SUGAR TRUST GETS IT NOW DEMOCRATS TAKE UP ELECTION CONTEST

DEMOCRATIC ANSWER TO LANE; SAY REPUBLICANS DID WHAT WAS DONE IN KAKAOKO

A meeting of the Democratic county central committee is being held this afternoon, to consider the contest situation. The party leaders have interviewed many witnesses and are collating evidence with a view to making a counter contest to the Lane contest, if able to produce evidence. It is said, however, that there is no county office in connection with which there is any chance to make a contest, most of the Republican majorities being beyond even the most unreliable rumors of election day pilikia. McCandless, however, has declared for a contest all along the line, and he makes sweeping, though not specific charges of fraud.

The Democratic county committee began this morning its preparations of evidence in answer to the Republican contest to unseat Mayor Fern. A crowd of witnesses were at the headquarters at ten o'clock, to be examined by Col. McCarthy, who proceeded to take down their statements.

It appears from the testimony being gathered on the Democratic side that the defense to the Lane petition will be, first that not more than 35 voters cast ballots after five o'clock, instead of 64 as alleged in the petition. It will be claimed also that these voters were mostly Republican voters, brought in Republican autos; that the representatives of both parties agreed to what was done, and that it was all done anyhow, by a Republican election officer's orders.

"To throw out the vote of that precinct on the grounds alleged," said McCarthy this morning, "would simply mean that any chairman or precinct election officers, being Republican, can invalidate the whole vote of a precinct by some illegal proceeding, where the vote happens to go our way. As the election machinery is in the hands of the Republicans, such a decision would place in their hands absolute power to nullify the vote in precincts where we are strong. Whatever was done in the sixth of the Fourth on election day was done by the orders of Job Batchelor, Republican, chairman of the election board in the precinct.

"Our witnesses state that at most, not over 35 voters cast ballots after five o'clock. Batchelor himself has been quoted to me as having said eighteen or twenty. The last man to vote left the booth at twenty-five minutes past five. We have the testimony of this man and of the election officers as to what took place when he voted. Our witnesses further tell me that it was the Republicans who hustled the late votes in. Before the time the polls were to close—at five o'clock—all the known Democratic votes in the precinct had been cast. Our runners had ceased to work, and our hacks stood idle. The Republican runners were still running, and their autos were hustling voters to take place in line.

"Telephone messages were sent to the Secretary's office by Chillingworth and others, asking what could be done, if anything, to give the men in line a chance to vote. Chillingworth, the first man to ask this, was a Republican candidate. The secretary's office answered everyone the same, reading through the telephone a decision of Justice Hartwell, that at closing time, all voters who were actually in the booth could vote. Treasurer Conkling, who as chief clerk had charge of the last election, came along at about five o'clock, and was asked for his views. He pulled from his pocket the same Hartwell decision, and read it. The crowd in line was then allowed to enter the booths and vote as fast as they were able.

"I do not think there was any intentional fraud on anybody's part. But when we can show that whatever was done, was done by a Republican precinct chairman, after a consultation with the Republican administration in the Capitol, and at the instance of Republican candidates on the spot, I do not see how the courts can possibly throw out the precinct vote because it shows a Democratic majority. It is sure that if there had been a Lane majority, all this talk of illegal voting would never have been heard."

Among Republicans there is considerable opposition to the Lane contest, especially among those who were at the polling place and were a party to the general agreement to let the voters in line cast their ballots. It is said that there have been some lively discussions in committee meetings at which the matter was discussed, some of the members complaining that they were being put in the position of going back on their agreement.

BANKRUPT WITH VERY SMALL ASSETS

Jiro Santoki, a Japanese merchant of Aiea, Honolulu, this morning filed his petition in bankruptcy, through his attorney, A. S. Humphreys. This showed that the unsecured creditors claims amount to $12,712.78, being for merchandise sold and delivered, moneys borrowed, and an amount of $742.75 for a judgment secured against Santoki by Harold G. Spencer as trustee of M. Saki a bankrupt, on November 21 last. Personal property is assessed at $120. The debts due to petitioner are said to be $5,024.40. His assets are given at $5,851.65. Among the creditors is the firm of Hackfeld & Co., to whom the petitioner is indebted in the sum of $2,271.43.

"PURE FOOD" LAWS NEEDED FOR POI

Food Commissioner Blanchard considers that it is time that a legal standard was set for poi. He thinks the public will recognize the undoubted advantages of having a standard and that therefore, there should be no difficulty in having it passed through the Legislature when it is presented during the forthcoming session.

The difficulty will be in setting a standard. With a view to fixing this, Commissioner Blanchard is now conducting tests of samples of poi that he has taken. Already samples have been analyzed, and varying percentages of solids and water have been found. In several instances as much as eighty percent of water has been discovered, while in others it has been much less. The Commissioner will not attempt to set a standard until he has treated at least one hundred samples.

The matter of making the owners of poi making establishments keep their premises clean is still engaging his attention, and he hopes in the near future to have poi manufactured under better conditions.

JUDGE ROBERTSON PROTESTS AGAINST AUTOS ON TANTALUS

Protests are being made against the proposed repeal of the municipal ordinance which prevents automobiles from going up the Tantalus road. The ordinance has passed first reading, and apparently had a good chance of passing, but some of the owners of Tantalus homes are making objections to it.

United States Judge Robertson has sent in a protest to Mayor Fern, on the ground that it is not safe for those who use horses on the road, to allow autos. Robertson is the owner of a home on the heights and is one of those who does not use an auto. He thinks that it is unfair, in the present condition of the road, to allow autos. The road is narrow for many long stretches, and is along precipitous mountain sides. Those who are agitating for the repeal of the ordinance claim that the horses here are now all accustomed to seeing autos and do not take a scare when they meet one. One suggestion made in connection with the matter is that a special low speed limit be made for the Tantalus road.

The discussion has led to some suggestions of plans for regrading and widening the Tantalus road. The Tantalus drive, in the opinion of many affords finer scenic views than the Pali drive. It is entirely missed by many tourists because they cannot make it in automobiles and do not care to take carriages. If the road were widened, it is claimed, the objection to allowing autos on it would be removed.

