THWING STATES HIS POSITION

AN OPEN LETTER TO SHERIFF LAUKEA AND A COMMUNICATION ADDRESSED TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES—THE WISHES OF THE MINISTERIAL UNION AND THE CIVIC FEDERATION REGARDING THE DISTRICT.

The Rev. E. W. Thwing today sent an open letter to Sheriff Laukea, on the subject of enforcement of law at Iwilei, and also made public a letter which has been sent on the subject to the Attorney General of the United States. The two letters are as follows:

LAUKEA AND THE LAW.

OPEN LETTER TO THE SHERIFF, Honolulu, H. T., April 4, 1908.

To C. P. Laukea, Sheriff of Oahu, Honolulu, H. T.

Dear Sir:—We are glad to welcome you back from your trip to Kona, and to know that the change has been of much benefit to you. You have had lots of hard work. Your important position is a difficult one, and I want to say that we appreciate these difficulties, and the good work you, and your able chief, Mr. Taylor, have done in repressing crime, gambling and graft. We stood by you in the last election, we wish to stand by you now, and hope we may back you when another election comes. You have a definite stand for good government and law, and that is what we believe in.

I presented a letter, or request, to you yesterday, signed by a number of residents of Honolulu, asking for the enforcement of certain important laws. I wish to explain my position a little more clearly, as this is not simply "Thwing's agitation" as some one has remarked. This request represents the conviction and honest opinion of an important part of this community. You may say quite rightly, "Why did you not ask me before?" We do not blame you for a lack of action in this matter, up until the present time. We ourselves had not fully considered it, or informed ourselves as to the present conditions. It was recently presented before the Honolulu Ministerial Union. A large amount of ignorance was admitted by many of the members. It was felt to be a matter that we should know about, and a committee was appointed to investigate and report, of which committee I was a member.

A full report was made at the last meeting of the Union, and unanimous action was taken requesting the enforcement of the laws in this matter. That action has also been presented in writing to you through Mr. Taylor. A request has also been presented to you by the committee of Law Enforcement, of the Civic Federation. This shows in connection with the petition presented to you, a large amount of public opinion on the side of the enforcement of law, however difficult the matter may be. We know that you entered your present position with the intention of enforcing this law, and that certain persons advised you not to do so. Perhaps we should have been more active at that time, and if we had fully understood conditions then, we should have been.

We admit frankly that opinions differ. As a friend said to me yesterday: "Mr. Thwing I know you mean well, but I think you are up the wrong tree." I would suggest that those who do not believe in these laws, might well send in the following petition: To C. P.

Laukea, Sheriff of Oahu, Honolulu: "We the undersigned, residents of Honolulu, respectfully request that you do not enforce the laws as to present conditions, etc." It would certainly let us know what their honest opinions are. I am glad that you are going to give this matter a careful study, and consider it of sufficient importance to give it your immediate attention. I trust also that when you see now strong is a certain amount of public opinion, that you will earnestly and faithfully enforce these laws; not only in this one locality, but as the Bishop of Honolulu, the Rt. Rev. Henry B. Restarick has well said, "in all other places" in Honolulu and Oahu. It is a big and difficult work we know, but I am sure there are many public-minded citizens who will aid you in every way you may suggest.

You know also, as do many others, that the United States' law, recently before the Senate, known as the "Edmunds Act," bears on this matter. A request, signed by a number of prominent men of this city, for the enforcement of this law, has been presented to Hon. R. W. Breckons, and by him has been sent on to Washington. The following letter has also been sent to the Attorney General of the United States. However, with good and able local officials, and with present Territorial laws quite sufficient, we feel and hope that this matter can be settled here. We do not wish unless necessary to call on Uncle Sam to do our house cleaning. Trusting that you will at once carefully look into this subject, and act in conformity to the laws of this Territory. I remain, Yours very sincerely,

EDWARD W. THWING.

P. S.—As to the petition presented to you yesterday, no attempt was made to secure a general canvas, but enough names only were secured to show that there was a strong opinion in favor of law enforcement. I may say also that of those spoken to on the matter, not more than a dozen declined to sign. Even some of these declared themselves in favor of the enforcement of these laws, but did not care to sign such a paper. E. W. T.

Honolulu, T. H., March 27, 1908. Attorney General of the United States of America, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—The matter of the enforcement of the United States law, known as the "Edmunds Act" in the Territory of Hawaii, has been brought to your attention by the Honorable R. W. Breckons, United States District Attorney, Honolulu, H. T. That you may have a clearer understanding of the LEADING CITIZENS WHO ARE OPPOSED TO PUTTING THE LID ON IWILEI.

The question of Iwilei, which has been brought before the public by a number of men who have investigated the so-called terrible conditions which are supposed to exist, has brought forth a good deal of talk around town, and a number of people, who have been asked as to their views on the subject have come forward and given their ideas, while a large number approached on the subject do not wish to discuss the matter for publication. Those who have expressed their views, but refused to have their names mentioned, are all in favor of a man of leaving Iwilei alone.

The following well-known men have given their ideas on the subject:

George W. Smith.—"This subject has been thrashed out in this community several times and I regret to see it come up again, to be spread out in the newspapers, thereby arousing the interest of the young of both sexes and bringing no good to any one.

"I believe the men that signed the petition to be sincere, I have no right to question their motives, but I do not believe that they are benefiting the community or that they will better the conditions that exist here. Sin and evil and crime exist in spite of prohibitory laws and prohibitory laws do not prohibit or prevent. It is only by raising the moral standard of all men that these things will eventually right themselves.

"The success of this move will mean that this evil will not be confined to

FIRE RIVERS IN KILAUEA

AWE-INSPIRING SCENES IN THE CRATER—GUESTS OF VOLCANO HOUSE ARE FASCINATED.

Demosthenes Lycurgus, the well-known host of the Kilauea Volcano House, was among the arrivals from Hawaii on the Mauna Kea this morning. He came down at the request of the directors of the hotel company, who wish his assistance in deciding on the many improvements which are to be made in the resort.

In speaking of the volcano, Lycurgus said:

"For the past ten days the display has been the finest that I have seen since I have been at Kilauea. The crater has filled up within about 180 feet of the top and a huge cone is formed which is constantly growing higher and higher. The different ways in which the sight presents itself are wonderful.

"The guests of the house were down there every night and it was almost impossible to bring them back, the scene was so fascinating. At one time the lava would be shot forth in explosions from the top of the cone straight into the air. Again, this top would be closed in and one side would heat and then burst, sending out a stream which shot out from the side in a torrent of fire.

"One of the most beautiful sights was when, during a period of the greatest activity, there were three streams pouring out of the cone, each, as I should judge, broader than King street. The heat was intense and I went down there so much that it really became hard work. Mr. Waldron, of Schaefer & Co., brought a pair of glasses with him and, when we looked at the flow through them, it was almost terrible. It looked as if it was coming down to pour over you in a torrent. I took one look and that was enough for me.

"The many improvements which we are going to make at the Volcano House will help us greatly and when we will have many more guests. The sulphur baths have been fixed over completely and are now nearer to the house. They are working in fine shape. The prospects for our business are increasing every day and things look fine for the future."

HILO IS ANXIOUS

WANTS A QUICK SETTLEMENT OF THE ROW OVER BREAKWATER BIDS.

HILO, April 2.—The fear exists here in connection with the breakwater bids that the whole contract will now be held up by a fight in Washington over the bids sent in.

Hi-lo citizens want to see a start made on the work of construction, and are therefore alarmed at the prospect of a contest over bids which it is feared might delay the work. It is hoped that an award will quickly be made when a report is sent to Washington.

McKinley Statue Is Ordered

At a meeting of the McKinley Memorial Committee held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to award the contract for the statue of the late William McKinley, which will be placed in front of the new High School building, to Gordon Osborne, son of Rev. John Osborne of Makiki, Honolulu. The award came as the result of a model which was presented to the committee by Mr. Osborne for approval and which is at present in the office of C. M. Cooke, president of the Bank of Hawaii. It is one of several which will be offered for selection.

The statue will be of bronze and will be eight feet high and placed on an appropriate pedestal of granite. The model, which is now ready, has been commented on most favorably by all who have seen it and through its excellence has brought about the award mentioned.

MORE MONEY

According to a statement made this morning by C. M. Cooke, of the Bank of Hawaii, while money is not very plenty in financial circles here as yet, there is a noticeable improvement over the conditions of the past few months. In speaking of this matter he said:

"Money is by no means as free as it might be at present, still it is much better than it has been. While there is not enough money to make free loans for speculation, and in fact some of the banks are not making any loans of this kind, there is sufficient money in the city for the regular business purposes. The sugar money has not yet begun to come in to the plantations, but there is a great deal of it on the water and with its arrival there will be a still greater change for the better."

Hackfeld & Company has brought suit against James Cowan in assumpsit for $2,297.95, claimed on account for merchandise. The defendant is a resident of Kailua, North Kona, Hawaii.

