Big Isle Will Send For Revenue's Sake Man To Washington

MAUI WANTS FINANCIAL AID

W. W. Harris, secretary of the special committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Association, appointed to select the Honolulu delegation to Washington to urge Hawaiian legislation, and to communicate with the other islands as to the sending on of delegations, today received the following letters in the Kinau's mail:

Hilo, Hawaii, Dec. 21st, 1905.
W. W. Harris, Esq.
I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 19th inst. and your cable of this date.

A meeting of the executive council of the Board of Trade of Hilo was held this afternoon to consider the subject matter of your letter and cable message, and I was instructed to advise you that arrangements would be made, as early as possible, to send a representative from this island to Washington to assist the passage of the bill introduced in the House of Representatives by Delegate Kalaniana'ole, which bill is for the purpose of having set aside 75 per cent. of Hawaii's Federal revenue for use in the construction of Federal public works and buildings in the Territory.

I expect the selection of this island's delegate will be made on Saturday next, when I will send you a wireless informing you of our decision.

Thanking you for bringing this important matter to our attention,

H. VICARS,
Secretary Board of Trade of Hilo.

Mr. W. W. Harris:—I am in receipt of your favor to the Chamber of Commerce respecting the appointment of a commissioner to proceed to Washington in aid of the bill setting aside 75 per cent. of Hawaiian Federal revenues for use in the Territory. I am instructed to inform you that the Chamber of Commerce will consider this matter at a very early date and will communicate with you immediately on their deciding what shall be done.

Very truly yours,
WM. McKAY,
Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Hilo.
Wireless received giving Oahu delegation.

Mr. W. W. Harris:—I beg to confirm wireless message which was forwarded to you this day, as follows:

"Write all possible information by Claude tonight relative to financial aid delegation to Washington, time consumed there, and general information." This dispatch was framed at a meeting of the committee appointed by the mass meeting of Maui citizens held at Wailuku court house on Thursday evening, Dec. 21st, in accordance with your written suggestion to Mr. D. H. Case, president of the Improvement Association of Wailuku.

It is the desire of the committee to get all information obtainable regarding the time that will be consumed by the delegation, the amount of probable expenses by its members, and the method pursued by your committee towards defraying the said expenses.

The committee would thank you for the fullest information possible on these points, as well as advice of such other action as your committee has taken.

Very respectfully yours,
C. D. LUFKIN,
Secretary.

MAINLAND PEOPLE AFTER HOMESTEADS

Land Commissioner Pratt by yesterday's mail received a letter from a man in Salt Lake City asking for information relating to conditions for securing public lands here.

Pratt received a letter from a party in Chevalier, Washington, asking which island had been set aside for homesteaders, and demanding that literature relating to local lands, products, markets, industries, customs of the people, etc., be sent him.

HANDLES LARGEST VOLUME OF MAIL

Postoffice Clerks Have Busy Week With Christmas

TONS OF PRESENTS PASS
HANDS OF POSTAL MEN

MANCHURIA AND SONOMA BRING 522 BAGS IN ADDITION TO THE
SHIPMENTS FROM ORIENT AND ISLANDS.

The past five days have been the busiest ever experienced in the Honolulu postoffice. More mail was received yesterday than any day previous in the history of the postal service here. Five hundred and twenty-two bags of mail, 88 of which were registered, arrived yesterday on the two steamships Manchuria and Sonoma, from the mainland, in addition to the island matter. The steamer Claudine, for Maui ports and Hilo, took out 127 pouches and the steamer Ke Au Hou, for Kauai, departed last evening with 32 sacks more, mostly Christmas mail.

The force at the postoffice worked until after 10 o'clock last night before the task of distributing the letters from the States had been accomplished. Registered mail was also gotten ready to be delivered to the receivers today. So large in volume was the consequent yesterday that it will probably take the clerk until tomorrow possibly longer until all the packages for Christmas and the newspapers have been placed in their respective boxes.

The force worked as hard today as they did yesterday. Early this morning the Kinau brought a large shipment of mail from Hilo and way ports, much of which is for the people of Honolulu. On top of the mass of valuable matter already on hand this island mail was taken in and part of the force started on its distribution. Many packages also came in on the Clyde from the Orient Thursday, bringing Christmas presents to Honoluluans. Much of this matter has to pass through the custom house and an official has been working at the postoffice this week.

By the departure of Louis Kenake, the former assistant postmaster, for the Coast Tuesday, the office has been short a man. Mr. Kenake had been in the office for years and was a valuable assistant.

But in spite of the crowded condition of the building owing to the Christmas rush, Postmaster Pratt commends his men for their services in so promptly handling the largest amount of local and island mail in the department that has ever arrived within so short a time.

When the Christmas letters, packages, registered and unregistered, papers, etc., are all distributed, delivered into the hands of the inhabitants, every clerk, carrier and person in the department from Postmaster Pratt down to the office boy will give one big sigh of relief and settle down for a happy Christmas with the best wishes of the community for their excellent services.

TONIGHT THE WHOLE TOWN TURNS OUT

Stores Will Be Rushed
For Christmas By Thousands

SPECIAL MUSIC IN ALL
CITY CHURCHES TOMORROW

THREE DAYS' FESTIVAL IN STORE,
CHURCH AND HOME—CROWDS
WILL BE ENTERTAINED.

There are practically three days of Christmas this year—today, Sunday and Monday. Today is the day of busy and happy preparation, going the round of the handsomely stocked stores, laying in provisions, killing the well-fed turkey, decking the Christmas trees and filling the kiddies' stockings. Tomorrow, Sunday, since all the churches have arranged most beautiful programs of praise and jubilation, will be the devotional day of the great festival and Monday, Christmas Day itself, follows with all that is due to the occasion in the way of celebration.

Today the city is thronged with shoppers. All the stores have called in extra help to tend the counters. Express companies are working specially chartered wagons to accommodate the big business that is being carried on.

Tonight will come the greatest rush of all. The streets after darkness falls will be alive with thousands making their last purchases, and since today, Saturday, is payday with so many, there are lots who have left all their shopping until this evening. It is safe to say that midnight will be close at hand before the town begins to think of slumber.

The Rapid Transit cars are running one hour later than usual tonight. In the Catholic Cathedral, St. Andrew's (Episcopal) Cathedral, Central Union Church, the First Methodist Church, the Christian Church, St. Clement's, St. Augustine's, Kawaiahao, in short, in all the places of worship, tomorrow will prove a day of a great musical feast. Special programs have been arranged, as appears in the usual church notices in this issue.

Monday is a holiday, of course, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon there is to be a great football game between the Mailes and the Punahou at the baseball park, where the Hawaiian band will play during the sport.

This afternoon and evening there will be entertainment at the play at the Orpheum theater and again, on Christmas day, Monday, there is to be a matinee.

RELATIVES CLAIM WILL WAS FORGED

OVER $2000 ESTATE
INVOLVED IN MATTER

WOMAN'S WILL LEFT ESTATE TO LOVERS AND RELATIVES
CLAIM THEY FORGED IT.

