The New "DISHWASHER"

There is more popular demand for a cheap, practical and durable Dish Washer than any article that can be mentioned. There is no machine about the household used as frequently as the Dish Washer. The services of a carpet sweeper are required two or three times a week; the washing machine once a week; the clothes wringer only once a week; while the sewing machine often stands idle for months; but the Dish-Washer is in demand THREE TIMES each day, and its benefits are thus constantly being dispensed to its users. IS HONOLULU GOING TO HELL?

A banker asked this question of a Bulletin reporter—Last Saturday evening the editor of The Bulletin went through Palama with Rath to find out the story of it.

SATURDAY'S BULLETIN.

H. Vickers, secretary of the Hilo Board of Trade, came in from that city this morning on the steamer Enterprise.

Another passenger was Castle Ridgway, National bank examiner. A. E. Douglass, clerk for Henry May & Co., of this city, also arrived on the Enterprise.

When the cable ship Restorer, which arrived this morning from San Francisco, was in that port twenty-five Japs employed on her deserted and other men were hired to take their places.

The Restorer encountered rough weather for two days before arriving in Honolulu. She brought no mail.

The following sugar lists are awaiting shipment on Kauai, according to the report of Purser Lewis of the steamer Iwalei, which arrived from ports on that island this morning: Diamond W., 2500; G. & R., 670; M. A. R., 22,000; K. S. M., 15,000; McEl., 3000; Y. K., 1000; K. P., 6000; M. S. Co., 20,000; K. S. Co., H. M. and L. P. were not obtained.

Senator John T. Brown, of Hilo, is engaged in developing one of Hawaii's industries in gathering the roots of the awa, a small tree growing in some parts of the island. The roots when chewed produce a peculiar, seductive, soothing effect, it is said with no injurious physical results, and is used by the natives. It is used for medicinal purposes on the mainland and is in good demand. Mr. Brown receives $100 a ton for the root, dried and delivered at Hilo.

If you let the Honolulu Photo Supply Co. do your printing and developing for you, you are sure of satisfactory service, and you will get all the picture that there is in the film. We have built up our reputation by good work and we are constantly adding to it. We have all the modern facilities for doing the fullest justice to camera work entrusted to our care and employ only the most skilled assistants to fill orders for printing and developing.

A photograph taken in 1880 of the corner where the L. Turner Co. store is situated illustrates how Hilo has built up since that date. The corner was then occupied by a store owned by A. Cleghorn and J. H. May, the proprietor, appears in the picture. The waters of the bay came up to the street's edge in front and spray would occasionally sprinkle the store, while behind the store appears to be continuous woods, except for St. Joseph's church. Hilo was already a business point of importance and had changed considerably from the days of the 60's when all the whalers used to drop in before going north.

BOARD DISCUSSES

NEW SCHOOL PLANS

Superintendent Babbitt yesterday afternoon reported to the Board of Education the needs which he had found on his trip to Maui and Hawaii. The Hawaiian school plans had been drawn up. Tenders could soon be called for. An exchange of the school lot there was also contemplated. Plans for a two-room addition at Honoumahi had also been forwarded. The Mountain new school had been improved. The Waialeale school was in bad condition and at an undesirable place. Mr. Kennedy had offered a two-acre site on the plantation for a new school.

New schools were needed at Huelo, Nahiku, Pala, Hamakua, Kailua, Kihai, Kananapali and Waialeale. It was intended to have plans for a new school at Nahiku soon. The new school at Pala would have to wait for the next legislature. Kihai needed a school very badly. Here a two-room school was necessary. The plantation at Kananapali was school was in bad condition and at an undesirable place. Mr. Kennedy had offered a two-acre site on the plantation for a new school.

The plans for the Hilo school had been forwarded, and tenders could probably soon be called for. Babbitt had hopes of getting the Paoan school under way, the negotiations for a site having received a fresh impetus. Land could also be secured for the Kalihewa school, all preliminary arrangements having been made. The old lot would make a good park.

FAREWELL TO HAMILTON

Upon invitation of the pastor of Central Union Church, a union service will take place at that church next Sunday evening at which Bishop Hamilton will preach. This will be the Bishop's last Sabbath in Honolulu and it is proposed to have this Union service in which Central Union and the Methodist people will unite. There will be no service at the M. E. church that evening. The Bishop preaches in the morning.

