The Suit Goes On.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 29.—In the case of Cranstoun, Muller and Johnstone, who allege illegal deportation from Hawaii, and who are suing the Canadian and Australian steamship line and indirectly the Hawaiian Government for forcibly carrying them from Honolulu to Vancouver, the three men refused to answer a question put to them by the lawyer for the defense.

The Chief Justice of British Columbia was appealed to and ruled that "the examination must take place two days after the arrival of the steamer Warrimoo and any relevant question must be answered within forty-eight hours afterward. If legally possible, however, the prosecution will be deaf, dumb and blind until the trial proper takes place.

Strong Expression of an Oakland Clergyman on the Saloon Question.

OAKLAND, May 26.—The Rev. M. C. Wilcox, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventists' Church, delivered an address to a large audience to-night against the movement to close saloons in Oakland from Saturday night to Monday morning. Rev. Mr. Wilcox's position was that those who are back of the Sunday closing movement are urging the passage of the ordinance on religious grounds. His contention was that while the city government has the right to legislate for the maintenance of good order, it has no right to recognize religious beliefs.

"The whole movement," said Rev. Wilcox, "is an effort of orthodox clergymen and church people of Oakland to have the City Council pass an ordinance to compel people to respect the Christian Sabbath. Such an enactment would be unconstitutional and dangerous. I was present at a meeting of the City Council when that body was addressed by Rev. William Rader and others, urging the passage of the ordinance. They urged the members of the council to vote according to their conscience and show that the city of Oakland had respect for the Sabbath. Rev. Mr. Rader was willing to make a concession as to the hour of closing Saturday night, but insisted that on the day when church bells ring the saloons should close their doors. Mr. Rader is the president of the Council for the Suppression of the Saloon. In a recent sermon he said that it is not enough for the workingmen to rest on Sundays. They should rest and worship.

"The motto of the W. C. T. U., said he, 'is that the kingdom of Christ must be ushered into American institutions through the gateway of politics. The recognition of the Sabbath by municipality or State would be the beginning of the reuniting of church and civic government. Religion is good, but it should not be in the hands of our city government. It was the State's interpretation of the Bible that put to death the martyrs of Spain and Italy. It was the State's interpretation of the word of God that caused the bitter persecutions in England under the Commonwealth."

The Next Meet.

The interest shown in the races last Tuesday have had the effect of making another meeting possible for the 4th of July. With all due respect to Maui, there is very little encouragement for horse owners to take risks and chances in sending horses to Kahului. Several good trotting races have already been arranged for that day. If we are correctly informed the Mokuleia horses, Cornwell's horses, Halstead's and Ballentine's stables will remain in Honolulu and in training. If the Jockey Club could wake up and be truly popular, it may hold races auspiciously. The 4th of July is now the national holiday of the republic. It is the day of the Americans here, and surely half a day could be devoted to the noblest of all sports—the racing of horses.

The races on the 11th were as fine as could be wished for. Many of those who dropped their money because they didn't listen to the INDEPENDENT tips desire another meeting. Let them have one on the 4th, and make it short and sweet. It will be too long for some of them and don't you forget it.

GLORIOUS ELEVENTH.

Great Success of the Jockey Club's Meeting.

Tuesday was one of Hawaii's finest days; and that is uttering a volume in short metre. An enormous crowd gathered at Kapiolani Park, going by every sort of conveyance—from elegant private equipages to the democratic tram-car. In spite of the legislation of a few years ago, that compelled the removal of the high fence from round the track, there was never so many people paid entrance fees before. The band was in attendance, and everything was gay. There was an absence of disorder in the multitude. No space is left, however, for further description, and below is the detailed report of

THE RACES.

No. 1. Bicycle mile dash, free for all, for gold medal valued at $20. Entries: Henry Giles, Geo. Angus, H. E. Walker, Norman Halstead, Ruby Dexter, A. L. C. Atkinson, Joe Silva, Wm. A. Chapman.

Walker, although on the outside, made a beautiful start, taking the lead and the pole. He was overhauled by Chapman, and there was a bunch to the home stretch, with the lead varying, and then Atkinson pushed ahead and came in first with a fine spurt, Dexter close behind. Time 2:38.