An interesting will contest matter was heard before Judge Robinson this morning, the genuineness of the will of a Hawaiian woman, Ana Paia, being in dispute. The estate involved consisted of real property on Molokai, valued at $150, and an interest in the estate of Konaolu Brenig, deceased, valued at $2,000.

It seems that shortly after Ana Paia died two men who had been living with her as her paramours, presented themselves before Cecil Brown and wanted to collect the property of the estate. Brown said he would not pay them unless they could show that they were named as legatees by a will. Shortly afterwards Brown received by mail a will naming the two as legatees whereupon he paid them the money.

In the meantime the neglected husband of the deceased and others of her kin, who were not named in this will, claimed that it was a forgery, having been manufactured after Ana Paia's decease by her two lovers.

W. C. Achi represented these relatives in an attempt to prevent the probating of the will, while Cecil Brown represented the two other gentlemen.

The most interesting phase of the case was the calling of handwriting experts to pass judgment on the signatures of the deceased, as it appeared on the will, and as they appeared on other documents known to have been signed by her. As is generally the case with experts, they disagreed most beautifully.

Charles Weatherwax, an employee of J. J. Williams, the photographer, testified with regard to a photograph taken of the signatures.

Auditor Fisher was called as a handwriting expert, but modestly disclaimed the honor thrust upon him, stating frankly that in his opinion any man who qualified as such was a fraud. He was, however, asked to testify.

Comparing the signatures on the will and the others, he stated that they were very different, but owing to the fact that one was supposed to be written by the deceased, he was unable to say.

Uncle Sam To Build When Railroad Is Complete Big Leilehua Camp

With the completion of the Wailua extension of the railroad on this island, Uncle Sam will at once establish on his big military reservation at Leilehua, on the magnificent plateau on the near slopes of the Waianae mountain range, a large camp for the acclimatization of his soldiers destined to no duty in the Philippines and elsewhere in the Far East.

A high military authority recently in these islands for the purpose of thoroughly informing himself in regard to conditions here, with this camp in view, stated, before his departure from the city, that the United States Government would establish the camp as soon as the railroad was complete.

During the time that certain military authorities spent in Hawaii, looking around for fortification sites and studying camps and other military matters, much was said as to the possibility of the establishment of an acclimatization camp, but nothing of a definite nature was given out.

It is now stated on the best authority that the War Department is but waiting for the completion of the Wailua railroad before starting work on the big camp.

The Oahu Railway & Land Company will run a branch line to the camp site and transport all necessary building material to the place under special contract with the Government.

The War Department is anxious to see this matter realized as soon as possible as an acclimatization camp here, where the climate is ideal for the purpose, is considered most necessary.

The military authority urging the immediate necessity of this camp also stated that large guns would be placed in elevated positions back of the camp so as to command the sea, and practically the greater portion of the leeward side of the island. Some of these guns will throw a projectile fifteen miles. He considers the Leilehua reservation an ideal spot for a camp of the nature contemplated and declares that there is not a finer drill ground in the world. He assured local men of prominence that the camp would not certainly be established as soon as the line was ready for transporting material. Within a few months then, a military town will spring up in beautiful Leilehua.

Hawaii's delegation to Washington, endorsed by the commercial bodies yesterday, consisting of W. O. Smith, G. W. Smith, M. P. Robinson, E. A. McInerney and J. R. Galt, have not yet gathered together to talk over the details of their trip to the national capital next month, but expect to meet and settle everything as soon as the Christmas jollification is over.

The selection of a secretary and press representative has not been seriously considered, but the following are under consideration: C. R. Buckland, George F. Henshall, E. M. Boyd, A. P. Taylor, Walter G. Smith and J. Walter Jones.

Upon the arrival of the U. S. cruiser Chicago from Hilo, W. W. Harris, representing the directors of the Merchants' Association, will call on Admiral Goodrich to invite him to a banquet to be given in his honor some time next week by the directors. Governor Carter, together with several other celebrities, will be asked to grace the festive board.

The Chicago's band plays at the Hawaiian hotel between 7 and 9 o'clock this evening.

J. F. Brown and wife arrived this morning on the Likelike.

SATURDAY, DEC. 23, 1905.
A merry Christmas sentiment—that the volcano fired up for the Admiral though Honolulu didn't.

A Merry, Merry Christmas to Bulletin readers and all others. The Bulletin will enjoy one. Have lots of them with us.

The price of sugar does not respond to an appropriate figure for the season. It is nevertheless a long way from poverty row.

Should anyone put the question and the response be, "The Smiths have it,"
the business delegation would involuntarily make its obsequies.

It is necessary to work for many of the good things of life, including revenue appropriations from Congress. But they are worth it.

The Honolulu man who can't be happy during this season must be one of the chronic kickers, who feels comfortable only when able to make others
unhappy.

Russia is already enjoying a scourge of revolutionary plague. It would hardly be possible for any other to kill
off the populace more effectively,
though it might operate with a little steadier speed.

THE UPLIFT OF CHRISTMAS

The lesson of giving is taught in the East Side kindergartens of New York City to impress the children with the true spirit of Christmas. In many instances, it is in this beautiful way
hundreds of thousands of the poor children get their first knowledge of Christmas. Thus is the deeper meaning of good-will implanted in the lives of future men and women of our country, and the blessing of the Chris-mas season spread among future generations.

To these children the Christmas lessons open up a new world as wonderful and as foreign to their former surroundings as the teachings of Christ were revolutionary in their day. Perhaps nowhere is the message of this anniversary better exemplified.

Children in the crowded and poverty-stricken cities are born to a life
harsh, low, depressing, lacking human kindness. Christianity alone can bring light and happiness into such conditions, and the customs of Christmas embody the best, if not all, there is in that Power which for nearly two thousand years went to make the world
happier and better.

Christmas is always old and forever
new. Though one doubt the divinity of Christ, he cannot fail to feel, when he will admit it or not, that the Author of principles that have operated for centuries to uplift mankind, establish the individuality of manhood and womanhood, break down slavery, and immortalize the kindly of heart—the author of such influences as have lifted mankind to a higher sphere in this life, whatever the next may be, is more than human.

No greater equalizer exists than the teachings of Christ, which we today celebrate by the exchange of tokens of regard primarily expressing thoughtfulness for others. True, this sentiment in the ordinary walks of life is honored as much in the breach as the observance. It is nevertheless the guiding light of successful manhood and womanhood. The selfish, the deceitful, the cowardly and the corrupt
may have their temporary successes,
but as certain as the coming of the day
the kind-hearted, the thoughtful, the honest and the brave will command
not only recognition but reward.

Every Christmas that is celebrated marks the passing of powers that pray, for the atmosphere of the season is such that it gives new inspiration to those whose ideals are good-will toward their fellow-man.

LEPERS TO HAVE GOOD CHRISTMAS

Jack McVeigh arrived from the Settlement on board the Likilike this morning. He is enthusiastic at the prospects which his charges have for a good Christmas celebration. During no year, he states, have donations for the lepers' Christmas been so liberal as the present. There will even be some money left over, which can be applied on feast days during the coming year.

