BOLD REPUBLICAN ATTEMPT TO STEAL THE PUBLIC LANDS

A bold attempt on the part of certain Republican Special Interests, aided and abetted by Governor Walter Francis Frear and certain other influential elements of the Republican party is being made just now to steal from the Territory many thousands of acres of land on the Island of Hawaii.

So confident are the conspirators of being able to pull off the nefarious deal without successful opposition that they have made no attempt to hide their designs. They have come boldly out into the open and announced that at the coming short session of Congress they will attempt to put through a bill which will enable them to perpetrate the robbery in legal form and without fear of being stopped.

What the conspirators are trying to do is to steal, for a period of no less than fifty years, thousands of acres of valuable land in Kau. Recently a conference was held in the office of Governor Frear, at which Edward Pollitz, the San Francisco capitalist, and several of the millionaire promoters of Hawaii were present, and the preliminary plans of the wholesale robbery of the people were drawn up.

John McCrosson and some of his business associates, it will be remembered, proposed some weeks ago to construct an irrigation ditch from the Puna and Olaa districts, around the crater of Kilauea into the now barren and arid lands of Kau. Such a project, if successfully carried out, would be of great value to the Territory and would open up to cultivation thousands of acres of now barren land.

But the projectors of this big enterprise, being business men who are in business for the money it brings them, cannot be expected to work from an altruistic standpoint. They want to make money, and they cannot be blamed for this. Those who should be blamed are the Government officials who boldly announce their intention of helping to rob the citizens of this Territory of their heritage.

It is indeed true that the barren lands of Kau should be reclaimed; that they should be made to blossom like the rose; that homesteads should take the place of sun-scorched lava lands. But — and here is the point — this should be done by the Government, not by private enterprise, the only object of which is to put money into the pockets of the projectors!

It is boldly stated in the Advertiser of the date of November 2 that the object of the proposed ditch will be to increase the yield of Hutchinson plantation. The Advertiser prophesies that when the ditch is completed, the output of Hutchinson, now about 7,000 tons a year, will be increased to from 40,000 to 50,000 tons, making it one of the biggest producers in the Islands.

Nobody can object if Hutchinson plantation increases its output. In fact, everybody will be glad of it. But the public cannot be expected to rejoice very heartily if this proposed increase is at the expense of the general public, if, in order to bring it about, it is necessary to steal thousands of acres of public land from the people for a period of fifty years!

The barren lands of Kau should be reclaimed—but at public expense. In the brief of L. L. McCandless in opposition to the proposed amendments of the Organic Act, Mr. McCandless said: "I would recommend that the Reclamation Act . . . be extended to the Territory of Hawaii without exceptions or exemptions, but plainly stating that the same shall be under the control, management and jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior, the same as in other Territories. . . Large tracts of public land in Hawaii which are now arid, or semi-arid, could be made useful and profitable for homestead purposes by extension of the Reclamation Act to this Territory. No greater benefit could be conferred upon our people, but the lands so reclaimed must be guarded against acquisition by corporations as well as the enlargement of private estates, to hold agricultural land for speculation should be an impossibility if laws can be made to effect that result."

But Governor Frear and his Republican associates are now trying to turn over to a corporation thousands of acres of valuable land. True, the land needs water upon it, but why should not the Government build the ditch? Why should not the Reclamation Act be extended to Hawaii?

There is little doubt but that if a sincere attempt were made, the Reclamation Act could be extended to Hawaii, and there would be no necessity of depending upon private corporations to build irrigating ditches to open up public land, paying them as the price for their expenditure the very land they propose to open up.

True, it is only proposed to give the corporation a lease, but A LEASE FOR FIFTY YEARS! As well give them the land in fee simple, so far as those now alive are concerned.

The proposed project is the boldest attempt to rob a community of millions of dollars that has ever been attempted. The Republican Governor and his fellow conspirators announce that they are going to crowd through the short session of Congress a bill to legalize this proposed robbery. Are the voters going to stand for it?

There is only one way they can be sure of defeating this nefarious scheme. That is to elect L. L. McCandless to Congress, confident that he will do all in his power to checkmate the dishonest intentions of the Republicans.

We cannot depend upon Kuhio. He is hand in glove with those who are trying to pilfer the Territory. Those who are trying to put through this scheme are Cupid's closest friends. The plotters will be aided, not opposed, by Jonah Kuhio Kalaniana'ole.

