Colorado Minister Tells of the Outbreak in Tientsin.

APPEALS OF NATIVE CHRISTIANS. HUNDREDS OF BOXERS SLAIN BY FOREIGN TROOPS IN THE CITY.

Thrilling Details of Fighting, Escape to Taku and the Bombardment of the Forts.

DENVER, Colo., June 24.—The Rev. Robert Colman, pastor of the Presbyterian church at La Junta, Colo., arrived here yesterday with his wife, direct from Tientsin, China, where he witnessed the first raid by the Boxers on Tientsin and the bombardment of the Taku forts by the foreign gunboats. With his wife, he escaped from Tientsin on June 16 by military train to Taku, going thence by sampan to the Chinese steamer Fie Chin for Shanghai. They were in Peking early in May, where the Rev. Mr. Colman dined with Minister Conger and talked over the situation with him.

"We went to China to visit my daughter, wife of Professor Clifford of the Imperial University at Tientsin," said Rev. Mr. Colman. "Then we went to Peking to visit my son, Robert Colman, Jr., a physician resident there. He is a professor of medicine in the Imperial University.

"While in Peking Minister Conger dined with my son, and we had some talk over the situation as it then presented itself. The Boxers at that time were drilling right in the streets of Peking, and I was apprehensive. Mr. Colman, particularly threatening, and seemed to place great credit in the assurance of the Tsung-li-Yamen. I told him I did not agree with him, and he assured me that there was no danger.

"Over a month was spent by us at Tientsin—that is, until June 15. The Boxers were more and more threatening, and native Christians from all parts of the country began to flock to the mission compounds at Tientsin. They were in mortal terror of the Boxers, and with all their worldly possessions tied in small bundles, went from gate to gate, imploring the foreigners to protect them. It was a pitiable sight as they asked us with tears in their eyes, 'What shall we do when you go away? We shall all be killed.'

"Early in June American marines to the number of 107 came to the American Board of Foreign Missions compound and encamped. Captain Bowman H. McCalla was in general charge of the forces on land, and the marines in the compound were in command of Ensign Daniel W. Wirtzbaugh.

"On the night of Saturday, June 9, word having been received from the legations at Peking that help must be had at once, a meeting of consuls and commanders was held at Tientsin. Captain McCalla was the spokesman for the Americans. The Russian Consul must have had the most adequate conception of the troubles ahead, for he declared that he would not undertake to reach Peking with less than 15,000 men. The British officers were silent. When Captain McCalla was called on for advice he said he had advised that the lives of Americans were in jeopardy in Peking, and that he intended to start the next morning to their relief, whether the other forces went or not. Then the British commanders and others agreed to go, and the result was the ill-fated expedition under Admiral Seymour.

"After the departure of Captain McCalla and the forces, matters became rapidly worse at Tientsin. Finally, on the night of June 15th, soon after midnight, the Boxers rose en masse and set fire to the native chapels, French Cathedral and many other buildings. There was a terrific uproar among the Chinese and foreigners, a reign of terror. The American marines were aroused to arms, and all night stood ready to defend the foreigners in the and shouting in the distance and fire after fire sprang up until we thought the whole native city was going up in smoke.

"The next morning the bodies of about 100 Boxers were found lying here and there. I saw numbers of bodies being devoured by dogs. Trenches were hastily dug and the native authorities gathered up the bodies by tying ropes around their legs and dragged them off to burial. That morning hundreds of poor native Christians huddled into the mission compounds and begged for shelter. The foreign non-combatants were all in a fever of apprehension and most of them determined to get away by the first possible means. The native Christians learning this begged on their knees to be saved from the savagery of the Boxers.

"On the morning of the 15th Mr. Clifford went to hire a tug to take us to Taku, which is down the Pei-Ho river twenty-eight miles. No tug could be had. The authorities prohibited the departure of any vessel. We accidentally learned that a military train was to leave for Taku in forty-five minutes. Permission was obtained to board the train, and we hastily packed our belongings and reached the train.

"We left Tientsin at 2 p. m. and ar-

TRUE REPUBLICANISM WILL PARADE TONIGHT.

Hosts Will March For Real Honest Money.

MIGHTY DEMONSTRATION PROMISED. THE PROCESSION WILL DO AMPLE CREDIT TO THE PARTY.

Details of the Formation, Route of Procession, Names of Speakers and the Vice Presidents.

The national Democratic sentiment in Honolulu will be crystallized in the great parade of tonight. The projected parade will be a good one and the entire demonstration will be one of the largest and most notable ever held on the islands. It will be the first torchlight procession ever seen in Hawaii, and it is sure to be a monster one. The parade is more than a mere demonstration for partisan effect; it is to bear testimony to the demands of the great Republican party upon the votes of the American electors.

When the parade is over, the speaking will take place in the drill shed. They will expound the true principles of Republicanism. Chairman George W. Smith will preside at the rally and the following gentlemen will speak: Hon. Samuel Parker, Judge A. N. Keopikoi, C. B. Wilson, Hon. Harold M. Sewall, Enoch Johnson, T. McCants Stewart, Col. J. H. Boyd, J. L. Kaulukou and W. C. Achi. Owing to Governor Dole's enforced absence, Hon. Henry Waterhouse was asked to speak, but declined, as he could not be in town.

The following gentlemen will support Chairman Smith as vice-presidents: P. C. Jones, J. W. Jones, C. M. Cooke, C. W. Zeigler, J. B. Atherton, J. A. Gilman, Professor Hosmer, H. E. Cooper, J. A. McCandless, W. W. Hall, E. O. White, Andrew Brown, J. L. Kaulukou, M. Costa, Clarence M. White, K. R. G. Wallace, J. C. Cheney, William Mutch, S. M. Damon, Cecil Brown, T. F. Lansing, George D. ### HOW THEY STAND WITH THE LAW. KAUMAKAOLE LAZARUS S/D STORY AS TOLD IN COURT PAPER.

She Narrates How She Deeded Away Her Property and Surrendered Money for Unholy Purposes.

Arthur Wilder has returned from Waialua, where he defended two Chinamen charged of serious offenses, one of having opium in his possession and the other of liquor selling. Wm. Hon was the Mongolian, who stoutly affirms that he isn't a Boxer, and who emphatically declares that he didn't have opium in his possession. And suppose he did have opium in his possession; what are you going to do about it? That is the question that the convincing Wilder asked of the Disputed Magistrate. It is about time that the officials of the Territory should recognize that there are Federal officials here.

"How are you going to punish a man," said Wilder to a Republican reporter, "for having opium in his possession?"

"You can't punish him," was the answer.

"No, it can't be done," resumed Wilder. "Suppose this was a prohibition town and a man was found having a barrel of whisky in his cellar, could you punish him?"

"Not hardly," answered the reporter.

"Then, again," continued Wilder, "suppose the late Republic of Hawaii had a penal statute making it a heinous crime for a man to have a barrel of hard cider in his smokehouse, could you punish him?"

"Not hardly," answered the reporter.

In the matter of Wong Hon, the new District Magistrate of Waialua took the matter under advisement.

Ab Yon was the Mongolian charged with selling liquor without a license. He declared that, while he was a member of the Bow Wongs, he didn't know what liquor, Melican liquor, was like. The Magistrate believed him and he was discharged.

