

GETTING READY FOR LEGISLATURE

REDUCE EXPENSES AND RELIEVE SCHOOLS

SENATOR W. O. SMITH WHO WILL BE PRESIDENT OF UPPER HOUSE ADVISES ECONOMY AND SUGGESTS CHANGE IN SCHOOL LAW TO RELIEVE CONGESTION IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS—IDEA TO KEEP THE YOUNGER CHILDREN HOME.

Hon. W. O. Smith, spoken of for legislate for economy, to reduce expenses to keep within revenue. President of the Senate, has ceased to argue with himself as to whether or not he will accept the head office in the upper house of the coming legislature and he declares today that he will abide by the wish of the majority. If the majority select him to the date he will take the gavel, and if their wish is otherwise he will do that duty to which it has pleased the people to call him from the floor of the Senate.

"It was a question with me," said Senator Smith this morning, "whether I could be more useful in the chair or on the floor, and I considered that point, when it was suggested that I might be asked to be President, desiring to go where I might be most useful. However, what the majority say I will abide by. I shall accept it if it is the will of the majority that I be President. There will be a meeting this afternoon of Senators in the Judd building."

Speaking of possible legislation or of needed legislation which he believes should be enacted, Senator Smith said: "It occurs to me first of all that it should be the duty of this Legislature to reduce expenses to keep within the revenue of the Territory. Since annexation a considerable proportion of customs, goes to the Federal government. So, while I have at this time no certain bills in mind, generally speaking I think it the duty of the Legislature to hold a session for economy, to

MURDER TRIAL IS CLOSING

DOCTOR SINCLAIR AGREES WITH DR. COLLINS THAT KALEIKINI IS NOT EPILEPTIC.

Dr. Sinclair was the last witness for the rebuttal in the trial of George Kaleikini for the murder of his wife, his evidence having been given this morning. It was to the same effect as that of Dr. Collins, the witness answering a hypothetical question with the opinion that the defendant was not an epileptic maniac.

City Attorney Cathcart and Attorney Archi then proceeded, the jury being excused, to discuss instructions of the court.

If the closing addresses of counsel be not too long, the case will go to the jury this afternoon.

REFUSE TO TAKE PAY

Five policemen this morning refused to accept warrants for their wages from Auditor Bicknell, declaring that the Board of Supervisors had no right to reduce their pay. They are consulting attorneys with a view to seeking remedy, though it is believed they will have to take the money prescribed, go without or quit.

Those who refused to take their warrants were David Kamahā, receiving clerk; J. K. Mokumahi, Alex. Auld, S. K. Kaahu and Fred Wright. Each was reduced five dollars.

WYNNE MAY NOT HANG

MURDERER OF McKINNON MAY BE RELIEVED BY GOVERNOR UNTIL PRESIDENT ACTS.

John Wynne has petitioned Governor Frear for a reprieve, which will probably be granted.

He is sentenced to be hanged on Wednesday for the murder of A. McKinnon on board the oil steamer Rosecrans over a year ago.

The Governor has power to reprieve but not to pardon Wynne, he being a Federal prisoner. The reprieve would stay the execution until the President had time to act.

Test Case Postponed

When the time set arrived the municipal mandamus suit was continued until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for trial of disputed statements of fact which must be settled before the main questions can be reserved to the Supreme Court.

Owing to statements in Treasurer Trent's answer to Coster's writ of mandamus which are disputable, Assistant City and County Attorney Milverton was constrained to file a reply to the answer when the case came before Judge Robinson at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Among the assertions disputed are those denying Road Overseer Cummins' appointment by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Oahu and his filing of a bond, and then the employment of Stable Foreman Coster by Cummins. Also, the denial of the continuous employment of Coster under orders of Cummins up to January 4 last. Also the denial of Mayor Fern's having read an inaugural address. Also the denial that the motion to organize the Board was voted for by all the Supervisors. Also the denial of Coster's employment by the Roads Committee on January 4, of his actual services under continuous employment since, and of the fact that the stables are maintained in connection with the roads. Another matter controverted by Mr. Milverton is the sole ground presented by Mr. Trent for refusal to pay Coster's salary warrant.

VICE CONSUL WOOD.

The Governor has received a card from John Q. Wood showing him to be now United States vice consul at Milan, Italy. Mr. Wood is well known here. He was formerly a teacher at Oahu College. In the boom time he made a mint of money and blossomed forth as a prosperous stock broker. After a while he went to Europe where two or three years ago, he married a prima donna and made his home under the sunny Italian sky. Later he took a special course of study and passed examination for the United States consular service. Governor Frear is an old friend of Mr. Wood and met his wife on the mainland last year.