If the voters want to save to the public thousands of acres of public land, worth millions of dollars, their only course is to elect McCandless as Delegate to Congress and give him the chance to fight the conspirators.

STENOGRAPHER JONES AND EDMUNDS ACT BRECKONS PLAY A CROOKED GAME AND LOSE

"Colonel" John W. Jones, the Elongated Stenographic Tactician, chief of the National Guard of Hawaii whose only idea of military tactics is to put the city under martial law when a Chinese princeling happens to come along, and Robert W. Breckons, United States District Attorney, who in order to make a show of earning his own salary and helping two judges to earn theirs, spends most of his time trying to send Hawaiians to jail for violation of the rotten Edmunds Act, together concocted a scheme to keep the Hawaiian band from playing at the Democratic rally at Aala park last night.

Fortunately their crooked politics and their nasty attempt to use their delegated authority for political purposes met with merited defeat and the Republican party met with the loss of a large number of votes through the discovery of their treachery and political dishonesty.

As was quite natural, both parties desired to obtain the services of the Hawaiian band. The Republican party, having stolen the band stand, thought it should be entitled to the band to go with it.

But the band boys are too wise to be Republicans. They know that the Republicans and the Special Interests allied with them have already stolen the government and most of the land that once belonged to the Hawaiians, and when the Republicans demanded that they play at the Republican rally without pay, they refused.

Then the Republican party leaders, seeing their error, offered the band boys $1.50 each to play. But in the meantime the boys had been offered by the Democrats $2.00 each to play at the Democratic rally and they had agreed to play there.

Here is where Col. Jones and Bob Breckons, two of the Republican ward-healers, stepped in.

Col. Jones, being for a nice fat salary, nominal head of the National Guard, although he knows no more about war than a stenographic lead-pencil, and Bob Breckons, the man who, to boost his own selfish schemes, has sent scores of Hawaiians to jail, got their heads together and concocted what they thought was a very smart scheme.

Col. Jones, presuming upon his official position, took it upon himself as head of the National Guard, to order the band boys to play at the Republican rally. The band boys, being more honest and decent than Col. Jones ever thought of being, refused to violate their word. They would play at Democratic rally, they said.

Then the Elongated Stenographic Tactician, the shorthand writer who imagines that he is a modern Napoleon and who draws a fat salary chiefly for wearing a uniform and imitating a match, swelled out his official chest, drew his terrible sword, assumed his usual ridiculously haughty manner, and declared that the band instruments belonged to the government and if the band boys would not agree to play for the Republican rally, they should not use the band instruments. General Order No. 23 for Col. Jones.

The order simply meant that Col. Jones and Bob Breckons were trying to use their official positions to damage the Democratic cause; that Bob Breckons was violating the law he is sworn to enforce, in regard to intimidation of voters, that Col. Jones, puffed up in his own ridiculous pride that always goes before a fall, was making more of a spectacle of himself than even nature intended, and that both of them were trying to make a last desperate effort to win votes for the Republican party by injuring the Democratic party.

But, foolish in their own conceit, they both failed. It is true that Col. Jones succeeded in taking away the band instruments, while Bob Breckons stood by and chuckled. But they did not succeed in preventing the band from playing at the Democratic rally. For the Democrats went out and rented band instruments from one of the other bands of the city and the band was on hand as scheduled, to play at the Democratic rally.

Bob Breckons is a Federal appointee and the voters have nothing to say about his tenure of office—unless, perhaps, another Thwing arises to make charges against him at Washington—but, fortunately for the Territory, Col. John W. Jones is a gubernatorial appointee who has to be confirmed by the Senate and whom the voters can get at through their representatives in the legislature.

Sometime along about next February or March Col. Jones is due to get his and he will get it somewhere between his shoulders and the lower extremity of his "head." If the National Guard is to have a chief, it might just as well have a good man as to have an Elongated Stenographic Tactician whose only claim to the fat salary is his presumption, his elongation and his lack of military knowledge and political decency.

Nobody who knows Breckons can be surprised at his part in the crooked scheme, and but one would naturally think that Col. Jones, who is dependent for his unnecessarily fat salary upon the good will of the voters, would have had more gumption than to try to defy them. He will get his at the next session of the legislature.

