

ADMIRAL IS NOT BLAMED

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

CRONSTADT, July 10.—Admiral Rojevsky was today acquitted by the court martial of responsibility for the destruction of the Russian fleet by the Japanese fleet in the battle of the Sea of Japan during May of 1905. The officers of the Russian destroyer Bedovi were found guilty, however, of surrendering without warrant to the Japanese, and were condemned to death by the findings of the court.

They will, however, be recommended to the Emperor for mercy, with dismissal from the Russian naval service in disgrace.

Frawley And Drama Coming

THE WELL KNOWN MANAGER TO BRING A FIRST CLASS COMPANY HERE IN OCTOBER.

T. Daniel Frawley, the well known theatrical manager is planning a season of legitimate drama in Honolulu, probably about October. He was booked for the Seattle Opera House, Seattle for a season of eight weeks beginning about the middle of this month.

He has written to friends in Honolulu saying that he has a very strong company, and places his standard very high.

Frawley has given two very successful seasons in the Hawaiian Opera House, and two or three years ago gave a single performance with a company he was taking through to the Orient.

Frawley has always had the best of reputations as a manager. He has brought out a number of artists who afterwards became stars, among them Blanche Bates and Maxine Elliott.

The season of drama under the direction of Frawley ought to be heartily welcomed by Honolulu, as it is quite a while since a company of the calibre he will bring has been here.

HEIAU FOUND THAT WAS BUILT BY KALAKAUA

ERECTED ON THE SLOPES OF DIAMOND HEAD BY KALAKAUA'S FAMOUS SOCIETY HALE NAUA—THE ANCIENT CEREMONIES, OR WHAT WAS CLAIMED TO BE THE ANCIENT CEREMONIES WERE PERFORMED THERE—DISCOVERED BY T. G. THURM.

A heiau built within a quarter of a century, and used in heathenish ceremonies, and almost within sight of Honolulu, is one of the latest "antiquarian" finds.

Thomas G. Thurm learned of the erection of this heiau on the slopes of Diamond Head from one of those who took part in its erection and the ceremonies that took place on it. Last April he made search for it and found it. It is on the slope of Diamond Head towards town, just back and above where the ostrich farm used to be.

It was built by the Hale Naua, the secret organization founded by Kalakaua and about which so much was said at the time, and about which so much has been said since.

The heiau is a small one, and Mr. Thurm was told by the member of the Hale Naua who told him of its existence and location, that it was built for the purpose of explaining to the members of the society the sacerdotal mysteries of the construction and ceremonies of the heiau. The fact of its building and use seems to have remained a secret within the society, until it was disclosed to Mr. Thurm, and he verified his information.

Mr. Thurm has a list of sixty-seven heiaus on this island. Many of them have been entirely destroyed and only their sites are known.

PLANTERS LINE MAY SELL SOME OF THEIR VESSELS

EXPECTED THAT BARK GEORGE CURTIS MAY BE SENT AROUND CAPE HORN AND BE SOLD—NEGOTIATIONS LOOKING TO THE SALE OF THE BARK MOHICAN OR THE BARKENTINE ARCHER HAVE BEEN UNDER WAY FOR SOME TIME PAST.

It is current talk among shipping people that the Planters Line fleet of sailing vessels will be reduced before next season. Negotiations were under way some time ago looking to the sale of either the bark Mohican or the barkentine Archer. Of the two vessels it is more than probable that the Planters Line people would prefer to part with the Mohican as she is an older vessel and is wood while the other is an iron craft. The prospective purchasers were understood to be intending to put the boat in the coasting trade.

Captain Kelley of the bark George Curtis is understood to have given the impression while he was here that his craft might be sold on the Atlantic seaboard. He more than expected to be ordered to proceed around Cape Horn with her to deliver the craft to her new owners.

During the slack sugar season the bark Gerard C. Tobey of the line will probably be put into the lumber trade. She will be put back into the island sugar trade next season.

Committed "Suicide" to Escape Criminal Prosecution

REPORTED SUICIDE OF A JAPANESE AT WAIANAE SOME WEEKS AGO IS NOW REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN NOTHING BUT A RUSE ON HIS PART TO ESCAPE PROSECUTION FOR ILLEGAL FISHING WITH DYNAMITE.

About five weeks ago a report was received from Waianae to the effect that one Yamamoto had committed suicide at that place by going in swimming at night and drowning himself. A recent investigation made by Deputy Sheriff Chris Holt indicates that nothing of the kind occurred and that while the Japanese disappeared it was not because he had given up the ghost. In fact the disappearance was due to his desire to evade the authorities.

Yamamoto is alleged to have gone fishing with dynamite contrary to the law. He suffered one penalty if not of the law of carelessness, for several of his fingers were blown off by the unexpected explosion of the dynamite. Fearing that his violation of the law would be discovered and result in his being arrested, the Japanese disappeared, preferring to have the people at Waianae think that he had been drowned. A number of Japanese, some of whom are thought to have been aware of the truth of the situation, went searching for the body but no trace of the remains other than some clothes on the beach were found.

