WARFARE ON THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The Young Temperance People Organize.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Christian Temperance young people all over the United States are preparing for the formation of an organization to be known as the One Million Club, which will wage relentless warfare against the liquor traffic, using as a weapon the ballot box. Chicago will be the headquarters of the new organization, and from this city it has already received a strong impetus.

The One Million Club will differ from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in that its energies will be entirely directed toward the election of officials and tickets pledged to work for the suppression of the saloon. While not exactly on the plan of the Prohibition party, the One Million Club has for its object the same aims as the Prohibitionists.

It is not the intention of the young people to put a ticket in the political field, but to indorse tickets which contain a plank in the platform pledging a war against liquor. The members will all be pledged to vote for the ticket selected regardless of political belief.

Miss Eva M. Shontz, president of the Chicago Young People's Christian Temperance Union, is interested in the formation of the new club. She said to-day: "Before the national conventions of 1900 we hope to have 1,000,000 voters pledged to use suffrage against the liquor traffic, and from that it takes its name. An effort will be made to induce one or two great political parties to include in the platform a temperance plank. In the event of success in this direction one of these parties will be indorsed."

"Otherwise the regular Prohibition party will receive the votes of the members of the organization. If we can succeed in getting 1,000,000 voters pledged to help us in this fight we feel our strength could be so great that both Republicans and Democrats would be anxious for our indorsement."

Steps are being taken toward calling delegates to a meeting at which all States will be represented in this city in January in order to perfect the organization already begun through the medium of correspondence.

The Trade of Hawaii.

Owing to the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States, special interest attaches just now to the report on the trade of the archipelago by Mr. Kenny, our Acting Consul-General at Honolulu, which has just been published by the Foreign Office. The total value of the import and export trade last year was $5,127,370, of which $1,822,879 was the value of the imports, and $3,304,491 that of the exports. The export of sugar last year amounted to 232,334 tons, all of which went to the United States. The share of the United States in the import trade was very nearly 77 percent, while that of Great Britain and her possessions was nearly 12 percent, the remainder being distributed equally between Germany, China, Japan, and all other countries. In the exports the share of the United States is still larger, and amounts to 99.62 percent, or practically the whole trade. Sugar forms 96 percent of the total export trade of Hawaii. In imports, British manufacturers are heavily handicapped by distance, heavy freights, and a tariff varying from 10 to 25 percent. Most American goods are imported free under the reciprocity treaty. One attractive feature of American trade is the cheapness of the packing cases, which are frequently not charged for, while the charge for cases of English goods is extremely high; further, one of the chief reasons for the transfer to the United States of the trade in glassware, tools, implements, woodware, etc., is said to be the English manufacturers are slow to adopt the light styles and new shapes that are in demand in the Hawaiian market. Coal for steamer use is imported chiefly from British Columbia, Australia, and New Zealand. British cottons have declined in importance, and appear likely to decrease still more, and, for various reasons, amongst which are cheapness and better quality, American cottons are taking their place. But in the better class of printed goods, the British manufacturer more than holds his own still, the American competing in this class of goods with the French rather than the British producer. The sugar industry is prosperous, and all the plantations paying large dividends, mainly owing to the reciprocity treaty with the United States, but also to the enterprise and intelligence of the planters in adopting new and improved methods of production and treatment.—London Times.

ANOTHER PROTEST.

We understand that the plug-hat brigade is to the front again, this time to gather in shekels to arrange for a solemn protest to France against the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands. No notice would be taken of the antics of these poor people who cling to the independence of their country, even after that independence has disappeared forever, if it was not that their "schemes" are always followed by a request to "dig," which too often only is responded to by other ignorant Hawaiians, who have as much faith in the plug-hat brigade as the Indian has in his medicine man or even brilliant men like Harold Fredericks in healing by Christian science. Poor France has something else to attend to than bothering about the new territory of the United States. The proposition to protest to France would be ridiculously absurd, if it didn't show such a lack of intelligence and common sense on the part of the "protestants." Judge H. A. Widemann, on behalf of Queen Liliuokalani, visited Europe when there still was a possibility for interference in Hawaiian affairs. While yet in London he learned officially that France had abandoned the cause of Hawaii's Queen and that treaty or no treaty the great Republic of Europe washed hands of Hawaii's future. Do our friends of the Hui Kalaiana and other political hui believe for a moment that France has changed her policy and that she now would take up the cudgels in behalf of a people and a country, in which she hasn't the slightest political or financial interest. The protest or petition, or whatever it is to be called, will of course do no good and will be consigned to the diplomatic waste basket. But the idiotic step means money out of somebody's pocket and injures the Hawaiians in the eyes of the men who now framing a government for us.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Greater Hilo has enjoyed a very fine exhibition of products and curios from the big island, to which reference has been made in our paper. The exhibits were finally sold at auction for the benefit of those concerned, and the next morning the Garonne arrived with a large number of tourists, who would have been good customers for the exhibitors. And Hilo now grinds her fangs and accuses Honolulu of being guilty of this last misfortune.