MOST EMPHATICALLY SO.

A. L. C. Atkinson appears to be wanted by the Anti-Saloon League members as their superintendent to succeed John G. Woolley, this desire being stated most emphatically at the annual meeting of the league on Thursday being stated most emphatically at the members endorsing him gave the impression that all had been arranged. Evidently Mr. Atkinson had not been consulted in the matter, however, for yesterday he stated most emphatically that he would not accept the position.—Advertiser.

PILIKIA FOR HOLT

GRAND JURY MAY BE ASKED TO INDICT HIM FOR TECHNICAL EMBEZZLEMENT.

The Territorial Grand jury may be asked to indict James L. Holt, late Tax Assessor and Collector for the First Taxation District on charge of embezzling some $4,500 of government funds. The embezzlement, if such a charge is substantiated, will be purely technical, no actual shortage having been found in the office. It is understood that the matter has been referred to the Attorney General for consideration.

Auditor J. H. Fisher, who returned this morning from Kona where he has been on official business, admitted that he had found a discrepancy in Holt's books with the actual cash he could find in the bank for a certain date, but that at the time he had made his examination the amounts checked up all right, and that it was possible that it may have been right all the time. Attorney General Hemenway, while not denying knowledge of the matter, declined to discuss it at all, saying that he had not had time to look into it.

The story told in the matter is that Auditor Fisher on visiting the bank to check up the cash on deposit, while finding the full amount called for on the books, discovered that at the time the books had been balanced there was actually about $4,500 short, which by a later deposit had been made good.

If the auditor has not made a mistake, there has therefore been a technical embezzlement. It is possible that Mr. Holt will be able to explain the matter, and inasmuch as the Territory has not suffered loss by any possible irregularity no action may be taken by the grand jury.

LAUKEA MAY CLOSE TOWN

IF THE PEOPLE CAUSE HIM TO SHUT UP IWILEI HE WILL GO FURTHER.

"If they demand the closing of Iwilei," said Sheriff Laukea this morning, "not only will Iwilei be closed, but we will enforce the law wherever there is a violation throughout the city, whether it affect a private house, a hotel or a camp.

"When I say 'they,' I refer to the better element, and the voices of a few do not necessarily represent the better element I believe the majority of the people of the better element are sincere and conscientious in the opinion that conditions are better as they are and that the town would suffer under any such proposition as the elimination of the district talked about.

"I have had a talk with Federal authorities and it is their opinion that conditions are better as they are. If it is demanded that every letter of the law be enforced this town will suffer as it never suffered before."

"If a man says anything worse than 'damn it' in a public place he can, according to the law, be arrested for profane language.

If a doctor drives break-neck to a dying patient, he can be arrested, under the law, for cruelty to animals.

If a man stops to pick a mango from a tree he can, under the law, be arrested for trespass.

If a man gives a musicale at his house and the neighbors are kept awake, he can, under the law, be arrested for disturbing the quiet of night.

If a man or woman can be caught passing along a bit of gossip which hurts another, he or she can, under the law, suffer for it.

And the many, many men who are looking for work can be hauled in for having no visible means of support, vagrancy.

Numerous well-known citizens who stagger a bit on their way home late at night may be jailed as drunks.

Children under a certain age who attend prayer meetings or socials after a certain hour in the evening, unaccompanied by their elders, will have the curfew law run on them.

Poker games will be raided and gentlemen matching for carfares may be pulled in.

Business men who put up chicken-coops, fences, or cut grass or saw wood on Sundays, to improve their homes,

NEW RULES ADOPTED FOR QUEEN'S HOSPITAL

AMENDMENTS IN PART WERE SUGGESTED BY THE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION—EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MAY SUSPEND RULES BETWEEN MEETINGS—A PHYSICIAN WHOSE PRIVILEGES ARE STOPPED HAS RIGHT TO APPEAL TO FULL BOARD.

The rules of the Queen's Hospital, to revise which a special committee of the trustees of the institution has been working for the past nine months, are now in the printer's hands and will soon be issued. They have been very carefully worked out and were read before the Medical Association at its last meeting. At the meeting tonight the changes which were recommended by that body will be read and their adoption by the trustees announced.

The changes mentioned were very slight, some being merely orthographic. The most important one comes as the last section of paragraph K, which reads:

"The interpretation of these rules and regulations, as made by the Executive Committee, shall govern, and that committee shall have full authority to suspend or amend any of the foregoing rules and regulations, subject to confirmation at the next ensuing meeting of the trustees."

"We will have at least to double the police force with the fleet in port," said the Sheriff, "and our duties will be sufficiently difficult without the added risks of a closed district in Iwilei."

EMPEROR FOND OF TOWER.

BERLIN, March 14.—Emperor William, who dined last night with Charlemagne Tower, the American Ambassador, has again expressed his appreciation of Mr. Tower's labors in Berlin. His Majesty was informed at the dinner that Frederick Caldwell, the American Vice Consul here, was to sail today for America.

Thereupon he approached Mr. Caldwell and told him he had a message for President Roosevelt. "Tell your President," Emperor William said, "that I am very angry with him for accepting Mr. Tower's resignation."

The Emperor has presented to each of the Tower children a photograph of himself, bearing his own signature, and also pictures of Princess Victoria.

TOWN TALK

By THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Of all the clever men in this city give me Sam Johnson. I have often wondered why some big plantation has not snatched him away from the county to give him a year or two in training and then boost him way up. Certainly there is no man in this city who can handle men as well as he can. By this I do not mean the men under him in the road department, or in the National Guard, though he can hold his own at that. I mean men in general. The reason that I have been set to thinking about this is the recent development in politics. In the last election the Advertiser went after the mild and meek Samuel, without even light weight gloves, at any rate there was a horseshoe in the gloves if such an equipment was used. Nothing was too bad to say about him. It was Kakaako ballot stuffing, beer distributing at public meetings and every other crime of the calendar that could be hinted at or even openly declared. And there is no question of the worry which it occasioned. His sponsor, Charley Huxtable, who was then candidate for supervisor, was just as bad, though hardly so steeped in crime.

Then after election came a sudden switch. Sam decided to "get completely out of politics." Only too glad to know that they would be rid of him, even his enemies, on the strength of this pledge, rallied to his assistance and he was kept in his job. The Advertiser, on the assurance that he would quit his nefarious practices, stood aloof and refrained from smiting him with the jawbone of an ass. That was chapter two. The third chapter quickly followed. The acquaintance of the political man on the paper was carried. Now anyone who comes into personal contact with Sam generally likes him, particularly if Sam wants to be liked. Then through this opening wedge, his buggy used to be hitched near the Union Grill quite often in the evening, though he never was at that resort nor yet at the Elks when I sought him there.

It was not long before the Advertiser began to teem with copious accounts of the unusually fine work which the road department was doing. Then with stories of the fact that Honolulu had the finest National Guard in the United States. That was about all, with the exception that the attacks on Huxtable in the Board of Supervisors ceased to appear and when Achi tried to form a coalition to oust Sam it was exposed and hammered to the limit by editorial and news comment.

I have been rather disappointed that some Territorial official with a salary of about $5,000 per year has not resigned just so that I might see who would be the Advertiser's candidate. Oh, yes. Sam now says that he has left politics for good (unless the business men of the city ask him to take them up again.) The betting is about two to one that Sam will be at the old stand when it comes time for election, but he will hardly train with the same crowd. I wonder if he has reformed or has he reformed someone else.

Of all the good friends to the newspaper men C. J. Hutchins is one of the most amiable. In connection with his plans for installing wireless across the Pacific to San Francisco he has always been ready to give out information and usually has a pocketful of cigars from which the reporter who interviews him receives a share. This last feature came under discussion the other day when four local newspapermen were standing on the corner of Fort and King streets and happened to see C. J. walk into his office. The plot was quickly worked up and went through like a charm. One after the other all four, at intervals of about ten seconds, entered Mr. Hutchins' private office. The first man was cordially greeted and invited to take a chair. The next man came along and was also seated, leaving about half a cubic foot of space in the office unoccupied. In came the two others, or at least they stood in the door. A puzzled look came over the magnate's face. Then he smiled and asked: "Well, what have I done to deserve this pleasure?" "Why, we just came to discuss wireless," said one. "There was a momentary pause. "By the way, Mr. Hutchins," said a second, "I understand that you are interested in the growing of tobacco." "Well, I am just a little more interested in smoking tobacco instead of raising it. But by the way won't you have a smoke with me?" Then the expression which came over his face when the four all burst out laughing and fled out was worth the trouble that had been taken.

