

GEORGE COOPER OF MAUI SHOT, KILLED; CRIME A MYSTERY

BODY OF HANA MAN IS FOUND SHOT IN BACK

Unknown Assassin in Early-Morning Hour Slays Well-Known Citizen of Valley Isle

DISTRICT GUARDED AND SHERIFF ON THE TRAIL

Neither Identity of Killer nor Motive for Act Known to Neighbors or Maui Police; Lived at Town Many Years

(Star-Bulletin Special by Mutual Wireless)
WAILUKU, Maui, Sept. 6.—George O. Cooper of Hana, Maui, was shot through the back and killed at an early hour this morning by an unknown assailant.

The assassin made his escape and at this hour his identity is a complete mystery. The cause of the shooting is also shrouded in mystery. Not a definite clue has so far materialized.

The body, with the bullet wound through it, from the back, was found at 5 this morning on the plantation railroad track near the plantation office.

The entire district is guarded by the police and indignant citizens, and Sheriff Crowell is hurrying to take personal charge of the investigation.

No motive whatever is known for the deed.

"Cooper of Hana"—as he was widely called—has been for more than a decade one of the best known men of the Valley Isle. A resident of the Hana district for more than 20 years, he was active in community life and politics.

He is survived by a widow and several children. When news reached Honolulu today that he had been shot and killed, it came as a shock to many friends here.

At the offices of Davies & Company, agency for Kaeleku Sugar Company, nothing had been heard of the assassination. Cooper has been bookkeeper for Kaeleku for many years. It was his custom to go to the plantation office early in the morning and open up for the day. One conjecture made today is that the deed was committed for the purpose of robbery.

He has been active in Valley Island politics for many years, a staunch Republican.

MANY DIE FROM ASIATIC CHOLERA, SAYS DR. PETCH

Nagasaki Death Rate 50 Per Cent, is News Brought By Sheridan's Surgeon

Asiatic cholera is raging in Nagasaki very virulently, according to Dr. T. R. Petch, surgeon of the U. S. army transport Sheridan, which arrived this morning from Manila, via the Japanese port.

"On the evening of August 21, the night before we sailed from Nagasaki for Honolulu, Japanese quarantine officers told me there were then 340 cases in the territory under their jurisdiction, which includes not only the city but surrounding territory."

"They said new cases were being reported at the rate of from 50 to 60 a day, and that the death rate then from the disease was about 50 per cent." He added that the strictest precautions are being taken in Japan to prevent any further spread of cholera and that all ports are being watched closely.

In Nagasaki none of the Sheridan's crew nor passengers were allowed ashore. When the transport docked this morning and the first and second cabin passengers stepped ashore, after receiving passes, it was the first time they had left the ship and set foot on land since leaving Manila, August 15.

AD CLUB'S VOTE ON BOND ISSUE MUCH IN FAVOR

Postal Card Returns Received to Date Show Members Back Proposed Plans

By a vote of 61 to 19 members of the Ad Club so far participating in the postal card vote are recorded in favor of the proposed bond issue. At the Ad Club luncheon at the Young Hotel today Albion Clark, chairman of the roads committee, read the returns to date. There were 84 returns received and out of these 61 voted yes. Several were not definite.

Many of the returns are to come, but the first vote showed that the bond issue is strongly favored by members of the Ad Club who had discussed the situation. Many of the replies received contained emphatic declarations of opinion, in addition to the vote.

Among the answers received were some who gave reasons as follows:

"Place the sewerage under the frontage tax."

"Yes, provided that the money is properly spent and the graft cut out."

"Kalaheka avenue must be fixed first."

"Lay a duty of $10 a ton on outgoing sugar."

"No, not by a — sight, if the present bunch of boneheads are going to control it."

"Roads are wanted first."

"No, the water rates will be sufficient in the future to pay for improvements."

Chairman Clark in his report gave a clear view of the situation, and impressed upon the members the need of establishing a permanent system of roads. He remarked that at the present time there is an 8-inch pipe on Kalaheka avenue that has been there for 20 years, and before a permanent road is built the underground sewers and water pipes must be large enough.

Clark read the following letter from George P. Castle on the bond issue, sent in conjunction with a favorable vote:

"I believe in bonds for extensions, but that that water and sewer users, and no one else, should pay for their privileges. Therefore the rates for both should be high enough to cover running expenses, repairs, upkeep and enough to build up a reserve sufficient for the eventual payment of bonds. If this is not done then it becomes a tax on parties not benefited. I do not think that a man living in the city suburbs, and not having the benefit of city water or sewer, should help to pay the cost of same for the benefit of city users, any more than he should pay for their gas or electricity."

"Very truly yours,"

"G. P. CASTLE."

CHALK IS SOLD FOR

ASPIRIN; GOT 5 MONTHS

SAN JOSE, Cal.—Six months in the county jail and a fine of $500 was the sentence imposed by Justice of the Peace U. A. Sontheimer today upon B. S. Levin, a Los Angeles salesman, on a charge of selling adulterated drugs. Levin was charged with selling precipitated chalk for aspirin and according to Professor Lee of the state department of health, Levin engaged in a wholesale trade through the Pacific coast cities. Numerous druggists have been heavily fined for retailing the "aspirin" sold to them by Levin.

BUSINESSMEN IN G. O. P. PRIMARY FOR LEGISLATURE

Clarence H. Cooke and T. H. Petrie Added to List of Candidates for House

MANY ASPIRANTS ARE IN FOURTH DISTRICT

Senate Ticket Still Indefinite With Several Doubtful Men on Verge of Decision

Predictions in political circles that Republican legislative candidates would be forthcoming from the ranks of well-known businessmen were fulfilled today when Clarence H. Cooke, president of the Bank of Hawaii, and T. H. Petrie, secretary of Castle & Cooke, decided definitely to run for the lower house.

Republicans have had inside information for several days that the nomination papers of both had been made out and filled with many signatures of leading businessmen and voters of all classes, and that it rested only with a moment of decision by the two as to whether they would be candidates. Cooke is a veteran in the house through previous service and his chairmanship of the committee on education was marked by much achievement. Petrie, while new in legislative office, has had plenty of experience both in politics and in public and semi-public office, holding honorary appointments which he filled with credit. No doubt is expressed by Republican campaign leaders that both will be elected.

The fourth district house ticket is filling up rapidly with Republicans seeking the nomination at the primaries. The list now includes Cooke, Petrie, Andrew Bright, C. H. Brown, John K. Kamanouli, whose candidacy is expected to be announced shortly, Lorin Andrews, J. W. Canario and others. Canario and John Fernandez, who is a pumping-plant engineer, were said today by Republicans to be about ready to file.

Visiting Salvation Army Officer Tells of Stirring Times He Left Behind

Bubbling over with military enthusiasm not only for the Salvation Army but also for the Allies' armies came Lieut.-Col. John MacInnes direct from England in the Niagara on his way to New Zealand where he will be chief secretary of Salvation Army work. He spent several hours here with local Salvation Army workers. Mrs. MacInnes and their two daughters, Esther and Catherine, accompany him.

MacInnes left London August 5 and has since been traveling across the Atlantic ocean, part of the states and part of Canada and last over the Pacific. He says the whole of England has been converted into one great war camp with everything commercial as well as military appropriated and directed by the government.

"Holidays, Sundays, rest hours, all have been forgotten," says the Salvation Army man, "the one main incentive of everyone being to see it through. Munition factories as well as those where anything necessary to the soldier is turned out night and day. Never before has England seen such industry and zeal and the common belief now is that the day of peace is approaching."

Victorious Peace Expected
MacInnes does not infer, however, that England would accept anything short of a victorious peace but he says it is the general impression that this is at hand. They have established with the other Allies an iron band; now they are preparing to squeeze it, he says.

"There is no dissatisfaction in England now," is one of MacInnes' statements. "England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales are united with all the colonies with the common desire to win, regardless of the cost or time of struggle. Everything was scarce at the first of the war but now there is plenty of men, munitions and money."