The new theatre, which will be opened this week on the 10th inst., is a sign of the progressive American spirit, which now permeates our island home. Mr. T. V. King, the lessee, has the best wishes for prosperity in his new enterprise. He will enjoy the patronage of the community by clean performances, reasonable prices of admission and strict order in the audience. But, what will Dr. S. E. Bishop say to having another Hale Diabolo within the sacred precincts of the city of Honolulu? The reverend doctor says that the missionaries dominate the little Thespian hall which years ago existed in Honolulu, and which they in righteous indignation told the poor converted hula dancing natives was a veritable Hale Diabolo. He admits that none of the virtuous crowd ever entered the doors of a theatre, but nevertheless they condemned such institutions and those owning them or managing them or acting in them to the furthest depth of sheol. Don, old boy, be candid. Don't you occasionally enjoy, in some cheap restaurant, a cursory glance at certain pictorial papers printed in pink? Do you really think that the numerous sons and descendants of the men who yelled aspe Satana to the old Thespian Hall are imperiling their souls by seeing Nance O'Neil at Irwin's Opera House any more than those good Christians who delight in reading the Police Gazette and look at the Standard? We hope the doctor will join us some evening and take in the Orpheum, get inspiration from new songs and renewed vitality by looking at new dances.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Our Opinion.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

In the recent fight between Corbett and Sharkey the decision was given in favor of the latter and all bets declared off. I have made several bets here with some of our "sports," the conditions of which I enclose herewith, and I ask your opinion in regard to who is the winner, or whether those bets are "off" according to the ruling of the referee of the fight.

[We do not claim to be an authority on sporting matters, but we are willing to furnish A. with our opinion. The bets on the fight were declared off. It means that if A. backed Sharkey and B. puts his money on Corbett for the fight, the decision of the referee would make those bets null and void. Specific bets are quite different. If A. placed a bet, that the decision would not be in favor of Corbett, he is the winner. If A. made a bet that the fight would not result in a draw, he is the winner, and the man betting against him was a fool, as the conditions of the fight stipulated "no draw." In case of a man betting on "first blood" or "first knock out," the bets must stand good, and do not come under the authority of the referee at all in declaring bets off. Our correspondent refers to bets of the nature mentioned, and in every instance he is the winner in our opinion.—Ed.]

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

It may be of interest to some of your readers to know that mails sent to Honolulu, in many instances, never reach their destination.

During this year no less than six letters sent by me to people residing in Honolulu have never been delivered. In every instance they have been properly addressed and posted in Sydney, N. S. W.

If so many of a single individual's have gone astray what number during that period have been lost in the whole community? for it is difficult to believe that any discrimination is used in the delivery of letters. I shall feel obliged to register in the future to ensure delivery.

For That Tired Feeling.

That steals over you as the days work is over, there's nothing else so good as a refreshing glass of RAINIER BEER. It is the tonic you need, beats all the medicine you can take, brings on a sound refreshing and healthy sleep and makes one feel like a new person. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon. Phone 783.

The City of Columbia.

The City of Columbia will soon be taken for the "Flying Hollander" of romantic fame, in the Pacific ocean. Harvey Johnston, formerly of the City of Columbia, arrived here by the Garonne and tells us that the City of Columbia will arrive in Honolulu on or about Friday this week with her crew, who will libel the steamer here for wages due. The men consider, that it will be wiser for them to have their claims against the vessel adjusted in Honolulu than taking chances in Seattle.

Mr. Johnston has compromised his suit against the unfortunate steamer for a considerable consideration.

He is accompanied by his family and a friend, Mrs. Maloy, who all feel charmed with the Hawaiian Islands. Mr. Johnston is the proprietor of a leading saloon in Seattle, and says that the town is crowded with people waiting to go to Alaska's goldfield in the spring.

The City of Columbia will be sold here to satisfy the claims against her, and will probably be purchased and presented by a grateful people as a steam yacht to patriot Dole, who soon will have to discard his official toga and what is worse yet, get along without his salary and incidentals.

Real Estate Sale.

J. F. Morgan sold three lots on Emma and Vineyard streets, at noon to-day. Two lots were bought by Gear, Lansing & Co. for $1600 and $1500 respectively, and the third by S. B. Dole for $1475. The prices are considered very good.

Enterprise.

The men from the camps who know good beer when they taste it, claim that the Enterprise Beer served at the Merchant's Exchange, corner of King and Nuuanu streets, is the best brew to be found in Honolulu. It is pure, clear, and very refreshing, and can safely be taken with or without "screens."

Corbett's Crookedness.

Corbett says he is crushed by the charges of connivance in the crookedness which netted him $15,000. However, his talking apparatus escaped uninjured, and the size of the purse will tend to heal his bruises. At this price per crush Corbett may be considered a standing candidate for crushing.—S. F. Mrs. K. McLennan has a notice in this issue in which she offers for sale sets of Tongan stamps.

Mr. and Mrs. Needham will hold revival services at the Y. M. C. A. to-day at 4:30 and 7:30 p. m.

A complete stock of Lace Curtains will be open for inspection at Sachs & Co. to-morrow. Bargain prices.

Sachs & Co. are selling Victoria Lawns in 10 yards prices for 50 cents per piece. Best value ever offered.

H and M companies of the New York volunteers are booked to leave by the Seandia, sailing about Sunday next.

