LYMER ATTACKS EDMUNDS ACT

PRESIDENT'S BROTHER-IN-LAW KILLS HIMSELF

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

PITTSBURG, March 12.—Thomas Laughlin, a brother-in-law of the wife of President Taft, who died here yesterday, came to his death through suicide by shooting. President Taft will come here from Washington to attend the funeral.

ROBINSON SOCIALISTS NOT CUPID EXCITED

Negamal, female Japanese, is being fought over before Judge Robinson. Her husband wants her to come to him, and claims she is being imprisoned by her parents.

Such a lawyer as W. A. Kinney is representing her and her parents, while so noted a man as Lorrin Andrews represents the husband. The married pair have been wedded only ten days and the girl says she doesn't want to go back to her husband. Her parents are said to have threatened to send her back to Japan if she dares leave their roof for the shelter of her husband's home.

"Do you love your husband?" asked Andrews.

"This court is not sitting as Cupid," said the judge.

Fired with an ambition to do something, but apparently having no idea how to do it, Honolulu socialists met last evening and passed the following resolutions:

We residents of Honolulu, in public meeting assembled, assert that we are opposed to the importation of working men from foreign countries, because such importation is never in the interest of those imported, but solely for the purpose of increasing the profits of the capitalist class.

And we assert further that that clause in the immigration law which gives to State governments the right to assist immigration makes nugatory the intent of the law which was to protect the American working class from foreign competition.

Whereas, The government of the Territory acting as the labor agent of the capitalists of these islands, has imported people from Russia for the express purpose of making them wage slaves on the plantations, and

Whereas, The assertion made that these people are free to work where they please, is a mere sham, because this government in its capacity of labor agent, has exposed them, together with their wives and babies to actual starvation for four days, and thereby placed before them the alternative either to accept the conditions dictated by the plantation owners or to die of starvation and disease.

Whereas, Further the representations made to these people before coming here were partly misleading and partly false;

Whereas, This government has clearly shown its class character by disclaiming all further interest in the fate of these people by leaving them destitute and without food and shelter as soon as they had been landed;

Be it Therefore Resolved That we hold the capitalist class of these islands and its government responsible for the lives and welfare of these people, and that we hereby give voice to our protest against all acts in connection with this affair and any similar affair which may be contemplated for the future. And be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House, and to the Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

POACHING CASES ARE DEFERRED

Twenty-three Japanese walked out of the U. S. Marshal's office this morning, content and looking hopeful. Their cases have been put over until Tuesday, by request of counsel, when they are likely each to furnish $500 bail pending trial for bird-poaching on Laysan and Lisianski Islands.

ANOTHER BANK DYNAMITED

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

VIRGINIA, Neb., March 12.—The bank here was today dynamited and $7,000 stolen, the robbers escaping.

SAY GOVERNMENT IS UNREASONABLE

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

NEW YORK, March 12.—The American Sugar Refining Co., answering the charge of contempt for failing to produce its records, declares that the government search is altogether unreasonable.

COAL STRIKE IS OFF

SYDNEY, N. S. W., March 12.—The strike of the coal miners has been declared off.

METHODIST BISHOP DEAD

ATLANTIC CITY, March 12.—The well-known Methodist Episcopal bishop, Dr. Spellmeyer, has been found dead in his room, having died of heart failure.

PATTEN HASTENS HOME

LIVERPOOL, March 12.—Patten, the famous Chicago stock exchange operator, who was yesterday unceremoniously ejected from the Manchester exchange and saved by the police from the violence of the mob in the streets, sailed today for New York.

BALLINGER MEANT WELL

(Special Cable to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12.—Chief Engineer A. P. Davis of the reclamation service, today testified before the congressional committee engaged in the investigation of national land matters, declaring that Ballinger reprimanded Newell for requesting the resignation of the reclamation lecturer, who was receiving $500 per month in addition to his salary, though Davis says he does not intend to intimate that Ballinger intentionally did any wrong.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12.—The statue of Calhoun was today unveiled with befitting ceremony in the hall of statuary in the national capitol.

MALIHINI'S VENGEANCE

Because he got stung on a brass wedding ring, Marshall P. Taylor had a Porto Rican in police court this morning charged with making a practice of selling such rings, although there was no evidence of the fellow making such a practice except a confession which was hardly admissible as evidence, but which was admitted because it happened to be a police court case and not a trial by jury.

Taylor may have enjoyed the idea of getting even with a poor man to whom he gave half a dollar for what Taylor himself testified he thought might be a gold ring, but he certainly didn't enjoy himself under the scathing and searching cross-examination of Attorney Charles F. Chillingworth who gave as much attention to the matter, from which it is not likely he will get any fee, as if he were defending a man who had put up $1,000 retainer.

How Taylor and the Porto Rican happened to meet, and all that kind of thing, was objected to by Prosecutor Brown who appeared to take it for granted that the Porto Rican was a bad character, which perhaps he is.

Chillingworth appealed from Judge Andrade's fine of $25 and costs.

Bail was furnished and an interesting trial is promised for the circuit court, Chillingworth having a good defense.

Taylor's prosecution is one more addition to the cheap attempts of one man trying to get the better of another man and being bitten himself and trying to use the police court to get even.

The Japanese steamer Tamon Maru will be released from quarantine tomorrow, and will come alongside the railroad wharf to discharge her cargo of nitrates.

The American-Hawaiian steamer Virginia, with a full cargo of freight, arrived early this morning from Seattle and was docked shortly before eight. As soon as she is unloaded, the work of loading her for her trip to New York will commence.

George Dearborn, head of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, with R. D. Lapham, of the same company, will arrive here on Monday by the Mongolia. These two shipping men will arrange for the renewal of the contract for carrying sugar in ships of their line.

Cable advices have been received from San Francisco that the ship John Ena sailed for Honolulu yesterday in ballast.

The transport Logan will bring a large amount of forage for the army. It is expected that the Logan will arrive from the coast some time on Monday, en route for Manila.

SAYS EDMUNDS ACT WAS NOT IN FORCE

In spite of the fact that there have already been four decisions to the contrary in the United States District Court, three handed down by Judge S. B. Dole and one by Judge Woodruff, following Judge Dole's example, a comparatively new attorney here, W. B. Lymer, this morning in Federal court dared to attack the proposition that the Edmunds Act was in force in this Territory at the time, last year, when a Japanese, Ichitaru Ishibishiyi, is alleged to have violated aforesaid act.

Lymer argued that it was only at the beginning of this year that Congress made the old Utah law apply, and the case has been put over for the filing of briefs and will probably be decided two weeks from today.

Lymer showed precedents in such matters that had never been presented here before and, altogether, created astonishment by his plea which does not appear, in the opinions of older lawyers, to be of great merit.

CUTTER WILL HAVE DOPE

United States revenue cutter Thetis is supposed to be coming back here at the end of the month with a bunch of opium and a number of Japanese engaged in the smuggling of the dope.

This is the report, at least, among Chinese and Japanese who are becoming much more careful since the arrival here of the tricky little revenue cutter.

She can't go fast, but she has a faculty for doing things.

OLD ALAMEDA'S LAST TRIP HERE

After a trip of five days, nineteen hours and one minute, which was noted for fine weather from the start, the Oceanic liner Alameda making her last trip to the islands, came alongside her wharf at one thirty this afternoon. Purser Smith, remarked that it was seldom that the old ship had such fine weather.

There were sixty first class passengers, twenty of whom belong to a party under the care of J. B. Pearman Assistant Manager of the Chicago, Union Pacific and North Western line.

Among the passengers are Dr. G. H. Stover, of Denver, who is coming here to investigate the leprosy situation.

Milton D. Jacobs is the advertising manager of the Los Angeles Financier. Miss Toby Claude, famous vaudeville performer, is here for the Orpheum. Leo Cooper and Miss Elsa Van Braham, who compose the Cooper Company, will also go to the Orpheum.

Rev. C. W. Leffingwell is the founder and Rector of St. Mary's School at Knoxville, Illinois. A. F. Vick Roy is the assistant general superintendent.

LOSES FLESH FOR RUSSIANS

Secretary of the Territory and President of the Board of Health E. A. Mott-Smith has a great weight of anxiety since the arrival of the Russian immigrants, what with settling or endeavoring to settle their troubles and looking after the cases of diphtheria, chicken-pox, measles and what threatened to be worse.

He has lost seven pounds in the last ten days, and by the time the quarantine and labor matters are settled, as far as the Russians are concerned, he will feel like taking a holiday, though he is not likely to get it.

SOCIETY

BY MRS. RIVENBURGH.

RETROSPECT.

Raindrops dripping, dripping, dripping. All the gloomy day, And my thoughts as slipping, slipping Far and far away.

Now beneath a spreading shade tree On a lawn well smooth and trim, Where my rapturous loved one made me Own my tender love for him.

Now a mother softly singing To a baby young and fair, In her breast her heart's love springing As she smooths its golden hair.

Now, as every year arranges That we grow old gracefully, And as time brings many changes Here's a maiden rare to see.

Then this young and pretty maiden, Wife and mother, comes to be; While I seek the old, old haven In an arm chair, at my knee.

Sits another gold-haired lassie Bright and innocent and sweet, And I stroke her tresses as she Pets the kitten at her feet.

So with raindrops dripping, dripping All the gloomy day, So my thoughts are slipping, slipping Far and far away.

ELEANOR RIVENBURGH.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagens were hosts of one of the most delightful parties seen in Honolulu for some time, on Saturday evening, and a very large number of guests including local society people and some prominent members of the smart set in San Francisco were present. The luau was served in a large pavilion erected for the purpose in the grounds, and was truly Hawaiian in its melody of palm branches, bamboo and matie festooned within. A Hawaiian quintet furnished music to the delectation of the visiting strangers and a merry time ensued. Those present were: Captain and Mrs. Matson and Mrs. Ohlandt of San Francisco for whom the affair was given, Mr. and Mrs. Dredge, Dr. and Mrs. McNab, Mr. and Mrs. Pfotenhauer, Mr. and Mrs. Klebahn, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Dowsett, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. High, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Damon, Mr. and Mrs. Klamp, Mr. and Mrs. George Renton, Mr. and Mrs. J. One of the most graceful dancers seen for some time here is Athmore Gray now under engagement at the Orpheum. She is artistic and has poise and temperament, but it is greatly to be deplored that the environment, scenery and music are not quite in tune with the little artist.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper will entertain tomorrow with a delightful outing at their home on Tantalus. The affair will be informal and therefore all the more enjoyable, and it will be a refreshing treat to the visitors and other guests to discard the strict conventionalities of the more formal affairs given during the past two weeks.

