Christmas in Lahaina

Enjoyed by People Midst Rain and Wind.

Christmas was much enjoyed at Lahaina notwithstanding the big storm which lasted from Friday till Monday. Many tables looked festive with turkeys and chickens and several homes were made pretty with Christmas trees imported from San Francisco.

On Christmas eve the Wainee church had a big tree loaded down with gifts and a real Santa Claus appeared much to the amusement of the children.

Miss Augusta Waal made many of her little friends happy with gifts from a beautiful tree loaded with things dear to the hearts of children.

Priest Tanaka of the Honzuanji Buddhists and his school children had a red cross celebration and a Christmas tree last Saturday. The children marched with banners from the school to the temple decorated with red crosses and carrying banners.

The Episcopalians gave a grand concert at Parish Hall on Dec. the 24th. Many gifts were distributed.

The Rev. Leopold Kroll celebrated several religious services on Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, commencing at 12 o'clock on Friday night. One of these services was in the Korean language. The Koreans greatly enjoyed their games on Christmas eve.

Services were held in the Catholic and Episcopal churches in honor of the Founder of the happiest day of the year.

Father Manrans has spent most of this week at Wailuku.

Mr. Searl's automobile arrived last week and works well.

Mrs. Surt and daughter of Honolulu have spent this week at Lahaina.

Miss Heusner and two of the teachers of the Maunaloa Seminary visited Mrs. Simpson of the Baldwin Settlement this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tenny Peck passed through Lahaina last week from Wailuku to Honolulu. They have been visiting Judge and Mrs. Kingsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnham of Lahaina have announced the engagement of their daughter Katherine to Mr. Matthew M. Graham of Honolulu.

Lahaina experienced the greatest thunder storm between four and six o'clock Wednesday that has been known for many years.

Christmas Exercises at Kahului Union Church.

The Christmas exercises of the Kahului Union Sunday-School were held in the church on Monday evening the 27th.

A large audience was present. Many people were not able to secure seats, and stood in the vestibule outside.

The program was well rendered by members of the school and was well received by the audience.

Santa Claus then made his appearance and gave useful presents, besides candy and oranges to all children in the room.

The Christmas Tree was beautifully decorated and when the wax candles were lighted it made a picture that rivaled in attractiveness the costume of Santa Claus.

John Baker Visits Maui

Lands in Jail Second Day
Here.

John Baker of Waimea Hawaii who served a sentence on Hawaii for embezzlement and recently did up the Young Hotel and landed in the insane asylum arrived by the Claudine Wednesday.

The young fellow represented himself to Deputy Sheriff Crowell and Sheriff Saffery as Edwin Hall Bright, chief of detectives of Hawaii.

At the Maui Hotel he was introduced by the Deputy Sheriff where he registered as "E. H. Bright, Chief of Detective, Hilo, Hawaii."

He ordered twenty five cent cigars which Manager Field declined to furnish and on the following morning got a saddle horse from the Lao Stables.

All went swimmingly until he met J. Nunes in the police station. Nunes said "hello John" and he returned the salutation. Deputy Crowell enquired of Nunes if he knew the stranger. He said "yes we were in the crazy house together. He was crazy and I was not."

Baker ordered Nunes out of the office and said he had some business with the deputy. Crowell took Nunes inside to get further information and Baker skipped. He was overtaken and jailed.

The case will be considered later.

Ulupalakua Enjoys Christmas Day

There were some lively doings in Ulupalakua on Christmas day. There were two baseball games, one between the school girls and the school boys and it was easily won by the boys to the tune of 16 to 15. The other was the most interesting game between the married and single men. It was a hard fought game which was won by the latter team to the score of 19 to 18.

There was a game of basket ball immediately after the baseball. This game was played by the school girls organized into two teams, first and second team. The first team proved to be the better of the two and easily won by the following score: First half 10 to 6, second half 9 to 5. A better game is promised on New Year's day.

Lunch was served in the open air in a yard adjoining the school yard and everybody wore an expression of satisfaction. The credit for the splendid luau is due Mr. McPhee, who furnished the fat bullock.

In the evening Chas. Thompson showed how well he can climb a pole. In the school yard there is a flag pole 36 feet high, six inches in diameter at the bottom and two inches at the top. He climbed it with ease as a boy would climb an ordinary tree. Nobody would dare climb the pole.