ADVICES AS TO SHIPPING BILL FAVOR HAWAII

Chamber of Commerce Receives New Bulletin Which Gives Idea of Provisions

FOREIGN BUILT SHIPS CAN BECOME ELIGIBLE

Restrictions in Original Bill Are Reported Removed and Some Provisions Widened

Further advice relative to the provisions of the new shipping bill were received by Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Tuesday afternoon in the form of a bulletin issued by the national chamber of commerce. It confirms the impression that the Pacific Mail steamers and any foreign built steamers which have passed through the shipping board become eligible to engage in Hawaii trade. It casts little light on the matter of control of the Inter-Island line by such board.

The bulletin received by Brown says in part:
The shipping bill, after being before the senate since August 8, passed on August 18 by a vote of 38 to 21 (H. R. 10455, page 325). The regulatory powers of the shipping board, the senate insisted, should apply to vessels on the Great Lakes but limited them to regular lines on the lakes. Tramp steamers are by express language removed from the regulatory jurisdiction of the board. The senate adopted the suggestion of its committee that vessels which had passed through the hands of the shipping board, even though foreign built, should be eligible for use in coastwise trade, thus leaving this question to be decided in conference. Several subjects were in the senate specifically added to the shipping board's jurisdiction to investigate; they include discriminations by foreign governments against American vessels, the rules of construction and classification used

The revenue bill, which has the provisions aimed at retaliatory measures against the Allies' interference with American trade, is in conference between committees of the two houses. It is thought that final action on it will be reached tomorrow. It is hoped to adjourn on Thursday.

BRITISH STRIKE HARD NORTH OF SOMME, RUSSIANS ON EAST; RUMANIA ARENA IS DOUBTFUL

OFFICIAL ACCOUNTS FROM ALLIES AND TEUTONS ARE CONTRADICTORY—GERMANS AND BULGARIANS MAY HAVE TAKEN SEVERAL TOWNS—SLAVS APPROACHING LEMBERG

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Sept. 6.—Despatches from the war zone today show that the British have struck another heavy blow at the Germans north of the Somme river while simultaneously the Slavs are battering in the eastern line of the Teutons at half a dozen points.

On the west the steady pressure of the Anglo-French forces has been punctuated with sudden, smashing attacks along the Somme sector. In the latest of these, last evening, the British captured the whole of Leuze wood.

Fighting between Leuze wood and Combles continues, the British and French driving hard to capture this strategic point. South of the Somme, between Denicourt and Bervy, the Germans made repeated attacks. Here they were under the fire of the French "seventy-fives" which directed against them such a curtain of flame that the infantry charges broke down.

On the Verdun front the Germans are making vain attempts to capture Fleury.

On the eastern and southeastern fronts the Russians are rolling forward large armies against the Austro-Germans in Volhynia and Eastern Galicia.

Slavs Take 3500 More Prisoners; Are Now Approaching Lemberg Fort

Official Statement of Battles in East Rumania Contradictory

LONDON, England, Sept. 6.—The accounts sent out officially from Teuton and Allied sources today are contradictory regarding the fighting on the new Rumanian front, where the Teuton-Bulgarian forces have launched an offensive movement along the Black Sea littoral.

The fighting is taking place in the district of Dobrudja, in east Rumania. Rumanian official reports say that the invaders have been checked early in their campaign and the entire Rumanian frontier is in possession of the defenders. German and Bulgarian statements report that several towns have been captured from Rumania, with heavy losses inflicted on the soldiers.

Berlin Admits Teuton Front On East Pressed Toward Lemberg

BERLIN, Germany, Sept. 6.—Official admission is made from German military headquarters today that the Russians have pressed back the Teuton east front between the Zlota Lipa river and the Dneister.

On the west front the Entente soldiers have captured Clerly, three and one half miles northwest of Peronne.

In southeastern Rumania the Teutons have stormed and captured the Tutakan works.

PETROGRAD, Russia, Sept. 6.—Official—The Russians have captured the fortified positions in the direction of Halicz, southeast of Lemberg, and driven the Teutons to the northwest.

The advance in the Carpathians has been continued. Near Ognott, in Turkish Armenia, the Slavs are advancing against the Turks and inflicting great losses.

Rumanians Cutting Into Transylvania

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Sept. 6.—Teuton attacks today against the Rumanian positions at the bridge-head of Tutakan were repulsed.

GIRL FINALLY IS GIVEN HAVEN AMONG INSANE

Maria, the 16-year-old girl who isn't wanted, has completed the circle. Tuesday she was committed by Police Surgeon R. G. Ayer and Judge J. M. Monarrat to the insane asylum. But they truthfully say, "We did not want to do it."

"It seems there was nothing else to do," says Ayer. "The industrial school, where she was committed the first time, didn't want her, although to me that was the logical place for her to go. The Queen's Hospital could not keep her indefinitely, the city jail was no place for her, so the insane asylum seemed to be the only place for her to rest in peace."

The doctor, the judge and many others who have been interested in the case of Maria are still strongly desirous of a home for the feeble-minded or a poor farm or something of that nature where such subjects as Maria could be properly attended.

"LUCKIEST MAN" IS NOW IN LONDON GAOL

LONDON, England.—"The Luckiest Man on Earth" was billed to appear at various British theatres, and advertisements stated this man, Thomas Slark, to be the sole survivor of the Bulwark, blown up off Sheerness; the man who brought down a Zeppelin in the Thames estuary with one shot; the man who went below and stoked the King Edward to keep up steam when she struck a mine, and one of the six survivors of the Invincible.

After being landed as a hero in several places, Slark was hauled up in police court, a detective branded his story as untrue and he was held for trial on a charge of obtaining money from a theater on false pretenses.

hundred officers on the firing line and maintains hut meeting houses and soldier civic centers behind the lines similar to those of the Y. M. C. A.

MacInnes has been in the Salvation Army service for 33 years, starting in Aberdeen, Scotland, his birth place. During that time he has been identified with the movement in many cities of the British Isles, including Glasgow, Birmingham, London and places in Wales. For the last three years he has been located in Manchester.

And speaking of Manchester he becomes excited.

"It's the most industrious city in the world now without a doubt," he exclaimed. "Everybody that can do something does it and most of them can. They are turning shells out there by the millions and when the cartridge boxes are cleared away they start all over again."

In Manchester are many hospitals for wounded soldiers and just before leaving for his 13,000-mile jaunt to New Zealand he visited many of the boys who had come from the place to which he was going to get a message here and a letter there or a verbal message of love or endearment to carry to their homes. It was in one of these hospitals that MacInnes heard and saw one of the pathetic sights of the war.

Mrs. MacInnes spoke to an Australian boy and asked him if he would like to write a letter home. As an answer he asked her to raise the bed spread. Both of his hands had been shot off. Mrs. MacInnes took the stumps in her hands and tenderly thanked the boy for his noble sacrifice. In return he exclaimed:

"Maybe you appreciate it all right, but how will the other people when it is all over? Will they realize how many have been killed and how many practically ruined for life?"

Mrs. MacInnes comforted him with assurance that most people would.

Miss Mary Booth, a daughter of Gen. Bramwell Booth of the Salvation Army, is one who has sacrificed everything to do her own share of war work, according to MacInnes. She is now in a European hospital.

In New York City MacInnes was delighted with the work being done by the Salvation Army although his movements were restricted to certain areas on account of the infantile paralysis epidemic and because he had two daughters under 15 years of age. Before crossing into Canada they were subjected to a rigid medical examination. The Canadian Salvation Army work pleased the visitors immensely.

abroad and conditions in marine insurance. The amendment which is perhaps most important was adopted with no dissent; it provides that if any vessel carrying cargo for a foreign or domestic port and having empty space unreasonably refuses to carry any proper cargo tendered by a citizen of the United States and accompanied by a proper tender of freight charges, clearance may be refused by the secretary of the treasury.

Upon learning of the passage of the bill Brown cabled to the national chamber of commerce for information as to its final terms and received the following reply:

"Our bulletin 37 mailed August 21 described shipping bill in all important ways. As becoming a law coastwise provisions as described in the bulletin are kept and broadened so that any foreign built vessel passing through the shipping board into private ownership is eligible for all coastwise trade."

Brown infers from the bulletin and the cable combined that the restrictions contained in the syllabus of the bill originally are removed and that the Pacific Mail steamers are or can readily become eligible for Hawaii passenger and freight service and that the same is true that other foreign vessels taking the requisite steps can also become eligible.

