TROOPS MOVED ON PEKING, IS CHINESE RUMOR

Liberty News Gets Wireless Message From San Francisco of Purported Advance

SAY YUAN ORDERS NO RESISTANCE TO JAPAN

Governors of Provinces to Be Held Responsible for Any Outbreak

That a concerted advance is being made by Japanese troops upon Peking is the report received by the Liberty News, local Chinese paper, from its correspondent in San Francisco. The San Francisco correspondent is presumed to have had the news by cable from China.

It is not confirmed by Associated Press reports, though the Associated Press has chronicled the movement of troops to China from Japan, ostensibly to replace present garrisons in Manchuria and Shantung.

It has also been authoritatively reported that after starting the new garrison troops Japan said the old garrisons would not be withdrawn until the Chino-Japanese trouble has been settled.

The wireless report received by the Liberty News is as follows: SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 28.—Japanese troops are moving toward Peking from the former German base Kiaochow and from Korea. The front line of Japanese advance is within 400 miles of Peking. New troops are continuously coming across Korea to Mukden, capital of Pungtin province, Southern Manchuria.

Yuan Shih-kai has ordered no resistance to be made to the invader. The governors of the provinces will be held responsible for any outbreak of Chinese subjects. The governors of Shantung and Pungtin report Japanese columns on the march through their territory. War preparations are being extended by Japanese troops into the interior from Port Arthur and the Korean border.

La Cheng Hsiang, China's foreign minister, held a conference with Japanese Minister Hiroki for an hour and a half yesterday. La is conferring with President Yuan today before making final reply to last version of Japanese demands.

Protests that the Chinese war tax levied at the beginning of negotiations with Japan is too heavy have come from the province Kwangtung, South China. The duty on commodities is causing hardship among the poorer classes around Canton.

LANDSLIDE NEAR ONOMEA, DUE TO BIG RAIN, COVERS HILO RAILROAD TRACKS

(Special Star-Bulletin Wire.) HILO, April 28.—The heavy rain on Hawaii is setting more records. At Papaikou there were 23 inches in 24 hours. A big landslide at Onomea covered the Hilo railroad tracks with thousands of tons of earth and rocks. The whole countryside has been drenched. It is clearing now.

FINER BEAUTIES OF HAWAII URGED ON THE AD CLUB

E. L. Parker suggests "Rainbowland" can be made even more attractive.

That is what L. E. Parker, who was the Ad Club's principal speaker at today's luncheon meeting, called Hawaii. And it seems likely that this composite of the island's charms will become in time a permanent designation. Certainly it meshes with the favor of the businessmen who profess to know more of advertising than of art, and who listened with great interest to a talk that dealt far more with the arts and letters of the old world than with the art of advertising, and the letters of display.

Mr. Parker, whose adopted home is Italy, and who has been a sojourner in Honolulu for about seven weeks, said that when he was told to talk on a combination of Italy and Hawaii, he had to search for some time for a connection between the two. He finally decided that the two countries were tied together with rainbows, for nowhere, he said, were so many of nature's garlands hung from the sky as in these two favored lands.

Mr. Parker's talk was quite different from the usual hammer-and-tongs Ad Club discourse, and for this very difference was particularly enjoyed. The speaker sketched with a light hand the beauties of Italian civilization—art, literature, science and music—and left it to his auditors to infer what lessons could be learned by the people of Hawaii.

Coming down to the present, Mr. Parker said that he thought it would be a good thing for those who had the real good of Hawaii at heart to exploit its finer things to the world in general. According to the speaker, the islands are known in the United States and abroad mostly for surfing, riding, polo and hula dancing. He thought it would be a good thing to put before the world in general some of the delicate charm of Hawaiian literature, folk lore and graceful dancing.

Under the head of helpful hints, which he said every Ad Club speaker was expected to hand out, Mr. Parker advised a more strenuous campaign against the mosquito, and the beautifying of the city of Honolulu, which last, he added, could be safely left to the women of the community, and the landscape architects, who were supposed to know more about it than the businessmen.

CARNIVAL CHIEFS SUGGEST PLANS FOR

President and Director-General Report to Mid-Pacific Carnival Stockholders

Plans for a bigger and better than ever Carnival were suggested at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon at the annual meeting of the Carnival stockholders this afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Reports from E. H. Paris, president of the Carnival corporation, and James D. Dougherty, director-general, of two successive and successful events, were heard with interest by the stockholders.

The election of directors for the year 1915-1916 is taking place today. The nominations were: G. F. Bush, J. E. C. Hagens, Lee, Th. L. Kerr, I. Mori, Sherwood Lowe, M. Brasch, Geo. Denison and Carl Norris Stoyton.

In his report President Paris made the following suggestion for placing the Carnival on a more substantial basis: "I would recommend that you obtain the services of a permanent secretary, whose duty it would be to act as an assistant to the director-general during the Carnival season, and the custodian and caretaker of properties during the off season. A secretary who would have served several years would become invested in keeping track of details and in posting your officers on matters which are relative to successful events and on which light could be thrown by past experience. A capable person in this position would prove a reliable 'watch-dog' of the treasury and Carnival interests."

Among the interesting points in the 1915 Carnival, President Paris said the following: "I fully agree with Mr. Dougherty in his report, in which he suggested that the burden of expense be placed on the advertiser, by placing the advertising in the hands of the advertiser, instead of the Carnival corporation to produce the entertainment and we cannot do this for any considerable period of time to the support of the Carnival. The mainland advertising is of purely promotion work, and it should call the attention to the fact that Hawaii is very much alive and a place of Carnival, to which tourists should give consideration."

Eruption of Punchbowl. "This feature is a distinct expense item, pure and simple, and cost us $1016.05 under a contract which was made with the Wilson Fireworks Co. This feature, although a success and very spectacular, need not be repeated each year, but it was one of the items free to the public and could be eliminated as an expense item if thought best, on future occasions. COLLEGE WON'T BE INVESTIGATED BY COMMISSION

House Tables Lyman Resolution, Though In Sympathy With Its Real Object

On the ground that the College of Hawaii authorities are working on the problem of increasing the attendance and also fearing that any action to reduce the standards of education at the College of Hawaii might cause the United States government to discontinue the federal appropriation for the institution, the house of representatives yesterday tabled the Lyman resolution to appoint a commission to devise a system of reducing the educational standards of the college.

In its report to the house, the education committee says that it was in sympathy with the real object of the resolution, but Chairman Clarence H. Cooke said today that it was feared that retraction of the standards might jeopardize the federal appropriation. The report of the committee is as follows: "Your committee on education, to which was referred House Current Resolution 26, begs to report thereon as follows: "The real object of the resolution is to devise some plan in order to make available to a larger number of students the advantages offered by the College of Hawaii for advanced instruction in agricultural and mechanical subjects. The resolution seeks to accomplish, or at least make some progress toward this end by securing a report from a commission, to be appointed by the governor and directed to look carefully into the plan of lowering the standard of admission to the college, lengthening its course of study and establishing a boarding department and dormitory in connection with the college where students from the islands other than Oahu can live at a cost to them of not exceeding $60 a year. "With the real object of this resolution your committee is in entire (Continued on page two)

The secretary in charge declares the meeting will be the best opportunity ever offered Honolulu to know something about the perils of the government divers. Mr. Stillson will start to speak at 7 o'clock sharp.

HOLSTEIN'S PLAN FOR SUGAR PROBE IS PUT TO DEATH

House Perfunctorily But Sufficiently Kills Resolution Asking U. S. Action

TRANSCRIPT OF EVIDENCE MAY GO TO WASHINGTON

Speaker Gets Mass of Testimony Given By Small Planters and Others

"The question before the house now is whether or not the report of the agricultural committee of the house to table House Concurrent Resolution No. 8 shall be adopted. Those in favor of adopting the report signify in the usual manner."

A few scattered hands raised indicated, without a vote in opposition, the fate of the Holstein resolution memorializing Congress to investigate contractual relations between small cane planters and the sugar mill corporations in the lower branch of the legislature today. There was no argument, no debate and no vote favoring adoption of the resolution. The above 40 words by the speaker comprised the only talk on the resolution, and it was consigned to the legislative graveyard. However, it is whispered about the legislative halls that Speaker Holstein, Senator of the resolution, is in possession of a neatly bound transcript of all evidence taken at the hearing of the house committee on agriculture and from all other operations for the report of the committee on the passage of the act to enact ordinances with the compliments of a member of the committee.

