TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The Boer war is nearing its end. The last resource of Kruger seems to be the ordering of praying, fasting and confessing for three days. It is a new method of warfare and we hardly believe it will prove effective. The Lord has evidently made up his mind that the Boer cause is not just and Kruger must feel the same way or he wouldn't have had a special train waiting for him day and night, his private lands transferred to friends and his gold shipped to Holland.

Mr. S. B. Dole states to the Advertiser that he was always a Republican although he has hardly ever given the matter a thought. Friends of Mr. Dole who have lived here as long as he has have always been under the impression that his sympathies were with the doctrines of Democracy. It is fortunate that Mr. Dole's statement to the Advertiser is not "under oath." If it were we would have good reason to disbelieve the former Supreme Judge of the Monarchy of Hawaii.

If we had a lunacy commission here we would call its special attention to the erratic action of the Board of Health in regard to the City of Peking. The steamer was docked, the passengers were landed, the newspapers, which came as freight, were sent to the news stores, but the mail was sent to Quarantine Island to be fumigated for 12 hours, to the inconvenience of all who desired to answer their latest letters by the China. Are mail bags a special good place for the development of bubonic plague bacilli? If so, let Dr. Wood prohibit letter writing.

It is generally understood that Governor Dole will order a special election immediately upon his assuming the governorship. The election is to take place, we are told, forty days after the order, and the special session will be called in August or early in September. The Hawaiians should guard against a surprise and be prepared to go to the ballot box at any brief notice and there vote for the best man whether he be a Democrat, Republican, Mugwump or any old thing. Let it be understood that the special session may ostensibly be called only to settle the matters connected with the burning of property, but at the same time other matters of great and general interest may be brought up. The planters may do a dickering in regard to importation of Puerto Ricans and other undesirable laborers. A municipal government may be foisted on us, in which the rich will control and other important matters may be dealt with. Don't go to sleep for a moment when the Dole gang is moving.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Ed. THE INDEPENDENT:—

We, the British residents of Kohala, and some of our friends held a very successful ball on the evening of the 24th, to celebrate the 81st anniversary of our Queen's birthday. A gratifying feature of the affair was the whole hearted sympathy expressed in word and deed by the majority of the district, regardless of nationality, and the dance was attended by everybody who was anybody, with the exception of a few who were detained by recent illness or absence from the district. The arrangements for the comfort and enjoyment of the guests were universally admitted to have been as near perfection as possible, and the general verdict was that the entertainment was the best ever held in the district. After paying all expenses a surplus of one hundred dollars remains, which it is proposed to devote towards the "Absentminded Beggar Fund." KOHALAITE.
Hawi, Kohala, Hawaii, May 29, 1900

Race Withdrawn.

HONOLULU, June 5, 1900.

Mr. D. P. Isenberg, Secretary Hawaiian Jockey Club.

Dear Sir:—It is with deepest regret on our part that we are compelled to ask you to withdraw the special race from your program on the 11th of June.

Our reason for doing this is that Mr. George Carter's horse is suffering from a blistered leg, and will not be in condition to race at such an early date.

The blister has been applied by some unknown person. Mr. Carter and also his coachmen having no knowledge as to how or when the blister was applied.

Thanking you for your courtesies extended to us, and appreciating the kindly feeling which exists between the members of the Jockey Club and ourselves, we remain, very truly yours.

A. E. NICHOLS,
J. A. GILMAN,
SAMUEL G. WILDER,
GEORGE R. CARTER.

The Queen Returns.

Queen Liliuokalani and suite arrived last evening by the City of Peking after a prolonged stay in Washington. It had been given out that the Queen would return by the Australia, but Her Majesty, wishing no demonstration upon her arrival, took the Pacific Mail boat. She was met at the dock by Prince David and drove immediately to Washington Place, where Mr. J. O. Carter received her. The Queen appeared to be in good health and was in excellent spirit. After conversing with friends who greeted her at her home she retired for rest. She is accompanied by her physician, Dr. English, an expert in the disease of cancer.

Aloha Nui Oe, Wilikoki.