During her visit to Oahu Prison last Sunday Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond, the popular singer and reader who has delightfully entertained the people of Honolulu for the past week or two, had her attention attracted to Siegfried Gundelfinger, the German book-keeper from the Honokaa plantation, just entered a 5-year sentence for embezzlement on his plea of guilty at the last term of Circuit Court in Hilo. She asked permission to talk with the young man, and after doing so gave him her card and address in Chicago, telling him to come there when his sentence expired, and promising to get him a place at book-keeping where he could begin life over again. If all the inspiration, perspiration, and bombast That the dear reformers sling about were only made to last, I'd like to buy and bottle it and sell it out for lotion To grease the bottoms of the boats that navigate the ocean. But speaking sensibly and flat, and argument defying, I have a scheme that is a dream and really worth the trying: If all the cranks forgot their pranks and turned their whole attention To killing mosquitoes and rats they might be worth a mention. It happened at a rather elaborate afternoon luncheon. The hostess had been called from the room for a few minutes, and the bevy of ladies forming the party continued their discussion on the good things before them and things to eat in general. "Well," said one, "I'm not so awfully fussy as some people about the meats I eat, but there is one thing that I cannot eat and that is cold storage poultry. And you always can tell it too." Everybody was perfectly in accord with this, and there was a general expression of disgust at the thought of eating a fowl which might have been killed last year, for all anyone could tell. The subject had been pretty well threshed out and everybody had taken a crack at the refrigerated chicken, when the hostess returned. "O, Mrs. Biank," gushed one fair matron, as she helped herself to a 'third joint' of beautifully browned fried chicken on the supply of which the whole party had made deep inroads. "This is positively the most delicious fried chicken I ever ate; so tender and juicy—we've all been eating so much that I'm sure we'll all be sick; but it's good! I never can get chickens with the flavor of this. You must tell us who supplies you." "O, yes, you must," chorused everyone at the table. "Yes, isn't it nice?" innocently replied the pleased subject of this flattering appeal, "and I do think this is a little better than ordinary. You know Mr. Butcher, of the Cosmopolitan Market, always puts aside for me several of the choicest broilers of every shipment they receive from the coast. These came down in cold storage on the Alameda just this morning, and I had my Jap waiting for them when they were brought up from the wharf, so I should have them cooked in time for this afternoon. I buy all my poultry ready dressed. You know it's ever so much better than that raised here on the islands, and don't you know I believe that the cold storage really improves the flavor of any meat."

The hostess didn't catch even the flicker of an eye-lid as her guests almost fell over each other in their haste to agree with her on the superiority of cold storage chicken, but one lady in telling of it afterward declared, "I thought I'd die for a minute until I got a grip on myself."

Were you ever out in an automobile when it broke down? It certainly is rather embarrassing, but not half as bad as to have your friends josh you about it later. That must be even worse. Now of all the sensitive men whom I have run across among my downtown acquaintances J. F. Morgan is about the most noticeable. All you have to do is to smile at him and he will blush a fiery red and simper like a school girl at her first dance. Nevertheless I have to tell about this, just because someone else may want to do what Jimmie did. The story goes that he was riding around Diamond Head the other day, No, not alone. That machine absolutely refused to work. Now Jimmie did not have any idea of appearing in town and allowing his friends to say that they had seen auto No. empty-ump alone at Diamond Head, but before coming in proceeded to take off the number and place it in his pocket, leaving the machine resting quietly by the roadside till a rescuer came. If you get stuck see if the trick will work.

D. P. Lawrence, registrar general of the Board of Health, reports 73 deaths in Honolulu district for the month of March, a decrease of 18 as compared with March, 1907. Following are the details: Males, 41; females 32. Annual death rate per 1000 of population, 22; non-resident, 1; deaths investigated, 8. Ages: Under one year, 17; one to five 8; five to ten, 4; ten to twenty, 4; twenty to thirty, 11; thirty to forty, 9; forty to fifty, 3; fifty to sixty, 9; sixty to seventy, 4; over seventy, 4. Nationalities: Portuguese, 8; Part-Hawaiian, 7; Korean, 1; Japanese, 17; Hawaiian, 27; German, 1; Chinese, 9; British, 1; American, 2. Causes: Febrile, 2; dietetic, 6; constitutional, 7; developmental, 5; nervous, 15; circulatory, 7; respiratory, 19; digestive, 6; urinary, 4; osseous and integumentary, 1; accident and violence, 1. There were 74 births and 67 marriages reported for the month.

There was a young lawyer named Atkinson, Who was voted the head of the Anti-Saloon. But he said, in a speech, "I practice, not preach!" And great was the mourning in Babylon. As I understand it, the incident occurred in one of the local clubs when L. E. Pinkham, Admiral Very and Jack Atkinson were present. This is a trio for newspapermen to fight shy of, for each and everyone will declare that of all the things which he detests newspaper notoriety is the very extreme. Incidentally President Pinkham is always to be found on the stump for Walkiki reclamation when needed. Admiral Very will make an announcement from the Naval Station, under the full plumage of his title, at any time (provided that the news has not already been published three weeks before and denied by him) and Jack, well he is in trouble, and fuzzy, woolly trouble enough, at present. It happened that the story turned on the Admiral's (Very's not Beckley's or Dunn's) departure and Pinkham began to tease him with questions in regard to a new picture which it was asserted he was to have taken for the local newspapers. Jack came gallantly to his aid, getting back at Pinkham by offering to bet a quart of wine that before Pinkham's term of office was over, that is a few weeks, he would figure in the headlines of the papers. The Board of Health antecrater disputed it vigorously and accepted the bet. It did not take long. Messrs. Thwing and Richards made their famous trip of research to Iwilei and brought Pinkham out in full glory. But will Jack get his wine? I would announce the fact that Pinkham was going to send him a bottle of Tansan but for his feeling, well known to exist, in regard to Japanese. Jack can't drink champagne so I rather guess it will be White Rock.

ANOTHER FEDERAL JUDGE QUESTION

A cable message received last evening by District Attorney Breckons from Attorney General Bonaparte requests that the District Attorney's opinion, together with that of District Judge Dole on the matter of the appointment of another judge for Hawaii, be cabled briefly to Washington. As a result of the request both Mr. Breckons and Judge Dole have sent cables strongly urging the necessity of such an appointment, along the line of argument contained in letters written on the subject by each of them some time ago. Mr. Breckons construes the Attorney General's message to be an indication that the work of friends of Hawaii has been having its effect in Washington, and the likelihood of the work of Judge Dole being lessened to be very good.

ISN'T HE A LITTLE "PREVIOUS"? EDITOR STAR: "I do not yet know what office I shall be a candidate for, whether sheriff or mayor,"—(Iauka, in this morning's Advertiser).

Back in the States it is rather the custom for men to wait until somebody offers them a chance before they decide to take it. Perhaps that custom has not "followed the flag."

INTERESTED IN THE THUNDERER

LONDON, March 22.—The syndicate which provided $3,000,000 to buy the London Times was formed through the exertions of Lord Cromer, a lifelong friend of Moberley Bell, who is now secure in complete control of the board under the nominal presidency of Arthur Walter. Lord Cromer himself is a comparatively poor man, and the money has been subscribed chiefly by Waldorf Astor, Lord Rothschild, Lord Iveagh, Lord Brassey, Lord Aldenham and Sir Edward Tennant. The chief proprietors represent both sides in politics, but there is a preponderance of Unionists among the stockholders.

SEND FOR THE MYSTERIOUS JENKINS.

Advertiser readers were astonished this morning to find that paper denying that it had yesterday published the news that A. L. C. Atkinson had been chosen superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League. The news was substantially correct, though its effect was spoiled by Mr. Atkinson declining the position. The Advertiser's denial that it had published what is the truth, was for the purpose of getting in another whack at the unfortunate Star, which appears to have incurred deep displeasure. The subject is not worth much space, but 'tis a dull day—half a holiday—so we may as well have a bit of fun with the following frenzied paragraph:

A. L. C. Atkinson, in talking this afternoon about the article appearing in this morning's paper, stating that he had been elected superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, stated: "I have never, and neither do I intend now to become the superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League."—Star.

Oh, tell the truth once in awhile if you can. The Advertiser said that Mr. Atkinson was "endorsed," not that he was elected and in its headlines it said he would "lead the fight." Both statements are true, the fight being for local option. The Star itself, headed an article on its seventh page: "Mr. Woolley Going Away—A. L. C. Atkinson His Chosen Successor As Superintendent of the League" which is the nearest anybody has come to the statement that paper condemns. Editorially, the Star says: "At any rate the saloons will probably know they have been in a fight before Jack Atkinson gets through with them." On the whole, the Star should take Chamberlain's remedy for the Foot and Mouth Disease.