REPRESENTATIVES IN FULL CURB COUNCIL

Full curb council is being held by members of the House of Representatives. As yet there is no call for general caucuses, but numerous caucuses are being pulled off wherever it is convenient for men to gather for a few moments. The members from the different islands, nearly all of whom are today in this city, are getting acquainted and are exchanging confidences in regard to proposed legislation.

Every Representative questioned on the subject today proclaimed Holstein for Speaker. Holstein, himself, is saying nothing. Like W. O. Smith, Senator, he leaves the settlement of the chair to the majority and is willing to abide thereby.

Same hat and same smile has Holstein. He and John Lane have been wrapped in consultation since Holstein arrived in town. John and Holstein have earnestly discussed the pro bono publico proposition from schools to taxes and back again.

A matter which is receiving much consideration in street talk is the appointment of a stenographer or a stenographer and clerk in the House. Many desire that a Hawaiian receive the position of stenographer at $10 per day and that a Hawaiian also be made clerk at $10 per day. Others, a few, declare that there does not happen to be a Hawaiian stenographer capable of doing the job, though there are plenty of Hawaiians capable of taking the clerkship. Then there is the proposition to combine the positions of stenographer and clerk, which proposition, it is understood, is not receiving much support.

For clerk Jim Holt, Ed. Woodward and Jas. Lloyd are candidates.

Typewriters are busy with proposed laws and government departments are deep in statistical documents and typewritten for reference by the lawmakers, applications for work are many and have earnestly discussed the pro bono publico proposition from schools to taxes and back again.

TAX LIENS ARE NOT EXTENDED

AN IMPORTANT DECISION ON REVENUE QUESTION ON WHICH VARIOUS CASES IN PART DEPENDED—ACT OF 1905 DECLARED NOT TO EXTEND DURATION OF TAX LIENS WHICH HAD ATTACHED PRIOR TO ITS TAKING EFFECT.

"S. L. 1905, Act 89, Sec. 16 does not extend the duration of tax liens which had attached prior to the date that the act took effect."

So reads the syllabus of a Supreme Court decision, written by Justice Ballou, in the case of Assessor Charles T. Wilder against W. T. Lucas, in which E. W. Sutton appeared for the assessor and L. J. Warren for the defendant.

In the opinion of the court the case is thus stated:

This is a submission upon an agreed statement of facts from which it appears that the defendant in December, 1905, became the purchaser at foreclosure sale of real estate mortgaged in 1898, upon which the taxes for the year 1905 are still unpaid. The plaintiff contends that the property is subject to a lien for the taxes for that year superior to the prior mortgage, and the following questions are submitted for decision:

"1. Do the provisions of Section 16 of Act 89 of the Session Laws of 1905, amending Section 1266 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii (1905), operate to extend the term of the lien of taxes for the year 1905 from the term of two years to five years?"

"2. If the previous question be answered in the affirmative: Do the provisions of said Section 1266, as so amended, operate the year 1905, prior or superior to the lien of said mortgage; or, was such tax lien divested by said foreclosure?"

After quoting the law up to 1905 and the amendment of that year, the court concludes thus:

While it is true, as contended by plaintiff, that the amending act does not impair liens already existing, it does not necessarily follow that such liens are thereby extended from two to five years. There is nothing in the language of the statute to indicate such intent. The lien for the taxes of 1905 attached September 1, 1905, and continued for two years; the lien for the taxes of 1906 attached January 31, 1906, and continues for five years. Statutes providing additional remedies for the collection of taxes will not be applied to taxes previously laid unless such intent is manifest. Fuller v. Grand Rapids, 40 Mich. 395.

The first question is answered in the negative, and consideration of the second question becomes unnecessary.

There have been cases in court other than tax appeals which depended for their complete adjudication on the question of tax liens now decided.

BERESFORD TO RETIRE.

LONDON, February 15.—It is announced that Admiral Lord Charles Beresford will probably be retired next month.

Admiral Beresford is one of the national heroes of Great Britain, having shown distinguished gallantry in action on several occasions, won special mention in despatches, and received the thanks and decorations of foreign governments. For many years he has been a leading spirit in British naval circles and has contended fiercely for the continual improvement of the navy in equipment and strength. He is well known to many in Honolulu, having visited here as a midshipman in his youth and once or twice since. The last occasion was ten or twelve years ago, when the president of the Chamber of Commerce (the late J. B. Atherton) and a party of British residents met him at luncheon at the British consulate, where the whole company was photographed in a group by Davey. John Hanlon, a notable Irish character living here then, introduced himself to Sir Charles at the consulate, saying his father used to shoe the Beresford horses. Sir Charles responded with great affability to the old blacksmith's greeting and gave him a handsome present in money. Recently there has been extreme friction between Beresford and other admirals.