DO YOU AUTO? YOU MAY HAVE TO RAISE BOND

If the senate concurs in the house amendments and Senate Bill 151 is signed by the governor, every owner of an automobile, whether driven for profit or for pleasure, will be required to file surety bonds not to exceed $3000 for each machine, and every driver of any self-propelled vehicle, which includes street cars, auto trucks and the like, will have to do likewise. That is, if the county boards of supervisors take advantage of the passage of the act to enact ordinances to that effect.

GERMAN OFFICIAL CABLEGRAMS

The following report from official German sources was received this morning: "WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—Headquarters report, April 27: "In Flanders the English charged with their strongest forces against the German front north and northeast of Ypres, running from three to four kilometers. South of the other front, just north of Dochout farm, on the Yser canal, at Saint Julien, in the direction of Gravenstafel, the charges were met in the back by German artillery fire from southeast of Ypres. The charges completely broke down under the German fire, with very heavy losses. "The houses at Lizerne, which were completely destroyed by the enemy's artillery fire, were last night evacuated by the Germans. A bridge head situated immediately eastward is held by the Germans. In the west fighting, near Ypres, the Germans took 50 machine guns. An important railroad junction at Poperinghe, about 12 kilometers west of Ypres, has been shelled by the Germans with visible success. "In the Argonne, north of Viennet-chateau, a French night attack was repulsed. On the Meuse heights the Germans made further progress. Despite French reinforcements, the enemy attacks against the German position at Combre failed. A violent charge in Ally forest was repulsed, with heavy losses for the enemy. Also

She sunk in ten minutes. All the officers perished at their post. One hundred and thirty-six of the crew, including eleven under-officers, were rescued by the Italian authorities.

The Leon Gambetta was of 12,400 tons, carrying 710 men and officers and making 23 knots. She was built 13 years ago.

Four War-Arenas Racked With Battles of Critical Importance

LONDON, England, April 28.—Military preparations on a vast scale and of critical importance are proceeding simultaneously in four fields of action. In Flanders the Germans are struggling for the mastery of the territory along the Yser river. The German and French accounts as to the results show a marked disparity. Berlin reports that the British efforts to recover lost ground have failed. Paris asserts that further progress has been made at Ypres and heavy losses inflicted on the Germans. More than 800 German soldiers are said to have been found dead at one point. A new German attack on a large scale has been inaugurated in Poland. Berlin declares that the Germans have conquered a Russian position in the vicinity of Suwalki along a twelve-mile front. The Carpathians is the third scene of big operations. Here the Russians still maintain their offensive. The Dardanelles straits is the fourth war-arena where there is activity now. The troops of the Allies are progressing on both sides in their attacks on the forts guarding the outer sea entrance to Constantinople.

SENATE PASSES TAX EXEMPTION FOR RAILROAD

Three Dissenting Votes After Financial Status of Railroad is Set Forth

With only three dissenting votes House Bill 24, relating to the exemption of the Hilo Railroad from taxation for a period of three years, passed third reading in the senate yesterday. Those who voted against the measure were Senators Coke, Robinson and Metzger.

A communication was read from a committee of bondholders in the company, asking that the present period of exemption be extended, thus giving the company five years' grace from paying taxes. It was explained that the company now is being reorganized, and that this reorganization will be helped if the company is not taxed during the next five years. Metzger opposed the measure on the ground that its passage would deprive the county of Hawaii from certain revenues.

Senator Castle moved that the bill pass third reading, seconded by Senator Wirtz. Senator Metzger, referring to the communication from the committee of bondholders, said that the legislature was up against a pretty big bunch of men. Senator Wirtz wanted to know if Senator Metzger was insinuating something, and to whom it was directed. The latter senator added that perhaps the committee was looking for anything in the way of charity legislation that might assist the company.

"It's not right," added Senator Metzger. "They come here three years ahead of time and want us to give them five years exemption from taxation."

Senator Coke wanted to know why the bill could not be put over until the next legislature. Senator Wirtz said that if the legislature passed the bill now it would be definite and would assist in the reorganization of the Hilo Railroad.

As far as the senate is concerned, the measure is ready for the governor.

METZGER TALKS AND F-4 RESOLUTION IS KILLED IN SENATE

House Concurrent Resolution 27, which is a memorial to Congress asking that it provide for the families and other dependents of the submarine F-4, was tabled in the senate yesterday afternoon, not one of the members of the upper house rising in defense of the measure.

"We should further no more of these"

LEGISLATIVE NOTES

House Concurrent Resolution 24, a memorial to Congress asking for woman suffrage in Hawaii, will be taken up for discussion in the senate this afternoon.

The senate yesterday decided to adjourn at 5 o'clock this evening and then meet with the lower house until about 10 o'clock, at which time the legislature will adjourn sine die.

Representative Williamson's House Bill 97 to prohibit members of the boards of supervisors from being engaged with concerns doing business with the municipalities was tabled in the house yesterday on recommendation of the county affairs committee.

Representative Makekani's resolution to direct the board of health not to use the lance for purposes of examination at the Kalihi receiving station without the consent of the patients was tabled in the house yesterday on recommendation of the health committee.

The veto of the governor on the bill providing for special county elections to fill any vacancy on the board of supervisors does not mean that hereafter vacancies cannot be filled, as was stated this morning. In the first place, vacancies can be filled by appointment and in the second place the bill did not affect the city and county of Honolulu. In case of a vacancy on the Honolulu board, the mayor will fill it by appointment, with the approval of the remaining supervisors.

Representative J. H. Coney's bill to regulate the use and operation of vehicles upon the highways and elsewhere in the territory went to a sudden death in the senate yesterday afternoon, following a motion by Senator Rice to table the measure. Senator Rice explained that, while undoubtedly there are many good features in the bill, it came to the house too late for adequate consideration. On the other hand, he added, there have been complaints against the bill from residents of the other islands. He also pointed out that the passage of the bill would decrease county revenues.

The other members of the senate seemed to be of the same opinion as Senator Metzger. Some thought that a matter like this should be left to the navy department; that it is not up to the present legislature to take the step. Prior to being sent to the senate, the resolution was adopted unanimously by the house.

Joao Vieira da Luz, 60 years old, died Monday at Waiolu, where he was employed as a watchman and the funeral was held at Waiolu yesterday. The deceased came to Hawaii from Portugal 30 years ago.

CONFERENCE ON COMPENSATION IS O. K.'D BY SENATE

Senator Castle's workmen's compensation measure, senate bill 2, relating to compensation for employees injured while in the performance of their work, was finally agreed upon by the senate yesterday afternoon upon the recommendation of a conference committee of both branches.

The only solon not concurring with the report was Senator Metzger, who introduced a minority committee report in which he sought to have the bill amended. Metzger's complaint to the bill was that, in fixing the amount of compensation, an employee receiving $5 a day was classed with the employee receiving $4.41 a day. Metzger's amendment limited the application of the act to employees receiving $20 a week or less. It failed to pass.

COLLEGE WON'T BE INVESTIGATED BY COMMISSION

The same idea was embodied in the suggestion for the establishment of an agricultural high school in close connection with the college made originally by the holdover committee of the senate on education, and endorsed and recommended by the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce. Your committee, upon inquiry, has, however, found that the cost of such a school would be very great; that the present equipment of the college is not sufficient, nor could much of it be used for that purpose since it has been acquired from federal funds; and that if a school should be under the department of public instruction rather than the college, since when established such a school should, within its field, stand in the same general relation to the entire scheme of public instruction as the present high schools occupy within the special fields now covered by them. Your committee has further found upon inquiry that both the department of public instruction and the president and regents of the College of Hawaii are proposing to formulate and submit to the next legislature some more concrete and detailed suggestions along these lines. There has been made to the committee during the present session.

"Your committee believes that this subject can properly be left with the superintendent and commissioners of public instruction and the president and regents of the college, since it is a part of their duty to study, perfect and extend in every practicable way the system of public instruction of the territory, and to bring it within the reach of as many as possible, especially since it appears that the question is now receiving their careful attention."

"Under these circumstances your committee is of the opinion that the appointment of a commission to consider this matter is unnecessary and would merely lead to duplication of work. Accordingly your committee recommends that the resolution be tabled."

Those who suffer from liver ailments will find relief in Rexall salts, sold by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd. It is suggested by the management that those who will entertain congressmen or others should inform the management as early as possible.

SALVAGE WORK MUST BE BEGUN ALL OVER AGAIN

Rough Weather Plays Havoc With Gear For Raising Sunken Submarine

Calmer winds and quieter seas made it possible to resume salvage work on the F-4 this morning. The recent spell of rough weather accomplished the undoing of nearly all the work of the past three weeks, and even before a new start can be made it will be necessary to spend some time clearing away the damage.

