

A LUMBER TRUST ALLEGED NOW

LUMBER DEALERS ARRAIGNED

UNITED STATES DISTRICT ATTORNEY BRECKONS FILES A SUIT THIS MORNING CHARGING THE LUMBER DEALERS OF HONOLULU WITH MAINTAINING A TRUST AND INVOKING THE ANTI-TRUST LEGISLATION OF CONGRESS.

The first gun in the federal campaign against local trusts was fired this morning, when District Attorney Breckons began a proceeding against the alleged lumber trust. Acting under instructions of United States Attorney General Moody, Breckons filed a petition for an injunction to restrain Allen & Robinson, Lewers & Cooke and Wilder & Company from continuing to carry out an alleged agreement creating a trust and monopoly in the lumber business in the islands, and forcing prices up. The petition says that the defendants do 90 per cent of the lumber business of the islands and that by a mutual agreement they avoid all competition and have fixed prices at figures 175 per cent in advance of mainland prices. The title of the case is United States of America, Complainant, vs. Allen & Robinson, Limited, an Hawaiian corporation; Lewers & Cooke, Limited, an Hawaiian corporation; Wilder & Company, Limited, an Hawaiian corporation; John Hilo; Thomas Walluku; William Kala; Henry Walanae; Francis Iahue; and Joseph Kawahoa, Defendants.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY BRECKONS, proceeding will be filed against sixty or seventy individuals and concerns which are said to be in a meat compact.

ADVERTISER'S DETECTIVES

DAMNING IGNORANCE AS TO THE EXISTENCE OF A GAMBLING DEN IN HONOLULU WAS SUPPLIED IN JUDGE WHITNEY'S COURT THIS AFTERNOON—AMUSEMENT CAUSED BY AN UTTER LACK OF EVIDENCE.

The sum of human amusement was augmented this afternoon by the appearance in Judge Whitney's court of the staff of the Advertiser in order to prove that there had been gambling conducted at the King street place, of greater or less notoriety, which it alleged was run by one Charles Moore.

It will be remembered that the Advertiser, quite recently, published a number of articles reflecting on the administration of the police department and asserted that it had proof that Moore was conducting a gambling house.

Moore, with two others, Apollana and Hirano were accordingly arrested and charged with a violation of Section 3175 and the prosecution conducted by Assistant County Attorney Frank Andrade, naturally enough subpoenaed the members of the Advertiser staff.

The defence was in the hands of Attorney Frank Thompson.

Walter Gifford Smith, editor of the Advertiser was first called this afternoon.

"Do you know the defendant, Moore?" he was asked by Andrade.

"I do not think that I have ever seen Mr. Moore," was the reply.

"And do you know either of the other defendants?" was the next question.

"I do not," said Editor Smith.

"That is all," said the prosecution.

"That is all," echoed the defence.

A. P. Taylor, a reporter on the Advertiser staff, who was next called had a better acquaintance. He did not know Moore or Apollana but he thought that he had seen the Japanese somewhere though he did not know where.

"Do you know his business?" asked Andrade.

"I do not," said Taylor.

Again the defence did not care to cross-examine.

JURY SECURED.

A jury was secured this morning to try the case of the Territory against Yonekichi Yano et al., charged with assault with a weapon. The case was then postponed to Monday, as Deputy Attorney General Fleming, who is prosecuting, is going to Kaula tonight.

The jurors sworn in are: T. Jones, S. N. Crook, Fern Corrin, H. B. Saylor, A. V. Gear, Fred Tourtell, N. S. Sachs, G. N. Macy, U. H. Jones, C. H. Carter, W. S. Lyle, W. T. Raposo.

FIRE AT IWILEI.

An alarm of fire was turned in at 1:25 p. m. today from Box 51 at Iwilei. The fire was in a native's house in a lane near the gas works, and was extinguished before the department arrived. The damage was trifling. The natives were engaged in cooking a dog when the fire occurred.

Fine Job Printing, Star Office.

H. M. Ayres, another reporter was called. He said that he had known Moore for three years and he knew the other by sight. He had been at the building on King street, near Liliha and at night had ascended to the second story. He could not get up to the third story. A native who came to a door leading to that story told him that the place was closed.

This answer, followed by another to the effect that Ayres was "looking for someone" was stricken out on the objection of Thompson.

"What prevented your going further?" asked Andrade.

"I was told—" began the witness.

"I object," said Thompson "never mind what you were told. Don't be so anxious to spit it out."

"I have the best of reasons for believing that gambling was going on there," said Ayres.

"Never mind what you believe" smiled Thompson "We want to know what you saw."

Ayres, continuing said that he heard sounds of entertainment going on, of shuffling of feet, of an altercation, and of the name of money. He did not say that any of the defendants were present. He was about fifteen or twenty minutes in the building. He thought that this occurred on either October 2, 3 or 4.

"No cross-examination" said the defence again.

Sing Kee, widow of the former owner of the place did not know the defendant Hirano nor did she know what the building was used for.

Townsend, the Japanese half-caste police spy of a former regime said that he knew Hirano but he never saw him in the building and knew nothing about his business.

The case is still proceeding.

LIGHTHOUSE CHANGES

LIGHTHOUSE BOARD HAS RECOMMENDED THAT $390,000 BE APPROPRIATED BY CONGRESS FOR IMPROVING THE LIGHTHOUSE SYSTEM IN THESE ISLANDS—RECOMMENDATIONS BASED ON REPORTS MADE BY LOCAL ENGINEERING OFFICER.

