ALOHA, FORESTER GUESTS MAUI IS ALL YOURS

Judiciary Honors Pale Compared With Those Won By Case as Private Citizen

Former Secretary of Chamber of Commerce and Fair and Racing Association is Told at Dinner Of the Esteem In Which He Is Held By His Fellow Islanders.

It was Dan Case, the man and public spirited citizen, rather than D. H. Case, Judge of the Circuit Court for the Second Judicial Circuit, who was guest of honor at the dinner tendered him last night by the Maui Chamber of Commerce and the Maui County Fair and Racing Association at the Grand Hotel. The honor and dignity of his new office was a mere incident in the affair. What Dan Case has done as Secretary of the Maui Chamber of Commerce, Secretary of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association, as a member of both bodies and as one of the community leaders for the past 20 years were what counted.

About 150 of his friends, both men and women, gathered at table with Judge Case. The affair was informal and it was reminiscent of the old Spanish War song "Where you know everybody and they all know you." An excellent dinner was served the guests and the program was started early and carried out while the service of the banquet went on.

J. J. Walsh, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce, was toastmaster and at the table with the toastmaster was the guest of honor and Mrs. Case, the presidents of the two organizations, A. W. Collins and P. F. Baldwin and their wives, other officers of the two organizations and their wives and some of the speakers.

Speaks for Chamber
Toastmaster Walsh started things going by announcing the opening of the trial of the People of Maui vs. Dan Case. He reversed the usual order of court procedure by calling on the "defense" to open and William F. Crockett opened the argument. Mr. Crockett went back something more than 20 years ago to a day when he and Dan Case took a tramp up the mountain and the latter talked of community affairs and of the advisability of starting a community organization from which an improvement association that grew into the Chamber of Commerce resulted. He told something of the prominent part in community affairs since taken by the guest of honor. A good name to be valued above gold was the burden of his talk.

Next E. R. Bevins, as a government official, was called upon to prosecute. His prosecution was weak for he admitted at the outset he was handicapped by the fact that the defense went back into "offenses," if there were any, which had been committed so long ago that they were barred by the statute of limitations even if it were a heinous thing to take a poor old "tramp" up the mountain and leave him there, referring to the tramp Mr. Crockett had mentioned in his talk.

Would Keep Good Worker
Senator Harold W. Rice told of the valuable work that Mr. Case had done for the Maui County Fair and Racing Association both as its secretary and in charge of the fruits display at the various county fairs and said he would still need the "rest and recreation" attendant upon agriculture and horticulture and should be forced to take such rest and recreation as head of the fruits display department at the coming fair.

Charming Vocal Numbers
Before the guests entered the dining hall the Hawaiian orchestra had started playing and during the dinner it rendered several other numbers. Other musical numbers were rendered by Miss Eva Rodriguez, who favored with a piano solo and gracefully responded to an enthusiastic encore. Mrs. Louise Jones, who rendered a delightful vocal solo and favored with an encore and W. H. "Pop" Hutton, who gave two fine songs, one of which was quite new to Maui. Dick P. Harris entertained with a monologue, a song entitled "I Wonder Why" and some good stories.

J. Garcia, when called upon, combined humor with tribute to his friend and business acquaintance, Dan Case, and some thrusts at the Judge and some of the well known Mauiites present. He summed up the "Case" in prose and in rhyme.

Letter From Chamber
The toastmaster called on the new secretary of the two organizations, Joseph H. Gray, who told of the trials and difficulties that beset an official who has an "illustrious predecessor." He also read the letter of acceptance from the Chamber of Commerce of the resignation as secretary by Judge Case which had been engrossed by

Fire Marshal Visits Maui and Changes In Many Theaters Come

Several Maui picture houses will be closed and important improvements will be made in others owing to the visit from Honolulu this week of Fire Marshal E. P. Fogarty. In Central and East Maui only one house was given a perfectly clean "bill of health" as complying with all the fire laws and regulations of the Territory. That theater is the Wailuku Hippodrome. The alterations demanded of the other theaters are in most instances connected with the cinema booths. In all of the Maui Amusement Company theaters such changes will be made speedily and the company has been allowed 30 days to put in absolutely fireproof booths, but some of the theaters were not so fortunate and were ordered closed for picture showing among them, it is said, the Nippon in Wailuku and houses at Pauwela and lower Paua.

The trouble found by the fire marshal in most cases was that the cinema booths were wooden structures, tin lined and such conditions are contrary to the fire regulations. In many of the plantation camps there are houses that are similarly affected. There it is common to bring a picture showing machine up to the building on a truck or automobile, stick the lens through a hole in the wall and put on the show. That is prohibited so there will be an absence of amusement for many of the camps.

The booth in the Kahului theater is of concrete and fireproof but the entrance to it is from below, which was unsatisfactory for the safety of the operator. Certain other minor changes are to be made in that theater, however. There is a probability of a complete new theater being built at Puunene.

George Freeland was over from Lahaina yesterday and said that Fogarty was satisfied with the Pioneer theater at Lahaina and the Puukohi theater. Two others of his theaters will have to have new booths built within 30 days. The booths in them were built in accordance with the regulations of the time when the theaters were built.

Valley Isle Circle Is Strong Factor For Maui Social Life

Valley Isle Circle, No. 276, C. O. F., which have charge of the entertainment feature on Tuesday evening, the closing night of "Make Happy" was instituted a little less than three years ago and will celebrate its third birthday on November 29. If it follows the precedents it has established it will hold a anniversary for its first and second celebrations were observed with a dance in the Territorial Building and a picnic.

After discussion of the subject which went over a considerable period of time it was decided to establish a circle here and a charter was applied for. When ready for institution there were 99 charter members. Mrs. Ida Tavares and Mr. Louis Perry came over over from Honolulu and conducted the institution ceremonies. Mrs. A. Garcia was first C. C. and last summer she went to the convention on the mainland as Maui's delegate.

MAKE HAPPY PROCLAMATION

TO THE MAUI PUBLIC AND OUR VISITORS:

For weeks past we have been working out plans for entertainment and amusement during the coming four days, July 1, 2, 3, and 4, the occasion being the assembling on Maui of the Fourth Annual District Court Convention, A. O. F. The finished product of our labors we call "Make Happy."

Our days of preparation are over. Tomorrow morning the gates of the Fair Grounds at Kahului will swing open so that you may see for yourselves the results of our efforts. "Make Happy" will then be no longer ours but yours. We submit it to you for your verdict.

We are offering you, among other things, a racing card of 21 events, six baseball games between Maui's strongest teams, exhibitions of Japanese wrestling by the best wrestlers from all the islands, three out-of-door evening entertainments and the best "joy zone", we believe, ever brought to Maui.

Let the spirit of carnival and fun reign. Help yourselves to all there is.

MAKE HAPPY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Warning Issued To Railroad Men

Executives Tell Them Strike Would Be Against Government Since All Contentions Were Decided by Board.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CHICAGO, June 29.—The executives of six shop crafts prepared an answer to the railway labor board's summons. The board has also summoned 23 railroad men on complaint against farming out contracts for repairs.

Railroad executives telegraphed the railroad employees department that the American Federation of Labor's threatened shopmen's strike would be a strike against the government and not against the railroads, since all contentions have been decided by the railway board.

DETROIT, June 30.—Although maintenance of way men voted to strike, President Grubbs of that body announced he would not call a strike until after the railway labor board's hearing, beginning tomorrow.

CHICAGO, June 29.—Strike orders signed by six crafts presidents of the railroad shopmen's organization were sent out authorizing 400,000 men to strike at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 1. The order includes "all railroad and Pullman shops in the United States."

The railway labor board cited the heads of six crafts unions and officers of four other railway unions, taking strike fines, to appear tomorrow at an inquiry into the threatened interruption of traffic.

All maintenance of way men, clerks, stationary men, firemen, oilers, signal men and shopmen have formally notified the railway labor board the strike has been called.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Officials are planning a motor truck service for the delivery of milk and vegetables if the strike ties up railroads. The railroad managers appear unconcerned.

Two Maui Men To Get Homes on Molokai

Harry Apo, Chinese-Hawaiian of Lahaina, Maui; and George Maioho, Chinese-Hawaiian of Kihui, Maui.

