JUST ONE WORD WITH ROOSEVELT.

(Special Correspondence of THE INDEPENDENT, by Charles A. Edwards.)

WASHINGTON, June 12:

Just a few words with President Roosevelt. Is he backing up his words with deeds? He said in his speech at Danison, Iowa, on June 2: "I think you will do me the justice to say that I do not say what I do not mean. I never said anything off the stump that I would not say on the stump. So what I say now you can take as sincere."

So, you admit, Mr President, that your two months' swing around the circle was a stumping tour pure and simple. Now, then, in view of your article, written in 1900 and published in the Youth's Companion last November, on the duties and responsibilities of the President of the United States, in which you said "there are few harder tasks than that of filling well ably" this high office, do you think it entirely proper for a President to leave his post for more than two months at a time to stump the country for his own nomination and election? Had you presidential stumping tours in mind when you said at that time "the President should be held to a strict accountability alike for what he does and for what he leaves undone?"

Were you a sincere free trader when you were a member of the New York Free Trade Club in the early 80's and when you said you would "die for free trade?" If so, how do you explain your letter of resignation to the Secretary, Mr Poultny Bigelow, written after you had decided to desert the Independents, who had elected you to the New York Legislature, and when you had decided to go over to the enemy, Platt and the "professional politicians," whom you were elected to fight and against whom you expressed great hatred? Was it not purely and simply to promote your political ambitions? Are you willing now to repeat your free trade speeches on the stump? You say you are always willing to say on the stump what you say off of it. You are now playing the republican; when will the free trade performance begin?

One year ago Dr Schurman, one of your good republican friends, gave us the campaign slogan for 1904 of the three R's—"Roosevelt, Reciprocity and Revision" of the tariff. If, as generally supposed, Dr Schurman then correctly summarized your position on the tariff, as gathered from your New England speeches, are you willing to repeat those speeches now? If not, why not?

Is there any truth in the widely published statements that the Protective Tariff League people "changed" your views when they informed you, just before you left Washington on April 1, that if you did not cease to talk revision they would prevent your nomination?

Are you now willing, Mr President, to say on the stump what you said

ACTED TOO HASTILY.

Having already spoken of one phase of Mr Cooper's resignation, which is said to have been brought about through disgust at legislative thunderbolts being hurled at him and at the way his proposed recommendations for immense public work were being attacked, there is yet another phase to be touched upon, which is that of the conduct of those in the House who passed the resolution of expression of confidence in him to remain as Superintendent of Public Works. The resolution was introduced by Republican, but it was originally intended as a Home Rule affair, and we are told that when Representative Kellinot first saw it and was assured of its passage, he at once asked to introduce it, as it would look better if it came from the majority side.

When it was offered, not a voice was raised against it, and it went through without any opposition whatever, those in the minority virtually voting unanimously for it. In so voting for it, the Hawaiian minority, whose party was organized to oppose the Dole faction and all those who were connected in any way with the overthrow of the Monarchy, practically ignored their party principles and sustained one of the main factors in connection with that overthrow, the man who read from the steps the proclamation declaring the overthrow. This course showed wherein they acted childishly, not even knowing their own needs and the principles for which the distinct Hawaiian party was organized and afterward established.

Upon the predominant party is the sole responsibility of legislation and of government at the present time, and in this matter, the minority should have refrained from acceding to any such action on their part and placed the responsibility where it should rightly rest. Now they are particeps criminis in a sense, and they will have to shoulder the blame as well, although it was in their power not to have placed themselves in such a distinguished, and yet, disagreeable position. We hold that it was not for them to express such a sense of confidence, which we consider entirely uncalled for and unwarranted, and further, if we mistake not, it is an un-American act to express confidence in an official who is still in office, whose resignation is soon to take effect, and to prevail upon him to remain, which also is an unheard of proposition.

The whole thing—that of the introduction of the resolution and of its passage—was irregular in the most ordinary sense of political parlance and practice. The best that can be said of it is that the Home Rulers gulped it down while napping. It was distinctly anything but a measure in keeping with ideas, desires and interests of a majority of the people of these Islands.

The best that can be said of the vote of the Home Rulers is that they acted too hastily. Surely they could not have thought twice or they would never have committed themselves to an endorsement of purely a Republican measure and the endorsement of a man who has ever and conspicuously been an opponent of their interests, in every way, shape and form. That the Senate endorsed the resolution this morning was to be expected. It was a play—a prize—into the hands of the Republicans of the "superior" body. At the same time it was loose politics—loose business—on the part of the Home Rulers of the House when they allowed the resolution to slip through.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

There is perhaps no man in the country more anxious for a thorough ventilation of the alleged scandal in the Sumner case than Frank E. Thompson, one of the lawyers accused by the Attorney General of malpractice. Mr Thompson's record in Hawaii has been exceptionally clean, and it will stand him in excellent stead in the hearing that began in the Supreme Court at 1:30 this afternoon.

A writer in the Sunday Advertiser objects to the appointment of George A. Davis as third district magistrate. Well, that is rather queer. "Cousin" Sandy made Davis Circuit judge one time and the present appointment comes from the same stronghold. So long as the "opposition" has made, no kick it would seem irregular for the Advertiser to butt in on "Missionary" Judge Davis.

The resolution of Representative Fernandez, introduced in the House just before noon today, requesting the resignation of Marston Campbell from the office of Assistant Superintendent of Public Works, can have no direct and conclusive result unless it is taken in its broadest and most real way. It would seem, however, that Mr Campbell might reasonably take a tumble to himself from it on the state of the popular pulse, and act accordingly.