Lieutenant J. R. Slattery, U. S. A., light-house at Makapuu Point, a place the assistant to the engineer of the that Lieutenant Slattery considers very important to be provided with a light. The other recommendations are for Washington in the shape of the recommendations made by the Light-House Board to Congress in the matter of improvements for the light-house service in these islands. Every one of these recommendations proposed by Lieutenant Slattery have been recommended by the Board and efforts will be made to secure appropriations to carry out the work as suggested by him.

In the annual report of the Board it is recommended that a first order light be established at Diamond Head and that new range lights be established for Honolulu harbor. The idea as recommended by Lieutenant Slattery is to construct a house with a tower 45 feet in height about 400 feet seaward of the present light-house in the harbor of Honolulu, the cost to be about $30,000. The rear range light will be located on a steel tower to cost $10,000. Another committee on Inter-State and Foreign recommendation is for $60,000 for a Commerce.

TWO INSPECTORS ON HARBOR WORK

LIEUT. SLATTERY THE ARMY ENGINEERING OFFICER WILL HAVE TWO ASSISTANTS.

There arrived from San Francisco yesterday George M. Cushing who has been specially employed as an inspector of the dredging work in the harbor. He was engaged by Lieutenant Slattery, U. S. A., the engineer officer who represents the War Department in the improvement of the harbor. Cushing will, as well as S. M. Kerns, act as an inspector of the daily progress of the dredging of the harbor and the disposition of the debris. Kerns is a local man and has resided here some time in the contracting business. Cushing has acted as inspector under Lieutenant Slattery in government improvement work of harbors at Larchmont, New Rochelle, East River and Hell Gate.

The dredger which works from the outside of the harbor will deposit the debris on scows which will be towed to sea and be discharged. It will be part of the duties of the inspector who is to be stationed on the outer dredger to see that the debris is dumped in a place where it will not be apt to be washed back to shore. The dredger Pacific will work from the interior of the harbor. The debris brought up by this dredger will be used to fill in the naval reservation. The inspector on that dredger will see that the debris is properly placed and both inspectors will keep close records of the manner and progress of the dredging, and make their reports to Lieutenant Slattery.

THERE HAD BEEN OTHER DIFFERENCES

"My resignation is accepted," said Superintendent of Public Instruction Davis this morning in answer to a question. "That is my understanding of my conversation with the governor yesterday. I shall stay in the department of course, until my successor is appointed and qualified."

Davis said he had nothing further to tell of his differences with the executive. He admitted that there had been other differences than the one of yesterday, but said they were along the same lines. He had objected to complaints about teachers or other complaints affecting his department, being received by the governor, instead of the governor referring such matters to him, as head of the department.

Standing Up Quality

Is what counts in a shoe. There are so many technical parts about the general make-up of a shoe that most people don't always know where to find imperfections. Let us explain these technicalities in a common sense way:

First. The inside making of a shoe.

Second. The imitation leather counter.

Third. Those cut off vamps.

Fourth. Poor leather in tops.

Fifth. Poor lasting of a shoe.

These are some of the imperfections that are found in so many of the medium grades of shoes.

These imperfections we are proud to say, do not exist in our great "ALL AMERICA" line of shoes for men.

They have stood the test for forty years in the art of good honest shoemaking at good honest prices.

Come in and let our salesman explain in detail.

Shoe trees add to the longevity of your shoes.

SUPERINTENDENT DAVIS RESIGNS

HEAD OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION QUILTS HIS OFFICE DURING DISCUSSION WITH CARTER.

James C. Davis, superintendent of Public Instruction yesterday afternoon tendered his resignation to Governor Carter, during an interview, and it was accepted. Davis called on the governor with objections to the latter receiving complaints about the Public Instruction Department, instead of referring kickers to the head of the department. Governor Carter replied that he would always be open to any complaints regarding any department of the government, whereupon Davis is said to have suggested that he had perhaps better resign. The governor promptly replied that this was agreeable to him, and thus closed the interview. Shortly after Commissioner W. R. Farrington had a conference with the governor. Davis has been superintendent for about six months. He succeeded A. T. Atkinson.

WATER TUNNELS FOR WAILUKU

GOOD PROGRESS IS BEING MADE IN THE BIG WATER DEVELOPMENT SCHEME ON MAUI.

WAILUKU, October 18.—Work on the Wailuku Sugar Co's tunnels at Wailuku and Wailuku are progressing rapidly. Those at Wailuku are under contract to Carl Waldeyer, who has installed up-to-date machinery to facilitate his work. Aside from a little trouble in securing necessary help, Mr. Waldeyer has made good progress on these tunnels, and will finish the work in good season. He has eighteen months in which to complete the work. The other tunnels at Wailuku and Iao are under contract to Honda, Okita and J. F. Kuwada. Kuwada was at one time teller in Bishop & Co's bank.

ISLAND STEAMERS ARRIVE.

The steamer Maui arrived this morning from her run to Maui ports. She brought quite an assortment of freight.

The All-Maul baseball team arrived to the two games with the H. A. C's. The steamer Helene arrived this morning from Hawaii ports with cattle and the steamer Kailani arrived this morning from Hamakua ports. Good weather with strong winds were reported by the various vessels.

