FOREIGN NEWS.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Germany is seeking a coaling station at St. Thomas, the principal port of the Danish West Indies. This action on the part of Germany has aroused considerable apprehension in States Department circles. It is generally conceded that German influence prevented the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States.

Tokio, Japan, Jan. 4.—Notwithstanding the active preparations for war going on throughout Japan, the Government seems determined that Japan shall not initiate the conflict with Russia.

Washington, Jan. 3.—It is learned from an official source that Japan's note to Russia agreed to recognize Russian supremacy in Manchuria provided Russia would concede a like supremacy in Korea. Russia did not approve the proposition.

Tokio, Jan. 4.—The situation here is considered to be extremely critical. Failing to receive a satisfactory reply from Russia, Japan intends to take active measures in a few days, which it is expected will lead to war.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 4.—Diplomats here do not expect grave results to follow the Russian reply to Japan, which will now be presented in a few days.

There is no truth in the rumor that the Kahului Railroad Co. is discharging native Hawaiian to put on Japs and Chinese. The trouble is that the natives have recently been hanging round Wailuku studying politics instead of going to work at Kahului which compelled the Company to send to Honolulu for stevedores.

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION

At noon on Monday, January 4, a procession of carriages started from the corner of the Market Street, at the Kepoikai building where the new county offices are established, and proceeded in state to the court house. In the carriages were seated the newly elected county officials.

On reaching the court house, where they were received by Wailuku's military company, they appeared in court and were received by Judge Kalua, who called the members of the Board of Supervisors-elect before him and announced in Hawaiian that their bonds had all been presented to him and approved, and that he had administered the oath of office to each of them. The Judge followed with a brief address in Hawaiian, which was replied to by Chairman T. B. Lyons in the same language.

The Board went into session at once and have been quite busy all week approving bonds, confirming appointments and attending to other preliminary matters. The amount of the bonds of the supervisors is $10,000 each, and their sureties are as follows: T. B. Lyons; sureties, A. Enos, Joe U. Marciel.

W. H. Cornwell, Jr.; sureties, P. Cockett, W. T. Robinson.

G. P. Kouimakaole; sureties, Joshua Alauli Jr., Luke See Chin.

C. L. Kookoo; sureties, Solomon Hale, Jonah Kumulae.

J. K. Hiblo; sureties, E. H. Kekapai, Luke Tan Sing.

The bonds and sureties of the other officers, as approved by the Board of Supervisors are as follows: Wm. White, Sheriff; bond, $10,000. Sureties; C. B. Cockett, D. K. Kahaulelio; August Reimann, Wm. Silva, N. Keenini, S. K. Kahalekai.

D. K. Kahaulelio, Tax Assessor, bond, $———, Sureties, A. Abio, Lucy K. Puahi, L. K. Sniffen, Ben Kokoana, P. Silva. No amount is fixed in the bond of the Tax Assessor, although the County Clerk informed the representative of the News that the Board of Supervisors had fixed the bond of the Assessor at $50,000. It is rather singular that a bond without any sum being fixed in it should have been signed by sureties and sworn to as this one was. But more singular yet was it that the Board of Supervisors should have accepted such a bond and allowed a commission to issue to the Tax Assessor. Of course it is simply no bond. The County Clerk informed the News reporter that he had been instructed to fill in the amount of the bonds, but had neglected to do so. This raises another question, as to what right the County Clerk has to fill in the amount in the Tax Assessor's bond, after it had been duly signed and sworn to by the Assessor and his sureties, accepted by the Board of Supervisors and put on file. As a matter of fact he has no right to do so, and the Supervisors will be compelled to call for a new bond from the Tax-Assessor. It was Thursday morning when the News representative inspected the bond, and it is a matter of interesting conjecture as to whether the Clerk has since added anything to the purported bond. It is not at all likely that anything wrong was intended in the matter, but such carelessness should not prevail in the management of county affairs.

P. Cockett, Treasurer; bond, $65,000. Sureties, W. H. Cornwell, George Cockett, David Morton J. C. Ah Sam, Edgar Morton, G. Akuna, and C. W. Booth, each of whom swore that he is worth the sum of the bond, over and above his liabilities, as required by law.

