THE FATE OF TWO OLD HEROES.

Sold for $23 After Years of Most Gallant Service.

The two war veterans stood with shaking limbs on the rough pavement at the navy yard in Boston last week. About them a score or more of Government employes had assembled. They were peculiar specimens, but their aged and feeble bodies were positive evidence that they had served their country long and well. They had faced the powder innumerable times during the great struggle between the North and South; they had seen patriots fall and time again before the deadly fire of the enemy's charge; they had heard the martial music as it broke forth to sound the triumphant march of a departed hero; they had assisted in forwarding and transporting the ammunition which carried the day, and they had been companions of the late General Grant when a single ray of hope failed to lighten the frightful darkness of the Wilderness.

And all for what? The country which they helped to preserve from the plundering hand of the rebel was ungrateful. They had served it in good faith for days and years, but could do so no longer. It has no use for idlers, and as age stifled their ambition for work they had to be disposed of; so said the mandate. They were common slaves, and were to be treated as such. The ring of the auctioneer's hammer was to settle their future. Uncle Sam had ordered their sale. The score of Government officials uttered no protest against the inhuman act, and the unsympathetic auctioneer hesitated not at cutting off their honorable career. The bidding was as niggardly as the lamentation, and a few minutes told the tale—the two great relics of the war controlled the great sums of $13 and $10. They were not purchased by a distinguished personage with enthusiastic belief, but were seized by one who will henceforth compel them to drag a dump cart at Charlestown from early morning to the close of day. And all for being faithful! There was no Henry Bergh there to stop the ungodly sight, and, as a result, the huge coffers of this great, free country were swelled by an additional $23 in recognition of the sale of two feeble horses which had carried the blue to victory.—N.Y. Times.

Resemblance.

Lieut. George Monroe had a day off and went to Nantasket. On the boat, with several friends, there was a talk about personal resemblances.

"Wohl! I have been taken for Bismarck, in Berlin," said a German gentleman.

"Aussi, of a time in Paris, I was, as the Count de Paris saluted, so like him I resembled," said a teacher of French.

"That's nothing," said George: "a fellow came up and slapped me on the back, right on Tromont street the other day, and cried out, 'Great Caesar is that you?'—Boston News.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

What was that Mr. Gibson said about log-rolling two or three months ago? He has come to be heavily engaged in that branch of the lumbering business since then.

A soldier threatened a civilian with his sword in a saloon the other evening. It is to be hoped the to be organized standing army will not have many such cowards in its rank and file.

The taxing power is one that ruling factions can least afford to strain. This the oligarchical reactionaries of Hawaii seem determined to find out only when it is too late for their own selfish ends.

The Advertiser might give the Legislature some more of those solemn lectures on economy with which it abounded early in the session. But probably the editor sees things differently now from the other side of the screen.

"Thousands for bones, not one cent for books," is an appropriate motto for the present Legislature. The General Board and its divining pigs get all they want, but the public library may fall into decay for any help it will get from the "assembled wisdom."

It shows how rotten a basis our legislative system rests upon, when it is possible for a publican, enjoying large emoluments in the shape of commissions on taxes, to have the privilege of the taxpayers and initiating a proposal to raise direct taxes a quarter per cent.

The question hitherto has been where the money was to come from to meet the insane extravagance of the Legislature. Mr. Hayselden answers it by proposing to give another turn to the taxation screw. This too, in the face of the dullest business period that the Kingdom has known in many years, when the planters, and merchants, and householders are all pinching their affairs to make both ends meet.

Scotland has an influential and growing organization under the title of "The Scotch Home Rule Association," with Prof. Blackie as chairman. With Scotland asking to have local control of local affairs, the older demand of the Irish for a like privilege cannot much longer be staved off. It looks as if, out of the apparently similar yet very diversely governed dominions of the British Imperial crown, there is being evolved pretty rapidly the "United States of the British Empire," monarchical perhaps in form but republican in idea.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

At the opening of yesterday's session a petition was presented from Bishop Willis and Rev. Messrs. Cruzan, Oggel, Dr. Hyde, Parker, Mackintosh, Wallace, Waianau, Merritt and Forbes, and Mr. F. W. Damon, against the passage of the opium bill, which was laid on the table to be considered with the bill. Mr. Bishop reported from the special committee on the currency bill recommending amendments. The latter in effect provide for the redemption, in U. S. gold coin, of all silver certificates outstanding or to be issued under the present act, except ten dollar ones, whether they contain the words "silver coin" or not; for their withdrawal and cancellation when redeemed; for the issue of new certificates; for a deposit of coin to cover the amounts issued; for the new issue not to exceed in the aggregate $325,000, of which not more than $30,000 is to be of the denomination of ten dollars; for the certificates being signed by the Minister of Finance and countersigned by the Registrar of Public Accounts, and for the deposit to be a special one for the above purpose and no other. This report was signed by Messrs.

Bishop, Aholo, Dole and Creighton. A further recommendation, signed by Messrs. Bishop and Dole, which the chairman stated would have been signed by Mr. Castle had he been present, was to add a new section providing for the issue of ten dollar certificates, in addition to those mentioned above, on deposits of silver coin, not less than one hundred dollars and payable on demand. The reports were laid on the table to be considered with the bill. Some time was spent over an effort by Mr. Hayselden to get in a new bill, that he was ultimately compelled to declare was intended to raise taxation from three-quarters to one per cent. Mr. Gibson, in the course of the discussion, said he did not know what the object of the bill was, and he did not know why the resolution of the House, requiring unanimous consent to the introduction of new bills, could not be hung up when expedient as well as the standing rules. It was no use, however, both Mr. Dickey and Mr. Dole objected to the introduction of the bill, and it had to stand aside.

