in connection with the Bellamy Storer incident is one of the Roosevelt policies. The Colonel's response to the Springfield Republican will be a confession that he expected "my policies" to be attacked from that source.

As the Democratic slate is made up on this and other islands, the Democratic party looms up as an organization made up of Boss McCandless and those thinking so little of the welfare of their country that they are willing to support his prosperity-killing platform.

YOUNG HAWAII SHOULD REVOLT.

Accepting Kaniho for the House of Representatives and especially Kalauiwa for the Board of Supervisors, the Democrats of the County of Hawaii show that they have picked up the most unreliable and most incompetent of the Home Rule party in the hope of attracting the irresponsible element of the island of Hawaii to a saturnalia of graft and waste of money.

We assume that the Kalauiwa named on the Democratic ticket for Supervisor is the same who has misrepresented the district of Kona on the Hawaii County Board.

The young Hawaiian-Americans of Hawaii County should make the elimination of this man their particular business. His presence on the Board of Supervisors is a disgrace to the progressive young men of his County. As long as he and men of his type are allowed to decorate the halls of the government, the electorate, especially the young men who are growing up under new conditions and more in touch with progressive ideas—will always be subject to the charge of lacking capacity for self government.

Progressive, alert, energetic and loyal Hawaii is not now and never can be represented by Kalauiwa. His claim to fame is solely in his ability to mis-represent the people of his district and his County. Progressive, courageous young men will not follow him. They will not only refuse to vote for him, but they will come out in open revolt, get into the political battle and put him where he belongs.

That the Democratic party should have picked up such men shows that it is so hard pressed for candidates, it is so lacking in high principle that it will do anything to catch a vote. That is the Kalauiwa type. He appeals to people who have no patriotism and are deficient in civic pride.

Especially should the young Hawaiian-American citizens throw all their votes, their power and their influence against the further appearance of this man and men like him in the official life of the County. Let him pass to oblivion and the Democratic party suffer accordingly.

If a man is in politics he is a grafter; if he is out of politics you can't place him and he is an undesirable citizen.

OPIUM VALUED AT $5,000 IS SEIZED

(Continued from Page 1) Chin Chai Yee's wife was on guard when Breckons arrived at the house this morning, and she made the best of the situation.

"When the woman took us into the house," said Breckons, "it was evident that she was making careful calculations as to some successful way of fooling us. I was practically certain that the opium was there and that the information was correct. She offered me a chair, and I noticed that she hastily placed the chair with its back to a door that led into another room. This was enough to indicate that she did not intend to have me pay any attention to that room if possible, and so I thought I would begin my investigation by taking a peek into that room. I opened the door with a skeleton key and looked into the room.

"There was a suspicious-looking pile of stuff in the corner, and when we took the newspapers from it we found the opium—and plenty of it."

The three cases, containing about a hundred and twenty-five tins of the contraband and precious drug, show plain evidence of having been in the salt water, a number of tins being sealed in larger tin cases containing a dozen packages or more.

In the room was a fine leather suitcase, which was also taken by Breckons, the handle showing the effects of being nearly dragged from its place by weight of the suitcase contents, presumed to have been a portion of the opium seized this morning.

AVIATORS CARRY ON A MIMIC WAR

"Battleships" Are Used as Targets for Bombs Thrown From the Sky.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—With William Wright and Glenn H. Curtiss, both taking part in flights today, the 45,000 persons at the Boston Harvard aero meet saw some interesting performances. Wright went up with Walter Brookins and assisted in throwing bombs at the mimic battleship target, while Curtiss tried out a new biplane, "The Flying Fish." Curtiss had no difficulty in putting the biplane through its paces and it is generally understood that he will make use of it in an effort to better the time of Claude Grahame-White in the race to Boston light for the Globe's $10,000 prize.

Ralph Johnstone, in a Wright biplane, later went out for duration and made a new professional record for this country by remaining 2 hours, 3 minutes, 5 2/5 seconds in the air.

Another mark which is claimed to be the world's record for skid equipped aeroplane, was made by Brookins, who landed his biplane 12 feet, 1 inch from a given point in a contest for accuracy.

The standing of the aviators in the events in which points are given was as follows tonight: Claude Grahame-White 37 1/2, Ralph Johnstone 21, Walter Brookins 13, Glenn H. Curtiss 8 1/2, and Charles F. Willard 8.

A clean towel and a wash cloth for each patron were advocated at a meeting in Pittsburg of the National League of Barbers.

IS HALLEY'S COMET STILL DUE TO ARRIVE?

(By Bulletin Astronomer)

In regard to the comet that was so bright in the heavens a few months ago, and which was designated Halley's comet it will be remembered that astronomers all over the world stated that the visitor was anywhere from six months to a year ahead of time, and according to the finest calculations that had been made the big sky wanderer should not appear until the last of this year or in the first month of 1911.

