Honolulu merchants should be certain they are getting all Honolulu's trade

EVENING BULLETIN

2:30 O'CLOCK HONOLULU BUYERS READ THE BULLETIN EDITION

It is possible for any merchant in any line of trade, at any time, to draw crowds of buyers to a sale of any kind by liberal use of advertising space. It cannot be done in any other way.

LARGE ADVERTISING IN THE BULLETIN BRINGS LARGE RESULTS.

VOL. IX. NO. 3850 12 PAGES—HONOLULU, TERRITORY OF HAWAII, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1907—12 PAGES PRICE 5 CENTS

SHRINERS IN LINE

These are the officers of Aloha Temple, dressed in their best suit of clothes, including Fez.

The parade of the Shriners was the feature of this day of 1907 in Honolulu. It was a great parade and an excellent turn-out for Aloha Temple and the visitors who are in the city. The fun started at the Masonic Temple, where the candidates were assembled with the Arab Patrol. The combination then went over to the K. of P. Hall on Beretania, from which place the procession started shortly before 2 o'clock.

The officers of the Temple were in regalia and the Patrol did some fancy stunts in memory of the great time the boys had at Los Angeles. The candidates were, of course, a particular object of attention and furnished much good-natured amusement. No one got mad. None could afford to. History records that a man did once get mad. Life has not been half worth living, for him, since that time.

The procession moved down Fort street to King street, to the Capitol, where they were photographed, to Hotel, to Alakea, to Beretania, to the K. of P. Hall, where the initiatory exercises are taking place this afternoon.

The array of candidates included the following: John T. Moir, Wm. McKay, Captain Pierce, H. H. Renton, Wm. T. Robinson, Captain Clark, Frank Hatch, A. Blom, E. Monroe, R. H. Trent, Mr. Laird and Mr. Ross.

It is distinctly an out-of-town-other-island gathering and just one short of thirteen, so that good luck will supposedly attend their way.

Extra Steamer Coming

The Matson Navigation Co., Castle & Cooke, Ltd., agents, have made arrangements for a special trip of their liner Enterprise, to leave San Francisco Dec. 10th for this city. It will be a great help for Honolulu merchants, inasmuch as the Enterprise will arrive here in time for the display of Christmas goods, and she is expected, by all reports, to have a full cargo.

Many of the residents of the other Islands, as well as Oahu, are going to take advantage of this by having their children who are on the mainland at school spend their Christmas vacation at home, arriving here on Dec. 17th and returning by the Illonian on the 31st.

VALUABLE PROPERTY OFFERED AT AUCTION

A large gathering of prominent people came together this noon at the auction rooms of J. F. Morgan to witness the sale of two valuable pieces of property, namely the Isenberg residence at Punahou and the H. E. Cooper place at Pawa. The Isenberg place, it was stated had cost $128,000, the house alone being valued at $90,000. It was realized that a sale would have to be made at a sacrifice. Auctioneer Stevens announced that he had been offered a bid for $39,000, but no bid was made beyond that and the place was withdrawn. One of the conditions of the sale was that what ever the bid was it would have to be approved by Mrs. Isenberg before a sale was made.

On the Cooper place, valued at about $15,000, only one bid was made of $5000, and the place was withdrawn.

STRUCK BY AUTO

An automobile accident happened on King street in front of Emmeluth's store this afternoon at about 1:30 o'clock. A Chinese boy, who is thought to be a student of Mills Institute, was crossing the street from makal towards the Young Hotel, when suddenly an automobile, driven by Miss McCandless, came along and struck him. He was knocked down on the sidewalk, wounding his head. Miss McCandless took him in her automobile to Dr. Herbert on Alakea street for treatment. The wound is not serious.

ACHI'S POLITICS

AN OPEN LETTER TO SHERIFF LAUKEA

My Dear Sheriff Laukea,

Sir:—In the P. C. Advertiser of this morning I see that you stated that "I and the class I stand for are spoilsmen, pure and simple," etc.

I admire you for your declaration, and half believe that you are not a spoilsman. I only wish that you had declared that before the last election.

Did not you come to my house on several occasions before the last election and in the presence of my friends, who are the people you now say that you would not have around you, and to whom you yourself made promises which I believed you would carry out?

Did not you on those occasions promise me and my friends, that in case we should give you our support, and if you would be elected, you would appoint those whom I might recommend on the Police Force? Did not you make those promises without any request from me?

Did not you come to my office after your election, in the presence of some of my friends, and told me to prepare my list?

Am I a spoilsman, or are you not a spoilsman?

Were you not a Republican, and because you failed to get the position of Treasurer of the Territory, which position I earnestly worked hard for, you withdrew from the Republican party, and became a Home ruler?

Did I try to get any salary office in the Territory, or any other Government job in the Hawaiian Islands?

Did not you, after knowing that you had no chance to get an office in the Home Rule party, withdraw from it, and become a Democrat?

Did not you join the Democratic party with the idea that it was the first step for you to get an office?

Now at this late day, while you are enjoying the fat office of Sheriff of the County of Oahu, through the Democratic party, I believe you know in your mind that your Democratic friends have no further use for you, because you know that instead of you taking advice from your Democratic friends, you threw them out, and followed the advice of the P. C. A.

Now you propose to start a Good Government League. Why?

Are you not thinking of getting the nomination for Mayor for yourself, and the nomination for Sheriff for your friend, the P. C. A. of Hawaii?

Is Achi the Spoilsman or Sheriff Laukea? The echo cries: Laukea! Laukea!

Is it an abomination to you for me or my friends to be around you? If so, your body must be a holy one.

To my belief the American politic is that when you promise something to your workers, you should carry it out.

Very respectfully yours,
W. C. ACHI.

The above letter was flung forth additional offices it would seem doubtful that the Supervisors would have the presumption to take such a step in the face of public sentiment against loading the County machinery with useless expense.

Achi himself this morning made the strongest possible denial of the statement that he was back of a move on the part of a majority of the Board to unseat Hustace. "I have never claimed that I controlled a single Supervisor," he said. "And as a matter of fact I don't. I do not want to see Hustace removed as chairman. I believe that Hustace is an honest man and a smart man, and he is the best man in the whole bunch for the position. I never had anything to do with that deal."

Supervisors Dwight, Harvey, Fern and Kealoha all stated this morning that they had nothing to do with the alleged Achi move to oust Hustace. Dwight stated positively that he thought that Hustace was better fitted for the chairmanship than any other member. The others would not say whether they were against Hustace in that position or not, and Harvey voiced the opinion that he had been too bossy in his attitude towards the other members of the Board.

GEORGE KEKAUOHA GETS FOUR MONTHS

But Mormon Defendant Loses Franchise And Job

"The sentence of the Court is that you be imprisoned in the Oahu jail for a period of four months, and pay the costs of court."

The above sentence was pronounced this morning by Judge Dole on George K. Kekauoha, who was yesterday afternoon convicted of adultery by the United States District Court Jury. Previously Judge Perry,

Hawaiian Who Killed Woman Pleads Guilty

Kaapana, the uxoricide, appeared before Judge Lindsay this morning and pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree. Judge Lindsay sentenced him to 25 years imprisonment at hard labor—and to pay the costs of court, amounting to $3.50.

Kaapana is the man who beat his Japanese, a lei-woman, to death in Jack lane recently in a fit of drunken rage. On advice of his counsel W. L. Withington and Mr. Larnack he took 24 hours to think the matter over, and then decided to plead guilty. He is now 34 years old, so if he behaves himself well in jail and gets his sentence shortened according to law, he will be about 56 when he gets out.

OTWELL IS THANKED FOR HILO INTEREST

(Special Bulletin Wireless)

HILO, Hawaii, Nov. 16.—The Board of Trade held a special meeting yesterday and authorized a message to Captain Otwell offering congratulations that his plans for the Hilo breakwater had been accepted, and thanking him for his interest in the project.

KING'S BIRTHDAY

This being the birthday of the late King Kalakaua, a large Hawaiian flag flew from the flagstaff of Kapio-lani building. The day was, as usual, celebrated by a miniature yacht race in the harbor this morning. Seven yachts entered the race, which was won by the late King's own boat. A grand luau will be given at the home of Prince Cupid tonight.

SAN FRANCISCO WOULD SEND LEPERS HERE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 15.—The Health Officer of San Francisco has issued a recommendation that the lepers in this city be sent to the leper settlement on Molokai.