Holt was subsequently told that the missing man instead of being dead in the sea, was very much alive in the vicinity of Waianae. Holt went after the man several days ago but was unable to locate him. The officer was informed however that the man was living at Waianae and had been there for about five weeks. A warrant for his arrest on the charge of unlawfully fishing with dynamite will probably be served at the first opportunity.

American Quaker Leader of English Suffragist Fight

HANNAH WHITALL SMITH.

The Woman's Suffrage fight in England, which is costing the domestic peace of so many of the Cabinet Ministers whose wives are ardent suffragists, is led by a quiet, sweet-faced American Quaker, Hannah Whitall Smith, who has lived in England many years and has a tremendous influence in the woman's movement. Mrs. Smith will soon celebrate her seventy-fifth birthday. She seldom appears on the public platform, but she is in constant touch with the smallest details of the suffrage cause and few moves in the campaign are made without her advice and sanction.

TUTT WAS TOO CUTE FOR THE OFFICERS

SAILOR GOT AWAY ON THE ANEMONE IN SPITE OF THE FACT YACHT WAS SEARCHED.

The sailor that deserted from the Revenue Cutter Manning got away on the Yacht Anemone in spite of the fact that the yacht was searched by an officer from the government vessel. It is said that the man was up aloft shaking out the topsail when the launch drew near with the officer and the man simply nestled closer in the sail and stayed there.

When the yacht Anemone sailed there were a number of people who saw this sailor bid his shipmates aboard the Manning goodbye. He was on the vessel then and it was his saying goodbye to the sailors aboard of the Manning that allowed the report that he was escaping to come to the ears of one of the officers of the revenue cutter. The officer immediately obtained a launch and started after the yacht and overhauled her just off Diamond Head. He boarded the yacht and made a search but failed to find his man so he returned to port.

And meanwhile the sailor who was endeavoring to get away was wrapped up in the topsail and was not seen at all. Evidently the officer never thought of looking skyward for his man.

Owner Tutt may have been unlucky while he was here but he proved to be too sharp for the government officers.

Jamestown Exposition Would Like Hawaiian Woods.

The following letter has been received by the Governor.

"My Dear Governor: The Jamestown Exposition, which will be held next spring near Norfolk, Virginia, and continue during the summer, is greatly interested in seeing that the Hawaiian Islands have an exhibit at the Exposition. We are especially interested in an exhibit of woods of the variety of woods in the islands.

"I write to express the hope that you may be induced to do what you can with your people in seeing that the products of the islands are properly represented at the Exposition. I have had some talk with your representative here in Congress on the subject.

"Yours very truly,

"H. S. G. TUCKER."

The government has no money with which to prepare an exhibit, and Governor Carter suggests that the opportunity is a good one for anyone who has a wood collection to loan.

THE TRUE VINE AND THE TRUE WINE

MISS PRESCOTT RETURNS TO THE ASSAULT ON CIVIS SECUNDUS—ALCOHOLIC WINE THESIS.

THE VINE.

The expressed juice of the grape becomes wine, we all know, directly it comes to sun and air; and, every hour the fermentation increases.

"There are many climbers but, one vine."

The making of wine is of the most remote antiquity; and, the Vine was in the Garden of Eden—likely the very first plant that grew on this planet; among the first, at all rates. We have no history to dispute or refute this statement.

"I am the true vine and my father is the husbandman." The wine was typical, from the foundation of the world, and "before the morning stars sang together."

The abuse of bread or of wine (drunkenness and gluttony) does not alter the infallibility of our argument, be it said.

All through and through the Bible, and ancient writers following in its wake, it is "the wine and the oil," the wine and the oil, the good gifts of Almighty God, the tokens of prosperity; "Your wine shall not languish etc."

The oil, and its help and blessing to mankind is never disputed; but, wine is not wine; it is, forsooth, something else! What? What is the juice of the grape, if not, bona fide wine? You make us tired with your Latin and your sophistry; and we continue obstinate and unbelieving.

The "poison" that is forever dealt out in Honolulu, has nothing to do, with our article. There is not a gill of "wine," as we understand wine, in any saloon in this Territory not even the cheap, sour wine, like what the soldiers had, at their midday meal, at the foot of the Cross.

Neither is there to be found what can be bought in France, Spain or Italy, for a sou or two.

Civis Secundus, or any, may have "the last word;" we have done.

ANNE M. PRESCOTT.

RETURNING TO COAST.

Seven or eight Molokai families will depart on the Alameda tomorrow for San Francisco. The vessel will take as freight 5,000 bunches of bananas, 400 cases of canned pineapples, 6,000 boxes of fresh pineapples, 10,000 bags of sugar, 2,500 bags of rice and 200 bags of coffee.