On the ninth of this month a comet was "picked up" with the powerful glass at Tauton, Mass., by P. H. Metcalf, and the great French astronomer Marchand claims that this new arrival is the original Halley's comet and that the one that we saw last spring was of the tramp order such as was "1910 A," which came unheralded and no one knows whither it went.

Halley's comet, according to Marchand, is due about this time. It should be said in justice to Marchand that he never has recognized the alleged Halley's comet of last spring as the real Halley's comet. He declared at the very beginning that it was a comet that had never been seen before, and there seems to be some support for him in the fact that it was a comet that most people have no great desire ever to see again. However this may be, numerous circumstances would seem to bear out Marchand's conclusion. These will occur at once to every man, woman and child who craned and strained his neck a few months back in a vain attempt to get a glimpse of the magnificent spectacle the professional astronomers had been promising them for months.

The alleged Halley's comet certainly had no tail that stretched from horizon to horizon and lit up the night like a magnificent band of flaming ether. Awe-stricken crowds did not lose all sense of their surroundings in gazing at it. It failed to meet the promises of the printed descriptions. It was not as advertised.

Speaking without prejudice, it would seem that while Marchand may be wrong it does not quite lie with the professional astronomer to treat him with derision.

From the finest calculations made by the astronomers (and they seldom make a mistake) the earth was to pass through a section of the tail of the alleged Halley's comet that was some six million miles in width with unknown results to life on the earth. Did we pass through that tail? No. We did not come within ten millions of miles of it.

What was thought to be Halley's comet may turn out to be a comet of the same status as the tramp comet, 1910 A, which preceded it a month or so, and that we are yet to see the wonderful Halley's comet in the visitor that has been discovered at Tauton.

FORT SHAFTER NEWS

Private Doherty of the Coast Artillery Corps, at Fort Ruger, who has been ill in the post hospital at Fort Shafter for some time, with appendicitis, died last Tuesday night. Doherty was a short-timer, having only two months to serve, when he would have been discharged. Great care was taken of him, but it is thought that he arrived at the hospital too late for medical attention to do much good. This is only the second death in the hospital so far this year, which is a good record for an institution having so many of the boys to look after.

Morning Drill. With a new company commander come many new modes of doing things. There are many ways of executing commands as laid down in the drill regulations, and all of them are correct. Company G had drill regarding the opening of ranks, to the left or right take interval and the manual of arms. Captain Estes showed the company a few new points in this line.

Officers Pitch Tents. On Wednesday morning the National Guard officers at the school of instruction were instructed in the art of pitching tents. Company E, with blanket rolls, acted as the model company, and the officers marched out on the post parade ground at 8 a. m., under command of Lieutenant Pardee. The model company pitched tents, while the officers watched and took notes of the manner and time in which this was done. At 10 o'clock the officers assembled in the mess hall for a lecture. Lieutenant Lewis H. Watkins of the Engineer Corps lectured on maps, sketches and engineering work pertaining to the infantry branch.

Governor Visits Camp. Governor Frear, accompanied by Adjutant-General Jones and Supreme Judge Hartwell, visited the instruction camp for Territorial National Guard officers yesterday afternoon. The Governor arrived at camp about 2 p. m., driving his own automobile. He was received by Lieutenant Colonel Bullard, and after a short conference the officers were called together and the Governor gave them a short address.

Good Soldiers. The Governor encouraged the officers in their work as soldiers, and said: "A soldier needs to be made of good stuff. The group standing before me shows the making of just such soldiers, and you are to be congratulated upon the interest you are taking in this work."

New Armory. "To have an armory in Honolulu would generate an interest in the work we are indulged in," said the Governor, "and for three years I have been trying, through legislation, to have an appropriation made and the work started. There is great need for an armory in this city."

Need for National Guard. The Governor stated that there is great pleasure in belonging to such an organization as the National Guard, and that there is no greater need anywhere in the United States for such a thing as in these islands. He said: "The Territory needs you, and not only the Territory, but the United States at large." Judge Hartwell Speaks. Judge Hartwell, having been a soldier and seen many a hard campaign during the Civil War, was much at home in the camp and among the men. He made a short talk on the quality of an officer and soldier, and the command an officer must have if he would have control of his men. He said: "Above all, an officer must be an honorable man in every sense of the word."

Lieut.-Col. Bullard Pleased. Lieut.-Col. Bullard was very much pleased with the visit and said that too much attention could not be paid to this movement, for it means a great deal to the future of the Territory.

Soldier McCollough Auxilius. Soldier McCollough of Fort Shafter, who has made quite a fighting record in Honolulu, is rather anxious for a go at Reilly. McCollough when seen yesterday afternoon said: "It seems a pity that I can not get a chance to have a go with Reilly, and I see no reason why promoters can not be secured, for a go between us would attract a large crowd." McCollough is perfectly willing to make arrangements at any time, providing the purse is not too small. The soldier can make 135 pounds, and is at the present time in fine condition. He said that he thought a go between himself and Reilly would attract much more attention than one between Reilly and Sarceni, if arrangements could be made. The fight fans of Honolulu are getting anxious for another bunch of excitement, and this McCollough promises if he has a chance to tackle Reilly. It is to be hoped that someone will take the matter up and see that these two men have a chance.

