BLACK PLAGUE AT KOBE

CARMARTHENSHERE HERE WITH FEW IMMIGRANTS.

Extraordinary Measures to Stamp Out the Scourge in Japan—A Hundred Doctors Sent for.

Owing to the outbreak of the black plague in Kobe, Japan, the British steamer Carmarthenshire, which arrived here this morning from Japan, brought only 250 immigrants. About four hundred more, from the Kobe district, were to have taken passage on the Carmarthenshire, but they were not allowed to depart. Another vessel with immigrants is on the way here from Japan, and the quarantine officials here are preparing to make a most strict examination of those on board.

The immigrants on the Carmarthenshire—21 men, 30 women and 4 children—were found to be all right. The authorities at Kobe are taking extraordinary measures to stamp out the terrible scourge. A hundred doctors have been sent for and it is proposed to make a medical examination of the entire population of the city, numbering 200,000. For this purpose the city was divided into sections, to facilitate the work of the small army of physicians. Money has been appropriated and hospitals opened and disinfections are made twice a day at the custom houses. The medical men are strictly enforcing a proclamation prohibiting the importation of rats and the government has issued circulars giving the people directions how to avoid infection. The whole city is to be cleaned as it has not been for many a day.

If the plague spreads in Kobe it is proposed to close the port absolutely against all entries and departures for 60 days. This will absolutely shut Kobe off from communication, except by wire and will be only be done as a last resource.

Yesterday morning the Japanese was found guilty of assault and battery and fined $10 and costs.

CUBAN FILIBUSTER HERE

AMERICAN WHO WENT TO AID OF GOMES.

Sergeant Avant, Fortieth Infantry, Landed Arms and Men and Was Lieutenant Under General Garcia.

There is a veteran of the Cuban rebellion on the transport Indiana bound for the Philippines. He is Sergeant Avant, of Company K, Fortieth Infantry, a man of thirty.

Avant was a lieutenant in the army of General Gomez and was attached to Garcia's division. He was commissioned in 1896 and served until after the Spanish-American war. For bravery and value to the cause he was given a special letter of thanks by his commander at the close of the war. The sergeant is a native of Georgia, where his family is quite wealthy and prominent. Early in 1896 he and a number of his friends organized a filibustering expedition to aid the Cubans. They had difficulty in getting off, but finally sailed from Florida nearly a full company of men, a load of rifles, ammunition and commissary supplies. Correspondence had previously been opened with the Cubans and a landing was effected without difficulty.

The Georgians were all accepted at once into the Cuban army. Avant, on account of his services and his military training, was given a commission at once. Several of the others received commissions later. One of them was connected with Gomez' army at the time of the fall of Santiago.

Avant will try for a commission in the Philippines. After his hard service in Cuba for so long the coming campaign has no terrors for him. Several of the original filibusters spoken of are also now in the United States army.

WHARF RATS FINED.

Five Youthful "Craps" Players Arrested by Kaapa.

Five wharf rats were before the district magistrate this morning on the charge of "shooting craps." All were natives, the boys who dive for nickels in the harbor and gamble with the stevedores. Since the Star a few days ago mentioned the rat nest down there David Kaapa has been on the watch for the bad little fellows. He was rewarded yesterday in this capture.

The smaller boy, a lad of ten, said he was the scout, set out to watch for the police. Three of the others were fined $5 each and the fifth boy was released as he was apparently not playing. Detective Kaapa will keep after the gang and he hopes to break it up eventually.

MRS. HENRY LEAVES.

Mrs. L. M. Henry, wife of the man who is said to have deserted a wife in Peoria, Illinois, after robbing her of $9,000, took passage this morning on the America Maru for San Francisco. The Honolulu wife still has confidence in her husband and declines to think that he has been untrue to her, or has committed any robbery. At last accounts from St. Paul, Minn., Henry had disappeared and the police were not able to find him.

NOTARIES AND LICENSES.

At the Cabinet meeting yesterday, David A. Dowsett was appointed a notary public for the district of Honolulu.

Action of Friday in granting a light wine and beer license to Okuba at Hualaloa was reconsidered and deferred.