D. H. Kahaulelio, County Clerk; bonds, $15,000. Sureties, Wm. Mahuka, J. W. Kalua.

L. K. Crook, Auditor; bonds, $10,000. Sureties, the Pacific Surety Co. John Richardson, County Attorney; bonds, $10,000. Sureties, P. S. Correa, Thomas Clark.

J. K. Kahoolele, Surveyor; bonds, $10,000. Sureties, Antone Silva, S. Ah Mi, Young Kat Haag, S. Kuhale, Sam Nahale.

The following is a complete list of the Deputies and Appointees.

Assistant County Auditor, A. G. Dickens.

Assistant County Treasurer, David Morton.

District Attorney's Clerk, A. Garcia.

District Magistrate.—Wailuku, Thomas Clark; Honoukaha, Edward Wilcox; Makawao, E. H. Kekapai; Hana, G. P. Waihoiehu; Kipahulu, J. Ahulili; Lahaina, D. Kahaulelio; Molokai, J. H. Mahoe.

Road Supervisor.—Wailuku, Solomon Hale; Makawao, Geo. Groves; Lahaina, Geo. Kauli; Molokai, J. K. Kaupu; Hana, Hack Inspector and Humane Officer.—Wailuku, Manuel Dutro; Lahaina, J. K. Richardson.

The following recommendations have also been made by the Board of Supervisors:—George W. Maxwell, Sanitary Inspector, Wailuku; Chas. Kannaehlo, Food and Fish Inspector, Wailuku; W. E. Bai, Supt. Wailuku Water Works; Matt M. McCann; Supt. Lahaina Water Works.

As a general rule, the deputies and appointees have been required to take the home rule oath before receiving their commissions, but some exceptions have been made the rule. In order to remove Judge McKay and Judge Copp, the Board of Supervisors, under the advice of the County Attorney passed an order cutting off their salaries, and appointed Thos. Clark as District Magistrate of Wailuku and E. H. Kekapai as District Magistrate of Makawao, with salaries attached.

It is understood that the salaries of the deputies and appointees has not been definitely fixed yet, but as soon as they are the News will give a tabulated list of them.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday morning at the Court house for the last time this week, having adjourned over to next Wednesday, in order to await the expected decision of the Supreme Court.

An Unwise Move.

If there is any department of the county government which should be kept out of the political pool, it certainly is the judiciary department. Consequently the cutting off of the salaries of Judge McKay and Judge Copp and the appointment of two such men as Tom Clark and Kekapai to succeed them is an act which is inexcusable from any point of view. An added sting is that Judge Copp was requested to take the home rule oath, and his refusal to do so is what caused the appointment of Kekapai, who is admittedly the inferior of Judge Copp.

The adage of "to the victor belongs the spoils" is all right in minor positions, but the mass of the people who are not politicians, and who simply desire good and capable officials, are to be reckoned with for this lowering of our county district magistracy.

Judge McKay and Judge Copp still retain their commissions, and the Board of Supervisors would gain confidence in the minds of disinterested citizens of Maui, if they conclude to rescind their action in the matter.

Notice to Creditors

Crown Pianos FOR Lively Music.

Some people like serious music, some prefer it otherwise. If you like good, lively, frisky ragtime, with a pinky-panky-poo suggestion of a banjo accompaniment, the Crown piano, with banjo, harp and mandolin effects, is the one for you.
It is a good, sound, sensible piano, not to be told from others in its class, but one that gives you tone that sets your feet tapping, and your lips puckering for a whistle.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. W. E. Mossman has been appointed deputy sheriff at Hahaione. What for?
Mr. George B. Schaefer has been appointed deputy tax assessor at Makawao.
School Inspector G. W. Babcock of Hilo arrived from Honolulu by Wednesday's boat.
Attorney D. H. Case took a run to Honolulu last week returning on Wednesday's laudine.
Mr. B. P. Lewis, former manager of the Maui Hotel left for Honolulu by last Saturday's Clauvine.
Solomon Hale has been appointed road supervisor for Wailuku District. What was the matter with Maxwell?
The many friends of Charles B. Cockett are much pleased with his appointment as deputy sheriff at Lahaina.
Mr. Harold T. Hayselden of the David Lawrence Tobacco Co., was on Maui this week, leaving for Honolulu last night.
Mrs. G. B. Robertson of Wailuku spent Christmas with friends at Yreka, California, in the midst of a snow storm.
Auditor L. R. Crook has appointed Mr. A. G. Dickens as his deputy. Mr. Dickens is a first-class accountant and will keep his books straight.
C. Conradt and R. W. Shingle of Honolulu were passengers to Maui on the Clauvine, probably to look up their sheep ranch on Kahoolawe.
Cashier C. D. Lufkin of the First National Bank of Wailuku was a visitor to Honolulu on last Saturday's Clauvine, returning on Wednesday.
Mr. H. E. Picker of the Pacific Mutual Life came over to Maui this week and will probably spend the next ten days here, in the interests of his company.
It is said that S. Ah Mi, the Kahului banker is opposed to the candidacy of William Saffery as deputy sheriff, which of itself is the strongest recommendation for Mr. Saffery.
Mayor Matt McCann of Lahaina was a visitor in Wailuku this week, and is enthusiastic over the outlook in Lahaina for an early movement to build a wharf to deep water.
Mr. L. M. Vetlesen of Lahaina has been appointed deputy tax assessor for Wailuku District. He is a competent man for the position, and his appointment reflects credit on Kalei.
Judge Charles Copp of Makawao was in Wailuku this week, and states that he was offered the salary of his office if he would take the home rule oath, which he of course declined to do.
Dr. Weddick of Wailuku is favorably spoken of as county physician, and Dr. R. H. Dinagar of Puunene for marine and sanitary physician. Both appointments would be highly satisfactory.

