

FIRE CLAIMS

PRATT CABLES GOOD NEWS TO-DAY

The House Committee on Territories Presents a Report Unanimously Recommending The Bill For Payment.

"WASHINGTON, January 10.—W. W. Hall, Honolulu, House committee on Territories unanimously report bill favorably.

"PRATT"

The above message, received this morning by W. W. Hall chairman of the fire claims committee, from J. G. Pratt, in all probability means the immediate appropriation of a million dollars for Hawaii, to pay the fire claims. The bill referred to has already passed the Senate, and a unanimous favorable report from the House committee makes it almost certain that the bill will pass at once.

The bill in question gives the Territory a million dollars outright, and allows the issuance by Hawaii of bonds for $500,000 for the payment of the rest. It will immediately relieve the situation as far as fire claims are concerned, and claims can be paid in full as soon as the money is sent here and arrangements are made.

By the terms of the act, there will be no further immediate expense to the Territory in the payment of the claims. The bill authorizes the use of the $1,500,000, or so much as may be necessary, for the payment of the claims, and it is more than enough. The $500,000 bonds, or whatever is needed, will have to be redeemed by the Territory. The fire claims bill was the result of the sending of Pratt to Washington during the last session of Congress, after Delegate Wilcox had failed to accomplish anything. He met with much success at once, and the Senate passed the bill during the last session. The House it was struck out of the appropriation bill at the end of the session, by the opposition of Congressman Cannon, but since then Cannon and others who were opposed to the measure have been convinced of its justice. Pratt was sent to Washington again at the opening of the present session, and the news received this morning indicates that his work is about to be crowned with complete success.

The act provides as follows:

"In the House of Representatives, December 11, 1902, Mr. Knox introduced the following bill, which was referred to the Committee on Claims and ordered to be printed, afterwards recommended to the Committee on Territories.

A BILL.—To pay in part judgments rendered under an act of the legislative assembly of the Territory of Hawaii for property destroyed in suppressing the bubonic plague in said Territory in eighteen hundred and ninety-nine and nineteen hundred, and authorizing the Territory of Hawaii to issue bonds for the payment of the remaining claims.

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of one million dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay in part the judgments rendered under an act of the legislative assembly of the Territory of Hawaii by the fire claims commission of that Territory for property destroyed in the suppression of the bubonic plague in said Territory in the years eighteen hundred and ninety-nine and nineteen hundred.

"Sec. 2. That the governor and secretary of said Territory are hereby authorized to issue the bonds of that Territory in such sum, not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, as, together with the money hereby appropriated, may be sufficient to pay all of said judgments. Said bonds shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard weight and fineness, shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, and be redeemable in not less than five years and payable in not more than fifteen years from the date of issuance. The principal and interest of all bonds shall be exempt from any and all taxes, and the payment thereof shall constitute a charge on the revenues of the Territory of Hawaii. Said bonds shall be sold at not less than their face value, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of the judgments aforesaid and to no other purpose, and they shall be of such form and denominations and be issued and sold under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior shall prescribe.

"Sec. 3. That under no circumstances shall any such judgment claimant, or anyone claiming through him, be required to pay, nor shall any attorney or agent be entitled to charge, demand, or receive, directly or indirectly, more than ten per centum upon the amount recovered as compensation for services or labor of any kind or character in the prosecution or establishment of the claim, and in cases of contracts or agreements providing for payment of less than ten per centum the payment shall not be increased above the percentage so agreed upon. Before any such judgment shall be paid hereunder the governor of said Territory must certify that the same is genuine and was duly rendered in pursuance of the act of the legislative assembly of the Territory; and the payment of said judgments shall be in full satisfaction and discharge of any and all claims or demands against said Territory or the United States on account of any property destroyed in the said suppression of the bubonic plague."

Beet Sugar And Cuba

Associated Press Cable to the Star.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 10.—Senator Burrows of Michigan, representing the beet sugar interests, in conference with President Roosevelt today indicated that the Cuban treaty now pending in the Senate is objectionable to the interests he represents because it does not insure the stability of the tariff provided for any specified time. The Michigan Congressional delegation will oppose the ratification of the treaty unless it is amended to fix its duration for five years.

The President did not indicate his attitude on the amendment proposed by Burrows. Other beet sugar states will join in the opposition unless the amendment is made.

Associated Press Cable to the Star.