Three others were named from Honolulu. David Kamal, pure Hawaiian, Clarence Kinney, a part-Hawaiian, and W. A. Aik, a Chinese-Hawaiian.

PINE FREIGHT LOWERED
(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—The Luckenbach Company announces a through rate on Hawaiian canned pineapples from San Francisco via the Canal to North Atlantic ports of $15 a ton.

This is the rate the growers and canners asked sometime since but did not get.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
TOKIO, June 29.—The privy council passed the naval treaty without amendments and has sent it to the regent for final ratification.

Hope of Agreement On Coal Strike Is Made Much Brighter

WASHINGTON, June 29.—With acceptances to Harding's invitation received from all parties in the administration began preparations for Saturday's conference on the coal strike. It was intimated that employees and miners expected to arrange their own conference after Harding brings them together. Harding will retire immediately after the meeting leaving Secretaries Davis and Hoover to represent the government. It was said it is not expected the conference will end the strike but may provide a basis for negotiations.

ELKINS, West Virginia, June 29.—A Western Maryland train carrying 105 strikers was wrecked at Lime Rock when the rear-most car left the track. One person was killed and $1 injured, two militiamen and seven miners seriously injured. The car rolled 50 feet down an embankment.

DENVER, June 29.—Official reports say two mine tipples, an apparatus by which loaded cars are emptied by tipping, were burned, one mine flooded, and two railroad bridges burned at Boulder, in the Huerfano County coal fields last night.

MARION, Illinois, June 29.—Circuit Judge Hartwell announced a special grand jury will begin an investigation of the Herrin massacre on July 10.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Secretary of Labor Davis announced the coal operators had accepted President Harding's invitation to the White House for a conference with leaders of the United Mine Workers.

HERRIN, June 30.—The first arrest in connection with the disorders of Williamson county was made when a unioner was jailed and charged with threatening maintenance men at the Madison Coal Company's mine.

PITTSBURG, June 30.—A coal mine enginehouse near Aspinwall was wrecked by the explosion of a time bomb.

Efforts to Enforce Prohibition Law Are In No Wise Abated

Activities of Federal Prohibition Enforcement Officer "Ned" Crabbe have not ceased with the filing of the suit against him. This week, up to yesterday afternoon, he had made one arrest and seized about 20 gallons of stuff alleged to be "oke." In the latter case the owner is thought to have become alarmed for he was not in the vicinity of the goods to be arrested.

I. Higashiguchi was the arrest made through the activity of Crabbe. He was arraigned before Magistrate Mason on Wednesday and admitted to $600 bail. He was already on bail in connection with other charges of prohibition law violation. It is said the map was convicted on two counts in Honolulu before coming here and he and a housekeeper or cook were arrested previously by county officials.

Five of the cases of recent arrests for prohibition violation have been set for July 6 and two for July 7. No agreement has yet been reached by the County Attorney and United States Attorney on the suggestion of the former that the Waikapu raid cases be tried in the Federal court in Honolulu.

No private dwelling can be raided without the preliminary of a search warrant, is the opinion of E. J. Botts, U. S. Commissioner for the Territory, now on Maui trying a civil suit.

He and U. S. Attorney Huber have not been in accord on a number of views relative to prohibition enforcement and the decisions thus far have substantiated the opinions given by Botts on most occasions. He is also of the opinion that an automobile cannot be searched without the preliminary of securing a warrant. Mr. Botts says that recently in Honolulu out of a dozen cases only one conviction was secured.

Time for the filing of answers in the suit brought against Crabbe and the suit officers by Nobriga through Eugene Murphy has not yet expired but it is expected that issue will be joined within a week.

MRS. TENNY DIES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HONOLULU, June 30.—Mrs. Mary Tenny, mother of E. D. Tenney, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George P. Castle, at age of 86. The offices of Castle & Cooke are closed today in her memory.

Irish Insurgent Forces are Driven From Stronghold

I. W. W. and Soviet Aid Reported Given Rebels; Provisional Government Postpones Meeting to Organize.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
DUBLIN, June 30.—The insurgents remaining in the Four Courts building, numbering 130 surrendered at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It is reported that Rory O'Connor, the insurgent leader is among the prisoners. The building is in flames, following an explosion earlier in the day.

The city is taking on the appearance of a great fortress. Free staters and insurgents are both seizing and fortifying buildings.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, June 30.—Dispatches from Dublin say that the insurgents in the ruins of the Four Courts Building are escaping through a tunnel they had dug for such an emergency. A tremendous explosion in the Four Courts is believed to have been occasioned by the blowing up of a mine left by the fleeing insurgents. Provisional government troops are attacking other insurgent strongholds.

In County Donegal communists are reported as actively supporting the insurgents acting under instructions of a member of the I. W. W. from America, who is receiving funds from Moscow.

The remaining insurgents in the Four Courts Building raised a white flag late this afternoon.

DUBLIN, June 30.—A Republican news poster says that DeValera is fighting with the Dublin insurgents. The meeting of the new provisional government scheduled for Saturday has been postponed to July 7.

Last night and this morning the beautiful Four Courts Building was slowly crumbling under the bombardment. The government's deliberate methods permitted insurgent sympathizers to take positions around the building from which they sniped systematically.

O'Connor's forces were unable to leave the building but his Dublin Brigade, numbered 4000, seized nearby buildings where they could do the maximum amount of damage.

DUBLIN, June 29.—Insurgents at noon were still holding out in the four court houses and had seized several more buildings. Insurgent activities are reported from other sections of Ireland. Public sentiment is virtually unanimously supporting the provisional government action. DeValera issued a statement praising the insurgents as "the best and bravest in our nation."

LONDON, June 29.—Dispatches from Dublin say the fighting in the streets is increasing in intensity and that irregulars are being reinforced. The total dead is 19. Stores and banks are closing and newspapers are being suspended.

Associated Press reports of yesterday tell of the provisional government taking forceful action against the insurgents. Government troops invaded four court buildings where the insurgents were entrenched and opened a hot attack with about 700 men when the demand to surrender was ignored. The insurgents under Rory O'Connor are well entrenched, armed, and well provisioned and are believed to number several hundred. Fowler memorial hall was also attacked in the morning which started at four in the morning and was still progressing late in the afternoon. The insurgents were forced to evacuate the hall and retreated to a nearby hotel where they entrenched.

The provisional government in a manifesto denounced the outrages, declaring the boycott against Belfast illegal. A determination to maintain order was announced and a call issued to all citizens to cooperate.

Fielding Averages of Teams And Players In Maui League

Haiku Leading in Team Work with Average of .924; Sports Club Second and Chinese Third; Ray Freitas, Wacs Catcher Holds High Individual Record.

Haiku leads the field in team fielding honors in Maui's major circuit. With a team percentage of .924 the Rice Birds are far and away from their nearest rivals, the Sports, for honors of errorless ball.

The Sports Club, second with a team average of .884 are hard pushed by the American Chinese who have an average of .880. Fourth comes Asahi with .857 and the Wacs fifth .856, just one point behind.

Haiku Players

Greatest of the Haiku players in individual fielding averages is Yama-moto the Rice Birds infielder. Nineteen chances have been offered the baseman and 19 have been accepted, an average in the four games of 1000. Next is Rolph, Haiku's first and third sacker who has accepted 18 chances without error and has also 1000 percent. Coleman and Reis are two other Haiku men with an average of 1000. Haale has demonstrated his ability as first sacker to good advantage and bids fair to rank high in the league at that position. Forty two chances have been offered him and he has erred but once. His percentage is .975. Foster Robinson slipped for the first time this season in last Sunday's game and has now accepted 30 out of 31 chances for a percentage of .968. Chris Cockett is going good at backstops position with a fielding percentage of .889. The teams other players average are in order: Souza .824, Fassoth .750, Chartrand .714, and Jones .667.

Sports Second

Though apparently suffering a slump in batting the Sports are second in team fielding. Ralph Baldwin is the clubs best bet as far as the season has progressed. The catcher and fielder has accepted 15 chances without error, a 1000 percentage. Moniz, Maxwell, and Smith are all fielding 1000 but have accepted less than half the chances offered Baldwin.