Of the four lines that were finally placed around the sunken boat and then passed with infinite toil and trouble to the lifting screws, only one remains intact. The big wire cable secured from Hilo still holds, but the other three have been chafed apart on the hull of the submarine by the constant buffeting of the waves.

Isn't the Scourge Self-Inflicted?

Along with the many phases of the much talked of "Home Buying" campaigns which, as never before, are constantly being brought to the notice of the public, there comes the following issue which seems worthy of comment:

The first questions which automatically present themselves to the thinking merchant in this regard are probably: "Why do the people buy away from home—and how do they get the idea that their wants can be fulfilled?"

THE ANSWER IS SIMPLE ENOUGH!

The houses which are in competition with you local merchants are "right on the job."

THEY ADVERTISE EXTENSIVELY.

It is their source of business livelihood. It is the very essence of their existence—and in this regard, bear in mind the fact that it is absolutely necessary to do this in a very much more expensive manner, in order to reach YOUR customers, than it would be for you to present your advertising to them. Therefore, it would seem reasonable to conclude that if your business is suffering from the inroads made upon it by "catalogue houses," you are not entirely blameless.

The People Must Know.

The buying public wants to be informed as to what is being accomplished in mercantile ways, what is being worn, what is being most successfully used for this or that.

THAT IS WHAT ADVERTISING IS FOR,

to inform the patrons of every line of business as to what you have to offer, in short—

They Want Store-News

and you may rest assured that if you are not getting what you consider your due share of business, it is principally because some other fellow is telling them what they want to know—and as a consequence they are reciprocating his interest in their desires by trading with him.

And—in passing, this same principle may be applied to local competition as well as to that of the catalogue houses.

The Business Exists—It's Simply Up To You To Go After It —And You'll Get It.

There is no room for further argument; there is a certain amount of business going out of this city that rightfully should belong to you local merchants—provided you prove yourselves deserving of it in demonstrating your willingness to cooperate with your patrons by keeping them posted, not only as well as the catalogue houses, but BETTER.

EDUCATION IS THE FOUNDATION OF ALL PROGRESS

and education takes on many forms nowadays. In this regard,

Advertising Holds the Center of the Commercial Stage

If you have something new, the people will not know about it if you keep it hidden within the four walls of your store. If you inaugurate a new "wrinkle" in your service, it is for the benefit of your patrons and they should know about it. If you have stock on hand for which you would gladly share the ordinary profit with your patrons, in order to turn over your capital to a better advantage, you can't accomplish this unless you "let the people in on it." They are the ones who are necessary for this advantageous cooperation.

Times have advanced beyond the age when retail merchants could rely upon the "mouth-to-mouth" method of advertising.

OSTEOPATHY

From its name, it might be inferred that Osteopathy deals only with the adjustments of the bones. This idea is erroneous. Muscles, ligaments and various organs are dealt with in regard to position, relation and size. Osteopathy is not Massage, but a drugless method of removing the cause of the disease by careful readjustment, thereby establishing structural harmony.

The digging up of some old shells in the rear of 1319 Emma street has aroused speculation as to when and why they were buried in the neighborhood of the queen's home many years ago. One of the theories advanced is that the old U. S. frigate Boston was in port more than a score of years ago and the shells were brought up town and buried on the premises of a member of the then committee of safety, to be used in case of need.

The following divorce suits have been filed in circuit court since Saturday, making a total of 106 since the first of the year: Heary H. JURY VERDICT IN SILVA CASE NOT 'WHITE SLAVERY'

A published report that Manuel G. Silva was found guilty on a "white slavery" charge by a federal jury on Monday night is in error. There were three counts against Silva, two relating to the so-called "white slave" offense and the third a less serious statutory charge. The jury did not find him guilty of "white slavery," but of adultery. Silva was sentenced to 15 days in the Oahu prison and forced to pay the costs of this third and last trial, which amounted to $50.80.

KISHI CASE MAY YET BECOME ONE FOR DIPLOMACY

Appeal to Consular Channels and From These to Embassies Is Possibility

The Kishi case may become a subject of diplomatic interchanges between Japan, the United States and Great Britain, if the circuit and supreme courts of the territory should decide against the propriety of the legislature's grant of $12,000 to pay H. Kishi's bill for the feeding of immigrants held at the Honolulu quarantine station in December, 1911, and January, 1912.

Appeal to consular channels will be out of the question as long as Kishi has the chance of a remedy at law, but should the supreme court disapprove of the legislative grant, Kishi, who is a Japanese subject, by placing the matter before the Japanese consul here could undoubtedly have representations made to Washington.

The United States, in turn, would then take the case up with Great Britain, for the ship which brought the immigrants, and which under the charter is responsible for the money, is of British registry and ownership. Great Britain, it is thought, would in that event secure a speedy settlement of the claim, for it is unanimously conceded that Kishi carried out his contract in good faith and should have his claim settled in full.

Meanwhile the territorial board of immigration holds steadfastly to its determination not to approve the drawing of a warrant by the auditor, and Kishi's next move will be to throw the matter into the courts by a writ of mandamus.

next Tuesday for the congressional party will be the biggest thing ever attempted by the Honolulu Ad Club. Bigger in more ways than mere attendance.

"This entertainment will give us a chance to meet face to face the controllers of our bread and butter," said Chairman Gage of the committee. "It will be the biggest and best to date, because the opportunity is the biggest."

There will be a number of stunts pulled off, regarding which the committee is maintaining dark secrecy. Seats are being reserved, and members who haven't already secured theirs had better get in line.

Another speaker to day was Arthur M. McClure of Siam. He talked of industrial training in that country, and gave an interesting and amusing account of how he started a college paper there.

The music feature, on which the ad club is always strong, was supplied by A. E. Larmer and Ben Josea, who lived up to expectations.

Shipping Illustrated, one of the recognized authorities on merchant marine and shipping topics, published at New York, contains a readable review of work done at Honolulu harbor, entitled "Port Improvements at Hawaii." The article is accompanied by a number of illustrations showing several ocean-going steamers entering and leaving the harbor. Another picture gives a good idea of the extent of the coasting fleet. The letter-press deals with the march of improvements and the recent installation of equipment to take care of the constantly increasing tonnage entering the port.

What Mind Does For the Body

IS there any wonder of medicine or surgery to be compared with the wonders of the mind? There are doubtless endless feats being performed by medical scientists, but, as compared with the miracles of mind, they are as nothing. The trouble is that so few of us realize the power of mind to heal or to sicken us, for if we all knew its limitless possibilities there would be less call for the medical feats which now astonish the world at large.

Scientists as a whole, however, have recognized the fact that the body amounts to very little and the mind to everything. The person who stands guard over his mind, keeping it filled with "illuminating, beautiful thoughts," has very little trouble with his body. Unfortunately for us, almost 1,900 years of slavery to the body have dulled our comprehension, have blinded us to the freedom of mind. We should shake off the shackles of physical slavery and rise to a realization of our rights as free men in mental liberty.

Constant Sickness. Those who live entirely in the body, thinking only of their physical welfare, accomplish what? Only their constant sickness. They recover from a cold only to have stomach trouble, and from that they pass on to rheumatism, and so on down the path of illness where their beliefs lead them. On the contrary, those who forget their bodies as reason as possible revel in the freedom of perfect health, for they have found the truth—that the less you think about the body the less it will trouble you.

The physical slaves who wish to jeer at this truth should stop and think of the many instances where heroic feats have been accomplished by the physically frail under circumstances where they have entirely forgotten their bodies. Take, for example, the survivors of the Titanic wreck. In many of the lifeboats delicate women rowed for hours with hands that were lacerated and torn from the unaccustomed labor and under the stress of necessity so forgot their bodies that they never noticed their skinless, bleeding palms. When they were picked up the next morning and had time to think of their bodies many of them succumbed entirely, but up until that time they were too busy to notice mere physical conditions.

This is just one instance in a thousand which goes to prove that the body can be entirely forgotten at will, even under conditions which would be absolutely torturous if noticed. The more we busy ourselves mentally the better health we will enjoy.

When the mind is filled with love, health and happiness the body will reflect these qualities, but when the mind is full of the fear of disease the body reflects the disease. If we could only realize that our bodies are but the mirrors of our minds we would make sure that the reflection was lovely to look upon.

SPRING HAT

A SMALL hat of tan suede is shown in the illustration. The underbrim is faced with rose colored straw. Rose colored velvet ribbon encircles the crown. Small crabsapples are used front and back, and ties of rose velvet ribbon hang coquettishly down the back.