No. 2. Five-mile bicycle race for a gold medal valued at $30. Entries: Giles, Angus, Dexter, Atkinson and Silva.

Silva took the lead at the start of the first mile, holding it to the half post, but fell behind before the three quarter post, when Atkinson was in the lead. The first mile was finished in the following order: Angus, Giles, Dexter, Atkinson, Silva.

There was a close procession in the second mile. Dexter fell back some, and Atkinson took the lead near the three quarter post, but the wire was crossed in the following order: Angus, Dexter, Atkinson, Giles, Silva.

The racers kept well together in the third, but Silva was still losing. Atkinson took the lead at the half, with Dexter second. Atkinson then fell fell back to fourth, and was apparently feeling for the pace of his rivals. Under the wire they rolled, with Angus leading, followed, in the order given, by Atkinson, Giles, Dexter and Silva. The last named showed much pluck in hanging on to an evidently lost race for him.

There was a remarkable deal of bunching in the fourth mile, Silva at one time catching up with the fourth man. Near the three quarter post Giles and Atkinson were abreast leading, with the other three abreast a few yards behind. It was about the closest mile run, and closed with Giles leading, followed in the order named by Atkinson, Dexter, Angus and Silva.

Amidst intense excitement the last mile was entered, Giles and Atkinson leading about even, followed by Angus and Dexter struggling together. Giles took Atkinson's place at the half, and the four leaders were beautifully bunched on approaching the home stretch. The race looked like any of the forward four's until about the distance pole, when all put on fine spurts and Dexter shot ahead, winning the race, with Atkinson second, Giles third, Angus fourth and Silva just saving distance. Time 15:51.

No. 3. Running race, half mile dash, free for all, for Honolulu purse of $200. Entries: Duke Spencer, Club Stables Co.; Magnet, Shenandoah Stables (Halstead's); Autonomy, Mokuleia Stables (Gay's); Minnie Ola, W. H. Cornwell. It took close on forty minutes to get a start, first one horse and then another acting crankily. It was a fine race when it did go. Autonomy won by a neck in 51 seconds, with Magnet second, and Duke Spencer and Minnie Ola about neck and neck a length or so in the rear.

No. 4. Trotting and pacing to harness, 2:40 class, mile heats best three in five, for merchants' purse of $200. Entries: Fred Mac, C W Macfarlane; Billie Button, J F Humberg; Bert Lee, Club Stables Co.

First heat: Fred Mac's driver did a good deal of jockeying for a flying start. After a while the horses were allowed to go. Fred Mac took the lead but was breaking, and Bert Lee went ahead and staid there throughout. Billy Button made up some distance by the three-quarter post. Bert Lee came under the wire half a length ahead in 2:34 2/5.

Second heat: Fred Mac again took the lead with a rush, but broke badly and fell away back. Billy Button lost by a break near the half, but gained some on a break by Bert Lee. Still he was two lengths behind at the three quarter, and Bert Lee came under the wire first in 2:30 2-5. Fred Mac was distanced.

Third heat: Bert Lee led right along, Billy Button breaking Bert

Lee won the heat and the race in 2:34 2-5.

No. 5. Running race 1/4 mile dash, Hawaiian bred, for Oceanic Steamship Co.'s cup, $150 added. Entries: Antidote, Mokuleia Stables; Kahuku Boy, Shenandoah Stables; Billy C. W H Cornwell. Kahuku Boy ran away several times and pumped himself out before a start was effected. Billy C. led at the half and kept the lead against Antidote, winning by a couple of lengths in 1:18 1/4.

No. 6. Running race, one mile dash, free for all; winner to beat record of Angie A., 1:45 1/4, for Rosita challenge cup, $250 added. Entries: Duke Spencer, Club Stables Co.; Amorino, R. Ballentine; Senator Stanford, Mokuleia Stables; Lord Brock, W. H. Cornwell. This was expected to be the race of the day and so it proved. There was never a race more closely run in this country. The horses were all in fine condition and seemed to know what was expected of them. They were all pushing each other for the lead up to the half mile, after which Amorino forged ahead with Stanford second. Stanford made a grand push on nearing the wire, but Amorino beat him by about a shoulder ahead in 1:45 1/4, the time needed to be beaten. Some unofficial watches made the time as l.c.w as 1:42 1/4. There was great applause, however, over the official statement that showed the time, after many years, at last caught up with.