The Appropriation Bill came up, as it proved, for further inflation, on third reading. Mr. Thurston's amendment to the ramie subsidy of $2,500 passed. Mr. Gibson had the janitor of the Government building granted $1,200 instead of $1,000. On motion of Mr. Brown, the item, of $5,000, to pay Mrs. Swan for her "undivided interest" in a piece of land near the foundry, was struck out, that member assuring the House that the lady referred to had no undivided interest therein, as her family had been squatters on the land. The item of $1,200 to purchase new books for the Honolulu Library was struck out. On motion of Mr. Richardson, the item of $15,000 for lighting the streets of Honolulu was replaced by one of $17,500 for lighting the streets throughout the Kingdom, and the item of $1,000 for giving light to Hilo was struck out. Mr. Gibson moved $50,000 instead of $25,000 for the Honolulu Fire Department, but the matter was referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Gibson, Cleghorn, Keau and Baker. The clause in the item for the Oceanic Steamship Company's subsidy, reading, "as provided by law," was, on motion of Mr. Kaulukou, deleted, making the payment of the subsidy obligatory law or no law. Salaries of the Ministers were all evened up to the old figure of $12,000 for the biennial period, and the Minister of Finance and Attorney General were given several thousands additional for clerks, incidentals, etc. Mr. Gibson had $75,000 added to the item for payment of the national debt, making the item $255,000. This was in accordance with the non-economical mood that dictated the extraordinary course of paying for our seventy-three cent dollars about twenty years before the debt is due. An item of $700 appeared in the bill for the Collector at Mahukona. Mr. Kaunamano moved to delete it, and Mr. Hayselden, probably chagrined at being forestalled in liberality with the public funds, jumped up and moved $5,600. The Ministers, for the nonce dazed at the extraordinary precocity of so young a politician, sat pinned to their seats. The youthful spendthrift for the nation, with sublime assurance, signalled the treasury benches for help in the tremendous feat of log-rolling, and three "reform" Ministers sprang as one man to his relief, the Premier asking in perplexity, "What is it for?" meaning, doubtless, "What great public boon does my dear lad count upon securing in return for this prodigious lift?" Mr. Creighton was too tired with the log-rolling frolic of the past week to assist on this occasion, and refused to respond to the crack of the pretentious little luna's whip. The House only felt equal to rolling Mr. Kaunamano's log, the minority being severely strained in the futile effort to start the bigger one. Mr. Kaulukou had a big round stick he wanted rolled, in the shape of $5,000 for a shed to store kerosene in. Mr. Gibson showed it was too heavy, by an estimate he had from the Superintendent of Public Works, that $800 would be rather above what would be required for the structure. He "therefore" moved to make it $1,200, which carried. The little margin of four hundred dollars makes no difference, you know. "If the money will not be needed it will not be spent." This, the taxpayers will probably find out, means that the necessity will be measured by the gullible liberality of the Legislature. Mr. Keau, of the police force, initiated the rolling of another thousand on to his chief, the Marshal's salary, making it $8,000. The police of Oahu were voted $20,000 additional, raising the appropriation to $100,000. This is at least partially required to provide for police protection to the suburbs of Honolulu. Officer Tell got the $240 petitioned for as additional pay for two periods, and Officer Fehlbehr $120 for one period, on the ground that their pay was appropriated specifically. The Attorney General, in the discussion on these votes, seriously clashed in opinion with the lieutenant of the native Government contingent, Mr. Aholo, telling the latter member and his coadjutors, in effect, that they were meddling with matters with which they had no business. In discussing the item of $2,000, that passed, for coroner's inquests, Mr. Dare said that under the law just passed for paying coroner's jurors, the service would cost $50,000. On the whole, the hundred and eighteenth was another rueful day.

LOCAL NEWS.

There were great bargains at Kerr's sale yesterday.

Koloa plantation, Kauai, took twenty families of the late arrival of Portuguese.

A good sized party left for the volcano yesterday, as the passenger list will show.

The steamer W. G. Hall sails on her regular route at ten o'clock this morning.

A mail for San Francisco by the bark Ceylon will close at 11 o'clock this morning.

The opening of Mr. C. J. McCarthy's new billiard hall on Saturday evening was an auspicious event.

Two more Chinese with opium in possession were hauled in yesterday, Officer Kaubane being their captor.

Two Chinamen stole a box from an Alapai street house early yesterday morning, and forgot to take their shoes away with them.

The band concert at Emma Square last evening was attended by a fair audience, and the fine selections rendered were well received.

A sailor of the Iwalani recovered a purse dropped by a lady passenger in five fathoms of water. The company should make him a purser.

Mr. Geo. Lucas received 75,184 bricks, and Messrs. C. Brewer & Co. 32,000, by the W. S. Bowne, to the further great advantage of the building industry.

Sir Henry Fowler and son, with Mr. James Ashbury, an ex-Lord Mayor of London and a famous yachtman, stepped off the Mararoa during her call and visited the King and Princess Likelike.

Mr. Laine has refunded the amount collected by him recently, to send an old soldier home to the States, as he found that the object of ready benevolence was entirely unworthy of receiving assistance.

The Woman's Board of Missions will meet in Fort-street church parlors at 2:30 this afternoon, when Miss Gulick, of the Japan mission, will deliver an address. A meeting of the executive will be held half an hour earlier.

The S. S. Australia will be due here on Friday next, on her way to Sydney to take the place of the Mararoa until the repairs to the Zealandia are completed. The Mararoa goes off the San Francisco mail route with the present trip, and will go into the New Zealand coasting trade.

The following is clipped from the San Francisco Commercial News of September 21st: "Hail Bros. have an order for building a barkentine a little larger than the John Smith. She will be employed in the Hawaiian trade and owned by Captain Paul, who will command her, G. F. Smith and others.

On Saturday the post office received twenty-nine full mail bags from the other islands, and twenty from San Francisco. It despatched 3,454 letters and 1,313 packages papers to San Francisco, besides a mail to the Colonies. Yesterday twenty-three bags packed full of mail matter were sent to Maui and Hawaii by the steamer Kinau.

Skipped.

A good deal of sensation was created about town yesterday, by the departure of C. K. Miller, business agent, rather suddenly by the ship Amana for Oregon. It is reported that he dissipated some trust funds in his keeping, and, being unable to make the amounts good, preferred flight to facing the injured persons in the courts. Another version of the escapade is that he undertook the handling of a corruption fund in the Soi Yung shooting case, but appropriated the money to his own use and was menaced with exposure. He has left behind a youthful wife with an infant only a few weeks old. To some persons, who saw him on board the ship, he intimated his intention of sending for his wife as soon as he was able. Miller is known to have left some debts, but is not thought to have taken much money with him. Lately he had been living faster than his usual sportive gait. Having had some business capacity he might have done fairly well here. It is pitiful to see a young man thus throwing away his chances in life for nothing.

Why is the suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism like a live Yankee? It is acute.

The Best Tonic.

Mr. Henry Billings, Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used your Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky for medicinal purposes. As a tonic I consider it superior to the hundreds of concoctions which are now flooding the land as stimulant liquors."

SUPREME COURT.

Acquitted of Manslaughter.