We welcome Mr. Robert W. Wilcox upon his return to his native hearth. He has done good work for the islands while in Washington and forever more endeared himself to the Hawaiians, who hailed his arrival with a hearty Aloha Nui.

Entries Will Be Closed.

All entries for the races to take place on June 9 and 11 will be closed to-morrow and should be left with A. B. Serimgeour at his office, corner of Fort and King streets, formerly Olsholm's harness shop.

For the Primaries.

The Merchant's Exchange laid in a fine stock of necessary material for the holding of the primaries, and conventions. Try the superfine liquors kept on hand for the consumption of customers and you will come out a winner. No charges to those who belong to the right party.

Colonel Will E. Fisher is now the lightning auctioneer of Honolulu and his flag is seen daily in places where his smooth tongue induces people to bid for goods they don't want and paying prices far above par. "But," says the genial colonel with a twinkle in his eye, "that is why I am here." "Little Will" is an auctioneer par excellence.

Don't fail to ring up Telephone 444, American Messenger Service, if you have any messages or packages to deliver.

When you want a hack ring up 191. On that stand you will get a reliable and good driver, a fine hack, and no overcharging.

T. Cavanaugh, a Hawaiian known as "blind Tom" died suddenly last evening at his residence on Queen street. The deceased for several years was in charge of the telephone of different back companies, and was known by many people. He was a native of Kainaliu, Kona, Hawaii, and was about 55 years of age. He was educated as a boy in the Hilo boarding school by Rev. Dr. Lyman and spoke the English language fluently. The cause of death was failure of the heart.

A Japanese hack driver left his horse untied outside a store on King street this morning while making a call. He also left his coat on the front seat and while he was absent the coat dropped down between the legs of the horse which immediately ran away. Outside the Kawahao Seminary the frantic horse dashed into a buggy driven by an officer of the Custom House and upset it. The occupants were fortunately not injured and the hack was stopped by officer Jim Kona who was riding towards Waikiki. The carriage of the custom officer was damaged and the Japanese will have to foot a bill for repairs besides paying a fine of $10.

"What were you after?" was the first question which greeted Consul General Wm. Haywood, upon his return from Washington, whenever he met one of his hosts of friends. The Consul would smile and answer: "I am after the beautiful climate of the Paradise of the Pacific, the splendid surroundings, and the genial, jovial friends you make here; (present company excepted.) I returned to become an every day ordinary citizen of the Territory and settle down as a practitioner of law in the courts here. Yes; I am a full fledged member of the Bar of the United States and entitled to practice in all courts from the District Court in Honolulu to the Supreme Court in Washington, D. C."

"Of course I could easily have got a 'job,' but I am not a job chaser and as far as Hawaii is concerned it is the wish of the President to fill all positions appointed by him with bona fide residents of the Territory. My family will follow me very shortly, and they are charmed with the prospect of returning to Honolulu, and I am glad to say that we will re-occupy the Macfarlane premises near Punahou, which has been our home for the past years."

"Yes, it is true that Porter-Boyd has been appointed shipping commissioner and I guess everybody here will be glad to see him remain. The appointment of Mr. Stackable to be Collector of Customs is a settled fact and the reports in regard to other appointments are correct as far as I could learn."

"You used to call me a Dickey Bird, in days gone by, and accused me of being a prophet, when I told you Dole was the man for the governorship. I will now retaliate by saying: 'I told you so.'"

A question was then put by THE INDEPENDENT man: "Say, Mr. Haywood, while you are here of course to practice law simply are you going to take a hand in local politics?"

The "last American Consul to Hawaii" smiled, and gave the following lucid answer: "My dear boy, come and take something."

Another Plague Scare.

The City Board of Health has involved San Francisco in another bubonic plague scare, which, from all the facts known, we are able to denounce as equally groundless with that which originated in the same source last March.