Why Should You Insure Your Life

In the
New England Mutual Life Insurance Co.
Of Boston Massachusetts?

BECAUSE it is the OLDEST AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, CHARTERED 1835.

This Company is governed by the famous MASSACHUSETTS NON-FORFEITURE LAW. These laws have been in effect for MORE THAN FORTY YEARS. NO MASSACHUSETTS LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY HAS EVER FAILED, REINSURED, OR AMALGAMATED.

It is a PURELY MUTUAL old-line Company.

There are NO STOCKHOLDERS to absorb any share of the surplus.

The policy is NON-FORFEITABLE after three years; ITS RATES ARE VERY LOW.

DISTRIBUTIONS OF SURPLUS (DIVIDENDS) are made annually and may be used to REDUCE PREMIUM PAYMENTS, or to purchase paid-up additions to the insurance, as you may prefer.

MASSACHUSETTS is the only State that exercises any directive law over the distribution of surplus to policyholders.

The Policies having DEFINITE CASH VALUES ENDORSED on them are MORE VALUABLE, as collateral security, than any other kind issued, as you can get your cash any year after the third you cease to need the protection.

A collateral POLICY LOAN of 90 per cent. of the cash surrender value can be secured at 5 per cent. interest.

Every paid-up policy CONTINUES TO PARTICIPATE in the distributions of surplus, yearly.

It is a policy which PROVIDES for ALL CONTINGENCIES of the future; that is so plain and explicit that any business man can understand its provisions at a glance. There is no FINE PRINT anywhere in a New England Mutual policy.

If you would be more fully informed regarding the latest forms of Life Insurance, send us your name and age and we will send you specimen policy and literature.

We Need a Good Legislature

The fear is expressed in a great many quarters, and by experienced men that the keen contests for county office are likely to have a disastrous effect on the quality of the personnel of the next legislature. In the endeavor to secure office under the counties, it is said that all kinds of political trades with legislative positions as counters, are being made and are likely to be made.

The warning has been sounded early enough to give the honest electorate and the public spirited citizen time and opportunity to make a strong fight against such political means, and to checkmate a great many of them, at least.

There probably never will come a time when the best of material is not needed in the legislature. Certainly that time has not yet come for Hawaii. There are yet too many important questions and matters of legislation to be considered and handled to take any chances with incompetents and grafters.

The next session of the legislature will doubtless be flooded with all kinds of propositions for the amendment of the County Act. The fact that the County Act has worked pretty well, is liable to throw off their guard, many well meaning and generally acute citizens, as to some of the proposed amendments, and open to the argument, that because so many dire perditions regarding the County Act have not come true, that there can be no real objection to anything that may be proposed. In this way, there will doubtless be sought a good many open doors to graft in county government that do not now exist.

One-half of the entire revenue that comes into the treasury is still to be expended under the direction of the legislature, and that means that there ought to be a large number of able, and a still larger number of honest men in the legislature.

It is possible that the Hawaiian refund measure, which failed to pass congress at the session just closed, because of the opposition of Speaker Cannon, may get through at the next session in time to be a matter for consideration and action by the next legislature of this Territory. In that case we ought to have a capable legislature to look after that matter.

But in any event we need a good legislature. There is no reason why we should not have it if every honest citizen who has the interest of the Territory at heart will do his duty. The warning of the danger has been given. Let honest citizens come forward and give notice that nominations for the legislature are not mere trading stock for county offices, but that they are only for honest and capable men and are to be sought and bestowed without regard to the scramble for county offices.

Steamships And Immigration

The cable announces that because of a rate war the fare from Hamburg to New York has been reduced to $2.50. This of course applies to steerage or emigrant rates. But though it is stated that a rate war is responsible for the reduction to this ridiculous figure, the question arises what started the rate war? Was it due to the strong agitation in America in favor of restriction of immigration, or because congress failed to pass these asked for restrictions, passing the subject over to the future by means of the convenient expedient of a commission to investigate and report on the whole subject of immigration?

Is it possible that the steamship companies, seeing the strong sentiment in the United States in favor of restricting immigration and fearing eventual legislation along the lines of this sentiment, are trying to make hay while the sun shines; are booming emigration traffic for all it is worth, scouring the countries tributary to Hamburg as a port of departure, to secure business for their steamers before congress closes the door to much of the class to which it is now open? In this case, has the competition among the steamship lines become so keen that to attract emigrants, rates are reduced to the ridiculous figure mentioned in the cable?

On the other hand, is it possible that the steamship companies were influential enough in congress to secure the postponement of legislation on this subject in order that meanwhile they could prepare themselves for the loss of this class of traffic which would naturally follow from the proposed legislation; and that active booming of the business is their method of preparing for the change?