The October term of the Supreme Court met at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the Second Associate Justice, Mr. Preston, presiding. The trial of Kaai, charged with manslaughter, third degree, occupied the day, concluding about half-past three in the afternoon. This is the case of the child that came to its death by the discharge of a revolver, picked up by it one Sunday about two months ago, in the house of defendant on Punchbowl street. Upon being arraigned, the accused pleaded not guilty, and the trial proceeded before a Hawaiian jury. Mr. A. Rosa appeared for the Crown, and Messrs. W. A. Kinney and L. A. Thurston for the defense. There was nothing elicited in the testimony materially different from what the newspapers gave at the time of the fatal occurrence. His Honor briefly charged the jury in favor of the defendant. To make out a case, he said, the prosecution must have shown either that defendant knowingly allowed the child to play with the weapon, or handled it himself negligently so as to have caused the child's death. He was sorry it was getting so prevalent in this country for persons to carry firearms. He knew of no reason for this man having a pistol in his house, but he had a perfect right to have a pistol in his house if he chose. It was the careless disposal and handling of pistols, and fooling with them, that caused accidents like this. He would direct them, however, that there was no evidence on which they could convict this man, and therefore they should bring in a verdict of "not guilty." The jury, after a few moments of consultation without retiring, returned a verdict, "not guilty." The Court then informed the jury that their further attendance was not required until they were notified. Mr. John Sheldon acted as interpreter. There will be no more jury trials this week.

Wharf Incidents.

Just as the steamer Kinau was swinging out of her dock yesterday, a commotion, with loud cries of "Pake" from the native loungers, was raised on the wharf. The next instant a Chinese merchant clutching a gripsack burst through the crowd and made signals that he wanted to go on board the steamer. A native boatman took him alongside, and the tardy commercial traveler and his gripsack were pulled on board. The shouts and cheers from ship and shore showed how slight an incident suffices to make amusement for a big lot of people. Immediately after the above, two well-dressed native women and a child appeared in a ferryman's boat in the dock, and making signals with handkerchiefs to persons on the boat led the crowd to think that they also were intending passengers. This caused more diversion, which was not lessened by one of the ladies having her nice new hat blow off into the water. The boatman fished up the hat and then rowed up the harbor, disappointing the watchers who expected to see the women also embarking on the fly.

Police Court.

Fourteen persons paid the usual six dollars for over-indulgence in firewater. E. Edwards was sentenced to fifteen days' imprisonment at hard labor for drunkenness.

Hebera, charged with violating an express rule, was fined $5 and his driver's license ordered to be cancelled.

A. Mediris was fined $5 and $1 costs for violating another express rule. Manuel Travers forfeited $10 bail for fast and furious driving.

Kalima, charged with practising medicine without a license, was fined $15 and $3 costs.

Ah Sen, Wo Leu, Ah Yin, Ah Sing and Ah Hung were charged with violating the Sabbath. A nolle prosequi was entered in the case of Ah Hung. The others were fined $4 each.

A. Mohamet was fined $15 and $1.30 costs for preventing justice.

Three Chinese, Sim Crow, Dick and Ah Fat, charged with selling liquor without a license, were remanded.

Sale of Lands.

Yesterday Messrs. E. P. Adams & Co. disposed of ten parcels of land, under mortgage foreclosures, realizing an aggregate of $7,150.

Two lots at Kalihi were bought together by Hon. C. P. Laukea for $700. A lot at Waikiki, containing about one and three-quarter acres, went to Mr. Palupu for $925.

A half interest in certain land at Hilo was sold to Mr. S. Selig for $15. A lot of better than two and a half acres at Auwahi, near Punchbowl, fell to Mr. H. E. Avery, trustee, for $3,800.

Twelve and nearly one-half acres at Kipahulu, Maui, went to Mr. J. Mailou for $500.

A little less than half an acre at Kipahulu, for $250, and five and a half acres at the same place, for $175, were bought by Mr. Joseph Vierra.

Mr. H. E. Avery, trustee, was also a purchaser of two lots at Kipahulu, one of eighteen and three-quarter acres for $475, and the other of sixteen acres for $300.

FOREIGN NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

Miscellaneous.
A call has been issued for a national convention of distillers and brewers, and wholesale and retail wine, spirits and beer dealers, to be held in Chicago on Monday, October 18th. The call says the convention is necessary to take some action to repel accusations and check the growth of public sentiment hostile to the rights and business of the whisky trade. It says this sentiment is no longer to be ignored, and the convention is therefore called.

Charles W. Bryant, a talented young lawyer of San Francisco, was found dead in the woods at Haywards, where he had gone hunting. Circumstances indicated that one barrel of his gun had gone off while he was loading the other.

The mixing house of the Giant Powder Works, Fleming's Point, near Berkeley, Cal., blew up on September 23d. Two Chinamen, who were making Nobel's explosive gelatine, were reduced to spatter, enough of which was raked off surrounding objects to nearly fill a fifty-pound powder box. Oakland felt the shock of explosion severely.

Spain has sustained the Cuban authorities in refusing to carry out the treaty making mutual concessions to American and Spanish vessels trading between Cuba and the United States.

EUROPE.

Miscellaneous.
Senor Zorilla said in Paris that a recent uprising in Spain was premature, and declared that in the revolt which would occur at the proper time many of the generals in the Spanish army would support the revolutionists. Spain has demanded of France the expulsion of Zorilla from French territory. The French Cabinet had a meeting without being able to decide what answer to give Spain, but it was resolved to submit the matter to President Grevy.

France has given an ultimatum to Madagascar, the terms of which the latter refused to admit, and it was reported that the French Resident was about to depart for France.

The American citizens of German birth, named Schmidt and Steehr, who have been spending several weeks on a visit to their old homes in Kiel, Holstein, have been ordered by the German Government to leave by the 8th of October.

Nubar Pasha, specially summoned to London, had a conference with Lord Salisbury, to effect a settlement of the Egyptian questions, which are becoming more pressing on account of the crisis in Eastern Europe. The basis of settlement will probably be a continuance of the de facto British protectorate over Egypt by a normal British army of occupation, or even a draft upon British troops in Egypt, in order to be provisionally maintained by specially raised Egyptian troops with British officers. The British personal obligation towards Turkey is to be upheld, in accordance with the Cyprus Treaty of Alliance.

TRADE POINTERS.

Mr. L. B. Kerr's great clearing sale of tailor goods will be continued today (Tuesday) at ten o'clock. Lease of store will be sold at noon. A large number of single suit pieces at same hour.

One of the last chances to procure relics memorial of Her late Majesty Queen Emma, some of which are rare Hawaiian mementoes, will be afforded in the sale, advertised in this paper, to be conducted at the late Queen Dowager's town residence by E. P. Adams & Co., on Wednesday, October 13th.

JUDGED BY THE COLORS.