The inmates will hold their celebration next Saturday in a big hall, which will last through the entire day. In the evening a musical entertainment will be given at Bereania hall. On the following day, Sunday, the Congregational church will give a luncheon for its members.

HILO LADY CAUGHT

High Sheriff Henry yesterday had arrested a Japanese woman, named Hiroshi, on a charge of gross cheat. The warrant for her arrest was sent the High Sheriff from Hilo and was served
after having been endorsed by District Magistrate Whitney. Hiroshi is alleged to have borrowed a watch in Hilo, and to have pawned it for $50. She was sent back to Hilo on the steamer
Claudine yesterday.

TONIGHT THE WHOLE TOWN
TURNS OUT.

Inee, as well as the usual evening performance at this popular play-house.

The restaurants have prepared special bills of fare for Christmas eating and those who dine out will find all the usual holiday trimmings at the public dining rooms.

There may sometimes be talk of hard times in old Honolulu, but the days
around Christmas always give the lie
to any such statement, for nothing could look more prosperous than the jolly crowds of men, women and children thronging the streets, gathering
gifts for token of remembrance.

Be out tonight, for it is the liveliest night of the year, and if you haven't much to spend, you will at least get a big lot of free entertainment, for there will be instrumental music and Santa Claus and joy and noise and all kinds of doings everywhere in the stores and on the streets.

Several paroles and pardons have

be given to prisoners in the Oahu pris-

action will probably be taken before Christmas on the applications for par-

submitted during the last few days.

These will be acted on after the holidays and will probably be given out on New Year's day.

PIONEER MILL CO.
DROPS ITS CASE

Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper, attorneys for the Pioneer Mill Co., in the last mail from the Coast received word from Attorney D. E. Fox of Washington, representing the firm's interests
before the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Mehaula vs. Pioneer Mill Co., the ejectment case that has occupied so much attention of late,
showing what has been done in reference to the petition of the Pioneer people for writ of error.

According to this communication the papers in the writ of error petition were received at Washington on the second of December.

Attorney Fox at once took the matter to Mr. Justice McKenna of the U. S. Supreme Court.

Justice McKenna held that it would be establishing a bad precedent to allow a writ of error without having a certified copy of the record before him.
He suggested, however, that the papers
could easily be sent on and that with the court below, counsel, while the petition was pending in Washington,
could undoubtedly get a stay of execution until the writ could be perfected.

All through, Justice McKenna tried to help the appellant as much as he could. He did not deny the petition as he might have done, but merely refused to act in the matter until he had the record before him.

The Pioneer Mill people are not quite prepared to decide what to do in the matter but they will probably drop the matter since Mehaula has secured possession of the land and has received $500 damages. This had to be paid to prevent his levying execution on other properties of the Pioneer Mill Co.

The Pioneer's Washington attorney will take no further action until he

RELATIVES CLAIM

ten by a very sick person and the others by a person in good health, they looked as if they might all have been written by the deceased.

Charles Hueston, the assistant cas-hler of the Bank of Hawaii, showed that he had given expert testimony in several big forgery cases in the past.
After examining the three signatures shown him, he concluded that all were written by different persons.

E. I. Spaulding, the cashier of Spreckels & Co., found that the signature on two of the documents were written by the same person and the third by another.

Brown submitted his case and argument began, when Achi asked permission to file a brief, which was granted.

ORPHEUM THEATER
RECEIVES FROM EAST THE
VERY LATEST PLAYS

J. C. Cohen and Richard Buhler did considerable hanging around at Wells,
Fargo & Co.'s express office yesterday.
The reason was apparent when several large bundles of pictorial show paper
and packages of play manuscripts were unloaded.

The stuff was cabled for and came
all the way from New York by express C. O. D. When Joe saw the size of the bill and express charges, heads of per-piration stood gathered on the top of his bald head. It was a staggerer, for the invoice called for $50 each performance royalty and 7c for each sheet of paper. After scratching his head
where the hair ought to be for a minute
he said: "They come high, but we have got to have them" and reached for his check book.

The list of plays received contain
the latest and best melodramas now before the American public, being
"For Her Children's Sake," "Queen of the White Slaves," "Why Women Sin,"
"White Tigress of Japan," "King of Detectives," "Tracked Around the World," "The Black Hand."

The litho-paper for these productions
which are now being put on the bill boards works of art and bound to attract attention.

The first to be produced at the Orpheum is "For Her Children's Sake," a happy selection as it is a Christmas story with two children in the cast and a Christmas tree in one of the scenes.
It will be given at the matinee Monday and should delight the little children as it is full of good comedy.

Between the play and the presents
the little tots have a rare treat in store
and the sight of so many little ones
together should be a picture which of itself should draw many older heads.

"For Her Children's Sake" will also be the bill for Christmas night as well as Tuesday and Wednesday.

It will be followed by Queen of the White Slaves.

Tonight "The Banker's Daughter"
has its last inning.

pleted arrangements for a big Christmas dinner to be served Monday even-

toes and green peas; dessert, English plum pudding with hard sauce, pineapple sherbet, mince, apple and peach
pie; drinks, coffee, tea and iced tea.

nion at 7 a. m.; choral service and Holy day evening, Christmas eve.

"My Life Hung by a Mere Thread, Pe-ru-na Cured Me."

Mrs. Sarah Smart, 276 Hayward St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:
"I can't tell in words how low I was.
My life hung by a mere thread. I was waiting for months to die.

"My trouble was consumption or bronchitis. I suffered no pain when I was low, but coughing and breathing
kept sapping what little strength I had.
I could not eat, sleep or even lean back on a chair. I was a mere skeleton. I said to my husband, 'I can't last much longer.' My neighbors say they do not know how I ever recovered. It was almost a miracle.

"I took your medicine but three months, when I could do my housework
and washing, and have been doing it ever since. Now I am able to do anything. You would never think I had been troubled with such a serious illness. I shall always keep your medicine in my house."—Mrs. Sarah Smart.

Despaired of Recovery.

Mrs. R. L. Aulich, Vice President
American Genealogical Association, 604
H street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I know whereof I speak when I say that Pe-ru-na is a wonderful remedy for colds and catarrhal trouble. Last fall I was very much debilitated from the effect of a cold contracted early in the summer and which I neglected. I knew that my system was in need of medicine and rest, but to find the right thing was the problem. Happily I gave Pe-ru-na a trial first and have no reason to complain of the results. Within a month I had entirely recovered my strength and good health and really felt better and stronger than before."—Mrs. R. L.
Aulich.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

are marvels of beauty and durability. They stand 5 feet 8 inches, the four sides are fitted with removable tablets with raised letters. Endorsed by "The Scientific American" as most-proof and strictly everlasting.

FRED. HARRISON,
Sole Agent for Islands. Box 104.
The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the merits of the day.

A dinner party to a number of officers of the cable ship Restorer with novel decorations and placards was given at the Hawaiian Hotel Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Buhler and Miss Lillian Heywood, of the National Stock Co., now playing at the Orpheum. The guests were Charles Rowell, chief engineer of the Restorer, Dr. Sheldon, the ship surgeon, and Purser Wright and Thomas Lowell of the National Stock Co.

