FRESH OUTBREAKS ARE FEARED.

Hostile Attitude Toward Foreigners in the South.

CANTON IS THREATENED.

AMERICAN GUNBOAT THERE TO PROTECT FOREIGN INTERESTS.

China Has Immense Stores of Arms and Ammunition and Threatens to Stagger Humanity.

LONDON, June 27.—A fresh phase of the evolution in China is the probability of immediate outbreaks in the great southern provincial centers. The populace there is daily assuming a more hostile attitude toward foreigners; and the latter perceive symptoms of a general rising, especially at Nanking, where, according to a dispatch to the Daily Express, dated yesterday, Kang Wu, one of the most truculent snobs of foreigners, has arrived by way of the Grand canal, armed with full powers from the Empress to deal with the southern provinces. The friendly attitude toward foreigners of Viceroy Liu Yun Yih has brought him into disgrace with Prince Tuan, president of the Tsung-li-Yamen.

The unrest at Canton is described by a dispatch from that city to the Daily Telegraph, dated Monday, via Hongkong, yesterday. "It is feared that we are on the eve of a scene of bloodshed and anarchy in the two Quangs only paralleled during the Tai-Ping rebellion. The signs of a murderous uprising are so manifest that wealthy Chinese are hurrying from Canton and vicinity, taking their wives, families and valuables. Li Hung Chang has again been peremptorily ordered to Peking. His enemies declare that they will murder him before he can reach there. His presence alone restrains the revolutionary elements here. His departure will let loose the 'black flags' and 'red girdles.' Knowing this, Li's trusted officials are sending their families to Hongkong.

"The Viceroy himself trusts the Americans in this crisis. He says that they alone want no territory, and he places himself largely—almost unreservedly—in their hands. At an important conference to-day he reiterated this statement: 'All the missionaries have been notified of their imminent peril through confidential runners. They are leaving Canton hurriedly, and only a few are now here.'

Commander McLean of the United States steamship Don Juan de Austria is the first here to protect foreign interests. He is capable and energetic, and is reinforced by her Majesty's steamship Redpote. Two hundred foreign residents at Shameen are armed.

"The Canton population reaches 2,000,000, in addition to 250,000 living on junks and sampans (flatboats). Most of the people are disaffected, and incendiary proclamations are increasing the number of the anti-foreign forces."

Shanghai cables that the French Consul there has received a cable from Shanghai asserting that 11,000 Chinese troops are making forced marches from Shanghai to Peking.

Two Jesuit fathers and 100 native Christians have been murdered in the southern part of the province of Chi-li. The Chinese military authorities have been discovered recruiting at Shanghai inside the foreign settlement, and some agents have been arrested in the act of constructing intrenchments around the European concessions.

A Chinese connected with war purchases for the Chinese Government in Europe, who has been interviewed by the Daily Express, says that China has immense quantities of arms and ammunition and will stagger humanity, if driven to defend herself.

LONDON, June 27.—The Hongkong correspondent of the Times, writing Monday, says:

"Li Hung Chang officially announces that the presence of foreign troops at the capital is due to the Boxers, and he urges all sections of the community in Canton to be ready when the occasion arises to exterminate the enemies of the country. Numerous ruffians are entering British territory."

The Shanghai correspondent of the Times says:

has not yet been furnished. This was made known to-day in official quarters to the published intimations that the Monarchy would not have failed to respond unless she had been ordered to hold her fire.

Russia Calls Out More Troops.

LONDON, June 25.—The Official Gazette of St. Petersburg to-day contains an order of the Czar, as follows:

"As we consider it necessary to raise the troops in the Amoor military district to a war footing, we desire the War Minister to take the requisite measures. At the same time, we direct that the necessary number of reservists belonging to the Siberian-Amoor military district shall be called out for active service."

Rebel Leaders to Confer.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A cable to the Sun from Manila says:

Senator Paterno, who was formerly a member of Aguinaldo's Cabinet, is planning to hold a big convention of Filipinos on July 4, when General MacArthur's suggestions will be considered. He hopes that a common understanding will then be reached. It is apparent, however, that the Filipinos are still uncertain as to the advisability of sincerely striving for peace. The amnesty proclamation is being published in all places garrisoned by Americans, but as yet it has produced no apparent result.

Mineral Discoveries in Philippines.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 24.—A party of miners, says the China Mail, have succeeded in locating several promising fields of gold and other minerals in the northern provinces of the Philippines, and several English firms in China are becoming interested.

MEETING OF SUPREME COURT.

THE JUDGES' COMMISSIONS ARRIVED ON AUSTRALIA.

Oaths Taken and Who Administered Them—Eulogies to the Late Chief Justice.

Yesterday morning several interesting events occurred at the court house. Governor Dole, late Wednesday, in looking over his second-class mail matter, discovered the commissions of Chief Justice Frear, Associate Justice Antonio Perry, First Circuit Judge A. S. Humphreys and Circuit Judges Stillman and Edings. The commissions were signed by President McKinley and Attorney-General Griggs.

The oath of office was administered to Chief Justice Frear and Associate Justice Perry by Justice Gilbraith. Judge Humphreys took the oath before Chief Justice Frear in open court. He presented his commission to the Chief Justice, who, after glancing at it, administered the oath.

There was a large attendance of leading attorneys present as Chief Justice Frear, Justice Gilbraith and Justice Perry ascended the bench, as follows: Attorney-General Edmund P. Dole, W. A. Whiting, Paul Neumann, W. O. Smith, Cecil Brown, John L. Kaulinkou, L. A. Thurston, A. S. Humphreys, A. G. M. Robertson, J. M. Monsarrat, Charles Creighton, S. M. Ballou, W. A. Honshall, J. T. De Bolt, Lorrin Andrews, Lyle A. Dickey, L. M. Long, B. L. Marx, H. A. Bigelow, S. F. Chillingworth, T. McCants Stewart, A. Lewis and Assistant Attorney-General Lloyd M. Robbins.

Paul Neumann feelingly referred to the death of Chief Justice Dole and requested that the court sit Saturday morning as the time for receiving the memorial of the Bar Association and hearing eulogies on the work of the deceased jurist.

The court concurred in Mr. Neumann's suggestion.

Judge Humphreys, Paul Neumann and W. O. Smith delivered fitting remarks on the retirement of W. A. Whiting from the bench.

Chief Justice Frear stated that Justice Perry was in poor health, and at the advice of his physician would go to the Coast on the next steamer leaving his port to recuperate his health.

The matter of holding a special term was discussed informally.

It was finally agreed that a special term should be called Tuesday, July 10.

McKECHNIE'S HAS A COMPLAINT.

It is Registered Against a Steamship Company.

THE TALE OF A BOOKING.

STATEROOM ASSIGNED TO LADIES GIVEN TO OTHERS.

The Remarkable Story About the Miowera Told by a Well-known Business Man of Honolulu.

There are a number of people in the city who complain about the treatment they have received from the agents of the Canadian-Australian Steamship Company. H. McKechnie is among the number. He tells the following story:

A Hack Demolished.