Is No New Clause

The Advertiser in the course of a news article about the sale of the lease of certain lands to Honokaa Plantation says: "This is a part of the present lands of the plantation, and the new lease is so worded that the government can, at any time that it feels so disposed, set aside the lands, or any part of them, for purposes of settlement, the rentals of the lands to be reduced in proportion to the amount of the lands so taken away from the body of the leasehold. This marks a new departure in the matter of land leases giving the government control of the lands at all times, and making it possible to cancel the lease, or any part of it, at any time that the government may desire."

The statement that there is anything new in this is entirely erroneous. The same clause has been a usual clause in land leases of the kind for several years. It was introduced in leases sold prior to the organization of the Territory. It was a part of the land policy of Governor Dole when the land office was administered by J. F. Brown. There is nothing new in the clause itself; it will be new when lands under a lease containing this clause are taken out of the operation of the lease and opened up for settlers and homesteaders.

The Sweated Industries

The fight against the sweatshops has taken quite a novel turn in England. This is nothing less than a public exhibition of the various kinds and classes of articles made in sweatshops and by sweated labor, together with graphic information concerning the conditions of labor under which the workers in these industries live. According to the English style of nomenclature it was called the "Sweated Industries' Exposition" and was held in London.

In the current number of The Commonwealth some of the dreadful conditions among the poorer workers are pointed out and the lessons driven home with fervid eloquence. There were some instances at the exhibition which showed a grim irony. The toy-maker, the women who fold Bible leaves, the maker of confirmation wreaths, were all there. The confirmation wreaths were made for 3-4d. each, the thick butcher aprons, which were lying on a neighboring stall, were turned out for three-half-pence. Working for eleven hours a day, the apron worker earns 4s. 6d. a week, so that it is small wonder that in home work the children are pressed into service, as are indeed the old and the unfit. Women make 144 match-boxes for 2d., or put together 1,000 paper bags for 6d. The Commonwealth articles deal largely with measures of reform. Consumers' League, preferential dealing, white lists, and the like, are good so far as they go, it says; but the Christian Socialists, who designed the exhibition, having aroused a public sentiment by the exhibition, are now pressing for a bill to amend the factory and workshops' law and increase the governmental powers of inspection. This bill is modelled on the law of Victoria, where wages boards decide by the rates of the market the price to be paid.

The ancient Hawaiians seem to have been a very religious people judging by the number of heiaus Thomas G. Thrum is finding.

The cable doesn't give the speech Taft made in North Carolina, but a very famous speech was once made by a Governor of that state, and it was short enough to cable too.

It might be pleasing exercise to have the address presented to the Molokans when they arrived, read to those of them who depart on the Alameda tomorrow.

That ought to be an interesting gathering at the Nuuanu dam tomorrow, if all who have expressed their assurance that the dam was wrong will go there and tell Expert Kellogg why they think so. It will give an opportunity for P. C. Jones to declare that the dam is not safe by a dam site, and not be profane about it either.

Those Waimea people are likely to think it's a long time between drinks, if they have to wait until this mandamus suit is finished, before they get one.

San Francisco is proposing to pass a law restricting liquor licenses to citizens only and, as stated in The Star some time ago, there is excellent legal authority in support of such a measure here. There is no apparent reason why a law excluding all aliens alike from entering the saloon business will not stand and there is every reason to believe that it would stand.

Since P. C. Jones announced that his grandfather was shingling his house in New Hampshire when the Battle of Bunker Hill was fought, some curiosity has been aroused to know whether he got the job finished or not.

STRANGE BEAST KILLS CHICKENS

THE KAIMUKI PEST IS STILL AT HIS DEADLY WORK AMONG THE CHICKENS OF THAT DISTRICT.

The beast that is raising havoc with the chickens at Kaimuki is continuing his depredations much to the annoyance of the residents of that section of the city.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock when Mrs. Hanna who resides in that section went to feed her chickens, of which she has about 600 she found a large Plymouth Rock Hen with her head bitten off. She wondered at that but last evening some beasts got into the chicken house and killed two chickens and then disappeared. They were killed in similar manner both having their heads bitten off and their blood sucked.

The only clue to the kind of an animal it was in the tracks left which resemble those of a dog.

Mrs. Hanna thought that perhaps the animal was brought here on the Alameda on her last trip and today she came down town to look over the manifest of the Alameda. She thought that perhaps the animal had been brought here by some party on the steamer and had escaped from them.

Those who have examined the tracks left by the beast say that they resemble much those of a racoon. The habits of the beast in sucking the blood of its prey also resembles the racoon.

