Government Band to Visit Maul.

The News is in position to announce that the movement some time since naugurated by this paper to induce the Honolulu authorities to send the Government Band to Maui for a fortnight has been preeminently successful.

It was at first proposed that the Band should stop over a week on Walluku, Maui, Dec. 10, 1901. Maui on their return from Hilo, but as they remain for two weeks on the big island, and two weeks on Maui. it was thought better to defer the Maul trip till about the first of Feb.

Professor Berger impressed upon the News representative the fact way on Mani, and that no contribuor even permitted from the people of Maui, in fact nothing will be accepted unless it be an occasional fresl

It is desirable however, that the citizens of Maui should arrange of program or schedule of appointments for the band, and also provide proper band stands and light. Prof. Berger states that nothing save a violent Kona storm will prevent bis arrival score of the latest operatic-and

Bagged the Burglar.

Deputy Sheriff A. N. Hayselden and Capt. Wm. Saffery of the Walluku police force did a neat piece of detective work this week, in capturing the burglar who broke the windows of Hoffmann & Vetlesen, Rodrigues & Rodrigues and Lovejoy & Co.'s stores last week.

It proved to be a Japanese named Hosie, a recent arrival in Wailuku Hosie admitted the burglaries, and two watches taken from Hoffmann & Vetlesen's Store were found in his possession. Another one was found in Walluku yesterday and the remainvertently revealed to others,-and ing three watches have been located