Next in line of the Lelandites is Scholtz who has handled 24 chances and slipped one. His percentage ranks high at .958. L. Cockett is proving his worth as first with a percentage of .907. Following these in order are Caswell .857, Arthur Baldwin .850, Rodrigues .778, Rego .778 and Carroll .667.

Chinese Third

The American Chinese, the leading team hitters of the league rank third in team fielding work. Two players are fielding 1000 Shim leads with nine accepted without error. Following him is Wicke who has fielded six chances. Wadsworth ranks high in the league at catchers position, fielding 43 chances with but two errors and has a percentage of .953. Bill Bal at first is fourth on the Chinese team in individual work and has taken 39 out of 42 chances offered. His percentage is .929. Kalua is next with .882, Ah Leong .824, Silva .800, Enos .792, Akina .667 and Haake .500.

Forcing Asahi

Asahi holds a lead of but one point over the Wacs including games played Sunday. The team average is .857. Thirty errors in 210 chances presented have been made by the combined team. One player stands alone in the errorless class, Hirai, who has played in one game and accepted three chances without a miscue. Of regular players on the clubs team D. Yanagi stands out as the most consistent fielder. He has accepted 34 out of 36 chances offered and holds the enviable percentage of .944. Matsumoto is a close second and has also bumbled twice in 24 chances. His percentage is .916. Following these ranking stars are Watanabe .880, Nakamura and Yemoto .875, Masachi .872, Tomoka .778, Kagoshima, Wada and K. Yanagi .567 and Sueda .400.

Wacs Tailing

Twenty five errors made in 174 chances gives the Wacs a team average of .856 and the cellar championship in fielding honors. Five players on the Wacs team however, are fielding 1000 percent. Ray Freitas leads all players in the Maui league. The Wacs catcher has accepted 22 chances offered without an error. No player on the circuit has yet equalled his record this season though Yama-moto and Rolph of the Haiku team and Baldwin of the Sports threaten to reach that mark. Waiwaloa, J. Rego, Kane, and Moniz, all Wacs, have a percentage of 1000. High in the regular players also is F. Bal who has fielded but three in 33 chances and is holding at 909. Following him in order are: Bill Cummings .875, Ah Sam .875, James Alo .818, Wells Cummings .811, J. Silva .750, Aluli Lyons .667, and Bill Cockett .650. These figures include all regular games played in the Maui major league.

Make Happy Baseball For Forestic Fans Carries Fat Purse

If Foresters want baseball, they'll get it. There going to get it in lumps and chunks. Every day of "Make Happy", July 1, 2, 3, and 4 there is either one or two games scheduled.

But its something different from the ordinary routine. In the first place it will be an elimination series, in the second place a purse of $200 is being offered the teams and in the third place one of the most interesting games of the Maui major league will be played.

That game will be between Haiku and the Chinese Americans both of whom have gone thus far through the season without defeat. Last Sunday, Haiku tried its best to hand a lemon with a chocolate covering to the slant eyed Yankees but it didn't take, and the Chinese after trying for ten innings to shove Haiku off the top rung of the wins and losses column were sadly interfered with when His Ump's Bento, unable to find lanterns for each fielding position decided to call the fracas off with the score tied at 3 to 3.

Baseball Schedule

Tomorrow afternoon immediately after the horse races the first season will start with the Sports opposing the Wacs. Sunday at 1:30 the winner of the Saturday game meets Asahi. The second game Sunday afternoon will bring together the Chinese Americans and the Haiku Rice Birds in the play off of last week's game. This game will effect the standings of these two teams in the major series. On Monday the loser of the Sports-Wacs play will clash with the loser of the Haiku-Chinese playoff.

Two games are scheduled for Tuesday and the teams meeting on that day will be announced in the next edition of Semi-Weekly Maui News.

Plunge for distance—Men. Hart first, Walker second. Distance 38 feet.

Seventy five yard relay for girls. First Walluku, Second Puunene. Time :49 3-5.

Fifty yards backstroke for men. Lindsay. Time :36 1-5. (Maui record)

The two hundred yard relay, four men, fifty yards each, was swam by mixed teams. Winning time was 1:51.

Hjorth Pleases

Fancy and comic diving by Jack Hjorth drew a huge ovation from the packed stands. Jack knife, flips and flops, swans, and innumerable styles of other dives were given by the star from the three, ten, and 22 foot boards.

An innovation introduced at the carnival was the clothes relay race, at the crack of the gun the competitors began disrobing, heavy clothes in all directions to be first to hit the water. In the melee resulting it was impossible to tell who won the race.

The women's plunge for distance and the 100 yards free style for men were cancelled.

Immediately following the water carnival a dance on the Puunene club house floor was enjoyed. Again we say, Puunene's water carnival was a success.

Tennis

One match has been played in the second round of the All-Maui championship men's doubles. Tam-Ting defeated Delbert-Taylor. Score, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.

This afternoon at 3:30 on the Puunene courts Engle-Reitow will play Walsh and Walsh and Hansen-Wadsworth will play Yee-Yee.

"The Brides Play"

Libraries of America and Europe were searched for architectural information by the Cosmopolitan experts before the building of the magnificent settings in "The Brides Play," a Paramount picture starring Marion Davies, was begun.

In this picture, which will be seen at the Hipp Theatre Tomorrow, much of the action centres about a medieval Irish castle. The castle is one of the most majestic ever seen on the screen and is, moreover, notable for the remarkable detail of carving, fretwork, and other features of ancient architecture which distinguish it.

Miss Davies plays two roles in "The Brides Play"—that of a modern mischievous and lovable brunette and that of an Irish maiden of long ago. In the medieval part of the story she wears a wedding gown of wonderful richness and displays gems worth $75,000.

"The Brides Play" was directed by George W. Terwilliger, from the story of the same name by Donn Byrne. Wyndham Standing supports Miss Davies and others in the cast are Carlton Miller, Jack O'Brien, Thea Talbot, Richard Cummings and others.

"Hush Money"

As a delineator of strong emotional and dramatic roles many picture enthusiasts insist that Alice Brady has few equals on the screen, and her ability and finished technique in handling a role of this type were again displayed to advantage in "Hush Money", which will be shown at the Hipp Monday.

Miss Brady has the role of the spoiled and selfish only child of the Big Man of Wall Street. She has been brought up to believe, as all the men and women in her world do believe, that money is the only real power in the world, and that it can buy absolutely anything.

Then the girl is caught in a mesh of circumstances which both her father and her fiancé would give a great deal to have hushed up. To their great surprise, indeed, to the girl's own surprise, she suddenly discovers that she is the possessor of that most uncomfortable thing, a conscience, and she defiantly refuses to let them pay the hush money which would buy silence on the episode.

The role of the father, the financial czar of Wall Street, is capably portrayed by George Fawcett, and the conflict of wills when he and his headstrong young daughter clash makes one of the most effective episodes seen in pictures recently. The role of the girl's fiancé is taken by Larry Wheat, a Broadway favorite who makes his screen debut in this picture.

"Hush Money" is the first original story written by the popular novelist, Samuel Merwin, directly for the screen. Charles Maigne collaborated with Mr. Merwin in the preparation of the scenario, and directed the picture. Mr. Merwin will be remembered for "The Passionate Pilgrim" and Mr. Maigne for directing "The Copperhead," "The Firing Line," "The Fighting Chance," and "A Cumberland Romance."

Protection Against

Mice Ravages Found

SYDNEY, N. S. W., May 9—(Associated Press Mail)—Hope that one of the Australian farmer's greatest problems—protecting wheat against the attacks of mice—is near solution has risen from successful tests conducted by a Sydney doctor of a protective preparation he had evolved.

The value of the discovery may be gauged from the fact that the records of the wheat board show losses of £500,000 in New South Wales alone directly attributed to the ravages of mice.

The final test was conducted by the inventor, Dr. Henry Bottrell, in the presence of representatives of the wheat board, primary producers and the press. Mice were sealed in an iron tank with large supplies of bread and wheat, which were enclosed in sacks and cardboard boxes which had been sprayed with the solution invented by the doctor, some as long ago as 15 months. When the seal of the tank was broken after two days, it was found that the mice had made no attempts to breach either the wheat or the bread, no trace of teeth or claws being found on the boxes or bags. All of the mice were dead, apparently preferring to starve rather than approach the solution.