Honolulu Harbor, Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots, has come out in defense of Captain Tullett's action at Washington. It presumes, until it hears from its delegate, that he appeared before the House committee as a member of a committee of the national association. It shows that the bill to require vessels of 300 tons to carry two licensed officers is not a local measure, but was introduced by Representative Hayes of California, also that Honolulu Harbor at its last regular meeting fully recognized Delegate Kalaniana'ole in the matter by sending to him and other members of Congress letters requesting their assistance for the bill. Finally, it shows that the Chamber of Commerce, by its secretary, fully endorsed the Harbor's action in sending a representative to Washington.

GEORGE F. HENSHALLMANAGER

MONDAY.....FEBRUARY 15, 1909.

A LOOK AHEAD.

Engineer Goethals, the wizard of the Panama Canal, predicts that the great work will be completed six years hence. The interval is none too long for Hawaii to get up some signal celebration of its own of the great event. There ought to be steamships in number and speed enough by then—nay, perhaps flying machines—with hotel accommodation in Honolulu to correspond, to enable the metropolis of Oceania to take good care of a Universal Pacific Exposition in the summer of 1915. Congress should not begrudge from one to five millions for such an event at the Malta and Gibraltar of the Pacific.

King Edward has earned another feather—the finest ostrich—for his plume by his diplomatically executed visit with Queen Alexandra to Berlin. Not only has he restored good feeling in Germany toward his realm, but his psychologically-timed trip seems to have stopped the agitation—whether of fools or rascals—against Germany in the English press.

There is nothing more important to Honolulu than the water supply. Public interest in it should be shown by a large attendance at Superintendent Campbell's illustrated lecture on the subject before the Civic Federation tomorrow evening. The Floral Parade and the representation of Hawaii at the Alaska-Yukon Exposition, also to be discussed at the meeting, are also important matters.

WE ARE FORGOTTEN ONCE MORE

The charming Ella Wheeler Wilcox has forgotten us again. It begins to seem that she changeth her land and climate loves as often as the genial Tom Fitch changeth his final home. When she was in our midst the charming Ella thought the Paradise of the Pacific was indeed the paradise of the world, and on leaving she wrote with true Wheeler Wilcox eloquence of the charms of Honolulu. Shortly after her return to the Mainland it was painful to read that she began to be impressed with the notion that after all Southern California was not to be matched. Now it is Jamaica, witness the following from her prolific pen:

"It is the most beautiful spot on earth," I said with lip and pen; just as the youth says his first lady love is the most beautiful woman on earth, when he has never strayed away from his rural town.

But now I have returned after many and wide wanderings, and after having seen and loved other summer lands, Southern California, Sicily, Southern Italy and France (the Riviera), Egypt, Morocco, Honolulu—have all revealed their charms to my admiring eyes. I have enjoyed and loved them all in such ways as they proved lovable; but, once again in Jamaica, I repeat my assertion of old:

"Jamaica is the most beautiful spot on earth, and the harbor of Port Antonio offers the most exquisite picture to the eye of any harbor in the world."

Honolulu, as a city, offers more that is unique, diversified and interesting in its society than does Jamaica; Egypt offers more of profound historic interest; Morocco gives the unusual and the romantic; the Riviera gives fashion and invalids, and Southern California gives altogether the most satisfying conditions for a continuous and permanent winter residence (for an American citizen) of all the places I have yet seen.

But for pure, undiluted beauty of scenery and climate, for rest and peace and picturesque charm, Jamaica leads the world.

Any American citizen who is seeking the best winter climate, the most pleasure of a restful kind, and the greatest beauty for the eye, at the least expense of time and money, will find it all in Jamaica.

He will find sapphire seas, changing to emerald, turquoise and topaz, where a sea bath in midwinter is warmer than any the Atlantic or Pacific can supply in midsummer.

And he will look from his window every morning on graceful palms, and blooming bushes, and green, green lawns, and listen to the sweet call of the ting-a-ling bird and the nightingale, and wonder if it is true that only four days distant a blizzard is raging.

THE NATIONAL GUARD.