Relative to control of the Inter-Island by the shipping board rather than by the utilities commission, Brown infers that it will be so controlled, reaching that conclusion from the sentence in the bulletin which reads, "Tramp steamers are by express language removed from the regularity of the jurisdiction of the board."

ELEPHANT RIDES ENJOYED DAILY ON NIAGARA

"Riding the elephant" was the favorite deck sport aboard the Canadian-Australasian liner Niagara on the voyage down from Victoria and Vancouver. Women passengers of the big steamer enjoyed free rides daily on the broad back of "Daisy," the female elephant. Miss S. Joseph brought to Honolulu today for the Kapiolani Park zoo.

The Niagara and Susie arrived this morning, docking at Pier 7 about 10:30. The liner was off port early this morning, but because her draft is too heavy for Pier 10, the only available dock, she had to wait outside until after the Shinyo Maru had backed away from Pier 7 at 9:30 and left for San Francisco, before she could get a berth.

Because of the delay in docking the Niagara, due to steam from Suva, Auckland and Sydney at 2 o'clock this afternoon, cannot sail until 4 p. m. today. She is taking mail for Fiji, New Zealand and Australia.

Of the Niagara's 133 first-cabin passengers, 57 were for Honolulu. The number of second-cabin passengers for this port today was 25 and steerage three.

Through passengers are 78 first-cabin, 27 second and 14 third. This does not include 40 first and second-cabin leaving this afternoon from Honolulu. Excellent weather all the way down, so much so that Daisy was able to promenade on the boat deck all the way down, was reported by Capt. J. T. Rolls, the Niagara's commander. Freight brought to Honolulu was light, 12 tons, including two automobiles. Among the through passengers is Lieut. R. M. Sternile, a wounded New Zealand army officer, returning from the war zone, being severely wounded by shrapnel "somewhere in France."

NEW LINER WILL REPLACE LOST CHIYO MARU

(Special Cable to Nippon Jiji)
TOKIO, Japan, Sept. 6.—The Toyo Kisen Kaisha will construct a new steamer to take the place of the Chiyo Maru, wrecked on Lema island, south of Hongkong, the morning of March 31.

The big new liner's name will be San Francisco Maru. Her displacement will be 10,851 tons and her speed and equipment the same as the two remaining ships of the Big Three, the Tenyo and Shinyo Maru. An advance of two yen a month has been made by the T. K. K. in wages paid its seamen. Before the Tenyo Maru sailed from Yokohama last month the men declared they would strike if their wages were not raised.

According to officers of the Shinyo Maru, which sailed this morning for San Francisco, the above cable news is correct. They admitted the company has raised the wages of all its sailors, as promised. Officers of the Tenyo Maru last month denied a raise was contemplated.

MR MORGAN BUYS PROPERTY IN PARIS

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan has just purchased the residence of the late Vicomtesse de Tredern, in the Place Vendome, Paris, facing the Ministry of Justice. It is understood that the Morgan-Harjes bank, which has hitherto occupied premises in the Societe Generale Building, Boulevard Haussman, will be transferred there.

The premises in the Place Vendome were owned, in 1704, by Claude Paparel, Treasurer of War, who bestowed them as a wedding gift upon his daughter, who married Marquis de La Farre.

The building belonged, before the Revolution, to the De Beaumont heirs and was owned subsequently by Mr. Say before becoming the property of Comtesse de Tredern.

MONEY IN TAME "WILD" DUCKS

WILLIAM ROCKEFELLER

Enormous profits in raising wild water-fowl has resulted in a bulletin by the Audubon societies giving the results of exhaustive experiments on the estate of William Rockefeller at Tarrytown, N. Y.

"The people of America are just beginning to find out how easy, profitable, and altogether desirable it is to raise wild ducks," said T. Gilbert Pearson, secretary of the societies. "Some millions of farmers regard it as worth while to keep flocks of hens, and in the barnyards of many of them domestic ducks may be seen waddling about. The great majority have yet to learn, however, that with little additional trouble they may easily add to their poultry such birds as mallards, black ducks, and a variety of others. Live wood ducks are now bringing from fifteen to twenty dollars a pair. In some states it is illegal to sell game-birds for food, but in these states a special provision is made, permitting the sale of those wild ducks and other game-birds most successfully raised in captivity. Thus a high premium on a pecuniary standpoint is being offered to energetic raisers of wild-fowl."

Poultry-raisers in western Europe are said to have been acquainted with the possibilities in this direction for a long time and have been taking advantage of them to a marked extent. In addition to the experience of the Europeans, the Audubon societies have had an expert examine into the question where stock can be secured, what kind of surroundings are necessary, the construction of breeding pens, kind of food for the fowl at various ages and dangers to be avoided.

The demand for information on wild-fowl raising has grown so great, it is reported, that the National Association of Audubon Societies, at 1974 Broadway, New York City, has put the results of its study of the question into an attractive twenty-five-cent book which is said to be in great demand among farmers and poultry raisers.

LONDON WILL NOT ENFORCE QUARANTINE.
LONDON, Eng.—Replying to the proposal to enforce a quarantine against infantile paralysis on board steamships from New York, the Local Government Board, which has jurisdiction in such cases, has decided, according to the morning newspapers, that "the quarantine is absolutely useless in respect to any acute infectious disease, and attempts to enforce it regarding poliomyelitis would be impracticable and mischievous."

The Lancet, the leading medical journal in Great Britain, calls attention to the fact that thirty-nine cases of infantile paralysis have been reported in Aberdeen, Scotland.

In company with the rest of Europe, Sweden turned up the clock one hour this summer, although "daylight saving" was hardly a necessity in this land of long twilights and white nights.

RETALIATION FOR THE BLACKLIST

It was pointed out in these columns some time ago that Uncle Sam has several methods of retaliation which can be used upon Great Britain if the latter continues and develops its illegal and impudent attempts to interfere with legitimate American business.

One of these methods is now invoked in the shipping and revenue bills which will become law ere this session of Congress passes into history. The shipping bill contains provisions which empower American officials to refuse clearance papers to vessels belonging abroad and which are operated to execute the "boycott" scheme. The revenue bill has a retaliatory provision putting it into the hands of the president to place a ban on foreign products under certain conditions.

How the British blacklist works was recently told the house committee on interstate commerce when Representative Bennett was given a hearing on his bill for criminal prosecution of steamship companies and officers charged with aiding and abetting the blacklist. Representative Bennett at this hearing made the following statement:

"American exporters, having sold non-contraband goods to South American firms 'blacklisted' by Great Britain are unable to secure steamship transportation even on American ships. Despite treaties between England and the United States, American ships would be denied coal and other facilities if they carried American merchandise to 'blacklisted' consignees."

"An American firm cannot ship a single bale of goods to South America unless the British government approves. We have the right to ship to South America or elsewhere, or else we cease to be a sovereign nation."

"The 'blacklist' is a bold attempt by Great Britain to take over the South American trade, and Congress should give the state department a weapon in securing American rights."

Complaints are being heard in Honolulu that Britain's assumption of authority over American business is becoming more and more noticeable. It is difficult to secure instances of it, for the firms feeling themselves aggrieved in most cases will not talk. Apparently nothing but the most vigorous action by the United States government will prevent foreign interference with American business. Here is another case where citizens may expect the administration to make its words felt.

Germany lost hugely in American sentiment when the Lusitania was torpedoed.

The Allies' trade methods, with Britain apparently leading the way, are such as to anger Americans and alienate support for their cause. Probably Britain does not particularly care for that. But Britain will feel it peculiarly if retaliatory methods are invoked against her trade. That will hurt England.

"JIM" JUMP, PROMOTIONIST

James W. Jump, the Los Angeles businessman who visited Hawaii last winter for game-fishing, has issued a remarkably fine little booklet entitled, "Jumping Around in Hawaii," and those who followed this energetic sportsman on his various excursions will appreciate the title.

The booklet is a splendidly-illustrated pamphlet on game-fishing in Hawaii, and written with the brimming enthusiasm which is characteristic of "Jim" Jump. Its sub-title is, "A Partial Appreciation of the Best Big-Game Fishing and the Finest Hospitality in the World," and fully half of its 20 pages is a tribute to this hospitality.