MANCHURIA IN AND OUT

With slightly over 10,000 tons of cargo for the mainland, of which five hundred tons are from Honolulu, the Pacific Mail steamer Manchuria left port at ten o'clock this morning, having been in harbor just over twenty-six hours. The liner arrived off the port at eight o'clock yesterday and was alongside the Alakea street wharf by ten o'clock. She had on board 11,759 tons of freight, of which 279 tons were for Honolulu, 88 through saloon passengers, nine saloon passengers for Honolulu, and 172 steerage passengers for Honolulu.

The Manchuria's cargo for Honolulu comprised general merchandise and all day yesterday the laborers were busy discharging it on to the wharf. The five hundred tons put on board the vessel for San Francisco were pineapples, coffee, bananas and rice, with a fair amount of general sundries. Among the through cargo were 902 bales of raw silk, valued at $496,160.

In addition to the officials of the Philippine Insular government who, as mentioned in another column are en route for Washington, the Manchuria had on board several of the members of the Pacific Coast Commercial party, who have been touring China, Japan and the Philippines, investigating trade conditions. The entire party was welcomed enthusiastically all along the route, but particularly in Manila where a large crowd assembled on the waterfront to welcome the visitors. Several entertainments were organized in their honor and they were made the guests of the most prominent business men in the capital of the Philippines. The members of the party speak in high terms of the treatment they received at the different ports of call and are of opinion that their visit will tend to increase trade and improve the relations between business men of the Pacific Coast and those of the Orient.

R. P. Schwerin, vice president and general manager of the Pacific Mail S. S. Company, is also a passenger on the Manchuria, returning to San Francisco after a tour of inspection through the Orient. Schwerin visited the agencies of the company in Japan, China and Manila, being in Japan when the announcement that the T. K. K. had severed its business relationship with the Pacific Mail was made. He saw a good deal of the Philippines and it is stated that several changes in the policy of the Pacific Mail will be made as a result of the trip.

During the voyage across from the Orient several entertainments were arranged on board, Thanksgiving day being the occasion of a grand concert. The steerage passengers for Honolulu include 72 Filipinos, 71 Japanese, 24 Chinese and five Hindus. These Asiatics are for work on the plantations.

"OLD GLORY" AGAIN.

By special request the fine picture series entitled "The Birth of Old Glory" will be repeated at the Savoy theater this evening. School children and a number of other people who heard about this fine film but did not get a chance to see it last week are making the request.

Ten Chinese gamblers, playing pal-kau, were surprised by the police yesterday in the bush near the junction of the Walkiki and Katmuki car lines. The dice and about $2.50 in money were seized and the ten defendants admitted to bail of $10. When the cases were called on this morning there was no response, and the bail was declared forfeited. They have since retained the services of Attorney Humphreys and intend to have the matter reopened.

TAFT CARRYING OUT HIS PROGRAM AS A TRUST BUSTER

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

NEW YORK, November 28.—The federal government has begun suit under the Sherman act for the dissolution of the so-called sugar trust. The action is one that affects all the states and territories and is of the widest scope in its application. In addition to the principal defendant, the American Sugar Refining Company, commonly known as the "sugar trust," there are twenty-nine defendant corporations, in many different states.

The government's complaint charges an illegal combination in restraint of trade, and its allegations cover most of the United States. Relief is asked in the form of an order of court dissolving the combination.

The complaint asks further that a receivership be declared for all the defendant companies if necessary for the prosecution of the suit, and the carrying on of their business in the meantime. Representatives of the attorney-general have been working for many months on the evidence in the case, and sweeping charges are made in the complaint.

Among the defendants included are the Spreckels Refinery Company of Philadelphia, the Western Sugar Refinery, the California Beet Sugar and Refinery Association, the Alameda refinery and the Spreckels and Union refinery interests on the Pacific coast.

Among the individuals made defendants personally, aside from the corporations are the Havemeyers, John D. Spreckels, Adolph Spreckels and President Joseph Smith of the Mormon Church, all of whom are charged with personal interest in the operations alleged to have been carried on in violation of the Sherman act.

The suit begun today ranks with the Standard Oil and Tobacco trust cases, now before the Supreme court, as a part of the programme of the Taft administration in enforcement of the Sherman law.

KAHULUI AND HILO ARE REMEMBERED

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 28.—The river and harbor appropriation estimates for the coming session of Congress amount to $30,096,698. Included in them are $250,000 for Hilo harbor work and $150,000 for Kahului, to carry on the breakwater work already planned.

ANOTHER ELECTION IN ENGLAND

(Special Cable to The Star.)

LONDON, November 28.—Parliament was dissolved today, and an election will follow on the issue of the power of veto in the House of Lords. The Liberals will appeal to the country on the issue made in the last election, of the prerogatives of the Lords. They will stand for taking away from the upper house the right of veto of measures passed by the Commons. All efforts to reach a compromise have failed, and it is expected that the election canvass will be a very lively one. The Lords are now fighting for their existence as a legislative body.

ILLINOIS HAS GROWN.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The new figures showing the population of the state of Illinois in the census of 1910 were given out today by the census bureau, showing a total of 5,638,591, an increase of sixteen and nine-tenths per cent since the last census.

DISTINGUISHED MANILA PARTY ON MANCHURIA

The committee to be named by Congress to investigate the sale and leases of friar lands in the Philippines will have the benefit of evidence, documentary and otherwise, which is being taken to Washington by a party of insular officials who are now on board the Manchuria. Captain Charles H. Sleeper, director of the bureau of lands; the Hon. Dean C. Worcester, secretary of the Interior; Frank W. Carpenter, insular executive secretary; Juan Villamor, attorney general; and C. W. Rheberg, head of the friar lands division of the bureau of lands, comprise the party making the trip to Washington. All are thoroughly familiar with the question and their testimony should go a long way towards influencing the findings of the committee making investigations.
Captain Sleeper has been at the head of the bureau of lands almost from its inception, and all the friar land business has been transacted under his immediate supervision. He has personally handled all the details of the friar land sales and his presence will be indispensable at a thorough investigation of these transactions.
While no joint committee of congress has as yet been appointed to investigate the matter, there is hardly any question as to the formation of one at the coming session, since both Senator Martin and the government authorities have expressed a desire to have the matter thoroughly gone into.
Captain Sleeper has with him all records and papers relating to the friar lands which could be obtained in the islands, and he is in a position to furnish any data or documents which might be deemed necessary by the investigators. Some of this matter has already been sent to Washington.
Dean C. Worcester delivered an address in the Y. M. C. A. lecture hall at Manila shortly before his departure, in which he outlined the policy of the government towards the non-Christian tribes in the islands, and which brought a howl of protest from all centers in the islands. Municipal councils, Filipino societies, clubs and individuals combined in denouncing the secretary of the Interior, and efforts were made to get Worcester removed from office. To this end a secret meeting of the members of the Assembly in Manila was held early this month, but no definite course was decided upon. A public meeting was called and met but the intervention of the police prevented the speakers from laying their charges before the public.