Cos. C, F, D and H of the New York Regiment, under command of Major Emmet, will leave by the Alameda this evening.

"Enough is as good as a feast" is the motto applicable to the "extra session" of the dramatic engagement. Let it be a warning.

Several of the Hawaiian volunteers have returned full of the glories of the fight. They are welcome home for they upheld the honor of our little country.

Nathan C. Wilfong has been appointed tax assessor and collector for the third tax division, Island of Hawaii, in the place of H. C. Austin, now Auditor-General.

The Elite ice cream parlors have the contract to supply the candies for the Central Union Church's Christmas Eve festival. It is day and night work for the boys now.

"Jim" Stacker, of the Hilo Herald, cleared out of town in a happy frame of mind yesterday, having accomplished at the eleventh hour the object of his visit. He is ever welcome on his old "stamping grounds."

J. J. Galvin, an old friend, is publishing a breezy paper at Manila. He calls it "Uncle Sam." He and his two sons, in the California contingency, are well, and escaped un-injured through the heavy fights.

The habeas corpus case in regard to the Chinese refused landing here by Special Agent Brown was called in the Supreme Court this morning and postponed until Monday next when the quarantine of the men will be over.

The tourist steamer Garonne, Captain Conradi, arrived in port yesterday afternoon, 20 hours from Hilo, with 70 tourists, and a few who intend to locate. May they all spend a pleasant time during their brief stay here.

Tom Quinn was arrested to-day for heedless driving. The complainant is a soldier who claims that Quinn ran into him and injured him to such an extent that he has been confined at the hospital for several days. The case will come up in the District Court to-morrow morning.

The soldier who shot Mr. Paine's dog and threatened a boy with his pistol has been delivered to the civil authorities who issued warrants of arrest charging him with malicious injury and assault with a deadly weapon. This is the man who wants to shoot Major Emmet when he meets him in New York.

Death of Martin Lee.

Jens Martin Lee died this morning at 11:45 at the residence of friends on Liliha street. The deceased was a native of Norway and was about 38 years of age. He was a brother to Peter Lee, one of the best known men on Hawaii, and was for several years assistant manager and bookkeeper of the Volcano House. Recently he was bookkeeper at the Hawaiian Hotel. Martin Lee was a well educated and courteous gentleman, well spoken of by all who met him. The funeral will probably take place to-morrow morning.

A POET IN TROUBLE.

Hamilton Claims To Be a Child Murderer.

Francis Hamilton of London is in trouble again and will visit Jailor Henry during the next six months.

This young man has gained a rather unenviable notoriety since his arrival in Hilo as a sailor in the ship Indiana. An attempt was made to scuttle that vessel, and Hamilton and others were implicated in the affair, which eventually brought a certain law firm into trouble.

The vessel left, but Hamilton of London remained here and drifted to Honolulu.

After his arrival to this city his poetic spirit made him write verses full of love and passion to a Salvation Army Lassie, who handed the verses to the police and declined to save the soul of the poet. Mr. W. W. Wright took pity on his countryman, gave bonds for his good behaviour, and employed him in his shop. The London poet preferred the pen to the anvil, and got into more trouble and was given the grand bounces. Sometimes after he was arrested for being found after dark on the premises of the Club Stables without lawful excuse and sent to jail.

The authorities tried to ship him out of the country, but no master of a vessel would take him at any price.

Lately he has been hanging around the Honolulu Planing Mill premises, from which he was ordered away several times without avail. Last evening he was arrested and charged with being on the premises of another after dark without lawful excuse.

In the District Court this morning he described himself as magazine writer, poet, journalist and musical composer. He also stated that in London he attend a law school. His appearance indicated that he was a poet (or a journalist) as he wore no underclothing whatever, and was very much out of elbows indeed. He disclaimed to have entered the premises of the Planing Mill with any felonious intentions, and told the magistrate that the local newspapers had published several of his poems. The magistrate told him that he must not think for a moment that the Court would blame him, because the newspapers published his poetical gems. The papers were to blame for such trespass on public forbearance. The learned judge thought that recently the papers had published some verses of a new school, but when he tried to read the effusions in the morning organ he had no idea who the author was.

Hamilton was finally sentenced to six months imprisonment, which greatly disturbed the London genius who in a melodramatic manner desired to inform the judge that he was the murderer of Miss — child. When put down below the fellow did the tearful act and repeated his play of insanity.

The fellow is simply a very "bad egg," and the judge deserves great credit for treating him with so great a consideration and giving him every possible show to prove his innocence.

Rome and Freemasonry.

It is a peculiar fact that Roman Catholicism is intolerant of Masonry. There is no form of secret fellowship that so stir up the ire of a Catholic devotee. He regards himself as under special obligations to hold malice against Free Masonry because he regards Masonry as a secret foe to his church. All this comes because the secret society of Masonry is able to out-general the secret societies of Catholicism. Masonry holds itself on a higher line than the Catholic church, yet it has the facilities for effective work in a perfectly clandestine manner whenever such work becomes necessary. In this way it becomes a formidable rival of the intrigues of Rome, and Rome always hates her rivals. At this particular time Rome especially hates Masonry, because Masonry has done much for the overthrow of Catholicism in Spain, and Spain was once the pride of the Catholic world.—American Baptist Flag.