WHEN FUR IS RELEGATED TO BACKGROUND.

WHEN fur ceases to make an appeal, and it does temporarily, secede from favor in the spring, returning when summer is at its height for an exotic season, we shall have ruffles of delicate mousseline and lace upon our indoor coats and, on our severely tailored suits, silk braid, used as a binding or a bordering. Braid treatments are very favorite spring-trimming methods.

SHORT SLEEVED FROCK IS SEEN NO MORE

THE short sleeved lingerie frock has ceased to exist for daytime wear. Every frock having the slightest claim to a place in the lingerie class has sleeves which cover the arms from shoulder to wrist, and the wrists are usually so generously frilled that the hands are half veiled.

Comfortable sleeves most of them are, for instead of being cut in one with the bodice or set into extremely long shoulders they are attached at a normal position. There is no drag from the waist line or the elbows, and even when a bit tight about the wrists, as many of them are, the sense of strain is lacking.

Practically the only frock which has a skirt yoke of uniform depth all around is the one in lingerie. Nearly always this is a simulated yoke formed of from three to eight rows of shirtings, and some of those shirtings are made prominent by cordings. This sort of treatment depends entirely upon the proportions of the wearer. Needless to say, a shirred yoke does not become a rounded figure.

Along with fullness below the knees have come trimmings for the skirt of the lingerie frock. These garnishings are, taking attractive terms, which seem new to shoppers who cannot remember as far back as the early fifties or who have not seen portraits of the fashion leaders of that period. Few or five inch bands, scalloped in long and shallow manner along both edges, are novel. When one of these is laid flat about a skirt below the knees and the lower edge of that band is defined by an inch wide fluting the effect is particularly quaint. This fluting scheme is repeated at the edge of the hem and a band and fluting garnishing appear somewhere about the bodice.

The back closing bolero effect is produced by a fluting edged, scalloped band on the bodice of a charming frock in white voile. The girl who wears it is unusually slender, and the deep, irregularly edged band crossing the figure halfway down from the shoulders furnishes the fullness needed. The wavy line near the waist is emphasized by a girdle of broad black velvet ribbon that at the back becomes a short sash. A black velvet sash, however, is an exception. Comparatively few of them are seen, as the all white idea prevails in lingerie frocks.

Collegian Clothes

Men and young men who have favored us with their business know that it is not conceit which has influenced this statement. It is our day-in and day-out experience in dealing with critical dressers.

The moment you see Collegian Spring Styles, you'll admit we are justified in making such emphatically flattering remarks about them.

However, when thinking about the clever style of these clothes, be careful not to overlook the fact that they are excellently tailored from the best of woolsens. And, the prices are as low as the values are high—$20 to $35.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28, 1915. FORCING THE CENSORSHIP TO RELAX.

CLOSING ITS USEFUL WORK.

The legislature of 1915 will end its course tonight after a rather uneventful session and yet one filled with useful work.

If there has been no big outstanding piece of legislation perfected which gripped the imagination and held the attention of the territory, neither has there been any freak measure to furnish amusement for the horde.

If there has been no epoch-making law put upon the statute books, neither has there been any slaying of good bills for vicious or partisanly political reasons.

The legislature has gone steadily ahead since its opening—studying, estimating, listening, debating, and has turned out a good volume of useful measures. House and senate have been painstaking and energetic. A few worthy bills have failed, in the majority of cases because they were presented too late in the session for thorough consideration; in other cases, they involved expenditure of public funds to an extent deemed unwise in a time of financial uncertainty; in still other cases, public sentiment was shown to be emphatically divided and the legislators plainly did not wish to take the initiative without marked direction from the people.

A noteworthy feature of this session has been the harmony between the executive and judicial branches. It has existed before, but not for several sessions at least has there been such an attempt made to emphasize it. This is particularly due to mutual attitudes and partly to the "get together" spirit that for three years past has been sweeping over the territory. Hawaii, dependent because of its territorial status upon the good-will and constant attention of absentee government to a very large extent—to government at Washington—has reaped the consequence of internal splits, of home dissension upon matters to be settled at the national capital. This has served to direct attention to the desirability of harmony at home and the spirit of harmony is steadily permeating the entire atmosphere. The legislature has felt its kindly influence. The old, petty, local "scraps" have not seemed worth while. There has been no disposition upon the part of mischievous legislators to bait the governor or department heads. House and senate leaders have preferred to make their record not in political maneuvering but in efficiency. In the senate a healthy Democratic minority has voted regularly upon a non-partisan basis. For the few hours remaining there is no reason why this good record shall not be maintained and augmented.

THE SECOND INFANTRY BAND.

Comparatively few people in Honolulu know the excellence of the Second Infantry band of Fort Shafter. Under the able leadership of Mr. Albert Jacobsen—whose work as a director of the massed bands during the recent Mid-Pacific Carnival was justly praised—the military organization is steadily improving and its concerts are more and more enjoyable. The band and orchestra give this suburban post a musical attraction of an unusual order.

The commanding officer of the post, Col. French, and the adjutant, Capt. Lincoln, give much attention and encouragement to the band and its work. Programs are arranged several times weekly, and now there are announced special programs for May 3 and May 5.

Many people in Honolulu not blessed with autos would like to hear the Second Infantry band. Would it not be possible to establish an occasional "exchange night," when the Hawaiian band would perform at Shafter and the Second Infantry organization come to Honolulu?

Delegate Quezon, one of the Philippine representatives in Congress, believes that the Jones bill will pass at the next session. The Jones bill amended should have been passed by the last Congress, but President Wilson's insistence on the Ship Purchase legislation blocked everything else, including the highly important conservation bill advocated by Secretary Lane. The Philippines are getting restive under Democratic administration; they do not see immediate independence and they do see a great deal of temporizing. The outlook is not a happy one for the Democratic majority.

Heroic, stoic Kitchener, to banish booze! He is almost as hard a drinker as Mr. Bryan.—Chicago Tribune.

The war-chiefs of Europe are being forced to relax the military rigidity of the censorship to stimulate enthusiasm and patriotism at home. As the British editors predicted early in the campaign, the bare and brutal facts of the official communiques have failed to stir the people to the desired pitch. So the censors are permitting more and more details of the fighting to be sent home from the fronts.

The press censorship in both France and England is still far too rigorous for the good of the countries' cause, in the opinion of M. Henry Franklin-Bouillon, chairman of the committee of foreign affairs of the French chamber of deputies, who has been in London for a series of war conferences with Lord Kitchener, Chancellor Lloyd-George, Sir Edward Grey and other statesmen.

"Part of the work of the committee which sent me on my present mission," he said, "is to urge that not only in our own countries but in neutral countries as well, a true perspective of the course of events should be held out. In England and France alike, the main obstacle is the excessive rigor of the censorship, and this subject I discussed with some of the leading men of England. I was glad to learn that some concessions to the press are now being considered.

"What we all feel on the foreign committee is that our own communiques are too bald and uninteresting a recital to inspire our people with that enthusiasm so necessary to maintain them steadily until victory is won."

THE CASE OF LIEBKNECHT.

Somewhat obscure telegraphic despatches a few days ago brought the news that the famous Karl Liebknecht, German Socialist leader and head of the anti-war party, had been sent to the front in Alsace. When this news got out over Europe, tremendous discussion ensued.

Associated Press correspondence from Amsterdam indicates that Liebknecht was sent to the front to keep him from developing the Socialistic wing too strongly during war-time.

Liebknecht is a member of the Reichstag, and is therefore exempt from military service while the imperial legislature is actually sitting, but his exemption ceases when the house adjourns, and the military authorities have decided that henceforth he must serve at the front for the whole period of each legislative adjournment. The purpose of this, Liebknecht's friends assert, is to keep him away from contact with other Socialists and under military discipline.

Herr Liebknecht is 43 years old. He served as a young man in a regiment of engineers, doing his full three years, and then passing successively into the reserves and the landsturm. The other men of his particular class have not been called to the colors, says the Associated Press.

The government lost no time in sending Liebknecht away once this move had been decided upon. He was drafted without delay for active service in Lorraine, somewhere east of Verdun.

The man who had been the leader of the little anti-war group in the Reichstag is now a simple private, under strictest military discipline, and occupied day and night with the tasks allotted him by his officers.

"Italy's Probable Campaign Plan" is the subject of an extremely interesting magazine article which may be read with the comfortable feeling that if Italy ever goes to war, its campaign will be entirely different, so the fact won't be spoiled by the prediction.