DOCTOR ADVISED OPERATION

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Another Operation Avoided. Chicago, Ill.—"I want women to know what that wonderful medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, has done for me. Two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation, and I never thought of seeing a well day again. I had a small tumor and female troubles so that I suffered day and night. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it made me a well woman."—Mrs. ALYSSA SPERLING, 11 Langdon St., Chicago, Ill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has proved to be the most successful remedy for curing the worst forms of female ills, including displacements, inflammation, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result has been worth millions to many suffering women.

HAS 13 NAMES AND WAS WED AT 13 ON MAY 13

Springfield, Mo., Claims Honor of Having Woman With Record Number of Titles.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 19.—This city boasts of a woman with more names than any other woman in the State and who also lays claim to having married as early or earlier in life than any person in Missouri. The woman has thirteen names and was married when she was thirteen years of age, and she says that she always considered thirteen a very lucky number. She and Mr. Wilding were married on May 13, 1891. When asked how she secured so many names, Mrs. Wilding said: "When I was born my parents had eleven sisters, and all wanted me named after them. Father and mother, not being able to decide between them, gave me the name of each."

Her name is Mrs. Mary Samantha Sarah Lavinia Nancy Lucretia Henrietta Parthenia Arizona Tabitha Dollie Jones-Hall-Wilding, and she resides at 227 West Chase street. Mrs. Wilding is a native of Washington county, Ark., and was born at Fayetteville twenty-eight years ago. At the age of thirteen years she was married to a man by the name of Hall. After their separation she married Mr. Wilding.

Her names were discovered by E. G. White, deputy city assessor. When he asked for her full name she turned loose on him from all sides, and the deputy called more than once for her to stop, as he had no room on the blank for all of them. Deputy White says that the next person who springs so many names on him will have to pay taxes on them.

BIG NAVAL BASE FOR GUANTANAMO IS PLAN

BEVERLY, (Mass.), September 12.—President Taft and Secretary of the Navy Meyer are planning the establishment of a big naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba, which will be supplementary to the fortifications on the Panama Canal.

Because the experts of both the War and Navy Departments are agreed that the battles of the future in which the United States may engage will be fought in the neighborhood of the Panama Canal, the President and Secretary Meyer have decided that one of the pressing needs of the navy at once is the construction of a big base of supplies within easy striking distance of the canal. Accordingly the Secretary of the Navy is now planning to visit Guantanamo within a month and make an official inspection of the ground thereabout, with a view of recommending to Congress forthwith appropriations sufficient to begin there the construction of a base that will be adequate for the needs of the entire fleet.

Canal Zone Fighting Zone. The significance of this planning in view of the controversy over the fortifications of the canal is clear. And the opinion of the strategists which the "Examiner" correspondent has received from a high Government official that the battles of the future will be fought in the neighborhood of the canal throws additional light on the present intention to have the canal amply fortified under the terms of the Hay-Panuncote treaty.

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE PITCHED HAY AS HE DIRECTED CAMPAIGN

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 5.—Senator La Follette directed his fight for re-nomination as the Republican candidate for senator at the primary election Sept. 6 from his farm house, three miles from here. His campaign managers and stenographers went over to the farm daily and received his directions. During the time between his political work and his sleeping and reading hours he went out in the fields and worked with the farm hands, pitching hay and grain and cultivating growing crops.

TAFT GIVES ORDERS FOR PANAMA TRIP

Two Armored Cruisers to Be in Readiness on Nov. 8 to Carry Him to Canal.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—President Taft has ordered the Navy Department to put two cruisers in readiness to carry him to Panama on November 8. This is the first designation of the day on which he will sail, although it has been known for some time that he intended to make the trip before the end of the year and that an armored cruiser would be detailed as convoy to the one on which the President will take passage.

Today's decision seems to have been reached after the President and his advisers had thrashed out differences of opinion as to the wisdom of the trip in a year when the fortunes of his party are in peril. The date chosen intimates that he may have deferred to the views of others by putting off the trip until after the elections, when the worst will be known and a brief absence from the country may divert his mind from the unpleasant reflections that would certainly beset him at home should the party go down.

Reports that reach here say that Vice-President Sherman and Senator Aldrich were specially persistent in urging him not to quit the country at all this year. Political conditions were the reasons behind their arguments. His replies to these objections are said to have been that political conditions ought to have no bearing whatever on the trip, and should not influence him.

His own view was that he ought to go to Panama as an official duty. Probably, "the dirt would continue to fly," he said, whether he went or not, but he believed at the same time that the canal officials and men would be encouraged by a visit from the President, to show his interest in their work.