As a piece of advertising for Hawaii, it is unsurpassed by anything the Star-Bulletin has seen written by a mainlander, which is high praise, and its illustrations and general make-up are extraordinarily effective. This booklet will bring many noted fishermen and splendid sportsmen to Hawaii, and the cordial thanks of all Hawaii are due "Jim" Jump for the whole-hearted manner in which he has written, had printed and distributed at his own expense this sincere appreciation of the islands and their attractions.

BOTH SIDES OF THE BOND QUESTION

In another column today the Star-Bulletin publishes a letter from Supervisor Robert Horner, explaining his attitude upon the proposed bond issue. Supervisor Horner cast the only vote last night against the bond election. In brief, his position is that the road-needs of the district of Honolulu are so great that they should be given immediate attention, and that the bond plan as now put up to the voters allows too much for water and sewer department extensions and too little for road improvement.

Public opinion upon the bond issue is slow to crystallize because of lack of information among the citizens. It is with a view to putting both sides before the people that the Star-Bulletin publishes Supervisor Horner's letter. There are businessmen of sound judgment on both sides of the question and the more information which can be disseminated between now and election day, November 7, the better prepared will the voters be to cast their ballots intelligently.

It is characteristic of the Allies that they should attempt to have such submarines as the Deutschland and the Bremen ruled into the warship class. It is characteristic of both sides in this great conflict that they should attempt to evade international procedure and to make new rulings advantageous to their own facilities for conflict. Germany endeavored to conduct a ruthless submarine warfare in violation of international law and performed repeated acts of such violation. Later, when Germany evolved a mercantile craft able to slip by the Allied patrols, the Entente Powers tried to get the United States to accept the principle that all submarines are vessels of war, which would make mercantile trade by the Bremen and the Deutschland impossible. In a battle of such tremendous forces as are engaged in this war, and with such world-issues at stake, the doctrine that might makes right is invoked as it suits the convenience and strategy of the combatants.

Investigation of the stories told by young Joe Phillips of alleged ill-treatment at the boys' reform school have resulted in vindication of Superintendent Anderson. The vindication was expected by those who know of Anderson's work at Waialea, just as the puncturing of the lad's stories was to be expected. Reform schools are universally the center of wild yarns reflecting on the management and when these yarns come from lads with a long record of incorrigibility, no credence should be placed in them until they are confirmed by official investigation. Under its new management the reform school is not only doing good work but is building the foundation for much better and broader work.

The Star-Bulletin has received many compliments upon its special Hilo issue last Saturday. What primarily made the edition effective from the standpoint of advertising the progress and attractions of Hilo and the Big Island is that the Crescent City and the island "have the goods"—something worth putting into pictorial and newspaper-article form.

Honolulu keeps on producing champions. The latest is the submarine K-8, which in the year's work just finished has topped all the other submarines in Uncle Sam's service. The other members of the submarine flotilla here have also done splendid work. The service boys bring much fame as well as popularity to Hawaii.

Joe Fern once again will toss his hat into the ring and run for mayor. This time Joe is supporting the frontage tax, which shows that he has more than a casual idea which way blows the political wind.

"Czar" Ferdinand of Bulgaria will probably go down in history as a remarkably bad guesser.

That is Somme fight!

COLLEGE OF HAWAII WILL OPEN DOORS MONDAY FOR YEAR'S WORK

Large Attendance Expected as Many New Students are Now Registering

The College of Hawaii opens next Monday morning, Sept. 11. On that morning all students, new and old, regular and special, will register for the work of the first term. Tuesday the classes begin their regular work for the year. Many of the new students have already filed applications with the entrance committee and had their credentials passed upon, thus ensuring smooth sailing on registration day.

Three members of the faculty returned to Honolulu yesterday and today. Professor Frank T. Dillingham has spent a year in New Haven studying in the graduate school of Yale University, from which he received a master's degree this June. Professor A. R. Keller returns from a year of study at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Harvard. He, too, received a master's degree in June. During the summer the Illinois state board of health tried to secure his services as engineer at what is understood to have been a very attractive salary. In view of the number of well trained engineers to be found in Illinois, it is a decided compliment to Professor Keller that such a responsible position should have been offered to him.

Mr. Rock returns from a trip to the East Indies and the Orient in search of new botanical material, especially seeds of trees suitable for trial planting in Hawaii.

Three members of the faculty will be on leave during the first half of this year. Professor Andrews is studying at Harvard, Professor MacCaughey at Chicago and Professor Chipman in New York. Miss Dieckmann of the Y. W. C. A. staff will handle Dr. Andrews' classes in his absence. Mr. Rock will care for the freshman botany and Dr. Kuhns of Queen's hospital for the bacteriology. Miss Katherine Scott will assume Miss Chipman's duties in her absence, and will have the assistance of Miss Harbaugh. All of the absent faculty members will be on hand for the work of the second term of the year.

Present indications point to a large attendance of students and a year of marked activity.

PORTO RICO IS LABORING WITH JITNEY PROBLEM

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico.—The jitney automobile is carrying more than 3,000 passengers a day here and causing a serious loss to the electric street railway system, according to a statement made by O. M. Sewell, general manager of the Porto Rico Railway, Light & Power Company, who asserts that the company's loss since January 1 has amounted to $34,000.

Reports prepared by the company show that since the jitney first made its appearance here last November there have been from 35 to 183 in daily operation. None of the jitney owners operating cars before January 1 now have their cars in service, it is asserted, and all have lost money, in the contention of the street railway company. Gasoline was nineteen cents per gallon when the jitney first appeared, now it is 36 cents per gallon.

Operated like a pair of shears, a new implement, revolves a buffer to polish the fingernails.

IRISH BARRED FROM WORK IN HARVEST FIELD

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 15.—Hundreds of Irishmen, young and old, are walking the streets of many English towns because they have been refused employment on harvest work, in quest of which they crossed the Irish sea. The English laborers have barred the Irish and the English farmers refuse places to them for fear of getting into difficulties with the native labor.

The whole trouble is said to be due to the fact that while English labor in the army is in Ireland receiving one shilling a day as government pay the Irish laborers—excluded from provisions of the military service act—take their places in England at six and seven shillings a day.

In Lincolnshire and other important farming counties on the east coast the situation is said to have grown serious. There is no denying that labor is needed to harvest the crops, but the farmers are unable to employ the Irish. They have been told that a rupture will result which

SHAFTER NEEDS MORE FACILITIES FOR POSTOFFICE

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Sept. 6.—It would be of great convenience to officers, as well as all persons living at Fort Shafter, if some way could be found by the present postmaster to have the foreign mail, papers and registered mail brought up from Honolulu by a more rapid method of transportation.

It is certainly disappointing to see newspapers and magazines for sale on the stands of Honolulu fully 24 hours in advance of our receipt of the same. Probably some better method of distribution at the central office and the Fort Shafter office can be devised by which mail would be at the disposal of Fort Shafter (as it is often so officially important) as soon as in the case of the Honolulu office.

will leave them without any labor at all. The difficulty is said to be increased by the shopkeepers in the villages who decline to sell them food.

SOCIETY

SYDNEY VISITORS ARE HOSTS

Messrs. L. O'Hourke and G. Gould, two representative visitors from Sydney, Australia, were hosts at a most enjoyable luncheon after the races on Monday, September 4.

Tea, coffee, ices, etc., were daintily dispensed on the lanai at the Moana hotel. The alcove, in which refreshments were served, was transformed into a bower. The tables were decorated with American Beauty roses. The Stars and Stripes, Union Jack and Australian flags were proudly intermingled.

The afternoon passed very pleasantly, conversation being interspersed with musical numbers. Miss Myrtle Alexander sang "Aloha Oe" very sweetly, accompanying herself on the ukulele.

The favors were miniature gold outrigger canoes. Among the overseas visitors present were Mrs. H. M. Bennett, London; Mrs. H. Alexander, Australia; Misses Rose and M. Alexander, Australia; and Signorina Mimi Bennett, Italy.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Sept. 5.—In spite of the fact that here in Hawaii the army is "doing foreign service," many officers are asking for an extension of one or two years. Officers who have completed their tour and gone back to the mainland write back to friends of the longing they have for this Land of Paradise, and that those who asked to remain an extra year were surely "wise in their time."