MOANA WAS LATE ARRIVING.

The S. S. Moana arrived yesterday afternoon ten hours late, from the Colonies. She was delayed owing to a longer stay about Suva, loading sugar. She also called in at Fanning Island. The Moana left Sydney October 2, Brisbane, October 4; Suva, October 10 and Fanning October 15. She has a good sized crowd of through passengers. Among those who stopped at Honolulu were Ernst Kopke, wife and three daughters. Mrs. Fulbrook returned after a visit to Australia. The Moana resumed her voyage to Victoria and Vancouver at 11 last night. She took a few passengers from Honolulu.

CURTIS GOT THROUGH.

M. B. Curtis the famous Cam'l of Posen, the impresario, was a through passenger on the S. S. Moana for Vancouver. He evidently succeeded in settling up his financial difficulties in the Colonies and getting away. He says he had hard luck in the Colonies on his last venture and lost $4,000 but he has arranged bookings for a new company.

The World's Sugar Market

The American Sugar Industry in its review of the World's Sugar Market in the current number says:

Conditions in the sugar market all over the world are still of such a nature that the appellation "crisis" is well chosen. Since the last report no important change has taken place, though there has been a slight activity in the speculative transactions, principally for May delivery, at prices which show a slight decline. This is not encouraging for the new crop, and it is a serious question how long manufacturers will hold on in the expectation of an improvement. The immediate cause of the weaker prices is to be found in the publication of the official figures of the chief continental countries of their consumption in August, which compare very unfavorably with those for the corresponding period of last year. On the other hand, the visible stocks of Germany, Austria and France were on September 1 not less than 300,000 tons less than at the same time last year, which ought to have had a stimulating rather than the reverse effect.

Looked at from this point of view, and the low figure to which prices have fallen, the situation is not a discouraging one, because, as expressed in the last review, a still lower tendency will most certainly be followed by speculative buying in order to sustain prices on the part of manufacturers. It is more than likely, in fact almost a certainty, that the present caution in purchases of any amount will shortly be replaced by an increased activity, both in this country and in Europe.

The steady and favorable progress of the beet crop has probably been discounted fully by the market, though any great improvement in values is scarcely justified at this time, if the estimates of an important increase in the beet as well as the cane crops counts for anything. It should be remembered that prices for beet sugar in Europe are actually below the cost of production, and in France, so it is said, so much so that the quotations are only sufficient to cover the cost of the roots, allowing scarcely anything for the cost of manufacturing.

Hearst And Tammany

What show of election as Mayor of New York William Randolph Hearst has may be judged from this statement by the Literary Digest: The re-election of Mayor McClellan in New York City is predicted by all impartial observers since the "Fusion" forces gave up their attempts to agree last week.

Dr. Charles Parkhurst who hates Tammany as the devil is reputed to hate holy water, says of McClellan:

"McClellan has given the city a clean administration as far as it was possible. He has been handicapped by the organization back of him, and yet he has shown by his actions in many respects that he did not sell himself body and soul to Tammany Hall. It should not be lost sight of that McClellan, no matter what some of those associated with him may be, is a gentleman, and has the instincts of a gentleman."

"I believe for this reason that if McClellan runs for Mayor, he will probably win in the race, for there is no urgent matter or question for the consideration of the people of this city at this time."

Jacob Riis, who is sincere if somewhat hysterical, and who has a wonderful influence on public affairs, says:

"In the last campaign I worked against Mr. McClellan, but he has given us such a good administration that I take back all I said against him at that time, and will support him if he is renominated. I regard it as useless to think of electing any other man in the city of New York at this time."

"The only way in which Tammany can be beaten is on the issue of bad government, and this year that can not enter into the campaign."

Hearst, through his American, is evidently trying to galvanize into something approaching life the old scarecrow which has been used so effectively in other cities as well as in New York, that the avowed candidate of the party is only a dummy representative of the bogey-man it pictures in the background. Thus it says:

"Suppose it was announced that Charles F. Murphy was going to nominate himself for Mayor of New York? He could do it just as well as he can nominate the man who, as Mayor, has been nothing more than his clerk, handling New York city as though it was merely a branch of the Murphy Contracting Company, and handling it so effectively in that interest that Charles F. Murphy is today several times a millionaire, with a country place like a ducal seat, with yachts and automobiles, and all the paraphernalia of great wealth. Of course Murphy will not nominate himself because he knows that to do so would bring out against him every citizen with an ounce of civic decency in his system, but he intends to be Mayor, if he can, just as he has been for the past two years."

In the light of the testimony of Dr. Parkhurst and the no less conclusive testimony afforded by the fact that the Tammany Bogey has not been able to frighten the reformers into fusion, it isn't likely that the American will be able to make much headway with the Murphy bogey.

The Awakening Of China

The cable dispatches announce that "for the first time in history an army of 40,000 Chinese will maneuver." Of course the striking fact which it is the object of this dispatch to bring out is clear, although the unstudied brevity of the cable gives slovenly expression to the thought, and in all probability made historically untrue statement. China in the past has been a warlike and a conquering nation. It has had fierce internal conflicts. The Taiping rebellion of the last century brought big armies into the field. During the war with China ten years ago there were large forces in the field. Li Hung Chang had a military reputation, which while not equal to his reputation as a diplomat and an administrator marked him as a man of military genius. During his life, at various times he commanded large bodies of troops. It is scarcely to be believed that never before were 40,000 Chinese troops under arms together and engaged in maneuvers, either of real or of mimic warfare.