An argument being made against the proposed appropriations for the national guard is that, in view of the large number of federal soldiers to be stationed here it is not necessary, for defensive purposes, that this Territory should keep a large militia force. An obvious answer to this is that the presence of so many federal soldiers here only makes more strong Hawaii's obligation to do her share. The entire United States regular army is but a handful of men as compared to that of other great nations. Hawaii has but a very small fraction of one per cent of the population of the country, but is to have over ten per cent of the army. The whole army is kept down to a small figure as a long-continued national policy, and it is a part of the means of making that policy safe that each state and territory shall maintain a militia, to be ready to be added to the regular army in case of need. Hawaii, receiving the great benefits that are coming to her from the large military establishments here, is under special obligation to do her full share in the voluntary military work. It is a local duty.

Aside from this there is usually great benefit to the members of the militia themselves from their training in service. The discipline and athletic training are both excellent in their effects. For this reason as well as for military reasons, and in order that Hawaii should do her proper share in national defense, the National Guard should receive financial help.

A sermon on infant damnation sounds like a voice from medieval theology.

A Notable Author To Visit Honolulu

Charles F. Dole, the well-known author of works on politics and social science, is expected to arrive in Honolulu on Monday next. He will be the guest of his nephew, James D. Dole, also part of the time of his cousin, Judge Sanford B. Dole, while making a visit of a couple of months.

A short time ago The Star editorially reviewed one of Mr. Dole's latest works, "The Spirit of Democracy." He is president of the Twentieth Century Club of Boston, and on the eve of his departure for Honolulu was presented with the following address in verse on behalf of that organization:

To President Charles F. Dole of the Twentieth Century Club on his departure for Hawaii, with the sincere wishes of the Club for a happy voyage and a good time for himself and Mrs. Dole.

Boston, Saturday, January 2, 1909.
 From this temple of noises and notions,
 From this climate of stress and of snows,

He goes to the tropical oceans
 And orient isles of repose.
 He flees from the loud Sons of Thunder,

Whose words are like javelins hurled,
 And escapes way around, and down under,
 To the far other side of the world.

Chorus.
 And we will let him go awhile,
 To save him from the woe awhile,
 To save him from the woe awhile.

Of all our vocal breath:
 And we will let him stay awhile,
 We'll let him stay away awhile,
 We'll let him stay away awhile,
 And not be talked to death.

May he scape home the perilous pirate,
 And the breakers that bluster and roar,
 And the whirlpools that gurgle and gyrate,

And the sharks of the sea and the shore.
 May he quail at no sea-serpent's hisses.

JUDGE DOLE'S CHARGE.
 In a sense the Grand Jury may be court. It has an educative influence

Nor dragons that welter in gore;
 Nor sirens that pestered Ulysses,
 And creatures that travelled with Noah.

Chorus.
 For we want him to come back again,
 And take another whack again,
 To take another whack again.

At keeping of us straight:
 For we shall want him here again,
 We hope he'll re-appear again;
 For years—and many a year again—
 He won't be out of date.

He goes from this temple of Noises,
 From the roar of the Titans of Tongues,
 From the midst of the mingling of voices,

And the reverberation of lungs,
 So the spouting of whales will not scare him,
 Nor the roaring of mountainous seas,

Nor the hurricane's thunders impair him—
 He is used to such noises as these.

Chorus.
 So let the dragons roar some more,
 And let the tempests pour some more,
 Aye, let the tempests pour some more,
 On lacerated seas:

For he was nurtured in the Hub—
 He's heard the Twentieth Century Club—
 And he can stand the rub-a-dub
 Of little things like these.

He goes with an outfit of topics
 As no man has gathered before,
 To sow those luxuriant tropics,
 With crops of Bostonian lore.
 To sow on their lowlands and high-lands

The topics he's heard us discuss;
 To endow those inquisitive islands
 With wisdom he's gathered from us.

Chorus.
 But we shall want him back again,
 To take another whack again,
 To take another whack again,

At keeping of us straight;
 Yes, we shall want him here again,
 We hope he'll re-appear again—
 For years—and many a year again—
 He won't go out of date.

—Sam Walter Foss.

said to be the conscience of the public. Sitting apart from the rest of the community, with its high powers and important duties, it enjoys a status which promotes a sensitiveness in relation to those acts which are inconsistent with individual or public rights and so tend to subvert the laws and there by prejudice the interests of society. In its representative capacity it carries large responsibilities in relation to the welfare of the body politic, which sense of responsibility can hardly fail to promote watchfulness toward criminal developments as hostile to such welfare, and that sentiment of fair play which would protect persons charged with the commission of offenses against the laws, from publicity and the odium of public trials, except upon probable cause supported by competent evidence sufficient, unless contradicted or otherwise explained, to warrant a conviction.