Mrs. Cooper is one of Honolulu's charming hostesses and has won many laurels in society circles both here and in Europe for her sweet graciousness. Tomorrow's function is to be given in honor of Mr. and Mrs.

Dredge, Dr. and Mrs. Howard, Dr. and Mrs. McNab and Captain and Mrs. Matson of San Francisco.

Princess David Kawanakoa who has proved a most delightful adjunct to San Francisco's haut ton, gave an enjoyable luncheon today in compliment to Mrs. Harold Sewall. The table was prettily decorated with place pink carnations. The other guests were Mrs. Norman McLaren, Mrs. Florence Porter Pfingst, Mrs. Marcel Cerf, Mrs. Horace Blanchard Chase, Mrs. Uriel Seebree, Mrs. Briggs Holt, Mrs. Charles Gibson and Mrs. Noonan of Honolulu.—S. Among the passengers sailing on the Manchuria from Honolulu was Mrs. J. H. Vovode, who has been visiting there for the past two months. She will make an extensive trip throughout the Orient. During her absence her mother, Mrs. A. J. Moulder, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. Nichols on Devisadero Street.—S. F. Bulletin.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Currie, who returned a few days ago from New York, where several weeks were spent most delightfully visiting friends, left today for Honolulu.—S. F. Bulletin.

A merry party motored round the island on Thursday, making an all day excursion over the pali and through the picturesque settlements till Haleiwa was reached in time for luncheon, where special preparations were made for their coming. It was a perfect summer day, not a cloud to be seen anywhere and a very enjoyable time resulted.

The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young, Miss Ruth Young, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Young, Mr. and Mrs. Dredge, Mrs. Sullivan, Dr. and Mrs. McNab, Miss McNab, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Dr. and Mrs. George Herbert and Miss Rosie Herbert.

It can scarcely be said that the weather was propitious yesterday for celebrating one of our national holidays, but regardless of this fact "man-of-war row" presented a gala appearance. All the cruisers of the Pacific fleet were dressed from stem to stern in varicolored flags. They fired the national salute of twenty-one guns in honor of Washington's Birthday; several informal dinners were given on board the cruisers, while many of the jacksies were allowed to come ashore for a jolly dance which was held at Cottillion Hall.

Captain Charles Pond, commanding officer of the Pennsylvania, opened the ball with Mrs. Holden. Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. M. Evans were among others dancing.

The officers and crew of the Pennsylvania were hosts of the evening, and seldom has any ball given presented a more picturesque appearance than did this one.—S. F. Bulletin.

The Morning Music Club gave a very enjoyable open meeting on Wednesday morning with a delightful programme which was as follows: Andante Allegro—Mozart C Major. Mrs. Richards, Mrs. C. Cooke, Mrs. P. Cooke, Mrs. W. Love

The all absorbing topic of Honolulu during the past week has been the discussions of the grandest and most pretentious social event that has ever been seen in the Hawaiian Islands. It was the festivities attendant upon the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young, pioneers of modern Hawaii. Nel, whose celebration simply astounded society, and has caused lingering compliments even from those whose experiences have carried them to all parts of the world.

The festivities practically began on Saturday afternoon when all the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Young assembled round the happy couple to shower blessings upon them and present them with their handsome offerings. It was a most touching spectacle, and the honored father and mother were quite overcome by the demonstration of the great devotion and love of their children. During the afternoon many other beautiful gifts arrived each causing delight to the spectators when the mysterious dainty packages were unfolded revealing their costly burdens.

And then the flowers! Oh, readers, you should have seen those flowers! The Alexander Young's home at Waikiki is a spacious dwelling right on the sea beach surrounded by spreading green lawns and the interior of the home is filled with rare and costly furnishings. The lanai is famed with its polished floor, its Turkish and Persian rugs and elegant furniture. But as the flowers arrived they were arranged about till every nook and corner was banked full of the rare blooms, till it seemed as though there could not be a single blossom left in Honolulu shops. Pink carnations of every pastel hue were carried together, American beauties, Ice Cream roses, scarlet, crimson, lavender and white till not only the lanai, but the drawing room and dining hall were overflowing and the sweet fragrance of their alluring beauty filled the home.

On Sunday at one o'clock an elaborate wedding breakfast was served to the members of the family seated about the oblong table with covers for thirty. At the head of the boards sat Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young with the members of their family ranged about them graduating according to ages, till even the tots were included. The home was redolent with perfumes from the heaping masses of rare flowers sent from thoughtful friends the day before and the table was most beautifully decorated with baskets of pure white orchids and violets presenting a bridal appearance. Over the cloth these blossoms were also scattered intermingling with maidenhair fern, while the centerpiece, a gift from some of the members of the family stood in stately glory a pure golden vase handsomely engraved with the date and names of the recipients.

This is perhaps the most elegant floral vase in these islands and held white orchids in its outbending receptacle.

Another lovely feature of table adornment were the twelve solid gold plates, also given by some of the others in the Young family. In connection with the handsome green and gold service plates they were very elegant and four magnificent golden candelabra bestowed upon the happy pair by the remainder of the daughters and their husbands completed the decorations.

The gentlemen's place cards bore a golden slipper, while the ladies bore a beautiful bride with veil and orange blossoms.

A very sweet home day it was kept sacred within the family circle and many good stories were told and many many loving thoughts expressed.

Mrs. Young looked very handsome in an elaborate importation of black chintilly over white satin, with trimmings in black and gold, and wore the royal gold llama lei with which her loving grandchildren Alexander and Ruth Anderson had bedecked her. Although other leis from kamaaina friends were heaped high, these were the only ones worn by Mrs. Young. She carried a dainty basket tied with ribbons and filled with delicate white and lavender orchids.

Directly after breakfast moving pictures were taken of the couple walking arm in arm down the steps of the home to the lawn followed by a merry procession of the thirty members of the family present by expert Bonine. Other pictures were also taken of them all standing and sitting in groups upon the lawn.

On Monday evening as everyone knows, the reception was held at the Alexander Young hotel, over a thousand invitations having been issued. The roof garden with its terminals of beauty and elaborate adornment. Myriads of lights shone forth on the roof garden illuminating a scene of exquisite loveliness. A white canvas canopy was spread over the roof garden, from which a bewildering array of floral showers fell, swaying gently in the breeze. Every potted plant had undergone a transformation and was in full bloom with a variety of blossoms of all shades. At the entrance of the pavilion where the hosts received, hung a huge golden bell of electric bulbs, the feature of decoration, in a quaint framework representative of the village in the old world where Mrs. Young was born. This clever inspiration was the skill of Mr. Hoffmann, the hotel electrician and was a masterpiece.

The mauka pavilion was a bower of beauty most gorgeous flowers being in evidence everywhere, banked round the windows and framing floral alcoves of sweetness. Each color scheme was kept to itself and the room was filled with hundreds of roses, of all varieties, baskets of rare orchids, violets and yellow lilies. The piano was entirely hidden by a display of American beauty roses and in the alcove of the lounging room banked round with white pink tipped roses Mr. and Mrs. Young received, in luxurious draped chairs, resembling honored monarchs! Overhead hung four golden bells and round the hosts hung baskets of white orchids and asparagus ferns, while standing in the receiving line were the daughters and sons-in-law of the happy couple.

It took over two hours to shake hands with all who called to do honor to the occasion but the elderly people sustained the ordeal smiling graciously at all and extending a genuine welcome.

Mrs. Alexander Young was remarkably handsome in an imported confection of grey chiffon over grey crepe meteor, with silver and pearl trimmings and wearing most handsome diamonds.

Miss Ruth Young, who assisted her father and mother looked beautiful indeed, in an imported gown of pale pink satin embossed with pink and lavender roses.

The other daughters who assisted in receiving were Mrs. T. F. Dredge, in black chintilly over gold satin, Mrs. J. L. Howard in gold silk chiffon with silver trimmings, Mrs. T. R. McNab in white satin garnished with old rose point lace, Mrs. R. W. Anderson in an elegant gown of black crepe de chine with black passimenterie and Mrs. C. C. Von Hamm in a pink satin creation of striking and bewilderingly beautiful design. The husbands also received with their wives.

At the close of the reception a pretty feature of the evening was the appearance of little Beatrice and Gladys Dredge led in by the three tots of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Young. These little folks attired in correct Highland costume were gladly heralded and created quite a sensation. Mr. and Mrs. Dredge's children in their Scottish sword dance were sweet, and were greatly appreciated.

One of these also danced the "Golden Shower Dance" a new terpsichorean conceit and whirling her beautiful Golden Silk dress showered golden flakes over her honored grandparents.

Mrs. Bruce McV. Mackall also added greatly to the evening by rendering two vocal selections which were beautifully rendered.

She looked very lovely in white satin.

As Mr. and Mrs. Young heading the procession followed in line by those receiving and all the guests wended their way across the carpeted strip leading to the mauka pavilion for dancing the Royal Hawaiian band struck up the wedding march, and during the evening a band concert was enjoyed.

This ball room was in tones of yellow only. A great bell of yellow was suspended from the center of the ceiling whence yellow satin streamers fluttered down to the wall lights each one representing a yellow tulip. The effect was charming in fact the whole ensemble of decoration was so stupendous and elaborate it left but a blur in the imagination till the full realization of it gradually dawned.

A Hawaiian quintette rendered music and dancing was indulged in till the wee small hours.

A delicious supper was served in the dining room.

Among those present at this wonderfully beautiful affair were:

Governor and Mrs. W. F. Frear, Judge and Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Miss Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Damon, Miss May Damon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Damon, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. McCandless, Mr. and Mrs. Rodiek, Mrs. Center, Miss Center, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, J. H. Hertsche, Miss Helen Alexander, Prof. and Mrs. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd Smith.