But of course the point the cable intended to make is that for the first time in history 40,000 Chinese troops under modern organization, equipment and arms will maneuver, although even this is probably only technically correct. The important thing is that China is awakening, and that she is awakening on the military side. The example of Japan is not lost on her. The pride of race and of nation sees that it is through the strong arm, the ability and the will to defend herself, that the nation can most quickly establish itself as a power. The national feeling can most quickly be concentrated in a military organization. The national patriotism of which there is so little—though there is race patriotism in abundance—can best be fostered by an army.

The maneuvers of these 40,000 Chinese troops armed with modern weapons, drilled according to modern tactics, organized and equipped according to modern methods, is really an important fact, and well worth noting. It means a great deal for the world.

Yet after all it is not the most important thing in the dispatch; it does not disclose how completely the modern method has taken hold of China and of her rulers, as does another statement in the dispatch, one that might ordinarily be passed over as of secondary importance. That statement is that "foreign attaches and members of the press will be permitted to attend." This is the test of the thoroughness with which the modern idea has taken hold. This shows that the Chinese have grasped the vital feature of western civilization—publicity. It is in publicity that the guarantee of development and progress is contained. It is the proselyting idea on the educative side. To have sought to develop military power in secret would have been either to defeat its purpose or to make of it a weapon of tyranny. By giving the greatest publicity possible to it, the greatest possible educative effect on China herself is insured. It gives notice to the world that China is awakening. And in all this there is that invitation or patriotic criticism which will tend to keep the movement developing in the line of progress, to eliminate graft, and to keep out those abuses which paralyze and nullify all such efforts.

China is indeed awakening, and in no way is she giving more signal proof of it than in recognizing the advantage of publicity.

The literary style of the Advertised's editorial columns showed a marked improvement this morning. It used a local story from the Star.

It seems too bad that Governor Carter cannot run the department of Public Instruction himself.

Kauai seems to have had some really wide-open gambling. In his first raid the county attorney secured a large poster, which was posted on walls, announcing in plain language a che fa bank and giving the time and place of drawings.

It is open now for the Advertiser to recommend its friend A. V. Gear for appointment as Superintendent of Public Instruction.

There were women at the moving picture reproduction of the Britt-Nelson fight, and yet the tower of Siloam did not fall on them.

There are many who think that the cowboy contest which is to take place Saturday afternoon at Kapiolani Park ought to be a regular annual event.

The governor seems to have been surprised at finding that Superintendent Davis wanted to run his own department. Yet it is not unnatural that a head of a department should consider himself something more than a clerk though it must be admitted that our strenuous executive has succeeded in making mere clerks of most of his "cabinet."

MORE ARRESTS ON SHERMAN AT 'FRISCO

COUNTERFEITING INVESTIGATION GOING ON HERE AND AT SAN FRANCISCO AT THE SAME TIME—THE LOCAL GRAND JURY AND COURT TO HANDLE THE CASES AND MEN ARRESTED IN CALIFORNIA WILL BE SENT HERE IF INDICTED.

The federal grand jury this morning took up the transport Sherman counterfeiting cases. The Sherman has arrived at San Francisco and Marshal Hendry received a cable announcing the arrests of suspects regarding whom cables were sent from here. The authorities were waiting for her, and took the men as soon as she entered the harbor.

They have been subjected to examinations and are held at the disposition of the Honolulu officials.

The San Francisco detectives did not secure any counterfeit money in their search of the transport. They have, however, secured some new evidence which may prove of value. The men they have arrested will be sent here if wanted, and it is up to the local grand jury to decide what to do in the matter. The jury here may indict the men who are in San Francisco and if so the men will be sent here in custody of an officer.

The investigation by the jury this morning brought out a good deal of new information, but there is no evidence by which to trace the bad money to its source. The examination of witnesses are being continued this afternoon.

As a result of this morning's developments three of the men arrested when the Sherman was here were released this morning, and are held as witnesses. They are T. L. Carter, B. K. Wood and C. P. Brown. There are three others still in custody as defendants, but one more is likely to be released, it is said. The indictments, if any are found, will be for having counterfeit money in possession or attempting to pass such money.

Julio Silva and Pasco Ragas were indicted by the federal Grand Jury this morning for forging a post office order. They are alleged to have forged the name of Ricardo Rivera to a Money Order for $20, issued by the post office at Paila, on the Honolulu office. Both defendants are in custody.

line. This case, like the lumber case filed today, has had the attention of the Attorney General, and he has decided that there is a combination which violates the anti-trust laws.

On filing of the petition this morning by Breckons, Judge Dole signed an order to show cause, returnable on December 4, under which the defendant corporations are required to come into court and show cause if any they have why the injunction should not be issued as prayed for.

The complaint filed by Breckons is a very lengthy and comprehensive one, apparently drawn with great care. It alleges that the trust-creating contract was entered into some time since July 2, 1890, and that it is still in operation. The principal allegations of the bill are as follows:

"First. Your orator alleges and shows that this Petition is filed, and this proceeding is instituted by the United States Attorney in and for the Territory and District of Hawaii, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States.