OTTAWA, Jan. 10.—The Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company has applied to Parliament for permission to incorporate for the purpose of transacting business between Canada, Great Britain and other places. The application will beyond any doubt be favorably acted upon by Parliament.

This action of the Marconi people is especially significant as it indicates that the problem of extended marine telegraphing has been successfully solved by Marconi. The application from the Marconi has been expected here for several days, as it was announced soon after the success which attended Marconi's efforts to send a wireless message across the Atlantic to King Edward, that the company would without delay organize for the purpose of competing with the ocean cable companies.

GOV. DOLE RETURNS

Governor Dole returned on the Kilauea today from a visit to Hawaii. He has been absent nearly a month in the Hawaiian mountains on a hunting trip. During his absence he examined some of the homesteads in the Waimea district. "I had a delightful hunting trip," said Governor Dole, "and feel greatly improved by my stay on Hawaii. ## ADRIFT FOR THREE DAYS

CURZON AS A STAGE MANAGER

MAGNIFICENT PAGEANTS AT THE DURBAR AT DELHI—JUST LIKE THE ARABIAN NIGHTS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: The morning journals are filled with details of Oriental pageantry and magnificence at Delhi. The Durbar was, perhaps, a less picturesque function than the state entry into Delhi, with its long double file of richly caparisoned elephants, but there was a larger representation of Indian princes and a greater display of military forces. Accounts of the procession of elephants and vassal princes read like a new chapter of "The Arabian Nights." Details of the proclamation of the King and Emperor from the throne with golden lions formed a sequel to the Oriental romance of British dominion, of which a statesman with Hebraic imagination was the author. Lord Curzon has brought out a new edition de luxe in the ancient Mogul capital.

Curzon's genius as a stage manager, with his unique knowledge of Oriental character, is also recognized, and there is a conviction that he will enact a great part in imperial politics after his return from India.

HOPE AND YOHE

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—A cable to the Journal from London says: Thanks to the efforts of mutual friends of Lord Francis Hope and May Yohe, a handsome sum of money was cabled today to the actress, now the wife of Putnam Bradley Strong, in New York, as a compromise of her claim against her former husband.

May Yohe's claim was based on a note for $45,000, dated April 19, 1901, and given to May Yohe, who was then Lady Francis Hope, by Lord Hope. The latter is thought to have acted chivalrously in the matter, for the compromise, although under the face value of the note is substantial. It is thought unlikely that May Yohe could have recovered the full amount in court, and even if her claim had been allowed, she would have been compelled to take her chances with other creditors in the bankruptcy court.

SUMNER ROBBED SAYS DE BOLT

THE COURT ORDERS ALL THE OLD MAN'S MONEY TURNED OVER TO HIM AND ADMINISTERS SCATHING REBUKES TO THE ATTORNEYS WHO GOT BIG FEES FROM HIM.

The John K. Sumner case, one of the most remarkable and sensational trials ever held in the circuit court here, ended last night with an immediate ruling by De Bolt to the effect that Sumner was entitled not only to the $48,025 which he deposited in the bank only to have it tied up by greedy relatives, but to all of his money, including that which he gave away "under a misapprehension." The trial was remarkable in that every attorney appearing in the contest had received a fee from John K. Sumner and it was sensational because the lawyers spent as much time vilifying one another as they did in presenting the issues of the case. The court's finding included a stinging rebuke for the attorneys all round. Judge De Bolt declared that the attorneys' fees were "simply outrageous." "The idea of a fee of $10,000 for a little probate case," said the judge. "Think of it, gentlemen, a little probate guardianship case and the attorneys getting $10,000." As to the money given away by Sumner the court said: "It seems to be not improper for me

THE WAHIAWA DITCH

In the current issue of Thrums Annual there is given the following interesting account of the Wahiawa ditch which is the beginning of the utilization of an immense amount of water that annually falls on the Koolau range of mountains, but has not up to the present been utilized except as nature has brought it to where it can be. The article is written by W. B. Thomas.

On the 10th of May, 1902, the water was turned for the first time from the north branch of the Kaula stream into the ditch of the Wahiawa Water Company. This was an important event in the history of the Wahiawa Colony, as the question of an abundant water supply for irrigation and domestic purposes was settled for all time. The source of this water is in the rain belt of the Koolau mountains, east of Wahiawa, and is practically never-failing. Scarcely a day passes, particularly in the summer months, that it does not rain in this point in the range.