At 6 o'clock in the evening the children opened a concert to defray the expense of Santa Claus' visit. At the close of the concert which netted $16 the folding doors were opened and the audience beheld the beautiful Christmas tree brightly lighted up with candles and loaded with toys. Santa Claus soon made his appearance and made everybody happy. He danced around and quickly passed candy and nuts to the children who at once began blowing their horns and made a great racket.

The children all love Santa Claus with the exception of one little boy who was so frightened that he hid

Davis Again Entertained

Maui Elks Give Rousing
Send Off.

Fifteen members of the herd of Elks tendered D. H. Davis a rousing send off Tuesday evening at the Kahului Club Hotel.

Hugh Howell and E. J. Walker had the affair in charge which was a guarantee that no grouches nor frosts could enter.

Every one was present at 7:30 sharp and the evening of fun and good fellowship was thoroughly enjoyed by every one present every minute of the time.

There were songs and stories and good things to eat and drink and Manager Bannison saw to it that every one was well provided for.

In a few well chosen words chairman Howell presented a grip and a suit case to Mr. Davis who replied feelingly to the expressions of good will and esteem of the Maui Elks.

Those present were D. H. Davis, W. L. Decoto, Carl Waldeyer, W. Walsh, Captain E. H. Parker, Jas. Kirkland, C. Hansen, C. D. Lufkin, Hugh Howell, H. M. Coke, D. T. Carey, E. J. Walker, W. L. Heilborn, Dr. F. A. St. Sure and J. B. Thomson.

The Concert and Dance Was Enjoyed by a Large Audience.

The concert and dance given by the Kaahumanu and Waikapu churches at the Wailuku town hall on Thursday evening of this week was most successful in spite of the two previous postponements on account of rain.

J. K. Kupunihi, the street lamp tender did his best with Boneparte Crossing the Alps, on his flute and received an encore.

A quartet from Waihee lead by Representative R. J. K. Nawahine rendered a vocal selection and were encored.

John Brown and Miss Mary Hoffman played a violin-piano selection and were encored.

Five little Hawaiian girls of Waihee sang most beautifully and received an ovation. The audience went wild with pleasure on hearing them sing and roundly cheered them. They sang twice during the evening and easily took first place.

A quartet consisting of Joseph Welsh, A. B. Naone, W. E. Saffery and Rev. Kaumeheui sang a Hawaiian selection. They were followed by John Brown and two of the Waiwaiole boys with stringed instruments.

The Laniumas lead by Carl F. Rose played a lively two step which started every one feet and there was nothing to do but clear the floor and begin dancing which was kept up until a late hour by many of the young people.

The proceeds were used to pay for the Christmas Entertainment of the young people of the Sunday schools of the district.

under the table. They want him to make them another visit next year. The concert and Santa's visit lasted only two hours.

Nearly everybody reached home before the rain poured down.

Christmas Festivities

Most Thoroughly Enjoyed in and About Wailuku.

The Christmas festivities in Wailuku Churches were of unusual interest this season. The weather for the most part was excellent, so that every one could be out. All churches that celebrated the occasion were full of people.

On Friday, the last day of the schools at the Alexander Settlement, the kindergarten hall was full of children in the morning for a very merry time with a tree, and all that goes to make little hearts happy. Over ninety children were present, and many parents and friends gathered outside the happy circle and shared in the fun. In the evening the same room was again full of boys and girls who attend the evening classes under Miss Towner at the Settlement. The tree was loaded with candy and presents for the children of the classes. The recitations by the members of the Settlement were well rendered, and the songs were pretty. Santa Claus appeared after the program was over. He was kept busy distributing candy, apples and presents.

On Tuesday evening before Christmas the Chinese people gave a tree to the Sunday School. Several of Miss Turner's friends helped her in securing the large number of presents that were distributed. Here Santa brought in a great wheel barrow loaded with the gifts that make boys and girls long for Christmas to come often. The presents were carefully selected, and the Chinese little people were very grateful for their good time.

The songs and recitations at the Chinese Church were much enjoyed by the large audience. The Seminary girls from the church were present and added much to the success of the evening. The recitations in Chinese and English by five boys during the first part of the program, and later the recitation by five little girls were striking parts of the program. Eight Chinese boys did well in the beautiful anthem "Glory to God."

The tree was pronounced by all to be as pretty as any this season. It was beautifully decorated, and during the whole of the evening was a blaze of light.