FOR COMING CHRISTMAS

BIG PREPARATIONS OF ONE CITY FIRM.

Will be in Partnership With Customers in the Gift Business—Assortment of Goods.

W. W. Dimond & Company have inaugurated a departure that will be of vast interest and assistance to purchasers of Christmas gifts this season. The firm has arranged to pack any article in the most appropriate style, to enclose the purchaser's card and deliver the present on Christmas Eve or at such other time as may be desired. Purchases may therefore be made at any time, the firm doing the rest and the whole matter of delivery being of no annoyance to the sender.

Take, for instance, presents in sterling silver ware. There is an immense show case filled with all kinds of gifts in this line. The firm will engrave anything that may be desired upon the articles. In the packing room the presents are carefully cased and wrapped in a manner that would be quite impossible at one's home. Cards of the sender are placed in the packages and the gifts will be delivered at any special time indicated. In another part of the establishment is a department of plated goods, which are cheaper but are packed and delivered in the same way.

The display of cut glass goods has never been equalled in this city. In the assortment is everything a person can think of. Of crystal and hall lamps there is almost an endless variety. The assortment of table articles, plain, fancy and china, is as complete as can be found in the big stores of New York and Boston. An attractive display of the latest in made in the windows of the establishment. The firm also has on hand for this Christmas a lot of beautiful statuary and art goods, jardiniere, etc.

For the Christmas rush the Company is putting in four "retail price" tables. One table will contain ten cents articles, another a quarter, third, fifty cents and the fourth one dollar. A purchaser has the open tables to pick from and the prices are right before him. This will greatly facilitate selection of presents. The idea is a novelty, and its advantages are plain. Beginning with next Saturday the big store will keep open evenings until Christmas-eve. The finest native musicians of the city have been engaged to play.

DETECTIVE AND PRISONER

PASSENGERS ON THE AMERICA MARU.

A Story of Crime and Romance That Began in New York and Will End There.

After a flight half-way round the world with a pretty young actress ending in his capture by Japanese detectives, A. M. Kent, Jr., was a passenger on the America Maru this morning. In charge of Chief Police F. A. Johnson of Jamestown, New York.

Before he started on his travels Kent forswore to $10,000, giving $5,000 of the money to his fair companion, who was arrested in San Francisco for receiving stolen money. The forgeries and the elopement took place last April, in Jamestown and ever since then the detectives of several colonies have been on the trail of the young couple.

Kent was a member of the firm of Kent & Company, in Jamestown when the young woman who shares his troubles created the place. She was a teacher of singing and an accomplished concert and stage singer. Kent was engaged to marry a young girl in his own town, when the pretty singer von his heart. The result of his transfer to the Pacific was the forging of his uncle's name to two notes for $5,000 each and one for $6,000, and with the money the couple, calling themselves Mr. and Mrs. Manning, started for the Orient via Victoria. After several days on the Grand Hotel at Yokohama, Kent found out that Japanese detectives were on his trail. He sent the fair young singer away to divert suspicion and she was arrested as she walked down the gangplank of the Hongkong Maru at San Francisco. Kent was traced to a hotel in Shoji, Japan, and tried to commit suicide when told that he was wanted. He had a few hundred dollars in his possession. News of the capture was sent to the United States and the chief of police at once started after the man.

Kent was allowed to go on the dock at the Pacific Mail wharf here, but not beyond the wharf. He was dressed in white duck and as the steamer left the wharf he chatted cheerfully with his captors. He is not known to the passengers on board, none of them suspecting that the good-looking young man who sits at table with his companion every day is really under arrest for a grave crime. He will be sent to Jamestown as soon as the vessel arrives.

The young woman in the case has already gone to her Eastern home. Her friends say she is more sinned against than sinning and she declares that she did not know that the money given her by her sweetheart was stolen. When arrested she was on her way to New York, with one dollar in her pocket. When asked how she expected to live she said her voice was enough to live on. With the lonely dollar she purchased the following verse of Sir Edwin Arnold's, clipped from a newspaper: Somewhere there waiteth in this world of ours For one lone soul another lonely soul, Each chasing each through all the lonely hours, And meeting strangely at one sudden goal. Then blend they like green leaves with golden showers. Into one beautiful and perfect whole; And life's long night is ended and the way lies open forward to eternal day.

