Hawaii

From the S. F. Call.

Fair land of flowers, land of flame,
Of sunborn seas, of sea born clime,
Of clouds low shepherd and tame,
As white pet sheep at shearing time,
Of great, white, generous, high-born rain,
Of rainbows builded not in vain—
Of rainbows builded for the feet
Of love to pass dry-shod and fleet
From isle to isle, when smell of musk
'Mid twilight is, and one lone star,
Sits in the brow of dusk.

Oh, dying, sad-voiced, sea-born maid,
And plundered, dying, still sing on.
Thy breast against the thorn is laid—

Sing on, sing on, sweet dying swan.
How pitiful! And so despoiled
By those you fed, for whom you toiled!

Aloha! Hail you, and farewell,
Far echo of some lost seashell!
Some song that lost its way at sea,
Some sea-lost notes of nature, lost,
And crying, came to me.

Dusk maid, adieu! One seashell less—

Sad seashell silenced and forgot.
O Rachel in the wilderness, Wail on! Your children they are not.

And they who took them, they who laid Hard hand, shall they not feel afraid?

Shall they who in the name of God
Robbed and enslaved escape his rod?
Give me some after world afar
From these hard men, for well I know

Hell must be where they are.
JOAQUIN MILLER.
The Heights, Sept., 1895.

American Journalistic Amenities

Writes the Cincinnati Southwest here is something more from the Memphis Commercial Appeal—thoroughly characteristic of its editor's style. It is about the Kentucky campaign.

"The Hon. W. O. Bradley went into the campaign with the bloodcurdlingest warwhoop that ever rose from Kentucky soil since the days of Dan Boone. He went out of it with the yelp of a cur fice preceding a clattering oyster can down the stony street. For Wm. O. is not in it any more. He has tucked his tail and fled the field. He is no longer the terrible Bradley, who was advertised to eat live Democrats like oysters. He is no longer a warring, rampaging Numidian lion, splitting the earth with his thunderous roar and swinging his tufted tail ten feet in the air. He is simply Bill Bradley who flunked and threw up the sponge as soon as he had got a hot one in the ribs—still dear to Kentucky goldbugs and Kentucky coons, but no longer a holy terror nor a wolf from Bitter Creek. Bill simply didn't come up to specifications. He had the gall, but he didn't have the grit. His jawful prowess in debate, the awful reach of his deadly tongue, the cyclonic ventosity of his omnipotent lung, all these things were down on the bills, but they didn't appear in the show. That which was a Royal Bengal Tiger has shrunk to the dimensions of a harmless and very unnecessary cat. The plumed knight we had been reading about is simply a vainglorious pretender, whose white plume is the white feather. Brad. is a humbug, a stuffed catamount, a sheep in wolf's clothing. Henceforth his name is Ichabod and Dennis and Mr. Mudd.
He is the dominicker of the cockpit who squawks at the first touch of the gaff. He is the rankest quitter that ever went to the post with a thoroughbred and threw up his tail at the quarter pole.

This is the last of Brad. He has done the one thing that Kentuckians will not forgive. He has flickered. He has turned tail. He has absquatulated in the face of the enemy. He has chewed off his trigger finger to keep out of the flight.
Henceforth Brad. is the thing that was. He is as dead as a pickled oyster. He is a soup soaked reminiscence, a lagging and superfluous Has-been, hanging on to the ragged edge of Now. He is the bubble that rose to the surface when Bill Bradley, the Terrible, went down. He is a burst bladder, a last year's bird's nest, a back number.

So endeth the strange, eventful history of the Mud Moses of the Kentucky coon."

The Scare is Over

Residing in Honolulu

SATURDAY, NOV. 16, 1895.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

What kind of a kamaaina has been telling the Star about a Kona that lasted three months? Information of that kind when published is liable to injure our tourist travel, and besides is not true.

It is said if there is much more of the A. P. A. spirit exhibited a counter move will be made to form a Hawaiian Protective Association. We have enough trouble on hand now in endeavoring to allay the results of political bitterness without adding religious controversy as a factor.

