AN ERROR NOT ALL AN ERROR.

In saying the other day that the expenditures for "military and items not appropriated by the last Legislature" were at a rate equal to the whole ordinary revenue, an error was made inadvertently which would be serious if anybody could not see it on a moment's close examination. As a matter of fact, only from a fourth to a fifth of the probable revenue is being spent on military and objects unauthorized by the people's representatives. That is bad enough, and we have no desire to make it worse than it is. What would have been correct would be the statement that the Government—as shown by a week in which comparatively little was paid in "salaries, etc."—was spending at a rate exceeding the ordinary revenue, taking the whole biennial period, over and above what it was spending on "military," etc., and this with the civil list cut off and no public works of any extent being prosecuted. Although we regret the mistake in statement—which was purely accidental—its correction really does not put the financial position in any better case, so far as the interests of the people are concerned. The amend is, however, due to the Government as showing, to all who may not have perceived the error themselves, that it is not so deliberately improvident as the erroneous statement represented. Ordinary expenditures above the income, with an amount equal to an enormous proportion of the whole revenue going besides for military and so forth, make a financial situation that is not pleasant to contemplate.

ATTACK ON THE JURY.

Failing to trump up another "royalist" hoax, and having nothing favorable to concoct on the situation, for the outgoing steamer, the Advertiser indulged this morning in an attack on the native jury. Two Hawaiians accused of complicity some way in a che fa lottery—in one case the tickets having been found under his door-step—have been acquitted. Therefore, in the eyes of the Advertiser, Hawaiian jurors are no good. At last previous term a reporter was reprimanded by the Judge presiding for having reflected on the Hawaiian jury, in cases where the Court knew that the prosecution had made a poor showing of proof. Even if in the acquittals this term the native jurors have unduly strained the "reasonable doubt," there is no justification for the Advertiser's assault on them. It is a good old maxim, "Better that ninety-nine guilty men escape than that one innocent man should be punished." But if the Advertiser desires to roast juries, it should exhaust the material of some white panels of the past in Honolulu. Not long ago a Supreme Court Justice delivered a severe lecture to the police authorities for hauling up Chinese on charges of small gambling, while it was notorious that white men were carrying on extensive gambling operations with impunity. Suppose the Hawaiians look at the matter in the same light with respect to their countrymen prosecuted for gaming, what right has the Advertiser or anybody to heap denunciation on their heads? There may be another reason for these acquittals—supposing there was good evidence for convictions—which, while not tenable in law, may yet invite sympathy for the jurors from all who possess human sympathies. If convictions are the test of a jury's virtue, then the Hawaiian juries this term began very well. They convicted at the start as many alleged criminals as the Government, on the other hand, declined to prosecute. The Court in each case increased the penalties appealed from in an enormous degree. It seemed as if the Court desired to stamp the privilege of appealing to itself from a lower tribunal as a heinous crime. Perhaps the penalties imposed below were entirely inadequate to the degree of guilt proved, and the increases of $40 to $200 in fines therefore justifiable and in the interests of offended justice. Even then it is not unnatural that the plain Hawaiian juror should have taken alarm at the apparent disposition of the Court to extreme severity toward his countrymen. It would only be humane on his part to do so, and cast his prerogative in behalf of his accused brethren.

As suggested before, if the Advertiser desires to attack the jury system as a whole, it has no need to single out Hawaiian juries as examples of either unfairness or unfaithfulness. We can give incident for incident, from recollections of many years' following of the Hawaiian courts, to illustrate that the integrity and intelligence of Hawaiian jurors at least compares favorably with those qualities as revealed in white jurors. The vicious assault on Hawaiians in the morning organ is the most dastardly political effort yet put forth by that paper, and its suggestion that the Hawaiians should be deprived of the right of trial by jury, in addition to the deprivation of all political rights in their own country, is one that disgraces any white man who acknowledges its authorship.

COURT CHRONICLE.

Several Defendants Released—Tardy Lawyers Cost the Country a Snug Sum.

The Government entered nolle prosequis in the following three cases this morning before Judge Whiting in the Circuit Court: Mrs. Susie Nelson, importing opium; appeal from District Court of Honolulu. C. W. Ashford for defendant.