The table was beautifully decorated with flowers and flags of the different nations connected by the Commercial Pacific Cable Co. As a background for the diners on the Waikiki side of the dining hall hung the large house flag of the cable company. In the center of the table stood a piece of cable acting as a holder for the flags—the American, Hawaiian, Chinese, Japanese and the red ensign flag.

At the place of each member of the party was a sealed message on cablegram paper and sealed in a cablegram envelope. Each message to the different persons was relative to his past or his future in some way or another and created much enjoyment during the evening. After the dinner the cable ship officers were entertained by Miss Heywood with a box party at the Orpheum. "David Garrick" was the play and Miss Hayward did not take part. Afterward a "dutch lunch" was served in the Buhler cottage at the Hawaiian hotel.

This week has been devoted to shopping and directing those last little parcels which are generally forgotten. The streets, both afternoons and evenings, have been crowded with gay humanity intent on Christmas shopping. There have been a number of little affairs—but family dinners and children's parties were mostly in vogue—Christmas is entertaining for the children and their happy faces repay one for time and trouble spent in their service. Tonight, Mrs. F. M. Swaney is having a party of eighty, including relatives and friends. There is to be a beautiful Christmas tree and everything children can desire will be hung from its numerous branches. Preceding the Christmas party the Swaneys will give a dinner for a few friends. There are many others who are entertaining this evening—and, in fact, throughout the week holiday dinners have been all the rage. It is considered quite the correct thing, so I am told, to invite your friends and relatives for Christmas dinner any time during the holidays and not strictly on Christmas evening. This would seem to me a good bid for indigestion in the worst form—for one Christmas dinner if conscientiously taken is about all one poor mortal can get safely through.

A wedding of intense interest to Honolulu is the one described below, from the San Francisco Chronicle:

Miss Georgie Lacy and James McKee Spaulding were married last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. B. Gunn, and no similar event of the winter has been more interesting. The ceremony, which took place at 8:30 o'clock, and which was performed by Rev. Clifford Mason, rector of Trinity Church, Oakland, was celebrated in the bay window of the drawing-room of the Gunn home. Quantities of poinsettias from the home of the bride in Santa Barbara were used against a background of tall boughs of date palms. Baskets of Woodwardia ferns were suspended from the ceiling and wreaths of the brilliantly colored blackberry vines gave an added touch of color to the bower. Ferns and the autumn-tinted vines were used in the hall and the dining-room and in the library, where the bride's table was placed were pink roses, ferns and autumn foliage.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of rich pink lace over white chiffon and silk. She wore a long tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white cyclamen. The matron of honor, Mrs. Charles Morrison Woods, was dressed in a rucheless point lace robe over white silk, and she carried a bouquet of the pale pink enchantress carnations. The bride's sisters, Miss Madeleine and Miss Mildred Lacy, who were the two bridesmaids coming directly after the ushers, were gowned alike in white net over white silk. The other bridesmaids, Miss Amy Groomer of Santa Barbara and Miss Jessie Palmer of Oakland, were in pale green chiffon over green silk, and they all carried bouquets of pink bridesmaid's roses. Rufus Spaulding, the groom's brother, was the best man and the ushers were Edward and George Gunn, Philip Paschel and Charles Hutchinson. The bride entered with J. O. B. Gunn, but was met as she entered the drawing-room by her mother, Mrs. Lacy, and Mrs. Gunn and the former gave her daughter away.

Mrs. Lacy wore a gown of black lace over black silk and her ornaments were pearls.

Countess Senni of Rome, a sister of the groom, who has been spending some time in Southern California, and came north for the occasion, wore a black lace gown spangled in jet.

The bride's table was decorated in pink, a large horn of plenty of pink roses being in the center of the table resting on pink tulle. The name cards were pink hearts decorated with sprays of orange blossoms, also from the Lacy home in the South. There were seated the bride and groom, the bridesmaids, the matron of honor and the best man, and the bride's and groom's parents. About 150 guests were present, among them Captain Alessandro Bodrero, a brother-in-law of the groom, who came here from Italy especially for this event.

Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding have gone south for a very brief stay and will then return here for a few days before sailing on December 14th for Honolulu. Their home will be at Keala, Island of Kauai, Hawaii, where Mr. Spaulding's father has a large plantation.

A charming little dinner was given at the Moana hotel on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case Deering, in honor of Captain Badger of the Chicago.

Mrs. C. Hedemann is slowly recovering from her painful accident. Her arm is still in a sling and she is confined to the house.

Miss Marcella Warren entertained very delightfully yesterday afternoon at bridge, after which a number of other friends came in to tea. The affair was in honor of Miss Mary Mariner, the attractive fiancée of Ensign Wallace Berthoff, United States Navy, and the guests of honor received with the hostess, as did also Miss Emily Marvin, Miss Ruth Casey, Miss Rachel Warren and Miss May Moffitt. The drawing-room was prettily decorated in yellow chrysanthemums and greens and the dining room in American beauty roses. There were five tables of bridge, the players being Mrs. Douglas Watson, Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, Mrs. Jules Brett, Mrs. Thomas Benton Darragh, Miss Edna Hannigan, Miss Roberta Deal, Miss Mary Switzer, Miss Edith Treanor, Miss Madeline Black, Miss Edna Middleton, Miss Gertrude Taylor, Miss Ardella Mills, Miss Laura Taylor, Miss George Spieker, Miss Amy Gunn, Miss Dorothy Dunstan, Miss Elsa Draper, Miss Ruth Gedney and Miss Aubrey Lewis.—Chronicle.

Miss Warren visited in Honolulu with her father and mother ten years ago. They occupied the "White" cottage at the Hawaiian Hotel. She became quite a social favorite.

Miss Tracy, who has expounded so successfully dainty lessons in the art of cooking, is living at Mrs. McDonald's, on the Old Waikiki road. Her classes have been largely attended and she is a perfect boon to all housewives—both young and old. So far, only one man has attended, but he has listened so faithfully and well that the art of making any toothsome morsels is now added to his other numerous accomplishments.