Mrs. Lazarus Files Suit Against Her Daughter.

Kaumakaole Lazarus, through her attorney, J. T. De Bolt, has brought suit against H. A. Juen and Esther Juen to declare a deed void and for an accounting.

The petitioner sets forth in her bill that she was born in the Hawaiian Islands in an Hawaiian by nativity; that she is 65 years old; that she is a widow; that she is only able to speak and understand the Hawaiian language and none other; that she can neither read nor write the Hawaiian or any language; that in all business matters and transactions of whatsoever kind or nature she is absolutely obliged to and does depend upon the judgment and advice of others; that she has no knowledge of the nature or effect of legal papers and instruments, and she is unable to understand or comprehend the meaning and intent thereof; that respondents are husband and wife and reside in Honolulu; that they are intelligent and possess large business experience and capacity; that the respondent, Esther P. ## COURT HOUSE QUARTERS SOMEWHAT CROWDED.

Judge Estee Orders His Court Room Curtailed.

IT WAS UNNECESSARILY LARGE. DESPITE ALL THIS MARSHALL RAY IS NOT ALTOGETHER HAPPY.

No More Is Dr. Garvin, But Looks Like the United States Court Had a Cinch.

Judge Morris M. Estee of the United States District Court, who recently arrived, visited the quarters, yesterday, which had been set aside for him in the Courthouse. There were some things about the main courtroom that did not meet with the approval of the Judge.

"I do not want a Senate chamber to hold a court in," he said; "it is absurd. Half of that room is ample, and then, don't you see, we need all the gained room. The papers that accumulate in a court of the character of mine are enormous, and they must be taken care of, you know."

Judge Estee looked over the field yesterday, and in consonance with his wishes many changes have been ordered. More than one-third of the big court room will be partitioned off, and that space will be set aside for record purposes and the use of attaches of the court. The clerk of the court may here find a local habitation, too, and not a bad one, either, for the Board of Health has been ordered to move.

Dr. Garvin was rather wroth about this yesterday, and declared that he would not move until he had quarters to go into. The doctor is a great and mighty man in the Health Department, because of his eccentricities, mannerisms, and, were there to be used the language of some of his associates, one might say his overweening vanity, but he has not yet run against the authority of a United States Judge.

It may be worth while to say here that the Courthouse is the property of the United States, paid for in solid cash. That being the case, it goes without saying that the United States District Judge does not have to request; he can order—even as to his office.

It is quite likely, however, that Dr. Garvin will learn one of these days that the executive officer of the Board of Health is an infinitesimal quantity in the Government of the United States.

Meantime, however, there are no real rays of sunshine about the United States Marshal's office. It appears that the Marshal had appropriated to himself the main room to the left of the Courthouse as one enters from the King street front. This is a very handsome room and adjoins the District Court room. Naturally it would be the Judge's chambers. But the Marshal had set his eyes upon it, and had practically appropriated the room.

When Judge Estee looked over the place yesterday he naturally made up his mind to take the same room for his chambers. Naturally, because the United States District Judge will do more business in chambers than he will in his courtroom. Besides, the Republic is quite satisfied that Judge Estee, who is a great student, has brought over with him his library, and that will fill half a room like that. Any way, the Judge has determined to occupy that room, and late yesterday afternoon Marshal Ray seemed to be mightily disgruntled about it.

But a person who has lived in the States doesn't realize why the Marshal should want so large an office. The Northern District of California does his business in a room of not more than 12x18, or less. The Marshal really doesn't amount to much; he simply has a few processes to serve, and any kind of a room will serve his purpose.

The close man to the court is the District Attorney, and he will take the rooms now occupied by the Census Department. The court will consult him a dozen times where he would the Marshal alone. Undoubtedly, comfortable rooms will be found somewhere in the building for the United States Marshal. He will have little to do but draw his salary, and any old office will enable him to do that.

The Board of Health will move into the present rooms of Mr. Howell of the Department of Public Works, in the Courthouse annex. He will move into the basement of the Capitol building.

BUT IT WAS A SCORCHER.

Yesterday was the most oppressive day of the season. Weather Observer Lyons reported the maximum temperature at 87. The mercury has climbed a degree or two higher this season. What made yesterday seem to be the hottest day of the season was that the dew point reached 71 and above the normal while the humidity was 77.

Everyone was complaining about the heat. It commenced to get hot in the morning in the Police Court and grew in intensity until 3 o'clock in the afternoon when it shaded down a little.

Last night was the saltiest of the year. But it didn't interfere with the Elk celebration. It is doubtful if the Elks minded it.

The office that is seeking the man wouldn't have much show in Hawaii.

Uncle Sam is drawing a pretty close line on foreign steamships, much to the discontent of the latter.

Justice and guns are again predominant in Kentucky. Look out for trouble when the Goebel murderers are put on trial.

There will be something of a contrast between the rousing republican rally tonight and the democratic fiasco of last Wednesday night.

It begins to look as though the opponents of municipal government were about as numerous as the anti-imperialists in Massachusetts. There are just enough of them, to coyote like, set up and howl.

Meantime, it is confidently asserted that the young Emperor of China is still alive. But he might as well be dead, so long as the Dowager Empress is alive and well and keeps slashing around the imperial palace with poison up her absurdly large sleeves.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.
In a very able communication in a morning contemporary Anna Alward Eames presents many excellent reasons for the establishment of municipal government in Honolulu.

Why should a plumbing inspector be paid $3,000 a year for his work in Honolulu, when cities like San Francisco and Denver can get the very best men in the trade for $1,800 a year, and glad they are to get the place at that salary, too. Official salaries are being overdone in Hawaii.

The Republican publishes in another column this morning a communication upon the homestead question. The writer, who is one of the substantial business men of this city, presents some good reasons for action by the coming Legislature looking to the adoption of a fair homestead law that will insure the cultivation of the land by actual bona fide settlers and the prevention of its falling into the hands of large companies and speculators.

The Knights of the Royal Arch, comprised entirely of liquor men, is rapidly growing in the States. The order is secret and fraternal in its nature, and its membership is confined exclusively to persons engaged in the liquor trade, including all branches, distillers, brewers, wine dealers, wholesalers, retailers and employes.

Homestead Laws Needed.
To the Editor of The Republican:
Sir—"Homesteader," in your issue of July 31, broaches a subject which no doubt will have the serious consideration of the Legislature soon to be elected, no matter what its political complexion may be.

Australia, too, is making a fight against the dread disease, consumption. At a recent meeting of the Board of Health of Sydney, this subject was the uppermost one. The views of the National Association for the Prevention of Consumption were clearly put forward by Dr. Malcolm Morris, who emphasized the State aspect of the subject, i. e., the prevention or eradication of the tuberculosis amongst cattle by a careful use of the tuberculin test, with subsequent isolation and destruction of those cattle that react. Meanwhile, all milk should be sterilized before being used as food, and the sale of infected meat strictly regulated.

tail in the Evening News, shows that Australia is very much in earnest on this subject and that its physicians are thoroughly up to date.

THE CANAL MUST BE BUILT.

The urgent need of the Nicaragua canal is again pointed out to the world by the trouble in China. This time not simply the United States realizes what the absence of the canal means, but the nations of Europe are having it plainly brought home to them.