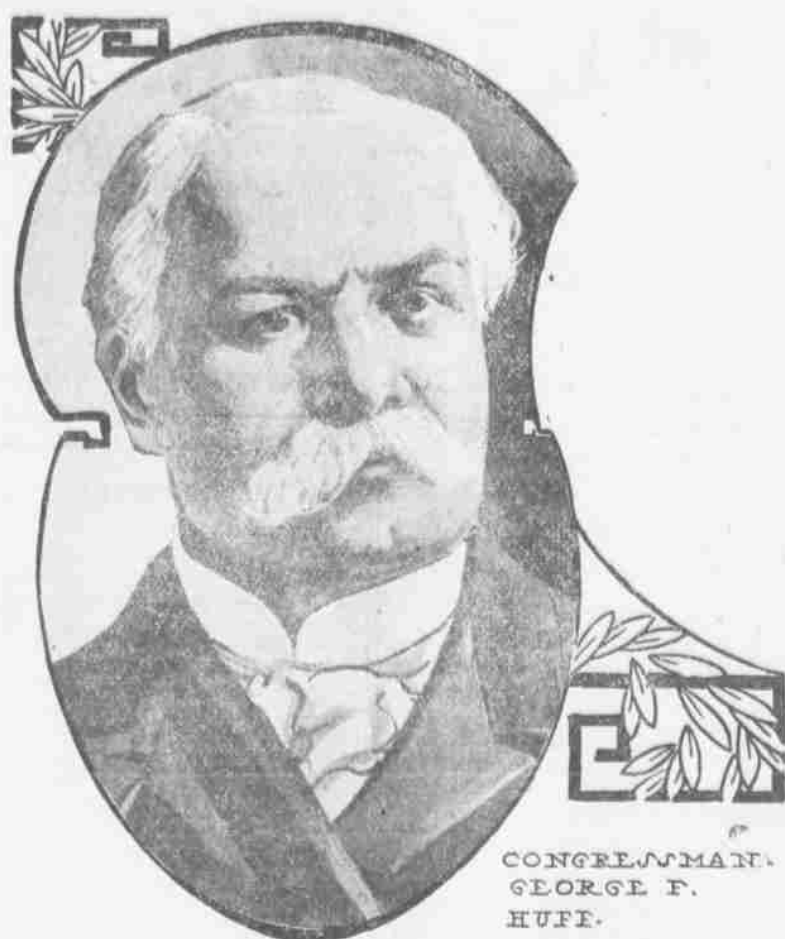

A thorough search is to be made soon for the offender and doubtless he will be repaid for his offences.

Congressman in Coal Scandal

CONGRESSMAN GEORGE F. HUFF.

George Franklin Huff, banker, coal mine owner, capitalist and Congressman of Greensburg, Pa., has been mixed up for a third of a century in the Republican politics of Western Pennsylvania. In January, 1901, when so many of the Republican leaders of the Keystone State were trying to force Matthew S. Quay out of the United States Senate, Huff popped up as a candidate for his seat. He failed to develop any strength.

Huff is President of the Keystone Coal and Coke Company, a large producer of gas and steam coal. He was sought by a process-server last week at his home, being wanted to testify before the Interstate Commerce Commission at Philadelphia concerning his gifts of stock to Pennsylvania Railroad officials, but escaped by way of the cellar and left town.

CLAIMANTS CROWD COURTROOM

UNEXPECTED CROWD OF PERSONS CLAIM TO BE RELATIONS OF THE LATE MRS. MARY KUNIA KEA—A SMALL ESTATE, WITH ATTORNEYS ENOUGH ON HAND TO EAT UP A VERY BIG ONE.

When Judge Robinson's court opened this morning for the settlement of the Kuniaka estate, it took several minutes for the claimants to the pearly sum that comprises all the estate in question to file into court. An estate of some $800 in cash, paid into court, some unimportant holding of real property, and a crowd of claimants that filled nearly every seat in the courtroom, a crowd of all ages and both sexes, white haired old men and women and small children who had no idea what the trouble was all about,—sisters, half sisters, brothers, half brothers, cousins, and aunts, uncles, second and third cousins and more amounts, claimants whose relationship was to be settled by the court through such mysterious lines of legal descent as, for example, that of a daughter of a third wife of a half brother of the deceased,—and with them an impressive gathering of lawyers whose fees could not be paid if the entire estate was devoted to fee-paying alone—this is what Judge Robinson had to tackle.

The estate in question is that of Mrs. Mary L. Kuniaka, for whose administrator George A. Davis appeared in behalf of a petition for a distribution and final settlement. All the accounts have been approved and nothing remains but to distribute the estate. The appearances of many of the claimants who showed up this morning was entirely unexpected, and changed the whole case. The men, women and children who claim to be relatives of the deceased actually filled the courtroom. Davis was heard to remark in an impatient way something about vultures gathering. The various attorneys tried to find out from one another whom they represented, but as the trouble appeared to have broken out very suddenly, several were uncertain.

Douthitt opened the proceedings by asking for a continuance. He said he had just been called in and didn't know his clients' case. McClanahan said he was in much the same box but had to go away and must proceed. Achi seconded the continuance proposition. He said that the evidence in the case would go back about eighty years or so, and that he would have to throw McClanahan's clients out of the case in order to give his own any chance at all. McClanahan said he represented E. Keoki, half brother of the deceased, and Keokana, daughter of the third wife of the said half brother, but Achi intimated that he could prove all the half brothers, and daughters of half brothers, wives, to be frauds.