The reception at "Arcadia" given by Governor and Mrs. Frear on Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 was one of the most enjoyable ever given at that beautiful spot. The Hawaiian band played as usual beneath the great shade trees on the lawn and the reception was held in the lovely home of the governor and his charming wife. These public receptions are a great stimulus to society people who find it refreshing to drop in and meet their friends and sip delicious punch or tea and above all enjoy a few words with Governor and Mrs. Frear whose hospitality is famous and whose welcome is always so alluring.

Governor and Mrs. Frear were assisted in receiving on Monday afternoon by Mrs. Robert Burdette of Pasadena, and Mrs. George Sherman of New York City.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. S. G. Wilder, and Mrs. Winslow, wife of Major Winslow of Fort de Russy, Waikiki. Others assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Mrs. Norton Bobb, Major and Mrs. Wadhams, Mrs. Sarah Newcomb, Mrs. P. F. Frear, Mr. E. A. P. Newcomb and Mr. W. F. Dillingham.

The young ladies attendant for the occasion a feature of these receptions which is so very pretty were Misses Cordella Gilman, Alice Bond and Dora Atwater.

Another brilliant feature of the reception on Monday afternoon was the

POSTAGE ON PUBLICATIONS.

There is strenuous war on between the Post Office Department and the magazine publishers. The department proposes to increase the postage on second class matter—or at least on periodicals—by from one to three cents a pound. Publishers now pay one cent a pound on newspapers and periodicals, the rate to the public being one cent for four ounces. It is estimated by the department that the carrying and handling of second-class matter costs 9.23 cents a pound. One of the arguments for an increase is that a large proportion of the bulk of the periodicals is made by pages of advertising, and that the government should not be expected to conduct the service at a loss for the benefit of private business. An answer to this plea urged by the magazines is that the advertising promotes trade and prodigiously increases the amount of first class mail. Figures given of the letters received and answered by some large advertisers are really very telling in this connection. Although the proposed increase will not cover all of the big difference between the present charge and cost, yet it will be great enough to compel the magazines to raise their subscription and sale prices materially.

Possibly the magazines can enlist public opinion against any increase strong enough to stall the departmental policy in Congress. They are certainly sparing no effort to that end. Besides fulminations against the proposal in the editorial pages of the magazines, a joint attack on the scheme has been made in a pamphlet entitled, "An Argument on Second Class Postage Rates from the Business Standpoint Alone," submitted to the Committee on the Postoffice and Post Roads of the House of Representatives by the Periodical Publishers' Association of America. In this brochure an attempt is made to show that the grounds stated by the department to justify an increase are fallacious, the points taken up being the methods of calculation, the length of haul, the equipment expense, the cost of fast mail trains, star route and steamboat services, the railway post-office car service, compensation of postmasters, clerks and carriers, etc. It is contended that the periodicals are unfairly charged with the postal deficit, when it is the rural free delivery service, together with improvidence in some of the other items above noted which should be debited. A slap is taken also at the franking privilege enjoyed by the government and members of Congress, which is held to be accountable for a large share of the deficit. There is moreover the suggestion that the establishment of a parcels post at reasonable rates would change the deficit into a surplus, it being argued that the government might well have some of the vast business now done by the express companies, one of which lately declared a dividend of thirty per cent. Withal the pamphleteer has the temerity to inform the department that it needs most of all expert business direction especially to handle its transportation problems.

That the attack upon the postage raising proposition is formidable is evidenced by the seriousness with which it is taken by the department. By a late mail The Star received a broadside sheet containing a summary of the department's reply to the pamphlet above mentioned. Its tone is not that of cool officialism. Rather does it evince the temperature of a political campaign polemic. For instance at the outset it states: "The pamphlet not only discloses a surprising ignorance of the postal service, but, what is still more unfortunate, it shows the lack of essential information readily obtainable. So far as the assertions made in the pamphlet have been given credence, the people have been misled," etc. A statement that the department's mode of calculating the cost of manipulating second class mail is curtly declared to be "absolutely untrue." The departmental champion proceeds to take up all the points of attack seriatim, some of his plain statements of fact certainly disposing of the allegations as unfounded. As showing just what problem the department faces, the conclusion of the defense is here reproduced:

The department's estimate of the cost of handling and transporting the several classes of mail matter was based primarily on the data procured with such great care by the special weighings and counts of mail in 1906 and 1907. Each process of computation entering into the results obtained has been verified in a most painstaking manner by officers of the service having expert knowledge of the subject. A thorough analysis of the argument advanced by the Periodical Publishers' Association regarding the department's figures discloses nothing to justify their modification in any essential particular. The government is losing over 8 cents a pound on second-class matter sent through the mails, the annual loss to the national revenues from this cause approximating $64,000,000. Under present conditions this loss is bound to grow larger from year to year. Surprising as it may seem, there are now about 27,000 publications in this country enjoying the second-class privilege, a large proportion of which are magazines, and the number is rapidly increasing.

The vast sum the taxpayers of the country are annually expending in order to permit the distribution of these periodicals through the mails at a rate of postage so far below the cost to the government could be applied in other ways for the benefit of the postal service with much greater advantage to the public generally. For example, if the rate on second-class mail were made high enough to cover the entire cost of transporting and handling it, which has not been suggested, it would be possible, without creating a deficit, to reduce the postage on letters from 2 cents to 1 cent. Every time a 2-cent stamp is now placed on a letter it defrays not only the expense of handling and transporting the letter, but helps in almost equal measure the cost of distributing through the mails the periodical publications of the country.

When all has been said that can be, however, on the department's side, there are still some of the general pleadings of the periodicals which must retain much weight in the minds of the national lawmakers. For example, it can hardly be gainsaid that the post office is not primarily, or at all, intended for revenue purposes. It is one of the great institutions of civilization established and maintained for the benefit of society at large. With regard to magazines and newspapers, they are recognized as among the greatest educational forces of the age. Any favor bestowed on them by government indirectly promotes intelligence and good citizenship. The consideration of what the advertising mediumship of periodicals does in creating first-class or letter mail, apart from its great advantages to the public at large, cannot be dismissed from the problem. Finally, there is undoubted force in the argument that the franking privilege is worked too hard and has not a little to do with the postoffice deficiency.

Governor and Mrs. Walter F. Frear entertained at a very handsome dinner on Thursday evening for sixteen guests who were seated at two tables, one of which was tastefully decorated in pale pink candelabra and pink roses, and the other in soft shades of pale green.

Paris is again paying allegiance to Dame Fashion who has agreed that the sable attire of gloomy winter must be laid aside for dainty fabrics and roses, the harbingers of spring.

Hats, gowns and even evening wraps are not considered a la mode without some dainty accessory in the way of flowers. They make hair decorations too and are worn in the same manner as were the rhinestone bandeaus which, by the way, they have absolutely displaced.

In fact it is predicted that ere long we will make our coiffures as elaborate as they were in the sixteenth century when Milady's head resembled a flower garden.

One of the handsomest dinners given at the Moana hotel this winter was that on Thursday evening at which Mr. and Mrs. George Smith presided. The color scheme and the unique conception of design were remarked by all present to excel those of any previous affair of the kind seen during the past season.

The decorations were in rose pink carnations of exceptional beauty arranged in the form of a huge star and interspersed with fine lace maiden hair fern. In the center of this design of floral beauty rose a French basket resembling a quaint Japanese pagoda holding a mass of the fragrant flowers and alluring pink lights shinning from within. At each point of the star stood an electric bulb concealed within the soft petals of a pink blossom making an effect too beautiful for description.

This elaborately appointed dinner was due to the artistic temperament of Mrs. George Smith, the hostess, who has won so many friends during her short stay here, and preceded the dance at the Moana that evening which the guests later attended.

Those present were Captain and Mrs. Ramsey, Captain and Mrs. Marix, Miss Kathryn Stevens, Miss George Smith, Lieut. Kilgore and Mr. Fulford.

Mrs. Ramsey and Mrs. Marix were resplendent in white lace robes and wearing beautiful jewels. Miss Stevens wore a daintily pretty pale pink mesaline gown which enhanced her girlish attractiveness. Miss Smith looked very lovely in a gold brocade trimmed with rose point lace, while Mrs. Smith the hostess was extremely beautiful in a French creation of white chiffon adorned with a border of pale pink and blue rosebuds and

I Became so Nervous I Could Hardly Bear to Think.

MISS JESSIE M. FRAZEE. MISS JESSIE M. FRAZEE, R. R. 2, box 82, Gilman, Ill., writes:

"I wish to recommend Peruna as a wonderful medicine. After suffering with every ailment that one could be afflicted with, I became so nervous I could hardly bear to think. My stomach would give me great distress, and I had catarrh of the bronchial tubes and throat.

"I began taking this valuable medicine and found almost immediate relief. I am well and hearty, and have not felt so well for years."

Peruna is not a nerve. It does not act as a temporary stimulant for the nerves. The only way that Peruna could possibly relieve nervousness is to relieve the condition on which the nervousness depends.

Take, for instance, the case of Miss Frazier, of Illinois. Her nervousness was undoubtedly caused by the condition of her stomach and bronchial tubes. Peruna relieved her nervousness by regulating the action of the stomach and mitigating the catarrh of the bronchial tubes. Her nervousness disappeared simply because the organs of her body resumed their ordinary functions.

Good nerves depend upon good blood. Good blood depends upon normal digestion. It is claimed for Peruna that it will produce a vigorous appetite and regular digestion. There is no want of evidence on this subject.

TODAY'S SESSION STOCK EXCHANGE

There has been only one session of the Stock Exchange—the regular one of the forenoon—today; and it was not a very lively meeting. By common consent, apparently, the week ends quietly, buyers and sellers holding on for about the only thing that can change conditions—altered status of the sugar market.

When the board met this morning two very good sized bond deals were reported. One was of $6,000 Hilo Extension six per cent. at $96.50. For the bonds $96 is still bid and $97 asked. Another big sale was of $43,500 Waialua fives at 101. This is not half bad, although the bonds are in ready demand at a half dollar less.

Oahu cut a wide swath between boards, although at slightly shaded figures. Blocks of 250, 100 and 50 shares sold at $38.25. At the close more was offered at the same, but bidding had ceased at $38.125.