Now the fact is, that when it said Atkinson had been unanimously endorsed and that he "will lead," the Advertiser went further than the fact of Atkinson's selection and assumed his acceptance—which was an error. The league will, of course, be led by its superintendent. The next point that strikes attention is, as the quotation made from the Star shows, that we did not "condemn" any Advertiser statement at all. The Star merely mentioned the fact that the morning paper had announced Mr. Atkinson's selection, and then quoted that gentleman as declining the honor, which he was naturally quite able to do without anybody condemning any Advertiser statement. Perhaps the esteemed morning paper is so used to being condemned that it feels that condemnation must be intended anyhow whenever it is mentioned at all. Such a case calls for the attention of Dr. Jenkins, nerve specialist.

A study of the calendar of the federal court here should be quite enough to convince Washington as to the need of an additional federal judge.

A VERY REGRETFUL OCCURENCE.

The breaking up of the Kona Orphanage is greatly to be regretted. It was a splendid institution and it appears from the best investigation that there was little the matter with it. It appears that Miss Beard, who was in charge, was not even a follower of the Los Angeles Dr. Yoakum, who was declared to have won her over to his cult and greatly injured her usefulness. She had in fact resented the conversion of assistant teachers to the faith of this "healer." The latter is the conductor of a place known as "Pisgah Home," in Los Angeles, where he claims to have accomplished various miraculous cures. His methods of "casting out devils" appear to have been adopted at Kona by subordinates. It is to be hoped that some plan can be evolved for reorganizing this most desirable institution. Miss Beard has given much of her life to it, and much of her fortune, and her position is one calling for profound sympathy.

THE TAX COMMISSION.

As the time for making campaign platforms comes near, the Tax Commission ought to receive more attention than so far it has been having. Perhaps the public indifference of which its members complain is due to some deficiency in the modes adopted for bringing the taxpayers into communication with the board. In other words, there may have been too few public hearings, and these insufficiently advertised. Even the commercial bodies, with standing or special committees to attend to the business, do not appear to have given a great deal of assistance to the Commission. For such an important matter it is strange also that the public has not availed itself to any extent of the open columns of the press for discussing the many phases of the everlasting question of taxation.

It is not too late, though, to have the question canvassed in its various bearings. But it may be too late after the different parties have formulated the issues on which they are to take their stand at the polls. Many a time has large expense been incurred for the work of a special commission, provided for by one legislature to report to the succeeding one, only to have the cost and the labor all go for naught because a legislature had in the meantime been elected without authorization from the electors regarding the action to be taken on the particular subjects. For it is not to be taken for granted that what one legislature deems to be advisable in the public interest is going to be adopted by the next legislature. And when important changes in any portion of the statutes are sprung upon a legislature most or all of whose members have never discussed them with their constituents, or even given the matter any study on their own part, there is likely to be a timorous if not antagonistic attitude assumed toward the measure. At all events, such a legislature is not likely, amidst the pressure of matters obligatory upon it, to be well prepared for giving to any new proposition the amount of deliberation required, especially if radical departures from the existing law are involved.

That there is a great deal of opinion on the matter of taxation lying around loose is patent to all who are in touch with the people at large. While popular views on the subject as a science may, to a great extent, be crude there is no question that the taxpayers know where the present laws pinch them and, wherever this is shown, it is the duty of the publicist, in a tax commission or in the legislature, to examine the grievance thoroughly and redress it should that be found practicable and according to the interests of "the great number"—the

BRIGHT THINGS IN CONGRESS

(From the Congressional Record.)

"The Congressional Record is the greatest daily published in the wide, wide world"—Congressman Clayton of Alabama.

CONGRESSMAN SHERWOOD, of Ohio: We paid the boy King Alfonso twenty millions for a tablet upon which to write the epitaph of the Republic of George Washington and Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln.

SENATOR BEVERIDGE of Indiana: The only thing the Democratic party did during those two years that has become historic was the pulling down of the American flag in Hawaii, which a Republican President had to restore.

CONGRESSMAN KUSTERMANN, of Wisconsin: If the advocates in favor of this motto on our coins of higher denomination actually believe that it will improve our people and make better Christians of them, then, to be consistent, let us also put "In God we trust" on our 1, 5, and 10-cent pieces, so as to extend the helpful influence of Christianity to the poor newsboy, the bootblack, and to all of those who are not as fortunate as those who possess the larger coins. (Laughter and applause.)

CONGRESSMAN HAMIL of New Jersey: Twice, Mr. Chairman, has the same gentleman borne aloft Democracy's banner, and although the cause that he led went down into the dust of defeat, principles that he espoused were so undeniably sound that his victorious opponents have appropriated many of them and made them the popular features of their policy. (Applause on the Democratic side.)

It is said that this gentleman is engaged in the practice of corraling the delegates to the Denver convention. Well, Mr. Chairman, without questioning the truth of this assertion, we can cheerfully admit that, if it is true, it is a practice for which we have a highly distinguished precedent, for if the reports current in the newspapers are any indication of the truth, it is the very same practice indulged in by the illustrious gentleman whom my friends on the other side of the Chamber boast of as their political chieftain. (Applause on the Democratic side.)

ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL: Representative Littlefield, of the House Committee on the Merchant Marine and Fisheries, in reporting favorably the bill H. 13465, "to amend the laws concerning transportation between the ports of the Territory of Hawaii and other ports of the United States," points out that the purpose of the measure is to afford temporary relief to, and additional facilities for, passenger travel between the Hawaiian Islands and the mainland of the United States. It appears that there have been numerous instances when the time between the sailings of American ships between the ports of Hawaii and those of the American mainland has been from eight to twenty-one days, with intervals of ten or twelve days a frequent occurrence. In numerous cases the American steamers calling at Honolulu en route to San Francisco from the Orient, have not been able to provide cabin space for more than from ten to sixty per cent. of the passengers booked for those steamers. The people of Hawaii say, with much reason, that it was never the purpose in annexing those islands to the United States to make communication with the mainland more difficult than it was when they were a foreign country. No change of the law as regards freight transportation is asked, nor are lower steamer fares sought; the purpose is only to secure the physical possibility of travel when business or personal reasons demand it. Inasmuch as Hawaii has no alternative of land travel, the application of the coastwise laws to those islands has created a total inhibition of travel for the varying periods between American steamer sailings, such as was not contemplated in the passage of those laws. This bill as amended specifically provides that its operation shall cease as soon as a new line of three American steamships shall be placed in this service.

deciding factor in all questions of legislation. Any proposals for maintaining or increasing the revenues without producing inequality or injustice, with respect to adjustment of the burdens, will no doubt be gladly received and fully considered.

In accordance with these considerations, therefore, it is to be hoped that the Tax Commission will make further efforts, while time remains, to get in touch with the mass of taxpayers, and that those who expect to be members of party conventions, where policies are shaped for submission at the polls—still more all who are heading for the legislature—will no longer delay in preparing themselves to deal with this great question intelligently and instructively.

President Pinkham of the Board of Health, whatever his deficiencies as a public official may have been—and it must be admitted by his friends that he is no diplomat—has the credit of a very able and effective administration of his department. If he retires it will not be easy to fill the position as he has filled it. And he has the further and higher credit of a broad charity and personal self-sacrifice in duty's cause which call for public tribute. The President of the Board of Health is more called on for charity than any other official, and it has been forthcoming.

No one had any idea she would get in at so early an hour. She made the run from Lahaina in 5 hours and 23 minutes and both outward and inward encountered heavy swells and strong winds.

Canadian-Australian S. S. The Moana had a good list of passengers for Honolulu, including the wife and daughter of Pilot Nicholson. B. Killmaster, the new American consul to Newcastle, is a through passenger. Forty bales of cloth, five cases of cotton goods, twenty drums of fish and 2,000 barrels of lime constituted Honolulu freight. At 10 o'clock this morning the Moana sailed for Suva, via Fanning Island with a big lot of provisions for the Fanning Island cable station. Passengers from here included Miss C. von Rodt, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Isenberg of Lihue.

situation here, I also write you of this matter.

At an unusually large gathering at the regular March meeting of the Ministerial Union of this city, a full report of the present conditions at Iwilei was presented and the Union took action, voting unanimously to request the enforcement of the laws.

"This action was made known to Mr. Breckons. Mr. Breckons told me that he could and was willing to, enforce the law which would close up Iwilei, provided he had the backing of the community. The action of the Honolulu Ministerial Union was not considered sufficient. Personally Mr. Breckons said he did not believe it wise to close up Iwilei. I told him that I would secure more backing. I have done so and presented to him today the following request:

"To the Honorable R. W. Breckons, United States District Attorney, Honolulu, T. H.

"We, the undersigned citizens of Honolulu, respectfully request you to enforce the United States law as it applies to present conditions at Iwilei, where a business is carried on in open disregard to the 'Edmunds Act,' which applies to the Territories of the United States."

This request for the enforcement of the United States law was signed by many men of influence, representing various callings in Honolulu, merchants, ministers, lawyers, doctors and superintendents. It was signed by the president of one of the largest banks, by the principal of one of the largest schools, by the president of the Hawaiian Board of Missions, by the Catholic Bishop, representing the whole Catholic Church, by the Superintendent of the Chinese mission work, by the editor and manager of one of the daily papers, and by many business men of Honolulu.