HILO JAIL NOW HAS STANDING ROOM ONLY.

HILO, November 25.—The local jail is overcrowded, with fifty-eight prisoners in a building to accommodate twenty-two. Many of these are Filipinos and temporary quarters have been erected in the jail yard, while the cells have been filled beyond the limit of air space allowed by law, there having been six men, it is said, in a cell built for two.

PANAMA TRADE PROMISES TO BRING PASSENGER STEAMERS

HILO Nov. 24.—"I believe that the development of the banana industry as proposed by Captain Clark, the representative of the United Fruit Co. who was in Hilo last week, is one of the most important matters that could possibly be imagined. The extent to which this matter will be carried and the enormous amount of money which it will bring to Hilo, if the plans go through, are far greater than the ordinary individual has any idea," said L. A. Thurston yesterday when asked for an expression of opinion on the United Fruit Co.'s plans. In continuing he said: "While Captain Clark did not state any definite price to me during his conversation, I understand that he mentioned the fact to others here that a better price would be expected here than in the West Indies, and that the figure might approximate 40 cents a bunch. This would be cash, paid on delivery on the wharf, and there would be no red ink returns from San Francisco to look forward to, as there have been before in this trade.

"Captain Clark's proposition is to start at once making contracts with all those who are interested in the business and to begin shipping immediately by the local steamers, provided that the business shows that it can be built up to the degree desired. By this he means that the United Fruit Co. does not want to ship by other than their own steamers any longer than necessary, and they are willing to go into the business provided that the prospect will warrant the belief that in two years time they will be able to put on a steamer of their own, of 3,000 tons register, which is about the size of the Hilonian. For this they want 20,000 bunches of bananas every twenty days. If the supply here will keep up after that they want to put on a second steamer of their own, which will handle the same amount of the fruit and mean a steamer every ten days.

"I asked Captain Clark about the steamer having accommodations for passengers, and he stated that the steamers which they had and which they wished to use for this work had accommodations for 110 passengers and that they expected to go into that business also. He stated that the company had two steamers which had been taken off the run from Jamaica to New York when the five new vessels had been put on, and that they were anxious to develop the banana trade between Hawaii and the Coast to such an extent that they could use both of these vessels here.

"In speaking further on the same line, he made an important statement in saying that he did not wish to have fruit shipped by other than their own vessels any longer than it could be helped, on account of the fact that such fruit would have to be wrapped, while with their own vessel, no wrapping would be needed. As the covering on bananas and the labor needed for this work amount to a good deal, it may be seen that this is something strongly in favor of the grower.

"To see what this means to Hilo, if the matter is taken up and pushed ahead, one must do a little figuring. At the rate of 20,000 bunches of bananas every ten days, at 40 cents per bunch, there would be $8000 paid out in this city every ten days for the fruit alone. This would amount to practically $300,000 a year and would be distributed among the people who would spend every cent of it here. In addition to this the money which would be brought here by the fact of a passenger steamer arriving from the Coast every ten days, bringing tourists by the hundred, would be the greatest possible thing for Hilo.

"The plan as I understand it, would be to make Los Angeles the distributing point on the Coast, and Captain Clark told me that the company would be willing to make three stops in the islands to pick up bananas, probably in Honolulu, certainly in Hilo, and possibly at either some Kona or Maui port. The matter is certainly one of the greatest importance, and the fact that the United Fruit Co. is willing to make contracts immediately should seriously be considered by anyone who has an opportunity to go into this business either on a large or small scale."

FOR RAW FRUIT TRADE.

There is money in bananas, and in other fruits as well, if the raw fruit export business be started right. Half measures and transportation makeshifts will not do. On the part of the growers proper methods of selection and packing must be adopted. For the shipping modern steamers with cool storage and refrigerator plant must be provided. The selling agencies at coast ports will have to make fair contracts and be under obligation of making honest returns.

When the bottom fell out of the sugar industry in Jamaica some years ago, the island went into the fruit business in a scientific way. Accommodation for tourists was coupled with the fruit carrying facilities. Jamaica, as a result of the whole scheme, realized a degree of prosperity such as the sugar industry had never brought. Hawaii can have a big fruit trade in addition to a still increasing sugar export, if only individuals and development organizations go the right way about it.

It is argued in favor of throwing the Tantalus road open to automobile traffic that conditions have so changed since the prohibitory order was made as to remove the objections to motor vehicles which were then generally recognized as unanswerable. Horses are now trained to have no fear of the machines, and, as to perils of curves and grades, it is contended that the road to the mountain resort is less dangerous than that across Nuuanu pali. On the other hand, it is objected by some people that the Tantalus road is not wide enough safely to admit automobile traffic, when the many sharp turns on its sinuous route are considered. To widen the road and provide guard railings at places where advisable are expedients only requiring money, as also is the alternative of building a separate road for automobiles. In the meantime the pending ordinance for removing the embargo from the road as it stands might properly be submitted to a public hearing, where all interested in the question might express their minds.

There is an open door under her own control for the United States in the Philippines, for a commerce that has practically no limit of expansion. Trade can be developed not only between this country and the Philippine group, but between those islands and the neighboring Orient. A great variety of raw materials for home manufactures, both for domestic consumption and export, can be derived from the Philippines. If the opportunities there are improved, the Philippine purchase should in time prove a bargain scarcely less profitable than the Alaska one. It will be a great thing for the Filipinos themselves, although some of them as yet do not appear to realize it. Their manifestations of discontent at American methods will tend both to delay the development of the islands and postpone their political independence.