"Fourth. Your orator further alleges and shows that the defendants hereinabove named, for many years last past have been, and now are, and will hereafter continue to be, engaged in said Territory of Hawaii in the business of importing, bringing into, handling and dealing in lumber in said Territory, and importing, bringing into, handling, dealing in, selling, shipping and delivering lumber to dealers and consumers in said Territory; and, in doing so, have been engaged, and now are engaged, and will continue to be engaged, in trade and commerce in said Territory.

"Fifth. And your orator further alleges and shows that the city of Honolulu is situated in the Island of Oahu, in said Territory; that it is the principal city and port of import and export in and of said Territory; that it is also the principal market and distributing center in said Territory, of and for said defendants; that said defendants, and each of them, have their principal places of business in said city of Honolulu; and have been, are, and will continue to be engaged in the business of importing, bringing into, dealing in, handling, selling, shipping and delivering said lumber hereinabove referred to, to dealers and consumers in said Territory, and particularly to dealers and consumers in said Honolulu, and in doing so, said defendants have been engaged, and now are engaged, and will continue to be engaged in said trade and commerce in said Territory.

"Eighth. And your orator further alleges and shows that a very large quantity of lumber is used and consumed annually by the inhabitants and people of said city of Honolulu and of said Territory, the exact quantity whereof your orator is not now able to state; and that about ninety per cent of said large quantity of lumber so used and so consumed annually as aforesaid by said inhabitants and people has been, is now, and will hereafter continue to be imported, brought into, handled, dealt in, sold, shipped, and delivered by said defendants in said Territory as an object and article of trade and commerce therein.

"Ninth. And your orator further alleges and shows that a quantity of lumber so used and consumed annually by the aforesaid inhabitants and people as above alleged, about ninety per cent thereof is raised and produced in and the product of divers other States and Territories upon the mainland of said United States, and is imported and brought into said Territory as hereinabove alleged, by said defendants; and that about ninety per cent of said quantity of lumber so imported and brought into said Territory as hereinabove alleged, is sold, shipped and delivered by said defendants in said Territory, to dealers and consumers therein.

"Tenth. And your orator further alleges and shows that the above named defendants comprise nearly all of the wholesale dealers in said Territory, who import, bring in, handle, deal in, sell, ship or deliver lumber in said Territory for sale to consumers and dealers therein, and that by reason thereof, the said defendants, if combined together, can, and do, absolutely control therein the prices charged for lumber imported, brought into, handled, dealt in, sold, shipped, or delivered in said Territory.

"Eleventh. And your orator further

Twenty-first. And your orator further alleges and shows that the cost of lumber imported, brought into, handled, dealt in, sold, shipped and delivered within said Territory is about 175 per cent greater than the cost of lumber imported from the mainland of said United States and from other foreign places; that ever since the time of entering into the said unlawful agreement, combination, trust and conspiracy, among and between said defendants as hereinbefore alleged, with the intent to form a combination, trust and conspiracy in restraint of the trade and commerce in lumber as above stated, and with the intent to monopolize, and attempt to monopolize, and combine and conspire to monopolize the said trade and commerce in said lumber, said defendants, not satisfied with the ordinary market rates and prices at which lumber was being sold, have from time to time, arbitrarily raised and fixed the prices of lumber sold to dealers and consumers in said Territory, and that at the present time, and for some time past, the prices charged to dealers and consumers of lumber in said Territory are fully 75 per cent greater than they were at and before the time when said defendants entered into the said unlawful agreement, combination, trust and conspiracy hereinabove referred to; that said increased prices upon said lumber hereinabove mentioned, have been arbitrarily raised and fixed by said defendants for some time past, and will continue; that said arbitrary raising and fixing of the price of lumber so made as aforesaid by said defendants, and the great, unreasonable and oppressive increase in the prices of lumber made as aforesaid by said defendants, have been, and are, and will continue to be, effected and maintained and made possible by means of the unlawful agreement, combination, trust and conspiracy, hereinabove referred to, entered into by, among and between said defendants as aforesaid, with the intent to form a combination, trust and conspiracy in restraint of the trade and commerce in lumber in said Territory, and with the intent to monopolize, and attempt to monopolize, and combine and conspire to monopolize, the aforesaid trade and commerce in lumber in said Territory."