It would seem that the Coast city takes it for granted that Hawaii, having a place set apart for the reception of its local lepers, outside cities may, without so much as asking permission, dump their afflicted here. This has been tried on two separate occasions, but it did not work.

President Pinkham this morning said that in view of the general sentiment in the matter heretofore exhibited, he thought it very improbable that San Francisco would be granted leave to send her lepers to Molokai.

COIN STRINGENCY HAS ITS EFFECT SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 15.—The construction work on the new railroad line to Eureka has been stopped.

READING, Pa., Nov. 15.—The Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company today discharged 700 employees.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 15.—The total amount of gold engaged for importation to supply the currency deficiency now amounts to sixty-seven million nine hundred and five thousand dollars.

LONDON, Eng., Nov. 15.—The bank rate on gold will probably be raised to 8 per cent. today. The British bankers will attempt by raising the rate to check the very heavy exportations of gold to the United States.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 15.—The Standard Oil Company today declared a dividend of ten dollars a share.

JAPANESE IMMIGRATION LARGEST EVER WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—The increase in the number of Japanese entering the United States during the month of October over that of any preceding month is the greatest in the history of the immigration service.

This can hardly seem possible taking into consideration the restrictions Japan claims to have placed on its would-be emigrants. A later explanation will probably follow.

PROSPECTS FOR THE NEGRO WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—President Roosevelt, in the speech delivered today before the students of the Howard University, pronounced himself as optimistic in his views regarding the future of the negro race.

WAR VESSEL GOES FORTY MILES AN HOUR COWES, Eng., Nov. 15.—The ocean-ging destroyer Mohawk in her trial trip today developed a speed of forty miles an hour.

SPENCER COMES TO PLAY BALL

Sam Mahuka Spencer, an old baseball player and at one time called the prince of first base, arrived with his family today on the Kinau, which he locked at 8:15 this morning. He was met at the wharf by the Kamehameha baseball enthusiasts and some new baseball pointers were given him by Captain Lemon of the Kamehameha team. When asked as to the coming of the "Prisco" team, Mahuka said that he needs to trim up a little bit and get himself acquainted with the atmosphere of the ball ground. "I have practiced over at Waimea," said he, "but I will have to put in extra practice here before I can face our mainland players."

WATERFRONT NOTES Reports of shipping by cable state that the Alameda left San Francisco this morning for Honolulu. The ship Marion Chilcott arrived at Monterey Nov. 16. She left here Oct. 29. The American schooner Honoipu arrived at Port Townsend today. She sailed from Honoipu Oct. 25. The American schooner C. A. Thayer, which left here October 16, has arrived at Gray's harbor. The American schooner Spokane sailed from Kailua for Hilo yesterday. The British ship Celtic Chief arrived at Royal Roads Nov. 15. She sailed from here on Oct. 19.

On account of the fact that the Hilonian will not arrive at Honolulu until the day after Christmas, the local agents have made arrangements to have the Enterprise call at Honolulu on her December trip to Hilo. She will leave San Francisco on Dec. 10, reaching here Dec. 19. This will give the local merchants a chance to receive their "Christmas trade" goods in time to serve the public.

The Mongolia will resume her Oriental run, leaving San Francisco today. This will bring her here next Friday. It was nearly fourteen months ago that the big liner went on the reef at Midway, since which time she has been undergoing repairs at Hunter's Point, near San Francisco, at a cost of $300,000. Captain Hathaway will be in command of the Mongolia.

CHRISTMAS GOODS DELAY SERIOUS

Local Merchants Demand Held-Up Freight Be Forwarded

The fact that there may be some little delay in the receipt of "Christmas goods" is causing considerable worry among the local merchants. It has been learned that goods which should have come through to this city have been dumped at San Francisco. This was done to send the Alaskan to the north to get a load of canned salmon that offered. The Alaskan should have come through to Honolulu.

It is the intention to send the Honolulu freight down on the Nevada. The Nevada is at present at Kaula, and her schedule calls for her to make the trip to San Francisco and arrive back here on December 21. The Nevada seems to be the only vessel on which Christmas goods could come and, taking this into consideration, several large shippers and the directors of the Merchants' Association held a meeting yesterday and the result was that the following cable was sent to the New York office of the American-Hawaiian company: American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, New York.

Merchants holding bills of lading Honolulu freight now discharged by Alaskan insist delay must be avoided. Suggest should be forwarded by you Honolulu sailing from San Francisco Nov. 21.

In addition to this, he loses his job as Road Supervisor—and has his lawyer to pay. There is also another indictment for adultery hanging over him, and he is to be tried for perjury, besides. So it seems that the man is being pretty severely punished for an offense which is not prosecuted anywhere except in Hawaii and Utah.

Kekauoha's trial lasted nine days, and was fought all the way by both J. J. Dunne, representing the Government, and Judge Perry and W. T. Rawlins, counsel for the defendant. Out of the trial will grow at least two others, as both George and his wife Jenny are to be prosecuted for perjury alleged to have been committed on the witness stand.

Poi Kekauoha, a brother of George, is also in the toils of the law, being indicted for perjury before the Grand Jury in connection with George's case. Ania Lilihi, the woman with whom George is convicted of having been intimate, is also indicted for a similar offense and her trial was this morning set for January 9.

When Kekauoha was called up for sentence, Judge Perry addressed the Court in his behalf. He said that he did not think that the fact that the defendant had fought the case ought to influence the Judge, nor the length of time that it took to try the case. He couldn't see that it made any difference whether the trial lasted one day or nine. Neither ought the prisoner to be punished for any alleged perjury on the witness stand.

The evident difficulty which the jury had in arriving at a verdict, Judge Perry thought, should be considered in favor of the prisoner. It was evident that at first not all of the jurors were convinced of his guilt, but some of them had been talked over by the others.

No evidence as to previous adulterous conduct should be taken into consideration. The defendant had been convicted of having committed adultery on February 12, and it was for that particular offense alone that he should be punished.

Replying to these arguments, United States District Attorney Breckons said he did not think that the length of time the jury was out made any difference. Whether it took ten minutes or three hours to arrive at a verdict, the jury was evidently convinced that the defendant was guilty. "I don't understand this sliding scale verdict," he said. "I don't see how a man can be guiltier if it takes the jury only ten minutes to arrive at a verdict than if it takes twenty minutes or an hour or three hours."

Besides, the jury found that the defendant had deliberately lied to get out of the matter. A man who will perjure himself is entitled to less consideration than another man who admits the truth. I agree that the length of time it took to try the case should not be any reason why a heavier punishment should be inflicted on the prisoner."

In passing sentence Judge Dole said:

"I should be very sorry to have supposed that a prisoner was punished more severely for having defended the charge than for pleading guilty. The fact that sometimes a less sentence is given where a man pleads guilty does not mean that another man should be more severely punished for fighting the case."

"You have had the benefit of a strong defense. I think Judge Perry has made as good a defense as could have been made in this case. The jury, however, has found you guilty."

"This is a subject of greater importance than most people think. A man came to me the other day and said he did not think it was any of the business of the United States to interfere in such matters. But the United States Government has made this a public matter and has adopted the policy of punishing violations of the marriage laws, particularly where the offense is conspicuous."

"The sentence of the court is that you be imprisoned in the Oahu jail for a period of four months, and pay the costs of court."

After sentence had been passed, George Kekauoha asked permission to say a few words. Addressing the Court, he said:

"If the testimony of the witnesses for the prosecution is the truth and the whole truth, then the blessings would be upon them, as well as all endangering of their welfare in this world and in the world to come. Then, if on the other hand, their testimony was untrue, the higher court will be the one to judge. The defendant extends his congratulations to the court of the United States. He will live up to his sentence and do the best he can."

K. Inoshita, a Japanese who had pleaded guilty to forging the signature on an international postal money order, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment at hard labor and to pay the costs of court. John Cathcart, his attorney, made a plea for a light sentence, saying that the man did not understand the strict laws of the United States in regard to postal matters and thought at the time he signed the money order that he was acting in the interest of his rightful owner.

Breckons agreed to having the minimum sentence pronounced. The two other charges against Inoshita were not pressed.

The plea of Poi Kekauoha, indicted for perjury, was postponed for a week.

Kong Yoo Su and Chang, indicted for violation of the Edmunds Act, entered pleas of not guilty. Their trial was set for January 13. A. L. C. Atkinson appeared as their attorney.

Kankichi Hirano was arraigned on the charge of perjury.

Prominent Temperance Advocate Indorses

MR. GEORGE FOSTER COLLINS.