Judge Robinson allowed McClanahan to go ahead, as far as the introduction of evidence for his own clients was concerned, others to proceed with their cases later. Among the counsel present were Magoon and Lightfoot, S. F. Chillingworth, A. S. Kaukoku, besides Davis, McClanahan, Douthitt and Achi.

MARINES ON ANNUAL TARGET PRACTICE

SOLDIERS OF THE SEA ARE SHOOTING OVER THE KAHAIKI RANGE.

The annual target practice of the marines is now in progress. The practice began yesterday at the Kahaiiki range. The military companies held their annual practice several weeks ago and the marines are now taking their turn. Under command of Lieutenant Bigler the men are being sent out in squads of eight every day. The practice is likely to extend over a period of two weeks.

The first course of shooting is what is known as the marksmen, at a range of 600 yards. Those who qualify with sufficiently high scores can enter the sharpshooters course the range of which is 1,000 yards. Those who qualify high enough can then shoot in the expert rifleman's course which is also over a range of 1,000 yards but under more difficult conditions.

The remainder of the guard that goes to Midway will have to take their annual practice at Midway, as they have to depart for their new post on the U. S. S. Froquois next Saturday so will not have time in which to participate in the shoot now being held at Kahaiiki.

CALIFORNIA IS EXPECTED. The S. S. Californian is due today from San Francisco with three days later mail from the mainland.

MOLOKAI PEOPLE WANT SOME JUSTICE

CLAIM THAT THERE IS NO ONE ON THEIR ISLAND TO ADJUST THEIR DISPUTES.

Complaints are being made that there is no district magistrate on the island of Molokai. For some reason no one has been appointed to succeed the last magistrate and Justice has not only been blindfolded on Molokai but her hands and feet have been tied as well. Numerous fights have occurred and other litigation has sprung up, but as there has been no magistrate on hand to adjust matters, the feuds have dragged along for weeks and weeks.

MOVEMENTS OF SUGAR VESSELS.

The ship Astral left Yokohama for Honolulu July 6. Pending the arrival of the Astral the bark Gerard C. Tohey will have to lie idle in this port. She was to have sailed Saturday for San Francisco but will now probably have to lie here for thirty days. The bark Mohican is scheduled to depart for Hilo as soon as she can get about 200 tons of sugar stiffening. She will load at Hilo for San Francisco.

COTTON BROTHERS LOSE AGAIN

SUPREME COURT GIVES ANOTHER DECISION SUPPORTING TERRITORY'S BIG VERDICT.

Another Cotton Bros. decision,—once more in favor of the Territory,—was handed down by the Supreme Court this morning. It is an empty nominal victory for the defense, but according to the lawyers it practically ends all litigation here, in favor of the Territory, which secured a verdict for $7,600 damages, for the loss of the dredger which the Territory loaned to Cotton Bros. for dredging Pearl Harbor and which was sunk and lost while being towed from Pearl Harbor here.

The case has been the subject of many decisions, by Chief Justice Fraw Associate Justice Wilder and Judge De Bolt, Hartwell being disqualified. It was last heard on a motion of Attorney General Peters to dismiss the defendant's bill of exceptions. The court practically grants the motion in a decision by the chief justice concluding as follows:

"The result is that the exceptions other than that to the verdict cannot be considered, but that, since the exception to the verdict can be considered, the motion to dismiss the bill must be denied, and it is so ordered."

The syllabus says: "A statement in a bill of exceptions that an exception to the verdict was taken at the time of its rendition is sufficient to show that it was taken in the presence of the jury and before its discharge."

"A statement in a bill of exceptions to the effect that various exceptions were taken during the trial as will appear by the transcript, when made, of the stenographer's notes, is insufficient. The exceptions should be set forth in the bill itself."

"A bill of exceptions cannot be amended by inserting additional exceptions in it after the time prescribed by statute for the incorporation of exceptions in a bill and the presentation thereof to the judge."

RESTRICTIONS TO END SATURDAY

SHIPPING WILL BE CONDUCTED AS USUAL AFTER JULY 14 IF CONDITIONS CONTINUE FAVORABLE

The restrictions upon shipping at this port will be terminated at noon on July 14, next Saturday. The health conditions of the port have been steadily improving lately and Dr. Cofer thinks that he will be able to remove all restrictions, if conditions continue as they have for the period of 30 days ending July 14.

KAUAI MANDAMUS

Judge De Bolt after hearing argument this morning denied the motion to quash the writ of mandamus in the matter of the Kauai Wine and Liquor Company's effort to secure a liquor license. The case was argued by Deputy Attorney General Prosser and C. W. Ashford and at the conclusion of the argument the motion was denied. A demurrer was then filed by the Deputy Attorney General, and the case was set for further argument next Friday.