On the board this morning there were two sales of Waialua—one of five shares at $135 and one of five at $134.50. More can be bought at 135, while $134 is the bidding basis.

Another sale on the board this morning was of 40 shares Haiku at $149, the first sale of the stock of any size in quite a while. At the close $139 was bid for it but holders were demanding $142.

Quotations on prominently active stocks were: Ewa, $34.875 bid and $35 asked; Hawaiian Commercial, $40.50 bid and $41 asked; Honokaa, $22.50 bid and $23 asked; Olaa, $6.875 bid and $7.25 asked; Olaa, $6.875 bid and $7.125 asked.

PROVISIONS, ETC.

The following are wholesale quotations for standard groceries, grocers' supplies and feedstuffs for this date:

- Flour, patent, $6.50 a barrel.
- Flour, straight, $5.25 to $5.50 a barrel.
- Corn beef, 1-pound tins, $1.75 to $1.85 per dozen.
- Corn beef, 2-pound tins, $3.00 per dozen.
- Rolled barley, $25 to $36.
- Hay, $28 to $30.
- Bran, $32.50 to $34.
- Rice (Hawaiian), $4 to $4.25 per bag. Very firm.
- Rice (Japanese), $4.25 to $4.50 per bag.
- Oranges are now $2.50 to $2 a case.
- Apples, $1.50 to $2.50 per box.
- Potatoes, $1.35 to $1.75 per hundred pounds.
- Onions—Australian, $3.25 to $3.75 per case. Oregon, about $1 lower than Australian.

GENERAL.

Definite information has been received that Hon. W. J. Calhoun, the

CROP CONDITIONS ON HAWAII ISLAND

PAHALA HAS THUNDER STORM AND HEAVY DOWNPOUR OF RAIN.

PEPEKEO AND HONOKAA BEGIN GRINDING WITH NEW MILLS.

REPORT OF LOW PER CENTAGE OF JUICE ALONG NORTHERN COAST.

The Mauna Kea, arriving this morning from Hawaii, brought to the various plantation agencies reports of conditions for the week now closing. In some places, grinding had been delayed, chiefly on account of the changes in mill machinery this year; but this week everything got under way in great shape and the work was being satisfactorily carried on.

Brewer & Company received advices of a very heavy thunder storm which broke over Pahala last Monday morning, accompanied by a very heavy rain on the highlands, extending also to the low lands later on. No damage is reported.

Hilo district reports very heavy rains during the week.

The Hilo Sugar Company started grinding on the 28th and excellent work was being done.

Pepeekeo also started grinding on the 28th having been delayed on account of the work of installing the new mill. Grinding at this mill usually begins early in February. The new mill ran rather heavy at first—which, however, was to have been expected—but is now doing finely.

F. A. Schaefer & Company received advices that grinding was coming along well at Honokaa. As at Pepeekeo, some trouble was experienced at first with the new mill but everything is now running smoothly. The extraction is climbing up, and it is believed that in a week or two everything will be in first class shape.

There was a rumor sent out from Honokaa that the first juice at Honokaa and at other north Hawaii plantations was below standard. This report will doubtless get around the streets, but it may be taken with considerable salt. The identical reports were sent out in regard to Ewa and Waialua. On the north of Hawaii (and particularly at Honokaa) the long drought was followed by copious rains. This combination of conditions has resulted in a depreciation of juice in small sections of early cane and as soon as this is off, nothing further will, in all probability, be heard of the matter.

NEW TELEPHONES AT THE HAWAIIAN

The new telephone system to be installed in the Royal Hawaiian hotel will be the most modern scheme of its kind in the islands. Each room in the main building and the numerous cottages will be equipped with an instrument, connecting with the hotel office. Through the office, connections will be made with any place on the island of Oahu.

In general, the system will work much like that at the Young, except that it will carry the automatic features necessary to fit it for service in connection with the city's new automatic plant.

The modern system at the Hawaiian new American Minister to China, will arrive here March 21 or 22 per the Japanese steamship Tenyo Maru. The former program for his entertainment by the local commercial bodies will be resurrected, brushed up and put into service.

lan will be an expensive luxury to start with, but will probably pay a fair interest on the investment, as a fee of five cents will be charged for each connection.

AFTER BEACH CORAL.

The Promotion Committee is very much in earnest in its efforts to clear the bathing section of Waikiki beach of coral. Other bodies have been asked to cooperate and the committee has led off by naming G. F. Bush as its committee to act with the others in the matter.

BEETS ERRATIC.

Day before yesterday beets were down, yesterday up and today down again. Thus it goes, and probably will go for some months. This morning the cable reported sales in New York at 14s 4 1-2d as against 14s 5 1-4d yesterday.

ISLANDERS IN TOWN.

Arrivals at the Young this morning from the other islands are: D. A. Jamieson, Parker Ranch, Hawaii; J. H. Morange, county superintendent of roads, Lihue, Kauai; N. C. Wilfong, assessor and collector of taxes, Hilo.

KAIMUKI LAND CO. BUYS BIG TRACT

After a week's negotiations between the officers of the respective companies, arrangements have been completed whereby over 1320 acres of the Palolo lands and all the water rights of Palolo Valley owned by the Palolo Land and Improvement Company will hereafter be handled exclusively by the Kaimuki Land Company Ltd.

Concerning the deal Mr. Stanton, of the Kaimuki Land Company, had the following to say: "We have acquired control of the Palolo lands and are going to sell them. Our plans for handling this property will be announced later and will not affect, in any way, our present work in the Kaimuki district. This is all I have to say at present."

This deal brings into the control of the Kaimuki Land Company a large part of the land on the south side of Palolo and practically all of the fine heights property east of Wilcox's old fort. The high section of the land corresponds strikingly with Aleva Heights on the north side of town, and is a second Pacific Heights except that the weather conditions are better.

A. Frank Cooke, of the Palolo Land & Improvement Company and nothing to say about the deal, further than to corroborate the statements made above. He feels that it is better for his company and better for the public that land dealing out that way take more definite shape than would be possible with a number of small companies pegging away with the same ends in view.

The deal gives to the Kaimuki Land Company a fine sweep of land extending almost from the sea to the mountain tops, and will enable that concern to meet practically any demand for building lots or properties for small farming.

TRAINS IN FOUR OR FIVE MONTHS

The Hawaii Herald of last Thursday, which arrived in the city by the Mauna Kea this morning, contains the interesting information that the new Hakalau extension of the Hilo railway will be carrying trains as far as Papaikou in four or five months. Mr. Dillingham this morning confirmed the story which is as follows.

Within the next four or five months the new extension of the Hilo railroad to Hakalau should have reached Papaikou and a service have been installed which will handle both passengers and freight according to the statement made by one of the highest officials of the road. In addition to this the statement is made that Hakalau should be reached by the first of the coming year.

In speaking of this matter, the following interview was given:

"While it will hardly be possible for the company to put on a regular service to Papaikou by July 1, still we expect to accommodate the patrons of the road before that is done. Some measures will be taken to arrange for a service which will allow the carrying of passengers and freight in and out from Hilo, before the entire work to Hakalau is completed. By the first of the year, however, the regular schedule to Hakalau should be in effect and this should mean a great deal to the merchants of Hilo, as very many people will come in to town to make purchases and do business of various kinds, who have been held back up to this time by the long drive over a very bad road. On account of this fact, that is that the road is so bad, the Hilo railroad will do everything possible to arrange for temporary accommodation for its patrons as soon as possible. Statistics have been kept of the amount of travel over the road, which shows that the passenger business done by the railroad should be considerable, and there should also be a large amount of outward freight from Hilo, which can be handled by the railroad at a very much cheaper rate than is in force at present by stage."

ANNUAL REPORT OF CABLE CO.

The annual report of the Mackay Companies, which operates the Pacific cable as well as numerous Atlantic wires and the land lines of the Postal Telegraph Company has been received here, having been issued as of February 15, 1910. Unfortunately for local people having well developed bumps of curiosity, no detailed facts concerning the business of the Pacific cable section of the gigantic system are given, only the totals being supplied. The report begins, however, with this pleasing statement:

"The Mackay Companies has no debts. Its outstanding preferred shares ($50,000,000) have not been increased during the past three years. Its outstanding common shares ($41,350,400) have not been increased during the past five years. The physical properties of its subordinate companies are maintained in excellent condition. All reconstruction is charged to operating expense. The Commercial Cable Company (the entire capital of which is owned by the Mackay Companies) has paid regular quarterly dividends for over twenty years."

In one place the report says: "The Mackay Companies will sell its entire holding of stock in the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, that step being in deference to public opinion, which views with suspicion this large holding of stock in a company which has recently purchased the control of the Western Union Telegraph Company."

The profit and loss account shows that the income of the companies has been $3,808,779.05 for the year, of which $2,000,000 were paid out to preferred and $1,758,867 to common stock holders. The operating expense, including transfer agents, registrars, auditors, and trustees' compensation, office rent, salaries, stationery, engraving of certificates, etc., is given as only $22,334.84.

BOTTOMLEY HAS A LOOK OVER OLA

A. W. T. Bottomley, of the banking house of Bishop & Company, returned in the Mauna Kea this morning from a tour of a portion of the island of Hawaii, six days of the time being spent at what is popularly termed Olaa plantation. From Olaa the Honolulu man journeyed through the districts in the north of Hawaii, and was favored with a general view of most of the big estates in those parts.

"I was much impressed and pleased with conditions at Olaa," said Mr. Bottomley this afternoon. "The cane is growing fine and looks remarkably well. The Puna cane is especially promising."

"I am satisfied that the manager's estimates for 1910 and 1911 are not too high, and that Olaa will come up to all promises made for it."

"My trip," added Mr. Bottomley, "was largely a vacation. I had begun to feel the strain of months of work, and anticipated that a turn through Hawaii would do me good. I feel better for the trip. Moreover, I was glad of the opportunity of witnessing first hand the improved conditions at Olaa since I visited there last year ago."

THE VACANT SEATS ARE CALLED FOR

Following the intimation thrown out a few days ago to the effect that the Stock Exchange would sell the three vacant seats on the board at an upset price of $7,500 each applications have been made for the seats, and it is now up to the exchange to sell or "take it back."