On Wednesday evening Santa visited the Waikapu church, where a tree had been prepared for the children. Masks were brought to the boys, and ribbons to the girls, while each child had a pretty Christmas card. Here the people were favored with the visit of Santa Claus and his brother, both of whom made a lively time distributing the presents.

The tree at Kaahumanu Church, Wailuku, was prepared by Rev. L. B. Kaumeheui, and was very pretty. Mr. Kaumeheui also had a very interesting program, which was much enjoyed by the house full of people who gave eager attention. Mr. W. F. Crockett made an excellent address upon the spirit of Christmas, and Mr. Jas. N. K. Keola very much pleased the people by his flowery speech in Hawaiian.

Santa Claus in high boots, and the barking of dogs to accompany his unusual appearance, made a noisy time for a few minutes, but the presents of ties and ribbons to all the children pleased the members of the Sunday School. Everybody in Kaahumanu church had a bag of candy to take home.

The decorations at the Japanese church were unusually pretty. Long streamers of ferns alternating with streamers of colors made the whole church edifice a mass of pretty Christmas decorations. There were about 450 people present in spite of the drenching storm of Christmas Day night. The program before Santa appeared was excellently rendered, and the best of the kind ever heard from the Wailuku Japanese. The young people entered heartily into their work and there was no prompting necessary.

Santa Claus was very funny indeed and everybody liked him. He brought a lot of presents for the children and over four hundred bags of candy.

After the usual exercises were over, the Japanese young men and women entered into the sport of the occasion, and sang several ancient Japanese songs, and performed some interesting tableaux, which are usually seen only in Japan. Every one was much pleased, and the exercises were of a decidedly educational value as well as being exceedingly interesting.

The Christmas Tree was the Sunday School of the Union Church was held at an early hour on Friday evening. The little people were nerrly all present, and very much enjoyed the occasion. The program was not very long, consisting of songs and recitations, in which all the members of the school did very well. The Coke twins in their part greatly pleased the audience, while the recitation by the five little girls was very pretty indeed.

Santa Claus was not the very noisy kind, and quickly made friends with all the little people as well as the older members of the audience who enjoyed his smiling face. He brought to every member of the Sunday a pretty box of Japanese handcraft. After the presents were all distributed, a committee of ladies of which Mrs. E. E. Battelle was chairman, served ice cream and cookies to all present.

The decorations of the Church were of as decidedly Christmas character and were put up under the able direction of Miss Zelle Rogers and Mrs. O. J. Whitehead, who were a committee of the Women's Aid Society to attend to the decorations for Christmas.

In spite of the threatening weather there was a good audience at the Wailuku Union Church for the Christmas service. In addition to the pretty greens that decorated the Church poinsettia was liberally used, Christmas bells, and carnations. Rev. Mr. Dodge preached upon: "The Sign of the Swaddling Clothes." The Christmas music was very fine and much enjoyed. A chorus rendered: "Hark, What Mean Those Holy Voices?" arranged from Verdi.

Miss Louisa Hart sang the beautiful solo: "In Old Judea" by Adam Geibel.

The offertory was a flute solo "Berceuse" by Mr. C. E. Copeland, and was much enjoyed. Mr. Geo. B. Schrader accompanied Miss Mary Hoffman in all her work on the organ. His playing was excellent. Miss Hoffman always plays well, but she was at her best in leading the congregation in the fine Christmas hymns which were sung on this occasion. The special offering of the evening went to the Hawaiian Board of Missions, and it was a generous one.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 1, 1910

Higher education has made a tremendous advance in New York. One of its new high schools, that is, is to be eight stories high.

One of the strong recommendations of Judge Lorton for a seat on the supreme bench is that he has made good use of his opportunities.

Former President Roosevelt is now expected to return in June, which will be pleasant news for the crowds intending to go down the bay.

New York after all seems to be the headquarters of the uplift. Something like 800,000 people are hoisted daily in the elevators of that city.

Mr. Rockefeller said the other day that he was no longer engaged in activities, and yet he has taken to riding a motorcycle.

Buckland A Candidate

Said to be After Babbitts Job.

One strong candidate for the position of superintendent of public instruction which will be vacated by the incumbent, W. H. Babbitt, the last day of this year is said to be C. R. Buckland, editor of the Hilo Herald. Mr. Buckland arrived in town by the Mauna Kea last Saturday, and although he has made no statement as to the purpose of his visit, it is known that he is in a receptive mood in regard to the superintendency.