Where, for the army, is there a station to compare with Schofield? There is no other place where the climate permits one to enjoy for the entire year, dancing, golf, tennis, riding, motoring, and swimming. To be sure there are many places where all these diversions are indulged in the year around, but not with the keen enjoyment and comfort as here at Schofield. Furthermore, being the largest post in the army, there are more social activities here.

Lieut. and Mrs. Livingston Watrous entertained most delightfully for Miss Charlotte Stuchul of Pennsylvania, who is visiting her sister and brother, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond Bliss of Honolulu. A large round table, in the center of which was a huge cluster of pink asters surrounded by silver candle holders with dainty pink shades, was attractively appointed. Tiny asters in pink decorated the name cards. Around this attractive table were seated Miss Charlotte Stuchul, Maj. and Mrs. Lewis S. Sorley, Miss Lila Wilson, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Capt. Alexander Macnab, Lieut. Edward C. Rose, Lieut. Frank V. Schneider, Lieut. Ora M. Baldinger, Mr. Walker Atkinson and the charming host and hostess. The party later went to the 25th club hop.

The 1st Infantry Reading Club met with Miss Evelyn Hodges last Wednesday.

Col. Carl Reichmann has quite recovered from his injury and returned to the post only to go to Honolulu again, this time, however, for temporary station at Department Headquarters.

Lieut. and Mrs. Eley P. Denison entertained at dinner Tuesday last week, the occasion being Lieut. Denison's birthday. The birthday cake which was white with yellow candles occupied the center of the table, and strewn over the table were yellow marigolds. The guests found their places by some appropriate symbol. Lieut. Carl Baldinger, who is something of a carpenter, found at his place a toy hammer; Mrs. Baldinger, having recently had a slight operation on her foot, found a small doll on crutches to mark her place; Lieut. Richard T. Taylor found a bucking horse with the rider in mid-air, as he was thrown off a horse some time ago; Mrs. Taylor, who is sewing of her small daughter in anticipation of orders to the mainland, knew by the tiny figure busily sewing that she was expected to sit there; Lieut. Denison, in charge of the Amusement Hall, was given a fan, he being a movie fan; Mrs. Denison cooked the delicious dinner and marked her place by a tiny tin bowl with a spoon in it.

Capt. and Mrs. Robert P. Harbord have moved from quarters number 1201 to quarters number 1236, 25th cantonment.

Robert Janda, son of Capt. and Mrs. Joseph F. Janda, had as a guest for last week, Junior Van Way, son of Capt. and Mrs. Charles W. Van Way of Honolulu.

Capt. and Mrs. Walter E. Pridden gave a charming supper for Miss Julia Heedner of Philadelphia on Wednesday evening. The guests were seated at small tables decorated with sweet peas in pink. Those asked to meet Miss Heedner were Capt. and Mrs. Thomas H. Lowe, Miss Lila Wilson, Miss Evelyn Hodges, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Miss Margaret Merrill, Miss Stella Nathem, Miss Adele Mason, Miss Hortense Short, Lieut. Roy Jones, Lieut. John Simons, Lieut. Eugene M. Owen, Lieut. Otis K. Sadtler, Lieut. Robert T. Snow, Lieut. Frank J. Riley, Mr. Greig and Mr. Burnie of the Bishop Banking Company. The party joined the dancers at the Cavalry club later in the evening.

Mrs. James E. Chaney has been confined to the house for some time with a wrenched back and is now able to be out and about again.

Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson honored Mrs. William W. Forsyth with a charming bridge luncheon Thursday, entertaining Mrs. Henry E. Eames, Mrs. George G. Bailey, Mrs. Douglas McCaskey, Mrs. Thomas F. Schley, Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins, and Mrs. Randolph. The luncheon table was most attractive with pink and purple asters and the name cards also in pink and purple.

At a table most unusual and most attractive with corn flowers and tiny red berries and the soft glow of candles throwing their radiance over the perfect appointment, Capt. and Mrs. Josephus S. Cecil entertained Maj. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames, Col. and Mrs. Richard C. Croxton, Capt. and Mrs. James P. Barney and Capt. and Mrs. Daniel H. Gentry at a delightful dinner on Friday night.

Mrs. Douglas McCaskey gave a most enjoyable bridge luncheon on Wednesday for Mrs. William W. Forsyth. On each table was a bowl of vari-colored phlox. The guests were Mrs. Charles A. Hedekin, Mrs. James P. Barney, Mrs. William McCaskey, Mrs. Livingston Watrous, Mrs. Louie Beard, Mrs. Harry D. Blasland, Mrs. William W. Forsyth, Mrs. Americus Mitchell, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. George G. Bailey, Mrs. Horace D. Bloomer, and Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins. The phlox which were charming boxes filled with bonbons were presented to Mrs. Schley, Mrs. Beard and Mrs. Prunty.

Capt. and Mrs. Daniel H. Gentry have taken a suite at the Alexander Young during the former's detail in town.

Mrs. William E. Shedd entertained the Musical Club last Wednesday morning. Mrs. Robert Sears and Mrs. Charles Naylor charmed the members by their music on the piano and Mrs. William A. Aiken, Mrs. Harry Biddgett, Mrs. Jerome Pillow and Mrs. Shedd sang most delightfully. Mrs. Lyon and Mrs. Randolph were guests.

Mrs. Robert R. Love and Mrs. Augustus Lawrence were hostesses at a tea in honor of Mrs. M. A. Wright and Mrs. Frederick Black on Friday afternoon. The beautifully appointed table had a low centerpiece of pink roses. Mrs. Benjamin Atkinson served tea. Mrs. Charles A. Hedekin, Mrs. Jerome G. Pillow, Mrs. John J. Boniface, Mrs. Hazel Haynes and Mrs. Victoria Pick assisted. Among those who called during the afternoon were Mrs. Horace D. Bloomer, Mrs. John F. Guilfoyle, Mrs. Daniel H. Gentry, Mrs. William Nalle, Mrs. John J. Boniface, Mrs. Clarence F. Day, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. Charles A. Hedekin, Mrs. Jerome G. Pillow, Mrs. Robert Cheney, Mrs. William McCaskey, Mrs. John D. Reardon, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Harry D. Blasland, Mrs. Henry C. Hodges, Mrs. Philip J. R. Kiehl, Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham, Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson, Mrs. Randolph, Mrs. Robert G. Calder, Mrs. John B. W. Capt. William S. Martin has been transferred to the Third Cavalry. Both Capt. Martin and his attractive family will be greatly missed at Schofield.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Cheney entertained Col. and Mrs. William W. Forsyth at dinner Friday night.

In honor of her mother, Mrs. Churchill, Mrs. Wilbur Rogers gave a high tea which was most enjoyable. Mrs. Dennis H. Currie sang delightfully, after which the guests were seated at small tables and a delicious repast was served. Asked to meet Mrs. Churchill were Mrs. John B. W. Corey, Mrs. Harold Vanderveer, Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Dennis H. Currie, Mrs. Percy Deshon, Mrs. John E. Hatch, Mrs. Henry S. Kilbourne, Mrs. John N. Hauser, Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Mrs. John J. Boniface, Mrs. Truby Martin, Mrs. Robert G. Calder, Miss Caroline and Esther McMahon and Miss Hazel Haynes.

Friday night Maj. and Mrs. Horace D. Bloomer, entertained at dinner for Lieut. Col. and Mrs. William B. Bannister. Pink dahlias and pink candles adorned the daintily appointed table. MAUNA KEA WILL SAILS AT 6 P. M. 9TH AND 16TH

ARMED SOLDIERS PACIFIC MAIL IS

KEEP SHERIDAN UNDER WATCH

BACK TO STAY, SAYS GRACE

To accommodate Maui and Hawaii patrons of the line and give them opportunity to stay until the end of the polo games and horse races this and next Saturday, September 9 and 16, the inter-island Steam Navigation Company has decided to have the Mauna Kea sail from Honolulu at 6 o'clock instead of 3 p. m. this coming Saturday and a week from Saturday.