Serbia's army is kept so busy fighting cholera, typhus, infections and other assorted diseases that it seems to have ceased plaguing the Austrians.

The governor's veto would indicate that he doesn't consider that bill chiropractical.

From the way they're fighting over Lizerne it must be a mighty desirable place.

If the congressional junket costs Hawaii less than $50,000 it will be a wonder.

He who observes half of the new territorial laws will be doing well.

In a few more hours Hawaii's legislators will be interned.

Russia is letting the Allies try it awhile.

Personal, Mentioned

SENATOR and MRS. D. E. METZGER are booked to the coast in the Matsonia.

E. I. PARKER is among the passengers booked to the mainland in the steamer Matsonia.

CAPTAIN OF POLICE C. H. BAKER is back on duty after being off on account of illness.

JAMES MEINERNY is leaving for the mainland on a business trip, a passenger in the Matsonia.

PAUL SUPER, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will be a passenger to the coast in the Matsonia.

P. C. JONES is numbered with prospective passengers to the mainland in the Matsonia next Wednesday morning.

CHARLES H. HUSTACE has planned to visit the Panama-Pacific exposition. He will be a passenger to the coast in the liner Matsonia.

A. C. COULTER, now of the Motor Cycle Corps of the Royal Engineers, training in Aberdeen, Scotland, was assistant engineer at Papaikou mill.

JOHN MACKENZIE, one of the Matson line men, is now in Company D, 6th Battalion, Seaforth Highlanders, stationed at Bedford, Eng.

JAMES G. MUTCH, formerly a resident of Hawaii, has enlisted under the colors of the 157th Company Royal Artillery with present quarters at Aberdeen, Scotland.

BERT M. THOMAS expects to complete his duties connected with the transfer of the local internal revenue office and leave the islands for the coast in the liner Matsonia.

MARG KLAW, the noted theatrical manager who arrived in Honolulu on the Matsonia yesterday, is taking the "around-the-island" tour today to see as much of island life as possible before going back to New York.

MISS MILDRED DE LACKNER, in charge of Elele, Kauai, hospital, will leave for the mainland next Wednesday in the Matsonia. Miss de Lackner expects to return to her duties on Kauai the early part of October.

REV. C. F. AKED of the First Congregational church, San Francisco, emphasized the purpose of his visit to the islands to be for rest by declining the invitation of the Ad Club to speak at the luncheon today. Rev. Aked is staying at the Moana hotel.

MRS. J. B. GREATA was reported as resting well at the Kapiolani Maternity Home last night. She was removed from the liner Manchuria when it arrived from the Orient. The baby boy is also reported as well.

HUGH S. KNOX, son of former Secretary of State Philander C. Knox, recently arrived from San Francisco. Mr. Knox's first visit to Hawaii was seven years ago when he was on a tour around the world. He is now going to spend more time here.

ROBERT G. MACKENZIE and F. W. Sheperd, formerly assistant engineer and overseer of Paauhau plantation, have enlisted in the 4th Battalion Cameron Highlanders for service in the British army. Their present quarters is Cameron Depot, Rose street, Inverness, Scotland.

LIM-PAK CHANG, president of the Marine and Fire Insurance Company of Canton who passed through Honolulu yesterday as one of the Chinese trade commissioners, is called the "Rockefeller" of the Far East. Lim-Pak's fortune is estimated in millions. When the Chinese government floated its last loan of $20,000,000, he subscribed for one-half of the loan individually.

PAUL SUPER, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., leaves for the mainland on the Matsonia next Wednesday. He will spend five days in company with Lloyd R. Killam, secretary of the Oriental work, at the conference of employed officers of the National Y. M. C. A. at Asilmar near San Francisco, May 19 to 24. Mr. Super will visit the exposition and take several trips around San Francisco bay, returning to Honolulu June 8.

FEDERAL COURT NOTES.

The trial of Jack Scully was set for May 14 by Judge Clemons today. Scully pleaded not guilty to the federal charge of dealing in opium.

Ralph Messenger of the 1st Field Artillery, Schofield Barracks, pleaded guilty to the charge of sending obscene pictures through the mail. He was fined $50 and the costs of court but was not sentenced to prison.

BARTLETT RUMOR DENIED BUT IT STILL PERSISTS

Report of Reorganization of Brewery Affairs—Meetings Being Held

In confirmation of the report several days ago that the minority stockholders' attack on President and Manager C. G. Bartlett of the brewery might force Bartlett's withdrawal from the company, rumors were about yesterday of an early shakeup in brewery affairs.

Attorneys for both sides today denied that a compromise has been virtually reached, but numerous meetings and conferences are being held. Bartlett was engaged in an important meeting this morning and unable to see a prospective interviewer.

"There is to be no compromise in the brewery case as far as we know," said Attorney E. C. Peters, speaking for H. Gooding Field and F. R. Greenwell, minority stockholders.

A. S. Humphreys, attorney for C. G. Bartlett, referred to the story of the purported compromise as "siftings of a lot of street sweepings."

Said Attorney Peters: "There are two points made in the complaint. First, the removal of Bartlett and second, the restitution of the money. That is all. As far as we know, there is absolutely nothing doing regarding a compromise."

Attorney Humphreys said that Bartlett still has four days in which to file an answer to the suit. He added that some form of answer will be filed, but that no policy has as yet been outlined.

"The directors of the brewery have not yet even considered the matter of Bartlett's resignation," he said. Both attorneys declare that there are no new developments in the case.

Rumors continue prevalent today, however, that Bartlett will resign as president and manager of the brewery and dispose of his majority holdings. This, it is said, will upset the present directorate. It is further rumored that a compromise soon will be effected whereby Bartlett will pay back to the company a part of the money which it is alleged in the complaint filed by Field and Greenwell that he misappropriated.

It is reported that St. C. Sayres, manager of the Rainier bottling works and local agent for the Rainier Brewery at Seattle, is slated for the position of manager of the local brewery should Bartlett resign. It is likewise rumored that Bartlett is to become connected with Peacock & Company.

Little Interviews

—ROBERT W. SHINGLE: I think that the best way for us to secure our long-desired federal building is not to further embarrass the secretary of the treasury with representations concerning the site. Present estimates indicate a deficit for the national government of $177,000,000 by the end of 1916, due to the final cessation of the sugar duty, and the expiration of the war tax. Honolulu's large appropriation, more than $1,300,000, will be taken care of, we hope, but if the matter is made vexatious this might be a good place to curtail expenditures.

PINEAPPLE DAY AT EXPOSITION MAY BE NOV. 14

Sunday, November 14, will be Hawaiian Pineapple Day at the San Francisco exposition, if the exposition directors accede to the request made of them by H. P. Wood, secretary of the Hawaii Promotion Committee.

A letter received yesterday from Mr. Wood by A. P. Taylor, assistant secretary of the committee, says that the islands will receive a great deal of valuable publicity from the exposition press bureau if the day is allotted. Fresh California fruits will be scarce by November, and the Hawaiian pineapples will then attract more attention than they would earlier in the season.

Mr. Wood suggests that Mr. Taylor send over some fruit of good size as well as some photographs illustrative of the pineapple industry in the islands.

During May, June, July and August our store will close Saturdays at 1 o'clock.

... of the most of friends of the ... The bride has for some time been residing in Honolulu. Her home originally was in Santa Cruz, Cal. Mr. Robert Young is a son of the late Alexander Young of this city and resides in Hawaii, five miles from Hilo on the Volcano road, where he is a sugar planter and owns extensive ...

The bride wore a dainty creation of cream colored crepe de chine and a large pile hat of cream. She carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley and maidenhair fern. Miss Muriel Thomas, younger sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a white tailored suit. Mr. Yehood A. Young, brother of the groom, was best man.

The wedding was a very quiet one and was attended only by the most intimate friends and relatives of the bride and the groom. From the church, the couple hurried to a limousine which trailed a white satin slipper to the steamer Mauna Kea, in which they departed for Hilo. They will take a wedding trip to the mainland within the next month, when Mr. Young can leave his business.

As the steamer left her moorings the wedding banquet was thrown and was caught by Miss Muriel Thomas, maid of honor.

Wedding to Follow Hawaiian Courtship.

SAN FRANCISCO. Miss Grace Gilmore, prominent in social circles of Honolulu and this city and the granddaughter of the late Col. Braden D. Slaughter, will become the bride of Charles Thomas Bailey at the home of her mother at 2614 Laguna street on next Saturday evening. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. William P. Short of Benicia.