If the seats are released it will mean an increase of the membership of the board from twelve to fifteen, which some of the members favor and some object to, the latter not on account of objections to any applicant but for the reason that they think the board is big enough as it is.

The matter is being discussed by members on the streets this afternoon and will probably come up for action on Monday.

SPORTS

WHO WILL PLAY BALL

The line up of the baseball team that will represent Hawaii in the proposed triangular series between Keio and Santa Clara universities is causing no end of speculation among the fans, and the strongest team that has ever played for Hawaii will be in the line up on the day of the first game. Several teams have been mentioned as the best to represent Hawaii, and suggestions will be greatly appreciated by the fans.

A team that would be a strong one would be as follows: Hampton or Leslie, pitcher; Winne or Joy, catcher; Ed Fernandez 1st base, Harry Bruns or Henry Chillingworth second base, En Sue or Sam Shillingworth third base, Sing Chong or Lemon short stop, George Bruns right field, and Joe Fernandez left field.

SKATINK MARATHON.

Now that the manager of the rink has come forward with the news that a skating race over the full marathon distance will be held shortly at the Princess rink, there is a good deal of interest among those who can travel with fair speed on rollers, and a large entry list is expected. The race will be held on the night of memorial day, so as to give the entrants a chance to get in shape for the contest. Suitable prizes will be offered.

FIRST GAME OF SERIES.

Every thing is in readiness for the game between Diamond Heads and Japanese A. C.

No pains have been spared to get the grounds in good shape, a record crowd is expected to be present when Bert Bowers calls "play ball".

The band will be on hand to help liven things up and with the other noise that will be heard from the crowd no doubt, will show the people that more than usual interest is being taken in the outcome of the series. As far as can be learned, the odds seem in favor of the Jewels, although a number of fans feel that the Japs will annex the honors. However to make the series a success, every one who takes an interest in the national game is requested to be on hand at three thirty.

RETURN BOUT.

The injury received by Tommy Marlowe last week, and which caused the boxing match with McFadden to be called off at the end of the second round, will be healed sufficiently to allow Tommy to meet Jack on the night of May 30, when a big program will be held at Leliheua.

According to reports Marlowe was more than holding his own with McFadden and the lovers of the game are anxious to see these two again in action.

JUNIOR TRACK MEET.

The annual track meet between the athletes of Punahou, Central Grammar school and Kaahumahu school will be held on Alexander Field on the afternoon of the 26th. The future runners are getting ready for this event which was won last year by the team from Central Grammar School.

WRESTLING MATCH.

The much talked of wrestling match between "Sailor Roberts" and Big Bill Dettmers has been arranged for the night of April 2, and a big crowd will be on hand. Joe Cohen, who has charge of the plans, hopes he will be able to have several boxing matches in addition to the big wrestling bout, good news to the many sports who enjoy watching the game.

WEEKLY SHOOT.

Beginning on Wednesday next the weekly shoots of the Hawaiian Gun Club will be held on the club traps, and an interesting season of events is planned. The matches will start at five o'clock and will be finished before sundown.

GERAT FUN TONIGHT.

One of the largest crowds that has ever been at the rink is expected tonight to witness the third of the mask carnivals that have been arranged by the management. A number of new costumes will be seen on the floor. Several society matrons have been asked to award the prizes which are very suitable and pretty and the lucky ones will not be sorry for the trouble that they have taken in getting their costumes ready.

WHY INDIANS DROPPED BASE BALL

Some odd reasons are back of the action of the Carlisle Indian School authorities in dropping base ball and substituting for it the sport of lacrosse. The natural love of the Indian for the sport, his tendency to devote all his time to it to the exclusion of his studies and everything else and the temptations offered for playing professional ball constitute the reasons for Carlisle's action.

In discussing the situation recently with the writer Glenn S. Warner, the celebrated Indian coach, explained the case thus:

"We did not drop base ball as a sport because of any criticisms we had to make of the game itself. We had to take this action for the good of the Indian students. I have found that the Indians when they take to a sport become possibly more enthusiastic about it than the average white boy. As a result the Indian players never got enough of the sport. And those who had a little ability above the average wanted to play the game the entire summer. As all the Indian students are supposed to be under the control of the school, it is the desire of the authorities that they spend their summer learning farming and similar industrial occupations.

"Because of their great love of base ball it was frequently impossible to make the Indian ball players spend their summers as they were expected to do. Those who had exceptional ability were tempted to play professional or semi-professional ball and emulate Bender and other Indian graduates who have made themselves famous on the major league diamonds. Because the thing promised to get beyond the control of the authorities we decided to abolish base ball as a sport and to substitute lacrosse."

TOBY CLAUDE AND HER HAT BOX

Of exceptional interest to Honolulu theater-goers is the coming to the Orpheum of the inimitable Toby Claude, the diminutive English actress who became so popular throughout the United States as one of the star attractions in "The Chinese Honey." In the extraordinary large companies presenting that delightful comedy, Toby Claude easily took first place. From the time she appeared on the stage in the first act, lugging along a hat-box almost as big as herself, and her every action and remark comical beyond compare, she carried the house by storm. Her success in the United States was immediate and her appearance at any theater has always meant crowded houses.

COUNT TO MARRY AMERICAN GIRL

NEW YORK, February 26.—Count Anton Sigray, the Hungarian nobleman who is to marry Miss Harriet Daly, daughter of the late Marcus Daly, the copper king, shortly after Easter, arrived in New York today on the Mauretania. The Count, who has been in this country before as best man at the marriage of Count Szechenyi to Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, told reporters at the pier that he had come to New York to be married and then hurried away to his hotel.

The romance of the Austrian Count and the daughter of the American miner dates from the marriage of Miss Anita Stewart to the Prince of Braganza in Scotland last summer. The Count and the Prince are close friends and the former attended the wedding. There he met Miss Daly, who is an old friend of Miss Stewart.

When it became evident that the Count was paying serious attention to the young American girl, it was reported that his family raised strong objections. He was said to be heavily in debt. The figure was placed at $500,000. Gossip was to the effect that his family had offered to settle these debts if he would give up his plan of trying to marry Miss Daly. The Count turned down the offer, if it was ever made, and continued his attentions to Miss Daly while she was in Europe. Their engagement was announced early this month.

OUR OLD BAND

Editor Star:—We were well entertained last evening at Aala Park, by the Royal Hawaiian Band led by Professor Berger. Professor Berger is past master with the baton. His movements would have made Delsarte green with envy. The songs were well rendered by Madam Alapai, ably assisted by the orchestra. "Lelehua" speaks of that beautiful place now called Schofield Barracks. It was such a quiet place that one could well imagine King Kamehameha striding over the Waianae Range.

Now all is military bustle and while we are glad to have the army boys there—God bless them—our only regret is the change of name.

There was another song last evening, also named "Lelehua," a hula which was bright and pretty. "Oahu, thou Isle of the Sea," speaks of this Island, supposed to have been formed by Madam Pele's little imps when they were having Carnival or high jinks of some sort. Madam Alapai's beautiful sweet voice reaches those high notes in "Oahu" with perfect ease. "Hanaie" is a pretty little hula. All that was lacking was more seats. The haole had to stand until the last number.

BAKER ELECTRICS

The New Bevel Gear Shaft Drive Baker Electrics are outselling all other makes combined. One reason is the appearance of the new models—they are the handsomest electrics ever built. A bigger reason is the bevel gear shaft drive—the most important advance ever made in electric motor car construction. But the biggest reason of all is the Baker reputation, the result of eleven years of making good.

Discriminating motorists buy Baker Electrics because they know they can be depended upon to give satisfactory service under all conditions.

Exclusive Baker Electric Features

- Bevel Gear Shaft Drive—the most efficient transmission ever put into any motor car. Makes the car noiseless and requires attention only once in a season.
- Non-Sparking Motor—the only automobile motor built that will stand any overload without sparking or commutator trouble.
- Continuous Torque Controller—the only controller that can't arc, "freeze" or jerk the car.
- Patented Spring Suspension—the only suspension system that permits the omission of rattling radius or torsion rods.
- Cushioned Steering Connections—the only steering mechanism absolutely free from vibration.
- Center Bearing Wheels—the only bearings directly under the spokes.

PARADISE PARAGRAPHS

BY WILL SABIN.

The name of Atkinson's Siberian partner should be spelled Perilstress.

Andrew Carnegie reached San Francisco yesterday. There was an earthquake there the day before.

Compromise is like a mixed drink, and therefore dangerous. Compromise is a cocktail.

The Advertiser says "Venus disrobed yesterday in broad daylight and exposed her charms to the multitude." All Honolulu immediately became a Peeking Tom. Oh, that we could look upon the naked truth as fearlessly!

Out of the bunch of alleged socialists that got together last evening and passed resolutions objecting to everything, there were perhaps two men, or maybe three, who should have known better. They object to immigration. If they themselves would emigrate they would do the islands a service for which a vote of thanks would be heartily returned. The best socialism is helpfulness, not unqualified antagonism, chronic kicking, damnation, hot-air and whiskers.

According to The Bulletin, Halley's comet was seen yesterday. Dogs bark at the moon, but it is the first time dear Venus ever made a calf think a comet was coming.

Hanawake, the jolly Dutch Fort street watch tinker, really believes the name of the Diamond Head artillery post is Fort Kruger.

Chester Doyle, the young Hilo lawyer, is in town again. He says his clientele is Japanese, but there are only 78,000 Japanese in the islands.

Judge Lyman told Chet Doyle, Waianuenu barrister, that rolling stones gathered no moss. Chet replied that he went to Hilo to gather moss from the Hilo mossbacks.

A brilliant young commercial writer the other day remarked that if prohibition became law brewery stock would go down. We venture to surmise that if we all died by earthquake we'd be well shaken before taken.

What is the difference between socialism and society? Why, the police force, of course.

An anonymous correspondent addresses the morning paper with the suggestion that the Japanese plantation strikers made a mistake in "striking in a civilized way against barbarous planters," also threatening the destruction of "managers' mansions and mills and machinery." This is a mistake, for the strike was not civilized, thanks to the fates. "Civilized" strikes generally result in somebody getting hurt. As for the alliterative "managers' mansions and mills and machinery," it would appear that some socialist resolution strayed from last night's meeting and got in the wrong letter-box.