The views of many of these men differ as to the proper methods of restraining or regulating this evil, but all are of the opinion that the United States law should be enforced. It is most demoralizing to permit it to be continually and openly broken. Many other prominent names could have been secured, but only enough were asked to show that there is a strong backing in the community here for the enforcement of the law.

When I gave this paper to Mr. Breckons today he said that he had written to you and would enforce the law if you so directed. Otherwise he would not. He said that the Federal Grand Jury, which had looked into the matter, had failed to make a report, one member of that body being ex-Governor Carter. I then went and saw Mr. Carter personally and he said that as for himself he believed in the enforcement of the law as the only thing to do.

The committee of "Law Enforcement" of the Civic Federation, also met today and unanimously passed resolutions asking for the enforcement of the laws against Iwilei at once. Other bodies will act in the future.

This is a very important matter. Please give it careful consideration. I trust that you may be able to ask Mr. Breckons to enforce the "Edmunds Act" in Hawaii. If you do and Mr. Breckons starts in to enforce the law, I believe he will do it well.

In view of the coming of the United States fleet to Honolulu and for the protection of our sailor boys, this open nest of vice and disease, should be closed up at once. Will you please give us your influence in the support of the United States law in the Territory of Hawaii?

Yours very sincerely,

EDWARD W. THWING,
Acting for the Committee of the Honolulu Ministerial Union.

one locality but will be spread all over the city, and that disease and infection will increase among those that it does not now reach—disease both physical and moral.

"I believe in a law like the one we had under the monarchy and republic, the Act to Mitigate. This confines the evil to one locality, mitigates the danger of disease and infection and removes from public notice that which, as long as man has existed and will exist, as he is, one of the blots on society. It does not legalize but penalizes that which is known to be in every country and in every race. Stop this publicity at once. It does the community no good at home or abroad."

Hon. D. P. R. Isenberg—"I think that Iwilei should be kept as it is. Every broad-minded man realizes that such conditions are bound to exist in every place in the world, and it is much better to have that class of people in one place than to allow them to be all over the town and to have

Kapaa Rice Lands Sale

EVENT ON MONDAY AT NOON—COMPETITION IS PROBABLE—LAWYERS ARE RETAINED.

Indications are that there will be some little competition for the leases of rice lands in the Territory's Kapaa tract on Kauai which will be sold by the Land Commissioner next Monday at noon. Two parties are known to be after the lands in question and have engaged attorneys to represent them in the matter.

Hee Fat, who at present occupies the greater part of the land, wishes to re-lease, and has retained R. W. Breckons as counsel, and Wong Fat, another rice farmer, representing a hui which wishes the property, has employed A. F. Judd. The area of available rice land, which is divided into three tracts, and contains besides a considerable area of waste and kula lands, is 220.5 acres, and the aggregate annual rental asked as an upset price is $3750.

Hee Fat owes rent for 13 months, but there is a dispute as to who gets this money, and consequently Hee has put up a bond of about $5000 which also covers the rental on a part of the lands on which he will not be able to get the crop off for several months after the first of June from which time the lease dates. Z. S. Spaulding, who until some months ago held all this land under a long time lease with the rest of the Kapaa tract, claiming the rentals now due on these sub-leases, and the Territory also claims it. It is just possible that the courts may have to decide the dispute.

Two tracts of cane lands at Kaunapua and Kawaiulu, in Hilo, of 210 and 162.3 acres respectively, are also to be sold on Monday for the usual rental term of five years. The upset prices on the first of these is $569, and the other $538 per annum.

ing meeting of the Board of Trustees. And the committee shall have the right to suspend or deprive any physician from any of the privileges secured to him by the rules of the Hospital in event of his having, in their opinion, culpably violated any rule or privilege.

The amendment in this section takes the form of another paragraph which provides that such action by the Executive Committee shall not be decisive, but that the physician who shall be suspended in this manner shall have the right to appear before the Board of Trustees at their next meeting for a review of his case and to give a full hearing before it is finally disposed of.

This was suggested by a committee appointed for such purpose by the Medical Association and consisting of Dr. Herbert, chairman, and Drs. Wood and Sinclair. It was adopted by the trustees without any change.

DAVIES GETS HANA

AGENCY OF KAELEKU PLANTATION AND PROBABLY FULL CONTROL GOES TO DAVIES & CO.

At the office of Theo. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., this afternoon it was ascertained that the corporation had secured the agency of Kaeleku Sugar Company, operating the former Hana plantation in the district of Hana, Maui. M. S. Grinbaum & Co., Ltd., had transferred the agency to the Davies concern. Further than that would not be stated, as the Davies directors most conversant with the matter were absent.

On the outside the rumor is that the Davies company has purchased the real estate in fee simple, on which the mill is situated, from Mr. Grinbaum, and acquired full control of the plantation.

Hana plantation, as it is best known, under August Unna's management, ran as high as ten or twelve thousand tons of sugar a season. Later the tonnage dwindled, but under the present management of John Chalmers the estate is being built up again. Its growing crop for this season is looking splendid.

John Lane Disclaims

EDITOR STAR:—Will you kindly permit a space in the columns of your paper so as to enable me to present my views before your many readers regarding the article which appeared editorially in your issue of yesterday, entitled "The Native in Politics," for which as a whole I commend you highly, Mr. Editor, for the good opinion entertained and the kind sentiments expressed therein regarding the good qualities of the Hawaiian voters, excepting that portion which read as follows:

"Even a Hawaiian leader like John Lane, probably influenced by many harsh criticisms of the Islands electorate, recently made the remark, assuming he was quoted correctly in an interview not disclaimed, that Hawaiian voters were not intelligent enough for anything but 'straight ticket' voting."

Mr. Editor, I do not recall to mind the many harsh criticisms of the Islands electorate you referred to, which had influenced me, neither can I recall to mind an interview which I have stated "that Hawaiian voters were not intelligent enough for anything but 'straight ticket' voting." I do surely disclaim that statement as false and a misrepresentation of the good and high opinion entertained by me of the intelligence of my people, the Hawaiian voters.

The sentence reprinted by you, of Hon. John G. Woolley's address, should be reprinted as occasion may require hereafter, probably during the coming election, so as to relegate to the backwoods the few radicals that we have in this community who are more or less in public life for no other motive than that of personal gain.

Another Republican victory, Mr. Editor, in this Territory would insure good government and our legislative record speaks for the G. O. Party's good work in Hawaii and to the Legislature and the counties.

Thanking you for the space accorded me,

Respectfully yours,
JNO. C. LANE.

HILO LABOR UNION IS IN POLITICS

HILO, April 3.—About fifty members of the American Citizens' Labor Union accepted the invitation of Governor Keolawaa and attended the luau that he gave them at Cocoanut Island on Saturday. Supervisors Todd and Kalaiwa, as well as Hon. S. K. Kahana, assisted in their entertainment which lasted till three o'clock in the afternoon.

Adjournment was then made to the Waikeke boat house where a meeting was held at four o'clock. Governor Keolawaa spoke upon unionism and the good that could come from it, but they must all be firm and pull together and remember that "in union is strength." He advised the longshoremen to join with them, add to their number and add to their strength. The speaker for the formal dip this afternoon. She was allowed to go down on the ways about ten feet, and after the trial was over her builders expressed themselves as satisfied.

Donations from the following people were received this morning for the "Hawaii." Mrs. Walter P. Frenz, main plan rail; Mrs. R. C. Ingram, pennant; one case of preserved pineapples from A. W. Eames and another from James Dole.

HAD TRIAL LAUNCH

The yacht Hawaii that will be launched today at six o'clock, was given a trial launching this morning by her builders, Sorenson & Lyle, to see that everything was in working order.

EDWARD SEWALL SEEKS A CREW

EIGHT MEN YET SHY AND THE SHIP WAS HOPED TO SAIL TOMORROW.

It is proving a difficult task to secure a crew for the ship Edward Sewall which is wanted to get away tomorrow for the Atlantic coast.

Union sailors in port are waiting for coastal trips at $40 per month and pass superfluously the blackboard wherein it is announced that the Sewall is in need of men. Only $25 is paid an A. B. deep water.

This morning a young Hawaiian, who has still to become a sailor, was signed. Three Filipinos, sailors, got on the articles and a Mexican and Porto Rican, doubtful, were taken.

Captain Quick staid away from the office of United States Shipping Commissioner Army, making it a difficult task for the commissioner to sign on men. For example: A steward and a cook presented themselves, apparently good men, but the captain had left no word as to what wages he wanted to pay a cook or a steward and these men had to be sent to look for him to get instructions in writing before the signing of the articles could be proceeded with. A couple of good, husky young easterners were signed on later in the day and an old sailor, sailmaker and all-round sea-dog got his fist on the papers before noon. Eight men are still needed and it had been intended to get the ship away tomorrow.