Mr. George Foster Collins, of Lincoln, Neb., who is 73 years old, a member of the Presbyterian Church, prominent in politics, a life long and strenuous advocate of temperance, has been greatly benefited by the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and conscientiously recommends it as the best tonic stimulant for the old.

"I am 73 years old. Was born in Wayne County, N. Y., on March 21, 1834. Our family moved to Michigan shortly after this. I grew up on the farm, then studied law, was admitted to the bar, was County Clerk of St. Clair County, Mich., which office I held four years. Then was for a time Secretary of the Midland Railway of Michigan. I moved with my family to a farm in Gage County, Nebraska, in 1874; was a member of the County Board eight years. In 1890 was elected State Senator. Foster, my middle name, has been transmitted in the family for over 100 years from father to son. Mrs. Collins and myself are members of the Presbyterian Church of Lincoln, where we have lived for the last four years. We celebrated the fifty-third anniversary of our marriage on March 23d, 1907."

"From early youth have been a strenuous advocate of temperance principles and strongly opposed to the use of liquor in any form. Over a year ago I began to feel a gradual decline of the vital forces. I had read and heard much about the benefits to be derived from the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey by those in my condition, and was advised by an old friend and temperance worker who had received much benefit from its use to overcome my prejudices against liquor and try it. I took his advice and have been greatly benefited by it, and can conscientiously recommend all those passing into the 'sear and yellow leaf' of life to take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey."—GEORGE FOSTER COLLINS, 2509 P Street, Lincoln, Neb., May 15th, 1907.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ of the seed and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a pale malt, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warm hand moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces; it makes digestion perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat all the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trademark "Old Chemist" on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

NOVEMBER 16, 1907 SATURDAY

And William Chesterfield Achi has been next to their Bible for so many years, and more freely read. As far as reliability is concerned there are records to show that the Times can be as far wrong as Hearst's papers.

Creeping makes business drag and hurts the town. Get up and hustle on Honolulu. Don't be a croaker.

Perhaps the appearance of Mr. Achi is a preliminary symptom of an election a little less than a year hence.

The Tax Assessor will please take notice of the prices offered today for residence property, and govern his assessments accordingly.

Hilo flunked O'Connell for the interest he has taken in the Hilo breakwater. That's a nice thing to do, but O'Connell can only respond that he followed the national line of his duty to make Federal projects move as rapidly as possible.

Some people practise civic righteousness by appearing and talking awfully good, while committing secretly the most outrageous crimes against common political decency and irreducible citizenship. Learn of Mr. Kent how to be a good citizen at all times.

Almost without exception, the newspapers of the country have petitioned for a removal of the protective duty on paper, to rescue them from the hold of the Paper Trust. The next Congress will show what power the press of the country has when working for itself.

There seems to be a widespread opinion that Secretary Taft has changed his mind at least three times on the momentous subject of how long he should stay and what he should do in Berlin. As he has been in constant communication with the President it serves to promote gossip as to what is going on in diplomatic circles.

Achi may not be a political purist in all that it implies, but he has called of the turn on Sheriff Iaukea in the matter of voluntary promises. The American theory of politics is to stand by your friends. This has been modified by certain alleged leaders of Hawaii, who incessantly preach and practise changing friends and principles every election.

HEARST ON ENGLAND AND LONDON TIMES.

Brief mention has been made in these columns of a letter written by William Randolph Hearst "calling down" the London Times. The letter is an interesting document because he denies the long-current story that he told Frederick Remington to go to Cuba saying, "You provide the pictures and I'll provide the war," and incidentally expresses his opinion on the reliability of the famous London Times.

Hearst starts in with this language:

Since some lineal descendant of Ananias became the correspondent of the London Times in New York, that newspaper has printed many articles from America as absurd and outrageous as the famous Piggott forgeries which appeared in its columns, and the ridiculous tale of the boiling in oil of the German Ambassador in Pekin.

No efforts of this offspring of Ananias, however, have been more frankly false and more ingeniously idiotic than the assertion in the issue of the Times of September 30th. This kind of clotted nonsense could only be generally circulated and generally believed in England, where newspapers claiming to be conservative and reliable are the most utterly untrustworthy of any on earth.

In apology for these newspapers it may be said that their untrustworthiness is not always due to intention, but more frequently to ignorance and prejudice.

Such language directed at the London Times probably reads like sacrilege to the people whose "Times" has been next to their Bible for so many years, and more freely read. As far as reliability is concerned there are records to show that the Times can be as far wrong as Hearst's papers. The only difference is that the former is more sanctimonious about it. Hearst admits that much that he gathers is done in a hurry—before others are awake—and consequently errors may occur.

Evidently replying to comment of the Times, Hearst points to the fact that the Spanish war was brought on by the blowing up of the Maine. And he adds, "Any informed and unprejudiced person knows now, that if war is brought on with as peaceful a nation as the United States it would be brought on by Japan with, perhaps, the secret aid and encouragement of England." Many readers in Hawaii will scoff at this idea. Here we have the Anglo-Saxon brotherhood worked out in perfect detail. It is nevertheless true that Hearst knows he is playing to a considerable American element when he expresses a suspicion of the friendship of England. He develops this idea, and, in doing so, shows that the sentiment dates back to the school-books from which the American youth gets his first impressions. He says:

"The attitude of England toward this country has always been clearly understood by our people, despite her professions of friendship. Words, as President Roosevelt expresses it, are good when backed by deeds, but not otherwise. The deeds of England have always been hostile to this country and the intelligent citizens of this nation know that England would be as ready to encourage Orientals to make war on this country today as she was to incite the Indians to murder the wives and children of our early colonists in the days of our early struggle for independence.

While making it clear, therefore, that the action of Japan is the one thing that can bring this country to war, I don't wish to minimize the effect of the secret influences and underhand acts of our historic enemy.

"No individual in this whole nation of eighty million souls wants war. There is no individual but whose interests and sentiments are wholly opposed to war. No newspaper is advocating war, but every patriotic citizen realizes that the American President has an undeniable, unquestionable right to send the United States fleet along any part of the United States coast without criticism by any foreign power, whether openly hostile or secretly hostile.

"Every patriotic United States citizen is prepared, moreover, to sustain this action of the President in any way that the honor of the nation requires."

Hearst signs himself "Sincerely." There is no doubt that in this case Hearst is sincere.

As these were the people who wanted the lots, the Commissioner thought he was justified in making them of the dimensions that have been advertised.

CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP

ITS ADVANTAGES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

William Kent Will Lecture at Central Union Church Tomorrow Night on Good Government

The forces of good order and good citizenship will gather tomorrow evening in Central Union church to hear William Kent of Chicago speak on "Christian Citizenship." President Griffiths of the Civic Federation will preside.

The committee of nine of the Chicago Municipal Voters League of which Mr. Kent was President for several years, by their adroitness and success in cleaning up Chicago, challenged the admiration of the world. Lincoln Stephens, in his McClure's article "Chicago: Half Free and Fighting On," immortalized the sturdy band of Chicago reformers. He speaks of William Kent as "The wealthy young reformer, who is always ready to do the things nobody else wants to do; president and politician at the League in the middle—the reactionary—period." He with "Old King Cole" Walter Fisher, Harlan, Pond, Hoyt, King and others, making up the committee of nine, took up the campaign of "beating the rascals." They organized and divided the work, and "made good." The second campaign was run by Kent and Pond. This combination won decisive victories in 1899 and 1900. Stephens says "During the time of Kent and Pond, however, the power for good of the League was established, the question of its permanency settled, and the use of able and conscientious adherents recognized."

But winning one election or defeating one set of bad men was not all. Deeper plans than these were laid and carried out. Says Stephens, "The study and enlightenment of public opinion is their great function and force." These reformers have, with the newspapers and the aldermen, not only done it thoroughly and persistently; they have not only developed an educated citizenship; they have made it an effective force, effectively in reformation and practical politics. Although Mr. Kent is here for a vacation, he has consented to talk on the subject in which he has such interest. Local politics which are always lively, have given recent indication of an upheaval. Whatever Mr. Kent can contribute that will assist in exposing the grafters' game will be a real contribution. The forces of good government and the politician will hear him with profit.

DESTRUCTIVE NATURE LOSES PERREIRA WIFE

The divorce case of Ferreira vs. Perreira came up for hearing in Judge De Bolt's court this morning, resulting in a decree for the libellant, who was the wife.