It was while on a visit to her uncle, C. D. Lufkin, at Waialuku, in the Hawaiian Islands, that the bride-to-be met her future husband.

Several society people of Honolulu have made a special trip to attend the wedding, among whom are Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Baldwin, Miss Elizabeth McFarland, Miss Lucia Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. White, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Sawyer and Miss Jane Stowe.

The bride will be given away by her brother, George Gilmore, while C. D. Lufkin will act as best man for Bailey. The couple will make Honolulu their home.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Anna Wright Entertains.

The members of the Past Matrons and Patron Club of Leahi Chapter No. 2, O. E. S., were entertained at a delightful banquet by Mrs. Anna Wright last evening at the Ouygger Club grounds. The members and invited guests commenced to arrive a little before 6 o'clock, and by the time the tables were set there were about 30 present.

Mrs. Wright was the recipient of two beautiful gifts from the P. M. P. Club and the Golden Circle Sewing Club.

After the repast a general business meeting of the club was held. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. MacLean, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crabbe, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Beedy, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Tom Smith, Mrs. Anna Wright, Miss Sharp.

Richter-Bechert Nuptials.

On Sunday, April 25, at the German Lutheran church, Miss Ida Matilda Bechert of Lihue, Kauai, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Richter of Puuloa, Oahu.

The bride was very prettily gowned in white crepe meter trimmed in real lace, the dress made up in the latest mode. She was led to the altar by the groom, and attended by her sisters, Misses Olga and Marie Bechert. Mr. Richter's attendants were Messrs. C. F. Finkbner and G. S. Schilling.

The bride was given away by her uncle, Franz Bechert.

Immediately after the ceremony a delicious luncheon was served at the home of the uncle, after which the bridal party repaired to the home that Mr. Richter had already prepared at Puuloa, where he is engaged as a concrete engineer for the U. S. Engineers.

Bernard Damon Entertains.

Bernard Damon entertained informally for a few of his friends on Saturday evening. The party was taken in Japanese sampans to a little island where they played games and enjoyed an old fashioned frolic. When they returned to Moanua in the little crafts they were served a delicious supper at the Damon residence. Among those present were the Misses Edith Carter, Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Esme Damon, Etella Hoogs, Kate Singelhurst, Ruth Farrington, Louise Girvin, Margaret Yeong, Mildred Bromwell, Dorothy Winttr, Mae Walker, Clemence Gifford, Florence White, and Dorothy Walker, and Joseph Farrington, Leroy Bush, Albert Bush, Roy Graham, Fred Rosenbaum, Paul Malone, John Gifford, Ernest Mott-Smith, Stanley Mott-Smith, David Withington, George Bromley and George Lindley.

... guests at the Mount Hotel during their sojourn in the islands. San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schwartz and their two daughters, Henrietta and Josephine, are well known in Honolulu and will be given a warm welcome on their return to Hawaii. Miss Henrietta, when in Honolulu was always one of the most popular of the summer set. For some time she attended Puuhou academy, a boarding school at Hilo, and was a member of the Puuhou club. Mr. Schwartz is a business man of Honolulu.

Receive Congratulations.

Congratulations are being sent to the Honolulu home of Lieut. and Mrs. Rollin L. Tilton, which was brightened last month by the arrival of a daughter. The little girl will be called Emily. Mrs. Tilton was the former Miss Kathleen Cates of St. Louis and was a favorite in the summer set of this city when she visited here two years ago as the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Lieut. and Mrs. Francis P. Harloway. Her marriage was an event of last spring and was a fashionable affair at the St. Louis residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mullanphy Cates.—San Francisco Call.

An Informal Dance.

The Misses Charlotte and Gertrude Blake gave an informal dance at their Mauna home on Friday evening. The girls are both members of the Eunaheun academy society, which entertains informally once a week. Bright sunflowers and baskets of maidenhair fern adorned the rooms. The guests were the Misses Mildred Chapin, Ynez Gibson, Margaret Hawk and Sybil Carter, and Gordon Brown, Sam Carter, Fred Carter, Albert Bush, Elmer Crozier, Campbell Crozier, Parker Woods, Stafford Austin, Kenneth Emery.

Of Interest to Army and Navy Folk.

From the San Francisco Chronicle and Examiner of April 18, comes the following clipping of army and navy folk, which are always of interest to their friends at the different posts:

"Capt. and Mrs. Edmund F. Dickens have arrived from their home in New York, and plan to be here during the exposition. They have been living in the East for the past two years. They are the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Follansbee, Jr."

Baby Daughter.

Lieut. and Mrs. Rollin L. Tilton are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl at their home in Honolulu. Mrs. Tilton was Miss Kathleen Cates of St. Louis, and prior to her marriage she visited her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Harloway, when they were stationed in San Francisco. During her sojourn here she shared in the gaieties of the younger set.

T. K. K. SUFFERS THETIS NOT TO BE SUGAR SACKS IN HEAVY LOSS BY WAR RETIRED FOR AGE ISLAND FREIGHT LEFT BEHIND

More than 600 shareholders in the T. K. K. Kaisha, operating passenger and freight steamers in the trans-Pacific service, listened to a report made by President S. Asano at Tokyo recently, which told of tremendous losses in maintenance and the suspension of the usual dividend.

The United States coastguard cutter Thetis, an constant service for about 10 years as an exploring ship and later a vessel in the U. S. revenue cutter service, will continue a station ship in the Hawaiian islands for some time.

A number of island sugar companies are disappointed in not receiving a continuance of sacks by the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria.

The tremendous falling off in revenue is attributed by President Asano to the outbreak of the war. He called attention to the loss during the half year (from July 1, 1914, until March 31, 1915), amounting to yen 145,811,788 and other matters of interest to the company.

A cablegram was said to have been sent to Washington giving the exact condition of the venerable vessel. The Thetis is built of wood, excellent material having been used in its hull, deck and houses. It has safely weathered several Arctic expeditions, having been used in the relief of the Greeley party.

Officers in the steamer say that thousands of tons of Oriental merchandise were left behind at ports along the China and Japan coast. The scarcity of tonnage because of the European war has greatly congested cargo throughout the Orient. It is impossible to find space to carry products now offered.

There were present 651 shareholders, in person or represented, at the meeting. Mr. Seichiro Asano, the president of the company, presided and delivered an address, giving an outline of what has been done by the company during the half-year ending on March 31. He said:

The shipping industry during the latter half of last year has received a severe blow directly and indirectly on account of the European war. As Japan participated in the war, we could not escape getting our ships held up while on voyage. On that account the losses suffered by us through the services amounted to yen 399,000 or more.

Makaweli May Return in Ballast. The barkentine Makaweli, now discharging Australian coal at Port Allen, may proceed to Puket Sound in ballast. Capt. Neilsen expects to receive orders to leave Kauai within a week. The Makaweli completed its voyage from Newcastle, N. S. W., in a little less than 65 days. It brought 1200 tons of coal to Makaweli, McBryde and Koloa sugar companies.

Since January, this year, many of the merchant marines have been commissioned as transport ships and the world began to feel the shortage of ships. As a result the rate of freight rose considerably and the goods to be carried are plenty. The present affords an extraordinary opportunity to the shippers and may be called the height of prosperity. Looking ahead, the result of the business for the coming year, even if it be such as between the first and the latter halves of last year, there will at least be 12 per cent dividend on the old and 8 per cent on the new shares. The amount of curtailment of the company expenses have reached yen 420,000 and there will be more curtailment.

The American-Hawaiian freighter Columbian has sailed for Port Allen, Kahului and Hilo to complete 11,400 tons cargo of sugar for delivery at New York.

Stanley Strader's passenger 1915 Packard, No. 1209, will hereafter be driven by Charles Gulick. Phone 2511. Young Hotel Stand. 6150-31

The increased income from the rise of freight rates is expected to be greater than that of the average of last year, between the first and latter halves of that year. Unless there should occur some unexpected events, which would affect the business, the company will be able amply to pay for 140,000 or more yen of losses for this half year, and at least 12 per cent on the old shares and 6 per cent on the new will be declared as dividends.

With a few cabin passengers the Matson Navigation steamer Lurline left San Francisco for Honolulu at 5:20 o'clock yesterday evening. The vessel carries cargo in transit to Kahului.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE United States for the District and Territory of Hawaii. In Bankruptcy, No. 325.

No Change in Schedule. No change will be made in the Inter-island schedule, followed by the Matson liners Matsonia and Wilhelmina, despite a protest made by Hilo that the steamers remain too short a period at the port. The Wilhelmina, to leave Honolulu tomorrow evening, is expected to return Sunday morning. It sometimes happens that an unusual quantity of sugar at Hilo may serve to detain a steamer beyond the regular time. The matter of extending the length of stay of Matson liners at Hilo has been considered at a conference between Manager J. H. Drew of the Matson line shipping department and Leon H. Cooke of Hilo.