Mr. Buckland is not a stranger to official life. About three years ago he held the position of chief clerk of the Territory.

There is much detail work and statistical work connected with the position of superintendent of public instruction—and Mr. Buckland fairly gloats in statistics and details. It is said of him that he can get more joy out of a column of tables and statistics than a small boy can out of a little red wagon, and he would rather read a patent office report than the latest best seller.

Mr. Buckland has been offered by Census Director Clark the post of supervisor of enumerating for the windward side of the Island of Hawaii. He has not yet accepted, but Doctor Clark states that he hopes Mr. Buckland will consent to serve. Buckland recently refused the census superintendency of the whole island on the ground that he could not afford to spare the time from his newspaper.

Should Buckland land Babbitt's job, it is understood that Wallace R. Farrington will be a candidate to succeed to the editorship of the Hawaii Herald.—Advertiser.

Bryan's Mantle May Fall on Harmon.

Washington, December 14.—Well-defined and well-supported plans have just been made in Washington to start the campaign of Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio for the Democratic nomination for President of the United States. His cause is to be made the cause of the conservative Democracy of the South.

Conservative Democrats elsewhere than in the South have been turning their eyes toward Harmon with more and more interest ever since the death of Governor Johnson of Minnesota. Northern Democrats of conservative tendencies did not know to what extent the Ohioan would appeal to the South. Following conferences in Washington, which have just ended, the Democrats north of the line are soon to have a definite answer.

The Ohio Governor has just left Washington. His visit here was supposed to be one of entertainment only, but without making public proclamation of the fact, he managed to learn that there is a strong Democratic element in Congress, composed of conservative Southern members, who believe that he is the one man who can win.

When the Governor was told lightly by a newspaper man that he was the logical candidate for the nomination "now that Johnson is dead and Bryan a 'dead one,'" he did not seem to think that it required any comment beyond a smile.

Governor Harmon was urged to undertake a journey through the Southern States to make himself known to the people and the Governor, it is said on sufficient authority, consented.

Parasites of Hornfly Busy

Carabid Beetle is Successfully Eliminating Pests.

Steps are being taken to import parasites of the hornfly, and material containing several species have been received by E. M. Ehrhorn, superintendent of entomology of the board of agriculture, who in cooperation with O. H. Swezey of the H. S. P. A., is doing all he can to get the parasites established. In his last report to the board. Mr. Ehrhorn says:

"We received four shipments of hornfly parasites from Mr. Koebeler, three of these containing the same species which arrived last month, and all were turned over to Mr. O. H. Swezey. I am pleased to be able to report that three large colonies of home-reared parasites (Alysids) have been liberated on favorably-located dairies. The last shipment from Mr. Koebeler contained a good colony of Aphodius finitarius, a carabid beetle which may be considered a good factor in preventing maggots of the hornfly and other stable flies from propagating in manure, owing to the beetle's habit of feeding on the fresh dung and disturbing the droppings in such a manner, by its own work and that of its larvae, to cause the quick drying up of these, thus reducing the breeding places of the flies materially. We shall soon be able to liberate these beetles at higher elevations as recommended by Mr. Koebeler."

Since the above report was submitted, the last sending of beetles has been liberated on the Island of Hawaii.

Pinchot's New Rule For Public Officials.

In a speech in regard to the forest service, Gifford Pinchot, in stating his own position, laid down a rule for all public officials, state and federal. He said:

"I hold it to be the first duty of a public officer to obey the law. But I hold it to be his second duty, and a close second, to do everything the law will let him do for the public good, and not merely what the law directs or compels him to do."

Here we have in terse, clear, and comprehensive language a statement which may well serve as a chart not only for public officers, but for every one in all the relations of life, says the Chicago Tribune. Mr. Pinchot is himself an illustration of the benefit of his doctrine. He might, as chief forester, have administered the law as it was originally, in a perfunctory fashion, keeping strictly within its requirements and accounting for every penny given him to spend, and nothing more. With a generous zeal for the public good he has not only done all the law would let him do, but he has stirred up the country to a realization of the fact that its most valuable resources, indispensable to its future life and prosperity, were being carelessly wasted, and he has been instrumental in already changing such conditions for the better.

Under one theory of duty he would have remained an ordinary, irreproachable bureau officer, a mere spoke in the wheel of every day perfunctory performance of official routine.