LAHAINA LINES.

The policemen's ball on New Year's Eve was quite successful. On New Year's Day a luau was served in the Court Room.
Mr. Campbell and other members of the Lahaina Club gave a pleasant party on New Year's night at the Club House. Refreshments were provided by the ladies.
A series of New Year's performances were given at the Japanese theater.
Sessions of the public schools were resumed on Monday morning.
After a three days' rest the Pioneer Mill started up again on Monday morning.
Misses Blanch and Maud Horner, Mrs. Henning, Miss Emma Henning, Teddie and the baby, took passage for Honolulu on Saturday night's steamer. The other Henning children will soon follow, and they will attend school in the city.
Willard McCann has met with three accidents recently. While in the water he got beyond his depth, and was rescued by Reidar Olsen. Willard's hand was badly cut by a rolling barrel, and his horse became unmanageable.
Mr. Silva and his family were driving down the Lahainaluna road on Sunday. The harness broke and the horse was frightened. No serious injury resulted.
Plans are being prepared for two dormitories for 100 boys, at the Lahainaluna Industrial School; also for a class-room building. The contract has been let for building a cottage for the principal. All these buildings will have the latest improvements.

SHIPPING NEWS

Admiral Cooper's squadron arrived at Midway Islands at noon yesterday and departed for Guam at 5 in the afternoon. The squadron arrived in fact, the flagship New Orleans standing out while Raleigh, Albany and Commodore stood out quite a distance. The New Orleans sent a boat ashore with mail and supplies for the cable colony, and took away mail which will be carried to Guam and thence to Manila, unless a vessel is encountered at Guam heading for Honolulu.
As far as can be learned there was no change in the destination of the cruisers, despite the rumors of war between Japan and Russia, and they will continue on to Cavite.
The officer in charge of the boat reported all well on board the vessels of the squadron.—Advertiser.
Among the passengers who arrived from Manila in the transport Sheridan this morning is Captain A. W. Catlin of the United States Marine Corps, who has been assigned to duty at the Naval Station here. Captain Catlin will remain here awaiting the arrival of the detachment of marines which is to be stationed here. He has been on active service in the Philippines.—Bulletin.
H. H. Picker, the insurance man, has bought the second-class yacht Dewey, owned by Chris Johnson. He will fit her up and run her in first-class shape.—Bulletin.
Wilder's new steamer Likelike, the second of that name in the company's fleet, will probably arrive at Honolulu from San Francisco about March 1. The Likelike is a vessel of 400 tons.—Advertiser.
Cyrus T. Green sailed for Tacoma on the Mathew Turner with a shipment of 40,000 empty bottles.
Capt. Treanor of the Ariel and Capt. Treat of the Mathew Turner, both in port this week, are brothers.
The Hawaiian Dredging Company, which is engaged in dredging the channel, has requested all steamship companies and masters of vessels, during the time the dredger is at work, to signal the approach of steamers by four whistle blasts, in order to give the dredger men time in which to look after their moorings and thus prevent entanglements.—Advertiser.