SCHOOL BOARD GIVES LAND FOR NEW PARK

HOLLOWAY

The Board of Education held a meeting yesterday at which a letter from W. W. Goodale was read. Goodale said a Japanese had asked them for permission to use the schoolhouse for two hours a day to teach a Japanese class there. Goodale himself thought it was improbable that this be granted.

Superintendent Babbitt said he had answered that the Board had no authority to grant this privilege. On motion by Farrington this action was approved.

Holt wanted to know if this was done on the theory adverse to the special purpose in the matter.

Farrington said he was against having the public schools used for foreign teachings. Holt answered he had no objections to that view.

Babbitt said the Supervisors had asked him to have the lot in Wilder avenue and Punaluu street fixed up. There was no money to do this with, so Babbitt had turned the lot over to the Public Works Department on the condition that it be used for park purposes. The fact that this lot had formerly been a burial ground was given as an additional reason for making it a park instead of having it sold as a building site, against which public sentiment might rebel.

A letter from the Civic Federation asked that distilled waters be provided for school children and that a crusade against tap water at all times and places be assisted. Tap water was injurious.

The Board found the request impossible to comply with on account of the financial stringency. Von Holt thought it reasonable, though not practicable at present. Farrington remarked that the Federation might properly use its energies towards securing appropriations for the department.

On motion by von Holt it was decided to write the Federation that the Board was in sympathy with it on the matter and asked its assistance to secure the necessary appropriation.

Miss Anderson's request for permission to use the Uialua school for a night school for adults was granted on the condition that she provide fire insurance on the building, and that those attending agree to send all their children of school age to attend school.

Babbitt stated he had authorized the release from the Reform school of six boys whose terms had expired.

Babbitt said the Waimanalo school had been closed because there was no teacher's cottage, the plantation cottage formerly used as such being no longer available. No teacher could be found to take the place now.

The manual training work for teachers, said Babbitt, was progressing.

The sale of an old water tank at Moiliili and schoolhouse at Opihale was granted.

Miss Georgia Allen of the Kaili-huana school was granted a leave of absence.

Manuel de Mello was recommended for parole from the Reform school by Superintendent Gibson. This was granted.

The question was raised whether Lincoln's birthday on February 12 should be celebrated as a holiday by releasing the children or by appropriate exercises in the schools. The latter course was decided on.

ANIN IS PUNISHED

FOR TELLING HIS ATTORNEYS

Yesterday afternoon the Grand Jury finally succeeded in landing Y. Anin in jail for contempt, this time on a charge of divulging Grand Jury secrets.

At 4:15 p. m. the jury came into Judge Lindsay's court and filed a report part of which, stripped of its legal phraseology, ran as follows:

That Y. Anin, did appear at the adjourned hour of 2 o'clock, and was asked whether or not he had communicated to others the matters concerning which he had testified to before the Grand Jury upon his appearance in the morning of said day. Then the said Y. Anin, in response to said question so propounded, did admit that he has to persons other than members of this Grand Jury, or the prosecuting officer or any persons connected with this Grand Jury and outside of their presence, communicate substantially what he remembered of the matters concerning which he had testified before said Grand Jury, in the morning of said day and had related to said person what he remembered of the testimony which he had given before this Grand Jury upon said occasion.

Attorney General Peters asked that Anin be adjudged guilty of contempt and sentenced forthwith.

Anin stated that he did not know the law. He had told the matters to his attorney. Judge Lindsay gave him a stiff lecture and sentenced him to imprisonment for three days without hard labor. Anin's request to be admitted to bail was denied, and he was taken to jail by the High Sheriff.

NOTED DAM BUILDER LIKE IN HONOLULU

FINDS MUCH TO

One of the many tourists who believe that Honolulu is not only the "Paradise of the World" as well, is W. S. Cheesman, who built the highest dam in the world. Mr. Cheesman is from Denver, and the great dam he constructed is 35 miles from that city on the south fork of the South Platte River. It is constructed for the purpose of conserving water for use in Denver.