Received, ex Mohican, handsome line of carriages and phaetons. W. W. Wright.

'DICK' RICHARDS AT HOME

TOURED THE EAST FOR THREE MONTHS.

Visited the Cradle of His Youth and had a Happy Reunion—Did not Run for Congress.

Representative E. E. Richards, of Hilo, is back from a tour of the east. On his trip he had one of these "accommodations," jointed tickets that permitted him to stop anywhere he liked. When he got tired riding he got off and walked awhile. He stopped at every likely town—especially those showing a circus tent in the background.

From San Francisco the Hawaiian went to Salt Lake, to Ogden, then up to Cheyenne and down to Denver. They wouldn't sell Denver at a cheap price so he went to Omaha, Kansas City and thence to his old home at Lawrence, Kansas. After passing the Dakota parallel he shaved off his whiskers and began to look respectable.

The Kansas folks were looking for "Dick" and gave him a rousing welcome. He had not been home in many years, not since he became a capitalist and Hilo's standby in the lower house. A brother, who is a big man in the Southern Pacific Railway Company, secured a vacation and went home. All the family gathered there in a most happy reunion.

Two months were spent in Kansas. Mr. Richards denies in most positive terms that he ran for Congress on the Populist ticket and was defeated. He has not yet decided whether he will sue the Hilo Tribune for one or two million for circulating the story. Mr. Richards heard little of island affairs. He had a date with Senator Harris but missed his man. In Chicago he saw President McKinley. From the Hawaiian he went down South, passed through Texas and came via Los Angeles to San Francisco.

MORE ARMY HORSES HERE.

The Transport Wyfield in Port Again.

The transport Wyfield, with horses and supplies on board, arrived this morning from San Francisco, having left on the evening of the 24th. She lost only one horse on the way. This one died last night, when the vessel was almost in sight of Oahu. There are 129 horses on the vessel and 7000 tons of quartermaster's supplies and forage. The ship is in charge of Lieutenant E. S. West of the 11th Cavalry. Lieutenant West was in Honolulu about a year ago with the Dakota regiment and has seen service in the Philippines. Dr. W. F. James, army surgeon and Dr. W. H. Funston, V. S., are also on board, with ten enlisted men and 15 teamsters.

The transport Indiana, which arrived on Sunday morning is coaling at Riggard wharf and will probably leave tomorrow. The troops on board are under command of Major Craighill and the transport is in charge of Captain Bowyer of the 22nd Infantry. SPANIARDS LEAVE.

PAIA (Maui), December 2.—Haiku Sugar Co. today loses it's seven or eight laborers. The men simply picked up their bed and walked. There has been trouble with them ever since they arrived here. Several Gaileians on the same plantation have also bought their releases, and leave today with the Spaniards for the allurements of the metropolis. The Paia Spaniards are still at work, but it is expected they will follow their countrymen of Hamakua very soon.

EDITOR NOYES HERE.

T. W. Noyes, editor of the Washington Star, was a through passenger by the Nippon Maru for Java, the Philippines and other countries of the far East. He spent Sunday visiting points of interest about Honolulu. Mr. Noyes has become one of the most noted newspaper writers of the United States. He was always a warm friend of Hawaii.

MARRIED OR MURDERED?

WHAT IS STOWAWAY SADIE'S FATE?

Some Who Know Her Say She Was Married in Kansas. Others That She Was Murdered.

Is Sadie White dead or married? Sadie White left San Francisco October 27, 1898 on the transport Indiana with the 20th Kansas volunteers, stowed away in soldiers uniform and with her hair cut short. Three days out it was discovered that she was not an enlisted man. She was given a stateroom and woman's clothes and a guard was placed over her. Private P. J. Moore of Company E. was given twenty days in the guard house and fined $10 for assisting to smuggle her aboard. She was turned over to the police here and was taken care of for two weeks by Captain Harry Evans and wife. Then she secured employment in the family of Mrs. Podmore. She returned to San Francisco by the Australia leaving here September 3, 1899.