Maxim Gorky Is Expelled

Russian Democratic Party Ousts Former Leader.

It will be a sad blow to parlor socialists and those of the morally untrammelled in affairs of the heart to learn that Maxim Gorky has committed the unforgivable crime of taking life easy on the Island of Capri, while his fellow members of the Russian Democratic party are still musing their hair and protesting against fate, says the Kansas City Journal. So grave has been the offense of the ultraliberalist that he has been expelled from the Russian socialists' organization, and a committee is now on its way to Capri to inform him of this disgrace. When the committee finally reaches the socialistic sybarite who is lolling out his days with his soul mate by the limpid waters of the Neapolitan bay, something is likely to happen.

Gorky is one of the jests of history. Posing as a prophet, novelist, revolutionist and general dissenter from moral, social and political conventions, this low-browed Russian intellectual has had a remarkable career. Nearly three years ago he arrived upon our shores accompanied by a "Mrs." Gorky, and thousands of revolutionists against one thing or another met him at the pier. These nondescripts opened wide their arms. The welcome was most auspicious, for Gorky was to go on a lecture tour of the United States, and in addition to the substantial monetary reward that was looked for it was expected that considerable helpful sentiment would be built up for the Cause. True, the American people had only a vague idea of what the Cause was, but, in the opinion of the Gorkytes, Americans were queer people, anyway, with the most absurd ideas of morals and all that sort of thing.

When it developed that the woman consort was Mme. Andreieva, an adventurous actress, there was a mighty storm of disapproval among the decent people of New York. Gorky was billed to start his tour in Boston, but a great horror had taken possession of the staid and respectable New England capital. In vain did Gorky issue statements of denial and tear his hair. What sort of people were these vulgar Americans who refused to bow before the great Gorky and take up Mme. Andreieva? "Go to the d'yavol," cried the impassioned Russian, and he returned to Europe utterly disgusted with America and the heathen in it.

But Gorky was not to join his fellow socialists in Russia. Instead he repaired to Capri, and ever since he has been living in luxurious retirement. No wonder the socialists of Russia resent his recantation. By Jupiter, the fellow must be brought to his senses!—Advertiser.

New Horses will Come for the Fourth.

It looks as if there would be quite an influx of new horse-racing blood into the Islands next year, in readiness for the big purses expected to be offered by the executive of the Maui Fourth of July race meeting.

A well-known horseman has arranged to have something fast sent down here from the Hambletonian Stables new racing a formidable string in San Francisco.

Sam Parker will, it is said, have a speedy colt for the Maui meeting, and one which was one of the best of his age in California last year.

John O'Rourke will rely on his good mare Banonica and his horse St. Avon, one of the most consistent horses now taking part in the races at Emeryville.

All in all it looks as if the winners at the Maui meeting would take a lot of picking. Star.

Secretary Ballinger will be Investigated.

Washington, December 21.—Yielding to the insistent demands of Ballinger, and the pressure of his critics, the President has ordered an investigation of the conduct of the secretary since he took office. At a meeting of the cabinet, to be held immediately, the form which the investigation shall take will be decided upon. President Taft yesterday announced his intention to call the investigation.

Radical Immigration Bill is Introduced.

Washington, December 7.—Representative Hayes of California will introduce a comprehensive immigration bill, of which the exclusion of Asiatic laborers is a feature. This latter purpose is achieved by forbidding the entry of laborers who can not read some European language. Hebrew and Yiddish, it is stated, are to be regarded as European languages.

The bill provides that all unnaturalized aliens shall undergo registration as is done with the Chinese at present, proposes to stop the immigration of girls under twenty years who are not accompanied by at least one parent, raises the head tax from $4 to $10, and requires every adult immigrant to have $25 on landing. Any alien convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, or for which the penitentiary term is one year or more, shall be deported to the country whence he came.

Secretary Ballinger practically issued an ultimatum, informing the President that an official investigation of the charges against him must be made or he would resign from office. He declared that his position had become intolerable and that it would be impossible for him to remain longer in the cabinet unless official cognizance were taken of the charges made against him, and the affair sifted to the bottom.

Nymanover Makes Good As a Piano Tuner.

A nice little story is told of Evert Nymanover, the Minneapolis piano tuner, who was here last week, tuning pianos and organs.

