COURSE OF STUDY FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

A very necessary step in the right direction has been made by the Board of Education in supplying a course of study for the Public English Schools of this kingdom. The compilers of the course seem to have done their best to meet, practically, the wants of the schools in their present condition, which, as we pointed out in an article last April, is peculiar and unlike the condition of any other set of schools in the world. The main thing to do at present is to teach our children to read, write and speak English correctly, and not in the style known as "hapahaole" English. The course issued by the Board of Education makes a distinct effort to teach English on a sound basis from the very first, and we see that the same idea is even carried into the High School course. A pupil who takes the last three years will be well acquainted with the outline of English and American literature and will be thoroughly acquainted with several complete works of the leading poetry and prose writers.

We also notice that care has been taken that a knowledge of accounts should be acquired at an early age. Of what advantage is it that a child can work square or cube root if it is unable to make out intelligently a statement of practical accounts? There is a great deal of embroidery free hospital service. The case of a in modern education which can be sick sailor on the Australia, who a very well done without; what a couple of years or so ago was carchild wants is good stout cloth with ried on because the Hospital would supply at the "Empire." 53 lw in modern education which can be sick sailor on the Australia, who a

When the work is completed it will take a place among our school text books. The Geography of Hawaii, also mentioned as a text book, has been written by Mr. Atkinson, the Inspector-General, and is, we believe completed: It will therefore soon be in the printer's hands.

TAX ON SAILORS.

The San Francisco "Evening

Post" in a recent issue commenting on the refusal of the Legislature to do away with the tax of two dollars per head put upon everyone who arrives at these islands from abroad, for the support of the Queen's Hospital, confuses this impost with that which sailors on Hawaiian vessels pay to keep up the Marine Hospital Fund, and roundly denounces the Hawaiian Legislature for its refusing to do justice to the sailors who ship under our flag. The Marine Hospital Tax levied upon our sailors is something very distinct from the tax which passengers have to pay, and primarily had nothing to do with the Queen's Hospital. Under an old law twenty-five cents per month is to be deducted by the masters of all Hawarian vessels (whether engaged in coasting or foreign going commerce), from the wages of each sailor and the sums so levied and paid to the Customs to form a fund for the maintenance of a Seamen's Hospital and for the care of sick sailors until such an institution is provided. Out of this fund the Minister of Interior is authorised to provide for the temporary relief and maintenance of sick or disabled Hawaiian seamen until hospitals or other suitable institutions are established for the purpose within the Kingdom. The law provided that, after defraying the expense of such relief, the surplus from year to year should be invested until a fund had accumulated which would be sufficient to provide hospital accommodation for sick seamen. But a final clause of the Act authorised the Minister in case a general hospital existed at any of our seaport towns to "contract with the same to apply any part of the Marine Hospital Fund to the sur port thereof, on condition that full provision is made for the accommodation relief and maintenance of sick and disabled Hawaiian seamen," Under the provisions of this clause some Minister shuffled the whole trouble of the thing off his shoulders by applying not a "part," but the whole of the scamen's contributions towards the maintenance of the Queen's Hospital at Honolulu, making no provision whatever for the Hawaiian sailor who might be hurt or taken sick at any other port of the kingdom.

The arrangement thus made would, on the face of it, have been a good one, provided that in making his bargain with the Trustees of the Queen's Hospital the Minister who is responsible for it had seen to it that the law as to the relief of the sick and disabled sailors was carried into effect-had seen in fact that the sailors who pay this special tax of $3 per annum got something in return for it. This was not done, neither as has already been said, was anything done for the relief of those who needed it either at the outposts or abroad. All that the Queen's Hospital gives in return for the handsome contribution to its funds compulsarily taken from our sailors, estimated we see by Mr. Green for the current period at $1800 a year is to take in sick or hurt sailors who are duly discharged from the ships they have been serving on for the space of not more than three months after the dis-

The trustees when appealed to some time ago in the case of a sick sailor on the Australia, whom they insisted in charging for, maintained that the owners of the vessel, not the sailor, were liable to pay. So they are primarily, no doubt, responsible to the Hospital, but they always recover what they pay out of wages of the men who have already paid out of the selfsame wages $3 per annum as an insurance fund to secure from this our Government

SUFFERING FROM WANT OF A PHYSICIAN.