Last night back No. 133 fell into a sewer trench on Beretania street and was badly demolished. The horse attached to the vehicle was also badly shaken up. At the time of the accident the driver was coming to town.

New Humane Officer.

Mr. Ed. Miller has been appointed humane officer by the Humane Society of which Mrs. Helen Wilder Craft is president. Mr. Miller has been a resident here for the past seven years.

LAWYER BROOK'S SCORING.

MAGOO'S VIEW OF THE MACPHERSON SUIT.

The Charge of Conspiracy Declared a Libel for Which Suit is Threatened.

The testimony of Miss Gertrude McKeigh in the case of Mrs. J. H. MacPherson against F. M. Brooks, an attorney, to recover $1,750, money alleged to have been loaned Brooks when the plaintiff in the suit was Mrs. Mary Porter, was published in the Republican exclusively on July 3d. This was supplemented by a short interview with Attorney Brooks, who alleged a conspiracy on the part of Mr. and Mrs. MacPherson to ruin him.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Southwell company have only two nights more to run at the Orpheum. The company gives a grand production of "El Capitán" Saturday afternoon the company will give a ladies' and children's matinee. This is the last matinee at the Orpheum and the admission will be only twenty-five cents to all parts of the house.

TEACHERS GET SALARIES RAISED.

Routine Business at the Meeting of the Board of Education Yesterday.

The committee on teachers held the floor at the meeting of the Board of Education yesterday afternoon. Several salaries were raised and general routine business transacted. They took another turn at discussing the "adjustable vacation" tangle, but nothing definite was decided except that the teachers in the coffee districts will get five weeks extra pay.

Steiner's Resignation.

James Steiner has resigned as manager of Hart, Co. Limited. Charles J. Landweigen will succeed him as manager and treasurer. C. H. Ramsey assumes the position of assistant manager. Steiner will give his attention to private affairs. The company will move into its new building some time in September.

BRYAN'S EARLY DAYS IN ILLINOIS.

They are Recalled by a Veteran Editor Now Here.

ORATOR'S COLLEGE DAYS.

NOT PARTICULARLY BRILLIANT AS A STUDENT OR LAWYER.

The Democratic Leader and Silver Inseparable—Populist Tail Wagging the Democratic Dog—McKinley's Popularity.

Samuel W. Nichols, editor of the Daily Journal of Jacksonville, Ill., is in the city. He came on the Australia. Mr. Nichols is one of the veteran editors of the Sucker State and an extensive traveler.

"This is my first visit to Hawaii," said Mr. Nichols to a Republican reporter last night. "For some years I have made it a practice to visit some portion of the country during the summer months. I have toured the Yellowstone Park, the Yosemite, Colorado and Utah, Alaska and Mexico. I have no use for a man who goes abroad before seeing his own country. I came here to study closely the conditions. I am not prepared, owing to my short stay, to clearly and intelligently discuss Hawaii. My first impressions are very favorable. One thing that has impressed me is the condition of the cooles here. In Mexico, the peons receive 10 cents a day, while here I am told the Mongolians get from $15 to $30 a month. Where I am staying a raw Chinese cook receives $4 a week and his board."

"I attended the literary exercises at the opera house on the Fourth. I admired the sterling American utterances of the Rev. Mr. Kincaid. But what impressed me the most was the statement of Kaulukou, the young native, that Hawaiian independence would have been dear to the natives, but that it was impossible; it was a choice between the stars and stripes and the retrogression of orientalism. It was a profound thought."

"Hawaii is under the stars and stripes, and her course is upward. This upward improving tendency is noticeable to the stranger."

"Any American who believes in the flag and its humanity at heart cannot be anything but an expansionist. I believe in the American Government holding the Philippines."

"I am impressed with the cosmopolitan character of the people of Honolulu."

"I have found here an ideal Christian church; that is, a church where people of all denominations have united to build up one strong and permitted church society. If I may be permitted, I hope that denominational enterprises will not be undertaken in Honolulu until there is an assured field for them."

I am particularly pleased with the hospitality shown and the cordiality extended to strangers by the people here. They readily impart information, in response to the most trivial questions.

"The magnitude of the business enterprises here has astonished me. I had no conception that Honolulu had such immense commercial houses and the vast shipping interests is a revelation to me."

"Coming from a region where the thermometer frequently registers from 10 to 20 degrees below zero, the beautiful tropical plants strongly impress me. I have spent hours wandering up and down your streets. Honolulu is one vast conservatory. Of course, I have been to Waikiki, and it is the most charming beach that I have ever seen. The variegated colors of the ocean cannot be conceived by those who haven't seen them. After coming from the level plains of Illinois, it seems a dream to me. Frequently on the street I think I shall encounter a brownie or a sprite to guide me to the oasis of the fairer clime."

"I haven't had an opportunity to visit the sugar plantations, but I have already heard how intelligently and systematically they are cultivated. A gentleman was telling me that when new soil is broken an analysis of the soil is made, and if requisite chemicals are lacking for the successful growing of cane they are at once supplied."

"My town, Jacksonville, has recently achieved fame as the home of William Jennings Bryan in his younger years. Bryan came to our town in 1877. He entered the Illinois College, which is the oldest college in the State, it having been founded in 1829. I am intimately acquainted with Mr. Bryan. In college he displayed no remarkable ability. He wasn't a brilliant student, neither was he an indifferent one. Early he exercised his oratory. He was never so happy as when addressing some gathering. He was always an available speaker. He graduated in 1881 in good standing. During his college days he was prominent in the church and Sunday-school. He was always exceedingly kind and accommodating and easily approachable. He was very companionable, upright, straightforward and honorable and well liked."

After graduating he went to Ann Arbor to study law. He returned to Jacksonville to practice his profession, and was given office room with Brown & Kirby, prominent attorneys. Bryan early drifted into politics. He made his principal living while in Jacksonville collecting bills. His career in Jacksonville as a lawyer couldn't be called successful.

"I am a Republican. In the campaign of 1884 Mr. Bryan, in speaking of Grover Cleveland in my hearing, said: 'I do love that man.' Now, Cleveland has not changed his political principles. People in our section have wondered why Bryan attacked him so bitterly in his campaign of 1896."

"Those who know Bryan best accord him honesty of purpose, coupled with a phenomenal personal magnetism. His speeches, articles and general enunciation of principles do not portray the statesman or thorough student of public affairs, but deal far more to appeal of passion and prejudice than anything else."

THEY ENJOYED THEIR TRIP.

HAWAII'S DELEGATES IMPRESSED WITH WHAT THEY SAW.

Mr. Wilson Talks About Conditions Here—Believe Republicans are in the Majority.

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—Harold M. Sewall of Hawaii has been chosen national Republican committeeman from that Territory. This election will please the people of Hawaii immensely, for it is well known here that he was the choice of the better element of the Republican party for the place.