President Diaz says the attempted revolution was only politics. What does he think people think it was?

A shrewd question was that asked by the spokesman of a distinguished party of Chinese investigating the prison systems of Europe. "Does it make them good?" he inquired regarding the comfort the prisoners seemed to enjoy. "In your prisons they are comfortable," he observed after inspecting some London jails. "Do they stop being bad because you are so kind to them? They look contented. They look happy. It must do them good." Then with a sigh he added: "It is so hard to make bad people good. How is it to be done?" Humane treatment of prisoners is one thing, but the coddling of criminals is different. Prison reform in civilized countries tends too much toward eliminating the idea of punishment altogether. The necessary restraint of lawbreakers should have some terror retained which will keep many from doing the things that will land them in prison. Make the jails and penitentiaries too inviting and there will be no lack of people to occupy them. Pampering of prisoners goes against efforts at their reclamation.

MID-PACIFIC INSTITUTE OPENS

The opening of the new Mid-Pacific Institute buildings in Manoa valley on Saturday afternoon was a notable occasion and brought together a large assemblage of visitors. After an invocation by the Rev. W. B. Oleson, the Rev. Francis W. Damon, president of the institute, delivered an address of welcome. He spoke with enthusiasm of the institute's work among the many different races here and expressed his gratification at the large attendance.

The Rev. Doremus Scudder also laid emphasis on the interracial importance of the institute as a part of Hawaii's educational work. "God has created and ordained Hawaii," he said, "to be an object lesson of twentieth century friendship between the East and the West. Here the children of After the 'Humming Chorus' from Cavaleria Rusticana, by the students of Kawaiahae Seminary, addresses were delivered by Rev. T. Okumura upon "Our Japanese Students"; Mr. Tse Ki Uen on "Our Chinese Students"; Rev. U. S. Kim on "Our Korean Students"; and Rev. O. H. Gulick on "Our Hawaiian and Other Students."

A chorus from Mills School students gave an excellent rendition of "God of the Nations," from Il Trovatore, after which the financial statement of the institute was presented by the treasurer, Theo. Richards.

Concluding remarks were then made by President Damon, followed by the dedicatory prayer by Rev. John Wadman, D. D. The students joined in singing the institute hymn, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations," and the exercises then came to a close with a benediction by Reverend Poepe. Many races are trained and educated to become loyal Americans. Here the boys and girls of various nationalities study and work on terms of absolute equality and this institute offers a grand opportunity for cementing the friendship of the nations of the Pacific."

AMERICANS SLOW IN ORIENT SAYS SCHWERIN

R. P. Schwerin, vice president and general manager of the Pacific Mail Company, had very little to say for publication during his short stay in Honolulu. On arrival he paid a visit to the agent's office, Hackfeld and Company, and then spent the day with Colonel Sam Parker, in Manoa valley.

Schwerin declared that he had no knowledge of the intentions of the T. K. K. with regard to its agency in

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher

My neighbor keeps a frantic steed that always tries to run away. "You are a foolish man, indeed," I said; "he'll kill you off some day." And then into my car I stepped, and ran against a vagrant cow; and when I from the ruins crept, my neighbor said: "Who's loony now?" My wife has bought a new fall hat, and I remarked, with great disdain: "The dame who'll blow good scads for that, should have a cobbler fix her brain." And then I took my old stiff tile, and jammed it down upon my brow; the frau surveyed it with a smile, and murmured low: "Who's loony now?" All day I'm toiling in my den; I grind out essays doubly dense; I'm always roasting other men, and saying that they have no sense. And when I'm all swelled up with pride—e'en as the reader finds me now—I make some break, and folks deride, and cry aloud: "Who's loony now?"

Honolulu, except that it would pass out of the hands of Hackfeld and Co. Whilst in Manila Schwerin was interviewed by the Manila Cablenews, during the course of which he was asked whether he had determined upon any changes in the Pacific Mail schedule, with respect to Manila. He replied that he had come to no decision as yet, but was considering the matter. He talked at some length of trade conditions in the Philippine Islands and expressed his disappointment that so small a proportion of the foreign trade of the islands is being carried on with the United States and by Americans.

This, Schwerin thinks, is mainly due to the fact that American merchants are slow to recognize the need of different methods in trading with a tropical country, or any foreign country, in fact. American merchants are trying to impose their own standards upon foreign customers, with the result that our foreign trade suffers heavily, says Schwerin.

As an example of what he meant, Schwerin showed the Cablenews representative a cracker box, such as is used by American firms for shipping their products to tropical countries. On opening the box, he called attention to the fact that a strip of tin about a quarter of an inch wide remained around the top of the box, which served as an impediment on removing the contents, often breaking them. The covering provided for the opened box was also inadequate, and the box itself was not impervious to moisture. Australia and English shippers of the same product, Schwerin says, provide a perfectly moisture-proof box, with a top which when removed leaves no jagged edges, and provides a good covering for the contents.

Schwerin then pointed to a collection of canned goods, and called attention to the fact that the foreign goods all came in small tins, while the American tins were all of larger size. This, he said, accounts to a large extent for the popularity of the foreign brands. As another example of American backwardness Schwerin pointed out that while Japanese shippers of pickled goods were using a small barrel fastened with a special kind of wire-nail, such as is popular in foreign countries, the American shippers were still clinging to the large barrel, using the iron nails for fastening. Schwerin has a number of foreign packed articles with him and he will try to convince American shippers, that the methods and customs of one country can not always be imposed upon another, even though the quality of the American products is as good or superior to the foreign goods.

NOVEMBER NIGHTS.

Are excelled in comfort only by the nights of December. At Haleiwa, however, all nights are comfortable. The rooms are mosquito-proof and airy. The cuisine is not excelled anywhere and the surroundings all that nature could provide. The lands are the most expansive of any hotel in the territory and with the many easy chairs for the guests it would be difficult for one to be uncomfortable. The golf links and the excellent tennis court for the use of the guests are among the pleasurable adjuncts to this most delightful hotel. It is cool there, now, and the sunset view from the verandas are splendid.

DO YOU SPRAY?