The Salinas Union of Salinas Kansas, in its issue of November 7, has an announcement of her marriage at Salinas to Herman W. Schumacher, together with an account of her stow-away experience. In the issue of the next day the Salinas Union publishes an interview with Schumacher in which he says his wife is not the stowaway Sadie White, but that the stowaway was at that time in San Francisco. Early in the morning of November 7 a woman known as Della Brown was murdered in San Francisco at 14 Thel street by a French cook named Paul Debauge, who claims that she robbed him of $10. That very day the Australia arrived in San Francisco and some of her crew identified the body of the Della Brown at the morgue as that of the Sadie White who had gone to San Francisco on the Australia two months before.

Was it the orange wreath or the express that was on Sadie's brow on November 7?

SOME BIRTHDAYS.

Yesterday was the sixty-second birth anniversary of John A. Hassinger, chief clerk of the Interior department. It was also the birthday of the late Minister King. Edward Boyd of the same department, attained his twenty-eighth anniversary yesterday.

JOHNNY HASSINGER.

Johnny Hassinger has been in a critical condition since last Thursday afternoon. It is a regrettable fact that the foolish volleys fired by members of the National Guard from the street cars when returning from the show battle were the cause of the relapse. The young man was conscious at the time the cars were passing the residence and was completely prostrated by the noise, from which he has never recovered.

THE CAKE WALK CONTEST.

Much interest was taken in the prize cake walk last evening at the Orpheum. The large audience present gave hearty encouragement to favorites, but finally decided to give first preference to Miss Lizzie Victor and Wm. Prestige. Miss Dreyfuss and Jackson Heerde gave an exhibition cake walk, which does not compete for the cash prizes. The contest goes on all the week, and there is prospect of many new entries before the week is over.

While the great interest centered in the cake walk contest, the balance of the program was well up to the usual standard. Miss Dreyfuss presented her favorite sketch, "A Private Rehearsal" in an excellent manner, and the other actors all had something new to offer. Wednesday evening concludes the engagement of several favorites.

LOW PRICES FOR SOLDIERS

SUPPLIES SOLD ON AN ARMY TRANSPORT.

The Government Furnishes Eatables
 and Delicacies at Less Than the Rates on Land.

The soldiers or passengers on board
 the army transport Hancock have one advantage over people on land, in the prices of many foods and delicacies,
 which the United States Government supplies to them at cost. By buying in large quantities and selling without any profit at all the Government is able to make out a price list for its men that would astonish people on land. The goods may be purchased by any soldier or sailor on the vessel, a commissary store being open during certain hours every day, to accommodate buyers.

The Hancock had an interesting price list posted in several places, showing the rates at which Captain J. J. Bradley, commissary, was supplying those on board. If merchants on shore had to compete with him they would soon go out of business, but there is a strict rule against selling to anyone but those on the vessel. Following are some of the prices quoted:

Champagne, $1.40 per pint; Appolin-aris, 15 cents per pint; canned apples, apricots, etc., 2 1/2 lbs. tin, 15 and 20 cents;
 sardines, 10 cents per tin; oysters, 10
 cents per tin; Jams and Jellies, 15 cents per jar; Worcestershire sauce, 20 cents
 mixed candy, 35 cents per pound.

In addition to these there are supplies of chocolate, butter, milk, crackers, all sorts of tinned goods, ginger ale, fruits,
 etc. Tobacco is also sold at less prices than it can be obtained on shore and pipes, corncobs for five cents and briars for 15 and 20 cents, are disposed of in large quantities.

ANOTHER RUNAWAY.

There was another bad hack runaway on King street this morning. No one was killed or wounded, but more's the wonder. Passing strange, too, the hack came from the I X L stand, the same one to furnish the dangerous and almost fatal exploit of last week. It was rig 230, driven by a nice American named Ah Hoy. Mr. Ah Hoy left his hack to take care of itself and the same took an automobile pace out King street as far as the Government stables, where the horse was caught by Officer Frank Ferreira.

Pacific Heights

Residence lots on Pacific Heights are now offered for sale.
 No residence property having similar advantages and attractions, as far as healthfulness of location, having an elevation of from 170 to 800 feet, and affording the grandest marine and scenic views, as also its proximity to the business part of the city being less than a mile from the Progress Block, has ever before been presented to the people of Honolulu.