THE PEOPLE'S PROVIDERS

A FELON HAS RIGHTS

A Peculiar Trial in a Southern California Criminal Court.

The Justices of the Supreme Court have made important decision. It is in effect that while a case is being tried the Judge before whom the cause is being heard must attend to his duties and hear what both sides have to say. This may seem a peculiar ruling, but the matter which gave rise to it is more surprising.

In Los Angeles County C. L. Tupper was on trial for a serious crime, a felony that would open the gates of San Quentin to him. It looked as though it was a case of striped garments for him, and much evidence was presented. After a while the Judge became weary and took a recess all by himself. It was not stated whether he went out to get a drink or a dinner, or what, but he was gone for nearly half an hour and the case went along just the same. Tupper was convicted and sentenced by the Judge when he came back, but Tupper did not like the way it was done, neither did his attorney, nor the Justices of the Supreme Court. The latter is sending the case back for a retrial says: "There can be no court without a Judge, and all that was done in the absence of the Judge was in fact done in the absence of the court. A defendant convicted under such circumstances has been deprived of his liberty without due process of law."

The judgment and order of the lower court was reversed and a new trial of the case was ordered.—S. F. Call.

NICHOLAS AND DISARMAMENT.

In an interview the Czar Speaks Sadly of the Attempt to Embitter the Relations of England and Russia.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: The Matin will publish Tuesday an interview of an English politician with Emperor Nicholas. The interviewer, who especially remarked the kindness and modesty of the Czar's demeanor, says he spoke sadly and regretfully of the attempts to embitter the relations of England and Russia. The conversation mostly turned, however, on the disarmament of Europe, as to which the Czar spoke with the utmost ardor, saying that he wanted a tangible result. His Majesty suggested that the powers might bind themselves not to increase their armaments for five years, at the end of which they might meet again to decide upon future action. They might also settle their attitude in the event of menace or prospective hostilities. He suggested, as an example of possible action, that the recent Fashoda incident might have been referred by England to the United States and by France to Russia. If these failed to agree there might have been recourse to an arbitrator. In any case delay would have made for peace.

"The Czar protested," his interviewer says, "with great indignation against the idea imputed to him of urging France and England into conflict, characterizing it as monstrous. The Dreyfus case was not mentioned during either of the two conversations which the English politician had with the Czar."

UNCLE SAM'S GENEROSITY.

English Press Express Gratification Over the Proposed "Open Door" Policy.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The morning papers concede the generosity of the offer of the United States Peace Commissioners, and express the opinion that Spain would be foolish to reject them. They express universal gratification at the announcement of an "open door" policy in the Philippines.

The Daily Mail calls the offer of $20,000,000 as indemnity, "a surprising act of generosity."

The papers generally take it for granted that the "open door" will be adopted in the West Indies also.

The Daily News says: The United States have now become an Asiatic power, and Lord Salisbury clearly had reason to predict that the expansion of the United States would give Great Britain a valuable ally in China seas.

THE OLYMPIA'S TABLET.

It Will Be Placed on the Forward Turret of the Cruiser.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 21.—The souvenir committee appointed by the people of Olympia have made arrangements for the purchase of a commemorative tablet as the most suitable memorial for the flagship Olympia. The tablet selected is five feet high and three feet wide in the narrowest place, and will be placed on the forward turret between the two 8-inch guns. The design will be done in relief on copper, the central attraction of which will be a figure representing Fame. Suspended from the arms of the figure and falling across the front of the body will be streamers on which will be inscribed Dewey's famous order at Manila, "G-ridley you may fire when ready."

Pope's Grand Nephew Coming.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Private advice from Rome convey the information that Count Camille Pecci, a grand-nephew of Pope Leo XIII. and colonel of the Noble Guard, is about to visit this country and Cuba. The visit of the Italian nobleman will be wholly of an unofficial character.

To the Soldiers.

The Boys in Blue complain that they have not been served with the "Eastern" beer which tickles their palates and makes them good-natured.

Pabst Milwaukee Beer on draft, is now served at a proper temperature in the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan saloons, conducted by the elite of the employees of the Peacock Co.

The Milwaukee Beer on draft has proven a tonic which is daily helping the sensible soldiers who are patronizing the three great refreshment places, where the beer is so served that even prohibitionists from Milwaukee recommend it.

Jesse Moore

The soldiers from the South passing through Honolulu on their way to Manila are always clamoring for the famous Jesse Moore whiskey, and heretofore they have been unable to obtain it. The owners of the Anchor Saloon has filled a long felt want, and Wm. Carlisle and Chas. Andrews are busy from morning till night supplying this health renewing beverage to the boys in blue. All judges of good whiskey admit that the Jesse Moore brand is the best, and it is well to know that it can now be had, unadulterated at the Anchor on the corner of King and Nuuanu streets.

A grand clearance sale of Christmas goods, including dolls and toys, was commenced Monday at L. B. Kerr's store, Queen street, and so great are the bargains that the store has been crowded all day notwithstanding the holiday. Kerr is selling these goods at half price, they being part of a bankrupt stock bought in London. All those in search of Christmas goods would do well to call and examine his stock.