Bringing a large general cargo and shipments of war material supplied at the east coast of the United States for delivery at Vladivostok, the Russian steamer Baikal is due for bunker coal about May 4.

Notice. To the creditors of John J. Greene of Honolulu, City and County of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii and district aforesaid, a bankrupt.

After a five-day search, the steamer Finland, New York for Naples and Genoa, via Gibraltar, was released at Genoa as no contraband was found.

The British steamer Egemont Castle passed from the Atlantic to the Pacific through the Panama canal and is due at Honolulu about May 7 for bunker coal. The vessel is said to be carrying a general cargo from the east coast for China and Japan.

SENATOR WARREN WILL GREET OLD FRIENDS ON TRIP

Senator F. E. Warren of Wyoming, who with Mrs. Warren is now on the S. S. Sierra bound for Honolulu with the congressional party, considers himself as in a sense the senatorial representative of this territory in the United States senate, according to statements he made in an interview published on April 15 in the Wyoming Tribune of Cheyenne.

Senator Warren is a personal friend of Robert W. Shingle of Honolulu, to whom a copy of the interview was sent. The senator said, in part: "As you know, Wyoming has contributed to Hawaii a number of distinguished citizens who have made good in that territory. Among those now in Hawaii are Robert W. Shingle, Joseph G. Pratt, Robert W. Breckons, Ed Towse and others. Then there were the late Charles Bon, John C. Baird and William Goetz, who have passed away, and Jett Nash, who has returned to Cheyenne.

WHAT THIN FOLKS SHOULD DO TO GAIN WEIGHT.

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, weak nerves and feeble stomachs, who, having tried advertised flesh-makers, food-fats, physical culture stunts and rub-on creams, resign themselves to life-long skinniness and think nothing will make them fat. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently discovered regenerative force makes fat grow after years of thinness, and is also unequalled for repairing the waste of sickness or faulty digestion and for strengthening the nerves. This remarkable discovery is called Sargol. Six strength-giving, fat-producing elements of acknowledged merit have been combined in this peerless preparation, which is endorsed by eminent physicians, and used by prominent people everywhere. It is absolutely harmless, inexpensive and efficient. A month's systematic use of Sargol should produce flesh and strength by correcting faults of digestion and by supplying highly concentrated fats to the blood. Increased nourishment is obtained from the food eaten, and the additional fats that thin people need are provided. While this new preparation has given splendid results as a nerve-tonic and vitalizer, it should not be used by nervous people unless they wish to gain at least ten pounds of flesh. "UNKNOWN" WOMAN FIGURES IN DIVORCE CASE OF GUGGENHEIM

Supreme Court Justice Guy granted Mrs. Grace S. Guggenheim an interlocutory decree of divorce from M. Robert Guggenheim, son of Daniel Guggenheim, chairman of the board of directors of the American Smelting & Refining Company. Unusual efforts had been made to keep the divorce action a secret, the application not having been entered in the book provided in the supreme court for that purpose. But the news that the action had been started became public property in the latter part of January when Mrs. Guggenheim asked Justice Greenbaum to advance her case to the February calendar.

The case was heard before a referee and little could be learned about the co-respondent. She was referred to in the papers as "an unknown woman." It was rumored, however, that she is prominent in social circles. The referee's report was filed March 20, but it was not until two days later that the summons and complaint were recorded. The Guggenheims were married in 1905 and have two children, Robert and Daniel. Mrs. Guggenheim is a daughter of Mrs. Jacob Bernheimer and a niece of Mrs. De Witt Seligman, wife of the banker. Mr. Guggenheim, a graduate of Columbia, is a millionaire and one of the best-known dog fanciers in the country.

GIRL RUN DOWN BY PUBLIC AUTO

LIHUE, April 27.—A little Chinese girl named Ah Lin, while walking on the road between Koloa plantation store and the court house Friday, was knocked down by an auto driven by one Yamashiro. At first it was thought that the girl was seriously injured but such proved to be not the case. It developed that Yamashiro had no license to drive, so that he was arrested on two counts. When arraigned in the Koloa court Yamashiro pleaded guilty to the charge of driving in auto without first obtaining a chauffeur's license and was fined $2 and $3 costs.

MAKAWELI HAS STRIKE AND FIRE

Makaweli had a small strike of Filipino laborers and fire last week. It appears that 21 of the Filipinos struck. Some of the better class among them went to the management and stated that five of the number were to be blamed for the disturbance and that if those five men were discharged all matters of difference could be easily adjusted. Acting upon this advice, the five men were discharged. Two left the plantation without argument or trouble, but it became necessary to have three of them ejected by the plantation police.

In the evening the police visited Camp 2, where the men had lived and found that they had returned there. It is declared that upon finding them there Officer Hatters became quite angry and lashed one of them with a whip. The latter went away, either stating or giving those about him reason to suspect that he was going for a pistol. He did not get the weapon, however, but joined his other two comrades and went off.

Soon afterward a section of the cane-field was discovered to be on fire and the supposition immediately was that the discharged Filipinos had started the blaze. About 300 laborers were called out by the alarm and by hard work during the night they put out the fire before the fields of young cane were reached. About 20 acres of grown cane were burned over. Deputy Sheriff Crowell of Waimea went immediately in search of the offenders and arrested two of the suspects. Wednesday morning Sheriff Rice hurried to the scene. Before arriving there the third of the discharged Filipinos was brought in. The three men were arraigned in Judge Hofgaard's court at Waimea on the charge of third-degree malicious burnings. County Attorney S. K. Kaao appeared for the prosecution. Defendants waived examination and were committed to the circuit court for trial by jury. They were transferred yesterday afternoon to the Lihue jail to remain until the next term.—Garden Island.

SONG IS THE INDEX OF HEALTH.

The suffragettes are with us. Yet we must here acknowledge the fact that only male canaries sing. There are no Tetraxinis among the birds; also, it is true that only domesticated male canaries sing. When male canaries are given good tutorage, gentle care, and are kept in splendid health, they become mighty midget Carusos. Radiant health is just as needful for canaries, as it is for the members of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Song is the index of health in birds as well as man. Plumage tells the same story. A bird in perfect physical condition and feather is the only kind we ought to have. The Philadelphia Bird Food Company are makers of a food that keeps birds healthy, happy and clever. Bird Manna is a food, a stimulant and a tonic. The famous canary breeders of the Saint Andreasberg, one of the Harz mountains in Germany, use and recommend this preparation. You can buy Bird Manna of your druggist or a package will be mailed to you for 15 cents in stamps.

Orange Color Food, produced by the Philadelphia Bird Food Company, is indicative to that beautiful deep yellow color—the glory of healthy canaries. This is a food—not a drug. It is used during the moulting season and while the feathers are growing on young birds. It is put up in half-pint bottles and sells at 25 cents. Some valuable books are issued by this company, which ought to be in the possession of every bird-owner. "The Bird Fanciers' Handbook," a volume of 120 pages, well illustrated, will tell you all that is necessary for the care of your birds. This book will be mailed on receipt of 15 cents. The book and a package of Bird Manna will be mailed for 25 cents. Orange Color Food, Bird Manna, one 32-page and one 120-page bird book will all be mailed to you on receipt of 50 cents.

Note: Bird Manna is sold only in white metal caps, with the trade-mark, P. B. F. Co. in red. Take no chances with your bird's life by giving him dangerous imitations. The Philadelphia Bird Food Company, 400 North Third street, Philadelphia, Pa.—Adv.

FOREST FIRES IN RHODE ISLAND

[By Latest Mail] PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Forest fires continued to rage in the southern part of the state, destroying much valuable timber. In Charlestown 1000 acres of woodland was burned over and a school house and three farm buildings burned. That fire was under control, but another in Carolina had broken out afresh and with a change of wind was sweeping through a thickly wooded section.

BERNHARDT WAS WARM IN PRAISE OF MME. FORET

Sarah Bernhardt almost always considers the efforts of other artists to attract the singer's notice as not only unnecessary but also highly impossible. However, Bernhardt is an exception to the rule. The great French actress, told Mme. Foret that she considered her an artist with a real art and intelligence. Mme. Foret leads a charming and graceful life to the old days of the Belle France by the use of her costumes and mannerisms of the period. Yet all of her work is given with much gaiety and cheer, and with that naturalness of style that is always of value.