An attractive wedding, which took place yesterday afternoon, was that of Miss Beatrice Spivale and Lieutenant Francis Hawley Shoemaker, U. S. R. C. S., which was celebrated at 2 o'clock in the Empire room of the Palace hotel. The room was simply but artistically decorated for the occasion, the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Father Kenna of St. Ignace's church, taking place before a bank of cream-colored chrysanthemums and potter ferns. Over the door leading into the Maple room, where the breakfast was served, were arranged large flags and boughs of graceful greenery. The bride was handsome in a lace robe over white liberty satin and chiffon. She wore a long tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and ferns. Miss Florence Cornell, the maid of honor, was gowned in pink liberty satin, unpleated, both the bodice and the skirt, and trimmed with rose-point lace. She carried an armful of Bermuda lilies. The other attendants, Mrs. Adrian Spivale, a recent bride herself, and Miss Hazel Marston, were gowned alike in pale-pink point d'esprit over white tulle, trimmed with a carnation spray of tiny pink roses. Their bouquets were tiny pink roses. The bridesmaids were of Bridesmaid's roses, and they and the maid of honor both wore pink roses in their hair. The flower girl was little Miss Lella Sweet, a cousin of the bride. She wore a dainty gown of white mull and Valenciennes lace and carried a basket of Cecil Bruner roses. On her head she wore a wreath of pink roses. Lieutenant Franking Harwood, U. S. R. C. S., was the best man, and the bride's brothers, Adrian Spivale and Raymond Spivale, Lieutenant Munter, U. S. R. C. S., and Chief Engineer McGowan were ribbon bearers. Seated at the bride's table, which was decorated in pink and white roses, were, besides the bride party, Miss Lavina Hoffacker and Miss Jewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker have gone south on their wedding journey and on their return will make their home out of town for a time.—Chronicle.

One of the pleasantest occasions of the week was a bridge party on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Rice, of Kauai, given by Mrs. Helen Noonan at the Tenney mansion. The first prize, a large calabash, was won by Miss Helen Kimball, and the second prize, a corsage of violets, was secured by Mrs. J. S. Walker. Delicious refreshments were served and among those present were Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Mrs. J. S. Walker, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. Charles Cooper, Mrs. Percy Benson, Mrs. Alice Hastings, Mrs. George Herbert, Mrs. H. Murray, Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mrs. James Castle, Misses Helen Kimball, Jennie Giffard, Marion Scott.

Prince and Princess Kawanakoa are stopping for a month with the Parkers on Emma street. The Walter Macfarlanes have taken the Princess's house in the interim to be near their own home, which is nearly completed. It presents quite an imposing appearance with a new driveway and stone entrance. Mrs. Campbell-Parker's gifts to her daughters have always been most generous.

A pretty little luncheon was given by Mrs. Milus Parkhurst for her sister, Mrs. Dunne, on Wednesday. The table was charmingly arranged and the place cards of miniature Chinese types were much admired. Among those present were Princess Kawanakoa, Mrs. Ranney Scott, Mrs. Harvey Murray and Miss Irene Dickson.

Mrs. Lewton-Brain was the hostess of an informal tea on Thursday afternoon at her cottage on Makiki street. Mrs. Lewton-Brain expects her sister to arrive from Indian the first week in January.

Among the agreeable festivities of the week was a card party given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilder in honor of Miss Jennie Giffard and Judge Arthur Wilder, at the Wilder residence on Pensacola street. The prizes were won by Mrs. Klebahn and Mr. T. Holloway and they were a hat-pin and ash tray. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dowsett, Mrs. Percy Benson, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Mr. and Mrs. Klebahn, Mrs. C. Wight, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Klamp, Miss C. Walker, Mr. H. Armstrong, Mr. George Fuller and Mr. H. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wilder expect to spend some time at Waikiki at the Wilder cottage, which they will occupy next week.

Japanese Consul General Miki Saito has been much entertained during the past week. On Sunday evening Mr. Kishi, of the local bank, gave a dinner in his honor at the Alexander Young, where were assembled prominent Japanese who expressed their esteem of the departing consul in well-chosen words. On Thursday evening a large number of local Japanese, at the Japanese Normal School on Nuuanu street, gave a ringing testimonial in honor of Mr. Saito and a cold and substantial supper was partaken of. The grounds were brilliantly decorated with flags and bunting any many hearty banquets testified to the popularity of the Consul General. The chairman of the entertainment was Dr. Katsunuma and Mr. Y. Takasawa was spokesman for the merchants. Mr. Saito replied in fitting language and seemed to appreciate the demonstration in his honor. He departed in the Manchuria for a three months' trip to Japan, having been recalled on a leave of absence.

Mr. Barbour Lathrop, who sailed in the Sonoma, gave a delightful stag dinner on Tuesday evening in the private dining room of the Alexander Young hotel. The table was elaborately decorated with carnations and the guests partook of an excellent dinner and the best of wines. Those present were Dr. Murray, Dr. Cooper, Dr. Yost, Messrs. Harry Macfarlane, Byron Baird, Cockburn, D. Anderson and Gerritt P. Wilder.

Admiral and Mrs. T. Stevens departed in the Manchuria for the Orient. They have been guests at the Moana hotel. The Admiral and Mrs. Stevens will eventually live in Washington, D. C.

Dr. Armitage has arrived in Honolulu and will practice medicine.

The hand concert on Thursday evening at the Moana hotel was well attended. The evening was perfect and many took advantage of the fact by motoring out to the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young and family are occupying their apartments at the hotel.

"SAVE-THE-HORSE" SPAVIN CURE

CAN YOUR HORSE PASS THE JUDGE OR VETERINARIAN?

Remember there are no blue ribbons and few bidders for cripples. Put your horse in condition at once, if you want him ready for the show ring or sales stable.

No blemished or unsound but otherwise valuable horse need be sacrificed. No matter if all other treatments have failed, the marvelous power and properties of "Save-the-Horse" are so effective it is perfectly safe for us to give a guarantee which is a contract absolutely binding to protect you.

WERE THESE TWO CASES WORTH THE COST OF TREATMENT?

Brooklyn, N. Y.
One of my horses went lame from side or shell bones on both feet, which extended entirely around the quarter, and was laid up for about three months. I used two bottles of "Save-the-Horse," and the horse is perfectly sound. I have driven her over paved roads, and one day gave her a sixty-mile drive and she never showed the least particle of lameness. The growths have nearly all disappeared. I have owned horses for years, used them to build railroads and in all kinds of contract work, and have used remedies, blisters, firing and electricity, but never saw anything take hold and produce such results as "Save-the-Horse" in this case.

D. C. BENNETT, Builder,
416 79th St.

$5.00 per bottle. Written guarantee—as binding to protect you as the best legal talent could make it. Send for a copy and booklet. ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS OR EXPRESS PAID.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Everything is now ready for the championship football game that will be played Monday on the baseball grounds between the Punahou and Maile teams. There has never been a time in the history of this American college game that people of Honolulu were so anxious and showed so much interest as they do in the outcome of this game. When Capt. Humphrey, the referee, blows his whistle on Monday he will call together the two best football teams that have ever donned moleskins on this island.

The Punahou this year have shown a spirit and interest in the game that has seldom been displayed. Night after night they have worked to perfect their team work and individual play so that they would be a match for the strong Maile team. Reed, their coach, has been untiring in his efforts to build up a team that would successfully represent the Blue and Buff. In their first meeting the Punahou came out on top by the narrow margin of one touchdown. Since that time Coach Benson of the Maile team has coached and drilled his team in a system of play that should do much toward winning. He will put a team on the field that will be in fit condition to play the games of their lives. This will be a gridiron battle worth going miles to see, and, from the present indications there will be an immense crowd on hand to cheer their favorites on to victory. This game means much to both teams, should the Mailes win, there will be another game on New Year's day to decide the championship. If the Punahou win this next game the season will close with the Punahou champions of 1935.