On the stand she testified that when sober her husband was a very good man, but when he got drunk he was a holy terror. On one occasion, she said, he got into a drunken rage and took sacks of coffee, rice and flour and cut them open and scattered the contents about the yard. He became repentant when he sobered up, and bought more, but she refused to receive them or to have anything more to do with him.

He also had the pleasant trick of breaking the furniture, chasing her with butcher knives and beating her when he got filled up with booze.

At the time she married him, he already had seven children of his own, while she had four. They added one more to the total, and she had to keep house for the whole outfit. Yet she wanted the custody of the one child born to them, and, in granting the divorce, Judge De Bolt awarded it to her.

S. F. Chillingworth appeared for the libellant and Judge Perry represented the libellee. No witnesses were put on but the libellee, Judge Perry contenting himself with addressing the Court on behalf of his client. He said that the courts ought not to grant divorces lightly, which sounded queerly in view of the fact that during the present term of court, only one divorce has been refused of all the large number that have been applied for.

EXCEPTIONS OVERRULED

The Supreme Court this morning, in the case of Wakeki Heleluhe versus the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Co., and that of Kahakakoi versus the same defendant, which came before the Court on exceptions by the plaintiffs, overruled the exceptions.

The cases were both actions for damages for injuries sustained by the plaintiffs, claimed to have been caused by the negligence of defendant. They were consolidated and tried together. The plaintiffs were thrown out of a buggy while they were driving along King street in consequence of the buggy being struck by a street car. The plaintiffs were two old Hawaiian ladies. After a verdict for each plaintiff, the trial judge granted defendant's motions for new trials, and the plaintiffs came before the Supreme Court on the exceptions which are overruled.

SOCIAL CHATTER AND HOME TALK

ON SUNDAY, Admiral and Mrs. George Beckley gave an elaborate luncheon at their Diamond Head bungalow in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spreckels of San Francisco. The feast was spread on tables which were set in the immense lanai with the view of the Pacific before one.

The Waikiki Singing Club played and sang throughout the luncheon. The guests included, besides the Spreckels, Col. and Mrs. S. M. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mrs. Alice Hastings, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tenney, Doctor and Mrs. George Herbert, Miss Marion Roth, Miss Juanita Beckley, Mr. Robert Shingle, Mr. Frederick Wickett, Mr. Edward Duisenberg and Mr. Jack Carter.

Bridal Robe A description of bridal frocks is always interesting, and the one worn at the Roosevelt-Geer wedding is quite worth speaking of.

Miss Dorothy Quincy Roosevelt, a second cousin of the President, who was married a few days ago to Langdon Geer, had as part of her bridal gown a satin brocade Court train. The bridal robe itself, Empire Princess in outline, was very simple, as best suits a petite bride; the satin was very soft and the train not very long; the skirt part was absolutely plain.

The top of the gown had its yoke of duchesse and old rose point, with the Dutch or round neck having a slight dip in the center front, and just above the lace was seen one of her wedding gifts, a diamond necklace in Empire design, a single string of diamonds with the Empire ornament effect in the front.

The yoke was of bouffes of rose and duchesse point that formed a fichu effect, but without ends, although in the center front the lace was drawn down in point. In the front and at the sides the robe was Princess, the Empire effect being confined to the back.

The sleeves were the new long, close-fitting model from the elbows down, the upper sleeves being three or four overlapping ruffles of rose and duchesse point. These ended at the elbow, and from there were close fitting, extending over the hands and to the knuckles in a point. She wore no gloves and carried a single spray of star-shaped white flowers extending from her right hand back along her arm some ten inches.

The court train of satin brocade was long and wide, but was partially covered by the long veil of old point lace, a family heirloom worn by not only her mother when, as Miss Kate Shippen, she married Hilborne L. Roosevelt, but by both of her grandmothers. One end of the veil was brought up over the center front of her rather low coiffure and arranged there in a pointed, yet slightly frilled, diadem effect, and fastened with orange blossoms.

Sorenson-Cooke Wedding

One of the interesting events of the season was the wedding of Miss Egnar Sorenson and Mr. Richard Cooke, which took place at the residence of Mrs. Sorenson, the bride's mother, on Nuuanu avenue, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Promptly at that hour the sweet strains of the "Lohengrin" Wedding March were heard, played by Miss Violet Damon on the violin and accompanied by Mrs. Frank Judd, and the lovely bride advanced, supported by the arm of her brother, Mr. Olaf Sorenson, through a pathway of white satin ribbon held by the bridesmaids, the maid-of-honor, Miss Alice Cooke, walking directly behind the bridal party. They were met by the Rev. Dr. Scudder, who performed the ceremony, the groom and his best man taking their places in the order of precedence. The dining-room, where the marriage took place, had been converted into a veritable bower of green and white, the walls and ceiling being completely hidden from view by the graceful foliage. A lovely mille portiere hung before the door to the hall and long cords of white carnation leis held the wedding veil, directly under which stood the bride and groom. After the ceremony congratulations were in order and one had an opportunity of viewing the frocks of the bridal party more closely. The bride, who is an unusually beautiful girl, wore white satin under princess, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Her four sweeping veil of tulle framed an exquisite picture. The dainty maid-of-honor, Miss Alice Cooke, was a vision of loveliness in white chiffon and satin. The pretty bridesmaids, the Misses Hartwell, Beatrice Castle, Irene Fisher, Bessie Hopper, wore dainty white, but made in different fashions. They carried bouquets of small white Marquises. Mrs. Sorenson, the mother of the bride, was in a handsome frock of dark-grey silk, and Miss Sorenson wore a charming toilette of white. Mrs. C. M. Cooke's costume was a beautiful white lace gown over white satin.

After the congratulations the bridal party and the guests repaired to the large marquee which had been erected in the grounds and dainty refreshments were served from little tables, the bride and groom, maid-of-honor, bridesmaids, best man, Messrs. Olaf Sorenson, Harold Castle and Lowrey sitting at a table together. The tent was artistically decorated with greens, the tables being ornamented with cut flowers. Mrs. Ladd served the refreshments in her usual perfect manner. The lanai leading to the drawing-room was enclosed with flags, thus protecting the guests from the gaze of interested lookers-on.

The presents were displayed in a room by themselves and were most useful and costly. Perhaps no one was more beautifully dressed than Mrs. J. O. Cooke, who wore white chiffon embroidered profusely with violets in their natural colors. Mrs. Lowrey was in a white silk à la Princess, an exquisite point lace brunoise outlining the shoulders.

Among the guests were Judge and Mrs. Sanford B. Dole, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Montague Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooke, Miss Grace Cooke, Miss Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Atherton, Mrs. Selma Kinney, Miss Maud Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mrs. Halstead, Mrs. Lockland, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Miss Nora Sturgeon.

Among the agreeable events of last Saturday night was a bridge dinner given by Col. and Mrs. S. M. Parker at their Diamond Head villa. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mr. Robert Shingle and Mr. Parker.

Thanksgiving Suggestion A pretty idea for a Thanksgiving dinner was suggested the other day and I liked it so well that I insert it here with:

Upon the yellow centerpiece was placed a large half-pumpkin filled with oranges and white grapes. Candles all aglow were placed in the sockets cut in its edge. The unique place-cards were small white cards mounted on larger yellow ones, so that it was framed in gold, and stood in the left upper corner were five arches of yellow corn. The card was inscribed "Individual Partners of the First Thanksgiving Dinner," below were the words, "Let Us Give Thanks" with the initials of the guests in the left lower corner. The turkey was accompanied by a peak mound of squash served on a chop plate. A deli thrust to the tip converted it into a very fair representation of a straw stack.