REPUBLICANS PLAN TO STEAL HONOLULU CITY AND COUNTY

One of the diabolical plots of the Republican ring, if by any chance it should get into power through the votes of the people at the polls today, is to take away all power from the city and county government of Honolulu at the next Legislature.

It is the scheme of the Republicans, if they can win out in the territorial and county tickets today, to emasculate the Honolulu city government so that all power of any consequence goes back to the old form of centralized government and so that everything is determined by the territorial officials under authorization given them by the Legislature.

It is a scheme that is as low and detestable as can be imagined, and the Republicans are doing everything in their power to keep the knowledge of this and other such schemes from the cognizance of the voters of this Territory.

It is well for the voters that The Democrat is able at this time to divulge one of the most disgraceful secrets of the Republican ring. Challenge Republicans with this statement and they dare not answer it, for the reason that they are not able to answer it, for the statement made by The Democrat is true and is therefore unanswerable.

One of the Republican organs has insinuated that the Democrats were meeting secretly in the various precincts. That was one of the Republican statements made with the idea of misleading honest voters, for the truth is that the secret meetings which have done the harm against decency and integrity in politics are really the secret meetings of the Republicans.

Perhaps the Republicans don't go to secret precinct meetings, being too afraid of being found out, but their leaders meet in secret and make such schemes as trying to kill county government.

And again, the Republicans don't hold together in friendship or harmony well enough to meet in secret meetings in the various precincts, for the Republicans allow themselves to be bossed by only two or three of their number and they don't worry enough about good, clean politics to get all the precinct members together. Just a few leaders, representing the big, rich planters, get together and decide what is best, in their opinion, for the rest of the party, meaning what is best for themselves and the Special Interests they are paid to represent.

The Republicans, as a party, don't pay any attention to the welfare of the community until about the day or so before election, and then they get frightened for the reason that they see that there is going to be a great Democratic victory.

Meanwhile the Republican leaders have been scheming to steal the city and county. They want to get a Republican board of supervisors so that the board can work the scheme with the rest of the Republican gang to overthrow the city and county and put all the governing power under centralized government, so that the Special Interests and the Republicans can rule by money's power.

A few weeks ago, before they really looked over the situation or before they began to realize the fact that today is going to record a great victory for the Democrats, the Republicans were claiming that they were going to win both the municipal ticket and the Legislature. Now the Republicans practically admit that they have no chance for a majority on the board of supervisors of this city and county.

Unwilling at this time to acknowledge defeat all along the line, the Republicans have made up their minds that if they get a majority in the Legislature, they will make such laws as will paralyze the Democrats on the board of supervisors.

In other words, the Republicans, thinking nothing of public decency, but having in mind only such power as they may gain for their own selfish ends and the selfish ends of the Special Interests which employ them, have actually determined that if they are defeated on the municipal ticket and should gain some power in the Legislature, they will do everything in their power to prevent the Democratic board of supervisors from doing any good for the community.

That is what the Republicans call politics. As a matter of fact, it is the dirtiest kind of hold-up, tyranny and thugism.

Hawaii, thank God, is awakening to freedom and true Americanism. There is no longer any reason to fear the rule of the Special Interests in Hawaii, for the Democratic party has, through years of tireless work, done a vast deal to expose the treachery of the Republicans to the interests of these Islands.

Don't let the Republican gang steal the city government of Honolulu!

The Democrats want to elect the supervisors and they want to elect the legislative ticket, and the Democrats have a splendid chance of electing the great majority of candidates.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket today! Vote early, and be sure you go to the right precinct booth to vote!

Look out for Republican tricks and Republican treachery.

BULLETIN'S LITTLE TRICK.

The Evening Bulletin this afternoon will come out with a hot-air story pretending that the votes cast up to noon or 1 o'clock show a big Republican majority. This is an old trick to try to gain more votes for the Republican cause. They will pretend that the votes are going Republican, though they will have no way of telling how the votes are going until after election is over tonight. The Bulletin may also be expected to spring a few fakes about certain Democratic candidates losing heart. But these little jokes are part and parcel of a campaign wherein the Republicans are as desperate as they are unscrupulous. The Republicans are beaten and beaten badly. No wonder at the last minute they resort to tricks to steal a few odd votes, just as a drowning man grasps at a fickle, floating straw!