The petition concludes with the following prayer: "Wherefore, your orator prays that this Honorable Court may order, adjudge and decree that said unlawful agreements, and each of them, hereinbefore alleged as having been made and entered into between said defendants, and each of them, in restraint of the trade and commerce in lumber in said Territory of Hawaii, be declared null and void, as being in contravention of the aforesaid Acts of the Congress of the said United States, and that said defendants, and each and all of them, may be perpetually enjoined and prohibited from further going on carrying out, maintaining or acting in any other way, shape, manner or form, under said unlawful agreements hereinbefore mentioned, and each of them, and from further agreeing, combining, conspiring and acting together in any similar manner, so as to hinder, restrain, destroy, monopolize, or attempt to monopolize, the said trade and commerce in said lumber in said Territory; and from arbitrarily controlling, raising, lowering, fixing or maintaining the prices of lumber in said Territory; and from maintaining arbitrary, high and oppressive prices at which they, said defendants, will sell, directly or through their and each of their respective agents, lumber to dealers and consumers in said Territory; and from not entering into or not engaging in the trade in lumber in said Territory as competitors of or against each other; and from not importing, or bringing into, or handling, or dealing in, or selling, or shipping, or delivering any lumber in said Territory to or for or with any rival or competitor of themselves, or either or any of them, in said Territory; and from preventing and discouraging, or preventing or discouraging, by any means or manner whatever in the power of them, said defendants, or any of them, any and all, or any or all, importations, shipments or deliveries into said Territory of lumber by any one else, whether in said Territory or elsewhere, to or for any rival or competitor in said Territory of themselves, said defendants, or of either or any of them; and from fixing the prices of lumber in said Territory, so that said prices should not be changed or altered in any manner save by the consent of said defendants, and should not be changed or altered in any manner by the condition of the market in said Territory for lumber; and from arbitrarily causing or continuing to cause large quantities of lumber imported and brought into said Territory by said defendants, to be withheld from the trade and commerce in lumber in said Territory and withheld from sale to dealers and consumers therein, for the purpose of creating a scarcity in lumber within said Territory and thereby to cause an advance and increase in the market rates in the prices of lumber, and to enable said defendants to advance, increase, fix and impose high, oppressive and unreasonable prices at which said defendants, either directly or through their respective agents, will sell said lumber in said Territory; and from compelling consumers and dealers in lumber in said Territory to purchase lumber from themselves, said defendants; and from continuing to do or perform the above mentioned acts or any of them; and from continuing to engage in said unlawful agreement, combination, trust and conspiracy in restraint of the trade and commerce in lumber in said Territory as aforesaid."

HOW CHE FA CASE WENT TO PIECES

A LONG TRIAL BEFORE A JURY IN JUDGE ROBINSON'S COURT
ENDS IN AN ACQUITTAL IN A FEW MOMENTS—THE LAW OF THE CASE FRUSTRATES PROSECUTION AND JURORS WILL NOT BELIEVE SPIES.

The che fa business has had a good venting in Judge Robinson's court during the past two days, in the trial of Ah Lum, who was caught at the game according to the prosecution, but whom a jury acquitted in less than ten minutes, after over two days of testimony.

Ah Lum was arrested as a result of information conveyed to the police that he was in the lottery business. A spy was employed to buy che fa tickets from him and the spy gave him half a dollar and secured a piece of paper on which were che fa characters. The jury apparently refused to take the testimony of the police spy, though the alleged ticket was introduced in evidence. "Willie" Crawford testified as che fa expert and showed himself well qualified to tell about the game.

Judge Robinson's instructions to the jury included the following: "The jury must believe and find from the evidence, beyond a reasonable doubt, that there was a lottery in actual existence and running on the 25th day of November, 1904; that the defendant was connected with that particular lottery either as agent or banker and was acting for it in receiving any money or words, and that in so acting he was maintaining or conducting that particular lottery, before it can find defendant guilty of the charge."

"The jury must find from the evidence that the marked words and amount stated were delivered to defendant and accepted by defendant for the purpose of conducting and maintaining a particular and given lottery, before this defendant can be found guilty of the charge."

The case was vividly prosecuted by Deputy County Attorney Macfarlane and C. F. Peterson defended. It was claimed by the defense that even if the sale of a che fa ticket be admitted there could not be a conviction without proof that the che fa game was actually played for that ticket. Between this theory of the law and the usual reluctance of juries to take "spy" evidence, Ah Lum was quickly found innocent and set free.

The line-up of the two teams will be as follows:

WAILUA BONDS AT 5 PER CENT

Particular interest was attached to the meeting as it was thought that the matter of the rate of interest of 5 per cent might cause some debate. A five per cent bond in a departure in these islands. There was no discussion of this matter however.

E. D. Tenney presided at the meeting and explained the purpose of the stockholders having been called. A resolution which had been passed by the board of directors and which included a resolution for authorization by the stockholders, was read. The resolution where the stockholders authorized the issue was as follows, after several amendments had been made:

"Resolved that the Directors of the company be and they are hereby authorized to issue bonds of the Wailua Agricultural Company, Limited, in the sum of One Million Five Hundred ($1,500,000) dollars, to be dated the 31st day of March 1906, or such other date or dates as the Board of Directors may fix, said bonds to be in such denomination or denominations and such form as may be fixed by said board and to be for the term of twenty years from said date or dates with the privilege of redemption after ten years from said date or dates, at such time or times and in such manner as may be fixed by said board, with interest payable at such times as may be fixed by said board to be at a rate to be fixed by said board of not more than five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually and said Board are authorized to secure said issue of bonds by a pledge mortgage or deed of trust to the Hawaiian Trust Company, Limited, or such other trustee as the board may select, said pledge mortgage or deed of trust to be directed by said board, upon all the property real and personal of the corporation, except its franchise, or so much thereof or such parts thereof, as their board may determine, and said board may include therein property to be hereafter acquired by the company.

"Resolved that the board of directors in such pledge, mortgage, or deed of trust, shall provide a sinking fund to redeem such bonds in such form and upon such terms as said board may determine in an amount not more than ten per cent of the net annual profits of the corporation, and may provide for the sale of said bonds in such manner, upon such terms, and at such price or prices as they may fix, and may provide for the exchange of said bonds or any portion of the same, at such rate or price, in such manner and upon such terms as they may determine for bonds of the existing bonded indebtedness of the company."

J. A. McCandless moved the adoption of the resolution. J. R. Galt seconded the motion. F. Van Valkenburg inquired when the sinking fund was to be started.