Hawaii's delegation to the convention was quartered at the Hotel Walton, and the national committee allowed two delegates from the islands to be seated in the convention. The committee decided that the men entitled to represent the Republicans of the new territory were Colonel Samuel Parker and Judge A. N. Kopekai, who received the largest number of votes in the Territorial convention.

The Hawaiian delegates really took a long chance in coming to the convention, for no arrangement had been made by the national committee for representation from there.

The convention elected four delegates—Colonel Parker, Judge Kopekai, C. B. Wilson and R. Rycroft. All of them are here. They came by way of San Francisco and the Union Pacific Railway, and Mr. Wilson declared today that he didn't think he slept eight hours on the trip across the continent. Every night there was a brilliant moon, and the whole party sat at the car windows watching the country through which they were passing. Neither Mr. Wilson nor Judge Kopekai had ever been away from the islands, and although they had read descriptions of the United States, they were not prepared for the sights which they saw.

"There are about 15,000 voters in the islands," said Mr. Wilson to-day. "It is hard to tell whether the Republicans or the Democrats have the larger number of votes, for there has never been an election at which the lines were drawn. The more intelligent and the foreign element are Republicans generally, though, of course, some of them are Democrats. The Democrats have held a convention and will send a delegation to the Kansas City convention. They don't know whether they will be recognized or not, but expect to get the same treatment that we have received. We shall not urge the convention to adopt a plank in the platform calling for the admission of Hawaii as a State, nor, in fact, shall we urge the convention to do anything. Since the United States acquired the islands there has been a constant and steady improvement in conditions generally, and the community is much more prosperous than it was two years ago. We are generally satisfied with conditions as they are."

Mr. Wilson expressed the greatest admiration for those parts of the continent which he had seen. The party stayed in Chicago for a few hours. At the close of the convention they will go to New York, thence to Chicago, from there to San Francisco, finally returning to Honolulu about July 20.

REGIMENTS OF MOHAMMEDANS Chinese of That Sect are Among the Fiercest Fighters.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The Chinese army, which is reported to be opposing the advance of the combined forces sent by the powers to relieve the embassies blockaded in Peking comprises several regiments from the western provinces of Kansuh and Shensi, which are largely composed of Mohammedans. They form some of the best fighting regiments in the Chinese regular army and are distinguished for their hostility toward foreigners. In the provinces of Kansuh and Yunan over half of the population is Mohammedan, and the number of Chinese professed that creed throughout the empire is stated at between 20,000,000 and 30,000,000. The religion entered China by the south. The first mosque in North China was built at Hsi-an-fu in Shensi in 742. They have often been in rebellion themselves but now they are anti-foreign.

SUPERINTENDS THE MAIL ROUTES.

The Postal Department Sends a New Helper to Honolulu.

IMPROVEMENTS COMING.

WASHINGTON POST OFFICE OFFICIALS AGAIN FAVOR HAWAII.

Assistant Superintendent Cars of the Mail Service is Perfecting Hawaiian Postal Routes.

The Walluku people will get a mail service equal to the best in the United States, and it will be installed and in running order just as soon as the energetic postal experts sent here for that purpose can become thoroughly acquainted with local conditions.

The Postoffice Department of the United States not only sent down an inspector in the person of H. M. Flint prior to June 13 to get the postoffices adjusted to American ways, but a week or more ago Mr. G. W. Carr, assistant superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, arrived.

The Railway Mail Service never waits for people to kick, but installs new routes and cuts down the time on transportation, whether by steamer, rail, wagon or horseback, so frequently that the improvement is often made before a request for it becomes public. For this reason, and because it is entirely under civil service rules, the Railway Mail Service is seldom mentioned in the newspapers.

From New York to Buffalo is daily run a train of 11 postal cars, each 70 feet long, carrying no baggage, express or passengers and each car with 25 postal clerks sorting mail while the train runs at a 60-mile clip. Whether day or night, every through train in America has its postal car and railway postal clerks at work 24 hours per day.

Not only have the authorities sent an assistant superintendent of Railway Mail Service to Hawaii with orders to put American postal laws and regulations in full force here at the earliest possible date, but they have instructed Mr. Carr to report direct to the Second Assistant Postmaster-General, instead of reporting to the superintendent of the Eighth Division, to which San Francisco belongs, whose recommendations would have to pass through the hands of the local superintendent of the Railway Mail Service before reaching the Second Assistant Postmaster-General.

This is at once a favor to Hawaii, showing the disposition of the authorities to hurry matters here, and also a compliment to Mr. Carr, who is a veteran railway mail clerk, and, like many another man in the hard-worked postal department, has streaks of gray in his hair. Superintendent Carr was seen at his hotel last night and had the following to say:

"I wish to state, first, that for the amount paid you have had excellent mail service here. The trains and steamers were all required by law to carry mail free. The United States Government will pay them by the ton, and it is liberal pay, too. None of the wagon or horseback routes were contracted for, but men paid by the month. Under American law these 'star routes' (that is, mail between postoffices not carried by rail or steamer) must be let to the lowest bidder on a four-year contract, and the Government's advertisement in Washington, Honolulu, and the towns where the route lies, 'Where a postoffice is more than 50 rods from its railway station bids are asked for carrying the mails to and from the depot. The lowest is accepted, but no contract is made. The railroads do not have a contract, but are paid by the ton per mile, counting in as distance from postoffice to the railway at both ends. Consequently, the railroads must deliver the mail to the postoffices at both ends of their line. The big green wagons used in the States will not be needed here."

"The local station service, and also that to and from San Francisco is contracted under penalty for failure to deliver within a time limit. In fact, there is a penalty on the railways and star routes as well. If they are late in delivery of mail, I expect to take up Oahu mail routes this week or next. That finished, I will go over every mail route on each of the other islands personally. I will see with my own eyes and then I can recommend intelligently. I have already made a report on the O. R. & I. Co., but a nature is department business, you know."

"After I have finished with Oahu I will next take up the steamer service and finally the land routes on the other islands. After my reports go in the department will advise for bids, and, as soon as possible, everything will be brought in line with American methods."

"I have already recommended a postal clerk on the boats between here and San Francisco, one may be put on very shortly. We have begun to sort the San Francisco mail separate from the rest and expect San Francisco to send Honolulu mail by itself very soon. This will make quite a difference in the speedy distribution on arrival here."

In closing Mr. Carr reaffirmed his statement that the service here would be equal to the best elsewhere in the United States just as soon as he and Mr. Flint bring the postoffices and postal routes up to the American standard.

HONOLULU, H. T., JULY 6, 1900. WHAT IT MAY LEAD TO.

The trouble in China promises to lead to a general war, and if it is avoided it will only be by the most careful work on the part of the diplomats and the governments involved. Russia has long been planning to make herself the dominant power in China. Already she controls the larger part of Manchuria, and it is generally believed that her soldiers are within close striking distance of Peking from the north.