WARFARE ON THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The Young Temperance People Organize.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Christian Temperance young people all over the United States are preparing for the formation of an organization to be known as the One Million Club, which will wage relentless warfare against the liquor traffic, using as a weapon the ballot box. Chicago will be the headquarters of the new organization, and from this city it has already received a strong impetus.

The One Million Club will differ from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in that its energies will be entirely directed toward the election of officials and tickets pledged to work for the suppression of the saloon. While not exactly on the plan of the Prohibition party, the One Million Club has for its object the same aims as the Prohibitionists.

It is not the intention of the young people to put a ticket in the political field, but to indorse tickets which contain a plank in the platform pledging a war against liquor. The members will all be pledged to vote for the ticket selected regardless of political belief.

Miss Eva M. Shontz, president of the Chicago Young People's Christian Temperance Union, is interested in the formation of the new club. She said to-day: "Before the national conventions of 1900 we hope to have 1,000,000 voters pledged to use suffrage against the liquor traffic, and from that it takes its name. An effort will be made to induce one or two great political parties to include in the platform a temperance plank. In the event of success in this direction one of these parties will be indorsed."

"Otherwise the regular Prohibition party will receive the votes of the members of the organization. If we can succeed in getting 1,000,000 voters pledged to help us in this fight we feel our strength could be so great that both Republicans and Democrats would be anxious for our indorsement."

Steps are being taken toward calling delegates to a meeting at which all States will be represented in this city in January in order to perfect the organization already begun through the medium of correspondence.

The Trade of Hawaii.

Owing to the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States, special interest attaches just now to the report on the trade of the archipelago by Mr. Kenny, our Acting Consul-General at Honolulu, which has just been published by the Foreign Office. The total value of the import and export trade last year was $5,127,370, of which $1,822,879 was the value of the imports, and $3,304,491 that of the exports. The export of sugar last year amounted to 232,334 tons, all of which went to the United States. The share of the United States in the import trade was very nearly 77 percent, while that of Great Britain and her possessions was nearly 12 percent, the remainder being distributed equally between Germany, China, Japan, and all other countries. In the exports the share of the United States is still larger, and amounts to 99.62 percent, or practically the whole trade. Sugar forms 96 percent of the total export trade of Hawaii. In imports, British manufacturers are heavily handicapped by distance, heavy freights, and a tariff varying from 10 to 25 percent. Most American goods are imported free under the reciprocity treaty. One attractive feature of American trade is the cheapness of the packing cases, which are frequently not charged for, while the charge for cases of English goods is extremely high; further, one of the chief reasons for the transfer to the United States of the trade in glassware, tools, implements, woodware, etc., is said to be the English manufacturers are slow to adopt the light styles and new shapes that are in demand in the Hawaiian market. Coal for steamer use is imported chiefly from British Columbia, Australia, and New Zealand. British cottons have declined in importance, and appear likely to decrease still more, and, for various reasons, amongst which are cheapness and better quality, American cottons are taking their place. But in the better class of printed goods, the British manufacturer more than holds his own still, the American competing in this class of goods with the French rather than the British producer. The sugar industry is prosperous, and all the plantations paying large dividends, mainly owing to the reciprocity treaty with the United States, but also to the enterprise and intelligence of the planters in adopting new and improved methods of production and treatment.—London Times.

ANOTHER PROTEST.

We understand that the plug-hat brigade is to the front again, this time to gather in shekels to arrange for a solemn protest to France against the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands. No notice would be taken of the antics of these poor people who cling to the independence of their country, even after that independence has disappeared forever, if it was not that their "schemes" are always followed by a request to "dig," which too often only is responded to by other ignorant Hawaiians, who have as much faith in the plug-hat brigade as the Indian has in his medicine man or even brilliant men like Harold Fredericks in healing by Christian science. Poor France has something else to attend to than bothering about the new territory of the United States. The proposition to protest to France would be ridiculously absurd, if it didn't show such a lack of intelligence and common sense on the part of the "protestants." Judge H. A. Widemann, on behalf of Queen Liliuokalani, visited Europe when there still was a possibility for interference in Hawaiian affairs. While yet in London he learned officially that France had abandoned the cause of Hawaii's Queen and that treaty or no treaty the great Republic of Europe washed hands of Hawaii's future. Do our friends of the Hui Kalaiana and other political hui believe for a moment that France has changed her policy and that she now would take up the cudgels in behalf of a people and a country, in which she hasn't the slightest political or financial interest. The protest or petition, or whatever it is to be called, will of course do no good and will be consigned to the diplomatic waste basket. But the idiotic step means money out of somebody's pocket and injures the Hawaiians in the eyes of the men who now framing a government for us.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Greater Hilo has enjoyed a very fine exhibition of products and curios from the big island, to which reference has been made in our paper. The exhibits were finally sold at auction for the benefit of those concerned, and the next morning the Garonne arrived with a large number of tourists, who would have been good customers for the exhibitors. And Hilo now grinds her fangs and accuses Honolulu of being guilty of this last misfortune.