A. Johnson, assault and battery; appeal from District Court of Honolulu. Neumann for defendant.

J. W. Dill, importing opium; appeal from District Court of Honolulu. Kaulouku for defendant.

In the case of Samuel Norris vs. Emily de Herblay, defendant's motion to dissolve the injunction was argued and decision reserved. Hartwell and Hatch for plaintiff; Neumann and Carter for defendant.

The foreign jury appeared in answer to notification this afternoon, but there being no cases ready for trial they were dismissed for the day. This useless assembling of the jurors cost the public treasury the snug sum of $72 in hard coin. The prosecution was ready in six cases, in one of which was counsel for the defense ready.

Judge Whiting overruled the motion to quash the indictment against G. C. Keayon for libel. C. Creighton for defendant noted exceptions. The defendant was then arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

George Ryan, charged with robbery of crown jewels, will be brought into court to-morrow morning, but will probably not be the first prisoner tried.

Afong, for larceny in the fourth degree, was discharged on a nolle prosequi this afternoon. The Court adjourned at 2:53 till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

A Failing Cause.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—As usual the Advertiser takes a column and a half of editorial bosh in its issue of August 12, in abusing its betters, and in trying to bolster up the "good government" of Stevens. There is not a man that walks the streets of Honolulu with the intelligence of a donkey, but is well convinced that the game of the annexation hoodlers is drawing to a close. The whole plan of the Advertiser and Star, in constantly filing their editorial columns with lying and sensational articles, is to blind and keep together their deluded followers, until the crash comes from Washington, that will send them headlong into oblivion. Misery likes company and is often not very choicely in its selection, as will be seen by the queer lot now remaining in the annexation camp. Where are all those American flags that were flying so gaily around Honolulu, and also where are all those annexation badges seen so often a couple of months ago? Are the boys ashamed to wear them? The fact is, people soon get tired of a one-horse circus, especially when they have such a low standard of clown s, as daily perform in the Advertiser-Star corporation circus.

OCHMUTZEE.

Stevens Did It.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—The Advertiser in its lame criticism of Mr. Thos. H. Davies, says: "Mr. Davies, like all other royalists in Hawaii, refuses to discuss the acts of the ex-Queen, which precipitated the fall of the monarchy." Mr. Davies, not being in Honolulu at the time that Mr. Stevens with the Boston troops overthrew the monarchy, could only say what he had heard about the matter. The Advertiser man, like all others who were here at the time the Queen was dethroned, knows perfectly well that Stevens was the father of the whole business. If there had been no men landed from the Boston on the 16th and 17th of January last, the Queen would have been on the throne today, and the country would have been at peace. Every male member of Central Union Church knows the above to be gospel truth, and I dare any of them to go before any court of justice in the land, and take oath to the contrary.

HAWAII FOREVER.

Ramos is Amused.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Mr. Vivas' version of that now celebrated "scrapping match" amuses me! It matters little who came out on top and I can only say that I am willing to give him another show at any time when there are fewer bystanders to pull me off him. What I wish to correct is the impression given you that I had wantonly insulted his mother in the columns of the "Union." There is no truth in this statement; and should he so desire it, I will furnish you with a translation of the article in question, together with the paragraph in Mr. Vivas' paper which elicited it.

J. S. RAMOS.

Trusts and Combinations

Are unpopular. But there is one form of trust against which no one has anything to say. That is the trust which the public reposes in Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the best of it is the trust is fully justified by the merit of the medicine. For, remember, Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. Sold by all druggists.

AN OCEAN RACE.

Two Ocean Liners Leave for the Coast Within an Hour of Each Other.

The departure of the S. S. Australia to-day was not as lively as previous departures. The P. G. band was on the wharf and played up to the time the steamer swung off. A departing member of the P. G. band amused the people on shore with his antics. He held a flask of whisky in his right hand and drank the health of the Hawaiian flag. Finally taking out the cork from the bottle he swung the bottle in the air and spilled some of the liquid on the shirt front of Mr. W. C. Wilder, vice-president of the Executive and Advisory Councils. All eyes on the wharf were centered on the musician.

Captain Houdlette was jokingly asked whether he was going to make the trip in eight days when he replied, "Not much; 5 1/2 days!" The Australia passed the lighthouse at 12:25.

The P. G. band also played the S. S. City of Peking off. There was the usual crowd of inquisitive people roaming over the ocean liner. There was a variety of birds and Japanese canines forward, but few met ready sale. The canaries were in their "moping" season, and none were singing. The Peking passed the lighthouse exactly at 1:30 o'clock. The Australia was by that time out of sight. It is understood the liners will have an ocean race.