W. Protenhauer moved to amend the resolution as originally presented. The resolution had provided that not less than 10 per cent of the net annual profits should be laid aside as a sinking fund. His amendment proposed to change this to read that not more than 10 per cent could be taken. Mr. Kiffing inquired if the placing of the sinking fund every year was compulsory. He wanted to defer starting a sinking fund for 5 years. He thought that the stockholders should be given some consideration. Tenney replied that unless some assurance were given to the investors that there would be means to meet the indebtedness of the plantation the standing of the bonds might be affected in the eyes of the public.

J. O. Carter thought that the holders of the present bonds should be accorded some privilege of taking the new issue pro rata at par. Tenney stated that it could probably be arranged so that they could have the bonds at 95.

L. L. McCandless did not favor the rate of interest. He did not think that the local bond holder should be considered. He thought that in all likelihood, if the plantation went to the mainland with the bonds which were amply secured by a property worth $5,000,000 the bonds might be placed at 4 per cent. This might take time however.

He moved an amendment providing that the rate should not be more than 5 per cent. Subsequently D. L. Withington proposed a second amendment in the wording of this amendment which was accepted.

President Tenney stated that he had interviewed the different banking institutions and the owners and trustees of the present issue of Wailua bonds regarding the matter and $625,000 worth of bonds had been pledged to accept the new refunding at 95. He stated later in the meeting that Castle and Cooke stood ready to take on their own account $500,000 of the bonds and the Bank of Hawaii was also prepared to take an additional $500,000 which made an excess of $1,250,000 over the proposed total of the new issue. The resolution with the two amendments were unanimously adopted.

Manager W. W. Goodale of Wailua was present and was asked regarding the general condition of the plantation. He said that he expected to plant an additional 700 acres and that the acreage for the crop of 1907 would be 4,000. In writing to the Hawaiian Trust Company in response to a request for information, Goodale had stated that the money invested by Wailua in permanent improvements since the last issue of bonds had been $1,104,798.72 of which $339,169.45 had been for the development of the water system. President Tenney read some data connected with the cost of the water development on the plantation.

Passing to the general condition of the plantation to October 1, 1905 the liabilities of Wailua amounted to a total of $1,137,603.79 of which $1,000,000 was due on the bonds and the remainder to Castle & Cooke. The indebtedness at the end of December 31, 1905 would be $1,325,409.45 of which $255,409.45

48 was due to Castle and Cooke. Mr. Tenney stated however that that estimate had been made by Manager Goodale and that the estimate prepared by Castle and Cooke of the plantation's indebtedness was $402,528.23. In order to complete the prospective water development an addition $127,000 would be required.

In reply to a question Manager Goodale stated that when the ditch will have been completed that there will be 12,000 acres of land below the level.

TO SUCCEED DAVIS

A number of candidates are already out for the position of Superintendent of Public Instruction, made vacant by the resignation of J. C. Davis yesterday afternoon. THE MAN WHO STOLE THE MONEY

Kelley the man who stole the $25,000 from the treasure room of the S. S. Alameda went to Mexico City while the police were hot on the trail of the Alameda robbers, and there he stole $10,000 from a bank, and was caught in the street with the money still in his possession. For this deed he was sentenced to four years in prison, but escaped after serving only a few months.

For more than twenty years the man killed by Lestrage has been wanted by the Ohio authorities. When he and another man were being brought to Cleveland, Ohio, by Detective Halligan on a train members of the "Blinky" Morgan gang, with which Kelley, then known as "Kid" McMunn, operated, attacked the detective and killed him, releasing his prisoners. "Blinky" Morgan afterwards was hanged for the crime.

After his escape from Mexico Kennedy, or Kelley, was next associated with "Charlie" Lowrey, a criminal with an international record, and also with "Red Tom" Ryan. The three have "worked" in Europe, South Africa, Australia and in the United States. In Ohio he was captured and sent to the penitentiary, with Lowrey. The two escaped, and since that time were lost to the detectives until Lestrage shot Kennedy.

H. P. WOOD IS SANGUINE

NEW PROMOTION COMMITTEE SECRETARY HAS REASON TO BELIEVE THAT TRAVEL WILL BE HEAVY.

H. P. Wood, the new secretary of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, was in close consultation with E. M. Boyd, his predecessor this morning. Boyd went thoroughly over the system which he had devised and did all in his power to help his successor in the work. At the request of the new secretary, Boyd has consented to remain in office until the end of the month.

"There is not much that I can say now," said Wood this morning, "except perhaps, that I only hope that I will be able to carry on the promotion work for Hawaii as effectively as Mr. Boyd has done and continue to carry on the good work which he has inaugurated. Owing to his efforts more is known now about Hawaii throughout the United States than ever was before and results are bound to come."

"I am more than pleased that he has consented to remain until the end of the month for this will give me a chance to take a run over to the other islands and refresh my memory on many subjects."

"I think that a new era in tourist travel has opened. The people of the middle west and also of the east have turned their faces this way and the astounding amount of travel towards California is a subject of conversation everywhere on the coast. Hotel men in San Francisco and other cities in California are at their wits' end to find accommodation for all who offer and they recognize the fact that they must have something to offer their guests besides California itself. What can be more interesting than a trip on the ocean? And what more delightful place to visit can there be than Honolulu? These are the questions which are actually being put into daily use by hotel men in San Francisco, Los Angeles and other coast cities."