The latest advices from the mainland were to the effect that Germany had chartered a number of vessels now in American waters belonging to German citizens. Some of these are being loaded with coal for the navy on the China station, and in order to reach their destination will be compelled to make the long voyage around the horn.

Vessels are loading coal at the same port off the mouth of the Chesapeake which will likewise make the long trip around the horn. The United States is better provided in the shipment of horses, as they can be carried across the country on railroads and loaded on transports at any of the Pacific ports.

Were the Nicaragua canal constructed the voyage of 15,000 miles around the horn would be shortened to a voyage of less than 5,000 miles, and the reduction in the time of passage would be seventy per cent.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

In a very able communication in a morning contemporary Anna Alward Eames presents many excellent reasons for the establishment of municipal government in Honolulu. She calls attention to the need of straightening, widening and extending streets under some uniform system as has been carried out in Paris; the advantages of a public library under municipal control, and numerous other good points in favor of what, a majority of the people realize, is a necessity for Honolulu.

"In constructing a charter for Honolulu it is extremely important that the code shall be formed on liberal lines. There is no more safe, natural or healthful way for charter sentiment to grow than by agitation. Women's clubs, federations of school teachers, chambers of commerce, civic leagues, mercantile associations in American cities study the charters of the great municipalities, to the end of crystallizing the ideas for which representation is desired on the board of freeholders who frame the charter."

Homestead Laws Needed.

To the Editor of The Republican:
Sir—"Homesteader," in your issue of July 31, broaches a subject which no doubt will have the serious consideration of the Legislature soon to be elected, no matter what its political complexion may be.

In operation, the act is an absolute failure, and I challenge the proof of any case, where a bona fide homesteader (within the meaning of said term) has lived on his lands and gained his entire support therefrom. The reverse will be found the rule, and in some cases (even such as where a breach of the law was committed in an overreaching attempt to see how far law could be negated without someone going to jail) it is said that very little cultivation of the land is going on, a few reaping the benefits to be derived from ostensible joint holding of large areas—or again, as in the case of the Oiaa settlers, a wholesale yielding of property to larger agricultural enterprises.

one eligible to citizenship, on three conditions: That he live on the land; cultivate the same, and pay his taxes. The land would thus revert to the Government whenever the original homesteader or his successors should commit a breach of conditions. Such conditions would absolutely prevent the mortgaging of his land by the homesteader. He could mortgage, or even sell outright his improvements, but they could not be removed, and his successor would have to yield to the same terms for occupation as the original settler.

There are commercial conditions that are inseparable from inauguration of a successful scheme for homestead settlement, among which might be mentioned the carrying of products and charges therefor, the marketing of such products at centers of consumption and the temporary elimination of outside competition in the home market until industries can be established. These are all matters that were in large measure ignored in the past. Successful small farming will never become established in our midst until the traffic and market conditions are placed on a legitimate basis.

APPROVES OF THE CANTEN.

(From the Army and Navy Register.)
Army officers are much interested in an address delivered by Rev. Dr. Hamilton, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, before a number of soldiers at Fort Meyer, Va., recently. The hall was crowded with enlisted men and their families, and strict attention was paid to the minister's remarks.

"I am a trustee of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, but speak now as an individual, as the society is not allowed to interfere with anything pertaining to governmental regulations. No doubt some members of the society are opposed to the canteen and some are in favor of it. I believe the canteen is a promoter of temperance, but does not promote total abstinence and is a great improvement over previous conditions. I do not think the canteen is perfect, and I think I can improve it. It has improved the conditions of the soldier, morally and materially. Under existing conditions at army posts I believe the canteen is a good thing and a great benefit to soldiers."

These remarks were listened to with great satisfaction by the officers and soldiers present. A prominent army officer, discussing Dr. Hamilton's remarks, said:
" That so distinguished a clerical should publicly declare an individual approval of the canteen, and that, too, speaking from his own knowledge, and in a sober, dignified spirit, is to me strong proof that after a while the good showing in favor of temperance and order that the canteen has done and will do will be recognized by the entire country. If only ministers and zealous temperance people understood the incalculable good being done by the canteen they would not denounce it as a curse; they would proclaim it as a blessing."

Texas Census Enumerator Makes His Report in Verse.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—As the reports come in from enumerators the census officials are impressed with the versatility of the average American. A report from Corpus Christi, Tex., written by James S. Henderson, special agent in charge of the local manufacturing schedules, was in verse as follows:

On the schedules I have sent you
Is a list of all discovered
Manufactures in the battlet above set out.
Each establishment I went to
Or around which I have hovered.
Made the answers and, fixed signatures to

PUBLIC LANDS NOTICE.

OLAA TRACT, PUNA, HAWAII.

On Thursday, September 28th, at office of E. D. Baldwin, Hilo, Hawaii, will be sold at Public Auction about 200 lots of 50 acres each, at upset prices of from $1.00 to $12.00 per acre, on following terms and conditions:

Purchaser may not acquire more than one lot.
The purchase price of the land to be paid within ten years, either in full at any time within said period of ten years, or in installments of one or more tenths of the purchase price on any interest date.

Interest at rate of 6 per cent annum from date of Agreement on unpaid balance of purchase price, payable semi-annually, in advance.
Purchaser shall substantially improve his holding within one year from date of Agreement, and shall from the end of the second year have under cultivation at all times, not less than 10 per cent of the premises. To enable him to Patent Grant giving fee simple title, he shall continuously maintain his home upon the premises for a term of six years and have at the end of such term 25 per cent of the premises under bona fide cultivation, or shall have maintained his home continuously upon the premises for four years and have under cultivation, at the end of such period, 50 per cent of the premises, such maintaining of a home to begin at any time before the end of fourth year from date of Agreement.

He shall plant, if not already existing, and maintain in good growing condition from end of second year until termination of Agreement, an average of not less than ten timber, shade or fruit trees per acre.
He shall allow the Agents of the Government at all times to enter and examine the premises, and shall pay any taxes that may become due on the same.
At the end of tenth year, or earlier, if all conditions necessary thereto have been substantially complied with, the purchaser shall be entitled to a Land Patent, conveying fee simple title to the land described in Agreement of Sale.

In case of default or failure to perform the requisite conditions the Commissioner may take possession of the premises and may sell the same at auction, either as a whole or in parcels, for cash or terms of time payments; and if such sale results in advance on the original price, the original purchaser to receive therefrom the amount of his payments to the Government on account of purchase, without interest, and a pro rata share in such advance in proportion to the amounts of his payments. If such sale shall result, however, in a less price than the original, the amount returned to him shall be charged with a pro rata amount of such decrease, proportioned to the amounts of his payments.

An Agreement of Sale covering such conditions shall be made with the Government and no assignment of interest under such Agreement shall be made without the written consent of the Commissioner of Public Lands.
J. F. BROWN, Commissioner of Public Lands, August 1, 1900.

Great Baltimore Sun Copies From Our Files.

GOOD ADVERTISING FOR HAWAII.

SPEAKS OF CITY'S GROWTH IN COMMERCIAL IMPORTANCE.

Makes Copious Extracts of an Interview About the Possibilities of Growing Fruits Here.