Vice-President J. L. McLean of the inter-island line announced the later sailing hours today, saying the company had decided to make the time of departure later so that those coming over from Maui and Hawaii would not have to make a rush for the steamer and miss seeing the closing events of the races and polo games on September 9 and 16.

The Mauna Kea arrived this morning from Kailua port, bringing 25 cabin and 14 deck passengers. Inward freight was 4326 sacks of sugar, 22 cases of pineapples, and 37 packages of sundries. Sugar reported by this steamer to be awaiting shipment on Kailua is 52,800 sacks of Kailua, and 1787 bags of Ahukini.

GREAT NORTHERN FOLDER FEATURES HONOLULU IN PICTURES AND STORIES

The Great Northern Steamship Company's folder has arrived in Honolulu, and is typical of the folders that are sent out by that company. On the two cover pages are paintings of a Hawaiian surfer and that are realistic. The cover pages have been done in four colors. Stamped on the Great Northern folder in big letters is the word "Honolulu".

The folder contains many illustrations of scenes in Hawaii as well as scenes along the Great Northern in Montana and Washington, but Honolulu is featured, and the cover pages not only show the stamp of Hawaii, but the leading articles have been written around the islands. More than 50,000 copies have already been issued.

In a letter to A. P. Taylor, H. A. Jackson, general traffic manager of the Great Northern at San Francisco, states that there is a growing interest in Hawaii and that articles forwarded to the mainland by the Hawaii Promotion Committee and the publicity given Hawaii by the steamship company have been a feature, and that the Great Northern expects a record season.

AIDING STOWAWAYS CHARGED TO SHINYO MAIL DEPT. OFFICER

Wanted by the Japanese government for complicity in an attempt to smuggle two Japanese into the United States, Rinsaburo Yamaguchi, assistant postmaster of the big T. K. K. liner Shinyo Maru, which sailed for San Francisco at 9:30 this morning, was removed from the steamer Tuesday, and will be returned to Japan.

Another Japanese, Hichiji Narita, a quartermaster on the liner, was also taken off and will be returned. The two stowaways and one other, discovered in the mail room of the liner an hour after she had left Yokohama, will be sent back to the Orient as well. The third stowaway said he was a stevedore and had fallen asleep on the ship, not intending to leave Yokohama.

The American schooner William Olsen, 491 tons net, is another vessel chartered by the Hawaiian Fertilizer Company to bring nitrate from Chile.

The T. K. K. chartered steamer Kwanto Maru, now in port loading scrap iron, may take the next mail to Yokohama. If she does not it will go in the Nippon Maru September 16.

Army Transport Arrives From Orient; No Cholera Traces Found; Sails Tomorrow

For the first time in many years sentries armed with rifles guarded the gangway of the U. S. army transport Sheridan when she docked at 8:30 this morning from Manila and Nagasaki. No first and second-cabin passengers were allowed to pass a barrier erected near the gangway until they secured passes, and none of the crew or troops were allowed ashore. These precautions were part of the quarantine against Asiatic cholera.

Because the Sheridan needed 400 tons of water when she docked this morning her departure has been postponed from 5 o'clock this afternoon to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The water cannot be all taken on until that hour tomorrow, so the through passengers will have a chance to sleep ashore tonight if they desire.

Enlisted Men Released
Dr. F. E. Trotter, chief quarantine officer of the U. S. public health service here, took every precaution when the transport arrived, and his instructions were followed implicitly by a detail of soldiers ordered to see that no one went ashore who had no right to do so or who had not secured the necessary passes from Quartermaster Agent Charles A. Roman of the Sheridan. The 60 enlisted men of the Corps of Engineers, who arrived from Manila for service on Oahu, were allowed to go direct to Fort Shafter without being detained at the quarantine station for cholera-carrier tests, as they had been examined and tested at Manila prior to the transport's departure, and found to be free from any traces of the disease.

One Death From Tuberculosis

None of the troop passengers on the Sheridan were allowed to go ashore today, nor were they or anyone allowed ashore at Nagasaki, where the cholera epidemic is particularly prevalent now. Quartermaster Clerk Martin Kilcrease reported one death of a troop passenger on the voyage over, Cpl. Earl W. Flynn, Q. M. C., who died of tuberculosis. He was en route to Letterman General Hospital for treatment.

Prof. Rock Returns

Capt. William A. Carleton reported a pleasant voyage, with fair weather and favoring winds all of the time. The Sheridan brought to Honolulu from Manila 32 first-class passengers, 15 second and 60 troop, also one first-cabin passenger, Prof. Joseph F. Rock of the College of Hawaii, from Nagasaki. Prof. Rock has been collecting plants in Japan for the Outdoor Circle, to be used in its city beautification plans.

For San Francisco the through passengers are from Manila, 58 first-class, 44 second and 316 troop. From Nagasaki the Sheridan has for San Francisco 27 first-class, four second and 23 troop. The total number of passengers on board when the transport docked this morning was 779. The Sheridan brought 10 bags of mail from Manila and Nagasaki and 51 tons of freight.

Among the troop class for San Francisco from Manila are 64 civilians, 16 general prisoners, 124 enlisted men, U. S. navy; 81 enlisted men, U. S. Marine Corps; 18 civilians, one discharged soldier and two stowaways, American seamen.

Col. Snow Arrives

Most of the first-cabin passengers for Honolulu, with the exception of Lieut. Col. William J. Snow, who arrived to take command of the 1st Field Artillery at Schofield Barracks, are going on to San Francisco. There was no room for them from here on the transport, owing to the number booked for transportation from Honolulu.

From this port tomorrow morning the Sheridan will take 32 first-class passengers, 22 second and 65 troop. She will not be able to accommodate all who want to go from Honolulu. The transport will also take out 250 tons of freight for San Francisco.

A new transpacific steamship service, superior to that of the past, with large Atlantic-type liners, is assured by Joseph P. Grace, head of W. R. Grace & Company and director of the American International Corporation, who came across the continent to inspect the American steamer Ecuador, nucleus of the fleet, on her maiden voyage across the Pacific, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

"The Pacific Mail is in the Oriental trade to stay," said Grace. "We expect to attain success with the new line and at the first showing of this success San Francisco will see one of the finest transpacific services that can be operated. Ocean leviathans such as are used in the Atlantic trade will be placed in the service, which will bring San Francisco and the Orient in closer relations."

"The significance of the departure of the Ecuador to the Orient is twofold," he continued. "First, the vessel acts as an opening wedge to the leviathans to follow in gaining the trade lost to American shipowners by the retirement of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, and secondly, which is important both to San Francisco and the whole United States, it marks the restoration of the American flag under American capital to the transpacific route."

"And now," said John H. Rosseter, general manager of W. R. Grace & Company and vice-president and general manager of the new Pacific Mail, "that the new service has been born, let Congress enact legislation which will encourage and foster it and not go out of its way to kill it in embryo."

WILHELMINA HAS CAPACITY LOAD FOR 'FRISCO

Taking out a capacity cargo and with every stateroom having at least two passengers, the Matson liner Wilhelmina, Capt. Peter Johnson, steamed for San Francisco from Pier 10 at 10 o'clock this morning, with the usual good-sized crowd present to speed her on her way.

Outgoing passengers were 128 cabin and 16 steerage. There was room for only eight more women and no men passengers. Cargo was 7100 tons, all the big steamer could hold, and included 4900 tons of sugar, 500 of molasses, 36,000 cases of canned pineapples, 300 bunches of bananas and various miscellaneous freight.

No mail from the postoffice left on the Wilhelmina, but last-minute mail amounting to several bags was rushed to the steamer by business firms.

BUSINESS GOOD IN PHILIPPINES, SAYS COL. SNOW

Confidence and Prosperity Return After Death of Jones
Bill is Learned

Since the Jones bill, providing for Philippine independence, was killed, prosperity and business have increased steadily in the islands. This is the view of Lieut.-Col. William J. Snow, who arrived from Manila this morning on the army transport Sheridan, and will take command at once of the 1st Field Artillery, Schofield Barracks.

Lieut.-Col. Snow was met at Navy Pier No. 2, where the transport docked, by Brig.-Gen. R. K. Evans, commanding general of the Hawaiian Department, one of his aides-de-camp, Capt. Hornaby Evans, and several other army officers, and taken to department headquarters.