TRYING TO WIGGLE IN.

Chinese Immigrants Whose Papers Don't Pass Muster.

There were thirty-seven Chinese steamer passengers by the S. S. City of Peking for this port. Out of this number thirty-five showed proper return permits and were allowed to land. One Chinaman showed a defective permit and another giving the name of Chun Kan showed Hawaiian naturalization papers. He was questioned by Collector of Customs James B. Castle, and gave the following reply: "Worked for Yun Chau Chun, who owned a provision store on Nuuanu street, but no other place. Been absent from Honolulu less than a year, but have forgotten all the names of the different streets."

From this very vague description the Collector of Customs decided to refuse him landing. He was charged with holding the papers fraudulently. Shortly after the Peking left the wharf some of Chun Kan's Honolulu friends swore out a writ of habeas corpus, and going out in a boat served it, and Chun Kan was brought ashore.

"August Flower"

Perhaps you do not believe these statements concerning Green's August Flower. Well, we can't make you. We can't force conviction into your head or medicine into your throat. We don't want to. The money is yours, and the misery is yours; and until you are willing to believe, and spend the one for the relief of the other, they will stay so. John H. Foster, 1122 Brown Street, Philadelphia, says: "My wife is a little Scotch woman, thirty years of age and of a naturally delicate disposition. For five or six years past she has been suffering from Dyspepsia. She became so bad at last that she could not sit down to a meal but she had to vomit it as soon as she had eaten it. Two bottles of your August Flower have cured her, after many doctors failed. She can now eat anything, and enjoy it; and as for Dyspepsia, she does not know that she ever had it."

Hawaiian Hardware Co., L'd

Saturday, Aug. 12, 1893.

When the grandfathers and grandmothers of to-day were boys and girls their chief delight on baking days was to sit around and watch their mothers beating eggs for the cookies and watching an opportunity to get a finger in the custard. An ordinary fork was good enough in those days for use as an egg beater, time was not so valuable nor were cooks so expensive; patent egg beaters were not so common as they are to-day nor were the people of forty or fifty years ago so apt in grasping labor saving ideas. But time brings many changes even to egg beaters and one of the best is the "Keystone." Simply break the eggs in the glass container, put the lid on and turn the crank for a minute or two and you have a mass of eggs beaten lighter than air. A child can do it as well as a grown person. Lime and Lemon Squeezers are used every day and it's a pretty good scheme to get a good one so as to catch all the juice. There are wooden ones, solid metal ones and combination metal and porcelain. For every day family use the latter is decidedly the most economical because you get the juice without having the bother of picking out the seed. They're a little more expensive than the ordinary sort but they are much better. In a fruit country like Hawaii an article much called for is a Glass Jelly Jar. We've sold hundreds of dozens during the present season, sold all we had in fact and had to dis-appoint many of our customers who wanted to put up a little more fruit. We have enough in stock now to carry us over until the next regular season. If you want a dozen or ten dozen telephone and we will be pleased to send them to your house. In renewing our stock of Silver Plated Ware we selected some handsome Tilting Ice Pitchers suitable for wedding gifts. The designs are new—no two alike—and decidedly the handsomest we have had the pleasure of offering you. Silver Match Boxes are another inexpensive article for a gift to a gentleman and we think we have some very pretty ones. And for the accommodation of ladies who do not care to buy a full silver tea service we have imported a few Single Tea Pots to sell separately. We mentioned a few weeks ago the expected arrival of some "Mulum in Parvo" Charcoal Irons. They arrived by the "Australia" and ladies who wish to have their pillow shams or skirts fluted can do it at home with one of these irons. They are an admirable and simple combination of iron and fluter combined and sell at a very reasonable figure. We had a few of them some months ago and the people who bought them have expressed themselves as being well pleased. If any of the readers of this column happen to be ill enough to require champagne as a medicine it is cheaper for them to use a Syphon and take their doses moderately. We have the Syphon. Three thousand feet of Rubber Garden Hose came to us on the "Australia."

When the grandfathers and grandmothers of to-day were boys and girls their chief delight on baking days was to sit around and watch their mothers beating eggs for the cookies and watching an opportunity to get a finger in the custard.

An ordinary fork was good enough in those days for use as an egg beater, time was not so valuable nor were cooks so expensive; patent egg beaters were not so common as they are to-day nor were the people of forty or fifty years ago so apt in grasping labor saving ideas.