The discovery is particularly appropriate as a plague of mice is devastating many of the western districts of New South Wales. A company is being formed to supply Australian requirements and to establish subsidiary companies in New Zealand and India.

TANKS THAT ARE TANKS

THIS water tank problem—can there be two sides to it? You have your choice between a wooden tank that must be "swelled" before it can be used and must be constantly watched to keep it from running dry, and an Armeo Iron tank. The Armeo tank is ready for use as soon as it is put up. It does not contaminate the first few fillings as wood does. If it runs dry no harm is done. And Armeo iron resists rust because of its 99.84 percent purity.

Can there be two sides to the tank question?

WELCOME, FORESTERS!

Maui's gates are wide open to receive the delegates to the Fourth Annual District Court Convention A. O. F. and to all the Foresters and Companions of the Forest who have come to the convention place for the annual gathering and the attendant festivities. Within, she stands with outstretched hands in greeting of Aloha. She tells them that all she has is their's and bids them make as free with her Island home as if it were their own and to make themselves merry during their stay.

This Maui does because she admires the splendid principles for which the order stands, because she recognizes the beauty of its ideals, because she knows that it is the most democratic of any of the fraternal organizations and because she sees everywhere examples of the good that Forestry achieves. And with this her visitors are sons and daughters of her sisters of the Islands family. To gather them together in her household is a joyous thing.

Tonight the welcome guests will begin to arrive and tomorrow morning still more will come while others will debark in the evening and still others on Tuesday morning. Be they early arrivals or if they come only for the last of the four days of festivity the same glad greeting awaits them one and all, "Aloha, Make Happy." This is not merely a welcome from Foresters to Foresters, but one of All-Maui to all of her guests.

The business of the convention out of the way, Maui Foresters have prepared a program of entertainment which they are confident their brothers and sisters will enjoy. The convention will be held in a Foresters Hall built and owned by Maui Foresters and of which they are justly proud. The "Make Happy" festivities will be within the grounds of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association in which the whole Maui community takes pride. Maui bids her visitors to use them as their own while they are on the Valley Isle.

In the "Make Happy" program will be found a card of races for the admirers of man's friend the horse, the baseball will be between the strongest local teams, the most skillful and expert Japanese wrestlers will compete on the mat, the visitors themselves will join in the entertaining in the evenings on two occasions and the carnival spirit will reign at all time.

Maui hopes her guests will enjoy every minute they are here and everyone on Maui will be glad to have them with us.

WHY IS A PROFESSIONAL?

Possibly the view may be old fashioned but this paper fails to see any great degree of difference in the status of the man who makes his living from his abilities as an athlete and the man who tours and goes sightseeing with all his expenses paid because of his prowess in athletics. The one is securing his livelihood at all times because of his excellence in some branch or branches of sport, the other for the time being only. If a youth of college age be given free tuition and room and board, or any of them, so that he may compete for such college, he is barred as a professional—if found out. That same youth may have all his traveling expenses and living expenses paid from the receipts of sporting events in which he participates and still retain his amateur status. To the man up a tree there seems to be all of the difference that exists between tweedledum and tweedledee.

It is admitted that here in Hawaii the public is glad to pay to see the star athletes of the mainland, Australia or Europe and would have small chance to see them in competition were not expenses paid. That however, it beside the issue. To bring an athlete here to Maui, for instance, there must be an offer made and perhaps the performer or his manager may bargain and haggle to secure a larger allowance of expense money. Certainly it cannot be said for a moment that the athletes who journey hither or to Australia do so solely for the medals they may win or the honor that attaches to their victories. As a cold matter of fact it would probably be admitted by any of them if pinned down to it, that they engage in the performances as an incident in globe trotting experiences, they are primarily out to see the world while their prowess in athletic sports will enable them to do so at little or no expense to themselves.

Where an athletic organization sends representatives away from home to compete for such organization and for its glory and prestige, it is one matter, but where an athlete either with or without a trainer has his expenses met through the performances which he gives, surely commercialism enters largely into the transaction. If he sold athletic equipment or sporting goods while so entour, he would be barred as a professional. If he writes a testimonial as to articles used in sports, again he is a professional, but if he have all his expenses paid for him for weeks or even months from the receipts of the gate where he shows, his amateur escutcheon is unsmirched. It is submitted that there appears to be a "splitting of hairs."

NEW HOMESTEAD LAWS

Necessity for changes in the homesteading laws of Hawaii is seen by Prof. Elwood Mead, expert on land settlement from the mainland, in the Islands to advise as to the Hawaiian Homes project and to be on Maui for the next three days. He is expected on the Mauna Loa tonight. Dr. Mead has looked over the situation on Molokai and has visited the homesteads of the Big Island, not forgetting Waikeke where there has been so much disputing and dissatisfaction. He has reached the same conclusion that the homesteading laws as they exist on the mainland cannot be applied satisfactorily here that other intelligent observers have arrived at, but his views should carry more weight.

Dr. Mead is reported as suggesting that a selective system should be substituted for the lottery system, he advocates reduction in the size of tracts to be allotted and the giving to the homesteader by the government adequate assistance so that in getting settled on the land and operating it he need not become obligated to other interests.

With regard to the Waikeke homesteads, Professor Mead says that, under the lottery system of obtaining homesteads, and from the point of view of the size of the lots, the government might just

THE OPTIMISTIC PESSIMIST

Give a dog a bad name and hang him is an old saying but give a boy the name of an illustrious father or ancestor and you handicap him badly.

Gasoline, women and song is the modern version of the erstwhile "Wine, women and song."

The person who lives in a community and seeks its protection and support and then sends away from home for his every need has a strange idea of reciprocity.

Some one has remarked that jazz music is still in its infancy. Sure it is and sometimes it sounds as if it had a bad attack of wind colic.

The Baltimore Sun says that radio receiving instruments will be more satisfactory when equipped with an accessory that will wash the dinner dishes while all hands listen in on the broadcasting.

Too gay flappers are advised to remember that flowers that run wild soon go to seed. Flapperdom, however, is not half so wild as it makes those who are jealous of the young folk's fun.

A pin will not always stay where it is stuck as was discovered by a seven year old Pennsylvania youngster who tried to stick a pin into a chunk of dynamite.

Many faults are committed for lack of experience and much of the resulting criticism comes from the critics not having been called upon to meet the same experience.

Fortunate is the one who can see the humor in life. Even when the joke is on oneself it remains a joke and to be taken as such relieves the tension wonderfully.

There is many a man who takes himself so seriously that no one else can take him with any seriousness at all. An overweening sense of importance is a serious drawback in every day affairs.

Schenectady has had a municipal dance where the music was received from away by radio. There are communities nearer than New York State that would be glad to stage dances and let some other pay the piper.

With all the faults that are charged to Satan, idleness is not one of them but, on the contrary, he is said to take of others.

As well distribute thousand dollar bills. As a result of the Waikeke drawing, he says, persons of all classes, including bankers, lawyers and other men of considerable means, were given lots, whereas the poor man—that is, men who undoubtedly desired to take up land and would have made good as homesteaders—were deprived of the property.

Where conditions differ herefrom the mainland chiefly is that the sugar lands that have been homesteaded have been highly developed while on the mainland the lands have to be tilled to become productive. For that reason a smaller tract will do here and yield a living while a large area is essential even at the start in the Western United States.

What Dr. Mead has to say on the subject after looking over agriculture on Maui should be of general interest to all of the Islands. The Chamber of Commerce will meet him at the Territorial Building next Monday at 4 o'clock.

To have news of a cut in the salary of an office followed directly by news of one's appointment to that office can hardly be considered an unalloyed satisfaction. That is the experience of W. T. Carden, named to succeed S. C. Huber as United States attorney.

The Territorial legislature raised the salaries which it had power to fix so that compensation of territorial and county employees might be commensurate with those of federal employees and then congress proceeds to make reductions at the earliest opportunity. Mighty thoughtless of congress, isn't it?

Commons has voted confidence in Lloyd George on the Ireland policy. Confidence is placed in George however, not in Ireland.

Great Britain has acquired the habit that is common in many communities and with many individuals. When something has to be done they "Let George do it."