(Staff Correspondence of The Republican.)

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The Baltimore Sun, probably the greatest newspaper printed in the South, has the following editorially today:

"The Honolulu Republican is the title of an excellent newspaper which starts its career concurrently with the establishment of the Hawaiian Islands as a Territory of the United States. Files of the paper which we have received give interesting accounts of local affairs and the effects of changes in conditions which have come with the change in government. Some of these changes are not, apparently to the liking of the people. The new system of red tape introduced in the custom house, the Republican complains, makes it practically impossible for a merchant to get possession of the goods awaiting him without the expense of employing a broker at considerable cost. There is also much confusion upon the question of citizenship and eligibility to office under the organic act. Attorney General Dole, who is a nephew of the Governor, has given an opinion upon this subject which has made a stir. Of it The Republican says: "Whatever Attorney General E. P. Dole had in mind when he rendered his opinion on the question of citizenship in Hawaii perhaps that gentleman can tell, but certainly no one else can tell by reading his letter to his uncle, the Governor. The opinion shows a most marked absence of knowledge of the law, and any clerk in a reputable law office who would be guilty of writing such a paper for publication would be deemed fit to be informed that he had better drop out and go to hoeing sugarcane."

"It seems that the organization of the Territorial government was signalized by a public ball in Honolulu. The Republican contends that as the cost of this ball was paid by the government, it should have been open to the public instead of being limited to invited guests. The invitations, The Republican complains, savored too much of monarchical times. "The city of Honolulu bids fair to have a 'boom' in consequence of annexation. The Republican says the city has 'reached that period in her history that might well be termed the parting of the ways. From a slow, plodding town she has become a live, bustling city. Her harbor is filled with shipping, as never before, and she has suddenly jumped from an insignificant calling port to a great commercial center. The march of progress has reached Honolulu, and the old conditions must give way to the new order of things."

"Among proposed improvements are a sewerage system, the opening and paving of streets, the numbering of houses and the construction of an electric street railway. "A leading fruit shipper in an interview condemns the policy of Hawaiian farmers in devoting so much of their energy to sugar growing. He believes that the present high price will not be maintained, and that there is more profit in fruit growing. The whole of the Island of Oahu is devoted to the production of sugar, rice and taro, the first being the money crop and the others for domestic use. The fruit shipper urges the cultivation of limes. He says: "The duty on limes is $1.75 per case. This has been removed by annexation. Hawaii is the natural home for the lime. It does better here than anywhere in the world. It is a perennial bearer and in Hawaii is very prolific. It takes from three to four years for the lime to bear from the seed. I have three small trees on my place at Kalahehi. They net me $15 each. The United States imports from Mexico annually from 300,000 to 400,000 cases of limes. These limes could be easily raised here. This is a great pineapple country. The pineapples that we raise are very juicy, of fine flavor and free from pulp. From 4,000 to 5,000 pineapples can be raised on an acre. The price to the grower will average $1.75 per dozen. I have six acres of pineapples on my place. Two men do the entire work and I pay each $20 a month. The crop matures once a year. Figuring on only 4,000 pineapples to the acre, the net income would be $875.75 and the profit $442.75, or 65 per cent profit. Does any one want a handsomer profit for his investment than this?"

"The same gentleman declares that there is a profit of $200 an acre in bananas at 25 cents a bunch, and that grapevines produce two crops a year. "An article on the weather says that on June 25 the thermometer in Honolulu registered 88°—the hottest June day on record. The usual average temperature for June is 76°, but in June of this year it was 78°."

DEATH OF AUGUST KRAFT.

An Old Resident of Honolulu Passed Away Yesterday.

August Kraft, one of Honolulu's old citizens, passed away yesterday at his residence corner of Kewalo and Lunaliho streets. Mr. Kraft came here many years ago and engaged in watch-making and jewelry business with his sons on King street, near Fort. The shop was continued for many years and the proprietor became wealthy by strict attention to his work. Several years ago he retired from business and went to live on the Plains. He had purchased a very large lot on which a house was constructed. After he gave up the pursuit of his trade, he turned his attention to the cultivation of plants and flowers. As years rolled on he gathered around him trees and plants of numerous varieties from almost all parts of the world. The place became a botanical garden on a small scale, and Mr. Kraft made his plants his most intimate friends. Although he loved them he was generous with them, and many people in town were given slips from his gardens. Mr. Kraft was a man of simple life. When he was taken sick several weeks ago he called for Dr. McGrew, who told him he had but a little time to live. The doctor advised removing the sick man to the hospital, but Mr. Kraft objected, saying he wanted to die amidst his flowers. The immediate cause of his death was consumption. Deceased was a native of Germany and over 70 years of age. He leaves a fortune of about $40,000, which is bequeathed to his son and daughter living in New York City. The funeral will take place from the undertaking parlors of H. H. Williams, this morning, at 10 o'clock. The interment will take place at Nuanuan cemetery.

Commodious Suit In the Chicago Auditorium Engaged. CHICAGO, July 23.—Headquarters for the campaign will be established by the Democratic National Committee at the Auditorium here. Senator James K. Jones arrived today and completed arrangements whereby the national headquarters will be established on the second floor of the Auditorium, in the rooms which were occupied by the Paris Exposition Commissioners. There are fourteen rooms in the suit, providing ample space for the campaign committee.

ROMAN CATHOLICS IN CHINA.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT AND CHURCH.

Exact Terms by Which Prelates Are Able to Deal Personally With Officials.

Here are the exact terms of the agreement entered into between the Chinese Government at Peking and the papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Rampolla del Tindaro, acting through the vicar apostolic of Peking, Mgr. Favre: "The Imperial government, having for a long time authorized the propagation of the Catholic religion, and Catholic churches having in consequence been established in all the provinces of China, we are desirous to see our people and Christians live in harmony. To insure a realer protection it has been agreed that the local authorities shall exchange visits with missionaries according to the conditions specified in the following articles: "First—In the ecclesiastical hierarchy bishops shall be entitled to the same rank and dignity as viceroys and governors, and shall be privileged to interview viceroys and governors. "In case a bishop is called away or dies the priest in charge shall be privileged to interview viceroys and governors. Vicars general and archdeacons shall be privileged to interview treasurers and judges as well as intendants. Other priests shall be privileged to interview prefects of the first and second class, prefects independent, sub-prefects and other functionaries, all of whom shall return courtesies, according to rank. "Second—Bishops shall make a list of the priests appointed to take charge of affairs and interview the authorities, giving names and locations of missions. This list shall be sent to the viceroys or governors, who will direct and authorize the officials to receive them according to this regulation. "Priests requesting an interview, or those especially appointed to take charge of affairs, should be Europeans. If, however, a European priest be not conversant with the language of China he may be accompanied by a Chinese priest acting as an interpreter. "Third—It would be useless for bishops living away from cities to visit the provincial capital for the purpose of being received by the viceroys or the governor if they have no business in hand. At the installation of a new viceroys or governor, upon the arrival of a new bishop, or upon any occasion of ceremony, as New Year's day and the principal feasts, bishops shall be privileged to write private letters to the viceroys and governors, at the same time inclosing their cards. Viceroys and governors shall return the courtesies. Before leaving or upon their arrival other priests shall, provided they have a letter from their bishop, be privileged to interview, etc., according to their rank. "If any grave or important matter concerning any mission in any province should arise the bishop and missionaries in office shall appeal to the minister or members of the council which the Pope has appointed as a religious protectorate, the latter shall have the right of deciding, together with the Tsung-tai-tsun, of the local authorities. If a mandarin is consulted on an official question by either a bishop or a missionary he must give the matter immediate and polite attention and institute an investigation. "As occasions arise the local authorities shall endeavor to assist the missionaries to unite with the Christians. They shall never encourage hatred or countenance dissension. Bishops and priests shall likewise exhort all Christians to strive earnestly toward maintaining the good repute of the Catholic religion, so that the people may be content and appreciative. In any suit between the people and the Christians the local authorities shall judge and rule with equity, that the people and the Christians may live in peace. Missionaries shall neither interfere nor give their protection with partiality. "The purpose of the concordat was to give Catholic prelates official standing, to enable them to overcome curious Chinese etiquette and to deal personally with officials rather than, as in the past, with the consuls. It was a step in the direction of good government and not of necessity a religious propaganda. The Roman Catholic Church has no missionaries there are from France, a few from Italy and Belgium and a very few from Holland. All are members of orders, since it is found that orders can act as missionary societies, raise funds and maintain discipline far better than could the Propaganda Fide acting direct and dealing with seculars. The latest agreement with the Missions Catholiques, as used by the Propaganda Fide at Rome and covering the Chinese Empire, are nearly twenty months old. They estimate the population of all China to be 449,155,000, giving their figures by districts, and give the Catholic population as 532,448.—New York Sun.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

