About a Road.

There has been considerable agitation lately for the widening of the road which branches off from Waikiki road toward the beach. An afternoon paper has taken the matter up in a rather hasty manner, and seems to blame one of the property holders who owns land adjoining the road for obstructing the proposed widening. The fact is that the road is of interest only to a few residents, who easily can afford to pay the cost of the widening. Judge Widemann, who owns the land on the Waikiki side of the road, offered a few years ago all the land needed if the Tramways Company would run a line along the Waikiki-kai road, which would greatly benefit the owners and residents of the district. For some reason or other the Tramways Co. did not accept the offer, and people living in lower Waikiki have to foot it. Now comes Mr. Ena and asks for public help to widen the road that leads to his house, and Judge Widemann is the object of abuse because he neither will donate his lands nor subscribe towards the expenses. The Judge does not need the road. Mr. Ena and his neighbor want it. Let them arrange with Judge Widemann and the party owning the land on the other side for a cession of land and let them pay the expenses. It is very probable that the necessary land can be had at a nominal price, and if the widening of the road is of so much moment to the people living there, they should stop their snarling and bickering against Widemann, and instead put up the money and build their road.

More Air Castles.

It is now stated that a gentleman, who of course desires to be unknown, intends to buy the Opera House and the Gibson premises and there erect a most magnificent hotel. The idea is excellent and the unknown gentleman is to be highly congratulated on his great scheme. The only drawback so far in sight is money. But then who in a Christian community cares for filthy lucre? Go right ahead, Mr. Unknown, and build the hotel.

Gone Again.

The "navy" has left port again. This time she will find Ashford and don't you forget it. There is something mysterious in these quiet trips, and if evil-minded people are shaking their heads and doubting the sincerity of the movements of the man-of-war they should be stopped by a notation of present opium prices. The drug gained a quarter of a cent since the last naval expedition. Oh! We will get there in the sweet Lehua.

Observations.

We print in another column an article headed "Jingoism" which appeared in the Outlook on May 25th, and which has considerable bearing on the relations of Hawaii and the United States. The editor is the Rev. Lyman Abbott, pastor of Beecher's Church, and he is presumably the editor of the article. Coming from such a source the article is entitled to great consideration and the anti-annexation sentiments uttered in it will indicate the true feeling of the United States.

Ex-Marshal Wilson has written a letter in the Advertiser in which he asks several pertinent questions. He wants to know if we can get annexation, and if so, how. And if we cannot get it, he wants to know why. So far the people to whom Wilson appeals have not answered his questions. Would it not be well to have Mr. Thurston or some other of the initiated come out openly and tell Mr. Wilson and the rest of the world what he knows about the prospects of getting or not getting closer union. Private meetings at W. R. Castle's house do not enlighten the people generally or C. Burnett Wilson.

To the Front.

L. B. Kerr is always up to date. He doesn't complain over hard times and he has arranged a most convenient sample room where retail dealers and others can inspect the immense stock carried by him. Kerr has no intention, though, of confining himself to tailor goods, but has lately opened his shelves to large invoices of dress goods, ribbons, hats and many other articles used by ladies. Victoria lawns, laces and embroideries are exhibited in a superb manner, and man and woman (the new woman and the old man) can find everything they desire. Today it is necessary to mention the new neckties. They are selected by C. Girdler, the able assistant of Mr. Kerr, and they are just the thing wanted before the races take place. Mr. Girdler with his usual foresight has ordered the neckties to suit male and female sports alike, and he has selected the winning colors only. Now, take the tip and the necktie. Kerr's store is not altogether a wholesale establishment. Ladies who want to buy ribbons, laces, dress goods or hats will do well to call there. Gentlemen who desire to select their own tailor goods will find it to their advantage to see Kerr and select material from his large and well-sorted stores.

The Unknowns and the Kamehamebas will do the baseball act this afternoon. Of course the SPORTS.

Race Track Notes.

The special meeting of the Jockey Club, which was held last night at the Pacific Club, was called for the purpose of deciding if the two entries for the Kalakaua cup race were sufficient to make a start. According to rules it takes three entries to make a race. Everybody expected that quite a number of entries would have been made, but only two materialized. These were Cornwell's Billy C. and Halstead's Magnet.

The majority of the members present at the meeting last night decided that the Kalakaua Cup should be kept in abeyance, and that the race should be allowed for the purse only. The decision is fair, although it is generally considered a pity that the Kalakaua Cup should not be raced for this year.