While in Wailuku he was put to a severe test in tuning the Town Hall piano. Mr. Schrader, the bandmaster, wanted the instrument pitched to correspond exactly to the E-flat-cornet of a recent up-to-date make, which meant a radical change in the pitch and unison of the piano.

However, the tuner turned the trick, pocket his $10.00, and left for the McGregors landing, to take the first boat for Honolulu. Mr. Nymanover, who by the way is a very fine workman in his profession, came here lately, direct from Australia. He was here last Spring on a short call, but left their for the Antipode. He is now contemplating a trip to Alaska in the Early Spring.

The Maui News is fortunate in having received the promise of contributions from Evert Nymanover's

Organizing Census Work

Dr. Clark Makes a Number of Appointments.

Dr. Clark, the director of the census for Hawaii, is rapidly getting his office organized and his plans for the taking of the census, and part of the actual work of finding out who and what are in Hawaii will probably begin some time in January, depending upon whether or not the schedules arrive from Washington next month.

Dr. Clark states that the first work to be done will be the taking of the agricultural census. The work of enumerating the inhabitants of the Territory will probably not start before the middle of April.

Ex-Senator A. N. Hayselden has been offered the position of supervising field agent for the Lahaina district and H. M. Coke for the Wailuku district. Both have signified their willingness to accept.

The agent to have charge of the agricultural census on Maui has not been announced.

W. M. McQuade has been appointed to have charge of the agricultural census of the island of Hawaii. C. S. Dole of Lihue, in addition to the work of enumeration, will also have charge of the agricultural census of Kauai. Dr. Clark states that he hopes to have the census of agricultural manufactures started soon after January 1.

C. R. Buckland, editor of the Hilo Herald, has been tendered the position of superintendent of enumeration for the windward side of the Big Island. He has not yet signified whether or not he will accept, but Dr. Clark says he hopes that Buckland will take the job. Mr. Buckland refused to take the supervision of the whole island, on the ground that he could not spare the time from his newspaper work.

The director has offered to Palmer Woods the position of superintendent of enumeration for the districts of North and South Kohala.

One difficult problem that Doctor Clark has encountered is that of getting a number of citizens of Oriental descent, who can speak, read and write both English and the Oriental languages, to assist in the census work. It is not so hard to get Chinese, but considerable difficulty is being encountered in obtaining orientals who can handle both English and Japanese. One Korean is also needed.

Those who go into the census work must not meddle with politics. They may neither belong to political clubs nor engage in any political work during the time they are employed in the census. This is a rule of the department to which President Taft has called special attention and which he declares must be rigidly enforced.

An impromptu musicale is always possible when you have an INNER-PLAYER Piano.

Use it alone or to accompany other instruments. It is ready whenever you are.

When we say "INNER-PLAYER Piano", we do not mean any ordinary player piano. We refer to those made by The Cable Company—the only ones to which this title INNER-PLAYER properly applies.

These instruments have many special, patented features which you do not find in any other pianos containing player devices. And it is these features which enable you to play any composition with the human expression obtained when a skilled pianist plays by hand.

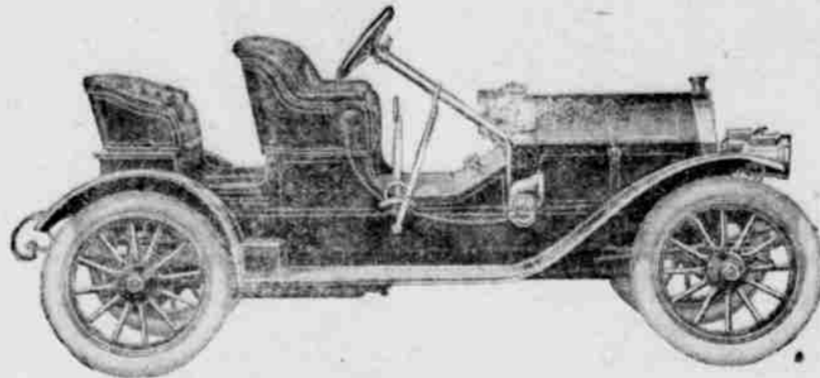

All you have to do with an INNER-PLAYER Piano is to operate the pedals and move three little levers. It is simplicity itself and yet you produce the most pleasing effects.

Call and we will place an INNER-PLAYER Piano at your disposal. You can then see for yourself how easy it is to play your favorite selections on one of these instruments.