It is early to say by which cruiser he will take passage. Only the North Carolina, Montana and Tennessee are at present available in Atlantic waters. He made a pre-inaugural trip on the North Carolina with the Montana as convoy.

That assignment for him is not unlikely to be made again. If Republican divisions develop, as now threaten, his disposition to do things in his own way will doubtless be strengthened. Those two ships have served only himself for an official trip to Panama, while the Tennessee was one of the convoys of the Louisiana when Mr. Roosevelt made a Presidential visit to the Isthmus. Reminders of Roosevelt will naturally be excluded at this time.

The Roosevelt trip occurred in November, 1908. Besides the Louisiana, on which he sailed, the cruiser Washington went along as convoy, as well as the Tennessee. The decision now to go with two ships instead of three follows President Taft's own pre-inaugural precedent, and is presumed to have no relation to Mr. Roosevelt's ampler sense of the dignity of the President's travels.

Naval officers say that if the importance of the Presidency was gauged for such an occasion by the wealthy, political strength or population of the country, the order would have been given for more than three ships. In their view the President doesn't choose to look to Mr. Roosevelt for an example in anything affecting his office, and he doubtless thinks that the dignity of the voyage will be sufficiently asserted by a single convoy.

RESERVOIR HAT FOR USE OF THE WOMEN

Scheme to Permit the Wearing of Natural Flowers in the Bonnet.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—An ingenious foreigner has patented a contrivance which he calls the reservoir hat, which will enable the ladies in his country to wear freshly plucked flowers on their headgear when they take their walks abroad. Our leaders of fashion may surprise us in the near future by appearing in public with a hatful of sweet-smelling Gloire de Dijon roses nodding saucily on their heads, or a lovely spray of giant carnations and lilies of the valley scenting the railway carriage in which we have the pleasure of traveling with them.

The possibilities of artistic color schemes are unlimited. It would seem that all our women folk will have to do if they want to match or harmonize the color of the frock they are wearing with the natural decorations on their heads is to go into the conservatory and pluck whatever flowers they consider appropriate. Some little difficulty may be experienced by the lady who is devoid of taste, but, as it was explained, all she would have to do would be to send her reservoirs round to the nearest florist's, with particulars of the dress she was going to wear with it.

A well-known West End expert, however, spoke unfavorably of the latest novelty, which he described as impracticable and absurd.

"The chief objective with the real artist in millinery," he said, "is to combine elegance with lightness. And then they talk of asking the poor creatures to wear a bath of water on their heads! Why, it's ridiculous!"

"Can't you imagine the chagrin of a court dame who met a royal acquaintance and gave him a gratuitous cold douche from her reservoir hat as she bent low in her greeting, or of the gorgeously dressed lady who, bending down to manipulate a refractory shoe lace as she sat in her carriage, showered herself with a tankful of semi-stagnant water?"

BALLINGER'S HEAD COMES OFF, SIGNS INDICATE

Committee Meets and Interior Secretary's Friends Are Absent.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 6.—It appears to be all over but the actual casting of the black balls in the Ballinger case. The investigating committee will meet tomorrow in Minneapolis.

It is most significant that the principal absentees are the members of the Ballinger committee who have been known as most sympathetic with Ballinger's side of the case.

Flint of California and Senator Root of New York, usually numbered with the regular Republican majority of seven, counted on to apply the whitewash, are not here and are not expected. Flint is in Europe. He is said to be slated for the secretaryship as soon as Ballinger can be pried loose from the portfolio.

On the assumption that this report is true, a natural delicacy would forbid that Flint would be active in Ballinger's exclusion from the Taft official family.

This leaves the supposedly pro-Ballinger division of the committee reduced to five, of whom two are still absent from Minneapolis. The missing members are Representatives Olmstead of Pennsylvania and Denny of Michigan.

An urgent call has been sent to them to hurry to Minneapolis. It is possible the meeting of the committee will be postponed until Thursday to enable them to be present.

PIRATES TAKE STEAMER AND ROB PASSENGERS

Brigands Disguised as Travelers Overpower Crew of a Vessel Near Harbin.

HARBIN, Manchuria, Sept. 12.—A band of brigands disguised as passengers held up a Russian steamer plying on the Sungari, twenty miles south of this port, today, and after a desperate fight overcame the crew and robbed the passengers.

In attempting to defend their vessel, the owners, two Russians, were killed, and many of the Chinese crew were wounded, as were such of the eighty Chinese passengers as offered resistance.

When the pirates were in control of the situation they bound the passengers, the crew, a Russian sailor and two Russian women and took the valuables of the captives at their leisure. A Russian gunboat was sent in pursuit of the outlaws.

NATIONAL PLEA FOR MERCHANT MARINE

Manufacturers of the United States Will Send Committee to Confer With Congress.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A nationwide movement looking toward the reestablishment of the American merchant marine has been launched among the big manufacturers of the United States.

It is proposed to hold a convention at which a committee will be appointed to wait upon Congress and show the members of the Senate and House why the United States should cease paying the $300,000,000 annual toll to the foreign steamship trust.