How the Lumber Yards Encroach on the Public.

STREETS ARE ALMOST IMPASSIBLE.

THE COOLING WATERS OF THE BAY IS ALIVE WITH SWIMMERS.

The Aorangi and Rosamond Take Many Passengers to the Coast.

The Empire From the Colonies.

Allen street, from the Oceanic wharf to Fort street, and from the latter thoroughfare to Alakea street and the streets crossing Allen street from Halekuanila to the water-front, besides a good part of the Esplanade, are being monopolized by the lumber people as lumber yards. No content with using the sidewalks, the roadway is being piled high with many thousands of feet of lumber. The contention is that the streets and sidewalks in this part of town are not used a great deal. It is true that they are not, as during the day it is almost impossible to go through the section without danger from great carloads of lumber, which are hauled around with a great disregard to the rights of citizens who are not in the lumber business. At night the streets are pitch dark, saving the light of the moon, and the piles of lumber are left without a warning light of any kind right in the road. At hardly any point of the streets leading to the Esplanade, between Alakea and Fort, is it possible for two vehicles to pass each other.

Careless driving and the law of the road are being enforced by the police just at present. The law of road obstruction seems to have been forgotten.

THE ROSAMOND SAILS.

The schooner Rosamond sailed for San Francisco yesterday afternoon with sixteen passengers and 28,507 sacks of sugar, besides a lot of rice and coffee. The superior passenger accommodations of the Rosamond are sure to make her a popular passenger vessel for those who have ample time to spare. Captain Ward is very popular, and looks forward to building up a big passenger business between here and San Francisco. All the conveniences of a steamer are to be found on the new vessel, and she is going to make almost steamer time in the proper seasons, declares Captain Ward. As her freight capacity is very great and there seems to be no lack of application by intending passengers, the vessel is bound to be a big money-maker. By the last mail for the Coast were spoken for on the return voyage to this port.

REPORTED LOST.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 21.—Captain McIntyre of the steamer Bristol, which arrived from St. Michael after a passage of nine and a half days, reports that when he sailed, on June 11, there was a report at St. Michael that the steamer Charles Nelson had been driven ashore by the ice early in June on the Siberian coast. The report was said to have been brought across Behring sea to Cape Nome. He heard no details of the wreck, but says it was a total loss. His report, he said, was not based on the best of authority. There were no less than five vessels—three steamers and two schooners—in quarantine at Egg Island when he sailed. A rule had been made that all steamers from Cape Nome had to be quarantined at Egg Island for fourteen days on account of a smallpox epidemic there. The steamers in quarantine were the Morning Star, Utopia and Discovery.

ALONG THE WHARFS.

The second navy wharf is fast nearing completion.

The Upolu sailed for Kona ports yesterday afternoon.

The Iroquois is discharging rapid transit material and machinery at the navy dock.

The little schooner Mille Morris is being repaired at Koolau. She is expected here in about ten days.

The steamer Upolu took the Aorangi's passengers to the steamer for the Pacific Mail wharf yesterday.

The American bark Empire, sixty-eight days from Newcastle, with coal, arrived yesterday, after an uneventful voyage.

The British ship Halewood got stuck in the mud off the railroad wharf yesterday. She will be pulled off by the tug at high water to-day.

The Custom House men were busy yesterday clearing the Pacific Mail wharf of freight, to be ready to receive the freight of the Gaelic to-day.

The Hawaii sails today. The Golden Gate will also get away this afternoon for Kaulaakali for another load of American Sugar Company's coal.

The America Maru did not make the trip between here and San Francisco as fast as she was expected to do. It took her 5 days, 18 hours and 2 minutes.

On the down trip of the Australia all but two of the firemen gave out. They were put to passing coal and the coal passers were promoted to the fore-room.

The Mauna Loa was a little late in getting away yesterday on account of the great amount of freight taken. She took a large number of passengers for Maui and Kona ports.

The Aorangi left for Victoria yesterday, taking a large number of passengers. She did not come inside the harbor, neither did she anchor outside. The Miowera is expected to-day from Vancouver, and it is probable she will bring advices regarding the further calling of the vessels of the Canadian-Australian line at this port.

During the lunch hour yesterday and after the 5 o'clock whistles blew the harbor teemed with swimmers, and the wharves were lined with workmen and boys who had been swimming or were about to take refreshing plunges. From every vessel in the harbor the crews were sporting in the cool water about their vessels. The day was a roaster, and the toilers all enjoyed the plunge after the day's work was done.

LONDON IN THROES OF HEAT.

HUMIDITY CAUSES DISREGARD OF OLD SOCIAL CUSTOMS.

Rigid Rules of Dress Give Way to Comfort—Poor—Greatly.

LONDON, July 21.—"We are requested to state," said the Times on Thursday, "that the tall hat and frock coat, which has hitherto been recognized as the costume for Sandown Park on the occasion of the royal visit, may be dispensed with to-morrow and Saturday in favor of the straw hat and other costume more suited to the tropical weather."

A few days of intense heat have done more to break down the established traditions of England than would a dozen reform bills. Long-established rules of state, social, business and political etiquette have been swept to the winds, or rather into the humidity which the lack of wind produces. In a land where a few years ago, sunstroke was almost unknown, the hospitals are now crowded with cases of that description. For the first time in the history of Parliament one of the front-bench members, Herbert Gladstone, has appeared at St. Stephens wearing a straw hat, to the amazement of the members of the House. Royalty, driven to desperation by the hottest weather England has ever known and obliged to appear at public functions, has completely discarded the usual forms of dress.