She will probably not sail, as it is, until Monday, although today she may anchor outside the harbor.

Since all the shipping masters, bad, indifferent and good, have been discouraged from the waterfront it is extremely difficult to raise a deep water crew.

MR. ALFRED PLEAU.

PERUNA STRENGTHENS THE ENTIRE SYSTEM.

"Two years ago, an accident necessitated my confinement for several weeks. The good health I had enjoyed was slipping away and there developed a complication of diseases. My physician said my case was one of general debility.

"Among the many ailments which developed was a serious attack of catarrh, which annoyed me considerably and kept me awake whole nights.

"I decided to give Peruna a trial and soon found it acting as a wonderful tonic to my system. The catarrh grew less severe and shortly afterward disappeared, as did also the various other maladies.

"I attribute my prompt relief and ultimate cure entirely to the use of Peruna and gladly recommend it."

Ask your druggist for a copy of our booklet, "The His of Life," giving instructions covering the most effective use of Peruna. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists. The following wholesale druggists will supply the retail trade in Honolulu, Hawaii: Benson, Smith & Co., Honolulu Drug Co., and Hobron Drug Co.

SPORT NOTES

The second and third cars in the New York-to-Paris race arrived in California today. The Italian car is in San Jose, and the French car is in Bakersfield.

Frank Gotch, the champion wrestler of America, easily defeated Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," last night in a match for the championship of the world.

Gotch won the first fall and Hack immediately withdrew from the arena.

A large entry list is expected in the one club golf tournament which will be played tomorrow morning on the links of the Country Club.

Play will start at ten-thirty, and members can enter up to ten o'clock at the club house.

Hans Froesecher and Frank Kanne met last night in the box office of the Orpheum theater, and signed the articles and posted forfeits for their wrestling match which will be held on the night of April 18 at the above mentioned place.

At last night's meeting the name of Sam Johnson for referee was mentioned, which was acceptable by both parties, but whether he will consent to act remains to be seen.

Every minute detail has been arranged for the launching of the cup racer "Hawaii," from the yard of Sorenson & Lyle today at six o'clock.

A large force of men was busy yesterday getting the shed down which has housed the "Hawaii" from the day that her keel was laid up to yesterday. The ways leading out to the water have been properly greased in readiness to receive the cradle which holds the yacht, as soon as the word launch is given. Miss Mary Kaul Wilcox will be ready with the bottle of sparkling grape which has been presented by Mrs. P. Ryan, and as the trim little racer gathers stern-way, the sound of breaking glass will be heard, and the words "I christen thee 'Hawaii'" will be received with many cheers from the large crowd which is expected to be on hand.

Berger will be on hand with his band, and the strains of the "Star Spangled Banner" will resound to the skies above, as the Hawaii slides into the waters of Honolulu harbor.

After the launching is over the Hawaii will be anchored off the shipyard, and she will remain there until the masts arrive which are expected some time the middle of the month.

Just as soon as the masts arrive they will be stepped, and the finishing touches to the yacht will be made. She will be given several tuning up trials before she starts on her journey to San Pedro, which will be about the 5th of May.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

HETTY GREEN'S DAUGHTER TO WED

SYLVIA GREEN.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chalmers, of Waimanalo, Prof. and Mrs. P. L. Horne were among the passengers to the Coast by the Alameda this week.

On Wednesday last, March 25th, at Pahala, Kau, Mrs. George H. Robertson of Honolulu entertained the ladies of Kau at a luncheon in honor of the first anniversary of the birth of her grandson, George Marcos Robertson, whose health was enthusiastically pledged. Toasts to the father, mother, grandfather and grandmother were also honored and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The invited guests included Mrs. George M. Robertson, Miss Robertson, Mrs. Housarrat, Miss Levy, Mrs. Ogg, Mrs. Kauhane, Mrs. Forrest, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Bertelman, Mrs. Hewitt, Mrs. Campsie, Mrs. Lind, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Schwallie, Miss Willis, Mrs. Peterman, Mrs. Lee Poy and Mrs. Lee Hong.—Hilo Tribune.

Mrs. Fred Carter was hostess at a very pleasant afternoon tea on Wednesday at her home on Kalia Road. Most of the ladies present brought sewing and several charmingly social hours were spent. During the time Mrs. Joel Cohen sang a number of pleasing selections. Dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon. Among those present were Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. A. A. Hobson, Mrs. C. L. Rhodes, Mrs. F. E. Steere, Mrs. Jerome Arendt, Mrs. Will J. Cooper, Mrs. J. C. Cohen, Mrs. Bailey, and Mrs. Thompson.

The marriage of Mr. Peter T. Phillips and Mrs. Florence Edna Edwards was celebrated quietly at St. James' Episcopal Church last Thursday, Mar. 27th. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Canon Hilton. Mrs. W. H. Rickard, mother of the bride was present, as was her brother, W. J. Rickard. Rev. Fenton-Smith assisted at the marriage. Mr. Phillips is very well known in Hilo and his recent appointment to the position of purser of the Inter-Island S. S. Mauna Kea caused pleasure to a host of friends. The newly married couple left for Honolulu by the Mauna Kea and will reside at the capital.—Hilo Tribune.

General R. H. Pratt, U. S. A., retired, of Denver, is visiting Honolulu in company with his wife. They arrived here Monday by the Manchuria. General Pratt served throughout the Civil War as a volunteer and afterwards originated the plan for educating the Indians by means of industrial schools, and became the superintendent of the famous Carlisle school, which place he held until about four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal D. Mead left on the Alameda on Wednesday for a several months' visit to the Coast.

Madame Blanche Arral, who created a furor throughout Australia in her presentation of selections from grand opera in costume, is likely to appear here some time next month. W. D. Adams, manager of the Hawaiian Opera House, received advices from her manager yesterday to the effect that while en route to the mainland this month to fill engagements, she might stop off here for a recital. She is a woman of remarkable expression and has a lovely voice.

After nearly a year's absence on a tour around the world, Dr. Huddy and his sister Mrs. Hill returned by the Marama on Tuesday. Most of the time they spent in Europe, meeting quite a number of Honolulu folk in Germany, especially. They returned home by way of Australia where they visited for some time. Mrs. Hill is the mother of Mrs. W. F. Drake, who with other friends was at the wharf when the Marama docked.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay, of Kauai, returned on the Manchuria Monday from a trip to the Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Galt left in the Mauna Kea Tuesday for the Big Island.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Egan entertained very pleasantly on Thursday evening a few friends with dinner at their home on Prospect avenue. Those present besides the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Weight, and Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Cooper.

Those who have seen the progress made during the rehearsals of the "Mascoot" pronounce it to be more than surprising. Both principals and chorus are now practically letter perfect and the "action" is now occupying most of the attention. Some of the specialties and extras called for considerable drilling and stage work, and the group picturing requires careful attention. Mr. Herzer, who is directing both the music and stage management, pronounces himself as quite satisfied with the manner in which both are progressing.

It is seldom that principals and chorus have progressed so rapidly as the present ones have done and all looks well for the opening night, which will be within three weeks.

There is no doubt of a heavy attendance. The play itself is a favorite with those who have already seen it, and the Kunaia Boat Club for whose benefit it is being given have a very long list of friends who are their well wishers.

GEORGIA AFTER PROHIBITION

Some other cities in Georgia have added to the cost of the liquor license by making it worth $5000 and even $10,000. Others have made it so expensive that the ordinary 15-cent drink would cost from $5 up.

Augusta is just across the Savannah River from North Augusta, S. C., where the dispensary law still exists. The latter little town has acquired large commercial importance since prohibition went into effect in Georgia.

The bridge which spans the river has become the highway to license and freedom, and a business of from $2500 to $3500 a day has sprung up from Georgia patronage. Perhaps this trade is larger because liquor, under the dispensary system, comes only in pints and quarts which cannot be opened or drunk on the premises where sold.

Columbus, separated from Girard, Ala., by the Chattahoochee River, is having a similar experience.

The records of the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue in Atlanta show that during the first month of prohibition in Georgia 66 licenses permitting the sale of spirituous and malt liquors in the State were issued. Most of these licenses were issued to people giving Savannah as their place of business. Four or five Atlanta

It was certainly a good messenger who brought the news to your house that Ayer's Sarsaparilla makes the blood "rich and red." This means so much to those who are thin, pale, feeble, weak, and nervous. After Ayer's Sarsaparilla has cured you, carry the glad message to a friend or neighbor.

Perhaps you suffer from the effects of a warm climate. Prolonged warm weather seriously impairs the strength of many people. The digestion is slow, and the liver becomes sluggish. Impurities in the blood accumulate and cause that feeling of downheartedness and depression.

is of the greatest use in such cases. Its purifying, strengthening, and up-building properties will be of incalculable value to you.

As now made, Ayer's Sarsaparilla contains no alcohol.