Work on the system was commenced in June, 1900. First preliminary surveys were made and trails constructed. One trail six miles long was made on the top or ridge of the mountain, in order to get to the headwaters of the stream. This was completed in July, 1900. A contour trail was then begun by ascertaining the point at which it was desired to discharge the water on the Colony lands to the point at which it could be taken from the stream. This trail is twelve miles long. Both trails had to be cut through impassable jungles of ferns, vines and trees, often on the precipitous side of the mountain, and required a great deal of labor and expense to build. The scenery along the mauka trail is indescribably grand. Probably nowhere else on the island is it possible to view our luxuriant natural tropical growth as here.

In the construction of the ditch there are thirty-seven tunnels, with an aggregate length of 16,740 feet. The longest tunnel is 1,860 feet and cuts off three miles of contour trail. Of open ditch in the mountains there are 3,319 feet; embanked ditch, 3,200 feet; fluming (in storm-water overshoots) 300 feet. Length of distributing ditches on Colony lands, 30,325 feet. The number of yards moved in construction of ditch is as follows: Earth, 24,836; soft rock, 27,423; hard rock (requiring blasting), 3,158. The total cost of the work was $80,000.

The capacity of the ditch is 140 cubic feet per second (3,769,920 gallons per hour) and one-third of the water passing through it belongs to and is inseparable from the lands of the Wahiawa Colony. The remaining two-thirds goes to the Waialua Agricultural Co.

At the lower end of the main ditch, a short distance below the point at which the colony water is taken out, the Company will erect an electric power plant the coming year. There is at this point an available fall of 210 feet, and it is estimated that 400 horse power can be generated. This will be transmitted to Waialua and used in running the plantation pumps.

H. Clay Kellogg, of Santa Ana, Cal., was the chief engineer. He was assisted by Eugene Valjean, of Anaheim, Cal., who towards the last had the entire supervision of the work. L. G. Kellogg, of Wahiawa, (brother of the chief engineer) is manager of the company and has acted in that capacity since its inception.

INVENT A POUCH FOR DISTRIBUTING STAGE-ROUTE MAIL.

SANTA ROSA, Dec. 23.—Postmaster George B. Baer of Cloverdale, in the northern portion of this county, has invented a small canvas pouch for use in the distribution of mails along stage routes emanating from his office, which has proved eminently satisfactory. The Postal Department has taken hold of the matter and intends using them on the stage routes all over the country, and Baer is to receive a royalty on all that are manufactured by the Government. The device is simple—a pouch on the order of the large mail sacks, with two sets of fastenings. The mail of each person along the line is placed in a separate sack, bearing the name, and thus the stage driver is relieved of the necessity of sorting the mail as he goes along. The sacks are hung on a hook placed for that purpose and returned to the Postoffice daily. Frequently parties send for stamps and money orders in these sacks placing their money and their application in the sack which is then securely locked.

to state that the old man has a right to action to recover the $10,000 paid to Maria S. Davis, and the $10,000 to William S. Ellis, and $10,000 paid to John S. Ellis, from the simple fact that it was paid without consideration and under a misapprehension, and the same thing relates to Mr. Cathcart. Now as to the attorney's fees, the evidence shows that $2500 was paid to Mr. Humphreys, and $2500 was paid to Mr. Magoon, $2500 to Mr. Davis and $2500 to the firm of Humphreys, Thompson and Watson. Now without stating expressly the thought I have in my mind, I want to say that it seems to me the old man has been robbed.

"It may be remarked also," continued the court, "that it seemed immaterial who the attorneys were, John K. Sumner paid the bills all the same, whether they were for or against him. The fees were at least one hundred per cent too much, if not greater. The Catholic church received $10,000, whether as a gift or not I don't know, but it seems to me that it is able to pay your attorney's fee out of that sum. I don't think John K. Sumner should be called upon to pay out any more money, when out of $10,000 he has only $45,000 left, and this had to be paid for that. It is about time a halt was called."

The court was replying in these remarks to an application of T. McCants Stewart for a fee as attorney for the late Bishop. Stewart did not get any of the $10,000 and took no part in the real contest, being only the representative of the late bishop in his efforts to get rid of the whole matter. The court held that he must look to the Bishop's estate for his fee.