"Grateful Results"

A life of suffering and misery, without sleep, without appetite. Restored to health by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was grievously afflicted with biliousness and liver complaint. My mouth was in a terrible condition every morning, my tongue thickly coated, my breath was offensive."

size, food distressed me, I suffered much from headache, my skin was sallow, and the many remedies recommended me did no good. At last I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and my improvement began almost from the first dose. It relieved the distress about my liver, caused my food to digest well, cured my headache, improved my complexion, and restored my appetite. These unlooked-for but grateful results were accomplished by only two and a half bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.—Mrs. LYDIA M. TARDON, ALBANY, N.Y.

HAWAIIAN BAND IN MONTANA

ANACONDA STANDARD THINKS IT THE BEST EVER AND EXTOLS LEI LEHUA'S SINGING.

The Anaconda Standard has the following concerning Hawaiian and the Hawaiian Band:

The famous Royal Hawaiian band from Honolulu appeared at the Margaret theater yesterday afternoon and evening and gave more real pleasure to the altogether too small audience than any musical organization that has ever at any time visited Anaconda. The music played may be classical, but whether it is or not, it is certainly real music most delightfully rendered.

Every minute of the time is occupied and it is a musical performance that cannot fail to please, because there is a continuous "concert of sweet sounds." Miss Lei Lehua, the Honolulu maiden, completely enthralled the audience at both the afternoon and evening performance, and the male soloists are far away above the best that have been seen in this city this season. Too much in favor of this most excellent musical aggregation cannot be said.

Several Anaconda people will go to Butte to attend the performance, in that city today.

The elaborate printing used for advertising the present tour of the Royal Hawaiian band from Honolulu is causing much pleasing comment in every city in which it is being displayed. Every piece of the printing and advertising matter is embellished with the coat of arms of Hawaii and the flag of that country. The Hawaiians when they first founded a kingdom were at a loss to know what to use for a flag. The American and the English residents were desirous of having something of their own flag predominate. And that wise king Kamehameha, like King Solomon, quickly solved the problem. He took part of the British "Jack" and the "stripes" of Uncle Sam, and then brought forth a flag of Hawaii.

When the islands were annexed to the United States the American eagle and shield were added to the coat of arms, thus showing the ascendancy of the United States. The Royal Hawaiian band, 60 in number and comprising its complete military band, stringed orchestra, choir, banjo, mandolin and guitar clubs, will be seen at the Broadway theater this afternoon and evening and Wednesday afternoon and evening.

RESTORATION PROCLAMATION.

Among the documents examined yesterday by Secretary Lydecker of the Board of Archives is the proclamation issued by Rear Admiral Thomas, of the British navy, restoring the independence of the islands in 1843. The document is in the Capitol.

THE YACHT RACE AS VIEWED IN THE EAST

THE CHICAGO INTER-OCEAN DISCUSSES IT AT CONSIDERABLE LENGTH.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean publishes the following editorially:

Lurline is the winner of the international yacht race from San Pedro Cal, to Honolulu. She arrived at 7:31 o'clock Saturday night, and was declared the winner when the time allowance expired at 11:30 a. m. Sunday without the appearance of La Paloma and Anemone, the other contestants.

The course is slightly over 2,200 miles and Lurline's sailing time was twelve days and five hours. She made 164 miles the first day and 263 the second, and averaged 291 miles. Anemone gave La Paloma twenty-seven hours' time allowance and Lurline eleven hours. Lurline gave La Paloma sixteen hours.

Lurline is the flagship of the South Coast Yacht club. Commodore H. H. Sinclair of Los Angeles is his own skipper and navigator, and knows the game thoroughly. His boat is a schooner seventy-two feet on the water line and eighty-five feet over all.

Commodore Clarence W. Macfarlane's defender La Paloma is flagship of the Hawaii Yacht club. She was built in 1891 in San Francisco and was taken in 1899 to Honolulu, where she has been a frequent winner in ocean races. She is schooner rigged and is forty-nine feet over all.

Anemone, a ketch with auxiliary power, is English built and was launched in 1899. She was imported by the late John Murray Mitchell of Tuxedo, N. Y., who cruised her on the Atlantic Coast under the burgee of the New York Yacht club. Charles L. Tutt of Pasadena is her present owner. San Pedro is her home port, and she carries the burgee of the South Coast Yacht club. She is much the largest of the contestants, being ninety-two feet on the water line and 112 feet over all.

This race came near never being sailed. It was originally scheduled for May 17 from San Francisco. In addition to the upsetting of the plans by the earthquake, the yachts themselves had a series of remarkable adventures. Lurline needed to have her coxswain lengthened and her bottom scrapped. By good luck she went on the ways at San Diego instead of at San Francisco, and thus escaped destruction. La Paloma, limped into the Golden Gate on May 14. She had been twenty-nine days in coming from Honolulu, and had met such heavy weather that she had lost her headgear and had sprung her bow sprit.