In all that Russia has done she has had the support of France, the two nations being in close alliance, France supporting Russia in Northern China in return for favors in the region of Tonquin. Germany has advocated the partition of China ever since the China-Japan war, and her joining with Russia and France was what turned the balance of power against Japan and robbed her of the fruits of victory of that war.

In all this picking of selected portions of China the United States held aloof, adhering to her traditional policy of "hands off." This, too, despite the fact that England wanted this country to take over the important post of Wai Hai Wal. The United States wished, however, to share in the trade of China, just on the eve of her great awakening, and following the Spanish war sounded the European Powers upon the "open-door" policy.

With the Boxer uprising and the imprisonment, if not murder, of the United States Minister to China, this nation has been aroused to its interests and to the fact that she must deal with a firm hand with China and with all the powers interested in China. Russia has been massing troops on the northern frontier and hurrying thousands to the scene of trouble. Japan, ever jealous of Russia, is now pushing thousands of her troops forward. England, not to be left in the final distribution, is rushing forward 10,000 troops from India. The United States now has five regiments en route, aggregating over 3,000 men.

To the close observer the whole trouble presages a general war, in which all the prominent nations of the world will be involved. For several years there have been mutterings from the Orient of a war between the powers over China, with the United States, England and Japan arrayed against Russia, Germany and France.

Despite his opposition to the Philippine policy of the McKinley administration, the veteran Senator Hoar says he will support McKinley and Roosevelt in preference to Bryan and what he represents. Mr. Hoar has not been in harmony with a majority of the Republican party on the question of expansion, but he is, and has always been, a protectionist and a believer in honest currency. It is but natural for a thinking man like the venerable Senator to prefer to trust the destinies of the country in the hands of a party with which he is in rapport on all but one great principle than to fly to the arms of a political party that advocates everything that tends to retard the growth of the nation.

any man with writing the editorials of a paper because he happens to own stock in it is most unjust to the man so accused. In so far as The Republican is concerned, we wish to state that the man elected editor of this paper is, and will be, the editor until his successor is elected and qualified, and no one else has any control of the editorial columns.

Like every other town, when the wave of prosperity strikes it, Honolulu has a goodly number of croakers. Tell one of these enemies to progress that the tide of emigration from the States is setting this way and they at once exclaim, "What are they going to do when they get here?" Or talk about Honolulu becoming a city of over 100,000 inhabitants within the next seven years, and they declare, "Well, I'd like to know where you are going to put them." But despite the croakers Honolulu is going to grow, and grow fast.

What the people of Hawaii would like to see in connection with the San Diego line of steamers is a direct route between this port and the city of bay and climate. Such a line would be exceedingly popular for winter travel, as it would escape the rigors of the winter storms off the coast farther north. Such a line would no doubt be well patronized by tourists and winter visitors to Southern California, and if the San Diego people will take hold of it we believe they can interest the Pacific Coast Steamship, or some of the other lines, in establishing such a service.

The residents of the Islands of Lanai, Maui and Hawaii will get better mail service before very long. The men sent down here by the United States Government to establish modern mail service are working diligently. Owing to the very crude conditions in vogue in the Territory previous to annexation it will take some time to make all the changes desired, but in accordance with the Republican's suggestion, better service between the other Islands of the Territory and Oahu will be installed soon.

The arrival of nearly two hundred passengers on the Australia Wednesday is but a forerunner of what is to be expected in the way of immigration to this Territory. Now that Hawaii is a Territory of the United States people of the mainland are looking this way, and every steamer for the next few years will be crowded to its capacity on every voyage to the Islands. Honolulu will double her population in the next three years.

UNCLE SAM AGAIN AROUSES THE TURK. CONSTANTINOPLE, June 24. — Lloyd C. Griscom, United States charge d'affaires, to-day presented a fresh note to the Ottoman Government, insisting upon an immediate reply to the demand of the United States for a settlement of the indemnity in connection with the losses of Americans at the time of the Armenian massacres. Although vigorously phrased, the note is not an ultimatum. It is said, however, to have been a disagreeable surprise to the Porte, testifying as it does to the intention of the United States Government to pursue this matter of indemnity to the end.

GRAND JURIES. Persons Accused of Crime Must be Indicted by Them. Now in this Territory every person accused of crime to be tried before a court must be first indicted by a grand jury. In each circuit there must be a grand jury of not less than thirteen members nor more than twenty-three. Twelve jurors must concur in a verdict before a bill can be presented. Henry Smith, clerk of the Supreme Court, is preparing rules for the selection of grand and petty jurors under the organic act.

Judge Perry will not sit at this term of the Supreme Court, but will probably leave for the coast by the Australia on account of ill health.

By Authority. IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII. JUNE TERM, 1900. GRAND JURIES.

1. WHEN REQUIRED. "No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger." U. S. Const., Amend., Art. 5. 2. HOW DRAWN. "Until otherwise provided by the Legislature of the Territory, grand juries may be drawn in the manner provided by the Hawaiian statutes for drawing petty juries." Org. Act, Sec. 83. 3. QUALIFICATION OF JURORS. "No person who is not a male citizen of the United States and twenty-one years of age and who can not understandly speak, read and write the English language shall be a qualified juror or grand juror in the Territory of Hawaii," and all jurors shall hereafter be constituted without reference to the race or place of nativity of the jurors." Org. Act, Sec. 83. 4. NUMBER OF JURORS. "The number of grand jurors in each circuit shall be not less than thirteen nor more than twenty-three." See Org. Act, Sec. 83. 5. SESSIONS. "Until otherwise provided by the Legislature of the Territory, grand juries shall sit at such times as the circuit judges of the respective circuits shall direct." Org. Act, Sec. 83. 6. CHALLENGES. Before the grand jury retires, the prosecuting officer or any person held to answer a charge for a criminal offense, may challenge the panel or an individual juror, for cause to be assigned to the court. All such challenges shall be tried and determined by the court. 7. FOREMAN. From the persons summoned to serve as grand jurors and appearing, the court shall appoint a foreman, and may remove him for cause. The court may appoint another foreman when the necessity arises. 8. OATH OF GRAND JURORS. Substantially the following oath shall be administered to the grand jurors: "You, and each of you, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will diligently inquire, and true presentment make, of all such matters and things as shall be given you in charge, or shall otherwise come to your knowledge touching this present service; that you will present no one through envy, hatred, or malice, nor leave any one unpresented through fear, favor, affection, gain, reward or hope therefor, but will present all things truly as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding; and that you will keep secret the proceedings had before you."