Proof will be presented to Congress that this country's commerce in every part of the world is retreating before the great merchant marine fleets of rival countries. The constituents of all Congressmen will be asked to put their representatives on record, so that none may dodge the issue.

One of the most active organizations in the fight for restoration of American shipping is the National Piano Manufacturers' Association. It has a merchant marine committee, of which J. A. Coffin is president.

"Not only the manufacturers, but every man and woman in the United States should work to rebuild the American shipping," said Mr. Coffin. "It will bring prosperity to everybody. We will not only save the $300,000,000 we now pay the foreign steamship trusts as an annual tribute, but we will develop our commerce abroad and add to our national revenues in that way."

Speaking of oratory, many shallow remarks are uttered in a deep voice. Live today as your best. Tomorrow you may fall to wake up.

EX-PASTOR SHOOTS WOMEN AND SUICIDES

One Victim of Rev. C. S. L. Brown is Dead, Other May Die.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 31.—Rev. C. S. L. Brown, who shot and killed one woman, fatally injured another and committed suicide, last night told many of his friends, after his downfall in the ministry, that he went into the pulpit because "I have the gift of gab, and the game is an easy one. If I could keep straight, keep away from whiskey and women, I could make a barrel of money as an evangelist."

Brown was gambler, minister, British soldier in the Boer War and locomotive fireman. He received a medal for bravery in the Boer War.

Brown often said he was a "short-ear man" and a "sure-thing gambler" long before he went into the ministry. While a minister of the Christian church in Lees Summit, Mo., June 19, 1908, he was arrested at Sixth and Walnut streets here and locked up for investigation. "He was half nude when arrested."

He had whipped a man for insulting an old negro "mammy." This was the same Rev. Mr. Brown who, in October, 1906, preached for Rev. W. A. Thomas at the West Side Christian church in this city. His subject was "Lights and Shadows of Life and Positive and Negative Teachings."

Found Way of Transgressor Hard.

On the night he was arrested Rev. Mr. Brown found that "the way of the transgressor was hard." He admitted he had been drinking and gambling in Kansas City ever since his downfall at Lees Summit a short time before. He said he had passed worthless checks in this city and Lees Summit. Six years previous to this time, he said, he had been a porter in the Hotel Baltimore.

"I can trace my downfall to the love of a woman," Brown said behind the bars of the holdover as his tears streamed down. "Then the gamblers got hold of me, and you can see what they have left of me—a wreck, beaten, down and out."

"I am willing to take my medicine like a man, and serve my five or ten years, but before God, I will not divulge the name of the woman. Her name must be protected, as I alone am to blame."

It is not known here whether either of the women he shot last night is she whose "name must be protected."

The cause of the shooting was a quarrel between Brown and Mrs. Lamphere, who planned to move and start a boarding house, with Mrs. Ward as a partner.

LEAD PENCIL KILLS MAN DURING A FIGHT

Deadly Use Made of the Harmless Article on a Bluejacket.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The stub of a lead-pencil was the weapon which brought death last night to Albert Curran, a bluejacket on the United States gunboat Hancock. Curran had obtained a leave of absence to visit his sister in Brooklyn.

In a saloon near her home last night he became engaged with John Schmidt, an acquaintance, in a quarrel over the merits of the battleships of Germany and the United States.

Schmidt declares Curran struck him. When striking back Schmidt held a lead pencil in his clenched hand. The blow caught Curran on the neck, and the pencil pierced his jugular vein. Curran died shortly afterward.

RICH PRIZES FOR AVIATORS

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 2.—Beginning tomorrow and continuing through the coming week, the attention of American aviators will be centered upon a spacious field located between this city and Quincy, where the great aviation meet of the Harvard Aeronautical society will be held. The success of the meet is believed to be assured, providing the weather conditions are favorable, for the entry list includes many of the most successful aviators of America and several of those who have won fame in Europe. Thirty-seven thousand dollars in professional prizes and more in amateur prizes will be competed for. These prizes will be awarded for speed, altitude, duration, distance, getaway and accuracy. The big event of the entire program is to be a flight from the aviation field across Boston to the Harvard stadium, thence to Boston Light, at the entrance to Boston harbor, and from there back to the starting point. For this event a Boston newspaper has offered a cash prize of $10,000.

DIGGING UP STORER CASE

(Associated Press Cable.)
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 21.—That Theodore Roosevelt, while President, instructed Bellamy Storer, whom he had appointed Ambassador to Austria, to ask the Pope to elevate Archbishop Ireland to the rank of cardinal, in spite of Roosevelt's repeated denials to the contrary, is the claim made by the Springfield Republican, which has revived the old controversy by the publication today of some new evidence.

The Republican reprints a review of the case written by Mrs. Bellamy Storer, dated September 6, in which she reiterates the charge of unfair treatment on the part of Roosevelt in recalling Storer for doing what he had been specifically instructed to do. She claims that Roosevelt sent her husband to Vienna that he might interview the Pope on Archbishop Ireland's behalf as the personal representative of the President.