"Make Happy" is here tomorrow and all may go the limit in fun and frolic.

Mount Everest remains unconquered. The British expedition that sought to reach its summit established a new altitude record and then had to turn back. The achievement was great but the difficulties surrounding Everest's peak were greater.

While enjoying the Foresters' "Make Happy" it may as well be kept in mind that Uncle Sam's birthday falls on Tuesday next.

THE FINANCIAL OUTLOOK

The demand throughout the mainland for high grade investment securities, which has developed as a result of the gradual lowering of interest rates, exhibits no signs of slackening. As a result, bond prices are steadily advancing and it appears that the time is rapidly drawing near when the opportunity to purchase high grade investment securities at prices which yield liberal returns will have passed—not to return, in all probability for many years.

It will soon be true that the investor who had foresight to accumulate conservative investment securities at present prices will be in a position to point with pride to the wisdom of his judgment.

Russian Book Tells How Imprisonment Irrked Late Czarina

EKATERINBURG, Russia, April 25 (Associated Press Mail)—Alexandra, the late Empress of Russia, never ceased to chafe under her imprisonment in this city where she was finally executed but the late Emperor Nicholas showed more calmness and indifference to his fate.

A little booklet recently issued by P. Bykoff, former chairman of the Ekaterinburg Soviet, gives many intimate glimpses at the imperial family during the months they were prisoners of the Bolsheviks in this city just preceding their execution in July, 1918.

When the Czar and his wife and part of his family were transferred from Tobolsk to Ekaterinburg by the Soviet government a residence in the center of the city was assigned to them. It was in the basement of this building that they were shot. A half prison regime was established which did not interfere with activities of the imperial family in their own quarters.

Before the Romanoffs were permitted to enter their new quarters the guards searched them. Alexandra protested bitterly and offered physical resistance. The Emperor submitted willingly, but was greatly perturbed. He paced the room while the search was proceeding and exclaimed, "The devil knows what it means! Up to now we have met courteous people and have had decent treatment!"

According to Bykoff, the Soviet officials made it clear to the Romanoffs that they were not at Tsarkoe Selo and threats to isolate the emperor from his family if he offered criticism silenced him.

"Nicholas soon realized we were not joking," says the book, "and submitted uncomplainingly to the demands of the commandant in charge of the house. He made few efforts to chat with the guards, but Alexandra, never ceased breaking rules."

The Romanoffs were permitted to select their own hours for walking in the garden where all sorts of tools were available if they care to take more vigorous physical exercise. Two meals a day were supplied to them from "the best Soviet kitchen in Ekaterinburg" and they were given a gasoline primus, or stove, upon which they could heat their food.

Food packages were forbidden to the imperial family but Bykoff says, "the sisters in the local convent annoyed the guards greatly by sending parcels of biscuits and other delicacies which were distributed among the soldiers."

On Easter the imperial family asked permission to attend church. This request was denied, but a priest was admitted to their quarters to hold service and eggs and special cakes were sent to them by Soviet officials.

Muli Rich In Gold, Visitors Unwelcome

RANGOON, Feb. 12—(Associated Press Mail)—F. Kingdon Ward, explorer and author, has arrived in Rangoon from a nine-months trip into China, five months of which were spent in the independent kingdom of Muli, in Chinese Tibet.

Mr. Ward spent most of his time on this trip in collecting plants for Edinburgh University, bringing back with him about a thousand varieties of rare plants, some of which are new and unclassified. He also found four new species of the blue poppy. These, with their seeds, have been shipped to Edinburgh.

After traveling through northern Burma and a part of China, he entered Chinese Tibet and headed for Muli, a small kingdom, covering about 15,000 square miles, with many high mountain peaks, some of which are over 20,000 feet above the sea. Mr. Ward said that was ruled by a powerfully built man, a lama, who lived in an enormous monastery surrounded by a guard of 6,000 warriors.

Mr. Ward found on arriving there that the lama was suffering from disease, but he soon recovered under the explorer's treatment and thereafter Mr. Ward was given quarters in the monastery for himself and a companion and his servants were well looked after.

In Muli and the adjoining kingdom the party found that the villages, though few and sparsely settled, are all extremely prosperous. This is explained by an abundance of gold which is washed out of the river sand in many places. White men are not welcomed in these places as the rulers suspect that they come for gold.

Mountain sheep abound in Muli, living about the high cliffs, which are mostly devoid of vegetation.

Albanian Children Have to Learn Work Is Not Disgraceful

TIRANA, Albania, May 6—Associated Press Mail)—Work is a disgrace in Albania. One who is forced to it is immediately ranked as belonging to the lowest orders of Albanian society. As a result of this point of view, American teachers assigned to the American Red Cross Vocational school here had first the task of teaching the 60 or more boys coming from the higher Albanian families that if they wished to learn any trade the idea of spurning the hammer and the saw must be dispelled from their young minds.

When the boys congregated for their lessons in the vocations, they all refused to have anything to do with tools. They disdained touching anything that bore evidence of work. They refused to use brooms to sweep out their dormitories. They looked at the chisel and mallet with repugnant eyes.

The American teachers met this puzzling situation in a practical way. They began using the tools themselves, freely and naturally, and continued to demonstrate the value and help of a tool to the workers until finally the passive resistance of the young Albanians was completely overcome and they came to use every implement in the shop.

Long centuries of caste had taught the boys that the real gentleman was he who lived in idleness. A few months in the school and the age-long tradition was practically wiped out. The boys now do all the work, including the care of their own rooms and the waiting on the table of the school's faculty. The minds of these youths have been transformed, and constant reference to the upward struggle of American captains of industry who achieved their successes through work have imbued each with such spirit of progress that the school, located in the midst of a slovenly, idle population, stands out in bold relief for its industry and zeal.

The students are adopting all sorts of other American characteristics. They have yells and songs; they have class fights and colors and they have developed a school spirit. They have taken to athletics, baseball being the major sport, followed closely by boxing. Baseball is supervised by Ambrose E. Kelly, of Albany, N. Y., an old college baseball star.

In boxing their only idea is to punch. Boxing "fans" would be delighted with the exhibition put on by the Tirana vocational school. It is practically all straight punching.

There are no clinches. Each boxer thinks skill is measured by the rapidity and force with which he can land blows on the other man's face without regard to his own protection. Blows are what count to these Albanian boys and they give and take them like Spartans.

New National Park in Patagonia Set Aside

BUENOS AIRES, April 29—(Associated Press Mail)—Snow-capped mountains, glaciers, azure lakes, tumbling rivers and foaming cascades are among the beauties of a great national park which the Argentine government has just set aside from public lands in Patagonia.

The park has an area of nearly 2,000,000 acres. It is situated mostly in the territory of Neuquen, on the Chilean border and takes in foot hills and mountains of the Andes, including some of the volcanic peaks. A third of it has never been explored.

In the center of it lies a lake as large as Lake Champlain, called Nahuel Huapi, over which tower majestic mountains and offering a marvelous panorama of scenery. Dozens of other lakes, large and small, lie cupped among the valleys, some of which have probably never been disturbed even by the paddle of an Indian canoe. The region has been described as one of the most enchanting but little known parts of the world.

The park will soon be approachable by a state railroad, almost completed, which will terminate at Bariloche. Already, however, the beauty of the scenery and the spirit of adventure have for some years been attracting travelers to the region who have not been discouraged by the long horseback or rough automobile journey necessary to get there. Now, chalets, hotels, automobile roads and bridge paths are being planned for the park to accommodate the flow of tourists which is expected with the completion of the railroad.

SHAKESPEARE QUIZ

There are many games suitable for Shakespeare Day (April 23). If all present are familiar with the dramas, it is easy to devise Shakespearean acrostics, anagrams, jumbled quotations, etc. But for average players it is better to arrange a simpler game, and, if names of the plays are to be used, to post up in plain view a list of the titles. This takes all the difficulty out of such a game, for instance, as the old-fashioned "Shakespeare Answers" in which the leader, after distributing pencils and paper, gives out numbered questions, which the players answer with names of Shakespearean plays, taken from memory, or from the posted list.