The races are now an assured success, and the appointments of judges, starters and timekeepers have met the approval of the community and reflect well on the executive committee. The following are the entries at present given to the public:

Half mile dash—Duke Spencer, Autonomy, Magnet and Miniola. Trotting and Pacing Race, to harness—Burt Lee, Fred Mac, Billy Button. Running Race, 1/4 mile dash—Billy C., Antidote, Kahuku Boy. Running Race, 1 mile dash—Lord Brock, Senator Stanford, Duke Spencer, Amario.

Trotting and Pacing to harness, mile heats, 3 in 5—Silky, Barney, Creole.

Pony Race, 1 mile dash—Little Billy, Queen, Trilley, Elms, Mascot.

Running Race, 1 mile dash—Billy C., Magnet. 2:50 class, mile heats, 2 in 3—Little John, Billy Button, Remorse, Daylight, Billy W., Mc-Suiz.

Running Race, 1 1/4 mile dash—Lord Brock, Senator Stanford, Duke Spencer, Amario. W. Chapman, Henry Giles, Geo. Angus, H. E. Walker, N. Halstead will take part in the first bicycle race. The same riders with the addition of Ruby Dexter, J. Silver and "Jack" Atkinson will take part in the second race also.

The following executive officers have been chosen: Starter, C. B. Wilson. Judges, Seeley Shaw, John Dowsett and Capt. Tripp. Saddling Paddock, R. I. Green and James Merseberg.

A Pleasant Excursion.

Mrs. Paul Neumann gave an outing to a number of Honolulu's young folks last Tuesday evening and a most enjoyable time was had. The invited ladies and gentlemen met at Neumann's residence and from there proceeded in carriages and on horseback to the beautiful residence of Mr. J. M. Monsarrat on the other side of Ni'u, which he had placed at the disposition of the genial hostess. The party thoroughly enjoyed the moonlight journey and still more the elegant supper prepared for them by the queen of hostesses. The home journey under the rays of the moon, along the sleeping borders of the Pacific and the picturesque surroundings of Diamond Head, was simply superb. Town was reached at well, later on, and everybody in the party cries to Mrs. Neumann for "more."

CORRESPONDENCE

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or utterances of our correspondents.]

EDITOR INDEPENDENT: When your paper started into existence the idea struck me that probably the reconciliation of all contending factions might be your watchword. If this were so it seems to me you might have found a splendid text. The church was open to you. The Lodge Room could have been reached. The home circle could have been drawn upon. Social exchanges could have been expatiated upon and still you would have ample scope for printers, ink!! Equitable business amenities would supply at least a column and so on ad infinitum.

With the watchword "Reconciliation" in our minds, let us review things as they are. Let us take the church, and this is a serious question! Can it be possible for men to meet at that table and partake of that body and drink of that blood, on which hangs the christian's centre of belief and then sign a paper to take out of Jail persons who have an honest right to differ in opinion and shoot them in cold blood? Yet evidence is forthcoming which leaves reasonable ground for believing this is true.

What is there in the Masonic oath when Masons will plot together for the undoing of a woman whose husband and brother are thirty-third degree Masons.

What is there in the solemn oaths sworn by men to each other in other Lodges when those same men will acquiesce in a brother being sent to jail; yea even stand guard over him for the miserable pittance of two dollars a day, and for what forsooth? Pray tell me, for it's a conundrum past finding out.

Home circles have been tried to their utmost limit. Wives submittings to husbands—brothers against brothers—fathers against sons, and so on.

The social life is strained to its utmost limit because of uncharitable and thoughtless words spoken by men who ought to know better—are those in sympathy with the powers that be any better than those of the other side? Are they any better simply because they are for the time being on top? Does sneaking behind bayonets make them better men?

Business amenities are in the same category. Is it right for grandmothers to forbid their grandchildren to buy things in a so-called Royalist store even if the price is less than elsewhere? Does the grandmother forget that that Royalist (so-called) was her dead husband's friend? And yet such is the way in which the friends of the junta now running Hawaii seek Reconciliation.

Reconciliation may come when those in sympathy with Mr. Dole's party realize that the people are just as good as they are, if not better, and not till then, and the sooner they come to this conclusion the better.

HAWAII.

Japanese bugs are attacking the young taro on the Koolau side, and if not exterminated soon they will cause great loss and distress.

Timely Topics

June 5, 1895.