One of the main features of this property, and procured at great expense, is the abundant supply of pure spring water, pronounced by Dr. C. B. Wood as being the purest and best drinking water obtainable in the Island, which is now being conducted into storage reservoirs upon the property by an independent pipe line, and will be supplied to residents at Government rates.

OUR GUARANTEE.—We guarantee to all purchasers of lots on Pacific Heights that we will, within six months, provide rapid transportation to the highest lots on the property, connecting the same with the Honolulu Rapid Transit Co.'s line on Pauoa Road at the beginning of Kaiulani Drive.

TERMS.—One-third cash, 1/3 in one year, 1/3 in two years; interest, six per cent per annum on deferred payments.

MORTUARY REPORT.

This month's mortuary report has one death the cause of which was unknown and yet the report shows that no death occurred "unattended." Is it possible that any Honolulu physician is so ignorant that he cannot tell the cause of death, or are the government physicians unable to hold an autopsy. As neither of these propositions can be true, it follows that the statistics are incorrect because they are incomplete. There have been cases "unattended" and the public ought to be informed how many.

Consumption continues to claim its grim list of victims. This month there were eleven as against nine in October, this brings the total of deaths from this disease during the year up to 110. There has been enough written upon the subject of consumption to call the attention of the authorities to the continued advance of the disease, and the figures are ever before them, but no practical measures have ever been more than dreamed of, and the Hospital for consumptives has passed into the dim vista for the forgotten, or has made a paving stone for that path of good intentions which leads we all know where.

Another thing that it is necessary to call attention to is the statement in the report that ten persons died of "fever." What kind of "fever?" It is stated that five died of typhoid fever, four of malarial fever, two of remittent fever, one of puerperal fever, but what is the mysterious disease "fever." Inquiry shows that the deaths reported under this head have all occurred in one establishment, and that the words in the certificates are "Hawaiian Fever." This is evidently an entirely new form of disease and the Board of Health should investigate it of course there is the alternative that "Hawaiian fever" may be "Malarial fever," but if so it should be so classified.

HAWAIIAN TRADE.

The September summary of Commerce and Finance, which has just been issued, shows how rapidly the trade with Hawaii is increasing. The figures given are for the first nine months of this year. The exports from the United States to Hawaii were $8,250,016. For the same period in 1898 they were $4,578,827; in 1894 they were $2,431,366. The imports into the United States for first nine months of 1899 from Hawaii were $19,496,831; in 1898 they were $14,611,285, while in 1894 they were $8,154,182. Hawaii is ahead of Porto Rico and the Philippines in both exports and imports, though there has been a considerable increase in both over previous years.

The exports from the United States to Porto Rico during the above mentioned period were $2,562,589, while the imports were $3,360,785. It must be remembered that Porto Rico has a population of over 800,000, while a liberal estimate of the population of the Hawaiian Islands is 130,000. As consumers of goods from the mainland the per capita rate for Hawaiians is $63, while the per capita rate of consumption of the Porto Ricans is only $3.

The power of consumption in Hawaii has only commenced. As its population is increased from the Western Continent and not from the Eastern, its demand for goods from the mainland will increase rapidly. From an educational, from a political standpoint, Hawaii towers over Porto Rico. From a commercial standpoint it has the same privilege. From whatever point it may be regarded, this little appendage of the United States in the Mid-Pacific is superior to the possession in the West Indies, so close to her doors.

A CRYING NEED.

"We have again met with a case of destitution and sickness which impels us to implore our fellow citizens to exercise their Christian charity in founding some kind of a home for aged, indigent and infirm persons. It is a perfect mystery to us, why our community, so ready and willing to minister to the necessities of the poor, maintains so obstinate a silence on this crying, and now howling need."

"It is positively cruel to allow such poor creatures as the late James Wright, William Powell and John Norris to languish in their helpless poverty and pain and to throw the care of them on the few benevolent souls in our midst. The other evening John Norris, stricken with paralysis, was taken into the home of a well disposed woman, but when her husband returned home he was highly indignant, and another place had to be found for the poor fellow the next day. What will arouse our community to devise means to provide for these cases?"—Anglican Church Chronicle.