HOW THE LADIES OF ST. PAUL
SELECT THEIR FOOT-GEAR.

What Classes Wear Striped and Solid-Colored Hosiery—Red a Color That Indicates a Fiery Disposition—Black the Proper Thing—Pure White.

"Stockings an indication of character?" repeated the clerk in charge of the hosiery department of a prominent dry-goods store, as he folded a beautiful pair of blue silk hose and replaced them in a box. "Yes, I think that the color, the texture, and in fact the lady's conduct while making a selection of foot covering enable the observing clerk to judge a good deal of her character, and even if she is a perfect stranger and her name and residence are unknown quantities. I have tried my hand at guessing in that way, and when ever the stranger has become a regular customer, thus giving me a chance to discover the truth or falsity of my prediction, I have found that I have judged her correctly. I knew a clerk in an extensive New York establishment, which dealt largely in hosiery, who had an elaborate theory on the subject, and in a number of cases, which came under our knowledge in connection with the published testimony in subsequent divorce proceedings, he came mighty near reading their characters to a fine point.

UGLY AND INAPPROPRIATE FOOT-GEAR.
"For instance, he maintained that no refined woman, no woman with perfect taste, would ever make a barber shop sign sign of herself by wearing striped stockings. He held that a female with striking costume, a display of cheap jewelry, and a living, walking illustration of inharmonious combinations of colors was the only respectable being who ever called for barber stockings. He excused her on the ground that she knew no better. Ignorance, he said, was the only reason why young girls and country maidens called for such ugly and inappropriate foot-gear. I am thoroughly convinced that his theory was correct, as I have yet to receive a call for such striped stockings from a St. Paul woman, old or young, whom I know to have a leading position in social circles. They are worn a great deal by little girls, but with children the demand is for the smallest kind of a stripe. Blue and white or black and white are the reigning combinations of color. They want as near the neutral tint as possible, for the less conspicuous an article is as to color the more desirable. The striped stockings are in great favor with the few Indian girls who chance to visit the store. They want the red and white or some other glaring colors, and the stripes are never too broad to suit them. Next to the Indians come the darkies. The colored women like showy stockings. The foreigners are next. So that we get rid of all such stuff between the Indians, negroes, and the domestics of foreign birth or extraction.
"This experienced friend of mine had a theory that a woman who would wear red stockings from choice was a person blessed with more than her share of temper. Brunettes are more likely to prefer that color than blondes, and brunettes as a rule are higher-tempered than their paler sisters. But when a blonde calls for that she is hot-tempered. We had this proved to our entire satisfaction. A blonde customer in New York invariably called for red. In a subsequent divorce trial her husband testified that she was a perfect demon when she got mad, and trifles were enough to get her mad. She chased him out of the house with a butcher knife and made married life unbearable.

A SAVAGE TASTE AND DISPOSITION.
"I will never risk my life with a woman who has a partiality for red—it shows a savage taste and is generally coupled with a savage disposition. Now blue and gray are great improvements on red. They are more subdued. They show that their owner is of a refined character and likes not a display. But far above them, as they are elevated above the barber-pole stockings, are the solid black hose. They are always elegant and appropriate. As a rule the prettiest girls with the prettiest figures take black. This is the latest craze. A short time ago the solid colors were all popular, but now black is the leading favorite. It's all nonsense to talk about intellectual girls preferring blue stockings.
"When a female calls for white stockings it is safe to say that she is either an old widow or an old maid, who don't expect to get married. They are perfectly reckless, and don't care. I always feel sorry for a woman who wants that kind of hosiery. Of course it is only a matter of a few years since white was the prevailing color. It changed, and now no one thinks of getting pure white except those who are looking for a bargain or women who don't care for fashion. Even a bride don't get pure white hose. She wants a tint of some kind and she gets it, if we have to send to New York for it. Future brides are the most particular customers who visit a dry goods store. Nothing is ever good enough for them. They get over that feeling after they have been married a few years, and are less particular. I don't blame 'em a bit, for everybody helps to make 'em foolish. They don't have a female acquaintance who wouldn't leave anything to go down town and buy or match something for a bride-elect. After the ceremony these brides have to do their own shopping."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

A Peculiarity of Light and Heat.
One of the curiosities of light and heat is the fact that rays of the sun should pass through a cake of ice without melting it at all, as is the case when the thermometer stands a little above zero. That the rays of heat actually penetrate the ice is shown by the fact that a lens of ice may be used for setting fire to inflammable substances.—Chicago Herald.

Richest Subject of the Czars.
Russia has some very rich men. Herr Stettin, a great Russian land-owner, is worth $20,000,000, and he is the richest individual in the czar's domains, though the Swedish oil kings, the Nobel brothers, own property valued at $400,000,000. They distance the Standard Oil company, their only rival in the petroleum trade.—Chicago Journal.

The Development of Birds' Breasts.
Those species of birds like the ostrich, which have not developed the ability to fly, but use their wings mainly to assist in running or swimming, have flat breasts, while the species marked by great power of wing have developed a keel-shaped breast for a particular arrangement of the muscles.—Boston Budget.

Definition of a Philanthropist.
An Illinois editor defines a philanthropist as a zealous person bent on doing the greatest possible good to the greatest possible number with the greatest possible amount of other people's money.—Chicago Herald.

To-day, September 1st, 1886, is issued the first number of THE DAILY HERALD, a morning newspaper, to be printed for the proprietor under contract by the "Press Publishing Company," Merchant street, Honolulu.

Price Six Dollars per Annum or Fifty Cents per Month.

All who receive a copy of the initial or any succeeding number are respectfully

INVITED TO SUBSCRIBE.

ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

A large edition will be printed each day, to be circulated in Honolulu and throughout the Islands, regardless of subscriptions, until a regular paying list of subscribers is obtained on the public becoming acquainted with the merits of the paper.

The DAILY HERALD will furnish a fresh and readable record of events in city and country. It will also give, from time to time as received, a summary of the latest news from the outside world, in concise and systematic form.

The DAILY HERALD will follow a straightforward, consistent, independent and moderate course in the discussion of public affairs. It will not be the servile organ of any clique, faction or party. At the same time an earnest support will be given to measures promotive of the public welfare, and to individuals or organizations that may appear in the political field, with claims to popular confidence backed by worthy records and unassailable principles.

The undersigned would, however, rather point to his record as a journalist in this city for the past two years, as conductor of the Daily Bulletin, than make promises that, in general estimation, are valueless until justified by performance. He can only pledge himself to do his best to produce a thorough, an influential, and in every way acceptable, daily newspaper.

Try the "Daily Herald" for a month at least.