Entron Bulletin :- In a late paper I read the opinions of a gentle man who had been interviewed concerning the projected strangers' infirmary. This gentleman is quoted as having said, "That the projected strangers' infirmary, for which a grant of land was asked of the Legislature, would better be attached to the Queen's Hospital under appropriate legislation, there being even now a good deal of spare accommodation in that institution. The general distribution of Government physicians throughout the group prevented the congestion that once existed in the Queen's Hospital, from numerous consignments of sick folks from the plantations."

Now then, Mr. Editor, please allow me to express my opinion also for the sake for those poor and suffering who are cast into our midst in a strange country. No doubt that the gentleman quoted above is none the less sincere and desirous of assisting and co-operating with those philanthropic ladies and gentlemen of Honolulu, whose humane and truly Christian feelings induced them to put all their efforts towards that laudable object of obtaining a haven of refuge for those sick, who are in a strange country, thousands of miles away from friends and kin. The Legislature, which has at all times been willing to assist every deserving cause, will no doubt come to the rescue in this case also. whether by a grant of land or otherwise. But as the Hawanian Group s steadily becoming more peopled, it is only right to expect that the demands for hospital accommodations will correspondingly increase. There might be a time when the Queen's Hospital will not accommodate all who crave for admittance. In the season of plenty is the time to provide for a rainy day. Looking at it in this light it will be seen that a grant of land would be perhaps of greater benefit than any other arrangement.

Finally we have to look in another direction also. The gentleman above says: "The general distribution of Government physicians throughout the group, etc." We must admit that the Government made some wise provisions for the welfare of the people when they took the latter mentioned step, and we can certainly not very well blame the Administration if their intentions are not properly carried out. For example: Koloa is peopled with at least 1000 inhabitants, and there is only one medical doctor, the Government physician, to look after the sick, yet this gentleman is aircady two weeks in Honolulu, with every pect that his stay there will b extended for at least another week. Our sick and dying are suffering from the non-attendance of a physician, for the nearest one is at Lihue. Ought there not provisions to be made, where in case of and during the absence of the regular Government physician some other doctor should take charge of the practice, so that these whose health and life are almost dependent on the administrations of a medical practitioner, might not be deprived of such attendance, for it is the failure of such that causes Koloa to be in a

ome Startling Statistics for the Benefit of Total Abstainers.

A report on the inquiry into the con-nection of disease with habits of intem-perance, prepared by Dr. Isambard Owen, Secretary of the Investigation Committee of the British Medical Association, gives some startling statistics for temperance people. Particulars have been obtained by the committee of 4234 cases of deceased lives, aged twen-ty-five and upward, in which the habits of the person in regard to alcohol were of the person in regard to alcohol were recorded in five classes—total abstainers. Inbitually temperate, careless drinkers, tree drinkers, and decidedly intemperate. The ages of death in each class show an average as follows: Total abstainers, 51.22 years; habitually temperate, 62.13; careless drinkers, 59.67; free drinkers, 57.59; decidedly intemperate, 52.03. This makes the lowest average duration of life that of the moderate drinker, his average long. the moderate drinker, his average being nearly eleven years longer. The habit-nual drunkard averages about a year longer than the total abstainer.

Another table prepared by the com-mittee, from which all deaths under 30 were excluded, showed the following durations of life: Total abstainers 57.31; habitually temperate, 6648 careless drinkers, 61.52; free drinkers careless drinkers, 61.52; free drinkers, 58.87; decidedly intemperate, 53.42. Omitting lives under 40 years, the average age of death was: Total abstainers 62.74 years; habitually temperate, 67.-71; careless drinkers, 64.45; free drinkers, 61.98; decidedly intemperate, 57.47.