It is not easy to get Mr. Cheesman to stop praising Honolulu long enough to tell about his big dam, but finally he told all about it. The dam is 236 feet in height, and forms a reservoir which, when full, is known as the Cheesman Lake. At present the water from this reservoir is not needed in Denver, but the time is coming when the present supply will not suffice, and it was to meet that condition, and to have a supply on hand in case anything happened to the present source of water that the great dam was built.

When the reservoir is full it contains thirty billion gallons, which will supply the city of Denver for three years. It requires all the water of the river for an entire season to fill it, and if the water for the season is not as plentiful as usual, a longer time will be necessary.

The Dam belongs to the Denver Union Water Company, of which Mr. Cheesman is president. The company supplies the entire city with water, which goes through filter beds before it is used, thus insuring safety in that source from chance of disease.

This is Mr. Cheesman's first trip to Honolulu, and unless circumstances prevent, he will come again next year and bring his family, who are now in Italy.

"This is the most wonderful country I have ever seen," declared Mr. Cheesman. "I don't want to leave it, and I have almost concluded to postpone leaving here from February 15 to March 2."

"I like the people of this city. There does not seem to be any difficulty between them about anything, and they simply join hands for the common good of the city. They will make an important place out of this."

"It takes men with push to make a city. Why, I was in Chicago when it had a population of only 40,000 and many other cities in the middle west seemed to have a better future. But the Chicago men had the energy, and they drew the business and the population."

"What they need here is better steamship service to the Coast. The people should put on a line of boats of their own which would just go between the islands and the mainland, and the rates should be as moderate as the conditions will admit. This is becoming necessary for people living away from the coast have difficulty now in getting reservations made on the best ships, and they do not like to sail on the others."

"They are doing the right thing here in making good roads and streets. They attract automobiles and bring many people who would otherwise go to Southern California."

Accompanying Mr. Cheesman is T. G. Lyster, a banker of Aspen, Colorado.

Electric Cleanliness

There is really but one way to keep rooms unspotted from the world, to make every dusky dusty corner wholesome, fresh and attractive; and that is to do all cleaning in the shadowy places by electric light.

With electric bulbs in badly lighted halls and inner rooms, no microbe particle of dust can escape, and the death knell of moths, ants and roaches is sounded.

To clean home by electric light is like working in sunlight, and it is no greater drain on the oxygen of the room than a sunbeam is. And a bright light lessens the work of cleaning.

Depend upon it that being tardy in arrival is not Jack's fault.

According to the latest ruling an oath is not an oath when taken before the Grand Jury.

Think of how many people would be on the contempt list, if the Supreme Court had decided otherwise on the Grand Jury oath.

To an outsider, the Anis episode suggest a series of efforts to frighten witnesses into saying what they might not otherwise divulge.

The seven Congressmen voting against the railway rebate law are certain of remaining in the line light until the next election.

The number of tourists in town is evidence that the Promotion Committee has already used some catch phrases with excellent effect.

President Elliot of Harvard says "the great movement of the world today is toward democracy." Think of the "long way around" they are taking in Russia.

The railway rebate law has gone to the Senate with an overwhelming House majority that will make Senatorial agents of the Trusts wish for a vacation and perhaps get it.

Japanese run so many things in Hawaii that it possibly is only natural for them to request that the Territorial schoolhouses be turned over to them for further Japaneseing the islands.

While Director Jared Smith is experimenting on how to improve the cultivation of rice, someone might start in operations on the minds of the land owners with a view to securing a reduction of rentals.

F. M. Swaney believes pineapple men should at least have an understanding that will guard them against market bunco steers and industrial suicide. Arguments against such an understanding will arouse curiosity if not interest.

When Legislatures refuse to provide for public schools, the best argument possible is offered for county control. It is therefore the part of good judgment for those opposed to County control of schools to lend practical support for proper appropriations.

We learn from the town authority on the fa games that notwithstanding the session of the Grand Jury the fa games are flourishing in Chinatown. This would indicate that the human love for gambling is so deep set that a session of a Grand Jury can't eradicate it.