9. CHARGE OF THE COURT. The grand jury, being impaneled and sworn, shall be charged by the court. In doing so, the court shall give them such information as it may deem proper as to their duties and as to the law pertaining to such cases as may come before them. The court may further charge the jury when the necessity arises. 10. OFFICER IN ATTENDANCE. The court may appoint an officer to attend upon the grand jury. 11. RETIREMENT OF THE GRAND JURY. The grand jury shall then retire to a private room and inquire into the offenses countable by them. 12. CLERK. The grand jury may appoint one of their number to be their clerk, to preserve minutes of the proceedings before them, which minutes shall be delivered to the prosecuting officer, when so directed by the grand jury. 13. SUBPOENA OF WITNESSES. "The several circuit courts may subpoena witnesses to appear before the grand jury in like manner as they subpoena witnesses to appear before their respective courts." Org. Act, Sec. 83. 14. SWEARING WITNESSES. Witnesses appearing before the grand jury may be sworn in open court or by the foreman of the grand jury, or, in his absence, by any member thereof. The oath or affirmation may be substantially as follows: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the evidence which you shall give before the grand jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

15. PRESENCE OF OTHERS WITH JURORS. The prosecuting officer or any member of the grand jury may interrogate witnesses before the grand jury. The prosecuting officer shall advise the grand jury in regard to the law of the cases that come before them, and draw the indictments. An interpreter may be present at the examination of witnesses before the grand jury. Except the prosecuting officer, interpreter, and witnesses under examination, no person shall be permitted to be present during the sessions of the grand jury. No person except the members of the grand jury shall be permitted to be present during the expression of their opinions, or the giving of their votes. 16. TWELVE GRAND JURORS TO CONCUR. No indictment shall be found, nor shall any presentment be made, without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors. 17. INDORESEMENT BY FOREMAN AND PROSECUTING OFFICER. An indictment when found shall be indorsed, "A true bill," and such indorsement shall be signed by the foreman. An indictment shall be indorsed also by the prosecuting officer. A presentment, when made, shall be signed by the foreman. 18. PRESENTING AND FILING. Indictments or presentments, when found, shall be presented by the foreman, in the presence of the other grand jurors, to the Court, and shall there be filed; but such as are found for a felony against any person not in custody or under recognizance, shall not be open to the inspection of any person except the prosecuting officer, until the defendant therein shall have been arrested. The foregoing rules relating to grand juries are hereby prescribed. By the Court: HENRY SMITH, Clerk. Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, July 5, 1900. AD CHINA—OUTBREAKS EXPECTED in Southern Cities

WANT KRUGER TO RETURN.

BOER RESIDENTS OF PRETORIA SEND AN ENVOY FOR HIM.

Stopped by General Botha who Declared that the Military were in Control.

PRETORIA, June 25.—A cable to the Hon. Mr. Kruger says:

A prominent relative of President Kruger obtained a pass in order to visit the President with letters urging him to return to Pretoria in the interests of Boer residents, many of whom complain that their savings have been removed from the banks by the Government. The envoy traveled north in a hotel omnibus, but his progress was stopped by Commandant-General Botha, who told him that affairs had now become entirely military and were beyond the President's control. He directed the envoy to return to Pretoria and explain the situation to the burghers at length. The envoy was also told to explain the situation to Mrs. Kruger. The British prisoners who were liberated at Waterval are forming composite regiments, which will be commanded by officers who were also captured by the Boers. When General French released the prisoners the men of U Battery, Royal Field Artillery, who were captured at Sanna's post, seized the Boer Maxim guns covering the prison and dragged them twelve miles to Pretoria.

LONDON, June 26.—Lord Roberts' six columns are converging apparently so as to close in upon the Free States, although decisive results cannot be expected for several days. A number of Boers who were supposed to be within the wide-flung net have broken—or, rather, stolen—through General Buller's Ficksburg-Senekal lines. A party of Brabant's Horse near Ficksburg saw a camp of khaki-clad men and walked in, only to find themselves among the Boers. The visitors surrendered.

The Canadians were engaged in the Honing Spruit fight last Friday. General Dewar's men first cut off a Canadian outpost of mounted rifles at dawn, two being killed. Lieutenant Triggle and four others were wounded and three were captured. The Free States then attacked the camp, where there were fifty Canadians and two companies of Shropshires, though without much effect, as the men were well entrenched.

The foreign military attaches who were with Lord Roberts are now in Cape Town, en route for Europe. United States Consul Hay of Pretoria is going to Machadodorp in the interest of the British prisoners and to see President Kruger.

Eighty Hollanders have been lodged in jail at Standerton for destroying property prior to the British occupation. The wives and children of the Boers are surprised that the British do not loot, but pay for what they get.

SHARKEY BEATEN BY GUS RUHLIN.

The Sailor Helpless After Fifteen Rounds of Fast Work—Game to the Last.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Coach by former champion Corbett, and displaying remarkable fighting ability himself, Gus Ruhlín, the "Akron Giant," upset all calculations to-night when he knocked out Tom Sharkey, the noted sailor pugilist, in the fifteenth round at the Seaside Athletic Club of Coney Island. More than 6000 spectators went to the arena expecting to see Sharkey make a chopping block of Ruhlín, who was knocked out in a punch by the sailor two years ago. Ruhlín fought Sharkey with beautiful judgment. He met the sailor's rushes, which were always in evidence, with straight lefts. These blows bruised the sailor's face beyond recognition, and so blinded him that he was virtually helpless when Ruhlín knocked him down for the first time in the fifteenth round.

Five times after that the plucky sailor was floored, but he hung on like grim death, and was only beaten when Referee John White refused to allow the slaughter to proceed. Although Sharkey rushed all through the fight, swinging blows that were fearful in force, he did not land with enough effect to have Ruhlín bordering upon queer street. On the other hand, Ruhlín had enough power behind his smashes to jar Sharkey from head to heels on many different occasions. He took no chances of mixing it unless forced to do so, and used his left almost exclusively until he had his man where he wanted him. Then he whipped over what is known as "Corbett's inside punch," which helped to do the business.

Sharkey was literally beaten to ribbons from the start. Ruhlín had his measure and just stood up and trimmed him with the skill of an artist. In Ruhlín's corner was Corbett, who told him just how to do the trick, and the Ohioan proved to be a willing pupil. There was never a time when Ruhlín lost his head. He took matters coolly, and, though Sharkey rushed him incessantly, he stood him off with tactics that denoted skill and headwork. In the third round Ruhlín gave an inkling of what might happen by jarring the sailor so perceptibly that the great crowd broke into frantic cheers. Sharkey was almost finished in the eighth round. He was knocked down with a smash on the jaw a moment before the bell and was reeling against the ropes when the gong permitted him to go to his corner.

Then Ruhlín began to trim his man with care and effect. He poured smashes on the sailor's battered face until he was blinded and in constant distress. The blows landed by Ruhlín seemed to slowly sap the strength of the big sailor, and so he kept driving them in until Sharkey fell helpless to the canvas for the last time. Sharkey's face was so severely punched up that his friends did not know him. Ruhlín, barring a swelling over the nose, had no marks.

SENATOR HOAR TO SUPPORT MCKINLEY.

Unwilling to See the Country Fall Into the Hands of Bryan and Democracy.

BOSTON, June 25.—Senator Geo. F. Hoar declares his allegiance to the Republican party and his candidates, and says he is willing to trust the cause of liberty in the Philippine Islands, the only point on which he disagrees with the administration of President McKinley, to the Republican party rather than to Mr. Bryan, Tammany and the South.