Here are some specimen questions with which to begin: 1—What village witnessed this story? 2—What date did it begin? 3—Who were the principals in the romance? 4—How did the fair lady answer the proposal of marriage? 5—The Scotch rival? 6—The Irishman who enlightened him? 7—What he exclaimed? 8—What he thought about it? 9—Best man and bridesmaid? 10—The ushers? 11—From whom was the wedding ring bought? 12—Who gave the wedding reception? 13—What was the first quarrel like? 14—What about? 15—How was it made up? 16—What did the world say? Answers: 1—Hamlet. 2—Twelfth Night. 3—Romeo and Juliet. 4—As You Like It. 5—Macbeth. 6—Othello. 7—Julius Caesar. 8—Love's Labor Lost. 9—Anthony and Cleopatra. 10—Two Gentlemen of Verona. 11—The Merchant of Venice. 12—The Merry Wives of Windsor. 13—The Tempest. 14—Much Ado About Nothing. 15—Measure for Measure. 16—All's Well That Ends Well.

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

Wishing Night

By DADDY
Copyright 1921, by Public Ledger Co.

Jack and Janet find Bucky Beaver and his family building a high dam with which to flood the forest with melting snow waters. The beavers want to spite forest folks who have teased them.

CHAPTER VI

Like Paul Revere's Ride

JACK and Janet felt their hearts sink as they watched the beavers at work on the dam. The beavers labored fast and the dam grew steadily. It was astonishing what the busy creatures could do, cutting down trees, trimming branches, and weaving twigs and sticks in the wall that was to hold back the melting snow waters and flood the valley.

What could the children do to save the homes of their forest folk friends that would be overlooked by the flood?

Jack and Janet wondered if Bucky Beaver had a kind heart, and if pleas would make him stop building the dam higher. They rode their horses around the pond to try.

"Please, Mr. Bucky Beaver, have pity on the poor rabbits and chipmunks who will be drowned out if you build your dam higher," cried Janet.

"Please, Mr. Bucky Beaver, have pity on the poor rabbits and chipmunks, who will be drowned out if you build your dam higher," cried Janet.

Bucky Beaver's answer was a scowl as he urged his gang to greater speed. "Work, work, my beavers," he grumbled. "Remember how the squirrels and chipmunks and rabbits kept us awake each day last fall—how they held noisy parties when we were so tired and sleepy after our nightly work building this pond! Work! Work!"

And the beavers did work, work. The dam rose by inches.

"You will spoil all this nice valley!" argued Jack.

"Work, my beavers!" urged Bucky Beaver. "Work! We will turn this valley into a big lake that will grow many water lily stems to furnish food for us. Work! Work!"

And the beavers grew busier than before. Jack and Janet knew then it was no use to argue with Bucky Beaver. He had made up his mind to build that dam to flood that valley and pleas could not make him stop.

"Ek! Ek! See how high the water is rising!" The warning came from Perky Squirrel, who was perched high above in a tree. Jack and Janet looked at the pond. The water from the melting snow was already covering the ice and creeping higher and higher up the sides of the dam. And the pond itself was spreading out farther and farther. The low murmur of the creek was turning into a roar, as the waters running down from the melting snowbanks poured into it. Unless the beavers stopped work on the dam, the rising waters would flood the valley before morning. Something had to be done at once.

Jack swung himself off his pony. "Ride up the valley," he whispered to Janet. "Ride up the valley like Paul Revere, and warn all the animals of their danger."

Janet, with eyes sparkling, turned her pony up the valley.

"Wake up! Wake up! All you animals!" she cried. "Bucky Beaver is flooding the valley and you will be drowned. Wake up. Hopity. Hop Rabbit! Wake up. Hackee Chipmunk! Wake up. Sleepy Woodchuck!"

Jack, left behind, looked around for a way to stop the work of the beavers so their dam would not flood the valley. And soon his sharp eyes found a way.

What that way was will be told Tuesday.

Court Valley Island Takes Pride In Achieving Its Early Ambition

(By W. F. C.)

Compared with the other Courts of the District of Hawaii, Court Valley Island No. 9239, A. O. F., might be considered an infant, for only 11 years have passed since Brother J. M. Machado and Brother A. J. Fernandez started the movement which resulted in the organization and recognition of this Court. They succeeded in interesting some 32 of their friends and acquaintances who appeared to be good material and, on the third day of July, 1911, Brother L. A. Perry, P. C. R., of Court Camoes, officiated in the opening and installation ceremonies and welcomed this Court into the Forestry Fraternal circle. Today it is no longer an infant and its achievements and progress show that it stands shoulder to shoulder with the other courts of this jurisdiction.

Covers Whole Island

The early membership of the new court was confined almost exclusively to residents in the vicinity of Wailuku, but it was not long before candidates from all over the Island of Maui were seeking admission. At the first anniversary it was found that the little group of 32 had grown more than three fold, a total of 106 being then on the roll. The last quarterly report showed a total membership of 438 and since then 25 candidates have been initiated.

Today, wherever one may travel on the Island of Maui, from Hana to Lahaina, he will find a Forester ready to extend to him the greetings and hospitality of a brother. The membership at Lahaina has grown to such large proportions that it is more expedient and convenient to take the Court to them than to have them come to the Court. The same is true at Hana, where now reside more than 50 true and loyal Foresters. Special meetings are held at Lahaina about once a month, while similar meetings are held at Hana as often as members and officers can be found who are brave enough to make the trip over the briny deep on the good ship Makaiwa.

Early Hope Achieved

Court Valley Island's constant growth thus shown, is evidence that it is carrying out the purposes for which our order stands, and the further fact that Forestry has a place in the community, and that Court Valley Isle is filling that place. For further evidence of our growth and solidarity it points with pride to Forester's Hall, at Kahului, which will be the headquarters and meeting place of the Fourth Annual District Court Convention. This building is the consummation and materialization of the aims and dreams of the "original 32" who formed the nucleus from which has grown the court. Before they were together for a year, it is found recorded in their minutes, that, "A building committee was appointed to look into the matter of negotiating for a hall of our own." At the very next meeting, it is further recorded, that "the building committee reported progress, and asks for further time." They were given time as well as encouragement and assistance of a substantial sort, and today it is with the pleasure of real achievement that the court welcomes the District Court Convention to the Home of Court Valley Island.

Foresters Did It

The hall has been built entirely through the efforts of Foresters, the individual efforts of the members of Court Valley Island, together with the much needed and appreciated assistance of the other Courts of this District. Our High Chief Ranger, Brother Walter N. Reed, on the occasion of his visit to these Islands and to Maui, last fall, paid Court Valley Island the compliment of saying that its hall was the finest hall owned by Foresters in the Pacific Coast jurisdiction. It stands today as evidence of what the Foresters of Maui have done and what the Foresters of this district and these Islands can do, and in its silence gives testimony to the strength of the principles of Unity, Benevolence and Concord on Maui.

Sorrows Also Come

The year which has just passed has not been without its sorrowful moments. The High Chief Ranger of the Universe called to His High Court two of the Brothers of this Court, Brothers O. J. Whitehead and Wm. Mangle. Brother O. J. Whitehead, P. C. R., was one of the organizers and charter members of this Court, and was its first Chief Ranger. Since its organization, Brother Whitehead has shown the deepest interest in the welfare of this Court and has been a faithful and loyal member, one always ready to do his share, to give a smile and extend a helping hand to a Brother in need. While Brother Mangle had not been with us for a very long time, he had nevertheless shown himself a true Forester and a brother. He was a most faithful attendant at meetings and was ever ready to do all or give all that he could to foster and promote the fraternal spirit of our order.

Officers to serve for the ensuing half year are Wendell F. Crockett, J. P. C. R.; John Martins, C. R.; John M. Medeiros, S. C. R.; A. C. Franco, Treasurer; John E. Garcia, F. S.; Joseph Xavier, R. S.; Sam Alo, S. W.; J. J. Mahoney, J. W.; Ed. Alo, S. B.; Sam Sniffen, J. B.; John M. Medeiros, W. L. Maples and William F. Crockett, trustees; J. Garcia, Foster Robinson and J. P. Dolim, auditors.