This representative quality of the Grand Jury is a most important element in the value of its work, whereby the public is kept in touch with the proceedings of the criminal side of the law.

It has an educative influence upon the body of citizens from which the jurors are drawn, gradually acquainting it with the principles and objects of the criminal laws and the methods by which they are enforced, thereby inculcating a respect for good laws and developing a critical intelligence as to defective or unjust legislation, which must favorably affect public sentiment and eventually the law making authority. The effect of a serious recognition by the citizen of the supremacy of law, it need hardly be said, is of the utmost value in the promotion of civil order and the protection of national and private interests.

As the federal grand jury of this Territory you are the representatives of the community in the matter of investigating charges of offenses against the laws of the United States, and such information as may come before you either through the prosecuting officers of this court or the knowledge of your members or in any other way, tending to show the infraction of such laws. Your duty in these matters is a responsible one, not only that those persons in relation to whom there is sufficient prima facie evidence to support a charge of crime, may be indicted for the trial thereof, but also that such persons against whom the information which you may be able to reach is insufficient, may be discharged free of suspicion or loss of reputation; the latter case the rule of secrecy becomes an important element.

With amplification of the admonition to secrecy Judge Dole proceeds to give further advice of the regulation order, as to the presumption of innocence, the exclusive jurisdiction of offenses against the laws of the United States committed within the Territory of Hawaii or upon the high seas, etc. He then makes the following deliverance on the latest phase of moral outlawry developing here:

PROTECTION OF WOMEN.
 I am informed by the District Attorney that several indictments were found by the grand jury for the October 1908 term, charging certain persons with the importation of women for purposes of prostitution. I would call your attention to the importance of the law of which this is a violation. Where individuals or companies take up such an enterprise for the sake of profit, it is an attack not only upon the marriage status but also against the honorable status of women, as the practice of prostitution, whether individually or under the management of others, is hostile to that idea of chastity which is the basis of the family in civilized countries.

 "The lives and example of such persons are in hostility to the idea of the family as consisting in and springing from the union for life of one man and one woman in the holy estate of matrimony; the sure foundation of all that is stable and noble in our civilization; the best guaranty of that reverent morality which is the source of all beneficent progress in social and political improvement." Murphy v. Ramsey, 114 U. S. 15, 45. Congress no doubt proceeded on the ground that contact with society on the part of alien women leading such lives would be hurtful to the cause of sound private and public morality and to the general well-being of the people. Therefore the importation of alien women for purposes of prostitution is forbidden and made a crime against the United States." United States v. Bitly, 208 U. S. 393, 401.

The charge ends with standard instructions as to procedure and the appointment of a foreman to the grand jury.

B. W. Houghtalling, administrator of the estate of Geo. S. Houghtalling, petitions for approval of accounts and discharge. He files no inventory nor accounts and asks that he be not required to do so, for the reason that by deeds of June 28 and 30, 1902, he purchased from Eliza Houghtalling and Becky Houghtalling all of their rights in the estate, they being the mother and widow respectively of decedent and the only heirs of his estate. He however files vouchers of expenditures amounting to $744.64.

THE ROADS ARE GOOD.

There has been rain around town, enough to stop entertainments, but the road to Haleiwa has not been disturbed by it. The soil is hard packed, free from mud and dust in delightful contrast to what it was a few months ago. Manager Bldgood has had the hotel renovated so the guests are, if possible, more pleased with the surroundings than ever. The golf links attract a number of persons every Sunday and the meal's please the public always. The fact that it is possible to secure liquid, as well as solid, refreshments at Haleiwa is appreciated. Manager Bldgood is a genial host and looks to the comfort of the patrons.

An arrival yesterday morning was the rakish steamer Kitsagata Maru, Captain Mochi, from Yokohama. She was twenty-two days enroute, which is piling up time even for a windjammer. The steamer, however, is an old-timer and her engines are not in the best of shape. She brought 1,500 tons of sulphur and about 100 tons of rice for Honolulu, the former being for the Pacific fertilizer works. From Honolulu the Kitsagata will return to Japan.

The old bark Alden Besse, Captain Denny, arrived in port yesterday morning, twenty-four days from San Pedro, bringing A. W. E. Thompson, the representative of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and about 300 tons of samples and experimental goods to be offered to the trade here. The long trip was due to stormy and adverse weather. If the old bark does not get a full cargo here she will go to Hilo later on to complete it, sailing from there direct to Port Angeles.