Hoar today said: "President McKinley and Governor Roosevelt will have no more earnest supporter in the country than I shall be, whether we consider the character of the candidates, the character of the counselors they will bring with them into power, the effect on the prosperity and happiness of the American people, or the ultimate triumph of liberty and justice in the distant islands which have been brought under our control. The alternative of Mr. Bryan and David B. Hill, or any other associate the Democratic party is likely to give him, is not to be thought of for a moment."

"Mr. Bryan's election will overthrow the protective system now happily established and the wonderful prosperity it has brought to all classes of the people, and will mean a disturbed and fluctuating currency, great diminution of value of all debts and savings, the overthrow of the authority of the Supreme Court, a dangerous attack on property, socialism and the complete success of the attempt now going on to disfranchise 10,000,000 American citizens at home, and will render null and void the great constitutional amendments."

"I was and I am still opposed to the policy which brought us the Philippine Islands. I like the policy which has been and is to be pursued in Cuba. I am willing now to test the two methods by their results. But I have never questioned the honesty of purpose of President McKinley and the Republican leaders who agreed with him. I think the future of the Philippine Islands safer in the hands of President McKinley than of Mr. Bryan—in the hands of the Republican party than of Tammany Hall and the solid South."

Good Medicine for Children

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday, of Denning, Ind., who has an 11-months-old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water, and he got better at once." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

Lost.

On May 20th, a second-hand Sterling Bicycle, No. 1725, from in front of Associated Charities, Hotel street. A reward of $5 will be paid to party returning this wheel to the Pacific Cycle Co., Fort street.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

Sailors are Scarce and are Demanding High Wages.

CHARTERED THE MAUI. THE IRMGARD FROM COAST AND THE IVY FROM NEWCASTLE.

Steamer Boat Capsized—The Leowa Sinks—Yacht Race Proposed—S. C. Allen Sails Today.

There is a scarcity of sailors along the water-front, and the men who are looking for jobs are holding out for high wages. Yesterday the German ship Hera got away after being delayed several days trying to get a crew. A large crowd of the men willing to ship were at the Consul's office yesterday, but they all held out for $25 for the run. The captain objected to paying this, but finally found he could not obtain men for less, and so he came to terms. The vessel came here from Hamburg with a load of cement. Her sailors were engaged for the voyage at the regular rates for deep-water vessels. When they arrived here and found that coastwise seamen were getting from $30 to $45 the men struck when they were asked to take the Hera to Portland at the rate of wages for which they were employed on leaving Europe. The Hera discharged part of her cargo here and will take the rest to Oregon. A few months ago, when vessels were arriving here almost daily from Newcastle, there were plenty of sailors. Now there are but few, so to get crews captains must pay wages far in advance of any paid from this port before.

YACHTS TO RACE.
Charles Chillingworth will challenge the Pakii for a race against his sloop Anna. His boat will be put on the ways and cleaned before the race. She is a speedy little craft, and, if well handled, will give a good account of herself. The Pakii's crew feel sure they can beat anything in their class. The race will probably be sailed in about three weeks, and will be over the course taken by the second-class boats on the Fourth.

CAPSIZED HIS BOAT.
A Portuguese deckhand on the Noeau had an exciting experience yesterday. He was in one of the steamer's boats towing alongside and instead of keeping the boat away from the moving steamer, he allowed it to come so close that the small boat was pulled under. The man jumped when the boat capsized. It was cut loose from the steamer and floated bottom up. The German ship Hera, in towing out, struck the overturned boat, but did not damage it. It was towed to the wharf and righted and bailed out.

YACHT LEOMA SUNK.
The yacht Leoma, which was such a disappointment to the hui that had her hull, sunk yesterday. The straining in the choppy sea of Wednesday was too much for the frail craft, and it will be almost impossible to repair her. The Leoma is the boat over which the owners and builder, C. D. Walker, had trouble some time ago, which led to a lawsuit. The owners claimed that the boat was unseaworthy and refused to accept her in her condition. The trouble was compromised. Her first trip in a choppy sea showed that the contention of the hui was right.

THE MAUI CHARTERED.
The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company has chartered the Wilder company's steamer Maui for the purpose of taking the heavy machinery brought by the Australia to Eleele. One piece of this machinery weighs 18 tons, and is the heaviest single piece ever handled here, excepting a 23-ton boiler taken to Kahului about two years ago. The Maui returned here on Wednesday, after a remarkably quick trip to Hawaii. She left here June 25 with a full load and a big deckload of lumber, she discharged at Mahukona, Paahou, Kukaiua, Ooala, Laupahoehoe and Papaloa, took aboard 13,738 sacks of sugar at Kukaiua and Laupahoehoe and 90 head of cattle at Kawahae, discharged the cattle at the latter settlement and was back here on the 4th inst., making the run in nine days. Yesterday the Maui discharged some of her sugar into the S. C. Allen, completing the later's cargo. Today she will discharge into the Ropes and will load the McBryde machinery when she is finished.

ONLY ONE SAVED.
NOME, Alaska, June 8, via Seattle, June 26.—After four months of fearful suffering, during which he helplessly watched the death of one after another of his companions, James Murphy of New York, a castaway sailor, was rescued from starvation by natives on St. Lawrence Island. He was picked up from the island June 1 by the bark Alaska.

Murphy is the sole survivor of a party of six which sailed for Nome on November 3, 1899, on board the schooner Eacret of San Francisco. The others of the party, all of whom perished from cold or starvation on St. Lawrence Island were: P. Lair of Snohomish, owner of the vessel; J. H. Johnson of San Francisco, master; Charles Elliott of Denver, mate; R. A. Nichol of Plymouth, Mass., cook; and J. Smith of Seattle, a sailor.

The little vessel was destined for Cape Nome, but, after an unusually rough voyage, she was driven ashore on St. Lawrence Island. She landed high and dry and the men made an easy landing, getting most of their provisions and baggage ashore. But the schooner had been scantily provisioned and the supply was soon exhausted. The weather was severely cold and the men could find but little shelter. The island was known to be inhabited by natives and a Catholic mission was supposed to be somewhere in the neighborhood, but Captain Johnson, who started in January to find it was frozen to death on the way. In the weeks following Lair, Nicol and Smith succumbed to hunger and cold. Murphy and Elliott were discovered by a party of natives March 29, 1900, after having passed nearly four months on the island. The next day, March 31, the two survivors set out for the mission under the guidance of the natives. Elliott was on the verge of collapse when the start was made, and the party had not gone far on the way when he died in a litter of the Indians, who were carrying him. The mission proved to be 70 miles distant from the point at which the schooner was lost. On arriving there Murphy was well cared for and soon recovered strength, although he may never entirely get over the effects of his physical and mental sufferings.

Scattered about the camp of the shipwrecked party on the bleak shore of St. Lawrence Island lie five unburied corpses. Captain Frank Tuttle of the revenue cutter Bear has interested himself in Murphy's tragic tale, and, it is said, will go to the island and give decent burial to the bodies of the five victims. Murphy will go with the revenue cutter to locate the bodies, after which he expects to return to New York.