Davis and Humphreys both complained of the court's severe criticism, the former referring to work he had done free for widows and orphans and declaring that it was through his efforts that Sumner had got $110,000 for his lands and instead of $100,000. Humphreys said he had done other work for Sumner. Humphreys added that the court's remarks were sufficient to warrant the attorney general in bringing disbarment proceedings against all the attorneys in the case. Judge De Bolt, however, refused to modify his statements, remarking that it didn't appear that any extra services had been performed, and the fees aggregating $10,000 were outrageous.

De Bolt's decision, given at once after the close of the arguments yesterday, was in effect that Sumner's trust deed to Bishop Gullett was a revocable deed and had been revoked, also that all parties had agreed to its revocation, including those who were seeking to declare it still in force. The judge stated that he did not think the so-called heirs had either a legal or a moral claim on Sumner's property. The court said in part:

"We find him selling property for $110,000 which it is intimated is worth $250,000, and he appears in court with the $110,000 slipping away and vanishing excepting $45,025.

"I will try and undertake to account for this: $30,000 was paid to the Ellises, $10,000 to Maria S. Davis, $10,000 was paid to the various attorneys in the case, and it seemed absolutely immaterial who the attorneys worked for, John K. Sumner paid those who worked against him and those who worked for him alike. Then there were $1,000 paid to R. W. Cathcart, for which Cathcart says he worked for Sumner, and I judged from the tone of his testimony that he did not expect to receive any pay for it. Mr. Sumner says that all he did was to look over some accounts for him, and he paid him fifteen dollars for that; and $10,000 to the Catholic church. This does not quite account for all the money, and the evidence is not quite clear as to what became of the remainder.

"On the other hand if this deed was not revoked by the acts of the old man, it seems established beyond question that there was an agreement between all parties concerned that it should be terminated, and that the Ellis children and Maria Davis entered into an arrangement by which the whole matter was settled.

"Now it seems also that the Bishop understood that the trust was closed; he considered that he was still trustee, he would have claimed possession of this money. But we find that Magoon and Sumner went to the church, where there was a meeting, and the Bishop went over his accounts, and found that the books showed a balance of $45,025 for which he drew a check and handed to John K. Sumner. Why did the Bishop do that? Because he understood that the trust was terminated.

"Then there is the revocation in court. All the facts and circumstances point to the fact that the deed was revocable; it was testamentary in character, and the peculiar circumstances under which it was executed, show that if it was not revocable, then the action of all parties concerned has revoked it. The fact that it is revoked in different ways, and it is not necessary to rely simply on this statement of fact.

"The deed on its face seems to have such language as to give the idea that it was intended only to give a power of attorney to the Bishop, and though he is called the trustee he was simply the agent of John K. Sumner. I therefore hold that the deed in evidence has been revoked and the trust thereby created is terminated and that all the property which appears to have been conveyed by reason of the termination of the trust and the settlements, vests in John K. Sumner, and that the $45,025 now deposited in court is the money and property of John K. Sumner and that the same be delivered and paid over to him forthwith."

Humphreys gave notice of appeal and the question of the right of appeal will be argued later.

INCOME TAX CASE.

The brief for the assessor in the matter of the income tax appeal of the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar company was filed in the Supreme court yesterday by Robertson and Wilder. It is contended in behalf of the assessor that the deterioration in value of abandoned buildings does not constitute a loss of income, or a reduction in value of the whole plantation, the abandonment having been for the purpose of increasing the plantation value by occupying better buildings.

The Hawaiian Star.

DAILY AND SEMI-WEEKLY.

Published every afternoon (except Sunday) by the Hawaiian Star Newspaper Association, Limited.

Frank L. Hoogs,

Manager

SATURDAY, JANUARY 10, 1903.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII, OCTOBER, TERM, 1902.

In the Matter of the Application of the Hawaiian Star Newspaper Association, Limited, to have The Hawaiian Star and The Semi-Weekly Star Declared Newspapers of General Circulation.

ORDER.