The passengers on the Lurline are as follows: W. W. Bruner, Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mrs. M. Marchand, J. L. Barker, Miss A. Barker, Mrs. A. Balkan, E. H. Bailey, George Rhoades, J. D. Wilson, A. W. Ames, L. Herbert, Mrs. Schoon-

GOATS TO PARADE

BOYS WILL DRIVE DECORATED BUTTERS — PENNANTS FOR PRINCESS CAVALCADE.

A small boy entered the office of the Hawaii Promotion Committee. He called aloud for attention. His voice was heard, but he could not be seen until Secretary H. P. Wood thought of looking over the counter. The boy was too small to look over the counter.

"Is this where a fellow can get into the Floral Parade?" asked the kid. "It is," said Wood, "have you an automobile, carriage, horse, bicycle, float or other feature to decorate and enter?"

"I have a goat," said the kid. Press Bureau Manager Will Cooper here joined the group. "Who's on the goat committee?" he asked Wood. Wood pondered. Evidently the Promotion Committee had overlooked a good bet. Wood and Cooper conferred, with the result that George Eckhardt, for he was the lad, was referred to Manuel Peters, the man in charge of "fish-bicycles" for the great parade on Washington's Birthday.

"My goat can go to Kapiolani park, all right," assured the youth. Manuel Peter held a consultation with the goat-owner and the latter will enter his horned steed, attached to a small cart, nor will he have the only entry of the kind, for Peter Ferrage, another boy, will drive a goat. The goats will be flowered and their wagons also decorated.

In the bicycle contingent, M. F. Peter has already five assurances. He wants eight, and anyone who will ride a bicycle inside of a monster wood, canvas and paint fish may apply at once to Mr. Peter. The more the merrier.

Will McInerney announces the colors of the pennants to be borne by the various groups of mounted children attending the Island Princesses, as follows: Oahu, dark yellow pennant with green lettering; Hawaii, dark red pennant with gold letters; Molokai, light green pennant with white lettering; Kahoolawe, light yellow pennant with black letters; Nihaui, white pennant with red letters; Maui, light red with white letters; Kauai, dark green pennant with white letters.

ARREST SMALL FARMER GRAY

John Gray, thought to be one of the vanguard of the "small farmer" army, is at the police station and will be examined as to his sanity. Gray arrived here some three months ago and was arrested by the police for strange actions on the premises of a Chinaman one night. To Dr. Emerson, the insanity surgeon, he stated that he was a man of means and had been lured to Honolulu by stories in the morning paper of money to be made in small farming. He had read those papers in the east. At that time Gray was allowed to go. Since then he has made a practice of roaming into all sorts of places, chiefly in Chinatown, and insisting upon "settling down."

Dr. Emerson is questioning the fellow again this afternoon, with the prospect that he will be sent to the insane asylum. He has money and good paper evidence of more behind him.

Sam Manu, a musician, employed in the warehouse of Theo. H. Davies & Co., this afternoon reported to Detective Kalakela a weird yarn of ghosts, a runaway and strange hold-up occurring in Nuuanu valley at an early hour Sunday morning. Manu, with four other boys, had been playing at the Country Club during the night. In the small hours they started for town in hack No. 122, driven by a Chinaman. Three of the musicians were left at their homes. When opposite the Mausoleum the lights on the hack suddenly went out and the horse started to run. Manu and his companion jumped out but saw nothing. Following the runaway they found the wrecked hack and down near W. O. Smith's house came upon the horse. The Chinaman was found on the roadside, lying on his back, greatly frightened but uninjured. At this place they were approached by two white men, dressed in Prince Alberts and silk hats, who inquired what had been done with certain kahills. When told that they had no kahills the natives declare that the white men suddenly vanished.

Kalakela took down the statement of Manu and, later, that of the Chinaman. While they speak positively of the occurrences, the Chief of Detectives is inclined to suspect the strength of the lemonade served at the Country Club late at night.

Weakened Vitality Impoverished Blood

Read what Ayer's Sarsaparilla did for a well-known city missionary, who writes:

"I was for many years a sufferer from boils and other eruptions of a like nature, caused by the impoverished state of my blood. My appetite was poor and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of by observation of the good it had done to others, I began taking it. My appetite improved almost from the first dose; then my general health improved, and now it is excellent. I feel a hundred per cent. stronger, and I attribute this result to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

As now made, Ayer's Sarsaparilla contains no alcohol.

There are many imitations Sarsaparillas.

Be sure you get "Ayer's."