And are you anxious to get rid of the many pests that ruin your plants and trees? If you want to get rid of the pests you will be interested in "BLACK LEAF 40" and the following expert testimony: From G. E. Bremner, Secretary California State Commission of Horticulture:

I am convinced in my own mind that "Black Leaf 40" will prove a great success on young lecaniums and other soft bodied scale insects, also white fly larvae (A. citri), when used in combination with a small amount of oil emulsion or soap.

I have seen its efficiency thoroughly tested on trips and have used the same combination, "Black Leaf 40" and 2 per cent. oil emulsion, on red spider with remarkable success.

I have also used "Black Leaf 40" in combination with Arsenate of lead for calyx spraying of apples and not only prevented the attack of codling moth, but completely controlled the curl leaf aphid, which has been such a destructive pest for the past few years.

I also am convinced that the coating of the seed of the cucurbitace family (cucumbers, squash, etc.), or any other seed attacked by wire worms with the ordinary "Black Leaf" will prove the most effective remedy yet tried for these troublesome pests.

One 10 1-2 lb. can of Black Leaf 40 will make up 1,000 gallons of the spraying fluid you need. We have it put up in small bottles for the convenience of those who only need a little to spray a few choice plants. Ask the Hawaiian Experimental Station experts what they think about Black Leaf 40. HIGHER FIGURES ON THE STOCK MARKET TODAY

The little spurt taken by sugar stocks on Saturday had a rather smooth and cheerful continuance during this afternoon, and, if certain parties carry out their intentions, there may be some livelier times in the market this week and probably for sometime to come. It was a fact worthy of note that the small rush to buy on Saturday caught the brokers without any large amount of stock to sell. By hustling, however, most orders were filled and enough stock gotten together to fill orders of this morning in fairly satisfactory shape. A peculiarity of the situation is that blocks of stock which were offered for sale a week ago have disappeared from view altogether, and there seems to be little disposition to sell at any hand.

Hawaiian Commercial opened this morning above Saturday's market and is even higher this afternoon. The closing figure Saturday was $31.125 bid. Between boards 50 and 400 shares were snapped up at that figure, and this morning the same was freely bid. At the close $31.75 was being asked for the stock.

Hawaiian Commercial will never be allowed to go below $30.

Ewa also continued its spurt this morning. Saturday's closing figures were $26 bid and $26.25 asked. Afterward 65, 25, 200 and 265 shares sold at $26. On the board this morning 30 shares sold at $26, followed by 25 shares at $26.25. At the close $26.25 was bid and $26.50 asked.

One block of 10 Pioneer sold on the street at $160, and this morning the same was bid for more while $165 was being asked. Saturday's closing figures were $159 bid and $165 asked, which would make it appear that a slight advance has also taken place in this stock.

Onomea, which has appeared several times in the bidding of late, figured in a deal on Saturday, 50 shares changing hands at $41, after which $41 was bid and $42 asked. This is a drop for Onomea of $10 or more since the depression started in, it being quoted at $49.50 only a short time ago.

Honokaa remained very nearly the same. At the close on Saturday $11 was bid and $12.50 asked. On the board this morning 25 shares sold at $11.50. At the close $11.375 was bid and $11.75 asked. The stock is in good demand at about those figures.

A bond sale of interest this morning was of $2000 Olaa sixes at $92.50. The announcement made in Saturday's Star of an extra dividend of 40 cents a share for Hawaiian Sugar, bringing the total December dividend up to 70 cents a share, was officially made on the Stock Exchange this morning. Hawaiian Sugar was offered at $35, but no bid was recorded today. The last previous sale of this stock was at $35.50.

McBryde was on precisely the basis of Saturday—$3.625 being bid and $3.875 asked. Olaa was $4 asked, there being no bid. On Saturday Olaa closed at $3.75 bid and $4 asked.

There were no sales of Oahu today. The bid figure was $24, the stock being offered at $25. Saturday closing figure was $24 bid, with no stock out.

The stock list gives Wai'alea's bid figure at $89, although the substantial bid of the day was $88—the same as on Saturday. The last previous sale of this stock was at $88.

WIRELESS OFFICE IN NEW QUARTERS

The wireless telegraph office was moved yesterday from the premises at Fort and Merchant street into the new telephone building in Adams' lane. This change is made largely for the convenience of the Mutual Telephone Company, to whom the wireless belongs.

The telephone apparatus occupies the mauka side of the first regular floor (there being a tall basement) of the new telephone building. The wireless concern is ensconced in the mauka side on the same floor. There it has the advantage of ample room and light.

The office force of the wireless is to be increased, in the interest of better service. L. M. Votlesen will take over the books, relieving the wireless office of that responsibility. The improvement of most interest to the public, however, is in the facilities for receiving and sending messages. From now on a regular force of boys will be kept at the station for the purpose of going for and delivering messages. Thus a person wishing to send a message need only to call up the office, ask for a boy and there will be a ready response. Three or four boys will be kept on duty at the office at all times.

PHILIPPINES AND AMERICAN SHIPS

The delegates of the Pacific Coast and Hawaiian chambers of commerce were given a royal reception at Manila, and upon taking their departure were presented with an address by Harold M. Pitt, chairman of the publicity committee of the merchants' association of which the following is an interesting extract, inasmuch as it supposes a means of increasing the merchant marine in the Pacific:

The limited concession provided in the Payne bill for two of our products has given ample demonstration of the effectiveness of legislation of this character and the benefits of this legislation are shared as much by the United States as by these islands. Your exports to the Philippines jumped from $11,182,175 in 1909 to $16,768,969 in 1910, a gain of over fifty per cent in one year. The exports from Puget Sound increased from $1,470,595 to $2,640,860, or nearly double, and from San Francisco from $3,571,125 in 1909, to $5,908,347 in 1910. This shows that a greater percentage of the increased business is coming from the Pacific Coast and should prove as a sure indication that your cities and states will be the ones to profit most from the great development that is impending here.

In this development too lies the hope of the American Merchant Marine. The value of cargo carried in American ships from the United States to the Philippines increased from $1,955,562, in 1909, to $4,934,051 in 1910. This increase is equal to 150 per cent compared with a total increase in the commerce of but 50 per cent. These figures in themselves are not large but their significance is of vast importance. When the Philippines are buying two hundred and fifty million dollars worth of United States products each year, as some time they will, and there is a return commerce to the United States of an equal amount, we will have a merchant marine worthy of the name and again the American flag will be in evidence on the seas. It will not then be conspicuous by its absence as is the case today. And I might say here that the availability of Filipinos to man those ships is going to remove one of the most serious obstacles from the path of our shipping.