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS AND SCHOOL NECESSITIES

The letter of the Civic Federation Committee requesting the Department of Public Instruction to provide distilled water for the children of the public schools presents a timely topic to the educational workers. It also suggests an example of how good people sometimes go off on tangents and in their enthusiasm for a special hobby forget other real needs. This Federation Committee has not yet done but their action carries with it possibilities.

No one can question the necessity for pure drinking water in the schools. The Federation appeal may be one of the means for building up a public sentiment demanding pure drinking water delivered through the pipes of the Territorial water system for every one. Distilled water in the school-room, and the other kind available from the taps in the yard means that school children will continue each in about equal quantities.

This distilled water scheme requires money, for which the department must await the session of the Legislature. The possible danger of the proposal and the only one lies in the pure water enthusiasts becoming so determined in putting through an appropriation for the water distillery, that the crying money-need of the department will be shelved.

The manual training feature is in the same class. No one with any sense will question the value of manual training in our public schools. As it is often easier to get money for a new thing than to develop the old proper standard, it may be possible to secure from the Legislature an appropriation for manual training or to buy out the Boys Club equipment and thus relieve an organization ready to be relieved.

All these things are very well in their place. What the educational department of this Territory needs, what it must have if progressive standards are to be leading characteristics, is appropriations of sufficient size to properly pay its present teachers.

In those islands will be aided and aided if any new departures are made at the expense of increased appropriations for the regular teachers' salaries.

Employ good teachers, hold the first class teachers now resigning from time to time on account of inadequate salaries and all or many of these problems that agitate well-meaning people will be solved.

In other words put the Superintendent of Public Instruction in a position to employ the best teaching material and keep it. Then start in with the fads and fancies, though it is true that pure water is more a matter of life and death than fad or fancy.

No citizen and no organization with a due sense of the relative proportions of educational demands in Hawaii will allow anything to draw public attention from the policy of properly providing for first class teachers. The present status of the teachers' salary appropriations is no less outrageous than the class of stuff now sent through some of the water pipes in Honolulu and delivered to the people as water.

"SEEING HONOLULU"

McGrew's house and told how he was the Father of Annexation. Great interest was excited by the pointing out of Prince David's house on Pensacola street. The Planter's Experiment Station was indicated and the information given that $80,000 had been spent there by the planters. In drawing attention to Oahu college Mr. Thurston said that it had an endowment of $500,000 and there were building improvements, plans on foot to involve $100,000, for extra class rooms and dormitories. The passengers marked the splendid cars, fine road beds and good comfort, the service of the Rapid Transit Company, the varied, semi-tropic attractiveness and charm of the city, the magnificent views and the glorious climate.

Mr. Thurston, up Manoa valley, stated that a survey was being made for a tunnel through to the other side, for the extension of the Rapid Transit line. He did not know whether it would ever be accomplished, but the survey was being made nevertheless. In conversation with a Bulletin reporter Mr. Thurston thought an open car, a car without a roof, would be an excellent plan for a "Seeing Honolulu" car.

The first tourist city observation trip on a trolley was most delightful and it is highly probable that a system of such trips will be instituted.

Needless to say, at the termination of the trip, the sightseers were saturated with information.

CHE FA BANKER SOAKED

Judge De Bolt this morning gave Chew Hing, a Chinese who was found guilty by a jury of maintaining and conducting a lottery, a stiff penalty, imposing on him a fine of $500. It is evident that the che fa bankers who run across Judge De Bolt can expect but scant mercy.

NO OATH OF SECRECY

produce statutes from any jurisdiction giving authority to impose the secrecy oath.

Milverson argued that the authority was implied. Secrecy was essential to the work of the Grand Jury. This was shown by the fact that the Grand Jurors had to take such an oath. The Court had power to make such rules and adopt such measures as were necessary to carry out the intent of the law, and Judge Robinson had acted under that power.

Frear said that there had been no direct order made by the Court.

Milverson answered that the oath implied the order. It was policy to have the Grand Jury proceedings secret. If the witnesses could tell what transpired, all attempts to keep the proceedings secret would be useless.

Chief Justice Frear stated that the Court did not desire to hear argument from Anis's counsel, and rendered the following oral opinion:

The petitioner seeks release from imprisonment under a judgment and sentence of the Circuit Court for contempt in violating an oath of secrecy taken by him as a witness before the Grand Jury.