Storer was recalled in disgrace in 1906, when complaints were made that he was visiting the Pope and claiming to be President Roosevelt's agent, the President at that time denying that he had ever instructed the ambassador to speak for him. In an official communication to Congress, Roosevelt denounced as not only false, but absurd, both Ambassador Storer and his wife.

WYOMING DEMOCRATS NOMINATE REPUBLICAN

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Sept. 21.—The chances for the renomination of Congressman Mondell, Representative at-large, are now regarded as very critical. Former Senator Joseph M. Carey has been nominated for the Governorship by the Democrats, although he served in the House of Representatives and the Senate as a Republican. He is the father of the Carey Act and the introducer of the bill that provided Statehood for Wyoming. At the present time he has been leading the reform forces of the State, claiming that the Republican administration is honey-combed with graft.

CANNON UPHOLDS TARIFF

DANVILLE, Ill., Sept. 21.—Speaker Cannon, in an address here, accepting his twentieth nomination for the House, said that the Aldrich-Payne tariff required no defenders and called for no defense. The passage of the present tariff law had justified itself already by the increased revenues it had produced and by the figures showing the increased imports under it.

The Speaker declared that the present agitation against the tariff and the demand raised throughout the country for a modification of some of the schedules were dangerous to the commercial prosperity of the country.

INDORSE INSURGENTS.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 21.—John Stephen was today nominated as the Republican candidate for the Governorship, to run against the incumbent, Governor Shafroth, who has been renominated by the Democrats. The Republicans in convention endorsed the national administration and placed a plank in their platform favoring the idea of submitting to the people on a referendum the question of passing an initiative and referendum law.

The convention also expressed its admiration for Colonel Roosevelt and endorsed the insurgent policy.

BOOST FOR ROOSEVELT.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The Roosevelt supporters have carried Schenectady in the primaries for elect delegates for the State convention. This is regarded as a great victory against the Old Guard, who have counted on getting their majority from the up-State districts.

AVIATOR INJURED.

FOLKESTONE, Eng., Sept. 21.—Aviator Barnes fell with his machine today, receiving serious injuries. When fifty feet in the air his aeroplane bucked and fell. The driver was picked up with his skull fractured.

Marriage is the most universal and sometimes oppressive trust there is.

SHORT STORIES FOR EVENING HOURS
Too Much Competition.

(By Richard S. Jacobs.)
"You can't do anything with me," said "Slim" Collins, the reformed burglar, to the detective who stopped him on Michigan avenue. "I'm out of business. Nothing but honest toil for yours truly from now on."
"What's that jimmy doing in your hip pocket?" asked the officer, clapping his hand over it.
"Cold, foolish suspicion!" said the reformed burglar, drawing forth a screwdriver. "You poison your life with such thoughts. This is an honest tool, and I use it down here in the automobile repair shop."
"Working there, are you?" asked the detective.
"Since I went out of my other business, yes," replied Collins.
"I've a good mind to arrest you, anyhow," said the detective.
"What for?" asked Collins.
"Fire, highway robbery—any charge of that kind would stick," said the officer. "You repair automobiles, don't you?"
"Yes, but I don't make the charges," said Collins. "The indictment wouldn't hold."
"You're an accessory before the fact," said the detective, "and that ought to get you ten years. However, I'll let you off this time."
"Thank you," said Collins.
"Why did you quit?" asked the officer.
"Too much competition," replied the ex-burglar.
"Hadn't heard of it. Many professionals here now?"
"It's not the professionals. I could compete with them all right. There are others in the game."
"Amateurs?" asked the detective.
"Well, you might call them amateurs."
"Tell me about it."
"You see," said Collins, "this is the porch-climbing season. It opened auspiciously and, according to the society columns, a good many people went to the seashore or the mountains. I had been resting up since the winter season closed and was feeling very fit. I picked out a territory that looked all right and got friendly with the dogs."
"I had set a night to start in and had my kit all ready. You don't need many tools in the summer trade. The work is mostly with window screens and jewelry boxes. I was running light that night I went out, carrying only a few tools and a sack for the swag. The first place on the route was a large house the mistress of which was in the mountains for the summer."
"I went up the porch as easy as falling off a log. There was a dog, but he was asleep in the rear of the house. I reached a window and had taken the screen off before I noticed that there was a light in the room. Then I heard a man's voice say, 'Gimme three cards.'"
"The owner of the house and three others were playing. I stayed long enough to see that he was losing his money as fast as the others could gather it up and they didn't seem to be at all slow or reluctant. I could see it wasn't any use for me to stick around there, so I went on to the next place."
"There I knew the woman was at home, but she must have been peevish about having to stay. I shinned up to the top of the porch and looked in at the window. It was pretty dark in the room, but there was a light somewhere back in the house. I made out that the man was in bed asleep, but there was some one stirring. I thought I had run across professional competition, but pretty soon I saw that it was the man's wife."
"First I thought the baby might be sick, but I didn't hear it crying. On second thought I remembered that I was out in the neighborhood where it was ten chances to one that there wasn't any baby to do any crying. I just stood there and watched that woman and envied her. She was going through her husband's pockets as deliberately as she would have played a slow tune on a piano. It was a good job, I could see, and she didn't leave anything for me."
"When she went away I slipped in and confirmed my suspicions that nothing was left. Also I knew she had put the money in some safe place. About that time it struck me that the competition was too strong, so I went home. The next day I went to work in a garage."
"I have the satisfaction of seeing the boss taken money away from them in large wads every day and that does me some good."