You people of the Pacific coast are in a position to profit from development of these possessions more than any other section of the country. The opening of the Panama canal is certain to bring you a wonderful advantage, for the lessened cost of the manufactured goods and raw material that you bring from the Atlantic coast and Gulf ports will increase your position as jobbers and manufacturers and increase your facilities for competing for the overseas as well as for the interior trade. Direct lines of ships from Pacific coast ports to Manila that will make the passage in 15 days, will enable you to get practically all of the trade of these islands. Your ports shipped here last year $7,590,837 worth of merchandise as against $8,292,511 worth that came from the port of New York, so you are already getting a substantial part of the business that now exists here.

GARNISHEE SEIZED MONEY

The Jew Yuen Mow case is responsible for another development, again at the instance of Attorney Claudius McBride, who holds a promissory note for $250 signed by Jew Yuen Mow, which he is unable to collect. In order to get his hands upon the money which was found on the person of Jew Yuen Mow when arrested and which is now held by the police, McBride has issued garnishee summonses on Sheriff W. P. Jarrett, Chief Detective McDuffie and Detective P. J. Kellett. When Jew Yuen Mow was arrested checks amounting to $30,000, cash to the amount of $100 and certain jewelry were taken by the police and out of this haul McBride wants to collect his $250. The money which the police hold is being retained in response to requests from San Francisco and is alleged to form portion of the funds Jew Yuen Mow is said to have embezzled.

HAD NO LICENSE.
B. Cressaty, who has already made several appearances in the police court during the past couple of months, was arrested today charged with driving an automobile without having first obtained a chauffeurs' license. When arrested Cressaty protested that he did not know it was necessary to procure a license, and declared that he should have been warned first before being arrested in the street. He was released on his own recognizances and will appear in court tomorrow morning.

CHALMERS MOTOR CARS

The man with a motor car gets to his office with the sparkle of the sunshine and fresh air in his blood and brain.

You're Paying For a Motor Car

You may think you don't want a motor car. But there isn't any question about your needing one. If you need a car you are paying for it. Paying in the time that a car would save you. In the opportunities that get away. In the fresh air and recreation which now you do not get.

Whatever we really need we pay for, whether we actually own it or not. You could get along without an overcoat this winter, but you would pay for one with discomfort and bad colds.

The motor car didn't create its demand after it arrived. The demand has been waiting for forty centuries. When the steamship, the railroad and trolley took care of the problem of public transportation, the world took a long step ahead.

When the automobile took care of the problem of individual transportation, the world took another long step ahead.

HOW THE FAMILY BENEFITS

Head of the Family—Going to and from business in fresh air. Making business calls. Entertaining customers and business associates. Tours in the country. More knowledge of the country. Mental and physical exercise of driving. Good appetite—better digestion—better humor—better health. Prestige.

Wife and Daughters—Social calls. Entertaining. Plenty of fresh air to drive away "nerves." More time with husband and father.

Sons—Educative value of understanding and caring for a wonderful piece of machinery. Training of mental and physical faculties in driving. Clean, fresh air, recreation and decent entertainment in company of other members of the family.

AT THE THEATERS

Notwithstanding the heavy rain that fell on Saturday evening, all the theaters were well patronized. Every house shared almost equally in the patronage so liberally bestowed by Honoluluans, and the excellent programs that are presented were thoroughly enjoyed.

LAST NIGHT OF WILLS AND HASSAN.

Manager Congdon announces that Wills and Hassan conclude their short but intensely successful engagement at the Park theater on Saturday evening next, for they sail early next week for the mainland by the C. A. S. Moana which is due here on Wednesday week from Australia. By the Moana we are promised that some excellent artists will arrive to fill the big gap caused by the departure of Will and Hassan. Will, the strong man of the pair, has been suffering from a strained arm, but it is now almost thoroughly well, so this week he will endeavor to raise Hassan nine times. In ordinary circumstances this is a regular part of the performance. Will Lochrane and Pearl Melotte are also in the bill, both of whom are meeting with warm receptions at each performance.

THE NOVELTY.

The change of program by the Musical Millers has been thoroughly appreciated, and at each performance they have increased their popularity, for they are a versatile trio, and always have something fresh to present. On Saturday the turn went well, the main features being the dancing of Mrs. Miller, and the 'cello playing of Miller, who rendered in an excellent manner, a selection on his one-stringed instrument made of a kerosene tin, an old broo and other odds and ends. These performers are in their last nights, for they leave next week on the C. A. S. Moana, en route to the United States. Wise and Milton and Geo. W. S. Stanley are still as big favorites as ever, and deservedly so.

THE EMPIRE.

The rain that came down so heavily on Saturday evening did not make much difference to the size of the audience at the Empire, for each performance was witnessed by a large crowd. There is no vaudeville at this house at present, but the fine selection of pictures seems to be appreciated. The star picture on Saturday evening was undoubtedly that in which the lover with the cold in his head received a piece of evil-smelling cheese instead of candy that he had asked for. The misery that he inflicts with this before the repository of the smell is discovered, is amusing indeed. The principal parts were acted by capable performers, and the extravagant gestures that are so frequent present in these so-called comic pictures were, happily, absent.

12 ARTISTS FOR BIJOU

The management of the new Bijou Theater sent a lengthy wireless telegram to Sam Kuby, who is on board the Matson liner Wilhelmina asking him to give the names of all the artists that he has engaged to open at this house this week. A reply has now been received, in which it was stated that twelve artists are with him, comprising Nan Lewis, Walter Perry, Duan and Bragton and the American Musical Comedy Co. In addition to these Hughes' orchestra accompanies the combination. With the sound judgment that Kuby is known to have the patrons of vaudeville in Honolulu should be due to witness an excellent entertainment when the theater is opened, and as Kuby has a knowledge of local conditions, this will enable him to select performers who will meet the local taste. By a typographical error in Saturday's edition we mentioned that the seating accommodation of the Bijou would be 1,900. This should have read 1,500.

At Emma Square.