THE FATE OF TWO OLD HEROES.

Sold for $23 After Years of Most Gallant Service.

The two war veterans stood with shaking limbs on the rough pavement at the navy yard in Boston last week. About them a score or more of Government employes had assembled. They were peculiar specimens, but their aged and feeble bodies were positive evidence that they had served their country long and well. They had faced the powder innumerable times during the great struggle between the North and South; they had seen patriots fall and time again before the deadly fire of the enemy's charge; they had heard the martial music as it broke forth to sound the triumphant march of a departed hero; they had assisted in forwarding and transporting the ammunition which carried the day, and they had been companions of the late General Grant when a single ray of hope failed to lighten the frightful darkness of the Wilderness.

And all for what? The country which they helped to preserve from the plundering hand of the rebel was ungrateful. They had served it in good faith for days and years, but could do so no longer. It has no use for idlers, and as age stifled their ambition for work they had to be disposed of; so said the mandate. They were common slaves, and were to be treated as such. The ring of the auctioneer's hammer was to settle their future. Uncle Sam had ordered their sale. The score of Government officials uttered no protest against the inhuman act, and the unsympathetic auctioneer hesitated not at cutting off their honorable career. The bidding was as niggardly as the lamentation, and a few minutes told the tale—the two great relics of the war controlled the great sums of $13 and $10. They were not purchased by a distinguished personage with enthusiastic belief, but were seized by one who will henceforth compel them to drag a dump cart at Charlestown from early morning to the close of day. And all for being faithful! There was no Henry Bergh there to stop the ungodly sight, and, as a result, the huge coffers of this great, free country were swelled by an additional $23 in recognition of the sale of two feeble horses which had carried the blue to victory.—N.Y. Times.

Resemblance.

Lieut. George Monroe had a day off and went to Nantasket. On the boat, with several friends, there was a talk about personal resemblances.

"Wohl!" I have been taken for Bismarck, in Berlin," said a German gentleman.

"Aussi, of a time in Paris, I was, as the Count de Paris saluted, so like him I resembled," said a teacher of French. "That's nothing," said George: "A fellow came up and slapped me on the back, right on Trompet street the other day, and cried out, 'Great Caesar is that you?'—Boston News.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

What was that Mr. Gibson said about log-rolling two or three months ago? He has come to be heavily engaged in that branch of the lumbering business since then.

A soldier threatened a civilian with his sword in a saloon the other evening. It is to be hoped the to be organized standing army will not have many such cowards in its rank and file.

The taxing power is one that ruling factions can least afford to strain. This the oligarchical reactionaries of Hawaii seem determined to find out only when it is too late for their own selfish ends.

The Advertiser might give the Legislature some more of those solemn lectures on economy with which it abounded early in the session. But probably the editor sees things differently now from the other side of the screen.

"Thousands for bones, not one cent for books," is an appropriate motto for the present Legislature. The General Board and its divining pigs get all they want, but the public library may fall into decay for any help it will get from the "assembled wisdom."

It shows how rotten a basis our legislative system rests upon, when it is possible for a publican, enjoying large emoluments in the shape of commissions on taxes, to have the privilege of the taxpayers and initiating a proposal to raise direct taxes a quarter per cent.

The question hitherto has been where the money was to come from to meet the insane extravagance of the Legislature. Mr. Hayselden answers it by proposing to give another turn to the taxation screw. This too, in the face of the dullest business period that the Kingdom has known in many years, when the planters, and merchants, and householders are all pinching their affairs to make both ends meet.

Scotland has an influential and growing organization under the title of "The Scotch Home Rule Association," with Prof. Blackie as chairman. With Scotland asking to have local control of local affairs, the older demand of the Irish for a like privilege cannot much longer be staved off. It looks as if, out of the apparently similar yet very diversely governed dominions of the British Imperial crown, there is being evolved pretty rapidly the "United States of the British Empire," monarchical perhaps in form, but republican in idea.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

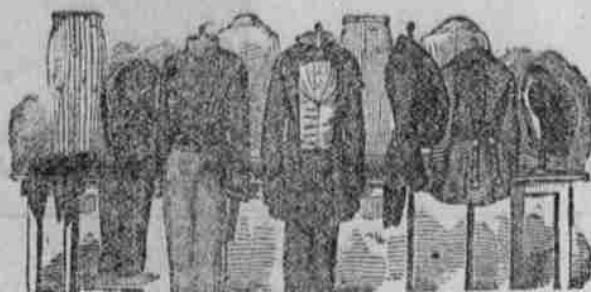

At the opening of yesterday's session a petition was presented from Bishop Willis and Rev. Messrs. Cruzan, Ogge, Dr. Hyde, Parker, Mackintosh, Wallace, Waimanu, Merritt and Forbes, and Mr. F. W. Damon, against the passage of the opium bill, which was laid on the table to be considered with the bill. Mr. Bishop reported from the special committee on the currency bill recommending amendments. The latter in effect provide for the redemption, in U. S. gold coin, of all silver certificates outstanding or to be issued under the present act, except ten dollar ones, whether they contain the words "silver coin" or not; for their withdrawal and cancellation when redeemed; for the issue of new certificates; for a deposit of coin to cover the amounts issued; for the new issue not to exceed in the aggregate $325,000, of which not more than $30,000 is to be of the denomination of ten dollars; for the certificates being signed by the Minister of Finance and countersigned by the Registrar of Public Accounts, and for the deposit to be a special one for the above purpose and no other. This report was signed by Messrs.

Bishop, Abolo, Dole and Creighton. A further recommendation, signed by Messrs. Bishop and Dole, which the chairman stated would have been signed by Mr. Castle had he been present, was to add a new section providing for the issue of ten dollar certificates, in addition to those mentioned above, on deposits of silver coin, not less than one hundred dollars and payable on demand. The reports were laid on the table to be considered with the bill. Some time was spent over an effort by Mr. Hayselden to get in a new bill, that he was ultimately compelled to declare was intended to raise taxation from three-quarters to one per cent. Mr. Gibson, in the course of the discussion, said he did not know what the object of the bill was, and he did not know why the resolution of the House, requiring unanimous consent to the introduction of new bills, could not be hung up when expedient as well as the standing rules. It was no use, however, both Mr. Dickey and Mr. Dole objected to the introduction of the bill, and it had to stand aside.