Stanley Tea

Mrs. William Stanley was the hostess of a very delightful tea on Friday afternoon at her residence on upper Fort street in honor of Mrs. Reid and her niece, Miss Johnstone, whose engagement to Mr. Henry Greenwell of Kona was recently announced. Mrs. Stanley, assisted by the guests-of-honor, received everybody on the lanai, and her mother, Lady Herron, conducted the guests to the dining-room, where little tables were set, as well as in the drawing-room. Mrs. Fred. Larnder presided over the tea table, and Mrs. J. O. Young poured coffee. Mrs. Basil Combe, Mrs. Will Soper, Mrs. Lange, Miss Anna Danford assisted in looking after the comfort of the guests. Roses lavishly ornamented the room and greens were artistically placed about. A most enjoyable program was rendered, beginning with a piano solo brilliantly executed by Mrs. Ernest Mott-Smith. Mrs. Walter Hoffmann sang in her delightful fashion and Mrs. Alexander Lindley's beautiful voice charmed everybody. Mrs. F. H. Humphris recited to her usual finished manner. Mrs. Hoffmann again sang, accompanied by Mrs. A. Judd. There were some beautiful polities noticed. Among others a black frock embellished with silver trimmings worn by Mrs. Gaines, was much admired. Lady Herron was in a lovely Princess frock of some soft grey material and her ornaments of dull gold were very effective. Mrs. S. M. Watson wore a pretty dress of blue and white muslin daintily trimmed with lace, and Mrs. Clifford Ballentine looked handsome in a yellow creation, a picture hat of black adding an artistic touch. Mrs. C. W. Case-Deering, in a beautiful frock of white, exquisitely embroidered, was charming. Mrs. Edward Tenney looked pretty in a chic toilette and Mrs. F. H. Humphris' frock of mauve with embroidered velvet bands of panics was exquisite; her hat of mauve with shaded plumes suited her perfectly. Mrs. Walter Frear wore a pretty frock of white and her hat, tied under the chin with tulle, was most becoming. Both Mrs. Reid and Miss Johnstone wore beautiful white frocks and Mrs. Stanley looked most distinguished in mauve and black. Among those present and invited were Mrs. Walter Frear, Mrs. Ernest Mott-Smith, Mrs. Beckcom, Mrs. E. S. Watson, Mrs. Lewton-Brain, Mrs. R. Forster, Mrs. Ballentine, Mrs. J. O. Young, Mrs. Alex. Lindsay, Mrs. John Young, Miss Young, Mrs. Basil Combe, Mrs. Bottomley, Mrs. Larnder, Mrs. C. W. Case-Deering, Mrs. F. H. Humphris, Mrs. Walter Hoffmann, Mrs. Spalding, Misses Spalding, Mrs. W. W. Hall, Misses Hall, Miss Anna Paris, Mrs. Will Soper, Mrs. Henry Holmes, Mrs. Danford, Mrs. Edward Tenney, Mrs. Forster, Mrs. J. O. The birthday of ex-Governor Clegg horn occurred on Thursday and was fittingly observed by many congratulations and flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Kittredge and their daughter, Mrs. Baker are guests at the Moana.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smithies are soon to build an artistic little bungalow.

Engagement Announced The engagement of Miss Marietta Havens of Oakland, California, has been announced to Mr. Paul Dinsmore, at the head of the Realty Syndicate in the same town. Miss Havens, who is a very pretty and charming girl, was the guest of Miss B. Ruth Young a few years ago and she has many friends here who have always followed her social career with much interest.

Tuesday Tea

Mrs. Laura Wight was the hostess of an interesting tea at Esbank on Tuesday for Mrs. Klebahn, who is leaving so extensively entertained before her departure for Germany. Pictorial post cards occupied the attention of the guests, clever little monologues from the hostess accompanying them. Mrs. Andrew Fuller poured coffee and the delicious refreshments were much enjoyed. Among the guests were Mrs. Margaret Walker, Mrs. Paul Neumann, Mrs. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. Inez Hanson, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Ewart, Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Waterman, Misses Agnes Melville, Helen Alexander, Margaret Walker. Mrs. Wight was also the hostess of another interesting afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. Watson, who expects to be gone six months touring the Orient with her husband. It was essentially a neighborhood tea, the guests including Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Mrs. George Waterhouse, Mrs. Hitchcock, Mrs. J. F. Brown, Mrs. Lees, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Soper, Miss Mills.

Cosy Tea

Mrs. Coleman Castle gave a cosy little tea at the George Castle place at Diamond Head on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hyde, who is being so much entertained. Mrs. Hyde is spending the winter as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holloway. The Holloways are entertaining quite a little for their guest, and so are all their friends.

SOCIAL NOTES

Fifty Years in Hawaii

Mr. F. A. Schaefer was the bright particular star of the Planters' banquet on Thursday, it being fifty years since he first arrived in this country. In the morning the Royal Hawaiian Band under Captain Berger's able direction serenaded him at "Rosedale" and in the evening at the banquet he was much toasted, the whole company joining and singing "The Fatherland." Mr. Schaefer responded in a gracious little speech and "He's a jolly Good Fellow" made the welkin ring. Mr. Schaefer has not only proved himself a man of affairs of a high order, but his social qualities have endeared him to all. Hardly a person had not received little kindnesses from his hand—and how brilliantly his can entertain! The banquet at the Alexander Young was a magnificent affair. The mauka pavilion of the roof garden presented a brilliant appearance and the banquet room, with its decorations of cane stalks, maize, cane tassels intermingled with the artistically managed electric lights, will be long remembered. Ernest Kaala's orchestra, screened from view by an arrangement of cane and greens, played throughout the banquet. Covers were laid for one hundred. There were toasts, speeches and songs. The chef of the Young provided a feast for the gods, which seemed to be appreciated fully by the song time at table. The menu was as follows: Oysters Rissoletes a la Pompadour Canape Cavalr, Creme Style Celery Stalks Spanish Olives Sautéed Almonds, Consomme Printaniere with Quenelles Filet of Kani, Venetian Style Cucumbers, English Style Potato Croquettes en Surprise Frog's Legs a la Osborn French Peas Larded Tenderloin of Beef, Lagunierre Style Siberian Punch Breast of Chicken, Roast, Jules Verne Style Potatoes Croquette Asparagus Tips, Maitreton Mirabelle Salad Countess Lada Ice Cream Mandarin Cake Cheese Assorted Fruits Small Turkish Coffee

Those present were Messrs. F. A. Schaefer, E. A. Mott-Smith, L. Lew-ton, Brain, W. W. Goodale, Jas. Gibb, F. Gibb, E. Weener, Alex. Young, Geo. Ross, E. D. Tenney, E. R. Stackable, R. S. Norris, C. F. Eckart, J. T. Moir, W. G. Walker, John Watt, J. M. Ross, H. P. Baldwin, A. S. Hartwell, S. B. Dole, A. de S. Canavaro, E. M. Walsh, Andrew Adams, E. F. Bishop, G. W. Smith, Ed. Pullitz, G. F. Paris Tea

A pretty little tea was given on Monday afternoon by Miss Anna Paris at her apartment in the "Casino Jones" on King street, where she is spending the winter. This particular set of rooms has often been occupied by Mrs. Castle Coleman, and is always reserved for the family and their intimate friends. Cakes, hot biscuits, tea and conversation made the hour an interesting one. Miss Paris is never so happy as when entertaining her friends, and the tea on Monday was a very pleasant affair. Among the guests bidden were Mrs. Brinckerhoff, Mrs. Walter Brinckerhoff, Mrs. James Castle, Mrs. Alan White, Mrs. Hawek, Jr.

Hawaiian Song Collection

One of the best collections of Hawaiian songs ever put on the market is the "Royal Collection of Hawaiian Songs" issued by the Hawaiian News Company for the holiday season. The outside cover is an attractive one with photographs of King Kalakaua, Queen Kapulani and Queen Liliuokalani. There are fifty songs in the collection, which include all the old standbys and the latest. The paper used is of the best so that the music and the words are very clear. There is none better for tourists or local people who wish a very complete selection of the best in Hawaiian music.

feasion. The table with its burden of violets in lavish abundance looked very pretty, the lights being so arranged that a soft glow pervaded everything. Each lady was presented with a large bouquet of violets. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. Cooper, Miss Nannie Winston, Mr. R. Stackable.

Stag Lunch

Major James Lockett of the Fourth Cavalry gave a stag luncheon at the Seaside hotel on Thursday that was exceedingly jolly. His guests were Captain John O'Shea and Frederick T. Arnold, and Lieutenants Joseph C. Richter, Jr., Jens E. Sieselo, Goss L. Stryker, Arthur G. Hixson, James J. O'Hara, Wm. O. Pope, Orville N. Tyler and Manager Fred J. Church.

General Service

There is a feeling of Thanksgiving in the air. There will be a general service on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at Central Union. Acting Governor Ernest Mott-Smith will read the proclamation. The Rev. Mr. Parker will deliver the address, and the music will be under the able direction of Mr. Livingston.

At Home

Miss Nannie Winston, who has been little seen in society since her last return to Honolulu, on account of the death of her father last summer, has declined all invitations for the last month, on account of the recent death of Mr. Bliss. Miss Winston, however, will after this, be at home, at the Moana Hotel, to her friends, every first and third Tuesday.