Well-known men of fashion are frequently to be seen at the West End wearing white duck or flannel trousers, with immaculate frock coats and silk hats. This latitude of dress extends also to servants. Bepowdered flunkies, thick with gold lace, may be seen gravely sitting upon the boxes wearing sailor hats of varying pattern, and fashion-conscious men have given up the hot veil and bonnet in favor of light straw headgear. In brief, this metropolis of the world, with its countless arbitrary forms of dress and procedure, has in the short space of a week been turned topsy turvy, and has become as free and easy as a Haytian village in the height of summer.

The serious phase of the matter is the rapidly increasing death rate and the prophesied continuation of the heat wave. The papers never tire of pointing out how utterly inadequate are the provisions to deal with the present conditions. Ice is a luxury obtainable by the rich only, and in their limited quantities. For the poor there is no alleviation, not even the opportunity to bathe. The idea of flooding the heated streets has not yet dawned upon England's municipality. The supply of facilities at the London hospitals to deal with heat prostrations is absurdly inadequate. London's method of transit—underground trains, inside buses, etc.—never well ventilated, can now only be described as sweat boxes.

COMMENTS ON THE SUGAR SITUATION.

San Francisco Wasp's Rather Queer Comment.

TALKS OF A PLANTERS' UNION.

BOSTON COMMERCIAL BULLETIN REFERS TO TRUST STOCK.

Another Big Advance in the Price of Refined—Honolulu Stocks to Be Offered in New York.

The San Francisco Wasp has the following somewhat peculiar comment on sugar:

"The most important fact in connection with sugars is the advance in the price of the raw matter, taken in connection with the other fact of the Hawaiian plantations still having half of their crop on hand to profit by the rise. The labor troubles in the Islands are of less importance than has been reported. Free labor, which constitutes 80 per cent of the plantation force, appears to be perfectly satisfied, the disposition to strike being confined to the remaining 20 per cent, who have been angered by ill-advised action on the part of the Planters' Union. This mistake was quickly recognized in this city, and by one of the recent steamers a gentleman, prominent in sugar circles, went to Honolulu with the express purpose of inducing that body to recede from its action. No doubt is felt that he will be successful and that all will go along smoothly after his arrival. Nothing much is being done in sugar stocks, nor is much expected until after the reorganization of some of the companies, rendered necessary to carry out Edward Politz's arrangements in New York for placing them on that market in the autumn."

The Boston Commercial Bulletin, in its issue just at hand, has the following comment on the sugar situation:

"A comparison, very unfavorable to the Wall street speculative favorite, has been drawn this week between the ruling price of sugar stock and that of the preferred stock of many industrial concerns paying as much, or more, annually in dividends. While comparisons are always odious, in this case they are interesting. Out of a list of nineteen stocks, sugar sells the highest in the market and yields the lowest income return. It is further asserted that this is the busy season in the sugar trade, and that the war will probably be resumed with vigor so soon as the refiners have made a bit of money by refraining from competition and advancing prices. In other words, sugar will drop back, according to those who analyze the situation with an eye to short sales, and settle at a figure more consistent with its dividend payments. The local interest in sugar speculation seems to have dropped the game and turned to more congenial and seasonable summer pursuits."

The sharp advance across 118 during the last days of the week rather upset the bear theorists and gave the bulls an opening. The latter figure in sugar speculation is making a profit of $1.65 a barrel, which easily gives $2,000,000 a month, as the output is between 20,000 and 40,000 barrels per day. Such a monthly profit would speedily rehabilitate the surplus, which is supposed to have been so greatly reduced through the demands of the war and the necessity of maintaining dividends. It requires $2,587,760 to pay the preferred stock dividend each year, so that if the company is really making $2,000,000 a month it could easily increase the next quarterly dividend on the common to the old 12 per cent basis and still have a good sum to add to surplus."

Of the sugar trade in the market the same journal has the following: "Following the strength of the raw sugar market a further advance was made in refined by all the refineries, bringing the price for granulated to 5.05c per pound net cash, a difference of 24c per 100 pounds between raws and refined. This last rise would seem to be sufficient for the outlook of the immediate future. A very large demand for refined necessitates the running of all refineries quite full, and a rapid consumption of raw sugars is constantly going on. It will be well to carry a full line of stock."

Receipts for the week were 37,227 tons and meltings 41,000 tons, and stocks in United States and Cuba together are 150,550 tons, against 35,223 tons last year, say Willett & Gray in their weekly market letter. The demand in the local market is steady at the advance.

"Cut loaf, 6.45c; crushed, 5.45c; domes, 6.20c; cubes, 5.20c; XXXX powdered, 6.05c; standard powdered, 5c; granulated, fine and diamond A, 5.90c; 2-pound bags and 2-pound cartons, 5c; soft whites, 5.55c@5.65c; extra C's, 5.45c@5.55c; yellows, 5.20c@5.35c. All with 15c per 100 rebate. Reverse granulated and fine is quoted at 5.75c; Belmont A, 5.55c."

FIERCE SLUGGING IN THE POLICE COURT.

Attorney Davis and Brown Have a Warm Set-to.

JUDGE WILCOX REFEREES CONTEST.

ATTORNEY GENERAL DOLE SECS ONDS THE HIGH SHERIFF IN FIGHT

While Hanrahan Holds the Bottle, Davis, Not Exquired, Puts Up a Game Battle—Features of Bout.

The audience became impatient for the event of the day, and as the gong sounded calling the men to the center of the ring a hush came over the crowd like a December fog over a California landscape.

As the contestants stripped for action it was evident to the most superficial and casual observer that they had undergone a careful course of training. Each were armed with voluminous documents. During the whole mill, lasting one hour and forty minutes, High Sheriff Brown displayed much coolness in evading the wild and frantic rushes of his agile opponent.

Referee Judge Wilcox permitted many foul blows to be struck. But with the true instincts of a sportsman, recognizing the rights of the large audience present, he overlooked many rib-roasters and nose-enders delivered in the clinches, and sock-dollagers below the belt at long range sparring.

During the long contest, in which intense interest never flagged for a moment, Attorney Davis was always on the aggressive. Some of his blows fell short and others went home with a loud, resounding report and concussive disturbance that caused the court house to oscillate and the countenance of the High Sheriff to wear pain. There were lightning effects and transformations. Expressions of hatred, despair and anger and the passions which man has inherited from the womb of original sin vanished in a moment, being supplanted by those radiant with humor and merriment.

At the conclusion of the bout the referee, after highly complimenting Attorney Davis for the game fight that he had put up, awarded the decision to the High Sheriff by fining Attorney Davis $10 and costs. The loser immediately appealed to the Board of Referees, the Circuit Court. Before final decision is rendered the bout, with its many phases, will probably be taken to the United States District Court.

Perhaps the saddest arena of the circus, where the cymbals and bass drum discordantly proclaim the triumphant entry of nations, and the ring master announces with snapping whip, "Here we are again!" better illustrates the scene in the police court yesterday. There were ground and lofty tumbling, aerial flights, clownish acrobaticisms, head plunging and body following feats through burning rings; in fact, a stupendous three-ring aggregation of living embodiments and side-splitting new-having all under one tent and for the one price of admission.