SPORTS

FOUL STOPPED STERLING GO

The boxing match at the Orpheum on Saturday night between Sullivan and Peterson wound up in a very unsatisfactory manner. Sullivan being awarded the verdict in the fifth round.

Peterson went after his man roughly from the start, evidently intent on making a quick finish of it. Sullivan took matters easily and by the end of the fourth round had Peterson nicely felled out. In the fifth Sullivan boxed confidently and was pulling things rapidly in his direction when Peterson fouled him a couple of times by hitting low.

Referee Paton on the second offense having been committed stopped the go and held up Sullivan's hand in token of victory.

Amid an uproar in the theatre Announcer Warham stated that Sullivan had not been badly hurt and was willing to continue the contest.

Presently Peterson, who had left the ring, returned and took his seat in his corner, being vigorously hooted and booed as he crawled through the ropes. He would only put one glove on, however stating that as the decision had been given to Sullivan and the referee had announced that the bets would go with the decision, he had nothing to gain by keeping on fighting and therefore declined to do so.

There is no doubt that Peterson fouled Sullivan and to a great many it looked as if he did so deliberately. Sullivan carried too many guns for him and he began to realize this when the fifth round was well under way. It would be unkind to say that Peterson fouled Sullivan in order to take a short cut to the loser's end and by so doing escape punishment, but it certainly looked like it.

Mike Paton's decision, allowing the bets to go with the verdict, was questioned by a good many. The referee was strictly in the right, however, for bets go with the purse in any kind of a sporting contest in any white man's country.

Sullivan allowed Peterson to do all the work in the first round. Hardly an effective blow was struck by either man in the opening period.

In the second Sullivan landed a couple of lefts to the head and Peterson did some hard kidney pummeling in clinches at the ropes.

The third round was principally clinching and honors worked out about even.

Peterson had a shade in the fourth. He landed hard with both hands, however, but Sullivan was fighting under wraps and now and again jabbed in his worrisome left with telling effect. Peterson's face was pretty well crimsoned at the end of this round.

In the fifth Sullivan let out a link and began to show his superiority. Peterson got very hostile when stung and swung low with his right. There were cries of "foul" from the ringside but the referee did not interfere. Almost instantly Peterson repeated the offense and then Mike Paton held up Sullivan's hand and the show was over.

The men fought under straight Queensbury rules and this marred what would likely have been a memorable contest under clean break regulations.

Hans Nelson knocked out Hercules II in the first round and Soldier McCullough took a very close decision from Young Scott at the end of eight rounds of interesting scrapping.

The house was a very good one and the arrangements in Promoter Cohen's best style.

FIELD DAY HANGS FIRE

The date and place of the Y. M. C. A. field day is still in the air. If the use of Alexander field can be obtained the meet will be pulled off as per schedule on February 27.

Should the Boys' Clubs decide to put the track at the Boys' Field in shape at an estimated cost of $1,200, the Y. M. C. A. meet will be postponed until the improvements have been effected and the meeting held there.

Should the Boys' Field be allowed to go by the board, however and it be found impossible to get the use of Alexander field, the Y. M. C. A. field day will be indefinitely postponed.

TWO COURSES FOUND WRONG

Dr. Hand of the Y. M. C. A. has recently been looking over the Boys' Field with the idea of estimating just what it will cost to have the track put in proper shape and the infield arranged for baseball and football.

On measurement the 100 yards stretch was found to have a down grade of 11 inches and the 50 yards course to have a drop of seven inches.

This probably explains some of the phenomenal fast time which have been made over these two courses.

BOYS' FIELD MAY BE PAU

There will be a meeting of the Boys' Clubs this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. to decide on the fate of the Boys' Field. Either the track and field will be put in first-class shape or the fence will be pulled down and the play-ground become a thing of the past.

The Boys' Clubs are willing to put the field in good shape if it is going to be used but they don't feel like digging up $900 a year to rife the place just to have the weeds grow on it.

RIFLE SHOOT BE CHANGED

Word has been received here of sweeping changes to be made by the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, and the whole rifle world will be interested in the outcome of the new move. Heretofore, six prizes have been put up, and these went to the six teams leading in the shoot. Thus, in the competitions at Seagirt and at Camp Perry, Hawaii, for instance, was on an even basis of competition with the crack teams of the army and navy; and while the local team did well, it did not and could not hope to come off with any desirable trophy. In place of the one straight contest, however, the Board, with the approval of the Secretary of War, has decided to make three great contests in one.