TENNIS TOURNAMENT GETS UNDER WAY THIS AFTERNOON

PLAY WILL TAKE PLACE AT FOUR DIFFERENT CLUBS. TWENTY-THREE ENTRIES—CASTLE AND LOW WILL PLAY—FIVE VIRTUAL SCRATCH MEN.

At half-past four o'clock this afternoon, play in the Hall Cup tennis tournament will start up, and four different club courts will be in use. Matches will be played on the Beretania, Pacific, Neighborhood and Manoa courts, and the task of getting around and seeing all the play is impossible. However, as soon as the first and second rounds of the tournament are played, there will be no difficulty, and then the matches will probably be played at one club.

At noon yesterday there were twenty-one entries recorded, and it is pleasing to note that since then A. L. Castle and Captain Low have joined the throng. It would not seem to be much of a tournament without the champion of the Territory and the genial captain from the marines being seen in action.

Seven matches in all will be played this afternoon, and they will be as follows: On Beretania courts—Nowell vs. Singlehurst, Guard vs. Sinclair and Bockus vs. Gray. On the Pacific courts Theodore Richards will play Collins, and J. Waterhouse will tackle Atherton Richards. There will be one match on the Neighborhood courts, where Schmidt will play Stanley. On the Manoa courts, Savage, the Puunene player, will meet Noel Deerr, and a great game should eventuate.

Five Virtual Scratch Men.
There are five men on the virtual scratch mark, and that is fifteen behind scratch. Nowell, R. A. Cooke, Atherton Richards, A. L. Castle and Captain Low are the men who will have to owe fifteen in every game, and in some instances, give as much as thirty besides. It is hard luck for a man when he gives such big odds, and then loses the first stroke. He has then to win four strokes before he can make the score deuce, and in the meantime, should he make one mistake, his opponent has got the game. A handicap like that blocks the brilliant man a lot, and through trying to play safe, he changes his game so much that he usually gets beaten.

In the Hall Cup tournament there are eleven men on scratch, and among them are some good men who will make the rest of the bunch sit up and take notice. In the "receive fifteen" class are to be found five names, and then in the "30" bunch are W. T. Schmidt and W. L. Stanley.

The tournament promises to be a good one, and there are several men who appear to stand out as having a good chance of getting into the finals. The virtual scratch men all have a chance of winning out, and unless they meet one another early in the tournament, it looks as if they will be found in the semi-finals at least.

Owing fifteen, the first-class players should hold all the "scratch" men safe, and then, in the "receive fifteen" class, Collins of Ewa would appear to be the best of the bunch. This young player only learned the game since coming to Hawaii from Australia, and he has shown some brilliant tennis at times. He should do well once he gets used to playing in public.

Hard to Handicap.
It is a hard proposition to handicap such a mixed bunch of players as is entered for the Hall Cup, and the committee has made as good a job as could be expected. Still, the cup would seem to be in danger of being captured by one of the over-fifteen men, and to take a long shot, and try to tip the winner, A. L. Castle should about pull it off.

Atherton Richards will be seen in first-class company again, and it will be interesting to see how the youngster has progressed at tennis since he last appeared in public. Nowell is playing well at present, and he will make a lot of the handicap men look tired before the tournament is over. He is a brilliant, showy player, and has a deadly smash that he can land from nearly any part of the court. R. A. Cooke is well known as a fine player, and he and his brother hold the double championship of the Territory. Captain Low is a game player, and he never knows when he is licked; he has put up some fine exhibitions on the Beretania courts, and is always on the job.

Among the handicap men, Theodore Richards, Noel Deerr, Savage, Collins, Bockus and Greenfield would appear to be about the best. The tournament promises to be a really good one, and no doubt big crowds will attend at the different courts during the few days of play.

The Manoa electric light tournament will start up next week, and then there will be an opportunity for everybody to go out after dinner and watch the matches in comfort. Tennis is on the boom again, and a good thing it is so; the game is about the best in the world for exercise, and there is no professionalism about the sport.

DOTS AND DASHES.