"I don't know that I have much to say," remarked Col. Snow, when asked for an interview by a Star-Bulletin representative. "I have been in the Philippines 20 months; went there from Washington, D. C., where I was in the War Department. I will take command of the 1st Field Artillery immediately, and will say that today has been considerably cooler than the average Manila day at this time of the year."

The colonel said business confidence has returned in large measure to the islands since the defeat in Congress of the Jones bill, which many influential Filipinos thought would mean that Japan would seize the islands the minute they became independent.

"Business was more or less unsettled all over the Philippines until the Jones bill was killed," he added. "Merchants sold out all their stocks and did not order any more, and industries were slowed down all around, as well. Now, however, prosperity has returned, sugar prices are good, and the outlook for the Philippines is bright."

Col. Snow, commenting on the resumption of transpacific service by the new Pacific Mail Steamship Company, whose first steamer, the Ecuador, left Honolulu Monday at noon on her first voyage to Manila and the Orient, said Manila is feeling much better over shipping prospects now, and that the freight congestion there has been well cleaned up, army transports having been used to relieve the situation by bringing sugar, hemp and other Philippine products to San Francisco while bottoms for shipment were extremely scarce. Mrs. Snow and her mother, Mrs. A. H. Locke, also came on the transport with the colonel.

THREE DEAD, SEVEN HURT IN FREIGHT COLLISION

PITTSBURG, Pa.—Three trainmen were killed, three seriously injured and four slightly hurt when two heavy freight trains, each drawn by two engines, came together head on on the Pittsburg & Wheeling division of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Vance, Pa. All traffic was tied up several hours. The dead are: J. W. Eustice, engineer; C. D. Hutchinson and C. R.
Wright, firemen, all of Pittsburg.

RETURNS HOME TO RESUME HIS COLLEGE WORK

Gladly returning to take up work in the College of Hawaii, which he dropped 15 months ago to specialize in sanitary engineering at Boston
Tech, came Professor Arthur H.
Keller with Mrs. Keller in the Manoa.
Staying away from the islands for over a year is a severe task, according to Keller, and he does not care to attempt it again. He was up at 4 o'clock in the morning to catch the first glimpse of Honolulu.

One of the interesting ceremonies which Mr. and Mrs. Keller attended while East was the transfer of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology on its fiftieth anniversary to its new $4,000,000 home across the Charles river in Cambridge, where it is under a "cooperative agreement" with Harvard.

Keller was with the College of Hawaii for six years previous to his departure to take post-graduate work.
His under-graduate work was in Cornell University.

The Honolulu educator's study in sanitary engineering brought him in contact with the new activated sludge method for the utilization of sewage.
This method has been eminently successful in several large cities, he says.

PLANS FOR SATURDAY NIGHT DANCE TO BE COMPLETED TONIGHT

At a meeting of the newly formed social club of Company A, 1st Infantry, N. G. H., to be held at the armory this evening, plans for the benefit dance to be given Saturday night by that organization will be completed. Chairman Eben S. Cushingham of the dance committee will make a report at that time.

One of the features of the occasion will be the awarding of two prizes for the best costumes. The judges have not been named yet. The Hui Nalu Club of 10 members will furnish music for the dance. Proceeds will go toward starting a club fund. Tickets are being sold rapidly and a large crowd is expected on the night of the dance.

WOODROW WILSON IS DEAD; BURIED TUESDAY

Woodrow Wilson, one of the two Australian teddy bears, which Richard and Frances recently purchased, died Tuesday morning and the children are broken hearted over the loss of their pet.

Just what caused the little bear's death is not exactly known, but it is believed that the Hawaiian variety of eucalyptus leaves, upon which these bears are supposed to thrive, did not agree with him.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and the little fellow was buried with all the ceremony accorded to a person.

Vagrants in England used to be punished by having the upper part of the grille of the right ear removed.
The name of Hermann C. Kupper of New York has been removed from the British blacklist.

AGAIN POSTPONE TAKING OF PLEA OF ELENA ROJAS

Difficulty of Interpreting Dialect Leads to Further Delay

Because the interpreter secured to act in the trial of Elena Rojas had not had opportunity to look over the indictment against the Filipino woman before it was handed to him in court, Circuit Judge Ashford this morning postponed the taking of plea until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.
Yesterday morning the case was postponed because no interpreter had been secured, and on Saturday likewise for a similar reason.

Estanislao Partosa, a Filipino employed at the local Y. M. C. A., appeared this morning as interpreter.
Partosa is a native of the island of Negros, while the Rojas woman is from Cebu. The interpreter stated in court that he could talk her language, but owing to the fact that he showed slowness in translating the indictment, Judge Ashford thought best to save time in the trial by postponing until tomorrow.

To questions addressed to her by the interpreter this morning when she faced the judge the prisoner gave little or no heed, often shaking her head as if she did not understand. She wears a tight hat of cloth that comes down over her hair and covers her ears.

Attorney L. M. Straus says that the woman has been in Hawaii for only a few months more than a year, and also claims that the Filipinos who can speak the dialect of her district are very scarce here. He made no objection to Partosa's acting as interpreter, however.

Two changes in the indictment from the grand jury charging the woman with first degree murder were allowed by the judge with the expressed consent of the defendant's attorney, the changes being for typographical errors in transcribing.

MAUI NEWS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
Maui, Sept. 1.—By the Wilhelmina, arriving in Honolulu on Tuesday, Donald Sanborn, a popular young lunk of the Molokai ranch and son of Dr. F. C. Sanborn of Kaunakakai, returned to the islands with a charming bride, to whom he was married in Oakland just a week previously. Mrs. Sanborn was Miss Mabel Johnson. The happy young couple boarded the Wilhelmina the day following their marriage. They reached Molokai from Honolulu by the Mikahala on Wednesday, where a pretty new home awaited their coming.

RATES TO CIVIC CONVENTION.
V. L. Stevenson, secretary of the Fifth Civic Convention, to be held in Hilo September 21 to 25, has written that special rates from Maui and return have been fixed at $12.50 and that they are available to any one.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS Postcard notices were sent out this week to members of the Maui Chamber of Commerce announcing an smoker-supper to be given at the Maui Hotel on next Tuesday evening. The affair is primarily a get-together occasion, in which any and all matters of community interest may be discussed. It is expected that steps will also be taken to select delegates who will attend the Civic Convention to be held in Hilo September 21-25. The Maui County Fair will also come in for discussion.

EXPECT NEW RESIDENT
In case the deal which is known to be on for the Island Electric Company goes through, the new owner, a Mr.
Van Sant of Berkeley, Cal., will probably take up his residence on Maui.
This is the word that comes from the coast by a gentleman who recently talked with the mainland capitalist.
It is understood that Mr. Van Sant wishes to acquire the Wailuku franchise in order to furnish him with an excuse to live in the islands, as much as anything else. He has been here before and likes Maui so much that he is anxious to spend much of his time here.

KILLED BY CAVE-IN
Through the caving in of the roof of a tunnel in which he was working, Miyasaki Senzo, aged 27, a gang foreman at work on a ditch line of the Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Company, between Paia and Hamakuapoko, was crushed to death. The accident occurred on the afternoon of August 24.

KILLED BY RUNAWAY
Kumakichi Akiama, driver of a delivery wagon of the J. Onishi store of Kahului, was found unconscious on the road last Friday evening, and died about 7 o'clock the following evening without having regained consciousness. He had doubtless been thrown from his wagon when his horse took fright and ran away, and this was the investigation of the coroner's jury, which investigated and passed upon the case on Wednesday of last week.

AFTER 30 YEARS' SERVICE, SERGT. D. P. GREEN RETIRES

Old-Timer of 25th Infantry Has Upheld Regiment's Reputation for Efficiency, Loyalty

FAITHFUL SERVICE
WINS RECOGNITION

Supply Sergeant Dalbert P. Green

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Sept. 6.—The United States army transport Sheridan will take one of the most popular members of the 25th Infantry back to the mainland tomorrow. Supply Sgt. Dalbert P. Green has received his order from the war department retiring him after 25 years of faithful service and he is now bidding farewell to all his friends in the regiment. Sgt. Green has been the best known and the most liked man in the 25th for years. He has well earned his retirement and can proceed to his home feeling that he has given the active years of his life to his country and has a splendid record behind him of duty well performed.