A question that will be of great importance at the meeting of the coming Legislature is the Liquor Question. The party now in power is in many ways affiliated with the prohibition party in the country, and there can be no doubt that every effort will be made by the different temperance societies to secure legislation which will prevent or at least diminish the liquor traffic. Many theories in regard to this matter have from time immemorial been advanced and here as elsewhere have people who can only be termed fanatics advocated measures which as a rule have injured their case through their intolerance and harshness. These fanatics class the moderate drinker with the habitual drunkard, and they assign him to the rather played-out drunkard's grave. The liquor question is of vast importance, but it should be discussed calmly and with due consideration to the liberty and rights of the individual citizen. We have now on hand some of the finest cocktail shakers ever introduced here.

We had some of the same pattern but the demand was so great that we soon had to order another lot. A cocktail can't help being excellent when mixed in these shakers. We can also show you some pretty stoppers for bottles in neat design, and of a very practical construction.

Do you know what a jigger is? The name indicates something in the line of high jinks, but it is simply a very pretty and very handy liquor measure which should be used in all first-class bar rooms. All the goods are in excellent Britannic ware and cannot be distinguished from solid silver. In the same ware we have many things suitable for presents, ornamental to the sideboard, and useful in any household. We sell a very pretty orange spoon and knife. They are a delicate pattern and very useful. Our coffee and tea spoons in different patterns and our napkin rings are worthy of inspection. Many other ornamental and useful things in plated ware or in old copper are exhibited in our show cases. We have some tasty smoking sets and match cases which always will be welcomed by any smoker, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Admiral Beardslee returned from Maui in the W. G. Hall last evening. The Admiral will leave in the Philadelphia next week.

The Admiral was taken to the Philadelphia in a steam launch from the Hall previous to the docking of that steamer.

Sequah is working wonders. A large number of people have been cured by his medicine. He will appear nightly at the usual places.

If you are tired of the hot and dusty town, there is no better place for rest and recuperation than at Haniwai Baths. Smooth bathing beach and fine surf. Walkiki cars pass the door.

A. Marques, a storekeeper in Panoa, was found guilty of selling liquor yesterday by Judge Perry, and had to contribute $100 to the treasury.

The band concert at Thomas Square last night was well attended. A number of people turned out to hail Berger's 200th appearance in the Square.

Miss A. Cahill, Arlington Block, Hotel street has received by the "Mariposa" an invoice of the "Knox" Sailor Hat, the latest fashion in hats. The style is very becoming and just the thing for the races.

The usual salutes were fired from the Bennington yesterday when she was visited by Consul-General Mills and later by Ministers Damon and Hatch. Colonel McLean was also a caller.

Queen-dowager Kapi'ani returned yesterday in the Hall. Her Majesty was not feeling very well and had to be helped ashore to her carriage. Prince David was with his aunt.

Last night's meeting of the Scottish Thistle Club was an interesting one. The club has raised by subscription $45 for its reading room supplies for the year.

"200" is the number most frequently called over the telephone wires. It rings up the UNITED CARRIAGE COMPANY'S stand, where Superior Hacks with safe and courteous drivers, are always to be found. A complete livery outfit, including buggies and waggons, furnished at the shortest notice.

One of the stewards of the Mari-POSA was arraigned yesterday in the police court for being found on certain premises without lawful right. He was found guilty and sentence was suspended.

A number of the boys have withdrawn from the bicycle races on the 11th, because they can't get the Monarch. Have patience and the Hawaiian Hardware Co. will show her up in time.

The California Fruit Market, corner King and Ikaea Streets, has just received the following Ice House Goods ex S. S. MARI-POSA: Frozen Oysters, Cauliflower, Celery, Asparagus, Rhubarb, Apricots, Peaches, Cherries, Red Currants, Oranges, Dates, French Plums, Figs, etc. etc.

With the lack of consideration for which the President is becoming famous, he has ordered a special session of the Legislature to open on the 12th of June, the day after the races. Poor senators, poor representatives and poor reporters.

Frank Honck, who claims to have been illegally confined in Oahu Jail, has filed a claim with the United States for $50,000 against the Hawaiian government. Honck was a soldier and exhibited great bravery in the alleged war, which it is supposed raged somewhere near Honolulu in January, 1895.

A mild type of the grip is epidemic among the Kalihi school children.

The Philadelphia cricket team will play against the Honolulu at the old baseball grounds this afternoon.

Miss Tillie Hoting sustained the loss of a pet dog, by its being run over by a carriage yesterday afternoon.

Don't forget J. J. Egan's special bargain sale this day and evening. The ladies all know that he keeps only first-class goods, and when he says bargains he means it.

By the joint ball of the Sons of St. George and the Scottish Thistle Club on Queen Victoria's birthday, the sum of $105 was cleared, which has been handed over to the treasurer of the British Benevolent Society.