"Malihini" who hopes to be a reporter when he grows up to be a man, which may be in his next incarnation, should have much fertile material for a continuation of his mushy knocking of the islands and everything Hawaiian, for he has experienced the sadness of purchasing a ten-cent wedding ring from a poor Portuguese at the price of half a collar, which circlet he believed to be gold.

If he thought it to be real gold, how could his sprouting conscience reconcile him to accepting what had every appearance of being stolen goods?

"Malihini," by the way, is the gangrened specimen who gets the following sloop by the censor of the paper which doesn't pay him to buy phoney wedding rings from questionable parties in strange places at odd hours: "It is considered infra dig for a white man to be seen with a Hawaiian girl, or even a half white."

That's what his editor let pass, though the latter, of course, may never have noticed it.

Poor "Malihini"! Poor, putrid pup!
What could he have been wanting with a wedding ring, except for lonely meditation?

Considering his lack of years, which he will get over, and his lack of even near-human intelligence, which he will never get over, "Malihini" is qualifying for the championship at saying silly, senseless, nasty things. He should be whipped and put to work and not allowed the responsible privilege of getting his irresponsible slush in print.

Probably snubbed and disappointed, he undertakes to solace himself with published bitterness that merits him a trouncing.

"Malihini" says the majority of the local moving picture shows display pictures which are not only degrading but are positively harmful.

"If Malihini" has any respect for himself he should take some concern about what people may guess concerning his method of thought, for his exaggerated sensitiveness tends to reveal an evil imagination. There is occasionally a moving picture open to criticism, as detailing crime unnecessarily or suggesting unpleasant things, but it is not true that the majority or anywhere near the majority of films are degrading or anything like or near degrading. To give a man half a dollar for what you believe to be a gold ring seems more like degradation.

"In regard to the dance halls of the city, there is much conjecture as to what takes place," says this cheap imitation of a dwarfed Parkhurst. If he spent less time conjecturing and more time trying to see truth, it would be better for his general health, mental and physical.

"Malihini" says the lights in a dance hall were turned out for half a minute, during which half minute there were heard "several little half-shy squeals from female dancers and the sound of lip meeting lip." This is rather good description for a cub, especially a "Malihini" cub. But he goes on to say, "A public dance hall is not a proper place to kiss a girl in. Take her to some quiet place where one can linger over the operation."

Indeed! This is news, and not altogether bad advice, eh? But how did "Malihini" ever think of it?

There is a rose in the office of the Internal Revenue which holds the record in Hawaii for combined size and fragrance. Six inches in diameter and eighteen inches in circumference, it would make almost a bonnet for a girl, and such a buttonhole for a man as would stagger a dancing master. It was grown in Kalihi, where it is said there are no

UNION DEMANDS REFUSED

(Associated Press Morning Service.)

CHICAGO, March 12.—The railroad managers have refused the demands made by the unions of engineers and firemen.

It is believed that a strike of the railroad engineers and firemen on forty-nine railroads in the western part of the country is imminent. The reply of the managers to the ultimatum of the employees is a refusal to grant any concessions. As the unions had voted to order a strike unless their demands were acceded to, it is expected that the next step will be an order for a general strike.

ARBITRATION DEMANDED.

PHILADELPHIA, March 12.—Demands for arbitration of the strike are becoming insistent on all hands. Business men in all lines are demanding that the street railway employers abandon their attitude of refusing to deal with their men at all and consent to treat and establish a basis upon which the controversy can be arbitrated.

The business men of Philadelphia are now combining in a demand to bring pressure to bear upon the railway companies to seek the arbitration method of ending the present conditions of disturbance.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The policy of Secretary of State P. C. Knox in the Far East was discussed in congress today in connection with the discussion of the legislative and executive appropriation bill.

Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama made a severe attack upon Knox's administration of the Department of State. He said that Knox had not made good in the matter of Far Eastern affairs especially, and had not proved as able a diplomat as Root.

Underwood referred to Knox's scheme to neutralize the Manchurian railway which was disapproved by all the powers, as an example of the inefficiency of Knox in dealing with the Far Eastern situation.

ONE DAY'S BRAWLING RECORD OF THE PHILADELPHIA STRIKE

PHILADELPHIA, February 21.—Men too possession of the streets in many sections of the city yesterday, on the second day of the trolley strike. Cars were smashed, then burned. A score of riots, in which policemen, mounted on foot, used revolvers and clubs, sent more than 100 men and women to hospitals and impromptu infirmaries.

Counter attacks were made upon the policemen, and one will lose an eye, while others were injured by flying missiles. Violence began when it developed that the Transit Company had made good its promise to operate cars. This became more and more certain through the morning hours. Several serious outbreaks occurred before noon, but the turbulence did not reach its height until mid-afternoon. Then almost simultaneously, in widely separated sections, crowds of boys and men began a determined effort to aid the strikers.

The entire city last night was without means of transportation except for the Subway-Elevated Line. The order to cease operation was issued by the company. Grave technical questions concerning its charter right are involved in failure to afford facilities for transportation. Officials declared last night that the company had safeguarded its interests in the respect. This could be done, it was said, by the operation of a single car. What single car was operated could not be learned.

The Mayor took determined action in the northeastern section of the city, and recognizing the intimate knowledge possessed by Superintendent Taylor of the territory, Director Clay detached him from headquarters duty and placed him in the field in command of the police forces concentrated in the uptown section.

He issued a proclamation, announcing that he had ordered the police authorities to enforce the act commonly known as the Riot Act, and to use all necessary force to disperse unlawful assemblages. He called upon all persons using the streets to strictly observe the law by using them for travel only; to make no unnecessary stops, nor make outcries, nor use insulting language, and to peacefully move on about their business. Parents were requested to aid by keeping their children off the streets.

For the purpose of enforcing his mandate, the Mayor authorized and instructed Director Clay to appoint 3,000 special policemen, to possess the powers and perform all the duties of the regular employes of the Department.

Director Clay gave orders to Superintendent Taylor to order the names and addresses of all citizens offering their services as special policemen. The Director also instructed the Superintendent to notify all the men, about 900 in number, on the eligible list, for policemen, as certified by the Civil Service Commission, to appear at noon today to be sworn in and receive their uniforms and equipments. They will then report at the armories of the Second and third Regiments and State Fencibles and the 21st District police station at 3214 Woodland avenue for duty.

Realizing the gravity of the situation in the northeastern section of the city,

There was no development so far as the principals in the strike were concerned. Officials of the Transit Company confined their attention to operating the lines. Labor leaders assembled at headquarters in the Lippincott Building and followed developments at every car barn, receiving reports at frequent intervals from hundreds of watches.

Leaders of the strikers declared that not more than 200 cars had been operated. The company asserted that the full quota, 1040 cars, were available, and that the Sunday schedule was maintained, except in sections where there were disorders.

From the standpoint of the strikers, the most significant development of the day was an assurance from the Grievance Committee of the Central Labor Union that in certain contingencies a general strike would be declared. This announcement was made by John J. Murphy, president of the Central Union, following a committee meeting held in his home. Mr. Murphy threatened to paralyze the industries of the city if the Rapid Transit Company should import strike-breakers or the city order policemen to operate cars.

The committee's action followed ru-

These were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young, Miss Ruth Young, Mrs. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Von Hamm, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Dredge, Mr. A. Dredge, Miss Rosie Herbert, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Howard, Dr. and Mrs. McNab, Dr. and Mrs. George Herbert, Miss McNab, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Young and Mr. R. A. Young of Hilo.

The party met with but one slight delay after crossing the path which, however subsequently enhanced the pleasure of the outing as it brought the motorists up at the Swanzy home just in time for luncheon, a merry picnic affair out on the shady lawn under the great trees. The day was ideal not a cloud to be seen anywhere and the breeze from the bay was delightful.

After an enjoyable repast the little grand-children gathered round Mr. and Mrs. Young in a loving circle and sang "Her Old Grey Bonnet" a new Golden Wedding ditty and all joined in the chorus. It was a wind up of the jolly festivities as the visiting relatives of the Young family leave for their homes on the mainland in the "Lurline."

At Haleiwa delicious refreshments were served, the party returning home tired but happy at six o'clock.

Professor Maxwell and son who are stopping over en route from Australia to Washington, D. C., are at present the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Swanzy and Judge and Mrs. Sanford B. Dole. They intend to leave in the next Alameda for the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wall were hosts of a very pretty bridge evening on Wednesday at their home on Kewalo street to which a number of the smart set were invited.

The house was an indoor bower of ferns, palms, hanging baskets of lace maidenhair fern and the rarest orchids of lavender. With Mr. and Mrs. Wall, the parents of the latter Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewers received, and the guests were placed round ten tables, each for four persons.

The score was as follows: First prize for ladies, a handsome silver frame, was won by Mrs. C. B. Cooper, second prize for ladies, a beautiful Cloisonne teapot, won by Miss B. Ruth Young. Consolation, a rare Japanese brass art lantern, was awarded to Miss Walker.

The first prize for gentlemen, a bridge score, was won by General McClellan. The second prize was awarded to Dr. Wall. After the games were played a delicious buffet supper was served.

Among those present were General and Mrs. McClellan, Misses Rose and Josephine McClellan, Dr. and Mrs. McNab, Dr. and Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Sullivan, Miss Bertha Ruth Young, Mrs. Kennedy, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Von Hamm, Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Meyer, Mr. John McCandless, Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Klamp, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, Miss Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Wall, Mr. Sam Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weight and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith.

Judge Henry E. Cooper and daughter of Honolulu, are guests at the Stewart. They arrived on the Alameda yesterday.—Chronicle.

One of the events of interest this week was the wedding of Miss Agnes Marshall Tallafiero of Rapidan, Culpeper county, Virginia and Ensign Samuel A. Clement of the U. S. S. Dakota, which took place in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Wednesday afternoon, with the Rev. Alexander Allen, an uncle of the bride, officiating.

She was attended by Miss Helen Allen, the Ensign J. F. Cox, of the South Dakota, acted as best man. Ensigns M. E. Manley of the South Dakota and H. G. Geary of the California, assisted as ushers while the bride was given away by Sidney C. Van Wyck of San Francisco, who is a life long friend of her father.