No. 7. Trotting and pacing to harness, best three in five mile heats, free for all, for Kapiolani Park purse $250. Entries: Creole, Club Stables Co.; Silky, R. Ballentine; Barney, J. Carty.

First heat: Creole led with Silky following close all around and won the heat a length ahead. Barney was shut out. Time 2:22.

Second heat: Creole got the lead at starting, but was passed by Silky before the quarter post. Creole could not trot steadily, and Silky won in 2:28.

Third heat: Silky again won in beautiful style, never breaking from start to finish. Creole was evidently a used up horse in the feet and beaten by fourth lengths. Time 2:29 1/2.

Fourth heat: Creole did better work this time, but to no avail. Silky won by two lengths in 2:28, gaining the race.

No. 8. Pony race for $100, one mile dash, Hawaiian bred, owned by members of the club, free for all ponies 14 hands or under, catch weight. Entries: Trilby, Shenandoah Stables; Eleu, John Lilli; Mascot, Joe Tinker; Little Billie, W. H. Cornwell; Queen, John Brown. Trilby led from the quarter and led the field all round, winning in 2:02 with Eleu second several lengths behind.

No. 9. Special race, 1 mile dash, Hawaiian bred, owned by members of the club. Entries: Magnet, Shenandoah Stables; Billy C. W. H. Cornwell. Magnet led, Billy C. following closely. Magnet was passed at the half, but regained the lead by the three-quarter, and on a fine spurt by Billy C. went better, strutting out like a rabbit on the finish. Magnet won by two lengths in 1:49 1/2.

No. 10. Hawaiian Jockey Club's purse, $150; 2:50 class, mile heats 2 in 3, free for all to harness. Entries: Daylight, R. Dexter; Billy W., John Wright; Billy Button, J. F. Humberg; McGinty, Mokuleia Stables; Little John, S. G. Wilder. Withdrawn: Remorse,

H. Schultze. Billy Button glided ahead, closely followed to the half by Billy W., but winning in 2:38 1/2. The second heat and the race were easily won by Billy Button in 2:34, the other Billy being the only real rival.

No. 11. President Widemann's Cup, $150 added, running race 1 1/4 mile dash, free for all. Entries: Senator Stanford, Mokuleia Stables; Duke Spencer, Club Stables; Amorino, R. Ballentine; Lord Brock, W. H. Cornwell. This race was looked forward to with as much interest as the sixth, the entries being the same. It was thought by the wise ones that Stanford was a stronger stayer than Amorino, consequently a sure winner, unless Lord Brock or Duke Spencer should give a surprise party.

Stanford came in third, however, after a rattling good race. Amorino won in 2:12 1-5, with Lord Brock second.

NOTES ON THE RACES.

Mr. Cornwell: "Gentlemen, this is my last year on the track."

With the exception of the third, seventh and eleventh races, all of the INDEPENDENT tips came out right.

The trees in the Park adjacent to the track looked at a distance as if a formidable species of blight had attacked them. They were gray with boys, who had as good a view as any grand stand folks.

J. W. Chapman, who had the contract to furnish lunch, ordered well in quantity and quality, but had the poorest service possible to be made. Some patrons could not get even a glass of water, or a cup of coffee, and whole birds were on the table with nobody to carve them and no knife to carve them with. The Japanese waiters were all bunched at one end of the middle table, and when one would answer a call elsewhere it was seldom he filled the order.

The managers of the Mokuleia horses laugh very loudly over the statement that Senator Stanford did not come up to expectations. The Senator made the mile in 1:45 1/4, and although Amorino at this date proved himself faster the stallion from Mokuleia claims yet to be the champion horse in the islands.

The starting was beautiful as far as the starter is concerned. The judges were as slow as an opening of the legislature.

If a jockey cannot start his horse at the right moment the jockey or the horse should be withdrawn.