The new theatre, which will be opened this week on the 10th inst., is a sign of the progressive American spirit, which now permeates our island home. Mr. T. V. King, the lessee, has the best wishes for prosperity in his new enterprise. He will enjoy the patronage of the community by clean performances, reasonable prices of admission and strict order in the audience. But, what will Dr. S. E. Bishop say to having another Hale Diabolo within the sacred precincts of the city of Honolulu? The reverend doctor says that the missionaries dominate the little Thespian hall which years ago existed in Honolulu, and which they in righteous indignation told the poor converted hula dancing natives was a veritable Hale Diabolo. He admits that none of the virtuous crowd ever entered the doors of a theatre, but nevertheless they condemned such institutions and those owning them or managing them or acting in them to the furthest depth of sheol. Doc, old boy, be candid. Don't you occasionally enjoy, in some cheap restaurant, a cursory glance at certain pictorial papers printed in pink? Do you really think that the numerous sons and descendants of the men who yelled aspe Satana to the old Thespian Hall are imperiling their souls by seeing Nance O'Neil at Irwin's Opera House any more than those good Christians who delight in reading the Police Gazette and look at the Standard? We hope the doctor will join us some evening and take in the Orpheum, get inspiration from new songs and renewed vitality by looking at new dances.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Our Opinion.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

In the recent fight between Corbett and Sharkey the decision was given in favor of the latter and all bets declared off. I have made several bets here with some of our "sports," the conditions of which I enclose herewith, and I ask your opinion in regard to who is the winner, or whether those bets are "off" according to the ruling of the referee of the fight.

[We do not claim to be an authority on sporting matters, but we are willing to furnish A. with our opinion. The bets on the fight were declared off. It means that if A. backed Sharkey and B. puts his money on Corbett for the fight, the decision of the referee would make those bets null and void. Specific bets are quite different. If A. placed a bet, that the decision would not be in favor of Corbett, he is the winner. If A. made a bet that the fight would not result in a draw, he is the winner, and the man betting against him was a fool, as the conditions of the fight stipulated "no draw." In case of a man betting on "first blood" or "first knock out," the bets must stand good, and do not come under the authority of the referee at all in declaring bets off. Our correspondent refers to bets of the nature mentioned, and in every instance he is the winner in our opinion.—Ed.]

A Kick from the Antipodes.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

It may be of interest to some of your readers to know that mails sent to Honolulu, in many instances, never reach their destination.

During this year no less than six letters sent by me to people residing in Honolulu have never been delivered. In every instance they have been properly addressed and posted in Sydney, N. S. W.

If so many of a single individual's have gone astray what number during that period have been lost in the whole community? for it is difficult to believe that any discrimination is used in the delivery of letters. I shall feel obliged to register in the future to ensure delivery.

For That Tired Feeling.

That steals over you as the days work is over, there's nothing else so good as a refreshing glass of RAINIER BEER. It is the tonic you need, beats all the medicine you can take, brings on a sound refreshing and healthy sleep and makes one feel like a new person. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon. Phone 783.

The City of Columbia.

The City of Columbia will soon be taken for the "Flying Hollander" of romantic fame, in the Pacific ocean. Harvey Johnston, formerly of the City of Columbia, arrived here by the Garonne and tells us that the City of Columbia will arrive in Honolulu on or about Friday this week with her crew, who will libel the steamer here for wages due. The men consider, that it will be wiser for them to have their claims against the vessel adjusted in Honolulu than taking chances in Seattle.

Mr. Johnston has compromised his suit against the unfortunate steamer for a considerable consideration.

He is accompanied by his family and a friend, Mrs. Maloy, who all feel charmed with the Hawaiian Islands. Mr. Johnston is the proprietor of a leading saloon in Seattle, and says that the town is crowded with people waiting to go to Alaska's goldfield in the spring.

The City of Columbia will be sold here to satisfy the claims against her, and will probably be purchased and presented by a grateful people as a steam yacht to patriot Dole, who soon will have to discard his official toga and what is worse yet, get along without his salary and incidentals.

Real Estate Sale.

J. F. Morgan sold three lots on Emma and Vineyard streets, at noon to-day. Two lots were bought by Gear, Lansing & Co. for $1600 and $1500 respectively, and the third by S. B. Dole for $1475. The prices are considered very good.

Enterprise.

The men from the camps who know good beer when they taste it, claim that the Enterprise Beer served at the Merchant's Exchange, corner of King and Nuuanu streets, is the best brew to be found in Honolulu. It is pure, clear, and very refreshing, and can safely be taken with or without "screens."

Corbett's Crookedness.

Corbett says he is crushed by the charges of connivance in the crookedness which netted him $15,000. However, his talking apparatus escaped uninjured, and the size of the purse will tend to heal his bruises. At this price per crush Corbett may be considered a standing candidate for crushing.—S. F. LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

The Alameda sails at 8 o'clock this evening.

For desirable goods at desirable prices you must go to Sachs.

The seance of the Research Club has been postponed for a week.

The G. A. R. have wisely postponed their entertainment until after the holidays.

The whole of our stock of Taffeta Silks will be cleared out at 75 cents per yard. Sachs & Co.

The arrival of water pipe for the Settlement will be welcome news for the sick on Molokai.

Mrs. K. McLennan has a notice in this issue in which she offers for sale sets of Tongan stamps.