Captain Freeman brought the steamer Iwalani in from Koloa about midnight. The steamer brought neither passengers nor sugar. Grinding has ceased at Koloa. The Makahala will bring a full load of sugar from Makaweli to-morrow morning.

The funeral of Miss Hanania Kaniela, which took place yesterday from the residence of Mr. Jos. Nawahi, was one of the largest private funerals seen for several years. More than thirty carriages followed the hearse. Bishop Willis performed the ritual. The lamented young woman was a niece of the late Hon. John Moanauli, and belonged to the "Queen Emma people."

He Can Shoot.

Sam Parker and Capt. Smythe have had some fine shooting at Makaha. Both are crack shots and instead of chasing goats, as W. O. Smith would have done, they sat themselves on the rocks of Maunalahili and found their game in the river. They shot fish. Parker used a Winchester (please report to the Marshal) and killed every fish and lazy turtle in sight, and Smythe wasn't far behind him. Both gentlemen came to town on Thursday night and were warmly welcomed after their dangerous hunting expedition. Smythe, who once was in command of the mounted police when there was an efficient mounted police—hasn't been in Honolulu for six years. He looks well but he doesn't return the compliment to Honolulu. There was more life here six years ago, he says. In regard to the shooting of fish it should be remembered that the fish at Makaha are very tame and not used to be shot at. Most of them have been in the revolution and simply stared at Sam, wondering where he got the Winchester from. And then he shot them.

COURT RECORD.

Second Trial of Herman-son for Manslaughter.

A. Hermanson was put on trial a second time for manslaughter yesterday before Judge Cooper. Four jurors were excused for cause, and one on either side was peremptorily challenged. The following gentlemen being found satisfactory were sworn: H. F. Wichman, T. S. Douglas, F. T. P. Waterhouse, E. A. McInerney, N. P. Jacobsen, J. M. Tracy, L. C. Ables, T. W. Hobron, C. J. McCarthy, Thos. Wright, C. L. Brown, C. Hustace, Jr.

Robertson for prosecution; Hartwell for defense. Mr. Hartwell began his closing address to the jury about 5 p. m. He spoke briefly but forcibly, cautioning the jurors against depriving a man of his liberty on doubtful evidence.

Mr. Robertson followed, beginning his remarks by saying he was not employed by the Government to convict innocent men. He reviewed the evidence to discredit that of the defense, and said that, unless Joe Mills and Emily had perjured themselves and conspired against the prisoner, he must be guilty.

Judge Cooper charged the jury on the law, and at 5:48 they retired to consider their verdict. In ten minutes they returned with a verdict of not guilty, one dissenting.

Mrs. Mary Ann Hill petitions for letters of administration to herself on the estate of her late husband, Walter Hill. The estate consists of a New York Life policy for $5,000, 66 shares O.R. & L. Co., par value $100 each, and 20 shares National Fruit Growing Co., Cal., par $65. The heirs of deceased are his father, mother, five sisters, three brothers, wife and daughter.

In the equity suit of Hiwauli (w.) vs. Mr. and Mrs. Lumahelei and the Honokaa Sugar Co., praying for cancellation of a deed of valuable cane land in Hamakua, Hawaii, the defendants by their attorney, J. A. Magoon, have filed a motion to dismiss the bill on the ground of insufficient service.

In the assumpsit suit of F. W. McChesney, assignee of C. L. Brito, bankrupt, for $3,805.29, the verdict of the jury was for $1900 for the plaintiff instead of $100 as inadvertently reported in this paper.

Provided For.

Manager Pain will attend to the demands of the public on the 11th of June. An endless string of busses will run from town to the entrance of the race track, and there will be no "time" for the trammers during the day. It is safe for the public who want to go to the track at a small expense to depend altogether on Pain.

Tourists.

JUNE 5th, 1895.

It is the object of all good citizens to draw as many tourists to the country as possible. The people who travel for pleasure are, as a rule, well supplied with money, and wherever they go they leave money behind. All classes benefit the more money is set in circulation. But to get tourists here, it is necessary to hold out inducements to them. They must know that they can get first class accommodation, and that they will find a first class table. A good table can be set in every hotel, boarding house and private house if those in charge know what and where to buy. I can recommend choice block butter which I receive by every Australia. It is of an excellent and uniform quality from one creamery. Fresh island butter I get by every W.G. Hall. I can also recommend superior family hams, and I always keep a full assortment of everything in the grocery line. My prices are as low as the lowest, and island orders are promptly attended to.