Promptly at 3:30 o'clock High Sheriff Brown, erect as a wireless telegraphy mast, accompanied by Attorney General Dole, entered the crowded court room. He was calm and self-possessed. The Attorney General was as serene as a tropical sky.

When the case of the Territory of Hawaii vs. George A. Davis was called the High Sheriff slowly read the complaint. It was brought under Section 693 of the Penal Laws of 1897: "By acting and performing the duties of notary public of the First Judicial Circuit without a license so to act and without paying license fee as so required by law."

Hardly had the High Sheriff enunciated the word "law" when Davis was on his feet and the slugging commenced.

"May I please the court, I have filed a demurrer in this case," said Davis with high inflection of voice, extending hands and arms ceilingwards. "I haven't seen it," said Brown, twirling on his feet and revealing the symmetry of his handsome form and belaced uniform to the whole court room, filled with capitalist attorneys, newspaper men and the fetsam and jetsam of Honolulu society.

"You haven't filed it with me," resumed Brown when he came to attention again, "and I don't know what it contains."

"You don't?" exclaimed Davis. And then, turning to the court, "What are you going to do with the demurrer?" "Here it is, Mr. Davis," said the court quietly, placing the paper on the highest elevation of his desk.

"What are you going to do with it?" asked Davis. "I overrule it," responded the court. A shade of light came to the face of the Attorney General.

At this stage of the proceedings George L. Edwards, accompanied by a policeman, entered the court room.

He was called to the stand. The High Sheriff tipped to the witness with a paper in his hand. He was questioned about an affidavit made and acknowledged before Davis as a notary public.

Edwards manfully declined to answer the question, stating that his relations with Davis were one of client and attorney.

"Answer the question," said Davis. Edwards complied and then Davis moved that his testimony be stricken out, as the paper was the best evidence.

The Treasury Department and was formerly in the Interior Department. A license was issued to George A. Davis as notary public in 1896, on July 27th of that year.

Davis sprang to his feet. He objected to the evidence. "Why," said he, "according to the testimony of the witness the license was issued prior to the passage of the Act in 1897."

It was a rib-roaster and the prosecution became groggy. Last year, according to the witness, Davis had failed to pay for a license. "How do you know that I haven't?" asked the attorney.

"By the books," answered Rose falteringly. "Have you them with you?" "No."

Then Attorney Davis smashed right and left. His foot work and arm work met the approbation of the audience. He demanded that the case be dismissed. He had sent his resignation to the Governor weeks ago, but that august person had refused or neglected to act upon it. He then placed in evidence his resignation, sent to the Attorney General on August 1st, and which had previously been introduced in evidence by the prosecution.

High Sheriff Brown took the stand and then the exciting part of the mill began. He stated that he was informed by the Treasurer that Davis hadn't paid the license. He narrated the story of the bringing of the action.

"Didn't you go to the Attorney General's office last night to consult about this case?" asked Davis on cross-examination.

Brown admitted that he had a consultation with the Attorney General. "Now, isn't it a matter of fact that this whole action has been brought wholly out of spite, for the interest I have taken in the Edwards case?"

Brown made a denial. "Didn't you and the Attorney General talk about the Edwards case last night?"

"We might have mentioned it inadvertently."

"When you brought this Edwards affidavit into court did you forget about the Edwards case?"

Brown made an evasive answer, saying that he had no animus in the case and was only fulfilling his duty.

"Haven't I always treated you fairly and as a gentleman?" asked Davis. "I can't say that you have treated me as a gentleman." This was said with great chilliness.

"Didn't I manage your interests in the City of Columbia case, in the Chin Chong property case, and didn't I collect $200 for you from Captain August Spillner, for which you never paid me one cent?" asked Davis.

"You did. But I paid you $25 for collecting the money from Spillner."

"You never paid me one cent!" retorted Davis, his eyes glistening. There wasn't a sleepy man in the court.

"Do you mean to say that Treasurer Theodore F. Lansing informed you that I hadn't paid my license?"

"It might have been the Deputy Treasurer."

"But you said the Treasurer. By what orders did you bring Edwards into court?"

"I sent for him and he came."

"You sent for him! Didn't you get an order from the Supreme Court?"

"No."

"Haven't I always been a law-abiding citizen?"

"Yes, only when you are excited."

"Do you get excited? Didn't you object T. McCants Stewart out of your office about a month ago?"

The High Sheriff made no response. "How long did you attend the Boston Law School with the Hon. Edmund Pearson Dole?"

Referee Wilcox cautioned Davis about committing a foul by sustaining the objection of the Attorney-General.

Then there were more savage passages, and Brown tipped to his corner a badly used up man. It began to dawn upon the audience that it was a case of malicious persecution.

Davis requested to be sworn. On the stand he called Brown a liar. He declared that he had never received a cent for collecting the $200 from Spillner, and then a pathetic scene ensued. Davis, with uplifted arms and with an eloquence never heard in a Honolulu court, for the past two years at least, called on the heavenly powers to forgive Brown, for he couldn't.

There were lights and shades in Davis' finish. The case was nothing but a tempest in a teapot, as The Republican had said. He didn't class himself with peddlers and fish hawkers and cake makers, who had to secure a license from the High Sheriff to peddle their wares.

But when Davis came to sum up his case, no pen can describe his eloquence. He felt that he had been wronged. And with that intense earnestness which always actuates a wronged honest man he launched forth.

He followed in a series of invective, until there was nothing but a terrible tornado sweeping everything before it.

When Davis alluded to the nepotism of the Dole family; when he pointed to the Attorney-General and declared that he was nothing but a creature of his uncle, Dole turned pale. When Davis called upon God to forgive Brown for not telling the truth, it was dramatic.

PLANS OF FILIPINO PLOT. Secret Service Stumbles Upon Insurgent Recruiting Office.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The Secretary of War has been furnished with copies of some interesting documents relating to an alleged plot against the authorities in Manila, which were discovered in the district of San Miguel.

The secret service department under Lieutenant Charles E. Trowbridge, Eleventh Cavalry, early in June, stumbled upon an insurgent recruiting office, situated in an isolated locality where the work might be carried on without attracting attention. One room was fitted up as an office and a large quantity of blank forms bearing the headline "Republica Filipino" were found in the house.

In a cupboard which had been securely fastened Trowbridge and his men discovered a large quantity of paper, all of recent date, the latest being dated June 7th. They consisted of orders from Aguinaldo and letters of encouragement and instructions from that leader and other insurgent chiefs. A document which excited a great deal of interest was one which contained the details of a plot arranged evidently early in June to excite an uprising in Manila. The plan contemplated an attack upon the forces in the city and the seizure of arms and ammunition.

The Honolulu Republican will be delivered to any part of the city for 75c per month or $5 per quarter.

DAMAGES ASKED BY CHINAMAN.

CARTWRIGHT FILES ANSWERS TO ESTATE OF DAVID BOWERS SMITH.

Members of the Bar to Meet Judge Estee This Afternoon—Judge Silliman Hears Probate Case.

The late John Hopp, who came here when Honolulu was nothing but a rendezvous for whalers, did not leave such a large estate as many conversant with his affairs predicted he would. Mr. Hopp was reputed to be wealthy. He was frugal and industrious.