The Appropriation Bill came up, as it proved, for further inflation, on third reading. Mr. Thurston's amendment to the ramie subsidy of $2,500 passed. Mr. Gibson had the janitor of the Government building granted $1,200 instead of $1,000. On motion of Mr. Brown, the item, of $5,000, to pay Mrs. Swan for her "undivided interest" in a piece of land near the foundry, was struck out, that member assuring the House that the lady referred to had no undivided interest therein, as her family had been squatters on the land. The item of $1,200 to purchase new books for the Honolulu Library was struck out. On motion of Mr. Richardson, the item of $15,000 for lighting the streets of Honolulu was replaced by one of $17,500 for lighting the streets throughout the Kingdom, and the item of $1,000 for giving light to Hilo was struck out. Mr. Gibson moved $50,000 instead of $25,000 for the Honolulu Fire Department, but the matter was referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Gibson, Cleghorn, Keau and Baker. The clause in the item for the Oceanic Steamship Company's subsidy, reading, "as provided by law," was, on motion of Mr. Kaulukou, deleted, making the payment of the subsidy obligatory law or no law. Salaries of the Ministers were all evened up to the old figure of $12,000 for the biennial period, and the Minister of Finance and Attorney General were given several thousands additional for clerks, incidentals, etc. Mr. Gibson had $75,000 added to the item for payment of the national debt, making the item $255,000. This was in accordance with the non-economical mood that dictated the extraordinary course of paying for our seventy-three cent dollars about twenty years before the debt is due. An item of $700 appeared in the bill for the Collector at Mahukona. Mr. Kaunamano moved to increase it to $2,500. Mr. Thurston, probably chagrined at being forestalled in liberality with the public funds, jumped up and moved $3,600. The Ministers, for the nonce dazed at the extraordinary precocity of so young a politician, sat pinned to their seats. The youthful spendthrift for the nation, with sublime assurance, signalled the treasury benches for help in the tremendous feat of log-rolling, and three "reform" Ministers sprang as one man to his relief, the Premier asking in perplexity, "What is it for?" meaning, doubtless, "What great public boon does my dear lad count upon securing in return for this prodigious lift?" Mr. Creighton was too tired with the log-rolling frolic of the past week to assist on this occasion, and refused to respond to the crack of the pretentious little luna's whip. The House only felt equal to rolling Mr. Kaunamano's log, the minority being severely strained in the futile effort to start the bigger one. Mr. Kaulukou had a big round stick he wanted rolled, in the shape of $5,000 for a shed to store kerosene in. Mr. Gibson showed it was too heavy, by an estimate he had from the Superintendent of Public Works, that $800 would be rather above what would be required for the structure. He "therefore" moved to make it $1,200, which carried. The little margin of four hundred dollars makes no difference, you know. "If the money will not be needed it will not be spent." This, the taxpayers will probably find out, means that the necessity will be measured by the gullible liberality of the Legislature. Mr. Keau, of the police force, initiated the rolling of another thousand on to his chief, the Marshal's salary, making it $8,000. The Police of Oahu were voted $20,000 additional, raising the appropriation to $100,000. This is at least partially required to provide for police protection to the suburbs of Honolulu. Officer Tell got the $240 petitioned for as additional pay for two periods, and Officer Fehlbehr $120 for one period, on the ground that their pay was appropriated specifically. The Attorney General, in the discussion on these votes, seriously clashed in opinion with the lieutenant of the native Government contingent, Mr. Aholo, telling the latter member and his coadjutors, in effect, that they were meddling with matters with which they had no business. In discussing the item of $2,000, that passed, for coroner's inquests, Mr. Dare said that under the law just passed for paying coroner's jurors, the service would cost $50,000. On the whole, the hundred and eighteenth was another rueful day.

The opening of Mr. C. J. McCarthy's new billiard hall on Saturday evening was an auspicious event.

Two more Chinese with opium in possession were hauled in yesterday, Officer Kauhanu being their captor.

Two Chinamen stole a box from an Alapai street house early yesterday morning, and forgot to take their shoes away with them.

The band concert at Emma Square last evening was attended by a fair audience, and the fine selections rendered were well received.

A sailor of the Iwawani recovered a purse dropped by a lady passenger in five fathoms of water. The company should make him a purser.

Mr. Geo. Lucas received 75,184 bricks, and Messrs. C. Brewer & Co. 32,000, by the W. S. Bowne, to the further great advantage of the building industry.

Sir Henry Fowler and son, with Mr. James Ashbury, an ex-Lord Mayor of London and a famous yachtman, stepped off the Mararoa during her call and visited the King and Princess Likelele.

Mr. Laine has refunded the amount collected by him recently, to send an old soldier home to the States, as he found that the object of ready benevolence was entirely unworthy of receiving assistance.

The Woman's Board of Missions will meet in Fort-street church parlors at 2:30 this afternoon, when Miss Gulick, of the Japan mission, will deliver an address. A meeting of the executive will be held half an hour earlier.

The S. S. Australia will be due here on Friday next, on her way to Sydney to take the place of the Mararoa until the repairs to the Zealandia are completed. The Mararoa goes off the San Francisco mail route with the present trip, and will go into the New Zealand coasting trade.

The following is clipped from the San Francisco Commercial News of September 21st: "Hill Bros. have an order for building a barkentine a little larger than the John Smith. She will be employed in the Hawaiian trade and owned by Captain Paul, who will command her, G. F. Smith and others.

On Saturday the post office received twenty-nine full mail bags from the other islands, and twenty from San Francisco. It despatched 3,454 letters and 1,313 packages papers to San Francisco, besides a mail to the Colonies. Yesterday twenty-three bags packed full of mail matter were sent to Maui and Hawaii by the steamer Kinau.

Skipped.

A good deal of sensation was created about town yesterday, by the departure of C. K. Miller, business agent, rather suddenly by the ship Amara for Oregon. It is reported that he dissipated some trust funds in his keeping, and, being unable to make the amounts good, preferred flight to facing the injured persons in the courts. Another version of the escapade is that he undertook the handling of a corruption fund in the Sol Yung shooting case, but appropriated the money to his own use and was menaced with exposure. He has left behind a youthful wife with an infant only a few weeks old. To some persons, who saw him on board the ship, he intimated his intention of sending for his wife as soon as he was able. Miller is known to have left some debts, but is not thought to have taken much money with him. Late he had been living faster than his usual sportive gait. Having had some business capacity he might have done fairly well here. It is pitiful to see a young man thus throwing away his chances in life for nothing.

Why is the suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism like a live Yankee? It is acute.

The Best Tonic.

Mr. Henry Billings, Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used your Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky for medicinal purposes. As a tonic I consider it superior to the hundreds of concoctions which are now flooding the land as stimulant liquors."

SUPREME COURT.

Acquitted of Manslaughter.