The old-timers in the regiment are greatly going out and their loss has been sorely felt. To them the regiment is indebted for its splendid reputation and a loyalty that has been characteristic of the 25th Infantry. One of the last to go is Sgt. Green and he leaves a vacancy that will be very hard to fill.

Dalbert P. Green enlisted in the 25th Infantry at Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of August, 1891. This, his first enlistment, was for a period of five years and he served it in Companies B and E, being discharged August 26, 1896. He reenlisted for Company B, August 27, 1896, and was again discharged August 26, 1899. His next enlistments ran as follows: Non-commissioned staff, 25th Infantry, from August 27, 1899, to August 26, 1902; August 27, 1902, to August 26, 1905; August 27, 1905, to February 5, 1907; February 6, 1907, to February 5, 1910; February 6, 1910, to February 5, 1913, and February 6, 1913, to the date of his retirement.

He was given character "Excellent" on the eight discharges he has received from the army of the United States and since June 22, 1892, the date he received his warrant as a corporal, he has been a non-commissioned officer continuously. He was promoted sergeant, January 10, 1896, and regimental commissary sergeant March 22, 1899, which rank he held until July 1, 1916, when the grade was abolished by law. He was then appointed regimental supply sergeant under the new army organization.

During his long period of service Sgt. Green served in Cuba in the Spanish-American war and in the Philippines from August 1, 1899, to July 17, 1902, and from September 13, 1907, to September 11, 1909.

He was recommended to receive a certificate of merit for meritorious service rendered near Bamban, Luzon, P. I., November 26, 1899. The facts of this occurrence are shown in the following letter:

"Iba, Zambales, P. I.,
"July 7, 1901.
"Adjutant, 25th Infantry.
"Sir: I have the honor to inform you that Regimental Commissary Sergeant Dalbert P. Green was recommended by me to receive a certificate of merit for meritorious services rendered near Bamban, Luzon, on November 26, 1899, when he, being alone with the driver of an escort wagon and having no other arms than a revolver, did compel the said driver to wait for two Americans and two Spaniards who were without arms and who were being pursued by about 30 insurgents, and did by the use of said revolver stand off the insurgents while the above mentioned four men climbed into the wagon, upon which the driver was allowed to drive ahead and the party escaped.

"The insurgents at the last moment were only about 30 yards away. Although not an eyewitness to this occurrence, I immediately examined the available parties concerned and there can be no doubt that it took place as I have stated. The above recommendation having gone forward by wire, I request that a second recommendation be made in order that this soldier may more surely receive the certificate which is certainly due him.

"Respectfully,
"(Signed) R. J. BURT,
"1st Lieut., 25th Infantry."
Sgt. Green was a member of the detachment of soldiers that under the command of 2nd Lieut. (now captain) James A. Moss made an extensive test of bicycles for use in the army. This was during 1896 and the trip made was from Fort Missoula, Mont., over the Rocky Mountains to and through the Yellowstone National park, and thence back to Fort Missoula.

NIGHT 'BATTLE' FOUGHT BY MAUI NATIONAL GUARD

Rifle-Ranges Completed and Practice Scheduled; Need
More Equipment Badly

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WAILUKU, Maui, Sept. 5.—As a result of a visit made to Lahaina a week ago by Maj. H. B. Pennington, Capt. F. A. Lufkin, Lieut. Seabury Short, Lieut. George N. Weight and Sgt. Wetzel, U. S. A., there promises to be a large amount of friendly rivalry in a short time between the companies of the 1st and 2d Battalions of the 3d Regiment, N. G. H. This will probably be marked in the matter of athletics. A challenge for an indoor baseball game with one of the Wailuku companies has been made by the Pukoli Company, and will probably take place soon in the Wailuku armory.

The Wailuku companies are showing much interest in getting their armory fitted up, and already there has been a little practice in the rifle gallery, and on the volley ball court.

Last week a practice night march was executed by the 1st Battalion, 3d Infantry, N. G. H., in which a small sham battle was fought, Company A representing the enemy and being supplied with a few rounds of blank ammunition. The exercises were of considerable interest, and the men all entered with zest into the work. The company formed the advance guard and the detachment at the point of advance which located and engaged the "enemy" was in charge of Sgt. Frank Silva. The exercises were of much interest, and the men entered with enthusiasm into the work in hand.

Target Practice Soon
Under the direction of Capt. Whitehead the ranges in the sandhills are being rapidly put into shape, the 200, 300 and 500-yard ranges being now completed. All of the companies of the 1st Battalion will soon be hard at work perfecting themselves in the use of the rifle.

Lack of equipment has been the most serious handicap to progress in the Maui companies. Only a small part of the troops have uniforms, and few of these are complete. In the matter of arms the deficiency is still worse. Although the men are doing well considering this lack of really necessary material, it is certain that much greater interest will be shown when uniforms and rifles are available for all companies.

For Preparedness Parade.
In case the proposed "preparedness parade" in Honolulu is carried out, it is very probable that Maui will be well represented through the 3d Regiment, which is planning to send a strong detachment to Honolulu.

The rabies epidemic which is carried by infected coyotes is spreading eastward in Utah. Rabid coyotes are common in the western part of the state, and one has been killed within 30 miles of Salt Lake City.

FORT SHAFTER OFFICER WORKS ON PLANS FOR INFANTRY PERISCOPE

Experience of European War Brings Out Necessity of Adapting Invention

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Sept. 6.—Since the active and important use of the trench by the infantry in the battles of Europe, the system of training and the protection required from attacks by aeroplanes and the larger projectiles of heavier artillery, the use of the periscope has become an absolutely necessary instrument for military observation; and all the departments of the army are seeking an invention that will adapt itself to the purposes of the infantry. The periscope must be light of structure to make it easily portable, it must be economical, simple in construction and with the widest possible range of vision, if possible it must be capable of having the field of vision further magnified by the use of field glasses, and it must be economical because so frequently destroyed.

Capt. Walter H. Johnson, formerly commander of C Company, 2d Infantry, invented a periscope glass that had many of the required qualifications but had a limited field of vision. The present ordnance officer, Lieut. T. J. Camp, is also engaged upon the consideration of the same necessary device and his periscope will shortly receive practical demonstration in field work.

The sympathy of the entire garrison is extended to Col. John F. Guilfoyle and his daughter on the occasion of their sad bereavement. The announcement of the death of Mrs. Guilfoyle was a shock to her many friends in Fort Shafter, as she was well known to all army people, both in the coast artillery and infantry as well as the branch of service to which the colonel is attached. Mrs. Guilfoyle is closely related to many army families now on the island, as members of her family have intermarried with many prominent military families.

Palms and potted plants are often desired to make more cheerful the day rooms of the various companies and the post library, and if officers ordered away would make donations of their plants for any of these purposes great appreciation would be the natural result of their kindness.

Sgt. Charles F. Groshong of Company F, 2d Infantry, has transferred to Company F, 32d Infantry as a private, exchanging organizations with Sgt. Howard A. Brennan, Company F, 32d Infantry, who transferred as a private to Company F, 2d Infantry.

Orders have also been received by which Pvt. Jess Moore, Company L, 2d Infantry, by mutual transfer goes to Company L, 32d Infantry, Schofield Barracks, and Pvt. David Knudsen, Company L, 32d Infantry, comes to Company L, 2d Infantry.

The attendance at the post library for the month of August amounted to 752. The number of books issued was 307. When the decrease in the garrison is considered this is a remarkable showing, and a marked increase has been counted in September.

The monthly program for the moving picture entertainments, issued by the post exchange officer, shows a collection of very excellent films. Company E leads the regiment in the number of tickets purchased.

Chaplain Thomas Livingston, 13th Infantry, who was entertained on the post while en route to Manila, has been advanced to the rank of captain, by successfully passing his examination for promotion.

By the passage of the army appropriation bill a portion of the money will be available for the purchase of new and additional slides for the chaplain's equipment at the post. As the historical and hymn slides are such an important feature of the Sunday evening services, this announcement will be received with great satisfaction by all attending regularly the services on Sunday evenings.

It is of interest to note that Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., who was a student of the military camp at Platts-