Efforts are said to be made to have a coalition mail service between Vancouver, San Francisco, and the Australian Colonies via Hawaii. Probably the combination could afford to give speedier boats, lower rates of freight, and even better accommodations than either can give singly at present.

Heretofore Thomas Square has been treated as an experimental Botanic Garden. Possibly it might be well to call a halt before turning its small acreage into a tennis ground for the benefit of the well to do, and an ornamental suburban lawn laid out, even in designs of North and South America. As for the coleus, that has grown (and does grow) freely in this country for over twenty years, if not longer.

Since the 26 Chinese laborers have been arrested and taken to the Station House and then separated from "three malcontents" who are said to have influenced their previous refusal to sign contracts to go on plantations as laborers, about twenty of them are said to have signified their willingness to go as plantation coolies. How does this comport with the previous assertions as to using no pressure to compel them to become laborers?

The official organs have made statements in regard to certain speculations alleged to have taken place in a certain government department. We think that in justice to all government officials who handle the public moneys that a distinct statement should be made in what department or departments the said speculations happened, and who are the guilty parties. Everybody wonders to whom reference has been made, and the "guessing" is often uncomplimentary and unjust to the honest employees of the Government. The public has a right to know public affairs.

The Advertiser has given away the secret of the cable franchise and the proposed electric franchise. Its own words are too precious to be altered or lost. It says "an 'intelligent' community is wise on very narrow lines." That is what we have always asserted our present government (which Stevens claimed as "intelligent") to be. It further says "a small body of determined men, well organized, can fleece the State out of valuable franchises just as two or three determined men hold up a railway train, rob the expressman's safe and make a hundred passengers hold up their hands." What will the Advertiser confess next?

With the exception of the Advertiser clique no voice has been raised against the liberation of the political prisoners yet in Oahu prison. We hope the clique will not run the Council of State this time, and that the men in jail will be able to join their families and friends in observing what then will be a true Thanksgiving Day. The American League, which has at all times proven its fair, manly and liberal spirit, we trust will, as before, put its shoulder to the wheel and cast its influence in favor of the unfortunates who certainly have been sufficiently punished. The return to town yesterday from Hilo of the two political prisoners left in that district was held as a significant sign of the intentions of the Executive. May a true spirit of mercy prevail.

He is Tired.

Judge Magoon wants to get off his exalted seat on the bench and get back to his office. When he was appointed to the judgeship, we predicted that he would only draw a quarter's salary and then make room for A. W. Carter who couldn't take the office at the time owing to his duties as acting Attorney-General. Some hitch has evidently occurred and Magoon has got enough of judiciary honors.

We must say that the shuffling of the high official cards in the manner lately done is disgraceful and fraught with danger. Our diplomats are being shuffled in a promiscuous manner and now our judges are to be treated likewise. Why was Castle sent to Washington if it was understood that Hatch was to replace him in a few weeks? Why was Cooper shoved into the Foreign Office and Magoon on to the bench when it was understood that other men were to take their places in a few weeks or even hours. This changing of officials in the most responsible positions certainly does not tend to create confidence in the different branches of the government. It seems to us to be regular boy's play and it should cease at once.

An Elegant Dinner.

The Japanese Union gave an elegant dinner at Sans Souci last evening to the Japanese Diplomatic Agent, Consul-General Shimamura. About fifty prominent Japanese were present, besides the guest of the evening, the retiring Consul, Mr. Shimizu and members of the Legation.

Sans Souci was most beautifully decorated, the grounds being gaily lighted with Japanese lanterns, and the dining room artistically arranged to resemble a room in a Japanese home.

Mr. Ozaki, the president of the Union, made the address of welcome to the guest of the evening. The Diplomatic Agent responded in most felicitous terms, congratulating his countrymen in Hawaii on their progress and the energy displayed by them. He complimented his predecessor in office on the work done so far, and stated that he would continue on the same lines.

The dinner was a great success, and numerous toasts were drunk. About 9 o'clock the party returned to town.

The Road Race.

The H. A. A. C. bicycle race promises to be very interesting as the boys will do their best to beat former records.