The October term of the Supreme Court met at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the Second Associate Justice, Mr. Preston, presiding. The trial of Kaai, charged with manslaughter, third degree, occupied the day, concluding about half-past three in the afternoon. This is the case of the child that came to its death by the discharge of a revolver, picked up by it one Sunday about two months ago, in the house of defendant on Punchbowl street. Upon being arraigned, the accused pleaded not guilty, and the trial proceeded before a Hawaiian jury. Mr. A. Rosa appeared for the Crown, and Messrs. W. A. Kinney and L. A. Thurston for the defense. There was nothing elicited in the testimony materially different from what the newspapers gave at the time of the fatal occurrence. His Honor briefly charged the jury in favor of the defendant. To make out a case, he said, the prosecution must have shown either that defendant knowingly allowed the child to play with the weapon, or handled it himself negligently so as to have caused the child's death. He was sorry it was getting so prevalent in this country for persons to carry firearms. He knew of no reason for this man having a pistol in his house, but he had a perfect right to have a pistol in his house if he chose. It was the careless disposal and handling of pistols, and fooling with them, that caused accidents like this. He would direct them, however, that there was no evidence on which they could convict this man, and therefore they should bring in a verdict of "not guilty." The jury, after a few moments of consultation without retiring, returned a verdict, "not guilty." The Court then informed the jury that their further attendance was not required until they were notified. Mr. John Sheldon acted as interpreter. There will be no more jury trials this week.

Wharf Incidents.

Just as the steamer Kinau was swinging out of her dock yesterday, a commotion, with loud cries of "Pake" from the native loungers, was raised on the wharf. The next instant a Chinese merchant clutching a gripsack burst through the crowd and made signals that he wanted to go on board the steamer. A native boatman took him alongside, and the tardy comical traveler and his gripsack were pulled on board. The shouts and cheers from ship and shore showed how slight an incident suffices to make amusement for a big lot of people. Immediately after the above, two well-dressed native women and a child appeared in a ferryman's boat in the dock, and making signals with handkerchiefs to persons on the boat led the crowd to think that they also were intending passengers. This caused more diversion, which was not lessened by one of the ladies having her nice new hat blow off into the water. The boatman fished up the hat and then rowed the harbor, disappointing the watchers who expected to see the women also embarking on the fly.

Police Court.

Fourteen persons paid the usual six dollars for over-indulgence in firewater. E. Edwards was sentenced to fifteen days' imprisonment at hard labor for drunkenness.

Hebera, charged with violating an express rule, was fined $5 and his driver's license ordered to be cancelled.

A. Mediris was fined $5 and $1 costs for violating another express rule. Manuel Travers forfeited $10 bail for fast and furious driving.

Kalima, charged with practising medicine without a license, was fined $15 and $3 costs.

Ah Sei, Wo Leu, Ah Yin, Ah Sing and Ah Hung were charged with violating the Sabbath. A nolle pro. was entered in the case of Ah Hung. The others were fined $4 each.

Three Chinese, Sim Crow, Dick and Ah Fat, charged with selling liquor without a license, were remanded.

Sale of Lands.

Yesterday Messrs. E. P. Adams & Co. disposed of ten parcels of land, under mortgage foreclosures, realizing an aggregate of $7,150.

Two lots at Kailua were bought together by Hon. C. P. Iaukea for $710. A lot at Waikiki, containing about one and three-quarter acres, went to Mr. Palupu for $925.

A half interest in certain land at Hilo was sold to Mr. S. Selig for $15. A lot of better than two and a half acres at Anawaiohina, near Punchbowl, fell to Mr. H. E. Avery, trustee, for $3,800.

Twelve and nearly one-half acres at Kipahulu, Maui, went to Mr. J. Mailou for $500. A little less than half an acre at Kipahulu, for $250, and five and a half acres at the same place, for $175, were bought by Mr. Joseph Vierra.

Mr. H. E. Avery, trustee, was also a purchaser of two lots at Kipahulu, one of eighteen and three-quarter acres for $475, and the other of sixteen acres for $300.

FOREIGN NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

Miscellaneous.

A call has been issued for a national convention of distillers and brewers, and wholesale and retail wine, spirits and beer dealers, to be held in Chicago on Monday, October 18th. The call says the convention is necessary to take some action to repel accusations and check the growth of public sentiment hostile to the rights and business of the whisky trade. It says this sentiment is no longer to be ignored, and the convention is therefore called.

Charles W. Bryant, a talented young lawyer of San Francisco, was found dead in the woods at Hayward, where he had gone hunting. Circumstances indicated that one barrel of his gun had gone off while he was loading the other.

The mixing house of the Giant Powder Works, Fleming's Point, near Berkeley, Cal., blew up on September 23d. Two Chinamen, who were making Nobel's explosive gelatine, were reduced to spatter, enough of which was raked off surrounding objects to nearly fill a fifty-pound powder box. Oakland felt the shock of explosion severely.

Spain has sustained the Cuban authorities in refusing to carry out the treaty making mutual concessions to American and Spanish vessels trading between Cuba and the United States.

EUROPE.

Miscellaneous.

Senor Zorilla said in Paris that a recent uprising in Spain was premature, and declared that in the revolt which would occur at the proper time many of the generals in the Spanish army would support the revolutionists. Spain has demanded of France the expulsion of Zorilla from French territory. The French Cabinet had a meeting without being able to decide what answer to give Spain, but it was resolved to submit the matter to President Grevy.

France has given an ultimatum to Madagascar, the terms of which the latter refused to admit, and it was reported that the French Resident was about to depart for France.

The American citizens of German birth, named Schmidt and Stecher, who have been spending several weeks on a visit to their old homes in Kiel, Holstein, have been ordered by the German Government to leave by the 8th of October.

Nubar Pasha, specially summoned to London, had a conference with Lord Salisbury, to effect a settlement of the Egyptian questions, which are becoming more pressing on account of the crisis in Eastern Europe. The basis of settlement will probably be a continuance of the de facto British protectorate over Egypt by a normal British army of occupation, or even a draft upon British troops in Egypt, in order to be provisionally maintained by specially raised Egyptian troops with British officers. The British personal obligation towards Turkey is to be upheld, in accordance with the Cyprus Treaty of Alliance.

TRADE POINTERS.

Mr. L. B. Kerr's great clearing sale of tailor goods will be continued to-day (Tuesday) at ten o'clock. Lease of store will be sold at noon. A large number of single suit pieces at same hour.

One of the last chances to procure relics memorial of Her late Majesty Queen Emma, some of which are rare Hawaiian mementoes, will be afforded in the sale, advertised in this paper, to be conducted at the late Queen Dowager's town residence by E. P. Adams & Co., on Wednesday, October 13th.