Flower Sale

Do not forget the Flower and Plant Sale at the cottage of General DAVIS on Hastings street, November the 21st on Thursday afternoon. A delicious tea will be served, and valuable seeds and shoots can be gotten at a small sum as well as plants of all varieties. The ladies of St. Clement's Guild have it in charge.

Poi Supper

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holloway gave a poi supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chase, guests at the Moana hotel, ex-Governor and Mrs. George Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tenney. The Holloways always entertain delightfully and the strangers from beyond the seas were charmed with their novel experience.

Move to Beach

Mrs. Bickerton and son, who have been occupying the residence of Canon Mackintosh for a few months, have gone to their beach villa for a few weeks previous to removing to a cottage on Wilder Avenue, which they have taken for a few months.

Hedemanns Return

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hedemann are expected to arrive in Honolulu the latter part of December. Carl Hodemann, who returned in such a bad condition of health from Formosa, has almost recovered his normal condition.

Waterhouse Dinner

Dr. and Mrs. Waterhouse gave a charming dinner on Tuesday evening at their residence on Judd street, for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waterhouse. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lew-ton, Brain, Mr. and Mrs. Bottomley, Miss Mills.

Enjoying Life

Mrs. H. Alexander Isenberg and her friend, Mrs. McGauley, are much enjoying their life on Kaula. The motor-car which Mrs. Isenberg took along has greatly added to the pleasure of the trip.

First Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hatch celebrated the first anniversary of their marriage on Thursday by a dinner in honor of the event, which was a very agreeable affair.

Princess Will Return

The Princess Kawananakoa expects to return to Honolulu in the middle of December, and she will be joined in San Francisco by Prince David.

Mrs. Arthur B. Ingalls, assisted by Mrs. Bruce McVean Mackall, will give a violin and song recital at the Alexander Young hotel pavilion under the auspices of the Kiloahua Art League Musical Circle. Mrs. Ingalls has been working with Herrmann, the celebrated virtuoso, for several months and has now arranged a charming program. Half the proceeds are to be given to the Art League, and the Musical Circle is asking those ladies who have been identified with it as members to be patronesses. Tickets are now to be had at the Art League rooms, also from the different patronesses and from Mrs. von Holt, chairman of the Musical Circle.

Owners of automobiles will be well represented at the ball games between the Coast team and the All-Hawaii team. Society people will be out in force in their machines. Following are some of the auto owners who have engaged space: Harold Crable, Clarence Cooke, E. D. Tenney, R. D. Mead, C. Davies, G. Davies, A. Cartley, J. Belsor, Hui Kennedy, Gov. Carter, Gus Schuman, A. Along, P. Damon, Dr. Herbert, R. C. Stackable.

Mrs. Seiden Hingham Kingsbury will be at home at her residence, 1518 Thurston avenue, on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory

of Bates street, gave a charming informal dinner on Wednesday evening for a few of the instructors at Punahou. Among the guests were Mrs. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Camp, Mrs. Stouder, Miss Stouder, Miss Ryeroff, Misses Wilne, M. Pitts, Mr. Merriam, Mr. and Mrs. Emory, Sr., Mr. Dennigan,

The Emory's are giving a series of these dances, which are always delightful.

Guests at the Moana include

Miss Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. Kent, Mrs. J. C. Hearn, Mr. G. W. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Levy, Mr. H. V. Levy, Misses Gallico, Mr. and Mrs. Chase, Mrs. McByrle, Mr. and Mrs. Bemis, Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spreckels, Mr. and Mrs. Renton, Mr. and Mrs. Kettredge, Mrs. Haker.

Thursday night saw an exceedingly jolly dance at the Seaside. Although both the transports Buford and Thomas left in the afternoon, yet owing to the beautiful moonlight and the concert of the Royal Hawaiian band, there was an unusually large crowd and dancing kept up to a late hour.

Dr. and Mrs. Camp have rented their home to Mr. and Mrs. Adams, and they will soon take a trip to the Coast. The Camp residence is a particularly artistic one. Perched on a hill it commands extensive views and the arrangement of the rooms is most original.

One of the best dances of recent date was at the Seaside Wednesday night in honor of the U. S. A. T. Buford. Although there was no organization on the transport, yet every first class cabin was taken by casuals, who proved to be a very merry crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Dutton and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane are the guests of the Fairchilds on Kaula. They are expected to return to Honolulu this week or next. They have been much missed from social circles of which they are the bright and shining lights.

Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse sailed in the Asia for the Orient instead of the transport as was expected. The transport service is "full up" to say the least, and it's a very difficult thing to get accommodations.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young and daughter are guests of Judge and Mrs. Lindsay of Anapuni street for the winter. It is very pleasant for Mrs. Lindsay to have her parents out here.

Ex-Governor Carter, Mr. James Wil-son, Mr. Chase and Mr. Cushing of San Francisco and Mr. Kent of Chicago have gone on a hunting trip to Molokai for the week.

Mr. Robert Anderson, Mr. Greenwell, Dr. Smith and Mr. Richard Wright compose the Virtue Villaltes at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Gill, well known in Honolulu last winter, are stopping at the Seaside hotel with their infant daughter.

Mr. Paul K. Isenberg, of Honolulu, has been a guest at the Paso Robles

Hot Springs for some little time.

Mr. Andrew Adams, who recently returned from a trip to Japan, has been seen in town this week.

The sewing tea given by Mrs. Henry Waterhouse last week was in honor of Mrs. Renton.

Mrs. Alexander Lindsay of Anapuni street has her mother and sister with her from Michigan.

The new bungalow of the James Withers on Tantalus will be finished in three weeks.

Mrs. Henry Waterhouse was the delightful hostess of a sewing tea on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. S. Walker and Mrs. Brainerd Smith are soon expected from Japan.

TOMATOES.

Serving tomatoes has become a science among many chefs. The proof of the following is in the eating.

Panned Tomatoes.

Wash good sized solid tomatoes and cut in halves. Put skin side downward in a buttered baking tin. Put a lump of butter on each tomato, sprinkle with salt and pepper, then bake until soft but not browned. Have in readiness as many slices of buttered toast as you have tomatoes, and lift the tomatoes on to the toast. Make a cream gravy in the usual way, pour over the toast and tomatoes and serve.

Curried Tomatoes.

The green tomatoes are best for this purpose, cut into thick slices. Put into a saucepan two tablespoonfuls of butter and when hot add two tablespoonfuls of curry powder, put in the tomatoes and fry on both sides, seasoning with salt and pepper.

Broiled Tomatoes.

Cut into half inch slices firm tomatoes (the beefsteak variety is best for broiling) and dust with salt and pepper. Wipe a fine broiler over with olive oil, lay the tomato slices on closely and broil over a clear fire. Some sprinkle the slices with fine cracker dust or bread crumbs before broiling. This is a matter of taste. Serve with plenty of butter on toast or without, as preferred. To devitalize, arrange on a hot chop platter after broiling, and pour over them a sauce made by heating together two tablespoonfuls of olive oil, a tablespoonful of mustard, a dash of cayenne, one-half teaspoonful of sugar and three tablespoonfuls of vinegar.

"Hold on!" said the policeman. "You mustn't undress on the steps!" The citizen about to enter his own domicile looked aggrieved. "But, Misher Officer," he remonstrated, "I don't want anybody to hear me go in, an' this such a loud suit!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

GEORGE KEKAUOHA IS FOUND GUILTY

Mormon Case Comes To An End After Nine Days In Court

George Kekauoha was found guilty by the jury of the United States District Court yesterday of the offense of adultery with Amia Lilihi, after the jurors had deliberated for two hours and a quarter. The verdict was returned at 4:20.

After the jury had been out over an hour, the defense was confident that there would be a disagreement, and the prosecution also feared that it would be impossible for them to arrive at a verdict. Their final agreement, therefore, came as somewhat of a surprise to both sides.

Judge Perry, counsel for the prisoner, immediately gave notice of a motion for a new trial, though Judge Dole set sentence for 9 o'clock this morning.

The trial of this case took nine days, and although it was only a simple Edmunds Act case, such as there are many at each term of court the matter aroused much interest and became of peculiar importance on account of the Mormon phase of it, the question as to whether confessions made at a Mormon church meeting, at which there were in attendance others than elders or clergymen (kahunapule) should be considered as privileged, or whether they were admissible as evidence. Judge Dole, after hearing argument on the subject, ruled that the evidence was admissible. Judge Perry took exception to this ruling.

Aside from this phase of the matter, there was little in the trial that was of importance to any but those immediately interested. It appeared to be, as J. J. Dunne put it, merely the story of a village amour, a little drama of passion, jealousy, rage and forgiveness.