The Hawaiian band will give a concert this evening at Emma square, commencing at half past seven, with the following program: Grand March—Hawaii Kuakoa. Berger Overture—Festival.....Flotow Ballad—Kaulolani.....Scott-Kiau Reminiscences of Verdi.....Godfrey Vocal—Hawaiian Songs, as by Berger Selection—Bilibao.....Redford Ballad—La Paloma (by request).....Yradier Finale—Maunawili and Moanalua.....Berger Star Spangled Banner.

STOREKEEPERS GET READY FOR BUSY SEASON

From today the Christmas season may be regarded as under way, insofar as the duty of selecting and purchasing suitable mementoes is concerned; and everything points to the busiest holiday period in many years. It is a notable fact that the public has, as with one mind, laid aside the question of what sugar will or will not be next year, and decided to join, altogether, in making this the best Christmas the city of Honolulu has ever known. With this in view, the decision is also to shop early, so that a merry hustle on the part of the old town is now immediately at hand. Many of the retailers have prepared for what they see ahead, with the result that their windows are probably more beautifully dressed than they have ever been this early before. As a rule, too, the stocks of Christmas and standard goods are more complete than ever before exhibited in this city.

In the dry goods line, for instance, Sachs, at Fort and Beretania; Jordan, on Fort near King; and the big Ehlers department store opposite the tall Boston building—not only have elaborate stocks of standard dress goods for ladies, children and, to some extent, gentlemen, but have gorgeous displays of Christmas novelties. The windows of all three of these splendid emporiums are beautifully dressed in holiday ideas.

In "substantials" for men, Silva's Toggery and the Clarton, the former on King near Fort, and the latter on Fort and Hotel—have elegant showings in furnishings, both concerns importing largely for the Christmas trade of this year. In shoes for everybody probably no more complete stocks can be found in much larger cities than those of the Manufacturers' Shoe Co., Fort near Hotel, and the Regal Shoe Store, at Bethel and King. They have put forward most attractive lines for the holiday season.

The drug stores are also to the front with many Christmas novelties, Benson, Smith & Company publishing a list of desirable presents carried by them, and the Hollister Drug Company offering, besides standard goods, such desirable items as cameras, razors, etc.

Furniture is an important item in considering a list of Christmas gifts, and Honolulu's furniture stores are found to be better prepared to meet the requirements of the public than ever before. Hopp & Company, Coyne Furniture Company and the Honolulu Wire Bed Company began months ago to prepare for this Christmas, with the result that they have enormous stocks of just such goods as will appeal to the Christmas buyer.

Stationery always fills an important place in the list of Christmas requirements, coming second only, perhaps, to toys and books. This year the Hawaiian News Company, Wall Nichols Company, and Arleigh & Company have led the way in laying in particularly large stocks of goods in these lines.

In musical goods the Honolulu Music Company, Wall, Nichols Company and Hawaiian News Company each have extensive and attractive lines for Christmas purposes.

Auto sundries make excellent Christmas presents. This year the von Hamm-Young Company offer their friends the largest and choicest assortment of goods in this line ever brought to Honolulu. Staple auto sundries are also carried by the Associated Garage and the Schuman Carriage Company.

Another line of Christmas gifts, suited particularly to housekeepers, is that of electric chandeliers and lamps and novelties of various sorts, carried by the Hawaiian Electric Company; and gas heaters and equipment, put forward by the Honolulu Gas Company. Presents of this sort are standard, being both appropriate and useful.

No Christmas is complete without candies and other sweets. Exceptionally attractive assortments are offered at this time by the Palm Cafe, Young Cafe, Benson, Smith & Company and the Hollister Drug Company.

Cigars, pipes and other smokers' supplies make very desirable presents for men. These goods are carried in great variety and quantity by M. A. Gunn & Co., at Fort and King streets, and Lee Toma, King Ewa of Nuuanu.

In household furnishings exceptionally elaborate displays are being made by W. W. Dimond & Company, and E. O. Hall & Son. These up-to-date concerns "sighted" a heavy Christmas from afar and have prepared for a record share of the business.

The above concerns are already in the field for Christmas trade. Others will open out later on. In fact, by the end of the week Honolulu will probably be in almost complete holiday dress, insofar as windows and interior displays of store can bring it about. And it will be a great Christmas.

PRESENT DIAZ STILL IN POWER

CITY OF MEXICO, November 28.—Declaring that the recent revolution was simply one of politics, engineered by General Madero for his own ambitious ends, with no real cause beneath it, President Diaz yesterday gave out his first press interview since the exciting events of the past two weeks began. The President was inclined to minimize the situation of the past ten days, stating that at no time had the revolution assumed any strength sufficient to cause him or any of his ministers any anxiety for the outcome. He stated that the press of the United States had exaggerated the amount of fighting and the strength of the rebels' forces in the field.

Beyond what General Madero will be able to do for himself there is no danger that the revolution will spread, the president said.

A sharp engagement is reported to have taken place yesterday in the State of Chihuahua. The loyalists army, numbering six hundred men, attacked a force of four hundred rebels, in an entrenched position. The rebels were driven from their position and scattered, with a loss of fifteen killed and a large number wounded.

The loyalists have taken up a hot pursuit of the rebels, who have fled into the mountains.

LAREDO, Mexico, November 27.—The revolution is over. Yesterday the government made the announcement by officially removing the censorship over the reports of the Associated Press and relinquishing the use of the Associated private and leased telegraph system.

Everywhere throughout the Republic the troops are in control and numerous arrests of the revolutionary leaders are being made. In no place are the rebels in force and no positions are held by them.

BRITISH MINISTER IS LASHED WITH WHIP.

LONDON, November 27.—The Right Honorable Winston Churchill, home secretary in the Asquith government, was the victim of a suffragette assault yesterday, being attacked by a male sympathizer of the "Votes for Women" campaign. The home secretary was returning to London from Bradford, where he had made a political address, when he was attacked on the train by the fanatic. His assailant produced a dog whip and slashed the minister viciously before he could be restrained.

SEATTLE TREBLED IN SIZE IN TEN YEARS.

WASHINGTON, November 27.—The census remuneration results for the cities of Seattle and Portland were announced yesterday and will be taken in as the official figures of the 1910 census. By the recount, Seattle is shown to have a population of 237,194, an increase of one hundred and ninety-four per cent. over the population of 1900. Portland shows a gain of one hundred and twenty-nine per cent., the present population figures being 207,214.