Both teams will go on the field confident of winning. There is very little letting on the result. Sporting men are inclined to keep their money in their pockets. Whichever team wins together for the principal preliminary. This should prove an interesting bout, as both these lads are handy with their fists and capable of putting up a hard fight. They have met before in one of the hardest contests ever seen at the Orpheum. Nelson was given the decision.

McDuffie, a heavyweight recently from Frisco, wants to fight.

The "Wild Swan," who made such a good showing in the last Orpheum fight, is also looking for trouble.

Jack O'Brien's next fight will probably be with Marvin Hart.

Fitz is now a real back number. The "Grand Old Man" has probably fought his last fight.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

There were sixty entries in a recent Olympic Club Handball Tournament.

Herbert Lee Spencer has been elected as the 1936 Annapolis football team coach.

Irishmen will form an athletic club in San Francisco.

Cadet Ray C. Hill was chosen to lead the West Point football team in 1936.

A team of National League ball players recently went to Cuba to play the natives there.

The American team lost nearly every game.

A new hotel that is being built in Philadelphia will have a skating rink of ice. This will be 319 feet above the street.

Following are the results of the six-day bicycle races that were recently held in New York: The final scores were: Root and Fogler, 2260 miles 6 laps; Bedell brothers, 2260 6 laps; Vanderstuyft and Stole, 2260 5 laps; McLean and Moran, 2260 5 laps; Hopper and Hollister, 2260 4 laps; Downey and Bowler, 2260 laps; Logan and Downer, 2260 3 laps; Galvin and McDonald, 2260 1 lap. The record is 2733 miles 4 laps.

With a total of 306 pins for one game

THE PUNAHOU-MAILE GAME IS CREATING INTEREST.

this game will know that they have been in a football game.

Coach Benson, when seen yesterday, had the following to say: "The Maile team is in superb condition and if we lose it will be because the Punahou have a better team. We have worked harder for this game than any previous game that the Mailes have ever gone into. There is not a weak spot on the team and every man will be in condition to play fast ball. I am looking for a hard game, but think that we will come out on top."

Reed, the Punahou coach, is just as confident as Benson, and when approached on his chances to win, said: "We are going up against a hard proposition Monday and have prepared for all sorts of surprises. The Mailes are going to give us an awful fight, but I expect to beat them by one touchdown. We have left nothing undone to put in a winning team and if we lose it will not be due to lack of work. We have a long string of players and can throw in fresh men when needed."

The Punahou will probably finish their work tonight on the campus when they will be put through light work. Benson will take the Mailes out Sunday to limber up.

THE PRIZE RING

Renny Yanger defeated Toney Moran in New York on Dec. 7th. Warren Lubrick knocked out Tommy Tracy on Dec. 8th at Portland. Caesar Attell was knocked out by R. Caranza at Watsonville on Dec. 8. Young Corbett is in Los Angeles to meet Herrera.

Kid McCoy wants to box Jim Corbett for a $20,000 purse. Jack McFadden and Duffy have both gone into training for their coming 15-round bout that will be pulled off at the Chinese theater on New Year's night. McFadden will do his training at the Myrtle Boat Club and Duffy will work out at the Healan Club. Both will do hard work from now on until the day of the contest.

Joe Cohen, who is pulling off the McFadden-Duffy fight, will try and bring Young Nelson and Kid Harris

CHICAGO RETURNS

FROM HILO
WITH GOV. CARTER

Just as the whistles were blowing for the noon hour the U. S. cruiser Chicago, with Governor Carter aboard, arrived at the Naval wharf. Shortly afterward the Governor appeared on deck
and after thanking Captain Badger and the officers for the courtesies shown him during the voyage, he stepped ashore, entered a carriage in waiting and was driven away. A salute of seventeen guns was fired in his honor.
Admiral Goodrich and party left the Chicago at 7 o'clock this morning in the channel off Kaunakakai, Molokai, leaving the U. S. S. Iroquois, which left here yesterday afternoon. The Admiral is spending the day hunting
on Molokai and will leave Kaunakakai tomorrow. The Iroquois is expected to arrive here some time tomorrow at noon with the party.

Governor Carter enjoyed himself immensely during the trip, both on land and sea. Admiral Goodrich, Mrs. Lyon and Miss Goodrich, as well as the other members of the party, also had a pleasant time and were much interested in viewing the crater.

SIR HENRY MORGAN,
BUCCANEER

By CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY.

Author of "The Southerner," "For Love of Country," "The Grip of Honor," Etc.

COPYRIGHT, 1903, BY G. W. DILLINGHAM COMPANY

Morgan looked at the young man reflectively. The tongue of the ensign clung to the roof of his mouth; the sweat stood out on his forehead; he could not utter a word from fright. He was bound and trussed so tightly that he could not make a move either. His eyes, however, spoke volumes.

"Well," said Sir Henry deliberately, "it would be a pity to kill him"—he paused—"in a hurry," he added.

"Dead men tell no tales."

"Eh, well, we can take care of that. Just lay him near his friend, lock the doors when I am gone and set the place on fire. The people are all out of the house. See they remain away. 'Twill make a hot, glorious blaze. You know the landing opposite Port Royal?"

The half breed nodded.

"Meet me there as quick as you can. Lose no time."

"Aye, aye, sah!" answered the Carib. "And Lady Morgan, sah?"

"Let her burn with the other two. She is so saintly she may like the fire, for I am afraid there will be none where she has gone. Goodbye, Master Bradley. You allowed me ten minutes. I take it that this house will burn slowly at first, so perhaps you may count upon—let us say—half an hour. I'm generous, you see. Harry Morgan's way! 'Tis a pity you can't live to take my message to Lord Carlingford. The next time he sends any one for me let him send men, not fools and—cowards."

"You villain! You cursed, murdering villain!" gasped Bradley at last.

"To our next meeting, Mr. Bradley, and may it be in a cooler place than you will be in half an hour!"

CHAPTER II.

Close under the towering walls of the old Spanish fort, now for a quarter of a century dominated by the English flag, as if seeking protection from its frowning battlements with their tiers of old fashioned guns, stood the Blue Anchor tavern. It had been a famous resort for the bold spirits of the evil sort who had made Port Royal the base of their operations in many a desperate sea venture in piracy in the two decades that had just passed. But times had changed, even if men had not changed in them.

The buccaneer had been banished from the Caribbean, whereupon, with a circumspect prudence, he had extended his operation in to the South seas, where he was farther from civilization, consequently harder to get at and naturally more difficult to control. Since the sack of Panama, twenty-five years ago, his fortunes had been rapidly declining. One of the principal agents in promoting his downfall had been the most famous rover of them all. After robbing his companions of most of their legitimate proportion of the spoils of Panama, Sir Henry had bought his knighthood at the hands of the venal Charles, paying for it in treasure, into the origin of which, with his usual careless insouciance, his easy going majesty had not inquired any too carefully. And the old pirate had settled down, if not to live cleanly, at least to keep within the strict letter of the law. There was thereafter nothing he abhorred so thoroughly as buccannery and the buccaneer—ostensibly, that is.