It was certainly a good messenger who brought the news to your house that Ayer's Sarsaparilla makes the blood "rich and red." This means so much to those who are thin, pale, feeble, weak, and nervous. After Ayer's Sarsaparilla has cured you, carry the glad message to a friend or neighbor.

Perhaps you suffer from the effects of a warm climate. Prolonged warm weather seriously impairs the strength of many people. The digestion is slow, and the liver becomes sluggish. Impurities in the blood accumulate and cause that feeling of downheartedness and depression.

is of the greatest use in such cases. Its purifying, strengthening and uric-building properties will be of most valuable value to you.

Do not be misled by cheap imitations.

Poultry Pointers

The proper feeding and good general management of poultry are of the greatest importance if the efforts put forth are to result in success; and when faulty, through the incapacity of a beginner, the effects will certainly tell unmistakably upon the health, appearance, and productiveness of the stock. Some experience is necessary before anyone can learn feeding properly, and it takes some people a long time to get anything like a grasp of it. In the matter of general management also there is much to be learned. Beginners are well advised to have good stock when they start poultry-keeping—the best they can possibly obtain—but this advice hardly goes all the way for those who are starting with not the least knowledge or experience in the pursuit. The cost of even a small pen—say, a trio of any of the more popular varieties,—will mean an outlay of quite a few dollars, and when the birds have passed from the hands of a skillful man into those of a beginner who is totally inexperienced in handling fowls, it is quite possible that they may suffer so much from the effects of bad feeding and management that their future usefulness will be impaired. Until, therefore, some knowledge of the feeding and care of poultry has been gained, it is a safer plan not to purchase expensive stock at the beginning, but to obtain first some experience with less valuable birds, and, this having been gained, then to make a start with the best stock that can be obtained.

Be up early in the mornings; and feed your chickens soon after sunrise.
The Plymouth Rock, barred and white, promises to come to the front in Honolulu and take up its position as one of the best all-round breeds.
TO FATTEN CHICKENS RAPIDLY
There are many notions about the quickest and best ways of fattening chickens, as, of course, different people have different ideas. A good run on green stuff for the first five or six weeks is given the chicks by a successful local man. Then they are confined in smaller places, but they still have plenty of elbow room. Abundance of grit is always provided. Wheat meal, maize meal, meat soup, mashed potatoes, bran, and lard are used, and they are fed in turns. An old copper is requisitioned, and the house scraps and, in fact, everything useful that can be got hold of, are boiled up. Wheat is used as a grain food. Cabbages and all sorts of green stuff are used, as is skim milk. The greatest cleanliness is observed, and no waste anywhere is permitted. No food is left lying about. It is gathered and boiled up again next morning. Under treatment like this the chicks fairly jump.

Soft-shelled eggs are a sign of want of lime in the soil.

CARE OF YOUNG CHICKS
It will be found that dry food, such as oatmeal, is best for chickens. Food in the dry state does not go sour. This is necessarily an advantage. The water should be pure and fresh. Special care should be taken that the vessels holding the water should be of such a kind that chickens cannot fall into the water and get drowned.

Be sure to give your fowls a change of diet. Let the ration be light and free, never heavy and sloppy.
A FEW "WRINKLES"
Look out all the birds that you don't intend to keep on into the second year.
Don't let the moult get in on you. Sort them out, and sell while they are in feather.
Don't allow yourself to be overcrowded. If you have a lot of young stuff coming on, see that there is plenty of room for them.
If you haven't room, you are at the parting of the ways, and must choose between the old birds and the pullets.
Which bird do you think will lay the eggs—the one just going into a

It is in a climate such as Honolulu enjoys poultry houses should be well ventilated, if not entirely open on two sides, at least. The two quadrant sides to the usual wind quarter is sufficient protection to the fowl.

Look out for hen lice; hens won't give good results in egg production if troubled with vermin.

GENERAL SERVICE.
The religious phase of Thanksgiving day will be emphasized this year in Honolulu. The general societies will join in a general service in Central Union Church at 11 o'clock in the morning. Acting Governor Mott-Smith will read the proclamation, after which the Rev. H. H. Parker will deliver the discourse. Representative ministers of the various churches will also participate in the exercises. Mr. Livingstone will lead a chorus choir composed of singers from the different churches which will insure good music for the occasion.
The usual thank offering token will be divided between the Leahi Home and the Japanese and Chinese hospitals of our city.

SPORTS

PLAY CHAMPIONSHIP GAME TOMORROW

The championship game of the Riverside League will be settled for all time by 5:30 p. m. tomorrow, and there is no doubt that a record-breaking crowd will be at the Ala Park grounds to witness the game, when the Palama Athletic Club and the Chinese Athletic Club step in the arena both will be determined to win or die.

Last Sunday's game played between the two teams and which was called off owing to darkness, witnessed a huge crowd, notwithstanding a shower was falling steadily, and it was amusing to see the crowd facing the rain, never wavering at any time, but, on the contrary, cheering their teams on to victory.

Tomorrow's game will settle the championship of the Riverside League, and it is safe to predict at this time that there will be a crowd present such as has never been seen before at any baseball games played in this city.

The Palamas and the Chinese Athletics are both confident that they will carry the pennant of victory, and both teams will have the best men available when the umpire calls "Play ball."

Following is the line-up of the two teams:

Palama—H. Zerbe, cf; H. Kehala, ss; D. Keatoha, 3b; G. Paalubi, p; J. Kahaawani, 2b; H. Walker, cf; Kapaoua, lf; Hoopili, c; Kama, lb.

FISHER'S NEW PLAY

Silent Bill Burns will be a member of Mike Fisher's Honolulu wonders. Fisher was a little short on pitching material, so he hunted about for another man. When he secured Burns he signed one of the very best twirlers in the Pacific Coast League. Burns and Gray virtually won the pennant for Los Angeles. With Henley and Burns alternating in the box the All-Hawaiian bunch will have to go some to win a game.

By the way, A. G. Spalding has finished the uniforms for the stars, and they are about as gay an assortment of rags as you ever gazed at. Captain Devereaux' regalia is a feast for the eyes. Don't miss seeing it next week. The suits consist of blue caps, white shirts, red pants, blue stockings, red collars, lined fronts and the word "Spalding" in blue script across the front of the shirts. The suits will be even flashier than the YOKOHAMA, Japan, Nov. 16.—The score in the sixth game played by the St. Louis visiting nine, played against the Waseda University, was: Honolulu, 9; Waseda, 2.

It is noted that the All-Americans were to California a few years ago. But a word more about the Red Dog's duds. Being captain, he will wear shoulder straps, which will indicate his rank. This is something new in baseball, but Brick is fond of novelties. There will also be a "C" of yellow hue on his cap. "C" is for captain. There will be no danger of the Honolulu fans confounding Devereaux with the poor privates under his command.

JEFFRIES REFUSES TEMPTING OFFER.

Los Angeles, Nov. 6.—Jim Jeffries will not fight Jack Johnson, nor will he entertain any proposition for a night with any other person. The call's correspondent showed him Dick Richie's telegram, saying Tex Rickard was willing to put up a purse. He replied:

"I'm not looking for any fights. I'm not in position to consider any proposition to fight anybody. I can only repeat what I have said many times, and that is that I'm out of the game for good."

Jeffries is suffering from a severe attack of blood poisoning, the result of an injury sustained while boxing.

ELECTRIC WIRE NEARLY KILLS BOY

Ralph Girdler Has Two Fingers Burned Off

Little Ralph Girdler, 13 years of age, is lying at Miss Johnson's sanitarium suffering from severe burns caused by a live electric light wire with which he came in contact yesterday.

The high wind of yesterday blew down a large algaroba tree in the yard adjoining his home at Keaukapouka and Dominis streets, carrying with it in its fall the electric light wires.

An evening came on Mrs. Girdler sent Ralph to meet his father at the car line, to assist in bringing home a number of packages. Mr. Girdler would have. It is not known how the boy came in contact with the live wire. He could not let go of it and the powerful current commenced to burn its way through his hand.

The physicians found that it was necessary to remove more of the bone from the burned-off fingers to properly cure the stumps with flesh.

In Spring-Time Many People Need a Good Tonic.

Mrs. R. Boyer Writes From 1421 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill., Concerning Pe-ru-na. Read Her Letter Below:

Pe-ru-na, a Standard Tonic the World Over.