Of the questions suggested by the record, the only one that need be considered is whether the oath of secrecy was authorized or required by law. If it was not, there was no contempt of Court.

The clause of secrecy in the oath was prescribed by a single Judge of the Circuit Court, not by any general rule of the Circuit Court or of the Circuit Courts.

The Organic Act provides, in Section 83, that the method of the presentation of cases to Grand Jurors shall be prescribed by the Supreme Court of the Territory, and in pursuance of that power or duty the Supreme Court has prescribed, by Rule 14 of the rules relating to Grand Jurors, the form of oath to be administered to witnesses before Grand Jurors—which does not contain a clause of secrecy. It is at least a question whether this provision of the Organic Act and the rule made in pursuance of it are not exclusive. But, however that may be, in the opinion of the court, the Judge of the Circuit Court who prescribed the clause of secrecy, was without authority of law to make that requirement. In the absence of any law or rule authorized by law requiring an oath of secrecy and in the absence of any legal order against divulging the transactions of the Grand Jury, there could be no contempt of court in divulging such secrets on the part of a witness before the Grand Jury.

Accordingly the writ must be allowed and the petitioner discharged from custody, and it is so ordered.

Anis was immediately released and went his way with Judge Humphreys. In the meantime the Grand Jury, though badly disappointed, still kept on its work, calling before it several Chinese and Hawaiian witnesses. The Attorney General's Department hopes that the Supreme Court, which, until the Legislature meets, is the only body which has authority to give power to impose the secrecy oath, will do so immediately. If the Court does not do so on its own motion, the Attorney General will probably make a request that this be done.

Chief Justice Frear, when asked if the Court intended to promulgate such an order on its own motion, stated that it had not considered the matter, but that it was unlikely. He knew of no such rule existing anywhere, although he believed that some States had statutes to that effect.

IS HONOLULU GOING TO HELL? A Banker asked this question of a Bulletin reporter—Last Saturday evening the editor of The Bulletin went through Palama with Rath to find out. The story of it will appear in SATURDAY'S BULLETIN.

Change of LIFE

Need Not Bring Suffering and Misery

This perfectly natural change in a woman's life is too often accompanied by painful, distressing symptoms due to female troubles and slight irregularities in her delicate organism.

The woman who passes this change without the development of tumors, cancers, or chronic invalidism enters a new field of happiness and usefulness in the domestic circle and in social activity. Her physical system should receive the necessary assistance at this critical period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

is exactly suited to woman's needs at this time. It strengthens and cures all derangements of the female organism, it overcomes the hot flashes and dizzy fainting spells, and all other distressing symptoms.

I Was in Bed for Three Weeks

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered a great deal during Change of Life. For eleven weeks I had hemorrhages and it made me so weak I was in bed for three weeks. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, although it was against my doctor's will and I had to hide it. I took it regularly until I had taken five bottles, and it brought me out all right, a perfectly strong, well woman. Any one can tell how healthy I am by looking at my picture, and any one can write to me or my daughter about our wonderful cures.

Mrs. F. M. MUSHMUSH, East Chicago, Ind.

The whole secret of safety at this time of life is thorough preparation before the change begins. Fortify the system with a course of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This wonderful medicine has carried thousands of women through this danger period.

No such helpful advice to women who are sick can be had anywhere as will be received free by addressing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

OAHU COLLEGE SPORTS

Yesterday afternoon every lad in Oahu College who could muster up enough strength to run, jump or hurdle, fell in line and fought for the glory of his class in a field day held on the college campus.

The Seniors, Sophomores and Freshmen fought it out and there were so many entries that the pole vault, hammer throw, 120-yard hurdle, half-mile and one-mile relay will go over until today to be decided. Each win counted 5 points and second place 3 and third place 1. When the contest closed for the day the Seniors led.

The standing of the classes was as follows:

NOTABLE PRIZES

Of Hawaii For 1906

The $500 Ocean Yacht Race Trophy

The Beautiful White Rock Golf Cup

The BULLETIN'S $2000 Prize List

Consisting of a $1400 Reo Touring Car; a $350 Kroeger Piano; a $5000 Insurance Policy; a Silver Punchbowl; a Sewing Machine; a Store Order; a Winchester Rifle; a set of Golf Clubs and Leather Bag; a Suit Case; a Kodak Developing Machine.