THE LATEST ABOUT AUTOMOBILES

The following list of automobile fires should prove instructive, and it thoroughly studied and digested ought to help to reduce the rather too numerous automobile conflagrations:

A workman was using an electric grill underneath an automobile. The gasoline feed pipe was struck accidentally, making a hole. The escaping gasoline was ignited by the sparking of the armature on the drill. Loss severe to building and machines.

A short circuit in the electrical apparatus of a gasoline car resulted in the destruction of five automobiles, the garage and surrounding houses and barns.

Machine broke down and caught fire from lantern used to hunt the trouble.

Car in storage sprung a leak and the gasoline was ignited by a nearby light.

Electric spark on apparatus ignited gasoline fumes.

Tank of a car was pierced by a piece of pipe which flew up on the road. The escaping gasoline was ignited presumably by the sparking vibrator, resulting in an explosion.

Garage destroyed as a result of an employee dropping a match into a pool of water caused by overflow from a sewer and heavily coated with oil.

Inadvertent light bulb, accidentally dropped, broke and ignited gasoline used for cleaning several cars.

Gasoline leaked from a car tank to a pile of shavings and was ignited by a nearby light.

Careless dropping of match in garage ignited inflammables on floor and caused $15,000 loss. Same cause resulted in bad fire in another city.

Spontaneous combustion of waste and rags used in cleaning and painting caused a $50,000 loss in one city and $100,000 in another.

Burning brush in rear of a stable ignited fumes of tank belonging to adjacent garage, destroying the latter.

Defective electric wires in the building caused serious fire.

Car standing in street burned from

MORTGAGEE'S NOTICE OF INTENTION TO FORECLOSE AND OF SALE.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the power of sale contained in that certain mortgage made by Keawe Matao of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, to Naomi Kaahue, of said Honolulu, dated June 27, 1900, recorded in the Hawaiian Registry of Conveyances in Liber 207, page 327, which mortgage was duly assigned to Kala Kaahue by John K. Prendergast, the administrator of the estate of said Naomi Kaahue, deceased intestate, dated July 1906, the said Kala Kaahue, Assignee of said mortgage, intends to foreclose the same for condition broken, to wit: the non-payment of principal and interest when due.

Notice is also hereby given that after the expiration of three weeks from the date of this notice, the property conveyed by said mortgage and assignment will be sold at public auction at the auction rooms of James F. Morgan, Auctioneer, on Kaahumanu Street, in said Honolulu, on Monday, cigarette butt carelessly flicked aside by passerby.

Drunken owner attempted to fill his car tank with lamps burning. Usual result.

Gasoline used for cleaning automobiles with open lights in room. The expected happened.

Pilot light on a steam car set fire to the car.

Employee stepped on match which had fallen on saturated floor. Bad fire resulted.

Workman set fire to car with light he was using.

Employee struck a match to light lamps while tank was being filled. The explosion and subsequent fire ruined building and contents.

Cap was accidentally left off gasoline tank on car and spark from parlor match used in lighting lamps flew into filling hole. Explosion and bad loss.

Employee was filling car tank from vessel of the watering pot type. A portable lamp hanging on the car to light the operation fell and broke. The rapidly consuming filament ignited the gasoline fumes. Loss, $75,000.

Man stepped on a match, igniting waste. Negro boy, mistaking pan of gasoline for water, threw it on the fire. Garage destroyed.

Workman in automobile repair room stepped on a match, which ignited inflammables. Entire building destroyed.

Employee, working under machine with electric light, accidentally broke the bulb. Gasoline from flooded carburetor was ignited by the filament.

Total loss of a garage from a fire caused by a short circuit in an electric automobile.

Cigar stub laid on a machine and forgotten caused bad fire.

Pail of gasoline ignited by employee who smoked near.

Gasoline dripping from machine was ignited by lamp with ventilating openings which had been placed on the floor.

Back fire in muffler set fire to machine while on the road.

April 20, 1908, at 12 o'clock noon of said day.

The property covered by said Mortgage and Assignment and intended to be sold consists of all of the right title and interest of said Keawe Matao in and to that certain piece or parcel of land situate at Kealakaha, Hamakua, Island of Hawaii, the same being more particularly described in Royal Patent (Grant) No. 1879 to Kahaia and Koaipaki, containing an area of 83 acres, more or less.

Terms of Sale:—Cash in U. S. Gold Coin; 10% of purchase price to be paid on fall of hammer; deeds to be stamped and drawn by attorney for Mortgagee at expense of purchaser.

For further particulars apply to C. F. Peterson, attorney for Mortgagee, Kaahumanu Street, or to said James F. Morgan, Auctioneer.

THE TREASURER'S COMMISSION

CAMPBELL'S TIME IS UP ON THE 13TH—GOVERNOR MAKES NO STATEMENT.

President Pinkham, of the Board of Health, is not the only head of a Territorial department whose term of office expires within a short time. Treasurer A. J. Campbell will also have filled the term for which he was appointed on the 13th of the present month, at the same time that Pinkham's commission expires.

Governor Frear stated yesterday that he had determined on neither of these appointments as yet, as he still has some eleven days in which to make up his mind. In the matter of the report current some time ago that Treasurer Campbell is not a candidate for reappointment, owing to urgent solicitation of business associates that he confine his energies exclusively to private business, Governor Frear expressed ignorance, stating that such an expression had never reached him from Mr. Campbell—in fact that the Treasurer had neither asked for nor indicated that he did not wish reappointment.

Both of the appointments in question, however, the Governor stated would be closed up in due time, and before he leaves for Washington.

Other Island Delegates

Delegates from Maui to the Republican Territorial Convention are as follows: G. H. Dunn, Ed. Waiholo, C. R. Lindsay, Lahaina; David Taylor, Honolulu; Rev. J. Nua, Waihee; W. E. Bal, W. T. Robinson and Augustine Enos, Wailuku; H. P. Baldwin, Wm. Keane, C. Hansen and Jno. Vasconcellos, Puunene; A. F. Tavares, Makawao; J. McLeod, Kihai; S. E. Kalama, W. O. Aiken, Rev. J. K. Kalino and A. J. Gomes, Hanalei; Joseph Emmesley, Huelo; Horace Kekumu, Keane; Henry Reuter, Nahluku; Levi J. Joseph, Kipahulu; J. P. Inaina, Kaupo; T. T. Meyers, Pukoo; J. U. Ahinui, Kanaikali. Hana, Honouliuli and Halawa have not reported any election. John M. Ross was elected at Wai-kaunalo, and W. G. Walker at Laupahoehoe, Hawaii. Hilo elected E. E. Richards, S. L. Desha, Charles Akau, J. Kai Ja., A. M. Cabrinha.

GUAM MUST BELIEVE.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Captain Edward J. Dorn, Naval Governor of Guam, has issued an executive order designed to compel the residents of that remote Pacific island to behave themselves or suffer severe penalties.

According to his edict, "every resident of the island having no apparent means of subsistence, who has the physical ability to work and who begs or neglects to apply himself or herself to some lawful calling; every person found loitering about saloons, dram-shops or gambling houses or tramping or straying through the country without visible means of support; every person known to be a pick-pocket, thief or burglar, when found loitering about any gambling house, cockpit or any outlying barrio, and every idle or dissolute person of either sex caught occupying premises with the consent of the owner thereof, shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of $250 or imprisonment for one year, or both."

DON'T NEGLECT A COLD.

Perhaps you believe you will be able to throw off every cold you contract. You may have done so many times before, and yet the very next cold may develop into pneumonia. You cannot always tell the condition of your system, and it is better to take precaution than to risk this dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will promptly cure your cold and leave your system in a healthy condition. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

JOHN WRIGHT GETS THE ESTATE

By a conveyance filed for record on Friday in the Bureau of Conveyances, Cecil Brown, administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Wright, deceased, transfers for nominal consideration, all of the property of the estate to her husband John Wright, pursuant to the ruling of the courts. This amounts to some $50,000 in real estate, and personal property.

This is the case in which Wright deeded all his property to his wife, at the time he thought himself about to die, and neglected to have it re-transferred upon recovering. His wife then died suddenly intestate, and her relatives entered claim for half the property under the law. The husband, however, beat them out in the equity courts and has now been restored to the whole estate.

DESCRIBES AFRICAN HORRORS

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 14.—A vivid description of atrocities alleged to have been perpetrated upon slave laborers on cocoa plantations on the island of Principe and Saint Tome, Portuguese West Africa, was given in an address on "Children's Lives in Africa" by General Joubert Pienaar, of South Africa, at tonight's session of the international congress on the welfare of the child under the auspices of the National Mother's Congress.

The speaker said that he had formed an association with the intention of petitioning the Portuguese government and on behalf of the slaves to establish missionary settlements to civilize and Christianize them and to act as a guard over slave traders and to report the atrocities to the association. "This seems to me," he said, "the only effective way of putting a stop to this iniquity."