Clarence Macfarlane entered his horse to save a race. It wouldn't be fair to expect his Hawaiian bred colt to compete with the best imported horses. Clarence will be there yet.

Dicky Davis got even with a few fellows on the track.

Is it true that two jockeys were fined, and the fine remitted by the judges? If so who gave the judges the power?

An Excellent Instructor.

Company D. held a meeting last evening, and the members were loud in complimenting Colonel McLean, who was present and who took especial delight in commanding the boys. The Colonel has worked ardently for the last few days, and he is gaining the support and admiration of the INDEPENDENT. If he keeps on as he has started he will be an A1 chap, and the old royalists will be there.

June 13, 1895.

It cannot be denied that the roads in Honolulu and suburbs are kept in a very fair and good condition. The road supervisor is devoting all his time and as much money as he can get in keeping the roads in good order and the driving and riding public appreciates his efforts. Nowadays, we do not drive in the old-fashioned brakes that used to shake the insides out of the driver. We do not either patronize old stiff-legged horses the motions of which were mild, only in comparison with riding on a rail out of a western town. Civilization has advanced and we go right along with it. Honolulu can boast of as fine turnouts as any big cities in the United States. The horses used are of superior breed, and every stranger admires the fine stock seen in our streets and on the race track. But it is not given to everybody to possess horse and carriage. It takes money to get them and to keep them, and for that reason we are going to meet the demands of those to whom phaetons and thoroughbreds are a grade too high. Buy a Monarch and the roads of Honolulu will be equal pleasure to the rider of that famous wheel as they are to the swell horseman and driver. The Monarch bicycle is among the high grade wheels. It is now the favorite in the United States and the Monarch Cycle Manufacturing Company is simply unable to attend to the orders which are crowding in, so that it has to enlarge its factories greatly to meet the demand. We have succeeded in securing an invoice of eleven which will arrive here during the next week and we can offer them at a very reasonable figure. The Monarch frame is made of the best quality of spirally drawn Mannesmann Steel Tubing and it is built for appearance as well as for speed. The Monarch frame is very rigid, very strong, very light, very graceful and very comfortable. All Monarch bearings are fitted with the Binns Patent Ball Holder and Dust Protector, which makes it possible to remove the cones of all lateral bearings without disturbing the balls.

The narrow tread on a bicycle is the latest fad. The Monarch claims that there is a limit to all things and the Monarch tread will be 5 3-4 inches, which is the narrowest claim consistent with the safety of the rider.

A Kingfisher bicycle lamp will perhaps be suitable for Waikiki, while a Demon lamp seems to indicate meeting with the mounted police.

The Monarch racers for ladies and gentlemen will commend themselves to everybody who enjoys a spin. We will at some future day devote more space to fully describe the superb bicycle. As soon as our invoice arrives we will invite you to inspect the wheel, if they are not all ordered beforehand.

The Athletic Boys.

The boys are not a bit behind the race. The bloods held a meeting last night and they arranged everything for the games which will take place next Saturday. Of course, the horsemen were sick and tired last Tuesday. But why did they insist upon betting against the choice fruit of the Independent? The ticket was given and the ticket won.

On Saturday the athletes are in it. No tips will be given but the programme is hereto annexed:

- 1 One mile bicycle race, handicapped.
- 2 100 yards dash, handicapped.
- 3 Putting the shot, handicapped.
- 4 Half-mile boys' bicycle race, handicapped.
- 5 Half-mile dash, running.
- 6 Running high jump.
- 7 220 yards running dash.
- 8 Half-mile handicapped.
- 9 Pole vault.
- 10 120 yards hurdle, handicapped.
- 11 One mile novice bicycle race.
- 12 Quarter mile running dash.
- 13 One mile running race.
- 14 Greenhorn bicycle race for men, (wheels to weigh not under 20 lbs, handicapped).
- 15 Ring tournament.

The defeat of the favorites of the INDEPENDENT is decided. But, if our paper went into the gambling business, athletes, horses, bicycles and fools would find their just dues right here.

a charge of embezzlement through the agency of one Z. Kakina. The amount in question is $5.50, which Kakina claims that he forwarded to Kapu for the purpose of having some printing done. THE LEGISLATURE.