The winner of the ocean race cup will demonstrate the skill of his crew and the fine model of his yacht; the winner of the golf trophy will secure the prize by good playing and steady nerve; but the finest prize of all —The Bulletin's Touring Car, will be a test of personal popularity that will establish the reputation of the winner for the next twenty-five years. Every one still remembers that Capt. Simerson of the island fleet, won the Bulletin's Binoculars; that Jim Gorman won the diamond ring; that the Kohala Club won the Pope-Trilene Runabout, but all these prizes put together do not equal in value the first prize in the present contest—the Splendid Reo. This is not only a business enterprise of The Bulletin's, but is a splendid opportunity presented to the people of Hawaii. Both old and new subscribers are entitled to votes which may be turned in for any person the holder may select.

THE FIRST PRIZE is a Reo Touring Car complete. The Reo is the 1906 standard of Utilized Power; 15 horsepower, 1500 pounds, seating five people, speed 35 miles per hour, price $1400. Invented and built by R. E. Olds, the foremost designer and builder of gasoline motor cars in the United States. The Von Hamm-Young Co. is agent for this car, and their experience with many makes of autos is a sufficient guarantee that they will not handle any but high-grade SUCCESSFUL automobiles.

THE SECOND PRIZE is a handsome Kroeger Piano, from the well-known island firm, The Bergstrom Music Co., who have handled this make of piano since 1895, and hundreds of people in the Territory bear testimony to its fine tone, splendid workmanship and lasting qualities.

THE THIRD PRIZE is a $5000 Insurance Policy issued by the Continental Casualty Co., of Chicago. The Henry Waterhouse Trust Co. are the local agents.

FOURTH PRIZE is a Silver Punchbowl from the jewelry establishment of M. R. Counter, Fort street.

FIFTH PRIZE—A $40 Store Order, issued by The Bulletin Publishing Co., Ltd.

SIXTH PRIZE—A Domestic Sewing Machine from The Von Hamm-Young Co.

SEVENTH PRIZE—A B. G. I. Sole Leather Golf Bag and a set of Willie Parke clubs, from the sporting goods department of E. O. Hall & Son.

EIGHTH PRIZE—A Winchester Repeating Rifle from the sporting goods store of Woods & Sheldon.

NINTH PRIZE—A Gold Mounted, Sole Leather Suit Case from The Von Hamm-Young Co.

These ten prizes are the high-water mark of merit, value, tone and usefulness in the Territory of Hawaii. The winning of them is a question of votes and the votes may be had under the following conditions:

THE FINAL COUNT.

The final count will be made by three judges, selected from among those having no interest in The Bulletin and no active interest in any one of the candidates. The vote will be announced by the judges and the prizes awarded according to their findings, there being NO APPEAL. Subscription accounts and everything pertaining to the contest will be open to their inspection.

NO TRANSFER OF VOTES.

Only one name can be written on any ballot, and transfers of votes from one candidate to another will not be allowed.

Schedule of Vote Credits

In every copy of the paper there will be printed a coupon which being properly filled out with the name of the party for whom it is desired to vote and deposited with The Evening Bulletin WITHIN ONE WEEK AFTER THE DAY OF ISSUE, will be credited as ONE VOTE

The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day. For $1 a year.

WAS NOT INCENDIARY

DETAILS OF FIRE AT ONOMEA PLANTATION

STARTED IN TRASH AND WAS BEYOND CONTROL IN TWINKLING—HELP FROM OTHER PLANTATIONS.

The Hawaii Herald gives the following account of the Onomea mill fire: The fire at Papaikou last Saturday destroyed property of the Onomea Sugar Company to the value of a half-million dollars beside the loss caused by the delay in grinding the crop which is ripening daily. Such a case as this has been decided to grind at the Papaikou mill, but in close proximity to the fields of cane that are cut or are ready for cutting. By this means much of the ripe cane can be saved.