Like many a reformed rake, this gentle child of the devil, when the opportunity came to him with the position of vice governor, endeavored to show the sincerity of his reformation by his zealous persecution. He hanged without mercy such of his old companions in crime as fell into his clutches. They had already vowed vengeance upon him, these sometime brethren of the coast, for his betrayal of their confidence at Panama. They had further resented him honor of knighthood, his cloak of respectability, his assumption of gentility, and now that he hanged and punished right and left without mercy their anger and animosity were raised to the point of fury, and many of them swore deeply with bitter oaths that if they ever caught him defenseless they would make him pay dearly in torture and torment for these various offenses. He knew them well enough to realize their feelings toward him, and, blind fate affording him the opportunity of the upper hand, he made them rue more bitterly than ever their wild threats against him.

He had, moreover, so conducted himself in his official position that everybody—good, bad and indifferent—on the island hated him. Why he had not been assassinated long since was a mystery. But he was a dangerous man to attack. Absolutely fearless, prompt, decisive, resourceful and with the powers and privileges of the office he held besides, he had so far escaped all the dangers and difficulties of his situation. Charles had constantly befriended him and had refused to give ear either to the reiterated pleas of the islanders for his removal or to the emphatic representations of the Spanish Court, which in bitter recollection of what he had done—and no more cruel or more successful pirate had ever swept the Caribbean and ravaged the Spanish main—were persistently urged upon his notice. But with the accession of James the situation was immediately altered. The new monarch had at once acceded to the demand of the Spanish ambassador, presented anew at this opportune time, and a new governor of Jamaica was dispatched over the sea with orders to arrest Morgan and send him to England. Hawkerst, who in common with all the officers of the insular army, hated the blood-stained villain whom fortune had placed over them, had solicited Lord Carlingford to allow him to execute the order, with what success we have seen.

The news of the long wished for downfall of the tyrant had been spread abroad and formed the one topic of conversation in Port Royal and the vicinity that day. Now the work of the day was over, and, as usual, the Blue Anchor tavern was crowded with men from the frigate and other shipping in the harbor, mingling with others from the purlieus of the town. Fumes of rum and spirits pervaded the tobacco smoked barroom, which served as the main parlor of the inn. It was yet early in the evening, but the crowd, inflamed with liquor, was already in uproarious mood. Over in a corner a young Englishman was singing in a rich, deep voice a new song by a famous poet of London town.

"Let us sing and be merry, dance, joke and rejoice."

With claret and sherry, Theorbo and voice!

The changeable world to our joy is unjust,

All treasure's uncertain.

Then down with your dust:

In frolics dispose your pounds, shillings and pence,

For we shall be nothing a hundred years hence."

"We'll sport and be free with Frank, Betty and Dolly,

Have lobsters and oysters to cure melancholy;

Fish dinners will make a man spring like a flea.

Dame Venus, love's lady,

Was born of the sea;

With her and with Bacchus we'll tickle the senses,

For we shall be past it a hundred years hence."

It was a popular song evidently, for the whole assembly joined in the chorus:

"In frolics dispose your pounds, shillings and pence,

For we shall be nothing a hundred years hence."

They roared it out in the deep bass voices of the sea, marking the time by hammering in unison upon the oaken tables with their pewter mugs and flagons. The sentiment seemed to suit the company, if the zest with which they sang be any criterion. Care was taken to insure a sufficient pause, too, after the chorus between each of the two verses, to permit the drinking—after all the essential part of the evening's entertainment—to be performed without hindrance.

In the archipelago of Mergul, off the coast of lower Burma, live the "sea" gypsies. Instead of carts they own covered boats, in which, with their families, dogs, cats, chickens and pigs, they float about on the sea and wander from island to island. By day they fish or harpoon turtles or dive for oysters, but every night they put back to the shore. In the case of bad weather at sea, they land with their dogs and then poach, catching porcupines, squirrels and the like, of which they make savory dishes.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND "UNCLE REMUS"

When President Roosevelt visited Atlanta, Ga., recently, he met among other notable men, Mr. Joel Chandler Harris, the author of the "Uncle Remus" stories now appearing exclusively in
THE METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE.

Mr. Roosevelt referred in warm terms to the pleasure he had received from the "Uncle Remus" tales, which pleasure, he said, he had shared with all his children.

"I am very fond of Uncle Remus.
Presidents may come, and Presidents
may go, but Uncle Remus stays put.
Georgia has done a great many things
for the Union, but she has never done
more than when she gave Mr. Joel Chandler Harris to American literature."

"The best feature of my visit to Atlanta," continued the President,
"was meeting Joel Chandler Harris at a luncheon party. By George, that was great! He is a wonderful man,
I regard him as the greatest educator
in the South along the lines in which he writes. One of the very pleasant memories of my Southern trip will have been my association
with him."

Perhaps the best of the "Uncle Remus" stories appears in the December
(Christmas) Number of THE MET-ROPOLITAN MAGAZINE. It is amusingly illustrated by A. B. Frost. There are twenty other features in the same issue, including TWELVE PICTURES
IN COLOR. The Christmas Metropolitan is for sale by all newsdealers and book-sellers at 15 Cents a Copy.

This fine magazine is given free to a new subscriber to the Evening Bulletin for 6 months.

WHITE MATES IN TWO MOVES.

Mrs. I. You have a misconception
as to notation. The squares are numbered in sequence from the original position of the pieces, and toward opponent's side of the board. White's squares are reckoned from his own side and Black's from his own. Thus White's K4 would be Black's K5. Pieces the King's side (the right half for white, left half for black) are called King's pieces—those on the other half,
Queen's pieces. The move indicated does not solve the problem, as after White Q moves, Black could capture the piece with the pawn, preventing mate.

White mates in five (h).

(a) Black can play P—Q4 first.

Q—K2 has Morphy's sanction.

(b) Kt—B3 is better.

(c) In none of the King's Gambits

are moves like these admissible.

The King's Bishop is needed for defence

at home—especially in a case where

White obviously intends the further sacrifice.

(d) M. Jurevitch dubs this "le coup

juste." We agree.

(e) The Bishop comes powerfully

into the game, while Black is quite helpless.

(f) Q—Kt1 will not do, because of 17R—B3, etc.

(g) The finish is very neat and clever.

(h) Of course, by B—R dis. ch.

Black interposes first Bishop and then Queen, then playing K—B1 is mated by Q—Kt7 and Q—K7.

HOLLY FLOUR

Holly Flour is always good—always fresh

Greater care and cleanliness
than is observed in its manufacture it would be impossible to obtain.

Other flours have their good points. Holly Flour embraces them all. It stands on a pedestal of its own, completely over-shadowing all other makes.

Abounding in the life-giving property of gluten, Holly Flour makes the best of bread and pastry and
by so doing delights the housewife's heart. Then there is the all-important fact in its favor that it goes further than any other flour.

Mrs. M. Seymour

Grand Rapids, Mich.

"Soon after I began to take Wine of Cardui I could see that I was beginning to get back
my strength."