The wedding Wednesday was the culmination of a courtship which began several years ago when the bridegroom was a student at Annapolis. Both are Virginians, Ensign Clement being one of the Clements of Chatham. His bride is a great grand daughter of Chief Justice Marshall of the United States Supreme court, and a grand-daughter of General Tallafiero of civil war fame, who fought throughout the four year's struggle

Sixteen times around the world Cadillac once more proves itself most economical motor car

Remarkable record submitted by 75 Cadillac "Thirty" owners in New York metropolitan district who have driven their cars 398,884 miles at a total cost for mechanical repairs of $53.21, averaging 71 cents per car

Equivalent to 16 times around the world—398,884 miles—at a total repair cost of $53.21!

That is the amazing record revealed by statistics just compiled from the experiences of 75 Cadillac "Thirty" owners in New York City and vicinity.

It is doubtful if the entire history of travel and transportation—steam, electric or gasoline—can show a case of parallel economy.

There was in this instance no special striving to attain a minimum.

The 75 owners went their separate ways with their 75 Cadillac "Thirty" cars, each without reference to the other.

They took no special precautions, but drove where they pleased, when they pleased, how they pleased; without the slightest idea that their experience was to be made a matter of record.

At the close of 1909 statistics were collected and compiled from the signed statements of the 75 users.

It was found that the 75 cars had traveled a total distance of 398,884 miles, or a distance equivalent to 16 trips around the world.

Forty-six of the owners had no repair cost whatever—not a single penny—in spite of the fact that some of them had driven their cars as much as 18,000 miles.

The highest individual repair charge for the entire year was that of one user, whose car cost him—for special reasons which did not reflect upon the construction in any way—$10, the distance it carried being 9,000 miles.

Eleven of the others expended during the year from 25 cents to 50 cents. The average distance traveled was 5,318 miles per car, yet the average repair expense was less than 71 cents per car.

The signed statements of these 75 users showed further that the average gasoline consumption for the touring cars was one gallon for each 15 miles of travel and one quart of oil for each 175 miles of travel. The Demi-Tonneau cars showed an average of 17 1-2 miles for each gallon of gasoline and 200 miles for each quart of oil. Some users obtained 20 or more miles for each gallon of gasoline, but the figures first given are averages.

There is no disguising the fact that this record has proved a revelation, even to automobile manufacturers themselves.

It proves beyond a doubt what the Cadillac Company has always maintained, that the elements in motor car construction which are absolutely necessary to economy and immunity from repairs are scientific design, standardization, accuracy of workmanship and correct alignment. Also that necessity for repairs is the result of poor design, inaccuracy of workmanship, ill-fitting and incorrectly aligned parts.

A year or more ago they proved before the Royal Automobile Club of London that three Cadillacs could be torn down; all the parts thrown in a pile; a portion of these parts discarded, and new ones substituted, and the three cars built up again from the heap of parts to run with absolute sweetness and without so much as an iota of looseness.

For this the Cadillac was awarded the Dewar Trophy.

And now comes another demonstration which simply emphasizes the fact that the convictions of the Cadillac Company as to the essentials of a long-lived, serviceable and economical car are correct.

Cadillac measurements are finer in a greater proportion of essential parts than those of any other car in the world—finer than the costliest cars made.

Town Talk

BY

"A little while ago one of the Honolulu newspapers gave a sort of roast to the postoffice people because the ledge of the stamp window was not as clean as it might be," said a prominent citizen the other day, "and intimated that the gummy substance on the stamps passing over it would gather up countless germs. Since then I have purchased stamps a number of times and each time they were passed out to me face down, so that the gummed side was just as clean and fresh as when received from Washington. I remarked to the clerk that that was a very good idea, but he waved his hand and said 'that's always been the custom, besides it's a department instruction.' So you see they're very careful even in small things, and should receive credit for it. Where so many hands of vasying degreases of cleanliness rest upon the ledge in a day's time there are bound to be germs, but the stamps handled thus is a happy thought and this is one of the many little things in life that count for a good deal in the long run."

They were talking about the Russians and of their allegations as to pretty stiff prices charged at plantation stores. One of the men in the group clinched the matter quite decidedly thus: "Yessir, they charge something outrageous! Why, do you know I once went to the company store over at ——— and got a can of lobster. How much do you think they charged me? Why, 45 cents. And I got the same can right here in town for 25 cents. What do you think of that?"

About once a week one of the Hotel street restaurants has on its bill of fare this enticing feature:

"FRANK FRITTERS AND SOUR CROUT."

Honolulu folks who have been away to the coast for a time see many changes about town that we do not seem to notice, being busy with the day's work. But stop a moment and look around. See how many more people there are on the streets; how well the shop windows look; the automobiles and delivery teams hurrying along; how well the people are dressed, and the general air of prosperity. Honolulu has advanced remarkably in the past several years, and a few years more will see wonders. When the Young Hotel was put up many people said it was twenty years ahead of the times, but see how rapidly the town is growing up to it.

A gentle reader some time ago came across an item in a paper from "back home" which seemed to her an excellent idea and clipped it, in-article she read, and was surprised to hear that the same method is used here (the little top minnows). To save time in explaining it, the clipping is here given:

The city of Tampa, Fla., has adopted a mode of warfare against the mosquito that is proving highly successful. There are many rainwater tanks and cisterns throughout the city for supplying water for lavatory and various other purposes, and these are favorite breeding places for mosquitoes. The warfare against the annoying pests consists in stocking these reservoirs with small fish to feed on mosquito larvae. This method has been tried in one place and another in Florida and has proved successful in every case. The fish eat the larvae greedily, keeping the tank water clear at all times. They live for years, even in tanks that are covered and their living place one of darkness.

There are a number of people around town expressing the opinion that the Joshua H. Buffoonery has been parodied to a frazzle, and that the public want to go back to the good old game of deciding where the new library is to be located. And as yet no one has suggested the old fish market, which is another sign that Honolulu is changing.

A young married man, walking down Fort street with a large cigar box under his arm, met a friend who glanced meaningly at the box with anticipation. "Your birthday?" he inquired. "Well, no, not exactly," replied the questioned one, opening the box with a smile. (In it was nothing but a small tin scoop.) "You see my wife is daffy about her house plants, and nothing will do but that I get her some sand to mix with the ground, so I'm on my way to the beach now to get it and this seems to be the most genteel way of carrying it. Honolulu folks, you know, are great for keeping up appearances, or I would take a bucket, as I would rather do."

bugs or beetles to attack the queen of flowers, and it is worthy of being preserved, if such were possible, in Brigham's museum.

There is another curio in Walter Drake's office, the office of the infernal revenue, and that is a clipped double page from a magazine, showing Uncle Sam in a cherry tree, counting the fruit of liquor traffic. Beneath is Carrie Nation, et als., trying to do it with their little hatchets, with no sign of success. It is supposed to be a cartoon on prohibition, the intended lesson of the satire being that, while the United States is reaping such harvests from taxation and getting other incomes from the liquor business, prohibition has no chance. Upon cherries picked by Uncle Sam, the Navy, the Army, the Postoffice, and the public schools are represented as thriving. It is a forceful cartoon, whether we agree with the sentiment expressed or not, and there must be a sense of humor were emphatically denied by officials

trary, it was declared, the company

sional strike-breakers

Instances not unlike civil war marked the street disorders.
At Ninth and Mifflin streets the masonary of the new Southwark School was torn down, and the stones were heaped in the car tracks. The assan-tants hid, ranger-like, behind stone piles, and at a given signal rose and smashed passing cars with rocks. An eight-year old boy who was riding in one of the cars was struck by a rock, and his skull was fractured, while a policeman who attempted to rout the crowd was felled with a cobblestone.

A squad of policemen using a heavy street stamper as a battering ram, crashed their way through the heavy doors of Shimt's Hall, Eighth and Mc-Kean streets, from the second floor of which striker sympathizers had showered bricks, stones and water on the officers. A desperate fight ensued on the stairway of the hall. Chairs and tables were converted into weapons. A dozen arrests were made, and a score of the participants were treated for scalp wounds at hospitals and drug stores.

Two cars were derailed at Fifth and Wharton Streets, and one was toppled over. Here, Charles Sieruphillit, a policeman of the Fifteenth and Snyder avenue station, was struck by a flying brick and rendered unconscious

At 23d and Lombard streets a girl, Mary Delvin, of 2518 Waverley street, was shot in the leg and her mother was shot in the arm. Members of the crowd clambered to roofs of houses and hurled the chimneys, brick by brick, upon the policemen below. Several of the policemen were rendered unconscious and others were knocked down.

Threats to blow up cars were made in Germantown. A crowd of 2,000 persons who congregated at the barns at Carpenter and Germantown avenue loaded the track with dynamite signal caps. People fled the cars in terror.

In West Philadelphia several cars were smashed, and the accident wards of the several hospitals across the river were kept filled for the greater part of the afternoon.

Lehigh avenue was the storm center from which disorderly crowds spread to all parts of Richmond and Kensington. At Fifth street and Lehigh avenue and on Somerset street, in the same vicinity, the crowd attacked a stalled car. The motorman was beaten into insensibility, and a brick struck a policeman who went to his rescue.

At Lehigh and Kensington avenues a crowd derailed, overthrew and burned a car, and in so doing injured a woman seriously. At sixth and Diamond street the crowd had increased to almost 3,000 persons, and the police of the Fourth and York streets station, were powerless before them.

Three Keystone Union men sought refuge on the steps of the Carnegie Library, at Sixth street and Lehigh avenue. Stopping but a moment in their flight from the infuriated crowds of sympathizers, they armed themselves with stones and clubs and held the leaders of the crowd at bay until a fire engine arrived and scattered the crowd by means of three heavy streams of water. A patrol wagon took the Keystone men to the station house, where they were protected.

C. O. Pratt, the strike director, was followed through the city by a shouting throng. With him were Peter Driscoll, the president of the local union, and John J. Murphy, the president of the Central Labor Union. The party stopped and made speeches at the Germantown, the Richmond street and Alleghany avenue, the Frankford and the Second street and Wyoming avenue barns, and at each place was greeted unroariously.