Just how the terrible fire started is unknown; there is no question of incendiary, and it is generally believed that it was caused through some defect in the blowers used for drying the bagasse. There is an arrangement at Papaikou by which the bagasse mixed with molasses and the barley is dried before being sent to the stables to be fed to the stock, and it is said something connected with this dryer went wrong Saturday night with fearful results.

It was about half-past seven when one of the Japanese employees of the mill saw a tiny blaze in the trash and before he could give an alarm the blaze had reached proportions that placed it beyond human control. In less than five minutes the boiling operations were going on at the time of the fire and the usual shift was at work at the centrifugals and in sacking sugar. Not a Japanese remained at his post and the centrifugals were left to take care of themselves.

Through the superhuman efforts of Engineer Cant and Assistant Manager Silver the flames were kept away from the mill proper and in this way much of the valuable machinery in that structure was saved. What was left in the boiling house is principally a mass of twisted iron. The main vacuum pan filled with juice is practically intact on its foundation and not warped by the heat, the result of the juice being in it. Some of the newer centrifugals may be overhauled and made ready for use when the mill is refitted but all of the old time centrifugals are beyond repair. It is believed that within three months, possibly two, the mill will be again in service.

Manager Moir was in Hamakua when the fire broke out and returned at the earliest moment after hearing the bad news. His assistant, Mr. Silver, and Engineer Ed. Cant worked like heroes and by careful management had a corps of men at work saving all property that it was possible to reach. The first notice Hilo had of a fire was a red glow to the north of town and many supposed it was nothing more than a trash fire, but as the glow increased in brightness alarm was felt and a telephone message brought back the dreadful news.

Crowd of people went down to the waterfront from which place a fine view of the fire could be had and many persons journeyed to the scene in carriages, automobiles and on horseback. The Oahu people went to the fire in autos and on horseback and lent valuable aid. There were fifteen thousand bags of sugar destroyed, that amount having been sacked and left in the sugar house preparatory to shipment on Monday. About eight thousand bags had been taken from the mill during the two previous days and stored on the opposite side of the gulch.

Insurance companies represented in Honolulu carried policies as follows: On building and machinery, $71,375; Sugar, $70,000. There is no underwriting that covers loss to crop through interference with the grinding.

NICHOLS' WILD SWING

Hilo, Feb. 8.—A day or two before the big steamer Alaskan left this port for the Cape, Captain Nichols had an experience that he will remember until he reaches home, and perhaps longer. The genial Captain is as active about his vessel as a man who has never doubled the cape, so that when there is anything to be done he is as apt to do it himself as to call on the cook's mate. At the time mentioned he was overseeing some work on the deck while a gang was taking in sugar at one of the hatches. One sling-load came up over the side and hit Captain Nichols squarely in the back as it swung back over the side. He was on the point of being carried overboard when he grasped the ear of one of the sacks of sugar with one hand and was swung over the side of the vessel and back again three times before the sling was landed on the deck. Had the captain released his hold when over the scow he would probably have been killed.—Herald.

ARRIVED FROM HILO.

After a voyage of 20 hours, the steamer Enterprise arrived from Hilo this morning, and will load refined sugar at the Railroad wharf. After getting a part of her cargo here, the Enterprise will go again to Hilo and finish her cargo of sugar, which will be taken to San Francisco. Her capacity is 3500 tons.

When the Enterprise left Hilo, the ship Falls of Clyde had almost completed her cargo and will sail in a few days for San Francisco, probably Sunday. The barks Roderick Dhu, Albert, Amy Turner, and the schooner Charles Levi Woodbury, were loading with sugar.

GOVERNOR MAY STUDY NEW ZEALAND LAWS

It is believed by many that Governor Carter's secondary purpose if not the first in thinking of a vacation trip to New Zealand is to get in touch with and study the New Zealand land laws. No one supposes for a minute that Governor Carter intends to keep quiet all the time. It isn't in his nature. By going to New Zealand he will be brought in contact with new ideas that will rest him as much as the trip or at least it will not be a source of worry. Undoubtedly the Governor can obtain many new suggestions in handling lands and turning it over to the people from corporations. New Zealand is based on management by the people and land-holders have to "stand round."