VOTE WHERE YOU BELONG

There is an attempt of some of the Republican workers to keep Democrats from voting the Democratic ticket today by hanging around town and telling Democratic voters to vote in the wrong place.

Be sure you know in what precinct you vote, and go to the right place, where you belong, so you will not miss your chance to vote by going to the wrong place.

Do not be afraid, if you are working for a Republican boss, that you might lose your job if you vote the Straight Democratic ticket. Your boss cannot see how you mark your ballot.

VOTE THE STRAIGHT DEMOCRATIC TICKET!

And be sure to vote early and don't let paid Republican runners try to fool you and send you to the wrong booth to vote, so that you will be sent away.

VOTERS HAVE TODAY A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

In years to come the people of the Hawaiian Islands will look back in history upon the date, the eighth day of November, 1910, and tell their children how it proved to be the turning point in the annals of this Territory, and that it was the day when, at last, the better—but NOT the rich!—class of Honolulu and the rest of the Island of Oahu and the other Islands came out in force and outvoted the moneyed interests and declared for the equal rights of all good citizens who are helping to make the Paradise of the Pacific the best place in the United States in which to live.

Today is a red-letter day in the history of the Hawaiian Islands and also in the history of the United States, for the United States Government wants to see us govern ourselves properly, and if we don't defeat the scheming and irresponsible Republicans today, then the Advertiser and the rest of the serpentine gang which hisses around the foot of the throne of the Special Interests, through their hired valets and messengers and secretaries at Washington will do all in their power to bring about government by commission for these delightful Islands.

Today is election day, the most sacred of any day on the American calendar. It is by the right of suffrage that we, citizens of Hawaii and citizens of America, have a right to throw off the yoke of boss rule, trust bossism, and subsidized silence in the matter of a perverted press, which cares for nothing but the money it may make out of the moneyed interests.

Today is more than election day in the ordinary sense; it is the day of a declaration of independence, when we are determined to throw over the power of the Special Interests and be men and Americans and vote as we like without fear of bulldozing from the few millionaires who happen to control the money but NOT the Brains and Liberties of this lovely Territory!!

HOOKWORM THREAT ACTS AS BOOMERANG.

The threat of the Republican party that the sugar-planters will continue to bring in hookworm disease and amoebic dysentery unless the voters of the Territory consent to allow the sugar-planters to flood the country with foreign and unneeded labor to compete with the labor now resident here has proved a boomerang. Doubtless the Advertiser and the Special Interests that it represents fatuously imagined that the threat would prove efficacious, that the electorate would be so terrified by the vicious and criminal threat that the voters would lie down and consent to be walked over by the lords of the earth who think they own Hawaii and control the minds and votes of the citizens.

The Advertiser declares unequivocally that more Filipinos with more hookworm disease and more amoebic dysentery will be brought in unless the Special Interests are allowed to bring in a pest hardly less to be feared, Cheap Labor! "You may take your choice of the two evils," that paper declares in effect. "Which would you rather have—more cheap labor or more hookworms?"

Do the voters think they have got to submit to any such outrageous coercion as this? Do they intend to give in and permit the Special Interests to ruin them either by disease or cheap labor? Are they going to be slaves or Free Men?

It is up to the voters. They will give their answer next Tuesday. The Democratic platform and the Democratic ticket offer them an opportunity to save themselves from the impending ruin.

BITULITHIC REPUBLICANS TRY TO ROB THE CITY OF HONOLULU

Is the Republican party the same as the Bitulithic Paving and Concrete Company, Limited? Read this:

Incorporators of the Bitulithic Company—Walter B. Warren, of Portland, Oregon; J. A. Gilman, J. P. Cooke, E. Faxon Bishop, A. M. Brown, Walter F. Dillingham, John Waterhouse, F. J. Lowrey, R. W. Shingle, Harold Dillingham.

Sounds like a list of the Republican party leaders, doesn't it. And these are the men who want to pave Fort Street and other streets of the city with Bitulithic paving, at from two to four times the price charged by the Bitulithic people in other cities.

Really, it does seem that the Republican party ought to change its name to the Bitupublican party, or perhaps to the Repubulithic party.