LUCE'S MONKEY CETS LOOSE. A monkey owned by Mr. W. S. Luce, freed himself from his chain on Sunday and went in for a good time. He finally pulled up in Dr. McGrew's premises and there gave the doctor a lively time, in fact, so much so, that a policeman was called, his monkeyship arrested and taken to the Station house. Upon enquiry at the Police Court this morning it was learned that a nolle pros had been entered against Mr. Monkey

BLUE RIBBON ENTERTAINMENT. A large audience was present Saturday evening at the entertainment of the Blue Ribbon League at the Y. M. C. A. hall. A capital programme had been prepared and it was listened to very attentively. Miss 31. Dillingham opened with a capital piano sole, followed by J. N. K. Keola with a reading which was well given. T. K. Nathaniel sang a song with guitar accompaniment, which was encored. A recitation by Miss Eva White pleased the audience very much, and she was compelled to respond to an encore. Miss Fredericke J. Nolte gave a German song, with taste and expression, Mr. Henry Berger playing the accompaniment. It was quite a pleasure to hear this young lady sing. Addresses were delivered by Revs. S. E. Bishop and H. H. Gowen.

KOLOA, KAUAI, NOTES.

The one physician of the district has been away in Honolulu for some time. Sickness prevails, and the nearest doctor is at Libue.

Mr. Cropp, manager of Koloa Sugar Plantation, is still in a critical condition. Dr. Walters has been summoned from Liliue. Mr. and Hyde to spoil the much of his poetry Mrs. Turner's baby is badly sick. Two Japanese were arrested on the 15th for selling spirituous liquors without a license, and were fined on the 17th $100 each, and costs. Koloa, Sep. 22.

OPIUM SMUGGLERS CAUGHT.

On Sunday evening Chas, Rose, Joe Cords and Aiau, all employed on the steamship Australia, were coming from the dock when Custom House guard John Good intercepted them, and on searching them found opium on their persons. Rose had 3 tins and Cords 4, while the Chinaman had around him what looked like a bologna sausage about two feet long. It was a piece of umbrella covering sewed together and nearly full of opium. The men were arrested, and Port Surveyor Terrill coming along the three were taken to the Station house. In the Police Court this morning they were each fined $60.

IT IS RUMORED.

That the Austin plantation scheme is deader than a door nail: that the word bulldoze is not strictly legal: that lawyers only use it when they are a trifle out of sorts: that the new Chamberlain will be announced this week: that one of our tradesmen has gone to the States to look after a fortune: that the Hawaiian Band is not going to Melbourne: that the Samoan trouble is not over by any means: that the Chinese are going into the milk-shake business: that there's millions in it: that the Minister of Interior has gone to 'Frisco on very important business: that the "Planters' Monthly" knows "what it costs to raise a boy:" that certain individuals are plotting and scheming to secure annexation of these islands to the United States.

JAPAHESE Y. M. C. A.

The monthly social and literary meeting at the Japanese Y. M. C. A. was held last Saturday evening. at the rooms in Queen Emma hall. Some forty or more members were present. The mission work among the Japanese in Kauai is progressing, numbering now some thirty converts. One of them, a professional gambler, has sent to his parents in Japan, in proof of the reality of his conversion, the loaded dice with which he has been plundering his victims for the last fifteen years. Allusion was made also to some notable instances of success in the temperance movement among the Chinese in this city. At the close of M. Ban's paper, M. Takasugi delivered an earnest appeal in behalf of Christian life as the life for young men to adopt early. Brief addresses were falso given by Hon. Henry Waterhouse, Chief Justice Judd and others. The collation closed the exercises of the evening which seemed to be heartily enjoyed by all present, Through the kindness of Mr. J. T. Waterhouse, the regular Sunday services of public worship, in charge of Rev. Mr. Miyama, and the Sunday School under Mr. Bidwell, are now held in the Lyceum.