Opening of the First Session Under the Republic.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FIRST DAY.

WEDNESDAY, June 12.

Yesterday at noon the first Legislature of the Republic of Hawaii was opened in what is now known as the Council chamber of the Executive building, and what was known under the monarchy as the throne room of Iolani palace. It is a large apartment, as may be judged when it is known that more than 150 of the general public were within its walls on this occasion, besides the entire Legislature, most of the leading officials of the country, the diplomatic and consular corps, many of these public functionaries being accompanied by their wives.

To the right of the dais were Mrs. Dole and wives of members of the Judiciary and of Cabinet Ministers, in seats leading across the chamber. In longitudinal rows on the right front sat Ministers Hatch, King, Damon and Smith; Chief Justice Judd, Justices Bickerton and Frear of the Supreme Court, and Judges Whiting and Cooper of the Circuit Court; W. R. Castle, the appointed Minister to Washington; T. G. Thrum, Registrar of Conveyances; E. G. Hitchcock, Marshal, and wife; J. B. Castle, Collector General of Customs; W. E. Rowell, Superintendent of Public Works; J. Mort Oat, Postmaster General, and wife; W. D. Alexander, chief of Government Survey, and wife, and a number of other Government officials.

On the left, facing the Judiciary, Ministers, etc., were A. S. Willis, United States Minister, and wife; A. de S. Canavaro, Portuguese Charge d' Affaires; A. G. S. Hayes, British Minister and Consul General; Mr. Shimizu, Japanese Charge d' Affaires; W. M. Giffard, acting French Commissioner; Ellis Mills, United States Consul General; F. A. Schaefer, Consul for Italy and dean of the consular corps, and wife; H. Renjes, Consul for Mexico; Bruce Cartwright, Consul for Peru, and wife; W. Porter Boyd, U. S. Vice and Deputy Consul General, and wife; T. Rain Walker, British Vice Consul; F. W. Macfarlane, acting Consul for Denmark; Goo Kim and Kwon Wai, Chinese Commercial Agents; Goro Narita, secretary Japanese Legation; Admiral Beardslee, U.S.N., and officers of the U. S. ships Philadelphia and Bennington.

Facing the dais in front were the senate and house of representatives in a body, and beyond a passage left open behind them sat the general public, largely represented by ladies.

President Dole entered by the farthest side door and stood upon the dais.

Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, in clerical vestments, read a prayer adapted from the Anglican ritual. The President then delivered his opening address. He dealt in general terms with the subjects of foreign relations, annexation to the United States—which was declared still to be the policy of the Government—land, immigration, a Pacific cable and a new appropriation bill. He eulogized the work of the retiring Advisory Council, and advised each house to elect five members to the Council of State as soon as possible.

The assemblage dispersed without further ceremony at the conclusion of President Dole's address.

THE SENATE.

After the reading of the President's speech, the members of the senate went upstairs, where they assembled in a room of the Foreign Department. H. P. Baldwin of Maui was elected temporary chairman, and J. F. Clay temporary secretary. The chairman appointed J. A. McCandless, Cecil Brown and G. N. Wilcox as a committee on credentials, who shortly reported the credentials of all the members correct. They were all present as follows:

First District—J. Kauhane, Charles Noley, F. S. Lyman, F. Northrop;

Second District—H. P. Baldwin, A. Hocking, W. Y. Horner; Third District—Cecil Brown, J. A. McCandless, J. N. Wright, H. Waterhouse, H. W. Schmidt, W. C. Wilder.

Fourth District—Geo. N. Wilcox, W. H. Rice.

Chief Justice Judd was introduced and administered the oath to the senators in a body.

Senator Wilder was unanimously elected by ballot as president of the senate. Upon taking the chair he thanked his colleagues for the honor conferred on him in electing him as the first of president of the senate of the Republic of Hawaii. While there were other members more versed in parliamentary practice, perhaps it was well to have some such members on the floor of the senate. Senator Kauhane was unanimously elected as vice president.

J. F. Clay was unanimously elected secretary to the senate.

The president called for nominations for sergeant-at-arms. Senator Baldwin said this was a small body meeting in a small room, and he moved that the offices of sergeant-at-arms and messenger be held by one person. Carried.