The above extract should go to the hearts of many in this community. It is a subject that has been treated of in many ways. Correspondents have pointed out cases after cases similar to those mentioned in the Anglican Church Chronicle. Money can be raised for all kinds of purposes, for a Merry Christmas for the Molokai Settlement, for soldiers' families in Great Britain, for the improvement of a church, all worthy objects in their way, but for the destitute incurable no effort seems to be made. Something spasmodic is suggested and then the idea dies down.

A correspondent of the Star wrote recently that he was tired of making application to the people of this country for the purpose of a home for incurables, and that he has turned his efforts beyond the ocean, hoping to interest philanthropists abroad, if those at home will not be interested. He is very bitter in his remarks, but one can hardly blame him. He points out that, in many instances, the caring for the destitute incurable devolves upon laboring men who find it hard to provide for their own wants, and he points out further that there is no such thing as a "free" hospital even for those that are curable.

At this season of the year, when so much of a kindly character is done, it is to be hoped that something of a tangible character may be done. Some set of men should head the movement. Why not the clergy and pastors of the city? A movement of this kind should be of no creed and of no race. That the gentlemen referred to are busy with other things is true, but they could spare a little time and they would find many helpers. The Star has the promise of $500 when ever a practical beginning is made.

WILL PART WITH WAIKANE

JONES TO SELL THEIR HOME IN KOOLAU.

Has Been a Profitless Institution for an Estate—Judgment for Plaintiff in Silva vs. Desky Case.

The Jones family have decided to sell Waikane, their country home on the other side of the Pali. This property belonged to Ed. A. and P. C. Jones together, each owning a half. Since the death of the former the property has been kept up by the latter at a cost considerably more than the revenues from it. Mrs. E. A. Jones, as guardian of her children, has decided to turn the estate into cash and P. C. Jones gives his consent to the sale. This morning a petition was filed in the court to this effect and January 2 was set as the day for hearing same. Waikane is one of the most desirable country places on the island. It was there that "Ned" Jones was taken sick and died a little over a year ago.

A foreign jury yesterday afternoon rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiff in the case of M. G. Silva vs. C. S. Desky, damages, awarding the sum of $486. This case grew out on the sale of a piece of land at Hilo for a store site, plaintiff claiming that the property was delivered according to agreement.

Charlotte D. King has filed a bond in the sum of $10,000 as administratrix of the estate of the late Minister James A. King. The Hawaiian Trust & Investment Company, by its president and secretary, signs as surety.

Court officials and a number of attorneys will leave by the Claudine this afternoon for Maui to attend the Circuit term.

At 4:30 yesterday afternoon the November term of the Circuit Court adjourned sine die.

DOUBLE BILL.

"Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Trial by Jury" Tonight.

There will be a double bill presented at the opera house tonight, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Trial by Jury." "Cavalleria Rusticana," as an opera, has been compared to a tragic story by De Maupassant. It might with greater reason be likened to "A Yorkshire Tragedy," that dreadful drama of the Elizabethan period, for in this opera is found an intense, passionate instinct, rather than the faultless art of the Frenchman.

In the opera, as in the short and brutal tragedy, are these elements. Simple means employed by simple characters shake and harrow the listener. Dramatic touches are blows in their directness. The impressive characteristic of the music is its dramatic intensity.

"Trial by Jury" is comic opera pure and simple. The repertoire for next week is: Tuesday, "Boccaccio" by request; Thursday, "La Sornambula," Saturday matinee, "Erminie;" Saturday night, "Trebizonde."

AN AFTERNOON TEA.

Mrs. Harold M. Sewall has issued Thursday next, from 4 to 6, to meet Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Wilson.

Tired Feelings

Due to Climate.