The petition of the Hawaiian Star Newspaper Association, Limited, having this day regularly come on to be heard and it having been satisfactorily shown to the Court that the Hawaiian Star Newspaper Association, Limited, is a corporation, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the Territory of Hawaii; that said corporation is engaged in printing, publishing and selling at Honolulu, in said Territory, two certain newspapers, to wit: "The Hawaiian Star" and "The Semi-Weekly Star"; that the Hawaiian Star is a newspaper of general circulation throughout the Territory of Hawaii, printed and published at Honolulu daily except Sunday in the English language; that it has been so printed and published for a period of nine years last past; that the Semi-Weekly Star is a newspaper of general circulation throughout the Territory of Hawaii, printed and published at Honolulu on Tuesdays and Fridays of each week in the English language; that it has been so printed and published for a period of eight years last past; and that both said newspapers are suitable for advertising proceedings, orders, judgments and decrees entered or rendered in the Courts of the Territory of Hawaii;

NOW THEREFORE, in pursuance of the provisions of Chapter 36 of the Session Laws of 1892, it is hereby declared that The Hawaiian Star and The Semi-Weekly Star are newspapers of general circulation suitable for advertising proceedings, orders, judgments and decrees entered or rendered in the Courts of the Territory of Hawaii, whenever such advertisement shall be necessary.

By the Court:

GEORGE LUCAS,

Clerk.

Dated at Honolulu this 8th day of January, 1903.
Honolulu Oahu, ss.

I hereby certify that the foregoing "Order" is a full, true and correct copy of the order on file in the Clerk's Office of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii, in the above entitled matter.

Witness by hand and the Seal of the Supreme Court at Honolulu, Oahu, this 9th day of January, 1903.

J. A. THOMPSON,

Deputy Clerk Supreme Court, Territory of Hawaii.

THE SUMNER HOLD UP.

Honolulu has seen luckless spendthrift wards paying attorneys for both sides of long continued legal contests. In the Sumner case we had the outrageous spectacle of an infirm old man paying large fees to lawyers for three different sides of a contest over his own money, and a contest having so little merit that a couple of weeks of hard work by the lawyers in question gave the court so little to think over in deciding the case that a ruling was made orally at once when the arguments closed.

The case has been a disgraceful one, from its inception, both for the attorneys and litigants, but in the biting comments of the trial judge there is a warning to others which is likely to have a good effect in deterring others from bringing such actions in future. The remarks of one of the counsel regarding disbarment were quite natural. If the court's comments upon the actions of the attorneys warranted disbarment proceedings, so did the statements of the learned counsel about each other. The public is little interested in whether John K. Sumner gets ten thousand or a hundred thousand of his money except as the issue involves the integrity of the courts and their officers. With a court that would "stand in" with such a hold-up as was attempted in the Sumner case, it would not be safe for an old man to land in Honolulu with credit at the banks, just as it actually was not safe for Sumner. All that were needed were some relatives and claims, and he must divide his fortune to buy the privilege of going away.

PLAGUE IN MAZATLAN.

There is very evidently a plague scare in Mexico. We have had to deal with plague and know something of the conditions. We met our attack of plague not apathetically but vigorously. There were those who would have had us yield to the inevitable, and use only temporizing measures. We decided that temporizing measures would be of no avail, and set to work to eradicate it. In this we succeeded. Sporadic cases did appear after the main attack, but they never spread, and we are now, and have been for a long time free from all fear of the disease.

The fight which we waged against the plague was a most expensive one, as all fights in sudden emergencies must be, but the result has justified the expenditure. When the plague attacked us we had a full treasury, when it was conquered, the treasury was empty and there were large claims against the government. These claims we might have liquidated, but annexation came and deprived us of a large source of income from our customs duties.

But our fight against the plague was not only one to protect ourselves, it also protected the ports of the mainland. It was an affair of outposts. Had our outpost given in, the west coast of the mainland would have been seriously threatened. This congress has recognized, and it is upon this ground that we shall have the "fire claims" paid by Federal appropriation.

The United States, or the west coast of the United States is now threatened with plague by way of Mexico. Knowing the habits of the Mexicans, and appreciating the ignorance and superstition of the population, we can not look forward to a fight being carried on as successfully in the Southern Republic as it was here. The danger to the west coast is much more serious now than it was when we fought the dread disease and conquered the fell destroyer in our own archipelago.

While the matter of securing tourist travel is one of the greatest interest to the community, the sanitary condition of the city ought not to be jeopardized in the effort for tourists. The Board of Health is now following out a comprehensive system of inspection and preventive measures for the protection of Honolulu against the invasion of epidemics. These efforts should not be crippled by the diversion of funds from that purpose, to even so important a purpose as that of securing a big tourist trade. One epidemic, however quickly quelled, would do more damage to our tourist prospects, than all the tourist efforts possible to put forth could repair in a long while.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

More recently representatives of the coal, iron and steel cartels met in Cologne and adopted the policy of paying a bounty to such members as exported their products, equal to the difference between the current price of the product in German markets and the price actually obtained for it in the foreign market, and an office was created and manned to verify claims made for this bounty.—St. Paul Dispatch.