Walter A. Wright was unanimously elected as such officer. Nominations were invited for chaplain.

Senator Brown did not see any necessity for a chaplain. They were assembled to do the business of the country, and if any member wanted to pray let him do so for himself. He did not care if the officer did not receive a salary, but he did not think it right to have to pay for prayers.

Senator McCandless nominated Rev. H. W. Peck. He said it was the custom in other countries to have legislatures opened with prayer.

The president stated that, as he had said in caucus, if the meetings were to be opened with prayer, they should have a chaplain. Senator Brown said that Senator Kauhane was an ordained clergyman and could open the meetings if prayers were to be had. He moved that it was the sense of the senate that Senator Kauhane should be asked to act as chaplain.

Senator McCandless moved in amendment that Mr. Peck be the chaplain.

The amendment carried under a ruling of the chair that there would have to be a ballot to elect. It was voted against by Brown, Schmidt, Wilcox and Hocking.

Mr. Peck was elected by a majority over Mr. Kauhane.

Attorney General Smith, on a motion for a committee on rules, said a draft for both houses had been prepared but had been accidentally destroyed. Another draft would be ready this week.

Sensors Rice, Brown and Baldwin were appointed a committee on rules.

Senator McCandless moved, and it carried, that the house of representatives be notified that the senate is organized and ready to receive any communication.

Adjourned at 1:30 till 10 o'clock Thursday.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

After the opening of the Legislature the house of representatives went into session. Mr. E. E. Richards of Hilo was elected temporary chairman, and Luther Wilcox was asked to act as interpreter and secretary. A committee on credentials was appointed on the motion of A. Robertson. A recess was then taken to 3:30 p.m., when the assembly met again, and Mr. Richards called the house to order.

A. Robertson reported from the committee on credentials and stated that the following representatives produced their credentials: E. E. Richards, R. Ryeroff, E. C. Bond, G. P. Kamaoaha, W. P. Haia, A. Pali, E. M. Hanuna, A. G. M. Robertson, D. L. Naone, J. C. Cluney, James Davis, L. K. Hululani, S. Kaeo, and Walter McBryde.

E. C. Winston was the only absent member. The report was accepted.

Kamaoaha moved that the roll be called.

Naone moved that before the roll was called a judge should be sent for to administer the oath to the members.

Kamaoaha thought that the roll ought to be called first, as it was useless for a judge to administer oaths if the persons in question were not there.

A. Robertson supported the last speaker and Naone withdrew his motion.

Acting secretary Wilcox read the roll and all answered except Winston.

Kamaoaha moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait on a judge and ask him to administer the oath.

The chairman appointed Kamaoaha, Robertson and Hululani. On motion of Naone a recess was taken to allow the committee time to find the judge.

After a short delay the committee reappeared with Judge Frear, whose everyday dress indicated that he wasn't ready for the solemn function. He administered the solemn oath, though, to the members and then withdrew.

Naone then asked the Attorney-General to provide the necessary rules for the house.

The Attorney-General answered that the rules had met with an accident in the printing office and that the job had to be done over. He was sorry that they were not available today, but hoped to be able to furnish copies on Friday. The rules prepared would embrace both houses in individual and joint sessions. In the meantime he thought that the house could manage to get along if it would adopt the rules that generally guide an elected body. The house could elect a chairman, secretary and sergeant-at-arms without any special rules. These officers had to be elected under all circumstances. As soon as such step was taken the house should inform the senate of its action, and a communication from the senate would be received in regard to the steps of that body. Notice in regard to the organization of the house and the election of officers should also be given to the President to enable him and his cabinet to deal with the proper officials in coming transactions.

Naone moved that the house elect its officers.

Kamaoaha suggested that the house adopt the rules of 1892 as far as election of officers was concerned.

Robertson did not think it necessary to adopt any rules. At the morning's caucus only the speaker had been agreed upon, and he thought that more time should be used in selecting the other officers. He moved that a recess of half an hour be taken and that the assembly go into caucus and consider the election of officers.

Kamaoaha considered it better to elect officers at once, and then go into caucus and consider rules. Hanuna did not favor a recess. He was ready to go on. Half an hour recess would mean half an hour lost.