POLITICAL RIOTING IN DUBLIN YESTERDAY.

DUBLIN, November 28.—Political rioting broke out here yesterday between the Home Rule followers of William Redmond and the adherents of that wing of the Irish party led by William O'Brien. In the fighting between the rival politicians and later against the constabulary that interfered, eighty persons were injured, several seriously.

Redmond has recently returned from America with one hundred thousand dollars as a political fund, subscribed by Irish-Americans to aid the Home Rule cause. With this fund back of him and the promise of as much more if he should need it, Redmond has been taking advantage of the talk of a general election to institute fierce attack in the County of Cork against O'Brien, the effect of which is felt throughout Ireland. Yesterday, in order to show their sympathy with his cause, a large procession of voters paraded the streets of this city. The demonstration of strength proved too much for the O'Brienites who gathered and attacked the paraders.

The fighting was lively and became a three-cornered affair as soon as the police arrived and charged.

WOLGAST WILLING TO MEET MORAN.

CADILLAC, Michigan, November 27.—Ad Wolgast last night announced his readiness to meet Moran, the victor of yesterday's battle with Battling Nelson. Moran says that he too is willing provided he is assured a purse for himself of $12,500 and given the right to name the referee for the go.

THE LAIE FOLKS GIVE FINE LUAU

Republican candidates and campaigners in the late election were grandly entertained by the people of Laie on Saturday afternoon. The guests had timed their arrival pretty well together, so that none had a long wait for the beginning of the feast.

After being most cordially welcomed by old and young of Laie, the guests at four o'clock were ushered into a large hall where the luau was spread on three long tables. Delegate Kalaniinaole was seated at one end of the middle table, Manager Andrew Adams of Kahuku presiding opposite him.

As for the luau, a finer one would have been difficult to produce. Consisting of fresh products of land and sea, cooked to perfection, the feast would have tempted even sluggish appetites, let alone those sharpened by a long journey in air of mountain and ocean. The guests warmly praised the skill of the ladies of Laie in providing such a spread, and admired the grace with which they waited on the tables.

Mr. Adams made opening remarks when the guests had been seated, including in some glorification of Laie and Kahuku for the big Republican majority the precinct had given. After a suitable interval he toasted the Delegate to Congress, who made a brief response. Others called on and making short speeches were Senator Cecil Brown, John C. Lane, County Treasurer elect Robert W. Shingle, Senator Charles Chillingworth and W. C. Achi. Mrs. Bishaw and Mrs. Young responded beautifully to a call for a vocal duet. The industrial school band was in attendance, giving an excellent performance.

ROOSEVELT'S NEW CHALLENGE

NEW YORK, November 14.—Theodore Roosevelt has broken his silence. The Colonel says in the Outlook: "On every hand, personally and by correspondence, I have been asked to make a statement regarding the election. So far as I am concerned, I have nothing whatever to add to, or to take away from, the declaration of the principles which I have made in the Ossawatimie speech and elsewhere, East and West, during the past three months. The fight for progressive popular government has merely begun, and will certainly go on to a triumphant conclusion in spite of initial checks and irrespective of the personal success or failure of individual leaders."

Appreciation.

To THE PUBLIC:—We wish at this time to express our appreciation to the Island public for the confidence reposed in us, as manifested by the large number of purchases of the motor cars we deal in. Altogether in the past we have handled some ten different makes of cars; we now handle only three.

There is a reason for this.

To handle any new make that was produced seemed to us too much like "trying it on the dog"—with the public as the dog.

Our policy was to study the situation carefully, gauge local conditions and then consult the best automobile authorities in America—with the result that we represent today

The Pierce Arrow Chalmers HUDSON

These three great makes represent a combination of the best practice in automobile construction, with the widest choice of body types and prices. The manufacturers of these three great makes are the leaders in the industry.

By handling only these three great makes we can do justice both to the public and the manufacturers.

There are from five to eight thousand different parts in an automobile—multiply this by ten, and the number is enormous. Few dealers if any could keep even the necessary parts of ten makes to provide against inevitable accident, but with three it is different.

We wish our name to be synonymous with the

HOW THEY "BEAT" THE OPIUM LAWS

The wiles adopted by Chinese to evade the opium laws are almost innumerable, and though the public occasionally hears of their being outwitted, it is safe to assume that victory rests more often with the Chinese than with the sleuths who are arrayed against them.

Just at present the detective force, headed by Arthur McDuffie, are endeavoring to land the illicit opium sellers in jail, but the difficulties in the way are tremendous. Under the laws of the territory smoking opium is no offence, nor is the possession of duly stamped opium indictable, and this affords vendors of the "dope" a loophole through which to wriggle when danger, in the shape of a raid, threatens. McDuffie has in his possession a tin of opium which was recently seized. It bears the revenue stamps alright, but it is evident, from the appearance of the tin that it has done duty many times in the past. It is alleged that the retailers of opium import a small amount through the regular channels and pay the necessary duty to secure stamped tins. These are carefully treasured, and used as often as the stock whisky bottle in the dives of the tenderloin district. The illicit opium is carefully concealed, being only brought to light as required, and the stamped tins refilled as often as possible, care being taken to preserve the label.

The police think that if the opium divans in the city were brought under the control of the authorities, with the right of access to the books, and the possession of opium only permitted under supervision, it would assist the authorities in their efforts to eradicate the illicit sale of the drug. Regulations are suggested which would enable the police to keep tab upon the amount of opium imported legally and the amount consumed, and vendors might be compelled to issue a coupon with each sale, showing the amount of the sale, etc.

There were two cases of selling opium without a license before District Magistrate Lyster in the police court this morning, but both were continued at the request of the defendants.

D. P. R. Isenberg publishes a notice to gunners in this issue, forbidding any shooting on the lands at Waialae and Kahala under his control. Mr. Isenberg has recently imported a number of California and Mexican doves, with which he has stocked his land. These birds are very tame and fall easy victims to hunters, with the result that they would very quickly be exterminated if not protected. It is Mr. Isenberg's intention to import a number of other new species of birds for his lands and he expects the sportsmen of Oahu to assist him in stocking the island.