The race begins at 4:30 p. m. at Waikiki beyond the house of T. S. Douglas and will finish at Union Square. The following are the officers of the day: Ed. Mossman and A. G. M. Robertson, judges; P. F. Pfeiffer and F. Kruger, timekeepers; Tom Wright and Louis Singer, starters; and Dave Crozier, clerk of the course.

The handicaps place the riders as follows: Geo. Angus, scratch; H. Giles, 13 seconds; D. G. Sylvester, 18; T. V. King, 30; E. H. Paris, 34; E. H. Turner, 42; P. Lishman, 49; H. Wilder, 53; A. Giles, 53; H. Espinda, 1 minute.

Wants a Banner.

Something signing itself "A Catholic Hawaiian" objects in the Advertiser to the use of the Hawaiian flag in decorating the Roman Catholic Cathedral, for the reception of the Bishop of Panopolis, and the priests, and sisters, who arrived by the Australia. The alleged "Catholic Hawaiian" claims that, the use of his (sic ?) flag has a political and not a religious significance. The church is decorated with flowers, plants, and French and Belgian flags, and over the entrance of the arch is draped the Hawaiian flag. To use the colors of France and Belgium, and ignoring the colors of Hawaii, would have shown a lack of tact which only the alleged "Catholic Hawaiian" could be guilty of. He wants a banner of some kind. We do not believe that, we are far from the truth when we say that the "banner" which best would suit the Advertiser scribbler would be one marked in glaring letters A. P. A.

Timely Topics.

Honolulu, Oct. 25, 1895.

It has been demonstrated in a most serious manner during the late epidemic of what vital importance pure water is to all human beings. While our medical men have differed in opinion in regard to the nature and treatment of the epidemic which now fortunately is ended, there has only been one opinion in regard to the imperative necessity of having an ample supply of pure water for all purposes. In Honolulu the water supply is now plentiful both for drinking purposes, and for irrigation. The same cannot be said for the country districts. In many places it is necessary for the inhabitants to carefully save rain-water in tanks especially where artesian wells are impossible.

It has been a great help to people living in the country that we have introduced the celebrated Aermotor in these islands. Many people have availed themselves of the golden opportunity to purchase one of our galvanized Aermotors, and they have in all instances expressed themselves as highly satisfied with the bargain.

The Aermotor is especially appreciated because it runs in the lightest wind. Being geared back three to one, it starts with only a third of the load that the ordinary mill has to contend with. This enables it to start and run in a zephyr so light that all competitors stand idly by. Again, its lightweight and perfect bearing enable it to face up to and get the full benefit of the breeze. The wheel is so light and its efficiency so great that it is an absolute calm indeed which induces it to stand still.

The lightweight of the Aermotor is a strong point in its favor. The weight affects the cost of transportation; the ease of handling and erection; the facility of turning on the tower to face the wind for work; the regulation for safety in a high wind; the recovery of working position when danger is past; the sagging of the tower out of shape; the vibration and breaking of the tower in a storm and consequently the weight, strength and cost of a tower and foundations. The Aermotor only weighs about two-fifths as much as the other mills which do the same work. The great disparity in weight is in part made possible by the use of steel, malleable iron, and the very best materials throughout, and explains why so excellent a piece of work can be turned out at so low a price.

We invite farmers and others who have use for an Aermotor to call in at our stores, or write to us and we shall be pleased to give every further information necessary in regard to this invaluable farm implement.

A great many people were at the wharf to greet the Bishop of Pano-polis, who drove in state to the church, where he received a cordial and ceremonious welcome from the clergy and congregation amid the cheerful ringing of bells.

On Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, a synodman is to be elected by the Second Congregation of St. Andrews' Cathedral. The vacancy has been caused by the death of Captain Mist. All male communicants over eighteen are eligible as voters.

The meeting of the American League last night was not well attended, owing to it being drill evening of several companies. It was decided to hold the meetings on Thursday evenings in the future. The delinquents are paying their back dues quite lively.

By order of the court the passport of Wong Kwai, formerly of the firm of Chulan & Co. and guardian of Tong Sang and others, was stopped yesterday. Wong Kwai is requested to give a general accounting of the funds of his wards in his possession, which are valued at $30,000.