Mr. and Mrs. Needham will hold revival services at the Y. M. C. A. to-day at 4:30 and 7:30 p. m.

A complete stock of Lace Curtains will be open for inspection at Sachs & Co. to-morrow. Bargain prices.

Sachs & Co. are selling Victoria Lawns in 10 yards prices for 50 cents per piece. Best value ever offered.

H and M companies of the New York volunteers are booked to leave by the Seandia, sailing about Sunday next.

Cos. C, F, D and H of the New York Regiment, under command of Major Emmet, will leave by the Alameda this evening.

"Enough is as good as a feast" is the motto applicable to the "extra session" of the dramatic engagement. Let it be a warning.

Several of the Hawaiian volunteers have returned full of the glories of the fight. They are welcome home for they upheld the honor of our little country.

Nathan C. Wilfong has been appointed tax assessor and collector for the third tax division, Island of Hawaii, in the place of H. C. Austin, now Auditor-General.

The Elite ice cream parlors have the contract to supply the candies for the Central Union Church's Christmas Eve festival. It is day and night work for the boys now.

"Jim" Stacker, of the Hilo Herald, cleared out of town in a happy frame of mind yesterday, having accomplished at the eleventh hour the object of his visit. He is ever welcome on his old "stamping grounds."

J. J. Galvin, an old friend, is publishing a breezy paper at Manila. He calls it "Uncle Sam." He and his two sons, in the California contingency, are well, and escaped un-injured through the heavy fights.

The habeas corpus case in regard to the Chinese refused landing here by Special Agent Brown was called in the Supreme Court this morning and postponed until Monday next when the quarantine of the men will be over.

The tourist steamer Garonne, Captain Conradi, arrived in port yesterday afternoon, 20 hours from Hilo, with 70 tourists, and a few who intend to locate. May they all spend a pleasant time during their brief stay here.

Tom Quinn was arrested to-day for heedless driving. The complainant is a soldier who claims that Quinn ran into him and injured him to such an extent that he has been confined at the hospital for several days. The case will come up in the District Court to-morrow morning.

The soldier who shot Mr. Paine's dog and threatened a boy with his pistol has been delivered to the civil authorities who issued warrants of arrest charging him with malicious injury and assault with a deadly weapon. This is the man who wants to shoot Major Emmet when he meets him in New York.

Death of Martin Lee.

Jens Martin Lee died this morning at 11:45 at the residence of friends on Liliha street. The deceased was a native of Norway and was about 38 years of age. He was a brother to Peter Lee, one of the best known men on Hawaii, and was for several years assistant manager and bookkeeper of the Volcano House. Recently he was bookkeeper at the Hawaiian Hotel. Martin Lee was a well educated and courteous gentleman, well spoken of by all who met him. The funeral will probably take place to-morrow morning.

A POET IN TROUBLE.

Hamilton Claims To Be a Child Murderer.

Francis Hamilton of London is in trouble again and will visit Jailor Henry during the next six months.

This young man has gained a rather unenviable notoriety since his arrival in Hilo as a sailor in the ship Indiana. An attempt was made to scuttle that vessel, and Hamilton and others were implicated in the affair, which eventually brought a certain law firm into trouble.

The vessel left, but Hamilton of London remained here and drifted to Honolulu.

After his arrival to this city his poetic spirit made him write verses full of love and passion to a Salvation Army Lassie, who handed the verses to the police and declined to save the soul of the poet. Mr. W. W. Wright took pity on his countryman, gave bonds for his good behaviour, and employed him in his shop. The London poet preferred the pen to the anvil, and got into more trouble and was given the grand bounces. Sometimes after he was arrested for being found after dark on the premises of the Club Stables without lawful excuse and sent to jail.

The authorities tried to ship him out of the country, but no master of a vessel would take him at any price.

Lately he has been hanging around the Honolulu Planing Mill premises, from which he was ordered away several times without avail. Last evening he was arrested and charged with being on the premises of another after dark without lawful excuse.

In the District Court this morning he described himself as magazine writer, poet, journalist and musical composer. He also stated that in London he attend a law school. His appearance indicated that he was a poet (or a journalist) as he wore no underclothing whatever, and was very much out of elbows indeed. He disclaimed to have entered the premises of the Planing Mill with any felonious intentions, and told the magistrate that the local newspapers had published several of his poems. The magistrate told him that he must not think for a moment that the Court would blame him, because the newspapers published his poetical gems. The papers were to blame for such trespass on public forbearance. The learned judge thought that recently the papers had published some verses of a new school, but when he tried to read the effusions in the morning organ he had no idea who the author was.

Hamilton was finally sentenced to six months imprisonment, which greatly disturbed the London genius who in a melodramatic manner desired to inform the judge that he was the murderer of Miss — child. When put down below the fellow did the tearful act and repeated his play of insanity.

The fellow is simply a very "bad egg," and the judge deserves great credit for treating him with so great a consideration and giving him every possible show to prove his innocence.

Rome and Freemasonry.