Mr. C. A. Landgrave, Box 25, Coalburg, Ohio, Gives His Experience With Peruna. Read His Letter Below:

From the bracing rigors of winter to the balmy warmth of spring-time is a climatic change that affects every one more or less. A great multitude of people, however, are so affected by the change as to require medical assistance.

If such people neglect to take a good tonic that will safely tide them over the trying weather of early spring, the system is weakened, the blood over loaded with effete materials of the winter season and the victim is rendered an easy prey to acute ailments.

It has been the universal experience of mankind that a spring tonic of some sort is necessary. All kinds of remedies, herbal and mineral, have been used. There is usually great uncertainty as to the operation of the average spring tonic.

Peruna, on the other hand, has been in use for so many years and in such a variety of climates and by such a multitude of people that its beneficial operation for spring ailments has become a practical certainty. Peruna can be relied upon as a spring tonic. It cleanses the blood by correcting the digestion, which is the source of good blood.

MRS. R. BOYER

"If any one has reason to praise Peruna, it is surely myself. Last spring I became run down from the serious effects of lingering cold and several complications united in pulling me down. I could neither eat nor sleep well, and lost flesh and spirit. I finally tried Peruna and it did wonders for me. In two weeks I was like another person and in a month I felt better than I ever had before. I thank Peruna for new life and strength."

Aids Digestion, Promotes Sleep.

Mr. E. Arnold, Westery, R. I., writes: "I wish to say a good word for your valuable remedy, Peruna. I have taken many kinds of medicine during my life, but find that Peruna stands ahead of all. It aids digestion, promotes sleep, quiets the nervous system, strengthens the throat and vocal organs. I have used it for catarrh and to break up sudden colds which is the best of all. I contracted a severe cold once which ended in pleurisy and left me weak, and every change of weather would bring a return of old pains. Peruna now vanishes all pain. I cannot praise it enough. I tell all my friends that it is the best medicine I know for the ills of life. If any word of mine will lead others to try it, you are at liberty to use my testimonial in any form."

Gave New Life and Force.

Mr. B. F. Sellers, 834 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "Any man in my profession often has to spend the whole night with a tremendous strain on his respiratory organs. I have time and again gone home so worn out that I could neither eat nor sleep, and a number of my colleagues have been in the same condition. But Peruna has changed this. I found that after using a bottle or two my system was greatly invigorated with new life and force, and I can now fortify my system to endure a greater strain than was ever possible before. Peruna certainly is very necessary to me, and keeps me in splendid health."

MR. L. D. TOWNSEND

Mr. L. D. Townsend, suite 2, 3 and 4, Century Bldg., St. Joseph, Mich., writes: "I am grateful for what Peruna has done for my family. Six months ago my wife's health was very much run down, lacking vigor and suffering with pains in her head and back. A friend advised her to try Peruna, which she did with most satisfactory results. In a few weeks she was completely restored to her usual vigor, and is now happy, well and strong, thanks to Peruna. I have tried Peruna myself when tired and overworked and in every instance I have felt better within a day or two."

Headache and Backache.

Mrs. Nannie Hall, 12 Herbert street, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I write to tell you how much good your Peruna has done for me. I was so sick and nervous that I was almost dead. I could not eat nor sleep nor work any at all, but was in bed nearly all the time, and was almost a skeleton I was so poor. Now I can eat anything I want and it doesn't hurt me, and I can sleep all night long and get up and work all day. I don't have any nervousness now, but am happy all the day long. I sing the praises of Peruna wherever I go, and I believe it saved my life. I could not have lived through the summer in the condition I was in."

MRS. E. MALMGREN

Mrs. Elin Malmgren, 77 Cleveland street, West Manchester, N. H., writes: "Every spring and fall, for eleven years, I have been troubled with catarrh in my throat and nose and hoarseness. I am pleased to state that at last I found a medicine, Peruna, from which I received great benefit, and I will hereafter use and recommend it. I always keep it in my house in case of sickness. I recommend your medicine to all my friends and every sufferer as an excellent medicine."

Catarrh of the Head.

Mr. C. Hallock, Antwerp, O., writes: "My daughter Allie, after taking three bottles of your Peruna is entirely cured of catarrh of the head of two years' standing. We have used Peruna as a general tonic, as well as for catarrh, and are well pleased with it and recommend it to anybody who has catarrh. Anybody wishing any information can write to me."

"I had been a slight sufferer for a number of years, but paid little attention to it until the spring of this year when my suffering became very severe. I had pain in the head, back, liver, chest and other parts of my body, besides indigestion which caused me much trouble. I tried medical aid, but to no purpose. I wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice, telling him of my various ailments and he informed me that I had systemic catarrh. After using the first bottle of Peruna, I felt relief. I continued to use it until I had taken four bottles, when I felt entirely cured. I recommend Peruna to others."

Doctors Called It Consumption.

Miss Ella L. Matthews, Box 111, Hill City, Tenn., writes: "I find much pleasure in writing you to let you know that I have been taking your wonderful tonic, Peruna. From experience I have decided that there could be no greater medicine in the world than Peruna. Several physicians had pronounced my disease as consumption. I had been a sufferer for several years, and was growing weaker all the while, until I could hardly walk across my room. I was so fortunate as to get a Peruna book, and after reading it carefully I decided Peruna was the remedy for me, so I began taking it. To-day my health is better than it has been since I had the measles ten years ago. I cannot express half the praise which is due to Dr. Hartman for his great and wonderful remedy and his advice regarding health. I do not think I would be living this day had it not been for Peruna."

Ask your druggist for a copy of our booklet, "The Ills of Life," giving instructions covering the most effective use of Peruna. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists. The following wholesale druggists will supply the retail trade in Honolulu, Hawaii: Benson, Smith & Co., Honolulu Drug Co., Hobron Drug Co.

He never give me much more than a nod out iv th' northeast corner iv his left eyebrow, but he was always very kind an' polite to Mulligan, th' little tailor. Except that I thought he had a feelin' iv respect fr me an' none at all fr Mulligan. Th' other mornin' I see him standin' on a corner near th' bank as Mulligan dashed by with a copy iv his favorite journal in wan hand an' a pass book in th' other. That man is a coward," says Grogan. "Tis th' likes iv him that destroys public confidence," says he. "He must've been brave at wan peeryod iv his life," says I. "Whin was that?" says he. "Whin he put th' money in," says I. "It's th' likes iv him that makes panics," says I. "It's th' likes iv both iv ye," says I. "I never see such team wurruk," says I. "That bank is a perfectly solvent institution," says he. "It's as throng as th' rock iv Gibraltar, I'm goin' over now to close it up," says he. "An' he went."

"Well, glory be, 'tis no use botherin' our heads about panics an' crises, as Father Kelly says, are fr th' amusement iv th' poor. An' a time iv this kind is fine fr iv'rybody who hasn't too much. A little while ago ye never r-read in th' pa-pers annythin' about th' fellow that had his money in th' bank anny more than 'e'd read about th' spectators at a prize fight. 'Twas all what th' joynts iv th' gambin' joint? That's th' presidint iv th' Eighth National. An' who's that shakin' dice at th' bar? That's th' head iv our greatest thrum company. An' so it went. Today I read in th' pa-pers an appeal to th' good sense iv Mulligan, th' tailor. It didn't mention his name, but it might just as well. 'Twas th' same as sayin': 'Now look here, Mulligan, me brave fellow. 'Tis up to you to settle this whole matter. It's got beyond us and we rely on ye not to dump us. We lost our heads but a man iv ye'er carackter can't afford to do annything rash or onthinkin' like a lot iv executable f-nanceers. Ye must get under th' situation at wanst. We appeal to th' good common sense, th' patriotism in honor, th' manly courage an' th' cannyess in th' face iv great danger iv Timothy Mulligan to pull us out iv th' hole. Regards to Mrs. Mulligan an' all th' little wans. Don't answer in person. (Signed) Jawn D. Rockyfellar."

Calendar Pads for 1908 FOR SALE AT The BULLETIN OFFICE

Drunkness is no longer considered a crime; eminent scientists and physicians have agreed that it is a disease and must be treated as such. The home treatment that has been used for a number of years, and is highly successful, is Orlin. It is sold under a positive guarantee that if it does not effect a cure your money will be refunded. Orlin is in two forms. When drinking to give secretly, purchase Orlin No. 1, and if the patient will voluntarily take the treatment, Orlin No. 2 should be given. The guarantee is the same in either case. Orlin costs but $1.00 per box. Mailed in plain sealed wrapper on receipt of price.