The marines are starting to talk football again, and it is to be hoped that the Fort Shafter, Schofield Barracks, Fort Ruger and Fort De Russy men get busy and start teams. Oahu College, College of Hawaii and the High School will have teams, and between the bunch, some good games should be seen. Would that it were Rugby that our young fellows were going in for; then the Honolulu players would have a chance of competing with the California teams.

The following men got byes in the Hall Cup tennis tournament: A. L. Castle vs. Gerald Irwin, W. W. Low vs. G. Warren, F. E. Greenfield vs. winner of Bockus-Gray match, W. N. Eklund vs. Richard Cooke, F. E. Steere vs. W. A. Wall.

MUCH TALK OF RINGING IN

SCHOOLBOYS SAY SOME PLAYERS NOT ELIGIBLE

Punahou Confident That They Can Do As Well This Year As Last—Much Interest in Coming Season.

All the school boys are starting up the regular growl that is heard at the beginning of every football and track meet season. There is always a lot of talk about the youths who are eligible for the various meets and games. It is alleged that boys who have finished schooling, practically, are still kept on the teams and, in some way, they are connected with their schools for a long time after they have graduated.

This is not as it should be, and if the assertion is true, the sooner the faculty determine to instill better ideas of clean sport into the minds of the scholars, the better for everybody. It is a serious charge to make, and the matter should be looked into by those most concerned in the welfare of the youths. The High School boys are alleged to have made the statement that good athletes are kept on the college teams after they have really finished school work.

The football teams will be gotten together as soon as possible, and then it will be seen if all the schools will turn out as they did last year. The Puns did remarkably well last year, and they are confident of repeating the record.

MUCH TALK ABOUT KAOO-JACKSON RACE

Men Will Decide on Place and Date This Afternoon.

Nigel Jackson is determined to race Antone Kaoo fifteen miles for a substantial purse, and the event is practically assured now, unless either man meet with some accident or become sick. The managers and runners will meet this evening in order to fix the date and place of the race. Jackson will at once start training and, as he knows his chance of meeting Soldier King depends on his showing against Kaoo, he will do all in his power to get into the very best condition possible.

The Army runner, King, intends coming to Hawaii as soon as his term of enlistment finishes on October 24. He will run Kaoo about the end of October or early in November. The soldier claims to be the United States champion long distance runner, and when he goes up against Kaoo he will be meeting a man who is thought to be as good as any man in the world for his age.

The famous saucer track at Salt Lake was threatened in the recent fire which destroyed the Salt palace. Hard work resulted in checking the fire before serious damage was done, but some 50 feet of the bleachers and about 120 feet of the track were burned.

DOTS AND DASHES.

Albert Standen, a motor cycle rider 17 years of age, rode a Harley-Davidson motor cycle to victory three times at the motor cycle meet at Elyria, O., recently. His work was exceptionally clever. Standen also provided the spectators with a thrill as he tumbled from his machine in the final event, in a sensational spill. He was picked up and taken to the hospital unconscious, but upon investigation it was found that he had broken no bones, and later he was able to return to his home, none the worse for his mishap, except for a severe shaking up. The five-mile event he won easily in 7:34 4-5. He won a ten-mile match race in 14:27 1-5, and the three-mile race for singles. In the five-mile free for all his time was 7:02 2-5, winning that event.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—"Bill" Hinrichs, a pitcher on the Washington American League baseball team, who has been suffering from infantile paralysis, has grown suddenly worse and physicians entertain grave doubts of his recovery. The effect of the disease, it is declared, is atrophy of the muscles, or a contraction that prevents further growth, through deadening of the nervous system in the parts affected. Upon the recommendation of Walter Johnson, Washington's star twirler, Hinrichs joined the team several months ago, coming here from California. He had pitched only one game when he was stricken with the malady.

C. C. Hopkins has received word that Edward Stauber, riding an Indian, won both classes at the Rochester, N. Y., motor cycle club's second annual climb on Armstrong hill, recently. In the single class he made the climb in 20 seconds, and in the twin division he cut these figures to 16 seconds.

Jay Kuhns, the old Hamakua cane grower, is captain of the College of Hawaii football team. Austin Jones, the coach, has had the men out practicing the new style of game, and the rules are being explained to the bunch.

There will be a meeting of those interested in the amateur union movement tomorrow afternoon at Lorrin Andrews' office. An attempt will be made to get all the clubs to join the A. A. Union, which is world known.

Bundy, the new star tennis player, will probably go to Australia with McLoughlin, and then the Honolulu lovers of the game will have another opportunity of seeing some champions at work on the courts.

The suggestion that a team of Hawaiian-bred ball players be sent to the mainland is a good one, and one that is up to the Promotion Committee to carry through.

It is proposed that students taking three solid studies at the different schools be allowed to play on the football teams this season.

Bill Desha will be seen on the Punahou football team this year again; he will be a great help to the College aggregation.

It is probable that the tennis clubs of Hawaii will join the A. A. Union as one body and not as separate institutions.

Boxing is still quiet in the city but everything points to a boom in the near future.