It is a peculiar fact that Roman Catholicism is intolerant of Masonry. There is no form of secret fellowship that so stir up the ire of a Catholic devotee. He regards himself as under special obligations to hold malice against Free Masonry because he regards Masonry as a secret foe to his church. All this comes because the secret society of Masonry is able to out-general the secret societies of Catholicism. Masonry holds itself on a higher line than the Catholic church, yet it has the facilities for effective work in a perfectly clandestine manner whenever such work becomes necessary. In this way it becomes a formidable rival of the intrigues of Rome, and Rome always hates her rivals. At this particular time Rome especially hates Masonry, because Masonry has done much for the overthrow of Catholicism in Spain, and Spain was once the pride of the Catholic world.—American Baptist Flag.

A Peculiar Trial in a Southern California Criminal Court.

The Justices of the Supreme Court have made important decision. It is in effect that while a case is being tried the Judge before whom the cause is being heard must attend to his duties and hear what both sides have to say. This may seem a peculiar ruling, but the matter which gave rise to it is more surprising.

In Los Angeles County C. L. Tupper was on trial for a serious crime, a felony that would open the gates of San Quentin to him. It looked as though it was a case of striped garments for him, and much evidence was presented. After a while the Judge became weary and took a recess all by himself. It was not stated whether he went out to get a drink or a dinner, or what, but he was gone for nearly half an hour and the case went along just the same. Tupper was convicted and sentenced by the Judge when he came back, but Tupper did not like the way it was done, neither did his attorney, nor the Justices of the Supreme Court. The latter is sending the case back for a retrial says: "There can be no court without a Judge, and all that was done in the absence of the Judge was in fact done in the absence of the court. A defendant convicted under such circumstances has been deprived of his liberty without due process of law."

The judgment and order of the lower court was reversed and a new trial of the case was ordered.—S. F. Call.

NICHOLAS AND DISARMAMENT.

In an interview the Czar Speaks Sadly of the Attempt to Embitter the Relations of England and Russia.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: The Matin will publish Tuesday an interview of an English politician with Emperor Nicholas. The interviewer, who especially remarked the kindness and modesty of the Czar's demeanor, says he spoke sadly and regretfully of the attempts to embitter the relations of England and Russia. The conversation mostly turned, however, on the disarmament of Europe, as to which the Czar spoke with the utmost ardor, saying that he wanted a tangible result. His Majesty suggested that the powers might bind themselves not to increase their armaments for five years, at the end of which they might meet again to decide upon future action. They might also settle their attitude in the event of menace or prospective hostilities. He suggested, as an example of possible action, that the recent Fashoda incident might have been referred by England to the United States and by France to Russia. If these failed to agree there might have been recourse to an arbitrator. In any case delay would have made for peace.

"The Czar protested," his interviewer says, "with great indignation against the idea imputed to him of urging France and England into conflict, characterizing it as monstrous. The Dreyfus case was not mentioned during either of the two conversations which the English politician had with the Czar."

UNCLE SAM'S GENEROSITY.

English Press Express Gratification Over the Proposed "Open Door" Policy.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The morning papers concede the generosity of the offer of the United States Peace Commissioners, and express the opinion that Spain would be foolish to reject them. They express universal gratification at the announcement of an "open door" policy in the Philippines.

The Daily Mail calls the offer of $20,000,000 as indemnity, "a surprising act of generosity."

The papers generally take it for granted that the "open door" will be adopted in the West Indies also.

The Daily News says: The United States have now become an Asiatic power, and Lord Salisbury clearly had reason to predict that the expansion of the United States would give Great Britain a valuable ally in China seas.

THE OLYMPIA'S TABLET.

It Will Be Placed on the Forward Turret of the Cruiser.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 21.—The souvenir committee appointed by the people of Olympia have made arrangements for the purchase of a commemorative tablet as the most suitable memorial for the flagship Olympia. The tablet selected is five feet high and three feet wide in the narrowest place, and will be placed on the forward turret between the two 8-inch guns. The design will be done in relief on copper, the central attraction of which will be a figure representing Fame. Suspended from the arms of the figure and falling across the front of the body will be streamers on which will be inscribed Dewey's famous order at Manila, "G-ridley you may fire when ready."

Pope's Grand Nephew Coming.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Private advice from Rome convey the information that Count Camille Pecci, a grand-nephew of Pope Leo XIII. and colonel of the Noble Guard, is about to visit this country and Cuba. The visit of the Italian nobleman will be wholly of an unofficial character.

To the Soldiers.

The Boys in Blue complain that they have not been served with the "Eastern" beer which tickles their palates and makes them good-natured.

Pabst Milwaukee Beer on draft, is now served at a proper temperature in the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan saloons, conducted by the elite of the employees of the Peacock Co.

The Milwaukee Beer on draft has proven a tonic which is daily helping the sensible soldiers who are patronizing the three great refreshment places, where the beer is so served that even prohibitionists from Milwaukee recommend it.

Jesse Moore

The soldiers from the South passing through Honolulu on their way to Manila are always clamoring for the famous Jesse Moore whiskey, and heretofore they have been unable to obtain it. The owners of the Anchor Saloon has filled a long felt want, and Wm. Carlisle and Chas. Andrews are busy from morning till night supplying this health renewing beverage to the boys in blue. All judges of good whiskey admit that the Jesse Moore brand is the best, and it is well to know that it can now be had, unadulterated at the Anchor on the corner of King and Nuuanu streets.