In the Philadelphia Terminal market removed and cured frogskins have some slight value. They are used, it seems, in bookbinding; not in general bookbinding, but in the fantastic, "precious" sort—used, in a word, as chicken skins were used in the book of the time of Carlo Van Loo. Frog skins make a very fine, soft leather, and in dyeing it will take the most delicate colors. Hence it is inlaid in circles and stars for centerpieces, into the calf or the crushed levant of sumptuous book covers, and it makes a very striking and beautiful decoration. A noted English binder has achieved some of his best effects by the judicious employment of frog skins as a decorative art.—New York Commercial.

The Episcopal diocesan convention of Springfield, Ill., has voted in favor of changing the name of the church from the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States of America to the American Catholic church in the United States. Bishop Seymour led the debate in favor of change, pointing out that the word Protestant is a misnomer, since the church has always affirmed and never protested, and that the word Episcopal is tautological, since a church cannot exist without bishops.—Hartford Times.

An illustration of what has been happening in Fifth avenue, New York, is the fact that George C. Boldt, proprietor of the Waldorf-Astoria, has received an offer of $1,500,000 for the property which he owns in the block on the east side of Fifth avenue, between Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh avenues. He bought the parcels about two years ago for $225,000, and owns almost the entire block front.—Hartford Times.

Australia produces, in round numbers, 200,000,000 pounds of wool a year and a great deal of it would come to the United States if it were not for the wool tariff, which protects our market and makes the wool industry a profitable one for American growers. That the tariff does not operate against the consumer in this country is seen in the simple fact that woolen clothing here is cheaper for the same quality than in any other country in the world, with one or two exceptions. It makes a vast difference in Montana, where the wool markets would be flooded from Canada if it were not for the tariff.—Butte Inter-Mountain.

A labor clearing house has been organized in Chicago and disputes between employers and employees will be settled by arbitration hereafter if the plan works as well as its projectors expect it to do. At present the clearing house directly affects only merchants who have teaming to do and the men who do the handling for them, but other industries will be drawn into the plan in this way.—Minneapolis Times.

Are you easily tired? Is your work a burden? Do you often feel weak and faint? Is your appetite poor?
 Are you easily discouraged? Then your nerves are weak and your blood impure. Sickness is not far away.

My friend, Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, Mass., sends his photograph and this letter:
 "My blood often becomes impure, causing eruptions on the skin, and my general system goes all the time, causing indigestion and great debility. But I take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which quickly brings about my troubles.
 For all those who are debilitated and weakened by the poisonous humors of our country, there is no remedy equal to this grand family medicine."

Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations "Sarsaparilla."
 Be sure you get Ayer's.

Always keep your bowels in good condition

SAN FRANCISCO AND THE CABLE

HOW THE SAN FRANCISCO-CHRONICLE DESCRIBES THE OPENING OF CABLE COMMUNICATION WITH HONOLULU—MESSAGES THAT WERE FLASHED BACK AND FORTH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—The new Pacific cable has been crowded with messages ever since the first flutter came through the wire from Honolulu shortly after 11 o'clock New Year's night.
 Three different operators took turns at the San Francisco instrument for nineteen consecutive hours yesterday, transcribing and sending signals under the ocean. The operators kept at the desk night and day, alternately reading off the zigzag lines on the moving tape and tapping on double disks signals to make similar sawtooth lines in the Honolulu office.

Up to 6 o'clock last night, when the cable was given over to the contractors to test its qualities, and the instruments for four hours, no less than 9000 words had passed between San Francisco and Honolulu. Every syllable so far sent through the cable has been without pay. Such was the wish of Clarence H. Mackay, the young president of the Commercial Pacific Cable Company.

About 500 congratulatory messages went through, averaging ten words to the message. That was about 5000 words of private matter. At the regular rate of 50 cents a word, it would have meant $2,500 for the company. These congratulatory messages were from the public officials of Hawaii and the public bodies of the islands, from the different Governors of the Coast states, from various chambers of commerce and boards of trade of the Pacific Slope, and from prominent private individuals at both ends of the cable.