Jingoism.
[From the Outlook, May 25, 1895.]
It is to be hoped that the present jingoism in the United States is but a passing fever, and will soon burn itself out. It is apparently confined to a few newspapers which are not above sensationalism in editorial policy when the news columns afford no opportunity for it, and a few demagogues in politics who either are "playing to the gallery" or are attempting to divert public attention from real problems by a mock-heroic endeavor to create fictitious ones. As yet the public has shown little inclination to respond to this pseudo-military spirit, this artificial bravado which is the forger's counterfeit of bravery; but should the fever prove epidemic and extend, it might easily become dangerous. There is not only a demand to increase our navy and strengthen our army—demands which might be innocent enough and even, within natural limitations, justifiable—but there is an ill-concealed desire to show what the navy can do by picking a quarrel with some neighbor or eagerly inviting her to pick a quarrel with us. Now there is a demand that we take the first occasion to seize Cuba, or either seize her without waiting for an occasion. Now there is a call for us to absorb Hawaii, because we must have a Pacific station for our White Yacht Squadron. Now there is a proposal that we undertake the building of a Nicaragua Canal, in order to prevent Great Britain from building it, and that we resent Great Britain's summary collection by a sheriff's process of her debts from Nicaragua. Now there are covetous desires expressed for Canada. And finally, one statesman, not to be outdone in the raw-head-and-bloody-bones policy by his competitors, warns us solemnly that England is getting a foothold near this continent, and constructing fortifications here, and a naval station there, in preparation for an assault upon our liberties, for which our fathers fought and bled and died, and we must be up and arming for the fray, if we do not wish to be caught napping.

The truth is that there is not the least danger that this country will become involved in war, unless by the cultivation and exhibition of its own pugnacious disposition. There is no country on the South American continent strong enough either to attack us or to defy any reasonable and just demands which we might make. We certainly need no standing army to protect ourselves against Mexico. Great Britain is doubtless a shrewd, enterprising, and aggressive nation, and its policies are not dominated to any great extent by altruism. But because it is shrewd it is quite unlikely to provoke a needless war with the United States, from whose good will it has much to gain, whose ill will will inflict upon it serious loss. Self interest binds the mother country to us, did no stronger ties exist; but a common history, a common tongue, and a common religious faith are stronger ties—they make of these two nations one people. He who attempts to dissolve or weaken these bonds is a traitor to both nations. As to other European powers, it is wholly improbable that any condition will arise in the future more favorable to their interference in American affairs than that of our Civil War. The tragical failure of France and Austria to impose a foreign yoke on Mexico at that time has furnished a warning to Europe which will not need to be repeated.

If we have nothing to fear from other nations which requires that we prepare for a war, neither have we anything to gain by a war policy. What do we want of Hawaii on the west, Mexico on the south, or Canada on the north? The United States is not a second Rome, to grow great by adding province to province for expatriated politicians to plunder. If, indeed, we could follow the policy of Rome, and send the Platts and Crokers and Sheehans to the newly acquired provinces, rest at home might seem to promise compensation for war abroad. But even if we could do this, a new crop of leeches would crop up hungrier than the old. No! The United States is not an Empire; it is a partnership. Each community added to it is a partner taken into it. We are rich and prosperous. Why should we be ambitious to coerce reluctant populations to share our wealth and our prosperity with us? We are self-governed. Why should we be eager to invite people who have never indicated any capacity for self-government to take a share in governing us? Annexation of Cuba and Hawaii, of Mexico and Canada, means nothing less than this. It means decreasing our proportionate wealth and increasing our political burdens. Are our race and religious problems so simple that we must ask Canada to add hers to ours that we may have a problem worthy of our brains? Are the anarchic forces in our Nation so insignificant that we must add to the mob the chronically revolutionary population of Mexico, lest life grow too tame? Is our circumference so near to the center of our circle that we must add Hawaii to California in order to secure heterogeneity to our population and complexity to our National problems? Is our population so intelligent and virtuous that we must annex Cuba in order to find scope in our own territory for home missionary enterprise?

The modern spirit of Jingoism is not only inexcusably criminal, it is also a stupendous folly. It deserves the derision as well as the abhorrence of all honorable Americans. The only danger is that it may be treated with contempt until it has grown to proportions which will make it a serious menace to national welfare and national honor. The armament of the European nations keeps them poor; but the presence of the Cossack on their borders affords some ground for the expenditure. He who lives next door to Genghis Khan must keep his pistols in order and a stock of gun powder on hand. But for a nation which God has surrounded by all the conditions of peace to cultivate the spirit and be covetous for the opportunities of war, is to drop voluntarily back from the civilization of the nineteenth century into the barbarism of the sixteenth.