But time brings many changes even to egg beaters and one of the best is the "Keystone."

Simply break the eggs in the glass container, put the lid on and turn the crank for a minute or two and you have a mass of eggs beaten lighter than air.

A child can do it as well as a grown person. Lime and Lemon Squeezers are used every day and it's a pretty good scheme to get a good one so as to catch all the juice.

There are wooden ones, solid metal ones and combination metal and porcelain. For every day family use the latter is decidedly the most economical because you get the juice without having the bother of picking out the seed.

They're a little more expensive than the ordinary sort but they are much better. In a fruit country like Hawaii an article much called for is a Glass Jelly Jar.

We've sold hundreds of dozens during the present season, sold all we had in fact and had to dis-appoint many of our customers who wanted to put up a little more fruit.

We have enough in stock now to carry us over until the next regular season. If you want a dozen or ten dozen telephone and we will be pleased to send them to your house.

In renewing our stock of Silver Plated Ware we selected some handsome Tilting Ice Pitchers suitable for wedding gifts.

The designs are new—no two alike—and decidedly the handsomest we have had the pleasure of offering you.

Silver Match Boxes are another inexpensive article for a gift to a gentleman and we think we have some very pretty ones.

And for the accommodation of ladies who do not care to buy a full silver tea service we have imported a few Single Tea Pots to sell separately.

We mentioned a few weeks ago the expected arrival of some "Mulum in Parvo" Charcoal Irons.

They arrived by the "Australia" and ladies who wish to have their pillow shams or skirts fluted can do it at home with one of these irons.

They are an admirable and simple combination of iron and fluter combined and sell at a very reasonable figure.

We had a few of them some months ago and the people who bought them have expressed themselves as being well pleased.

If any of the readers of this column happen to be ill enough to require champagne as a medicine it is cheaper for them to use a Syphon and take their doses moderately.

Hood's Cures

Saved My Wife's Life

Weakness, Nervousness, Salt Rheum.

John W. Jones, Kalamu, Wash.

"Of my own free will and accord, unblasted by anyone, and wishing only to do good to the afflicted, I wish to tell of the good qualities of Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills. I think there are no medicines equal to them, and have proved their merit by experience to my own family. My wife, Rachel, has been afflicted with weakness, nervousness, and salt rheum. I spent nearly all that I had of this world's goods for doctor's bills and medicine until we decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It undoubtedly saved my wife from the grave. The salt rheum has entirely healed and she is restored to good health. I have many friends and relatives in the east who will be glad to know that."

LUCOL!

WHAT IS IT?

LUCOL!

IS A PAINT OIL

make from an artificially produced GUM almost as elastic as INDIA RUBBER, which, when reduced by certain volatile solvents to the consistency of an oil, can be mixed with all pigments, and used in the same manner as linseed oil.

It resists water, acids, alkalis, heat and cold and atmospheric influences. It lasts longer, gives a richer gloss, covers better and makes pigments more brilliant than the purest and best linseed oil.

It possesses the remarkable property of "covering" with much less pigment than any other oil. It also mixes in larger proportions with varnishes and improves their working, lasting and wearing properties.

From the Manager of Paunah Plantation Co., Hamakua, Hawaii.

Wm. LEIS OLIVER, Esq., Manager American Lucol Co., San Francisco.

Dear Sir:—A year ago I used some of the oil manufactured by your Company to paint one of our Plantation buildings, at the same time painting adjoining buildings with paints mixed with American and English linseed oils. The paint was mixed and applied by a competent workman.

The building painted with Lucol Oil retains its original appearance, while those on which linseed Oil was used faded some time ago, the paint becoming chalky. As this Plantation is on the weather side of the island, and the climate exceptionally trying on paint, I consider the above to be as thorough a test as any to which your Oil can be subjected, its superiority being so apparent. I take pleasure in recommending the Lucol Oil to all users of Paints.

Yours very Respectfully, A. MOORE, Manager.

PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT

A Native Crushed Under a Heavily Loaded Cart.

On Monday afternoon a native met with a very serious accident at Lelele, near Mr. Walter Hill's residence. He was standing up driving one of Ala-pai's dump carts full of stones, when the cart jolted and threw the driver between the mule and cart. The heavy vehicle passed clean over him. The man was picked up insensible with blood flowing from a number of wounds, and carried into a house, where by means of the lomilomi process he was restored to consciousness. A doctor was summoned. To-day the injured man was lying in a critical state. It is not believed that he will recover, as several bones are broken.