Durrant Guilty.

The trial of Theodore Durrant, which for so many weary weeks has been the main topic of interest in San Francisco terminated at last for the time being, on the first of November. Durrant, who was charged with the murder of a young girl Blanche Lamont, in the Emmanuel Baptist Church in San Francisco in the month of August, was found guilty as charged. On motion of his attorneys sentence was suspended till the 22d of November to allow the attorneys to prepare a motion for a new trial. There is another charge against Durrant for the murder of another young girl named Minnie Williams in the same church. The first chapter in the most sensational criminal event in the history of San Francisco is ended.

The Australia.

The Australia, Captain Houdlett, arrived this morning at 11 o'clock, seven days out from San Francisco. She brings a large cargo of freight and many passengers, among whom we notice the Bishop of Pano-polis, with several priests, lay brothers, and sisters of charity; J. A. Hopper, wife, and daughter; Godfrey Rhodes, wife, and daughter; Mrs. E. S. Cunha and children, W. H. Hoogs, Dr. J. Wight and wife, J. W. Colville and wife, S. B. Rose, Julien D. Hayne and wife, Henry Waterhouse and many others.

A Life Lesson.

There! little girl! don't cry!
They have broken your doll, I know;
And your tea set blue
And your playhouse, too,
Are things of long ago;
But childish troubles will soon pass by:
There! little girl! don't cry!
There! little girl! don't cry!
They have broken your slate, I know;
And the glad, wild ways
Of your schoolgirl days
Are things of long ago;
But life and love will soon come by:
There! little girl! don't cry!

There! little girl! don't cry!
They have broken your heart, I know;
And the rainbow gleams
Of your youthful dreams
Are things of long ago;
But heaven holds all for which you sigh:
There! little girl! don't cry!
—James Whitcomb Riley in Kansas City Journal.

EIGHT INTO FORTY-EIGHT

The Employer Did Not Quite Understand the Arithmetic of the Clerk

A clerk in an Austin store informed his employer that his sister was going to get married, and he wanted a furlough of forty-eight hours to attend the wedding, which was to take place out in the country somewhere. The merchant could not well spare the services of the young man for that length of time, but he finally consented to let him go on condition that he would return promptly at the expiration of two days.

"As soon as my forty-eight hours are up I'll be back," said the young man, hurrying off to catch the train, and that was the last his employer saw of him for six solid days. Then he walked in, gripsack in hand and a beaming smile on his face, remarking:

"I'm back on time."

"Back on time!" roared the exasperated employer. "Do you call six days forty-eight hours?"

"Of course I do. What else do you call it?"

"Have you lost the use of your mental faculties, or are you trying, sir, to take unwarranted liberties with me?"

"Why, I am surprised. I told you I wanted forty-eight hours' recreation, didn't I?"

"Certainly. And I gave it to you."

"Just so. And I work in the store eight hours a day, don't I?"

"Of course."

"Well, eight into forty-eight goes six times, and I have been gone eight hours a day for six days, so you see I'm on time. If there is one thing I know better than another it is how to be on hand at the appointed hour." — Texas Sifting.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

I have a small grievance—belonging to a volunteer company I attend drill regularly. Usually beer is in order after proceedings—about $5 being spent. Now, I charitably represent that it would be more in order if the sum was expended on meal tickets for unemployed members; at least 40 tickets of the face value of 15c. could be purchased in lieu of the money spent on sour beer, which recently has hardly been fit to make bad vinegar. Moreover, the unemployed are apparently necessary to swell the ranks and save them the payments of taxes, failure to do which might land them in Hotel de Low instead of wearing uniform. UNEMPLOYED MEMBER.

The California Feed Company have received a large invoice of goods by the S. G. Wilder. They quote the lowest prices, and the finest qualities in all the lines, and give full weight. Amongst the lot are to be found, hay, oats, rolled barley, bran, corn, cracked corn, oil-cake, etc. Everything is of the freshest, and if you want to get the best and cheapest the California Feed Co. will hear from you.