FLYING CLOUD.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—W. C. Gibbs, son of the late C. V. S. Gibbs, has presented to the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce an oil painting of the once famous clipper ship Flying Cloud, 1700 tons, which made phenomenal passages in the early 50s, racing ocean steamers and beating their time. In 1851 she made a record trip from New York to San Francisco in 89 days, sailing 374 miles in one day, and again in 1854 from New York to San Francisco in 89 days and 19 hours. She also made the best record on a trip to Australia and back. The picture shows the enormous spread of canvas she carried.

The officers of the Chamber of Commerce value the gift highly. It has been hung in a conspicuous place in the assembly hall, opposite the main entrance, and elicits much favorable comment from shipping and seafaring men.

IRMGARD ARRIVES.
The barkentine Irmgard, 24 days from San Francisco, arrived yesterday. She brings several hundred tons of bitumen for the navy dock, which she is discharging at the end of Pacific Mail wharf.

ALONG THE WHARVES.
The Doric and the Kinau about noon-morrow and the Kinau about noon-morrow.
Reinsurance on the Americana is now sold in San Francisco at from 35 to 40 per cent.
The Doric will probably be in this evening from the Coast. She is due to-morrow.
There was a vessel reported off Koko

Head last evening. It is supposed to be the Alden Bessie.
The S. C. Allen will get away for the Coast to-day. She will take quite a number of passengers.
The Noeau leaves for Kauai this afternoon. She takes freight for Eleele and 100 tons of coal to Waimea.
The American ship Ivy, from Newcastle with coal, arrived yesterday, after a voyage of 58 days. Captain Halstead reports an uneventful trip.
The Claudine is expected early to-morrow.

NOTTING HAS AN INNING.
BRINGS SUIT TO RECOVER NEARLY SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Oats' Estate Valued at Over Eleven Thousand Dollars—Action Growing Out of the Plague.

L. B. Nutting has brought suit against Henry E. Worthington to recover $5,700.13, alleged to be due the plaintiff by the defendant. The plaintiff's schedule is as follows:

Money paid by the plaintiff to the defendant	$2,500.00
Balance owing plaintiff first year's rent	2,000.00
Balance of sales	1,000.00
Due on second year's rent	2,000.00
Total	$8,500.00
Credit by cash	2,800.87
Balance owing plaintiff	$5,700.13

Plaintiff asks judgment for the amount.

A. S. Humphreys has withdrawn as attorney of record for plaintiff in the case of Janus Kaue vs. the Oahu Railway and Land Co.; as attorney of record in the case of Schweitzer & Co. vs. Chas. J. Fischel; as attorney of record for plaintiff in the case of Jessie Kaue vs. the Oahu Railway & Land Co. Frederick W. Hankey is made an attorney of record in these cases.

Kapiolani estate, limited, has brought ejectment suit against E. Peck & Co.

In the equity case of Mary C. Aldrich et al. vs. Fredrick E. Hasinger et al, a motion has been filed making Sarah S. Swinton a defendant in the action.

Kapiolani Estate, limited, has brought an ejectment action against the Territory of Hawaii.

The estate claims that the Territory has unjustly and contrary to the law and the rights of the plaintiff converted and occupied land belonging to the estate on Chamberlain street, 614 feet northwesterly from the new north corner of Chamberlain and South streets, as shown by plan on file in the government's survey office.

Return has been made by the Sheriff in the case of J. A. Gilman, administrator of the estate of John Phillips vs. S. N. Castle estate and action brought to recover $2,034.20, alleged to be due the Phillips estate.

Motion has been filed by the defendant that a day be set for the hearing of the case of John H. Estate, limited, vs. Agnes H. B. Judd; jury is waived.

Charles Ah Eoo has brought action against the Scottish Union and National Insurance Company to recover $1500 insurance money on the property of the defendant, accidentally destroyed by fire on the 20th of January, in the great Chinatown blaze. It was during the plague epidemic.

Joseph Morton Oat, brother of Frederick Brown Oat, deceased, has filed a petition to be appointed administrator of the estate. It is valued at $11,300 and consists of sixty shares paid up stock in the Oahu Sugar Company, valued at $900; life insurance policy for $500; his personal effects, valued at $300. The deceased died intestate.

The heirs of the deceased are Lewis A. Oat of Norwich, Conn., and Joseph M. Oat of Honolulu.

Cecil Brown, the president of the first American bank was shown the above item and said: "The Seligmans are one of the largest stockholders in the first American bank of Hawaii and as such have been attending to all business in the interests of this bank in Washington. It was through their influence the payment of the postal savings bank deposits was secured. Whatever they are doing in Washington, or elsewhere, is in the interests of this bank looking towards its conversion into a national bank."

Frederick W. Hankey, attorney-at-law, has removed his office to the Campbell building, corner Fort and Merchant streets.

Messrs. W. E. Rowell, Marston Campbell and W. E. Wall have been appointed commissioners of grades for Honolulu.

It Saved His Baby.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Doak, of Williams, Or. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

"Jack Jones played me a mean trick just now."

"What was it?"

"He called me up to the place where was talking to Professor Borer and then went off and left me with him."

Deputy Collector Resigns.

Leslie P. Scott, deputy collector of customs, has resigned. His resignation will take effect immediately. A successor to Scott has not yet been chosen.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

A Minister's Good Work.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

TO CONSOLIDATE BANKS.

That Said to be the Object of the Seligmans in Honolulu.

(Special Correspondence of the Republican.)
WASHINGTON, June 21.—The New York banking house of Seligman & Co will establish a branch bank in Honolulu with a capital of $500,000. The firm several days ago asked the Treasury Department to decide if the National banking laws extended to Hawaii, and, upon receiving a favorable answer, announced its intention of starting a branch bank.

The move to have the Seligmans enter Hawaii was started by important Honolulu merchants, who have been in communication with the banking firm over the matter for some time. The purpose is to have all of the banking interests of Hawaii consolidated under this firm.

E. S. L.

Cecil Brown, the president of the first American bank was shown the above item and said: "The Seligmans are one of the largest stockholders in the first American bank of Hawaii and as such have been attending to all business in the interests of this bank in Washington. It was through their influence the payment of the postal savings bank deposits was secured. THE MAN WHO DRESSES WELL

Has that satisfactory feeling which invariably comes to a man after partaking heartily of an excellent dinner. It causes him to wonder what there is in the world to be miserable about.

THE "KASH"

Is a rendezvous for well dressed men. Very Modish are the Suits and Furnishing Goods shown by us this season. Our windows tell about them. Have a look during luncheon hour.

"It's a very good world to live in, To lend, or to spend, or to give in, But to beg, or to borrow, or to get a man's own, It is the very worst world that ever was known."

AND WORST OF ALL, the dear old world is busy trying to forget if we advertised at all times to give you more than "your money's worth," it would be an insult to your intelligence.