Robertson thought it was better to go into caucus before electing officers. The merits and demerits could be more fully discussed in private.

Ryeroff felt the necessity of finding capable officers and he would back the motion to go into caucus.

Kaeo also approved the motion because another candidate had appeared who was entitled to consideration.

Hanuna thought it was loss of time to fuss over election of officers. He had made up his mind whom to vote for, and he felt sure that no man not competent would offer himself as a candidate for office.

Ryeroff was called into the chair by

Richards, who supported the motion for a caucus. He desired to know something of the different candidates, and he did not think that much time would be lost in an investigation satisfactory to all the members.

Kamaoaha suggested that it would be easier to have a committee appointed to look into the character and capabilities of the candidates. The committee might see the schoolmaster who last had charge of the candidates and a certificate from him would carry much weight with it.

Naone favored the idea of a caucus, and as the discussion had lasted long enough he moved the previous question.

The motion to hold a caucus was put and carried.

At 5:45 the doors of the legislative hall were opened and the business resumed.

Kamaoaha moved that the rules be suspended and that the house proceed to elect officers. Carried.

Hanuna nominated Naone as speaker of the house of representatives. No other nominations were made and Mr. Naone took the chair. He thanked the assembly in a few well-chosen words for the honor conferred on him and asked the members to assist him in the execution of his office and be forbearing with the mistakes which he thought his inexperience might make.

Kamaoaha nominated Luther Wilcox as interpreter. Carried.

Hanuna nominated J. N. K. Keola secretary of the house. Carried.

Kamaoaha nominated P. Bruce for sergeant-at-arms and messenger. Carried.

Kamaoaha nominated J. Waiamau as chaplain. Carried.

Robertson moved that a committee of three be appointed to make a draft of rules and submit them to the house. The motion carried.

The Speaker appointed Robertson, Bond and Richards.

In answer to a question the Speaker stated that he had instructed the secretary to inform the senate of the organization of the house and the election of officers.

The interpreter read a communication from the senate informing the house of its organization, and giving a list of officers elected.

On motion of Kamaoaha the communication was placed on file.

Hanuna suggested that a notice be sent to Mr. Waiamau in regard to his election as chaplain. The Speaker promised to attend to it.

Kamaoaha moved that the house adjourn till 10 a. m. tomorrow. Carried.

House Notes.

There are not many of them, but you bet they are there.

Captain Cluney is the most venerable looking man in the house, but he watches the "talking" Hawaiian members with an eye as if he would say, "Who is getting under the speaker's wire first?"

The Demorest prize for superior gassing will be hotly disputed by Kamaoaha, Hanuna and Robertson. Naone is muzzled.

Luther Wilcox will have as much work with his 15 representatives as he used to have when there were 52 and each had a gasoline tank.

W. O. Smith had quite a paternal look on him yesterday in the house. He is instructor in chief and mentor general of the assembled wisdom.

Joe Marsden visited the Legislature yesterday and walked around with the I-have-been-there-before air.

The dignity of the first meeting of the Legislature was sadly impaired by hammering and nailing in some part of the palace.

If the house intends to move along at the rate now used, there are some prospects of getting final adjournment next year.

Frank Godfrey was a candidate for the secretaryship and very nearly got there. Kamaoaha's motion that a schoolmaster's certificate was necessary for an election settled Frank. He is not a revivalist.

Tourists.

JUNE 5th, 1895.

It is the object of all good citizens to draw as many tourists to the country as possible. The people who travel for pleasure are, as a rule, well supplied with money, and wherever they go they leave money behind. All classes benefit the more money is set in circulation. But to get tourists here, it is necessary to hold out inducements to them. They must know that they can get first class accommodation, and that they will find a first class table. A good table can be set in every hotel, boarding house and private house if those in charge know what and where to buy. I can recommend choice block butter which I receive by every Australia. It is of an excellent and uniform quality from one creamery. Fresh island butter I get by every W.G. Hall. I can also recommend superior family hams, and I always keep a full assortment of everything in the grocery line. My prices are as low as the lowest, and island orders are promptly attended to.