About 3500 words of news sent by the correspondent of the Associated Press, who went to Hawaii on the Silvertown, also came through. That, too, was complimentary. At the press rate of 20 cents a word, it would have cost $700. It was strictly the news of the cable ship's stormy voyage and of the task of landing and splicing the cable. Thus far no Hawaiian news has come through.
 In addition to the congratulatory messages and the long press dispatches, the operators at opposite ends of the cable exchanged various instructions and comments aggregating about 400 words.

 three hundred thousand dollars to establish an institution here for the treatment and study of consumption.

IN MEMORY OF THE LIBERATOR.

Associated Press Cable, Morning Service.

ROME, Jan. 9.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the death of King Victor Emanuel, the liberator of Italy, was commemorated by a procession to the royal tomb two miles in length.

SIX DEATHS FROM BUBONIC PLAGUE.

MAZATLAN, Jan. 9.—There were six deaths today from bubonic plague. The entire city will be disinfected.

ANTI-TRUST.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9.—The House Judiciary Committee has agreed upon a favorable report of the Anti-Trust bill.
 The measure provides for the publicity through the Inter-State Commerce Commission of the business workings of trusts, covering expenses, commissions, income and all other necessary data.
 It is believed that such publicity, given through the reports of the Commission will go far to prevent illegal combinations in restraint of trade.

MORE CARNEGIE LIBRARIES.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—Andrew Carnegie's offer of a million and a half of dollars for branch libraries has been accepted.
 During the first three months of 1901 Mr. Carnegie gave away ten million dollars to cities for the erection of libraries. At that time he gave the City of New York $5,000,000 with which to erect libraries, branches of the mammoth New York library, in sixty-five different portions of the city.

At the same time he said to friends that he would do a similar thing for Philadelphia and his gift of $1,500,000 is the result. The city of Philadelphia has agreed to furnish the sites on which the libraries are to be erected.

AN ASSOCIATE OF RHODES.

Associated Press Cable, Morning Service.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 9.—Alfred Beit, associated with the late Cecil Rhodes in monster African ventures and perhaps the richest man in the world, is dying of apoplexy.

Beit's condition is partly the result of overwork since the close of the South African war, for the successful ending of that war in favor of Great Britain increased the value of his African properties by about one-third, and his responsibilities in proportion.

He has led a life filled with magnificent yet quiet undertakings and like his partner and associate has never married. He is now forty-five years of age.

His death will make considerable difference in the mining operations in the Transvaal as he is more heavily interested there than any other one man. His wealth is enormous. He is estimated to be worth $375,000,000. He has built this up from nothing.
 He came from a Hebrew family of Hamburg and during his early life served an apprenticeship in a Hamburg bank. Later he went to South Africa and got into close business relations with Cecil Rhodes. His wealth then piled up almost faster than he could count it. Although Rhodes quit money making and launched himself into the work of empire building Beit has always held himself down to the work of amassing more money. In addition to his African interests he has big properties in Mexico, Chile, and Portugal and in many other portions of the globe.

The German financier is a man of small stature but of enormous energy. He has done very little openly in politics but his hand is said to have been firmly fixed upon the events that led up to the South African war. He is one of the trustees of Cecil Rhodes' will.

TOURIST TRAVEL.

The tourist committees of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Association held a meeting yesterday afternoon. A final report to the bodies represented, though not formally agreed to was practically settled. The plan proposed includes the establishment of permanent tourist headquarters here, possibly in the Alexander Young building, a tourist agency on the coast in charge of a competent man there; and an illustrated folder in an edition of not less than 100,000 to be distributed through the railroad agencies of the United States. To meet the expense of this plan the committee recommends that the "fund be raised in the same manner as the fund raised for quarantine-wharf charges, and recommend that the proceeds of the present quarantine wharf of ten cents a ton on all bills of lading be diverted to a fund for the encouragement of tourist-travel to Hawaii, and in addition to this, that the hotels, railroads, car-lines, etc., be asked to contribute towards this object."

SULTAN OF MOROCCO

IS SAID TO BE A MAN OF PROGRESSIVE IDEAS WHO HAS THEREBY ANTAGONIZED THE FANATICAL ELEMENT OF THE POPULATION—SOME OF THE THINGS HE HAS DONE.

Associated Press Cable to the Star.

TANGIER, Jan. 9.—The Sultan of Morocco has again ordered his brother imprisoned. American missionaries have been compelled to leave rez. The situation is growing serious.