Look at the list of names. A. M. Brown, deputy city and county attorney, part of whose business it is to see that the municipality does not make any bad bargains, is not stung by any get-rich-quick concerns; J. P. Cooke, the good thing of the Republican party, the sugar man who always comes through with the coin when the party is out of funds, the politician who, as a dilettanti, plays the game without knowing anything about even its first principles, the banker of the Republican party who, at the behest of men like John Wise, Charlie Clark, Colonel Knox, Willie Crawford, Charlie Achi and ex-detective Welch, digs down in his pocket and supplies the sinews of war for the carrying on of a campaign to preserve the safety of Special Interests which he represents; Bob Shingle, candidate on the Republican ticket for city and county treasurer; J. A. Gilman, brother-in-law of Arthur Brown and bound to him by financial ties as well as the ties of kinship.

Some of the incorporators are doubtlessly in on the deal merely on a straight business ground—but they are all Republicans and the Republican party and more especially the Republican members of the board of supervisors have felt it obligatory upon themselves to do whatever they could to help along this needy and worthy concern, this infant industry that begins operations by taking a bite out of the municipality worthy of the bite of a hungry wolf:

And the Republican party, in the face of these damning facts, has had the audacity to heap odium upon Supervisor McClellan, the lone Democratic member of the board of supervisors, for daring to try to save the city from being robbed.

The Republican party, for the sake of advancing the political prospects of its candidates, has dared to try to pilfer public funds. It has countenanced the deliberate hold-up intended by this political machine that hides itself under a business title.

It is perhaps fortunate that the membership of the company is what it is. All Hawaiians should be glad that none of their race appears in the list of incorporators. Let the odium rest where it belongs, on those who would deliberately try to make capital out of the city's necessities.

The Republican party stands together for this attempted holdup. The voters now understand the situation that exists. Today they have the opportunity to administer a merited rebuke to those who would try to rob Honolulu. Vote the Democratic ticket and vote for honesty in business and purity in politics.

KUHIO INSULTS HONOLULU PORTUGUESE; BRECKONS AND DESHA HOOTED BY CROWD

Kuhio, the Republican candidate for Delegate to Congress, has already admitted his defeat in a manner more eloquent than could be suggested by any of those who are opposed to him.

In the presence of thousands of people last night at Aala park, he, together with Robert W. Breckons, the U. S. District Attorney, and Stephen Desha, who is supposed to be a preacher of the Gospel, were hooted by the crowd and chased ignominiously from the Home Rule platform.

Breckons started for the Home Rule platform, accompanied by Desha who was to act as his interpreter. Both mounted the platform and Breckons endeavored to address the assembled multitude, whereupon there arose a tremendous shout of derision and Breckons was hooted off the stand. The Reverend Desha actually sneaked away, leaving Breckons alone until even Breckons had sense enough to know that the people had no use for him.

"Prince" Kuhio happened to be in the foreground. At the spectacle of his bosom friend Breckons being hooted from the stand, Kuhio lost his temper and later in an argument with a Portuguese boy declared in the hearing of scores huddled around that the Portuguese born in Honolulu were nothing but hoodlums.

He had been asked if he was a representative of the people or the sugar planters and the above declaration was the answer that he gave.

There was every indication of an attempt on the part of the Republican crowd to break up the meetings of the Democrats and the Home Rulers, which scheme proved a miserable failure for the reason that the popular sentiment was with the Democrats.

The Advertiser this morning distorts the disgraceful incident of Breckons, Desha and Kuhio trying to break up the Home Rule and Democratic meetings.

With its usual disregard for the truth it declares that the Democrats were to Blame. Kuhio butted in as did Breckons. Breckons had no more right on the Home Rule Stand than he has in any other public position.

The Republican meeting had already broken up for the reason that the people refused to listen longer to the Republicans, the majority joining the thousands around the Democratic platform and a few going to listen, to the Home Rule speakers. Some of the Republican speakers tried to bunco the Home Rulers to let them use the Home Rule platform. Naturally the crowd laughed and hooted these assisted immigrants off the stand, which they had the right and decency to do.

The vilest attempt to discredit Sheriff Jarrett and Deputy Rose in this matter is made by the Advertiser this morning. That paper says they refused to interfere, intimating that there was something to interfere with.

Jarrett and Rose did their duty entirely and certainly refused to assist any hold-up game or buncombe on the part of the Republicans or anybody else.

The poor piffle in the Advertiser's editorial to the effect that Jarrett failed in his duty is absolutely a designed misrepresentation of the facts, while the talk of Cox having any chance is as funny as it is insincere.

Cox can't be elected.