THIS IS WHAT WE DO—We give you one hundred cents' worth of merchandise for one dollar—EVERY TIME. Ask some of your friends—they know. We are offering this week Crash Suits for Men—Coat, Vest and Pants at $2.85 the Suit.

NEW CITIZENS OF AMERICA.

NINE CANDIDATES NATURALIZED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

William Mutch Has the Honor of Being the First to Take the Oath of Allegiance.

William Mutch, the contractor, has the distinction of being the first foreign-born resident naturalized as an American citizen in the Territory of Hawaii. Mutch feels the honor conferred on him.

Mutch and a number of others were naturalized yesterday afternoon before the newly-constituted Supreme Court, First Circuit Judge A. S. Humphreys occupying the bench instead of Justice Perry, who is ill.

Chief Justice Frear and Justice Galbraith did not appear gowned, and there was a report about the court house that the justices would hereafter eschew wearing their robes of office, as none of the justices of supreme courts in the States wear them.

Nine residents were naturalized, among the number being Andrew Brown, Superintendent of the Water Works, and John F. Melanphy, turnkey at the jail.

Daniel Logan, the author of that beautiful stanza to "Columbia," was also naturalized. Mr. Logan has been in sympathy with American institutions for a number of years. He is a Republican, and his face will play a no inconsiderable part in the songs of the coming campaign.

It takes considerable time to naturalize a candidate for citizenship. He must testify to his own character, which is necessarily embarrassing; he must have witnesses to testify that they have known him to be a resident of the Islands for a stated period, etc. It took the court the greater part of the afternoon to make nine candidates citizens.

The following are now full-fledged citizens of the United States, having foreworn their allegiance to kings, queens, potentates and other rulers. They can now whoop it up at political meetings, vote on election days and hold every office in the gift of the people, except that of President of the United States: William Mutch, A. C. Lovekin, Henry B. Schrotke, George Barker, Daniel Logan, John F. Melanphy, Andrew Brown, Kenneth R. G. Wallace and H. W. Schmidt.

JUDGE HUMPHREYS RETIRES.

Severs His Connection with Robert Grieve Publishing Company.

At a meeting of the directors of the Robert Grieve Publishing Company, limited, publishers of the Republican, held last night, the resignation of A. S. Humphreys as a director and as president of the company was tendered and accepted. Owing to his elevation to the bench Judge Humphreys felt that he should retire from all active connection with the publishing company. Edwin S. Gill, editor of the Republican, was elected a director to succeed Judge Humphreys and the selection of a president of the company was postponed until the next meeting of the directors July 13th.

MUZGLING THE RUSSIAN PRESS.

LONDON, June 22.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Express says the Russian Minister of the Interior, Mr. Sipiaguine, has issued the following instructions for the guidance of newspapers in dealing with the far eastern situation:

First—No reference to the movement of Russian troops or warships.

Second—Papers must bear in mind that the Czar is actuated only by a desire to maintain peace and good will among the nations.

Third—No gossip about differences among the powers that would be displeasing to the government.

Fourth—No criticism of Russian diplomacy or of military or naval strategy.

Fifth—Editorial writers should recollect that Russia is predestined to predominate in Asia.

Sixth—Comparisons may be made between Russian and foreign troops and seamen when unfavorable to foreigners.

Medical View of Woman's Dress.

A large number of women sweep the streets with the skirts of their gowns and other garments and bear with them wherever they go abominable filth. Attempts are, indeed, often made by women to keep their dresses from dragging. Such attempts are usually unsuccessful. The management of a long gown is too difficult a matter for the majority of Englishwomen. The habit has arisen of seizing the upper part of the skirt and holding it in a bunch at a place called by women "the broad part of the back below the waist" and among anatomists by the less cumbersome term, "gluteal region." This practice can be commended neither from a physiological nor from an artistic point of view. We strongly protest from a sanitary point of view against the importation into private houses of skirts reeking with ordure, urine and pathogenic microbes. For walking in the street a short skirt should be worn, and we commend the sensible walking gown now adopted by the best dressed women to those whose business it is to write on the fashions in dress.—London Lancet.

Mr. Ikkei Wakai's Happy Home.

Mr. Ikkei Wakai, chief clerk in the Prosecutor's office of the Tokushima District Court, possesses one peculiarity which is not shared perhaps by a single one of his 40,000,000 compatriots—a peculiarity which is not in any way unpleasant, but is altogether both beautiful and worthy of being imitated. He is very economical in his habits, in the best sense of the term, and as such he has never been known to frequent places for wine-drinking and the gay pleasures. On the other hand, he is said to take the greatest delight in calling together all the members of his household, even down to his servants, once a month and entertaining them as his guests to all sorts of dishes of the season, served up in the best of style, while he himself amuses the assembly by relating interesting events and stories of the day, and thus giving them an innocently jolly time. Mr. Wakai is said to be the best regulated and most harmonious family in the locality. Japan Times.

McARTHUR STATES TERMS TO FILIPINOS.

Promoters of Peace Movement Engaged in Reconstructing Clauses Submitted.

MANILA, June 21.—General MacArthur has given a formal answer to the Filipino leaders who last Thursday submitted to him peace proposals that had been approved earlier in the day by a meeting of representative insurgents.

In his reply he assured them that all personal rights under the United States Constitution, excepting trial by jury and the right to bear arms, would be guaranteed them.

The promoters of the peace movement are now engaged in reconstructing the draft of the seven clauses submitted to General MacArthur in such a way as to render it acceptable to both sides.

The seventh clause, providing for the expulsion of the friars, General MacArthur rejected on the ground that the settlement of this question rests with the commission headed by Judge Taft.

That portion of the Forty-third Infantry which formerly garrisoned the Island of Samar, will proceed to the Island of Leyte, giving the garrison there the needed reinforcements.

The battalion of the Twenty-ninth Infantry, which was sent yesterday to Samar, will act as the garrison there.

CRITICISM OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT

NEW YORK, June 25.—A special to the Sun from Washington says:

There is much criticism among some of the officers of the army over the attitude of the high officials in the War Department in regard to preparations for sending troops to China. Some of the staff departments have received absolutely no notification of the intention of the War Department to send troops to China, and they complain that in spite of this they will be expected to make preparations for their equipment, maintenance and health.

Adjutant General Corwin denies that any troops in addition to the Ninth Infantry have been ordered to Taku, but official orders issued within the past few days confirm absolutely the statement that at least a brigade of troops will be sent.

Complaint is being made that there is a spirit of inaction on the part of some of the high officials, when it is evident to every one that it will be necessary to send several thousand men to China within the next sixty days. Meanwhile, the Navy Department, with a return of that energy which characterized its actions in getting ready for the war with Spain, is making every preparation for an extended campaign, ashore and afloat, in China.

The navy is not concerning itself with determining the question whether a state of war exists between China and the United States. Its object is to have ready all the ships, men and stores that will be needed if war should be declared.