Court Mauna Kea Third In Years

(Contributed)

A few of Hilo's kamaainas will recall the year 1899 when Court Mauna Kea, No. 8854, Ancient Order of Foresters, was granted a charter by the High Court of the World from its headquarters in England. The Order was organized and founded in 1815, one hundred six years ago, and given the name of "Ancient Order of Foresters." A liberal constitution was adopted which has stood the test since then without any material organic changes.

In 1899, Hilo was very shy of fraternal orders, although many of her citizens held membership in courts and lodges in different European countries and in many of the states, of the Union.

The charter roll of Court Mauna Kea, No. 8854, contained about 50 names. The Court was installed and the first Chief Ranger was Mr. H. H. Bush, then a member of the Hilo Tribune staff.

The second Chief Ranger for the court was B. F. Schoen, one of our citizens who has stood staunchly by the Court and helped it along its path of progressiveness.

The Ancient Order of Foresters is a mutual self-help society, managed by its members for the benefit of its members, and in this respect Court Mauna Kea has never been delinquent. In its 23 years of existence here it has extended its fraternal teachings and benefits to many in need or in distress. It has stood patriotically by the Stars and Stripes whenever occasion demanded, and during the great war many of its members donned the khaki and uniform of Uncle Sam, besides purchasing thousands of dollars of War Savings Stamps and Liberty

Bonds during the war against the Huns. Patriotism is one of the fundamental attributes or principles upon which the Order was founded and never to date has the order been found wanting.

The steady increase in membership of Mauna Kea Court is substantial evidence of its popularity in Hilo and on the Island of Hawaii. From a charter roll of about fifty members it now can boast of a membership of over four hundred fifty in good standing. Many members of Court Mauna Kea are prominent in official circles and most of the county officials are members of the court. Several of the members of the local House of Representatives hail from Court Mauna Kea.

Foresters Number More Than Other Fraternal Bodies

Historically, Forestry is in its hundred and seventh year but traditions says that it is much older, in fact that some of its rites and customs may be traced away back into the vistas of the days of Robin Hood and his "Merrile Menne." But aside from tradition it is said the order was instituted in Knaresborough Castle, October 29, 1815, however it would not be surprising if records further back had been lost since fraternal organizations were not in the good repute in those days that they now enjoy. The olden day terms, in any event, are much employed by the order. But its age is not nearly so important as what it stands for, what it has done and what it is doing.

Not only does Forestry preach unity and fraternity it practices those qualities. So also is it with the other beautiful and noble qualities benevolence and concord. The order lives what it teaches. In these Islands especially its splendid growth and steady upward progress make the fact patent.

Nor is the mission of Forestry limited to the teaching of the three qualities "Unity", "Benevolence", "Concord". It binds its members in to one harmonious fellowship, makes better fathers and sons, opens the ears to the cry of sickness and distress and speeds the feet to run to their aid. It is the signal word for members to rally to the assistance of another, it brings comfort in time of sorrow, care and nursing in days of sickness and an assurance against want to the family. What blood brotherhood should be but is not always, that the Ideal Forestry is.

But to return to the historical. In the United States the order dates back 90 years to 1832 when "Court Good Speech" was opened in Philadelphia and within a few years several other courts were formed, but in 1864 there were only two in existence of which Brooklyn No. 4421 is still most thoroughly alive and so is the "Mother Court" in the United States.

Five years later the first U. S. Subsidiary High Court was formed with a jurisdiction over 43 courts. By 1889 it had attained a membership of 56,000 in the United States alone.

Here in Hawaii the order is especially notable for its is the strongest, numerically, of the fraternal organizations of the Islands. In 1879, on July 17, the High Court of the World sitting in the Borough of Sheffield, England, granted a dispensation to King Kalakaua and others to organize a court of the Ancient Order of Foresters under the name of Court Lunalilo, No. 6600. Organization under the dispensation followed and King Kalakaua became its first chief ranger. In due time Court Camoes, 8110 Court Mauna Kea, 8854, Court Valley Island 9239 and Court Wai-aleale followed. Lunalilo was under the jurisdiction of the High Court of the World and the others under the jurisdiction of the Subsidiary High Court of the Pacific Coast.

Owing to the distance of Hawaii and its courts from the other courts of Forestry it was decided to form a district here and in May 1918 the application was made. It was granted in August of that year and the conventions of which the one now to be held is the fourth resulted from the formation of such district.

Stalwart Child Court Waialeale

It has been argued by scientists that Kauai is the oldest Island of the group but be that as it may, every Forester in Hawaii knows that the Garden Isle is the youngest in affairs Forestry and that Court Waialeale is the "baby" of the family. But it is a baby that is "out of swaddling clothes" and for a two year old is a stalwart and strapping youngster.

In many ways Kauai seemed to be set off aloof from the other Islands of the group but the apparent aloofness has been purely geographic and in no sense social. But as a result of conditions which were in no way the making of the Garden Islanders, Kauai was the last link to be welded into the Forestry chain. Since the welding, however, Court Waialeale and its members have shown the true get together spirit of fraternity and at all the District Court Conventions is ably represented.

At home, its reports show, it has grown rapidly and steadily and is inculcating the teachings of forestry in all parts of its home Island. Court Waialeale will let Maui know it is here at the Fourth District Court Circle Convention.

Court Camoes Has Overcome Troubles

(By M. C. PACHECO, P.D.H.C.R.)

The difficulties attending the initial steps taken towards the organization and institution of Court Camoes were almost insurmountable. Although the organizers were men imbued with progressive ideas and willing to explore the mysteries of Ancient Forestry, they were checked in their ardor and enthusiasm by hereditary prejudices against secret societies which made them hesitate before taking the final leap into the unknown regions of Sherwood Forest. It was only after several preliminary meetings had been held and the object and grand principles of Ancient Forestry had been fully explained by Brother A. V. Peters, that the movement took definite shape and was finally crowned with success.

In the early part of the year 1892 Brother A. V. Peters invited a few friends to meet at his home on Vineyard street, to discuss the advisability of organizing a subordinate Court of Ancient Forestry in the city of Honolulu. Among those who attended this preliminary meeting were Dr. Spinoza, J. A. Faria, M. J. Silva, Antonio Fernandes and a few other seekers into the mysteries of Ancient Forestry. It was at this initial meeting that the subject of Forestry and all the benefits and advantages it implied were discussed and explained by Brother Peters, who was familiar with the customs and usages of the Order, he having been a member of Court Lunalilo No. 6600. The next meeting was called by special invitation and was held at the old Lusitana Society Hall, on Alapai street. Those present were: A. de Souza Canavarro, J. P. Dias, Antonio Fernandes, A. C. Pestana, Dr. Donald McLennan, A. V. Peters, Joseph Frias, Fred W. Wood, J. A. Gonçalves, A. G. Silva, Chistovoa de Faria, J. M. Gomes, M. G. Sant' Anna, J. F. Souza and others. The purpose of this meeting was to explain the objects of Forestry and to enroll those who wished to join. The enthusiasm manifested by those present assured the success of what was destined to be the strongest outpost of Ancient Forestry in the Pacific Ocean. Permanent organization was effected at a subsequent meeting held at the home of Mr. A. G. Silva, on Alapai street. It was at this meeting that the name "Camoes" was adopted for the infant court. The friendly rivalry over the question of naming the new-born court stirred up considerable interest and it was only after lengthy discussion over the merits of such historical and patriotic names as "Vasco da Gama," "Affonso de Albuquerque," "Bartholomeu Dias," "Serpa Pinto" and "Portugal" had been thoroughly argued pro and con, that Brother Peters' suggestion was adopted christening the new court with the name "Camoes," after the famous Portuguese poet, Luiz de Camoes.

On September 20, 1892, Bro. A. V. Peters wrote to Bro. T. Ballanstead, Secretary of the High Court of England, petitioning for a dispensation to institute Court Camoes. Later he wrote to Bro. John Falconer, Permanent Secretary of the Subsidiary High Court of the Pacific Coast, requesting him to use his good offices in securing the dispensation, and to have the new court placed under the Pacific jurisdiction. This appeal to Bro. Falconer was not made in vain, as he proved to be a valuable friend and adviser to the new court.