In this arrangement the teams from the various States and Territories will be divided into three divisions, based upon their records made at Camp Perry last year. In the first division will be the regular infantry, the cavalry, the marine corps, the navy, the naval academy and the States of Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, District of Columbia, Washington, Illinois, Oregon, Iowa, Maine and Ohio.

In the second class the one in which Hawaii will be expected to win trophies and glory, will be: Oklahoma, New Hampshire, Colorado, California, New York, Maryland, New Jersey, Minnesota, Kansas, Missouri, Hawaii, Indiana, Michigan, West Virginia and Kentucky. The third division will include Camp Perry's "also rans" as follows: Wyoming, Connecticut, Georgia, Rhode Island, Arizona, Alabama, South Carolina, Nebraska, Tennessee, Delaware, North Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, Arkansas, New Mexico, Utah, Mississippi, Louisiana, North Carolina and the remaining states and territories which were not represented last year.

For the first division the prize will be the national trophy, for the second division the Hilton trophy and for the third the Soldier of Marathon, two or three money prizes being put up for each of the three divisions. All teams will be eligible for the national trophy, but only those of the second and third may win the Hilton trophy and the third division alone will compete for the Soldier of Marathon.

Under the new plan no team will be certain of a prize until the last shot is fired, while the increased number of money prizes, it is thought, will act a great stimulus to higher scoring.

While Adjutant-General Jones and some of the crack marksmen of the National Guard of Hawaii, dislike the idea of Hawaii appearing in the second place on the list it is felt that the arrangement, in opening the way for the winning of trophies all down the line, is a fairer one than the old; and that it is bound to result in greater effort on the part of teams that have shown up poorly in the past. Thus, while Hawaii will be able to compete for two of the big trophies, the crack teams of last year will be barred from those offered in the second division, giving the local men a chance with teams in about their own class.

SAYS JAPAN RULES PACIFIC

CONGRESSMAN DECLARES PHILIPPINES COULD BE SEIZED ON SHORT NOTICE.

NEW YORK, February 1.—A five days' convention to discuss the subject of a larger and more efficient American merchant marine began tonight in the Metropolitan Temple, with Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill as presiding officer.

The principal speaker was Congressman William E. Humphreys of Washington. Humphreys called attention to the liberal policy pursued by Japan in subsidizing her merchant marine, and pointed out as a natural consequence the practical control of the commerce of the Pacific by that Nation.

"I do not believe," he said, "that we are going to have war with Japan, but any one who thinks Japan has not the courage to make war or the financial capacity to carry it out has not read properly the history of this great nation."

The speaker declared it would be a simple matter in the event of war for Japan to land 200,000 troops in the Philippines and 100,000 in Hawaii before the United States could begin to start out her transports. Where Japan has 550 vessels of her merchant marine on the Pacific, the United States has only twelve. In addition, he said, there are 500,000 Japanese in the fisheries and merchant marine, where the United States has hardly 1000 native-born American sailors.

AFTER SUFFERING TEN YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

MARLTON, N.J.—I feel that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given me new life. I suffered for ten years with serious female troubles, inflammation, ulceration, indigestion, nervousness, and could not sleep. Doctors gave me up, as they said my troubles were chronic. I was in despair, and did not care whether I lived or died, when I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so I began to take it, and am well again and relieved of all my suffering. —Mrs. George Jordy, Box 40, Marlton, N.J. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaint, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

The Lurline reported that she was 250 miles from Honolulu and would arrive here early tomorrow morning. She has the Mohican safely in tow. Besides her general cargo the Lurline wires that she has fifty head of mules aboard, twenty-five being for G. A. Schuman and twenty-five for the Kahului railroad. All well and the weather fine.
At the same hour came a message from the Hilonian, as follows: "Nine hundred and eighty miles from Honolulu. Weather fine. CAPT. DUDOIT REMEMBERS HER "Advice from Japan state the founder of Japanese foreign ship building, K. Oki, proprietor of the Oki shipyard at Shinagawa, is dead. He built the first foreign style vessel in Japan in 1859."

Captain Charles Dudoit, referring to the foregoing news item, says: "I was aboard of that first Japanese-built vessel the year mentioned, a half a century ago, at the port of Hakodate."

"At the time I was on the American whaling ship Splendid. There were only four white men at Hakodate then, so far as I saw. One was Mr. Rice, the American consul, a German by the name of Fred, an Irish doctor named Dr. Owens who practiced in Honolulu before that time and Dr. Bates, who was related to the Judd family here."

"I went all over the Japanese vessel. The berths were in the middle instead of on the side of the vessel as nowadays. Otherwise she was a very good imitation of foreign vessels."