S Ozaki is out with a "By Authority" in the papers announcing the time Japanese fire claims will be paid at his office. When the United States Congress allowed the $1,000,000 for fire claims it was understood that the claimants would receive dollar for dollar. According to our information, however, a hui of Japanese, with Ozaki at the head, is making a sack out of the transaction by charging the ignorant Japanese claimants a large fee for collection and an additional sum for expenses.

One R Schellens has come out in the Advertiser as an exponent of small farming and presumes to inform the public just how it can "be done" in Kona. Schellens is a "square head" who reached this beach some three months ago, and like the average new-comer has bursted out in a harangue on a subject that he knows no more about than an ostrich. What the public wants is facts, and those from sensible and reliable sources; and a paper can do itself no good in the estimation of its patrons by recognizing the idle spoutings of addlepated malibinis about matters that have been figured upon by sensible men for generations.

The attempted "burglary" of Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth's house on Saturday night reads well, but, seriously, are not these heremaking episodes coming rather swift, even though the election for county sheriff is drawing closer to hand? A stunt of this sort now and again is well enough; but when a public official gets "tips" a week or so ahead of burglaries, robberies and probable murders it is rather rubbing it in on an over-credulous community. If Frank Boyd should be given about twenty years by a jury for his escapade, the most disappointed man next to the coon would probably be the owner of the stage of Saturday night's grand-stand play.

Princess' Reception.

The reception by Princess Kalaniana'ole, which was held on the lawn of her Waikiki home Saturday afternoon, was attended by several hundred people. During the three hours of the entertainment the band played on the grounds. In the receiving party with the Princess were Mrs George Smithies and Mrs Palmer Wood.

IN EXTRA SESSION.

The Second Legislature for the Consideration of Appropriation Bills.

THE SENATE—FIFTIETH DAY.

Met pursuant to adjournment, and after the rest of the preliminaries, the House concurrent resolution of confidence in H. E. Cooper, asking him to withdraw his resignation as Superintendent of Public Works, was taken up and read, and on being voted upon, it was adopted.

Adjournment taken at 10:15 o'clock.

THE HOUSE—FIFTIETH DAY.

After the usual disposal of the regular routine business, Vida, from select committee on Resolution 34, relating to the diversion of Iwilei road appropriation, reported for the majority (Vida and Purdy) that Marston Campbell admitted that he was guilty of the charge contained therein. He said that it was necessary to put Bishop Street in condition for the opening of the Alexander Young Hotel, and that he used on said street, in the Fourth District, stone purchased from the Fifth District road appropriation, and assumed responsibility in the matter. Recommends the adoption of the resolution.

Harris, from the same committee, presented a lengthy minority report, setting forth all the facts, holding that there was no diversion but that it could be refunded from Fourth District appropriation. "The 6000 blocks were simply temporarily transferred for the use of Bishop Street, and that there was an understanding between Mr. Cooper, Superintendent of Public Works and himself that these blocks should be returned to the Iwilei Road by having new stones cut and replacing those used." It makes no recommendation, but leaves it to the good judgment of the House.

Vida asked that the extension of the stenographic notes taken before the committee investigation be read, which was so done. Vida moved to adopt the majority report and Harris that of the minority, and in doing so, he spoke in defense of Mr. Campbell as to Alexander Young, a person who had nothing whatever to do with this matter and who cannot answer for himself here. Discussion was indulged in by him, Vida, Fernandez and Kumalee, and was only stopped by Pali moving the previous question. On the motion to adopt being put, it prevailed by a vote of 16 ayes to 11 noes.

Fernandez presented the following resolution: "Resolved, that the resignation of Mr. Marston Campbell be requested at once by Henry E. Cooper, Superintendent of Public Works, and a copy of this resolution be forwarded to him by the Secretary of this House." After presenting it, he made a few remarks, in the course of which he referred to the Hackfeld wharf, that the Government could raise the money for that, but could not for Bishop street.

Pali moved the previous question, but as Andrade was on the floor also, he claimed it as his right to be heard and was given recognition. Then Pali moved recess and carried.

Recess taken at noon.

Just One Word With Roosevelt.

of union workmen in the Review of Reviews of September, 1895? You then said: "THE MEN WHO OB-JECT TO WHAT THEY STYLE
'GOVERNMENT BY INJUNC-TION' are, as regards the essential principles of government, IN HEARTY SYMPATHY WITH THEIR REMOTE SKIN-CLAD ANCESTORS WHO LIVED IN CAVES, FOUGHT ONE ANOTH-ER WITH STONE-HEADED
AXES, AND ATE THE MAM-MOTH AND WOOLLY RHIN-OCEROS." They are interesting as representing a geological survival,
but THEY ARE DANGEROUS
whenever there is the least chance of their making the principles of this ages-buried past living factors in our present life.

"THEY ARE NOT IN SYM-PATHY WITH MEN OF GOOD MINDS AND SOUND CIVIC MORALITY."

Why were you not repeating on your recent stumping tour what you said of the farmers and mechanics and workmen in your "Ranch Life and Hunting Trail?"

You there said that although the cowboys and roughriders might be "broken by weeks of brutal dissipation," yet "THEY ARE MUCH BETTER FELLOWS AND PLEA-SANTER COMPANIONS THAN SMALL FARMERS OR AGRI-CULTURAL LABORERS; NOR ARE THE MECHANICS AND WORKMEN OF A GREAT CITY TO BE MENTIONED IN THE SAME BREATH."

If you will show your sincerity by repeating on the stump what you have said of free trade, of union workmen and farmers, we will not ask you about your sincerity as a civil service reformer when you appointed Payne and Clarkson to high office, or if you think it entirely proper for the President, who every year must sign many bills affecting the railroads, to ride in private cars at the expense of these same railroads.

"Words are good when backed up by deeds, and only so," as you told us, Mr President, in one of your speeches last July. It is up to you.