At the close of the day the company declared that 1200 cars would be operated today.

The police courts were busy all day with prisoners brought in from the districts where riot had prevailed.
These numbered considerably more

DRAMATIC SCENES AT PUBLIC LANDS OFFICE HEARING LETTER FROM PRESIDENT TAFT READ

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The expected clash between Gifford Pinchot and Secretary of Agriculture Wilson over the disputed question as to whether the secretary had given the former forester permission to write to Senator Dolliver the letter which resulted in Pinchot's dismissal came today before the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee.

Pinchot declared he had discussed the matter at length with Secretary Wilson, and that he understood his superior officer had given him express permission to write to Senator Dolliver.

Secretary Wilson immediately took the stand and asserted that while he had given Pinchot permission to write to Senator Dolliver concerning "departmental affairs," he never did and never would have given him permission to write a letter criticizing the President of the United States.

Pinchot declared that he and Secretary Wilson went so far as to discuss the executive order issued by President Taft forbidding subordinates of the various departments to give information to Congress, and added that the secretary said:

"You and I will have no trouble about that order."

Admitting that his memory failed him as to certain points, Secretary Wilson always came back to the statement that he never, under any circumstances, would have given Pinchot permission to write the letter that caused his retirement from the service.

PINCHOT SPRINGS SURPRISE.
Pinchot denied that he had been embittered by a dismissal which he considered unjustified. He denied also that there was a specific movement to discredit Ballinger. He added, however, that he and former Secretary Garfield, Glavis and others are concerned in a movement for the conservation of natural resources, and that they regard Ballinger as one of the greatest enemies of that movement.

There was much surprise when Pinchot announced to the committee that he based his charge that Secretary Ballinger had been guilty of making statements to the President that were absolutely false in three essential particulars, not upon a letter from Ballinger himself, but upon a letter written by J. T. Ronald, a former law partner of Ballinger, to Dr. Lyman Abbott. Pinchot said a copy of this letter, with annotations, was forwarded by Ballinger to the President.

He admitted that the three statements in the Ronald letter, which he claimed to be false, had previously been covered by a letter written by Ballinger himself to the President, in which Ballinger had stated what the witness admitted was a true statement of the facts. Pinchot said he did not attempt to reconcile these two facts.

the introduction in evidence by Pinchot of a long letter written to him by President Taft in September last, ROOSEVELT'S NAME APPEARS.

Asked if there was anything unusual in the interference of the forest service, Mr. Pinchot read a letter signed by President Roosevelt on May 17, 1905, directing the Secretary of the Interior to co-operate with the forestry service as to lands in forest reserves, and to adopt the service's findings as far as possible.

The witness here read into the evidence the full text of a letter written to him by President Taft from Beverly, September 13, 1909, at the same time he wrote to Secretary Ballinger exonerating him from the Glavis charges. In this letter the President expressed renewed confidence in Pinchot, but urged him not to make Glavis' cause his own. He referred to Glavis as disingenuous and as a man who had let one idea run away with his judgment. The President expressed regret that Pinchot did not share his confidence and trust in Ballinger.

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT.
The President's letter to Pinchot follows:

"Beverly (Mass.), September 13, 1909: My Dear Gifford: I inclose herewith a letter which I am about to send to Secretary Ballinger for such use as he sees fit, in reference to the charges made by Glavis against Secretary Ballinger, Pierce, Dennett and Schwartz. I have reached the conclusion only after a full consideration of Glavis' statement and their answers to it, but I never reached a conclusion based on a stronger conviction than this one is.

"Glavis seems to be a man who has acquired but one idea and who has allowed his suspicions to grow to such a point as to be altogether disingenuous in the statement of evidence which he adduces to sustain his attack upon his superiors.

"I have made no reference to you in this letter, which will probably be made public, because I do not wish to bring you into the controversy at all. I have advised Mr. Ballinger and his subordinates that I wish your name left out of the matter in their answers and references, should it become necessary, as is not unlikely, to send the whole record to Congress.

"I am aware from the tone of your letter and from your conversation with me that you did not give to Mr. Ballinger the confidence and trust which I do, and in this respect I think you do Mr. Ballinger injustice. I think you have allowed your enthusiasm in the cause of conservation and your impatience at legal obstacles and difficulties to mislead you in this regard, and that Glavis has himself led you to regard as suspicious a number of things, which, when weighed in the light of all the circumstances now known, are lacking in essential force to sustain such a serious charge as that of bad faith against officials who have heretofore shown themselves to be entirely trustworthy.

"I write this to urge upon you that you do not make Glavis' cause yours. You had no access to the records which Glavis had access to, and you did not know the explanation for some of the things that he pointed out as suspicious which he ought to have made known to you and me.

"I cannot for a minute permit him to remain as a subordinate in the Interior Department or in the public service. It would be fatal to proper discipline.

"On the other hand I wish you to know that I have the utmost confidence in your conscientious desire to serve the government and the public. In the intensity of your purpose to achieve success in the matter of conservation of natural resources, and in the immense value of what you have done and propose to do with reference to forestry and kindred methods of conservation, and that I am thoroughly in sympathy with all of these policies and propose to do everything that I can to maintain them, insisting only that the action for which I become responsible, or for which my administration became responsible, shall be within the law.

"I write this letter in order to prevent hasty action on your part in taking up Glavis' cause or in objecting to my sustaining Ballinger and his subordinates within the Interior Department as a reason for your withdrawing from the public service.

"I should consider it one of the greatest losses that my administration could sustain if you were to leave it and I sincerely trust you will not think that my action in writing the inclosed letter to Secretary Ballinger is reason for your taking a step of this character.

"When a man has been unjustly criticised, as Secretary Ballinger has been in the manner pointed out in the letter, a copy of which I send you, it is my duty as his chief, with the knowledge I have of his official integrity and his lack of culpability, to declare it to the public and to do him justice, however great inconvenience may arise in other respects.

"I have been greatly disturbed by the public discussion carried on in the press, from which it is inferred that your bureau is arrayed against the Interior Department, and that material is being furnished for both sides from official sources. I was especially distressed by McHarg's reported interviews, though I believe he is now repudiating any criticism or slurring remarks concerning President Roosevelt. He was an efficient officer, but he talked too much and wildly, and his withdrawal relieved me.

"I must bring public discussion between departments and bureaus to an end. It is demoralizing and subversive of governmental discipline and efficiency. I want you to help me in this. I can enforce team work if I can keep public servants out of newspaper discussion. Very sincerely yours,

"WILLIAM H. TAFT."

Pinchot also read his reply to the President, dated November 4, 1909, in which he renewed his criticism of Secretary Ballinger.

GARFIELD SCORED BALLINGER.
Pepper read a letter written November 6th last to President Taft by former Secretary of the Interior James R. Garfield, in which he, too, sharply criticised Ballinger.

"The claim that I acted illegally," said Garfield, "is based entirely upon the fundamental difference between my policy and that of Mr. Ballinger. I felt free under the supervisory power and executive discretion of a Cabinet officer, to take action in the interest of the people so far as there was no prohibitory provision of law. Mr. Ballinger seems to take the position that he will not act even in the interest of the people unless there is a specific permissive or mandatory provision of law."

There was next read Secretary Ballinger's reply to President Taft regarding the Garfield and Pinchot letters. In this letter Ballinger said:

"I am convinced that much of the animus against me is due to the fact that I have had to find so many of my predecessor's acts were without warrant of law."

CHARGES AGAINST BALLINGER.

Pinchot declared in his preliminary statement that Ballinger in his letter had been guilty of three misrepresentations to the President. He wished to point out the first of these, he said, by the declaration that the letters and the exhibits "don't match." Pinchot said the letter referred to reclamation withdrawals, whereas the exhibits cited by Ballinger referred wholly to withdrawals made under a supervisory power.

Pinchot next read from the letter this statement by Ballinger: "The only error I made in the whole matter was in not making restorations and rewithdrawals (of power site lands) concurrently, which I would have done had I been as conversant with the facts then as now."

"Do you consider the course taken by Secretary Ballinger in restoring all these lands without investigation looking to rewithdrawal a proper one?" asked Attorney Pepper.

"Certainly not," replied Pinchot.

Pinchot declared former Secretary Garfield often had told him that he had told Secretary Ballinger he believed the Cunningham claims to be fraudulent, whereas Ballinger, according to the witness, sought to give the impression that Garfield had not made any such statements.

PINCHOT AND HETCH-HETCHY.

"I have a letter from Secretary of Agriculture Wilson saying he desires to be present when any testimony is given as to the Dolliver letter," said Chairman Nelson.

The examination was turned aside and a message sent requesting the immediate presence of Secretary Wilson.

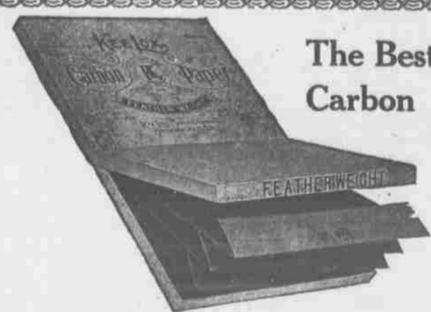

Representative McCall said he had been requested to ask Pinchot what part he had played in turning over the Hetch-Hetchy valley to the city of San Francisco for a water supply.

"That is a very complicated question," replied Pinchot. "In the first place, the valley never has been turned over to San Francisco. That action would have to be taken by the Secretary of the Interior. Any action on my part would be merely in an advisory capacity. The events occurred so long ago I would like to have an opportunity to refresh my memory before testifying definitely. The suggestion of any action came from San Francisco and not from me."

The agreements as to the Hetch-Hetchy grants were called for by the committee.

AT HALEIWA.

Week-end parties are getting to be popular at this well-known resort, and the number of visitors is increasing as time goes on. Tourists have learned of the resort and nearly everyone arriving here from the coast includes Haleiwa in his itinerary. There is much to commend it. The golf links are superior and some of the finest tennis players in the city use the Haleiwa courts for tournaments. Guests play golf and tennis, and spend their time in driving about the country or in swimming and boating. It is a short distance away by train or auto.