The weather is often very trying.
The blood becomes filled with impuriweakened. One awakens in the morn-

"I go about the country a great deal and my system is run down by the peculiar de-

Only last week we examined the beer
brewed by the Capital Brewing Company of Olympia, Wash., and it is a perfect illustration of the quality of beer which we are always glad to commend, for the analysis showed it to be entirely free from any trace of any injurious substance. Such a high grade of beer is most beneficial in its use, for none of the pure malt and hops have been displaced by harmful ingredients.
Every hygienist will concur with us in saying that a beer of such superior excellence is a very wholesome beverage. Physicians often have occasion to prescribe a pure beer for cases of debilitation, and they can safely order

THE CORONER'S FINDINGS

DECISIONS IN THE LIMA AND PUKELA CASES.

Men on the Claudine Died of Natural Causes Says the Jury—Report of the Surgeons.

A coroner's jury sat yesterday afternoon on the cases of the two natives
who died suddenly on the steamship Claudine last Saturday night while the vessel was on her return to Honolulu.
Charles H. Clark, Ben. Kaapa, John Kuanua, P. K. Kanae, M. L. Kakaula and Kaowaena formed the jury,
with Deputy Marshal Chillingworth as coroner.

Doctors Emerson and Howard submitted a lengthy written report of the autopsies held on the two bodies. It was stated in the case of Lima that the man had been under treatment of Dr. Howard and was advised last Tuesday not to go to sea. Captain Cameron, Chief Officer J. W. McAllister, Waiatua and David Kawelo were called as witnesses.

The verdicts of the jury were substantially the same as the opinions of the physicians who held the autopsies.
Here is the one in the case of Lima,
who died at Lahaina:

"That the said Lima came to his death on the 2nd day of December, 1899,
on board of the steamship Claudine
while said steamship Claudine was lying in the harbor of Lahaina, Island of Maui, of inflammation of the upper part of the ascending and a portion of the transverse colon; and pneumonia of the right lung, and also inflammation of the kidney."

There was more uncertainty about Pukela and more time was given to
it. The surgeons reported in detail on their examination and the causes of death. This is the finding of the jury:

"That the said Pukela came to his death at sea, on board of the steamship Claudine, while said steamship Claudine was on her way from Lahai-na, Maui, to Honolulu, Island of Oahu, on the 3rd day of December, 1899,
of affections of the brain and from the lack of proper nourishment due, unavoidably, to the life he was leading
—that of a sailor."

The jury concluded its work about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

SIX WEEKS AT THE CAPE

THE LOG OF THE COUNTY OF MERIONETH.

Terrible Experience in the Stormy Seas of the South—A Most Remarkable Record.

The log of the British bark County
of Merioneth, which arrived Friday,
contains a remarkable record of successful fighting through storms and danger as ever came into the port of Honolulu. She was six weeks around the Horn, buffeted by hurricanes and squalls days and night.

The heavy weather began on August 31st, as the vessel was approaching the Horn, and from that day until the 1th
of October, when she cleared the dangerous waters of the far southern cape,
she was almost continually full of water and it was work night and day for the officers and men. The following extracts from the log are samples of the terse records made day after day by Mate Jones:

"September 9-7:30 p. m.—Shipped a heavy sea on starboard bow, smashed
the light screen and washed the lamp overboard; also shifted the lifeboat and broke the main rail stanchions on the forecastle head. At 8:30 a terrific squall struck the ship, throwing her main lower topsail sheet. Hauled up the weather side and called all hands to make it fast, and while making the sheet fast another heavy squall struck the ship and carried away the main topmast backstay, also the chain-plate of the fore topmast backstay and the fore lower topsail sheets on both sides.
Hands up on the main lower yard at the time. The fore lower topsail blew away to atoms and carried all the gear
and blocks away and knocked the fore-upper topsail adrift and split the sail.
"September 10.—Squalls coming more frequent and with hurricane force. Sea running very high and dangerous. Ship taking in large seas amidships, washing the breakwater adrift and running the gear off the main rigging and port fore braces; cooking utensils washed overboard out of the galley. Midnight—Ship laboring and straining very heavily and continually full of water fore and aft. Light screen smashed and lamp washed away. At 2 a. m.
cargo was hoard adrift, but no means of opening the hatches. A slide door was opened and the captain and four men went into the hold and found the top tier of galvanized iron adrift. Secured them as well as possible.
The County of Merioneth is in command of Captain J. T. Davis. She saw several other vessels during the storm,
but could speak none of them.