"Of course," continued Wood, "the crying need of Hawaii is a steamer of her own, so to speak. You people down here have known that for a long time and I have not been long in appreciating it. A good up-to-date ship which would make regular trips to the coast from Hawaii, a bigger ship than the Alameda, is what is wanted, though I am sure that the Alameda will be very welcome when she comes down here after her mishap."

"Well, these are all things which we will have to study out and do our best to add. It is not for me to say anything about my plans as I am simply looking round in the meantime. I know that the press and the public will help things along and I trust there will be good results."

OAKLAND TEAM MAY YET COME

FRANK RICHARDSON THINKS THAT THE BALL TOSSERS FROM ACROSS THE BAY COULD BE INDUCED.

Frank Richardson, manager of the Elks baseball team and one of the greatest all-round ball enthusiasts in Hawaii, returned on the Sonoma yesterday, and this morning was induced to express himself on the question of the proposed visit of the Oakland team to the islands.

"I went into the matter very thoroughly with Devereaux, the manager of the Oakland," he said, "but much as I would like to see the team come down here to try conclusions with a picked team from Honolulu I am rather afraid we cannot manage it. The item of expense is the one and only problem. The Oakland would gladly come, in fact any of the teams in the Coast league would be delighted to make the trip, but we would have to guarantee at least $2000 and I don't see quite how we could possibly make it. As we talked it over, however, the plan would be for the team to come down here in December and stay for four weeks. We would play a game on each Saturday and another on each Sunday while the visitors were here."

The project has by no means been abandoned and I expect to hear from the Oakland men in a short time. It is needless perhaps for me to say that I hope the visit can be pulled through. Our boys down here would learn a lot by watching the Oakland play. We would have to put up a combination team, the very best we could select, in order to do business with them."

WELL KNOWN MAN DIED THIS MORNING

"OLD BILL" FERRIER, THE CARE-TAKER AT THE MYRTLE BOAT CLUB, DIED SUDDENLY.

W. H. Ferrier, known as "Old Bill," the keeper at the Myrtle Boat Club House, died suddenly this morning shortly after 9 o'clock of heart failure. He complained this morning of not feeling well and remained in bed at the boat house, asking his wife to prepare him some tea. She went out to do so and heard him gasp. She ran to his room and saw that his eyes were closed and he was gasping in a peculiar manner. She ran outside and notified the Young Brothers, whose place adjoins the Myrtle boat house. W. W. Harris of the Myrtle Club sent a physician to the place. The sick man expired in a short time.

The deceased was a native of Borneo, being a half-breed. He came to Honolulu originally on a whaling vessel and eventually settled here. He had been connected with the Myrtle Club for eleven years as boat keeper and janitor. He married an Hawaiian on December 4, 1875. They had two children who are still alive. The deceased was 70 years of age. The funeral will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow from the undertaking parlors of H. H. Williams. The interment will be in Kawaiahaeo cemetery.

M'CANDLESS AND STEAMER SERVICE

ONE OF THE ENERGETIC MEMBERS OF NEW PROMOTION COMMITTEE GETS ENCOURAGEMENT.

J. A. McCandless of the Promotion Committee is getting lots of encouragement in his efforts to see if additional steamer facilities between here and the coast cannot be secured.

"We had two steamers from the coast yesterday," he said, "and they had on board over five hundred passengers, and yet at least a dozen men with whom I have talked, say that a great many people who wanted to come to Honolulu were not able to secure accommodations."

"I was talking with L. Barkhausen, manager of Pioneer Mill, and he says he will put money in a steamer line between here and the coast."

"There can be no doubt that there are hundreds of people every year who would come to the islands if they were sure they could get steamer accommodations. The business is waiting for some one who will make a bid for it with a good steamer service."

HIT WITH STONE

A stone as big as his head is the weapon with which William Kalou is alleged to have committed an assault on one Kila. The case is before the Territorial grand jury, and the stone is a part of the evidence. It is a big hard piece of lava stone, fully as large as the skull it is declared to have hampered. The victim of the assault was in attendance as a witness. He has his head tied up in a big bandage.

NEW STEAMER FOR HONOLULU

It is reported that Captain William Matson of the Matson Navigation Company, has purchased a big steamer which is now on the Atlantic side of the United States. The steamer is said to be 400 feet in length and to have a speed of 16 knots. It is designed for either the Honolulu-San Francisco or the Hilo-San Francisco trade.

W. G. Smith, editor of the Advertiser, and Reporters H. M. Ayers and Wilson of the same paper, have been subpoenaed to appear as witnesses in the case against Charlie Moore et al, charged with conducting a gambling resort.

Rex.. Flintkote

can be laid without any expert labor. Full illustrated directions are given which can be followed by any one.

This puts Flintkote within reach of all. Its light weight is important, as in new buildings, lighter roof supports can be used, and on buildings more or less weakened by age Flintkote can be used with safety where the ordinary heavier roofs would be dangerous.

Leaks can be easily located and made tight with little trouble.

Flintkote is odorless and will not taint rain water in any way and water from Flintkote roofs can be used for all domestic purposes.

Vermin will not attack it, and it is not affected by acids, alkalies or fumes of any kind.

Rex Flintkote will please you, try it.