That is the comment Mrs. Seymour makes.

If you are sick you can take Wine of Cardui and secure health and strength. If other medicines and other treatment have failed, that will make no difference. Few women have taken Wine of Cardui at first.
By far the greater number of Wine of Cardui cures are women who could not secure relief elsewhere. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

WINE OF CARDUI

No. 48 Straight St., GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

I am pleased to endorse Wine of Cardui as I found it so beneficial to restore my strength after my baby was born. I could not seem to get well enough to be up and able to do my work, and as I had been in bed for six weeks this was rather serious, but soon after I began to use Wine of Cardui I could see that I was beginning to get back my strength. In another week
I was able to sit up most of the day and in a month I was able to be up and do most of my work. I think it is splendid medicine for a woman and can certainly give it highest praise.

Newbro's Herpicide

The ORIGINAL remedy that "kills the Dandruff Germ."

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADER

Most young and middle-aged men never know that their scalps are loaded with microbe growths until the hair has "gone off." Nature sends her warnings of dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair but the discor-ery of the dandruff germ is too recent for the public to realize the danger of neglect. Newbro's Herpicide positively destroys the dandruff microbe; stops falling hair and protects the scalp against reinfection. A delightful hair dressing. Stops itching instantly. Its immense popularity proves its goodness. Save your hair

while you have hair to save.

The Relief and Burial Association.

We now make our first assessment of one dollar to replenish our reserve fund; this fund is independent of our relief fund; from this fund the Funeral and Burial expenses of deceased members are drawn.

Remember, we will refund your heirs or whoever else is entitled to it, every dollar that you may have deposited with us during life; if during life a member has paid in assessments, say, $20.00 or $30.00, this amount with as much more, will be refunded, and the Funeral and Burial expenses are all saved to the family of the deceased member.

For the sum of $5.50 your family is protected in the hour of sad distress.

Electric Rat and Roach Paste is sure death and gives universal satisfaction. The peculiar chemical in this article is of such a nature that it drives rats and mice out of the house gasping for air and water, when they die outside and are immediately con-

these dangerous pests.

HERE IN HONOLULU

Bright's Disease, supposed to be incurable, is being cured here as well as elsewhere by Fulton's Compound. Here is a recovery reported by one of the customers of the Honolulu Drug Co., our agents in Honolulu:

Honolulu, H. T., Apr. 18, '05.
After two years of suffering from Bright's Disease, the last months being unable to work and finally unable to walk across the room, I entered the hospital on Feb. 22, 1904, for treatment, and was told my case was hopeless.

On Mar. 26, 1904, a friend brought me a bottle of Fulton's Renal Comp. for Bright's disease. I didn't believe it would do me any good, but tried it. On Mar. 31, 1904, I left the hospital and walked home. The last week in April, 1904, I went back to work as 2d mate of the str. Claudine, running to Maui and Hawaii, and have worked steadily since then, not missing a day. Fulton's Renal Comp. not only cured me of Bright's Disease, but left me strong and healthy. My friends know my condition when I went to the hospital and what it is today.

Warm Debilitating Weather.

Many people, after a long spell of oppressive heat, suffer from lassitude, loss of spirits, and a general "run down" feeling. They need a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a medicine which has revived and restored to active life and health thousands of such sufferers. A lady recently returned to England from South Africa writes concerning this

"Wonderful Medicine"

"While in Cape Town the past summer I suffered greatly from the long-continued heat. I was completely worn out; my blood seemed to become as thin as water, and I lost all energy and interest in life. My friends recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and a course of this wonderful medicine restored my health and spirits. My husband suffered in the same way as I did, though not to such an extent, and he also was greatly benefited from the use of

Dr. Douglas Hyde AND THE Gaelic Revival

THE revival of a dead language is usually no mean task. Those who are seeking to revitalize the ancient Gaelic tongue believe that it is not yet so dead as to make this an impossibility. The arrival in America of Dr. Douglas Hyde, the leading exponent of the movement, has attracted special attention to its aims. Much has already been accomplished in this direction through the enthusiasm of Dr. Hyde and the work of the organizations which have come into existence partly as a result of his exertions. Dr. Hyde is the son of a Protestant clergyman, the Rev. Arthur Hyde, and he himself has studied theology, but instead of preaching the gospel he devoted himself to literature and scholarship and to the work of convincing the Irish people and those in other countries of Irish descent of the value of the tongue in which their forefathers spoke.

Dr. Hyde was educated at Trinity college, Dublin, where in 1884 he took the degree of bachelor of arts after an exceptionally brilliant undergraduate career and where he has since taken additional degrees. Although he won honors in German, French and Italian, it was the Celtic language which most attracted him, and on graduation, instead of making the tour of the continent usually taken by young men of his social position, he traveled extensively in his native province, making a study of the ancient Irish tales, songs and folklore of Connaught. In this way he was drawn into relations of intimacy with the Irish peasantry and came to realize more than ever before the qualities for the expression of emotion and tenderness possessed by the language of the past. In 1889 he published a book of tales in the ancient tongue, entitled "Leabhar Sgeulachta." The praise this received from students of the Gaelic language encouraged him to write "Beside the Fire: Folklore of the Irish Celts," "The Love Songs of Connaught," "Story of Early Irish Literature," "Medieval Tales From the Irish" and other works. Some of these books have gone through several editions. In order to encourage the use of the old language of Ireland in both writing and speaking he has written dramas in Gaelic and taken parts in them himself when presented on the stage. Personally he is recognized as a man of great versatility of talent, for he is poet, playwright, critic, actor, divinity student, orator, journalist, historian, linguist, translator, professor, archaeologist, lecturer and folklorist.

Dr. Hyde is making a tour of the United States and speaking in colleges and before learned societies of various kinds. Owing in large degree to his efforts the movement for the revival of the Gaelic language in Ireland now shows some surprising results. There are two main groups of the Celtic tongue—the Cymric, represented by the Celtic speech of Wales and Brittany, and the Gaelic, formerly more widely spoken, but now represented by the Celtic speech of Ireland, Scotland and the Isle of Man. Scotland, with a population of 4,500,000, has not in the mainland or adjacent islands more than 300,000 persons who speak or understand Gaelic. In Ireland, when the census of 1900 was taken, it was found that out of a population of about 4,500,000 not more than 700,000 could speak Gaelic. This was a decline of 10,000 in ten years. The decline was due in part to the large emigration from the western province, the last foothold of the Gaelic in Ireland. Since then the current has turned. A few years ago most of those who spoke Gaelic in Ireland could neither read it nor write it. The system of education ignored it, and parents, anxious that their children should get on in the world, banished it from their homes. The Gaelic league, of which Dr. Hyde was the first president, has done much to change these conditions. It employs traveling teachers and in many ways encourages the use of the ancient language both in conversation and literature. Interest in the movement has extended to the United States and even to South America. The number of schools in which the Gaelic language is taught has advanced from 105 in 1880 to over 3,000 in 1905, and those who can read, speak and write Gaelic is thus constantly increasing.