He asked for the support of the mother's congress in his mission of humanity. After stating that "the cruelties meted out to these degraded human beings on the mainland were beyond description," General Pienaar continued: "Children are torn away from the breasts of their mothers and sold as slaves. Slaves in the employ of their taskmasters are beaten to death. Men, women and children are mutilated. Often after a native has been done to death he is quartered and the different portions of his body are hung up on trees to terrify the other natives."

In her report as national corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edwin C. Grace comments favorably upon the suggestion for the establishment in Washington of a mother's and children's building as a permanent memorial to Mrs. Theodore Byney, the founder of the congress, to be duplicated in many grounds all over the country by the mother's clubs.

AGAINST THE UNWRITTEN LAW.

RICHMOND, Va., Mar. 16.—Former Judge Alden Bell, member of the Legislature from Culpeper, has engineered through the Assembly a bill to abolish the "unwritten law" in this State. Judge Bell was moved by his action by the many recent tragedies that have grown out of appeals to the uncodified statute. His bill, which has passed and has received the gubernatorial signature, provides:

"That whenever, in a prosecution for felonious homicide or for assault with felonious intent, the accused has been permitted to introduce evidence tending to show that he believed a wrong to have been committed upon some member of his family, or one occupying such relation, whether the same

SCHOOL, NOT JAIL

JUDGE DOLE SENTENCES TWO YOUTHS WHO FORGED POST OFFICE ORDERS.

Judge Dole this morning sentenced Moses Lono and Sam Luhiau, the two young students of the Hilo Boarding School, convicted of raising a post office money order from $3 to $30 and collecting the money on it, to serve two years each in the Boys' Industrial School at hard labor, and to pay the costs of the prosecution. In passing sentence the court expressed his gratification in being able to send the boys to the reform school, instead of having to commit them to the Oahu prison. This is the first time that boy convicts of the federal government have been sent to the reform school, and results from a recent opinion of the Department of Justice requested by Judge Dole and the favorable action of the Board of Education on the matter a few days ago.

Whether or not it will be possible to have the several boys sent to serve sentences some time ago for robbing the quartermaster's warehouse of a lot of metal which they sold to Rosenberg and other junk dealers, transferred to the Industrial school, Judge Dole this morning expressed an uncertainty, while at the same time stating that he hoped that it might be done. District Attorney Breckons, however, was of the opinion that this will be possible, and steps will probably be taken towards this end.

The sentence imposed on Lono and Luhiau was the minimum permitted by law in such cases. The boys of the Kamehameha school will go into camp next Monday for a week at Makua, on the Koolau side of the island. This is a regular yearly outing of the school, and always looked forward to with much expectancy. This year, however, the fact that shooting permits could not be secured has been a disappointment.

Ladies who are looking for swell Easter wear should see the fine new line of Easter goods at Sachs', to be shown all next week at selling prices. La Magnita & Waldorf-Astoria's celebrated brand of a clear Havana Cigar! A perfect sugar. To smoke one is a blissful dream. Lewis & Co. Ltd., Cigar Dealers, 169 King street, Telephone 240. Smokers try one of these without delay.

On Sunday afternoon at four o'clock Mrs. H. von Holt will be at home to the members and friends of the Young Women's Christian Association at their Waikiki cottage. From the Tropics to the Arctic is a far cry, but on this afternoon we of the Southland will be told many things of interest concerning our sisters in Labrador. Ladies most cordially invited.

Officers elected by Honolulu Lodge No. 616, B. P. O. Elks, a week ago, were formally installed at the meeting last evening, which was largely attended. The new officers are as follows: W. H. McInerney, exalted ruler; O. L. Sorenson, esteemed leading knight; J. D. Dougherty, esteemed lay knight; S. M. Johnson, esteemed lecturing knight; H. C. Easton, secretary; H. M. Drummond, treasurer; G. J. Nell, tiler; E. H. Paris, trustee to serve three years.

Governor Frear stated yesterday that while he had received an invitation from the California committee in charge of the reception of the fleet to be present and take part in some of the welcoming demonstration in San Francisco, he does not anticipate being able to do so owing to the necessity of his being in Washington at the invitation of President Roosevelt by the 12th of May. The Governor will leave here on the 24th inst. by the Korea, in company with several representative citizens of the Territory, as well as by his wife and daughter.

FAREWELL DINNER.

A stag dinner is to be given this evening at Scotty's by the local newspapermen and others in honor of E. I. Irwin of the Bulletin repertorial force who leaves probably next week for California to take up literary work, and A. P. Taylor, chief of the detective force, who also leaves in a few days for an extended vacation on the mainland. There will probably be about twenty in the party.

THE OTHER WAY.

"Of course," remarked Staylate, "some things go without saying." "Yes," rejoined Miss Wearyun, as she glanced at the clock and tried to strangle a yawn, "and some others say without going."

TAYLOR'S MISSION IN SAN FRANCISCO

Chief of Detectives A. P. Taylor will have a mission to perform early in his vacation trip to the mainland, leaving here in the transport Buford. Provided with a letter of introduction to Rear Admiral Charles Mitchell Thomas, commanding the sixteen battleships of the Atlantic fleet now in the Pacific, from Secretary of the Territory Mott-Smith, Taylor will acquaint the Admiral with local conditions, the dimensions of the police force and the method adopted here while the Big Four squadron was in port, when the master-at-arms called daily or oftener at the police station to look up any who happened to be in the toils for slight breaches of peace, or offenses not so slight. In this way it is probable that when the fleet arrives here a system will be ready for immediate application, a system adapted to the peculiar conditions of the city, every city having its own peculiar conditions.

TOMORROW DOINGS AT ATKINSON PARK

A meeting was held at the Government Stables last night by Col. Saml. Johnson, president of the Atkinson Baseball League. The purpose of the meeting was to arrange for the last championship game which takes place between the Honolulu Police and Ocean Views. The Police won the championship of the first series and the Ocean Views the second.

Chas. Hustace Jr. was present at the meeting and granted the use of the band for the occasion.

The beautiful cup presented by Mr. Hustace to the team winning the championship will be on exhibition at E. O. Hall & Son's store.

The second game of the three out of five between Co. F. N. G. H., and the 20th Infantry of Camp Shafter for a cup presented by one of the officers of the National Guard will also be played.

FEW OFFENDERS

One of the smallest Saturday morning calendars in many months, was the order of events this morning at Police court, only ten violators of the law being up for punishment.

Mary Williams, who pleaded guilty yesterday to the charge of vagrancy, was sent over for three months. George Anakelo, charged with assault and battery, was fined $3. The complaining witness asked the court not to punish George too severely as he was drunk at the time that the assault was committed.

Two drunks were fined sums amounting to $10. The charge of drunkenness against Ben Whitney was stricken from the calendar. The rest of the cases were continued until next week.

Attorney F. W. Milverton arrived in the Mauna Kea today.

THREE MORE PLAYS

"The Belle of New York," which was such a success last night, will be repeated tonight. After tonight's play, there will be only three more plays presented. Monday night's offering is to be "Floradora," to be followed Tuesday night and at the Wednesday matinee by "The Gelsa Girl." Then, by way of variety, the Polards will give a two nights of high-class vaudeville, in which they are especially good. It is an unusual thing to find a first-class opera company that put on a vaudeville performance presentably, and that these little actors are at their best in this class of theatrical amusements only goes to show that they are perfect little artists in all things histrionical. It's the lure of the boards, the intoxication of applause and appreciation, and the subtle inspiration of genius that transforms them from bashful children into grand ladies, buffons, or swaggering buccaners. Those who enjoy art for art's sake should attend these last two performances no less than those who have a genuine appreciation of good vaudeville.

HOSPITAL INCIDENT

There will be an investigation by the trustees of the Queen's Hospital into an incident which occurred there last Monday night. Eddie Cummings, suffering from pneumonia, was sent to the institution with a trained nurse in an automobile and before being admitted was subjected to an examination in the machine by the house physician, Dr. Hunt. The nurse protested vigorously and the examination was stopped.

ANOTHER POPULAR EXCURSION TO Kilauea Volcano

The fine new steamship MAUNA KEA will leave Honolulu Tuesday, April 7th, at noon; returning the party will arrive by steamship MAUNA LOA on Tuesday, April 14th, at daylight. Fare for the round trip $51.00. This excursion allows one day in Hilo, three days at the Volcano, and the circuit of the Island of Hawaii. A rare opportunity is here offered to see the crater in unusual activity; residents of the district declare it to be the most spectacular eruption in years. The fern and koa forests, the tree mounds and other natural wonders in the neighborhood are most interesting. Upon the return trip, members of the party who desire, may at a small additional cost, leave the steamer at Napoosoo and drive overland through Kona, again boarding the vessel at Kailua. For information regarding the trip apply to Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., Ltd. Corner Fort and Merchant Streets.