There were many difficulties of conflict of jurisdiction to be overcome, as the Hawaiian Islands were recognized as territory belonging to the jurisdiction of the High Court of England, so the Subsidiary High Court of the Pacific Coast had no authority to grant Court Camoes a dispensation, it being first necessary to obtain the consent of the High Court to permit the new court to come under the jurisdiction of the Subsidiary High Court of the Pacific Coast. The Subsidiary High Court, however, was not very enthusiastic or anxious to have Court Camoes under its jurisdiction, as the executive council feared that the new court might prove a burden rather than a valuable acquisition. In all these negotiations Brother Falconer proved a staunch friend and supporter of the youngster who was loudly hammering at the outer gates of Sherwood Forest, clamoring for admission and full membership in the mysteries of Ancient Forestry.

At a meeting held in Brito Hall, on King street, three names were chosen to be forwarded to the High Court to be engrossed in the dispensation, viz: A. V. Peters, C. L. Brito and Antonio Fernandes. At the same time there were forwarded to the Subsidiary High Court 25 membership applications to be entered as charter members of Court Camoes. There were 40 names, but on account of the revolution of January, 1893, Honolulu was under martial law and no meeting could be held to secure all the names of charter members.

After many delays the High Court forwarded to the Subsidiary High Court the dispensation for the new court, which in turn was forwarded to the organizers of Court Camoes, together with the following instructions from the High Court:

San Francisco, Cal., April 11, 1893.
To Court Camoes No. 8110, A. O. F.
Extract from letter received from High Court with the dispensation of above court: "As soon as the Court (referring to Court 8110) is legally opened it can, by resolution, decide to join the Pacific Coast Subsidiary and to become an integral part of your organization. This will be beneficial in many ways, and the Executive Council here suggests that it should be done. We are all glad to note your great success, and all wish you a very prosperous future."
Yours faithfully,
"T. BALLANSTEAD,
"Secretary of the Order."

Attest: J. FALCONER, P. S.
S. H. C. Pacific Coast, O. O. F.

The dispensation and all the necessary supplies arrived the latter part of the month of April, 1893 and the next meeting of the temporary organization was held at Bro. Thomas Lindsay's house on School street, where the following brothers were initiated in Court Lunalilo No. 6600, as Foresters and the first officers of Court Camoes: A. V. Peters, Chief Ranger; Antonio Fernandes, Sub-Chief Ranger; A. C. Pestana, Secretary; M. A. Gonçalves, Treasurer; Fred W. Wood, Senior Woodward; Camillo Pereira, Junior Woodward; F. R. Tranquada, Senior Beadle; J. P. Dias, Junior Beadle; Dr. McLennan, Junior Past Chief Ranger.

On the 25th day of April, 1893, at 7:20 p. m., the officers of Court Lunalilo No. 6600 came in a body to Knights of Pythias Hall on Fort street and under the direction of Brother Thomas Lindsay, acting as Deputy High Chief Ranger, Court Camoes was formally instituted and the officers were duly installed in their respective positions.

Daddy in Hawaii Court Lunalilo

To Court Lunalilo No. 6600 belongs the honor and distinction of being the pioneer Court of the Ancient Order of Foresters in Hawaii. A dispensation dated at Boroughs of Sheffield, County of York, England, July 17, 1879, was granted to David Kalakaua, King of the Sandwich Islands; John Makini Kapena, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Douglas Harris, to open a Court of Ancient Forestry in Honolulu.

The first meeting held after the arrival of the charter in Honolulu was in the old Knights of Pythias Hall, on Fort Street, on November 27, 1879. At that time the first set of officers were installed by the late Thomas Lindsay, P. C. R. The first Chief Ranger was his Majesty King David Kalakaua, and Honorable John Makini Kapena acted as Sub Chief Ranger. These two distinguished Hawaiians had been initiated as honorary members of Court Robin Hood in San Francisco in 1875. The other officers were: Sam McKeague, Secretary; William B. Wright, Treasurer; Alfred Foster, Senior Woodward; Alfred Higgins, Junior Woodward; John Dickson, Senior Beadle; Frank Godfrey, Junior Beadle; Doctor Chas. Nelson, Physician.

The late Brother Thomas Lindsay played an important part in the affairs of the pioneer Court and for several terms held the office of Chief Ranger. During the turbulent days of the revolution in 1895, when meetings were prohibited by the government, the members of Court Lunalilo assembled at the Lindsay home, and there transacted the business of the Court. Brother Lindsay conducted a jewelry store in Honolulu for many years. It is said that Brother Lindsay was the father of Ancient Forestry on the Pacific Coast, and that he founded the first Court of the Order in San Francisco, presumably Court Robin Hood.

Brother George E. Thompson is said to be the oldest member in point of membership in Court Lunalilo. His interest in the Court is as keen today as it was a score or more years ago when he was first initiated.

The membership of Court Lunalilo consists of an element powerful in the uplift of the fraternal development of the young men of Hawaiian descent, and their influence in the community is directed towards building up a fraternal temple where Unity, Benevolence and Concord forever reigns.

More mileage the result of complete vaporization

It isn't gasoline that explodes in the cylinder of your car and makes power. It's gas—air, mixed in the carburetor with gasoline to form vapor.

Red Crown gasoline vaporizes completely. It forms a homogeneous mixture with 12 to 16 times its volume of air. That mixture explodes cleanly and powerfully, leaving comparatively little carbon residue on valves, spark plugs and cylinder walls.

That's why you get better mileage out of "Red Crown"—and a cleaner, sweeter-running engine.

Fill at the Red Crown sign—at Standard Oil Service Stations, at garages and at other dealers.

Tandy Mackenzie Is Booked for Concerts On Maui, Home Isle

His home island folk are have a chance to hear Tandy Mackenzie, the Hana boy who, under mainland training has developed into "Hawaii's Sweetest Singer" and since his return to the Islands has set Honolulu wild.

Maui Amusement Company announces two concerts, one in Kahului on Saturday, July 8 and one in Wailuku on Monday, July 10. The announcement will be welcomed with sincere satis-faction for it had been feared that Maui might "slip up" on securing an engagement.

From several directions there have been movements afoot to bring the great Hawaiian singer to Maui. On Wednesday it was thought that he would come for a concert in the Ter-ritorial Building under the auspices of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association and a letter was sent off to close with him but the letter crossed one from Honolulu which told of the closing of arrangements for the concert to be given as has now been announced.

For several weeks Manager Harris has been working in season and out of season to bring the singer to Maui. He has secured the cooperation, he said yesterday, of the Hawaiian Woman's Club and other organizations and had his plans well arranged. Wednesday, he thought he had lost the engage-ment but with the arrival of his mail that night smiles spread over his face and he fairly beamed yesterday.

Several Mauiites who were in Hono-lulu recently attended Mackenzie concerts and he won them all. It is said that he promises to be one of the greatest concert singers in the world and there are those who say he will be the leader of them all.

Mackenzie left for Hawaii on the Mauna Kea Wednesday and his con-certs here will follow immediately after those on the Big Island.

DOUBLE SHOWER TENDERED

Tuesday afternoon of this week was the occasion for a double shower given in honor of the Misses Win-fred Weddick and Lois Murdoch, two of Maui's brides-elect.

The hostesses of the afternoon were Mesdames Hosmer Ralph and Leslie Watson and Miss Rita Rosecrans who entertained at the Paia Community House.

A gold color scheme was very ef-fectively used with masses of day lilies and yellow poppies as floral de-corations while palms gave an airy coolness to the room. Cards were the form of entertainment and after a number of hands were played the scores were collected. Mrs. Watson announced that Miss Murdoch had taken the honors for first prize and Miss Weddick drew the consolation. Each was presented with a hat box attractively decorated with striking black and white stripes and a huge taffeta bow held the cover in place. All congregated around the table to watch the fun of unwrapping, during which time refreshments consisting of pear sherbet and delicious cake were served.

One of the gifts which was quite a feature came in a large box, the top being punctured full of holes. Pec-orated with snapping sayings as "Enough for one meal" great curios-ity was registered and much merr-i-

With a beach house supper the "Green Pinks Team," captained by Mrs. William H. It was a buffet supper that was served and the menu consisted of potato salad, baked beans, baked ham, sandwiches in variety, pickles, olives, chutney, jel-lies, coffee and cakes.