Morocco has been disturbed for three months past by a rebellion, instituted by three powerful tribes of the Berber Kabyles. These are led by a man named Omar Zarahuni, who has declared himself a Mahdi, and professes to be a sincere reformer. Reform, from the standpoint of a Moorish fanatic, is, however, retrogression and not advancement, according to our ideas of civilization.

The young Sultan of Morocco, Muley Abdul Aziz, is really the most enlightened ruler that country has had in modern times. He is only twenty-four years of age, but he has strenuously endeavored to do something of real value for the good of his country and its people since he succeeded his father on the throne. He has made himself unpopular, however, with the more fanatical of his subjects by surrounding himself with English advisers and by introducing bicycles and automobiles and the telephone into the country, and encouraging the construction of a narrow-gauge railroad in his dominions. The rebels tore up the survey flags marking the line of the railroad, declaring that they were emblems of foreign suzerainty over Morocco. The uprising is, therefore, in the nature of a revolt against the encroachments of modern civilization.

The rebels have set up the Sultan's brother as a pretender to the throne. The latter made his headquarters at Taza, whence his followers recently sallied, gave battle to the imperial troops and secured a temporary advantage. But a later dispatch conveys the intelligence that the Sultan's troops rallied, and have entered Taza and forced the pretender to flee to the Ghiatta hills. The cause of modern civilization is thus, for the time, at least, in the ascendant.

REMINISCENCE OF MEYERLING.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The body of Harris Tranquiline, the cab driver who drove Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria and was a witness to the nobleman's murder, in Meyerling, Austria, in 1889, will be removed to Vienna after having lain in potter's field on Ward's Island, since 1895.

Tranquiline died in the insane asylum at Ward's Island in May, 1895, after having lived in this country since the time he was hurried here two weeks after his master's death, his pockets filled with gold.

In Vienna Tranquiline won the friendship of the Crown Prince Rudolph by his remarkable presence, his conviviality and his courteous manners. He was known as "Baron Shan" and was present at the Meyerling castle on the fatal night of January 30, 1889, when his master and the Baroness Vetsera met their tragic death.

Hurried to this country by the imperial family in their efforts to hush up the scandal he became a favorite among the Austrians of the East Side. Tranquiline after losing his money, became a patient at Bellevue Hospital and later was sent to the Ward's Island asylum to die. It was on his death bed that he told of the details of the famous double tragedy.

CALIFORNIA SCORED.

Acting on the suggestion of the recent national congress of health officers, the Minnesota board of health on Wednesday passed a resolution condemning the foolish and criminal failure of the California state board of health to take adequate measures to suppress the bubonic plague in San Francisco, and its efforts to keep the existence of the plague a secret, a course that was not only incompatible with active efforts to prevent the spread of the disease in California itself, but inconsistent with its duty to the other states, to which it owed a statement of the exact conditions in order that they might be on their guard. The attitude of the California board, aided and abetted by the governor, which was first revealed to the country at New Haven, and is briefly summarized by the Minnesota resolution, is scandalous.

The only conceivable ground for this atrocious neglect on the part of the California board was the fear of the effect on business that the knowledge of the existence of the plague might have. If this is the fact the stupidity of the California authorities transcends even their lack of conscience. A lot of schoolboys could have foreseen what the result of this policy of silence would be. Adequate measures to suppress contagion, to get rid of the rats and vermin which are active agents in spreading this plague, to clean and keep clean the filthy quarters where it flourishes, even if accompanied by no instructions to the public, involved publicity. To take no steps that involved publicity meant to take no steps at all, and to allow the plague to run its course unmolested.

As it is, nothing that California can do is likely to restore confidence. Even if the plague were suppressed tomorrow no assurance to that effect from California will have any weight. The California authorities have branded themselves as incompetent cannot expect that the country will pay any attention to any assurances they may give. The stupid recklessness with which they have acted is likely to cost their state ten times the amount that an honest, open policy would have cost. The plague is not dangerous to persons of cleanly habits, who live in cleanly surroundings, but the knowledge of its proximity and of the possibility of its appearing among those with whom business brings one in contact, through the criminal failure of the state authorities to suppress it, is not conducive to intercourse. Active, energetic measures at the beginning would have confined the plague to a half dozen cases, and, by this time, instead of standing before the county as morally and physically polluted, California would have had a clean bill of health.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.