Edwin M. Marshall, son-in-law of the late Mr. Hopp, has been appointed administrator of the estate, the bond being fixed by Judge Silliman at $10,000. The estate is valued at over $18,000, and consists of the following: Dwelling house and lot, Alakea street, $7,000; two lots Pearl City, $700; undivided half interest in furniture business, $10,300; cash, $800.

Chee Kit, through his attorneys, Robertson & Wilder, has brought suit against Lee Lung to recover the sum of $1,000 for injuries inflicted by the defendant on the 4th of last April at Manoa. The complaint alleges that defendant willfully and maliciously assaulted, beat, cut and bruised plaintiff without authority or justification, and did aid, abet, countenance and encourage certain other persons, Lee Choy and Lung Chong, to assault him.

In the case of Cecil Brown, administrator of the estate of David Bowers Smith, vs. Equitable Life Assurance Company of New York, defendant, and Bruce Cartwright, garnishee, Cartwright has filed answer to plaintiff's complaint, stating that he has in his possession funds belonging to defendant in the sum of $7,645.45, which he is ready to dispose of in such a manner as the court may direct.

In the same entitled action, Cartwright has filed an answer, stating that by the terms of the policy of insurance set forth in plaintiff's complaint any loss is payable at defendant's office in the city of New York, and that the defendant is ready and willing to pay such loss at its office in New York.

Judge Humphreys was engaged yesterday in hearing the case of Mrs. L. K. Puahi vs. Kapiolani Estate, Limited, a bill to set aside a deed. Magroon & Long for plaintiff; Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan for defendant.

Arguments in the injunction proceedings against the Hawaiian Tramways Company have closed and Judge Humphreys has taken the matter under advisement.

Deputy Clerk Lucas was engaged yesterday in hearing the case of the Ookala Sugar Company vs. J. R. Wilson, a venerable case that has been in court for years.

This afternoon United States District Judge Estee will meet the members of the bar at the Supreme Court room. The meeting is set for 1:30. At the meeting a committee of three will be appointed to draft rules for the presentation of causes.

On next Friday evening the annual banquet of the Bar Association will be given. United States District Judge Estee, United States District Attorney Baird and United States Marshal Ray will be present. Paul Neumann will be toastmaster. W. O. Smith, S. M. Ballou and J. M. Monsarrat have charge of the banquet.

Yesterday Judge Silliman was busy in hearing probate cases.

The petition of the administrator of the estate of J. Pinas for leave to sell real estate was continued for a week. J. M. Oat was appointed administrator of the estate of the late Frederick B. Oat, his bond being fixed at $15,000.

The accounts of S. K. Kane, guardian of W. A. Markham were approved. Emma A. Nawahi, administratrix of the estate of Joseph H. Nawahi, was removed. She was ordered to file her accounts within thirty days.

J. M. Monsarrat was appointed administrator of the estate of Kekipi (w), bond being fixed at $1,500. The resignation of J. S. Walker, guardian of Eliza Holt, has been accepted. Annie Holt has been appointed in his place, bond being fixed at $2,000.

Teresa Mele Kahai, administratrix of the estate of Samuel K. Kahai, deceased, has filed an inventory of the estate. Among the list is a $4,000 claim for property burned by order of the Board of Health. The estate, outside of this claim, is valued at $10,000.

A Minister's Good Work.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

NEWS OF THE TOWN

A big concert will be given at Wai-lana Saturday evening, August 11th, in aid of the village church. Musicians of Honolulu will assist.

About eighty prominent Portuguese met at the residence of Consul Canavaro Thursday evening. An engraved toilet outfit was presented. The presentation was made in recognition of the many years of faithful services of the Consul.

The body of James Sharin has been transferred from Makiki to Nuuuanu cemetery. A neat monument has been ready for erection for many months, having been ordered from the coast last year, by Co. B. N. G. H., to which Sharin belonged from its organization.

It Saved His Baby.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Doak, of Williams, Or. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.

HAWAIIAN CEMETERY ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED.

Capitalized for One Hundred Thousand Dollars—Nearly All Subscribed.

The Hawaiian Cemetery Association filed its incorporation papers yesterday. The capital stock of the company is $100,000, with privilege of increasing it to $250,000. Of the capital stock $75,000 has been subscribed and $10,000 paid in.

The incorporators are Francis J. Berry, M. A. Gonsalves, Chu Gem, W. G. Ashley and J. Alfred Magoon. The officers of the company are: W. G. Ashley, President; M. A. Gonsalves, Vice-President; Francis J. Berry, Secretary; Chu Gem, Treasurer. These, with Mr. Magoon, constitute the Board of Directors.

AMUSEMENTS.

A large and most enthusiastic audience greeted the new arrivals from Australia at the Orpheum last night. The minstrel first part, while not as elaborate in settings as former productions, went through with a vim and was well received. Interlocutor Miller made a good pun without knowing it, which took the house. The quartet made a hit and proved to be something out of the ordinary. Hen Wise and Katie Milton more than sustained the reputation accorded them on the mainland and in Australasia.

Miss Flora Batson, in her double voice, assisted by Gerard Miller, was well received.

OFFICIAL WORKING HOURS.

They Have Been Established From 8.30 to 4 O'clock.

In response to a query The Republican would say that the official hours are from 8.30 a. m. to 4 o'clock p. m., though most offices, like that of the Board of Health, the Public Works and others are open very much later, even to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Water Melons from Wahiawa.

The Agricultural Department and the Territorial Entomologist were the recipients of three handsome water melons yesterday, which came from the Wahiawa colony, located near Pearl City. Both Commissioner Wray Taylor and the entomologist pronounced them sweet, luscious and most enjoyable. This result at this new colony is regarded as proof positive that melons can be profitably raised here.

Court Will Move.

Judge Dickey will soon be holding court in the old stone building next to the postoffice. The building is to be renovated and occupied by the Second District Magistrate and the Board of Registration.

THE PALAMA PUMP

READY TO BEGIN WORK.

"Yes," said Andrew Brown, the general superintendent of the Honolulu Water Works, "we raised the American flag out at the Palama Pumping Station, today, and we had a good reason to do so. There was a tree there that seemed to grow faster than the chimney, for that reason we gave the old algebra the position of honor. So we raised Old Glory on it."

THE KALIHU EPIDEMIC OF TYPHOID FEVER.

Inspector McVeigh says the patients at Kalihu Emergency hospital are doing very well. Dr. Garvin said, when questioned yesterday: "There are no new developments, so far as I know. But I have heard nothing from there today." And to the astonishment of The Republican reporter, Dr. Garvin turned on his heel. The epidemic of Kalihu may be of consequence, but the executive officer of the board evidently doesn't think so.

THE UNITED STATES COURT.

It Will Be Formally Opened Today at 1:30 O'clock.

The United States District Court will be formally opened at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. The meeting will take place in the Supreme Court room. There will be no formal ceremonies, because Judge Estee is not given to that sort of thing. He is here for business.

Though the opening may partake of the nature of a levee, the court will be ready, and meets for the purpose of receiving and disposing of any business that may be presented.

Appeal to Washington.

Attorney Brooks has forwarded to the United States Treasurer at Washington briefs and affidavits in the cases of two Chinamen, who had been refused landing here by Treasury Agent J. K. Brown. Mr. Brooks claims that the Chinamen were born here.