JUDGED BY THE COLORS.

SELECT THEIR FOOT-GEAR.

What Classes Wear Striped and Solid-Colored Hosiery—Red a Color That Indicates a Fiery Disposition—Black the Proper Thing—Pure White.

"Stockings an indication of character?" repeated the clerk in charge of the hosiery department of a prominent dry-goods store, as he folded a beautiful pair of blue silk hose and replaced them in a box. "Yes, I think that the color, the texture, and in fact the lady's conduct while making a selection of foot covering enable the observing clerk to judge a good deal of her character, and even if she is a perfect stranger and her name and residence are unknown quantities. I have tried my hand at guessing in that way, and when ever the stranger has become a regular customer, thus giving me a chance to discover the truth or falsity of my prediction, I have found that I have judged her correctly. I knew a clerk in an extensive New York establishment, which dealt largely in hosiery, who had an elaborated theory on the subject, and in a number of cases, which came under our knowledge in connection with the published testimony in subsequent divorce proceedings, he came mighty near reading their characters to a fine point.

"For instance, he maintained that no refined woman, no woman with perfect taste, would ever make a barber shop sign of herself by wearing striped stockings. He held that a female with striking costume, a display of cheap jewelry, and a living, walking illustration of inharmonious combinations of colors was the only respectable being who ever called for barber stockings. He excused her on the ground that she knew no better. Ignorance, he said, was the only reason why young girls and country maidens called for such ugly and inappropriate foot-gear. I am thoroughly convinced that his theory was correct, as I have yet to receive a call for such striped stockings from a St. Paul woman, old or young, whom I know to have a leading position in social circles. They are worn a great deal by little girls, but with children the demand is for the smallest kind of a stripe. Blue and white or black and white are the reigning combinations of color. They want as near the neutral tint as possible, for the less conspicuous an article is as to color the more desirable. The striped stockings are in great favor with the few Indian girls who chance to visit the store. They want the red and white or some other flaring colors, and the stripes are never too broad to suit them. Next to the Indians come the darkies. The colored women like showy stockings. The foreigners are next. So that we get rid of all such stuff between the Indians, negroes, and the domestics of foreign birth or extraction.

"This experienced friend of mine had a theory that a woman who would wear red stockings from choice was a person blessed with more than her share of temper. Brunettes are more likely to prefer that color than blondes, and brunettes as a rule are higher-tempered than their paler sisters. But when a blonde calls for that she is hot-tempered. We had this proved to our entire satisfaction. A blonde customer in New York invariably called for red. In a subsequent divorce trial her husband testified that she was a perfect demon when she got mad, and trifles were enough to get her mad. She chased him out of the house with a butcher knife and made married life unbearable.

A SAVAGE TASTE AND DISPOSITION. "I will never risk my life with a woman who has a partiality for red—it shows a savage taste and is generally coupled with a savage disposition. Now blue and gray are great improvements on red. They are more subdued. They show that their owner is of a refined character and likes not a display. But far above them, as they are elevated above the barber-pole stockings, are the solid black hose. They are always elegant and appropriate. As a rule the prettiest girls wear the prettiest figures take black. This is the latest craze. A short time ago the solid colors were all popular, but now black is the leading favorite. It's all nonsense to talk about intellectual girls preferring blue stockings.

"When a female calls for white stockings it is safe to say that she is either an old widow or an old maid, who don't expect to get married. They are perfectly reckless, and don't care. I always feel sorry for a woman who wants that kind of hosiery. Of course it is only a matter of a few years since white was the prevailing color. It changed, and now none thinks of getting pure white except those who are looking for a bargain or women who don't care for fashion. Even a bride don't get pure white hose. She wants a tint of some kind and she gets it, if we have to send to New York for it. Future brides are the most particular customers who visit a dry goods store. Nothing is ever good enough for them. They get over that feeling after they have been married a few years, and are less particular. I don't blame 'em a bit, for everybody helps to make 'em foolish. They don't have a female acquaintance who wouldn't leave anything to go down town and buy or match something for a bride-elect. After the ceremony these brides have to do their own shopping."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

A Peculiarity of Light and Heat. One of the curiosities of light and heat is the fact that rays of the sun should pass through a cake of ice without melting it at all, as is the case when the thermometer stands a little above zero. That the rays of heat actually penetrate the ice is shown by the fact that a lens of ice may be used for setting fire to inflammable substances.—Chicago Herald.

Highest Subject of the Czar. Russia has some very rich men. Herr Steiglitz, a great Russian land-owner, is worth $20,000,000, and he is the richest individual in the czar's domains, though the Swedish oil kings, the Nobel brothers, own property valued at $400,000,000. They distance the Standard Oil company, their only rival in the petroleum trade.—Chicago Journal.

The Development of Birds' Breasts. Those species of birds like the ostrich, which have not developed the ability to fly, but use their wings mainly to assist in running or swimming, have flat breasts, while the species marked by great power of wing have developed a keel-shaped breast for a particular arrangement of the muscles.—Boston Budget.

Definition of a Philanthropist. An Illinois editor defines a philanthropist as a zealous person bent on doing the greatest possible good to the greatest possible number with the greatest possible amount of other people's money.—Chicago Herald.

THE DAILY HERALD.

To-day, September 1st, 1886, is issued the first number of THE DAILY HERALD, a morning newspaper, to be printed for the proprietor under contract by the "Press Publishing Company," Merchant street, Honolulu.

Price Six Dollars per Annum or Fifty Cents per Month.

INVITED TO SUBSCRIBE.

ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

A large edition will be printed each day, to be circulated in Honolulu and throughout the Islands, regardless of subscriptions, until a regular paying list of subscribers is obtained on the public becoming acquainted with the merits of the paper.

The DAILY HERALD will furnish a fresh and readable record of events in city and country. It will also give, from time to time as received, a summary of the latest news from the outside world, in concise and systematic form.

The DAILY HERALD will follow a straightforward, consistent, independent and moderate course in the discussion of public affairs. It will not be the servile organ of any clique, faction or party. At the same time an earnest support will be given to measures promotive of the public welfare, and to individuals or organizations that may appear in the political field, with claims to popular confidence backed by worthy records and unassailable principles.

The undersigned would, however, rather point to his record as a journalist in this city for the past two years, as conductor of the Daily Bulletin, than make promises that, in general estimation, are valueless until justified by performance. He can only pledge himself to do his best to produce a thorough, an influential, and in every way acceptable, daily newspaper.

Try the "Daily Herald" for a month at least.