A criticism from the Maidenhead Advertiser (England) will show that Mme. Foret can sing folk songs just as well as she sings the attractive old airs of the court of Louis XVI. This paper said: "Madame Angette Foret, a pretty, vivacious artist, with a musical soprano voice, introduced novelty into the program in the form of folk songs in costume. She seems to breathe new life into the old songs, she renders and is very attractive in her picturesque costumes." In short, Angette Foret is an artist with a novel program of great musical worth which she renders in a very graceful and charming manner.

PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED FOR COMMENCEMENT AT KAMEHAMEHA

The program for the closing weeks of the Kamehameha schools has now been arranged. The three departments will close on June 4 and commencement exercises will take place in the Bishop Memorial chapel June 7. The first event on the program is a dance given in honor of the senior classes of both departments by the Kamehameha Bachelors' Club. The dance will take place in Bishop Hall Saturday evening, May 1. Special invitations have been sent out for all social gatherings. The alumnae will give their annual dance at the girls' school Saturday evening, May 8. This is always well attended by former graduates of the girls' school and their friends. Miss Lydia Aholo is in charge of the dances. The Kamehameha Glee Club has taken Saturday evening, May 15, as the date for its concert, which will be given in the Hawaiian Opera house. On account of a heavy demand for tickets it was found necessary to change the place from Bishop hall. The cadets are doing all they can in order to make the event a success. The proceeds of this concert will be turned over to the athletic association of the school. The junior class of the manual school is planning to give a farewell dance in honor of their older brothers on May 22 in Bishop hall. This custom has been in existence for the past five years and an event to which the seniors always look forward. It is strictly a school event. It falls upon the class of 1912 of the manual department to hold its reunion in 1915 and the class has set May 29 for their gathering, after being out of school three years. The reunion will take place in Bishop hall. At the present time there are only eight out of the eighteen in the 1912 class now in Honolulu. On Friday, June 4, the preparatory department will hold its graduating exercises on the chapel lawn and on Monday evening, June 7, the commencement exercises will take place in the Bishop Memorial chapel.

Doctor's Breakfast

"My breakfast"—says a physician—"consists of fruit, a dish of Grape-Nuts, and one or two eggs." A good breakfast, that, with the cereal part so nourishing—so full of the rich food value of prime wheat and barley. Grape-Nuts is remarkably easy of digestion—about one hour as against 2½ to 3 hours for most foods. Comes ready to eat, crisp, delicious, economical. Good at any meal.

CARNIVAL HEADS SUGGEST PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

part in this play resulted in a very poor financial showing, the deficit amounting to the sum of $345.07. That the expenses were unusual goes without saying and I feel that the Carnival directors should carefully consider the presentation of similar outdoor plays and omit same unless they are able to place some special charge of the production and who will realize the responsibility of making the play pay for itself and not lean on the Carnival Company's resources to make up a deficit. Water Carnival. "The water carnival shows quite a large deficit in the sum of $1593.32. This is to be accounted for largely by the charges for seats having been reduced more than one-half as against last year. The burden of expense is unusually large because it has been found necessary to bring people from the coast to properly present an up-to-date fireworks show. I would recommend that a closer calculation be made regarding the seating capacity on the local waterfront and if this feature is to be repeated from time to time that the admissions or prices for seats be adjusted so as to cover the expense. Program. "Mr. Jas. D. Dougherty, your direct-general, has presented in his report a general comment regarding the week's program and has covered the ground so thoroughly that there is but little left for me to add. However, I think that I voice the sentiments of the majority of our directors in saying that the program was a little too long and extended over too great a period of time. I feel that special care should be taken not to give the public more than they can comfortably enjoy. Financial. "Reterring to the financial report, I wish to say that the plan of underwriting and financing the Carnival project by the issuance of shares of stock in the Mid-Pacific Carnival, Ltd., has proved a success and has worked out very practically in handling the program of the past two years, which have shown an unusual growth as the outcome of the floral parade held for several years past. The organization is now on a well-founded basis and prepared to plan and handle just such form of entertainment as may be deemed advisable each year. With the facts and figures now before you, we feel that little trouble should be found in financing the entertainments in the subsequent years. It is simply for the public, who are represented by your large list of stockholders to indicate by suggestions the kind and change of entertainment which they would like from time to time. Director's Report. "Director-General Dougherty's report says in part: "Much has been said within the past few weeks, now that the Carnival Spirit has been laid to rest awaiting such time as the community shall again demand his presence, and much will be said in the weeks to come as to what we should or should not do in 1916. Possibly one of the greatest cries that I have heard personally has resulted from the elimination of the floral parade from our last celebration. It has never been brought more firmly or convincingly to the storekeepers and merchants of Honolulu that floral parades mean business. In the present stance—although we are loath to admit it or comment on it—we missed the many personal and individual shoppers who have always, openly and freely, out of their own pockets purchased the decorative materials for the entry of their automobiles, floats and effects in the floral pageant. To be sure, this feature has been a very costly one to the directors-general of previous carnivals, but I am willing to state that if the floral parade were to be added to the Carnival program as a special feature, say each four or five years, I am quite sure that the effect would be gazing as well as particularly spectacular; especially in view of the fact that each four or five years there would be introduced an element which in previous years had participated in a floral parade merely as spectators. Decoration. "Probably one of the greatest problems, as well as one of our most recent achievements, has been the unit plan of decoration as outlined and carried through by the chairman of our decorations committee, Mr. Emil A. Berndt. While it may appear amiss for me to pick out at this time any particular associate of the past few months worthy of special mention it would also be ungrateful on my part were I to overlook the magnificent results of a committee's work whose efforts were hampered at every turn and corner of their road—I might say at every street. "This year has brought home to us more forcibly the fact that Honolulu is a 'commissio town.' By commission I do not mean the ordinary street vendor packing a basket; but it has been proven that any good, legitimate, open-air attraction made to amuse a care-free public will pay big and to this end the Carnival directorate of 1916 should look for big revenue. With the many available sites in the downtown section of our city we should be able to mass a most attractive street fair effect; spacing off and conceding within proper limits many new and amusing sidewalk features that add to rather than detract from the success of an up-to-date Carnival city. Army Participation. "There is one problem which is starting the Carnival directors in the size which calls for the earnest consideration of the incoming board of directors. Perhaps no more grateful expression should be tendered to the supporters of the Carnival than to the commanding general and officers of the Hawaiian department, through whose instrumentality Honolulu was enabled to act as the host to eight thousand or more of America's loyal defenders. The handling of the civilian masses that gather within the fold of the Carnival city during the week of our celebration is a small matter in comparison to this particular duty which falls upon the Carnival directorate; for while the Mid-Pacific Carnival, Ltd., is ever ready and equipped to cope with big things, it is hardly fair that this corporation should be looked to to take care of the transportation, accommodations and general welfare that is the due of the city's guests at this time. It is only proper that the stockholders of this corporation, and in fact the entire community, should know that if it were not for the liberality of your local steam railway and street car company the bringing of these eight thousand men to Honolulu would be out of the question. Incidentally, 8000 men out of Honolulu during Carnival week would be a sad state of affairs, not only to the city as a whole but to every individual resident and merchant. If a suggestion would not be considered inopportune, would it not be possible for an association to be formed, say a temporary one for the present, which might be known as the Service Association, whose duty it would be during the Carnival season to handle the service in all its branches; inviting them in large numbers to come to Honolulu, arranging camp sites, transportation and also the various methods of their entertainment while they are the guests of the city? If properly approached I dare say there would be no objection upon the part of the merchants in this community in lending assistance in the nature of withdrawal to finance such a magnificent and beneficial movement. "Much worthy praise should be extended to Mr. Awaki, chairman of the Japanese lantern parade, who with his excellent committee, produced under much difficult conditions, probably the finest lantern parade that has ever been seen in any of our celebrations. "It would be amiss for me at this time to pass over the final pages of our last production without a word or two in acknowledgement of the most excellent services rendered by my secretary, Mr. Will Wayne. Mr. Wayne accepted the position of secretary after much persuasion at a time when many of the more important strings of control of the Carnival had been scattered about, mainly through my absence from the city during the months of September, October and November of 1914, and it was only after many nights of worry and work that anything like daylight could be gotten out of the apparent disorder. Mr. Dougherty's report closes with a brief word of thanks to all others who helped to make the Carnival a success. The interstate commerce commission dismissed complaints made by the Northern Pine Manufacturers' Association that the Chicago & North western and other railroads were charging unreasonable rates on lumber.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results. There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial. Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