Owing to the press of business and the amount of stock to be kept on hand, Mr. Chas. Girler has removed his place of business to the office lately occupied by Mr. A. Jaeger. This is another of the many evidences resulting from advertising in a popular paper, viz., the BULLETIN.

Land Grabbing As An Issue.

Ex-Consul General Sewall, at the Samoan Islands, recently reminded J. H. Manley, of Maine, of the eminent services to civilization rendered by ex-Minister Stevens at the Hawaiian Islands, and suggested a public reception to the latter on his arrival home.

Thus one Republican encourages another in the assumption that the conduct of Stevens in Honolulu is indorsed by the American people, and that in deliberately violating the Constitution of the United States, which says that treaties with other nations "shall be the supreme law of the land," and in seizing a country with which we were at peace and revolutionizing its Government, he was rendering "eminent services to civilization."

This was exactly what Maximilian undertook to do in Mexico, and he, poor devil, was shot dead for it. The trickster, Napoleon III., who put him up to it, would have been similarly treated if Mexico could have laid hands on him. Everybody was sorry for Maximilian, though chiefly on account of his loving wife Carlotta; yet everybody felt that the sentence was a just one and the general verdict was "it served him right."

But Stevens' crime was of the same character as his, though on a smaller scale. The only excuse that can be made for him is that he was acting as the tool of a Republican Administration which had conceived the mistaken notion that the people were, like Alexander, crying for "more worlds to conquer," and that an aggressive policy toward all weaker nations would commend it for re-election as the great advocate and defender of "the rights of American citizens abroad."

With this idea in mind it bullied and threatened to extinguish little Chili, after having persistently provoked it by aiding and abetting the political scoundrel who was trying to steal away what liberty its people possessed. And with this idea in mind it blustered in front of Great Britain for a time just as if it were prepared to go to war over the claim it subsequently abandoned that Behring Sea was mare clausum and not a part of the North Pacific Ocean. It was working in the interest of the sealing monopoly in that case and in the interests of another called the Sugar Trust in the Hawaiian case.

To please monopolies is the chief principle of Republican policy, because the monopolies sustain the party and never grumble when they are "struck" around election times; but Republicans are making another great mistake in supposing that they can fool any large number of American citizens with their peculiar "foreign policy" as evinced in the declarations concerning the robbery of Hawaii. In the first place, the country has nothing to gain by the annexation of the islands, but much to lose; in the second, it has no desire to depart from its peace policy by a forcible seizure of any territory not its own, however desirable it might be.

It was at peace and on terms of amity with Hawaii and its rightful Government, when the usurpation by the Provisional Government took place, and there was not a shadow of an excuse for the seizure by force of arms which was made. If there were any complaint or reason for complaint against the Queen, or that our treaty rights were being violated, they should have been made in the regular way. But a mean and foul advantage was taken of the Queen's weakness to carry out the base scheme of the Sugar Trust, and an attempt was made to justify it by a mock appeal to the "patriotism" of the people. And now we see in the threat of the Provisional Government that if we do not avail ourselves of the wrong it has already done and seize the islands, it will sell out to some other nation, just what the measure of its patriotism is. The Republicans must be sadly in want of an issue, indeed, if they want to make one of the theft of Hawaii.—Brooklyn Citizen.

Leave Them Alone.

Latest information from Honolulu clearly intimates that Minister Blount is doing his duty. Minister Stevens may have obeyed orders, but if he did they were bad ones. And by the mischievous interference which Blount is avoiding Stevens almost accomplished his avowed object of annexation. Hands off should have been the American practice from the first, and it is gratifying to note that it has been adopted at last.

Without the display of American force there would have been no Hawaiian question at all. With the withdrawal of that force, and the unequivocal announcements made by Minister Blount, affairs are so arranged that such question as was raised in Hawaiian affairs by American influence shall be answered by Hawaiians. What government Hawaiian chooses for itself is a matter of supreme indifference to these United States so long as they are not asked to commit the extreme folly of annexation. The question will work out its own solution, and the less "assistance" it receives from without the more satisfactory will the solution be and the sooner arrived at.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Jonstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I know of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it to all my dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands."