This latest alarm began with the case of a Chinese who was under treatment for malarial fever, accompanied, in its acute stage, by swelling of the glands. In that stage his case came under cognizance of some one connected with the Board of Health, and the conclusion was jumped at that he had bubonic plague. The subsequent proceedings followed. Inoculation was decided upon, and the whole Asiatic population of the city has been put under duress to submit to the serum treatment at the hands of all sorts of employes of the Board of Health.
There are vague reports of from two to eight cases of the plague, none located nor identified, and the report of each attended by the information that the victims were also suffering from other diseases previous to the assumed presence of the capital ailment. This treatment of the matter has resulted in a well developed panic outside of San Francisco, causing a distinct embargo upon our commerce and a shadow upon the export trade and the prosperity of the whole State for the entire year.

The time has come for some positive action on the part of the people of this city. We have here scientific physicians, with the caution and modesty which accompany that character. They are not compelled to eke out an income by seeking political position and its emoluments. They have a regard for their own professional reputation and for the welfare of this city.
Their services should be secured to settle at once this highly vital matter. Since the first heedless scare of last March the newspapers here have kept a close watch upon the matter, with able scientific assistance, and have been ready at the appearance of danger to frankly disclose all the facts. They have found no occasion to make any disclosure, further than that the plague is not here. The pathological peculiarities of common disease among Asiatics are not known to American practitioners, except to the few who practice among that race. There are a few physicians of approved scientific standing here who have Asiatics among their clientele, and so far not one of them has given his testimony to the existence of a single case of plague here.

It is a matter of such supreme seriousness to the whole State as to dwarf all other matters. The county organization of physicians has refused to endorse the statement heretofore made that plague is here.
Their action was based upon positive knowledge derived from the professional contacts of members of the society. On top of this comes the admission of the State Board of Health itself that there is no plague here.

The issue now is, how to remove the impression that has been unfortunately propagated abroad, to the immeasurable injury of California and to the probable loss of a whole year's commerce.

The Call desires to go upon record in the most positive manner, upon knowledge obtained through the exertion of all the resources at command of a newspaper, that there has been and is no bubonic plague in San Francisco. But a newspaper cannot alone undo the harm that is being done. There must be immediate action by the mercantile and business classes, to secure the abundant scientific testimony at hand.
There are men here of eminence in the medical world who are known and trusted far abroad. Their action and expression should be secured immediately. And when they have spoken let all official authority be brought into action to purge the city's good name of the harmful stain that has fallen upon it. The State Board of Health has already taken action and has officially notified the State Boards throughout the Union that the plague is not here. This is official action reliable and satisfactory. Let it be followed up by such action as shall secure the co-operation of the Federal authorities in putting an end to the needless and causeless panic which exists at a distance. Here there is no alarm, panic or disturbance in Chinatown or elsewhere.—S. F. Call

THE BOERS AND THE BRITONS.

Fischer Advises Kruger to Surrender.

CAPE TOWN, May 23.—It is reported here that President Kruger has received a communication from Abraham Fischer, one of the Boer delegates now in the United States, advising him to surrender on the best terms obtainable from Lord Roberts. It is also understood that when Lord Roberts crosses the Vaal River he will issue a proclamation announcing that if the burghers return to their farms their property and stock will be respected.

Lord Roberts Has Crossed the Vaal.

LONDON, May 27.—The War Office has received the following from Lord Roberts:

"Vereeniging Sunday, May 27, 1:15 p. m.—We crossed the Vaal this morning and are now encamped on the north bank. The advance troops, which crossed yesterday, were only just in time to save the coal mines on both this and the other side of the river from being destroyed. Our casualties were four.

"Baden-Powell reports that the railway between Mafeking and Bulawayo has been restored and that supplies are being brought into Mafeking. He says the Canadian artillery joined Colonel Plumer from Beira with incredible rapidity.
"Lieutenant Webber was taken prisoner at Heitbron a few days ago.
He went there on telegraph duty.
It was not known that our troops had been temporarily withdrawn."

Kruger Prepares to Fly.

LONDON, May 29.—In a late dispatch to the War Office Lord Roberts says: "H. J. Whigham has just returned to Lourenço Marques from Pretoria, where he went disguised.
He wired that Kruger has all the arrangements made for flight, presumably to Holland. A special train, provisioned, is always ready with steam up. The train waits some distance from Pretoria."