Anemone left Sandy Hook December 18, 1905 and was 141 days in making the trip of 16,000 miles around the Horn. In all this time she was reported but once, and she was believed to be lost.

Be this as it may, there is something

MORGAN'S GIFTS OF RELIEF FUNDS

HAWAII'S AGENT TELLS OF DONATIONS AND SENDS LETTERS OF THANKS.

Further reports have been received from J. P. Morgan regarding the disposition of relief funds at San Francisco. His last letter contains the following describing the various enclosures and his work:

"My letter to the Associated Charities of San Francisco donating the sum of $250.

"Letter acknowledging receipt of said donation.

"My letter donating $1000 to the Relief Committee of Physicians of San Francisco.

"Acknowledgment of the receipt of this donation.

"Letter from the Salvation Army acknowledging receipt of $2500, and explaining the work of the Army.

"I am here in Stamford, Connecticut, taking a needed rest and hope to be able to start for Honolulu on July sixth or seventh.

"I have on deposit with Alexander & Baldwin at Oakland $2200 and expect that a collection of $300 from Mrs. McLean has been added to this amount, making a total of $2500. Should your committee not have expended this amount I hope to hear from you and if you decide to leave the expenditure of it to my judgment I shall inquire as to what charities need assistance when I am in San Francisco and shall attend to the matter."

The letter of thanks from Col. French of the Salvation Army has the following:

"This donation, I may say in passing, is all the more appreciated from the fact that we have not as yet been able to obtain any financial aid from the National Relief Committee in San Francisco, and seeing that the Salvation Army is made up of poor people and that we have been carrying on extensive relief work ever since the day of the calamity, it has made it rather trying for us. Ample provisions, however, I should say have been forthcoming, still, as you will readily understand on an occasion like this it calls for the expenditure of considerable money in addition to the distribution of provisions.

"We are still carrying on our relief work, and further than this we are endeavoring to raise a fund to re-establish our work on a permanent basis. In the city, Commander Miss Booth has gotten together several thousand dollars, through the local organizations in the east, which we are endeavoring to use to the best advantage. For instance, we have already erected a large wooden structure, 40x100, which we propose using as a lodging house for working men in the burnt district, reserving also a portion for our executive offices. This building will cost us in the neighborhood of four thousand dollars by the time it is finished. I thought these facts might be interesting to you as also the generous committee which you have the honor to represent.

"Wishing you well in all your undertakings, believe me to be,

"Yours very sincerely,

"GEORGE FRENCH.

"Colonel."

OPERATION AVOIDED EXPERIENCE OF MISS MERKLEY

She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable. How She Escaped It.

When a physician tells a woman suffering with serious feminine trouble that an operation is necessary, the very thought of the knife and the operating table strikes terror to her heart, and our hospitals are full of women coming for just such operations.

Miss Margaret Merkley

There are cases where an operation is the only resource, but when one considers the great number of cases of menacing female troubles cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after physicians have advised operations, no woman should submit to one without first trying the Vegetable Compound and writing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice, which is free.

Miss Margaret Merkley, of 275 Third Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, shooting pains through the pelvic organs, bearing down pains and cramps compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor after making an examination, said I had a female trouble and ulceration and advised an operation. To this I strongly objected and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The ulceration quickly healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared and I am once more strong, vigorous and well."

Female troubles are steadily on the increase among women. If the monthly periods are very painful, or too frequent and excessive—if you have pain or swelling low down in the left side, bearing-down pains, don't neglect yourself; try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I AM NOT AFRAID" ASSERTS ACHI

ACHI STATES POSITIVELY THAT HE WILL RUN FOR DELEGATE TO THE CONVENTION.

"Sure, I am going to run for delegate to the Convention," said W. C. Achi, who is after the nomination for Supervisor-at-Large. "The man who said I was afraid to do so did not know what he was talking about. I am not afraid but I think that the other fellow is."

"I think that my friends will stand by me in the precinct and will send me to the convention. I have some friends and they always do for me what they promise."

The Senator was very indignant this morning when he saw that it was said that he was afraid to run for delegate. "You wait and see, I make them think I am afraid," he repeated several times.

Several of Achi's political friends stated that the campaign to elect Achi a delegate was already started and that his election was an assured fact. They also claim to have his nomination for Supervisor-at-Large well in hand.

DAM EXPERT IS WORKING HARD

DID NOT GO TO DAM TODAY BUT STAYED AT HOME TO LOOK OVER CORRESPONDENCE.

The work of investigating the safety of the Nuanu Dam is going forward without a hitch and H. Clay Kellogg, the expert in charge of the investigations, hopes to finish the work by the first of next week. Today he did not visit the dam but stayed in his room at the Young Hotel and went carefully over the correspondence between the contractor and the engineer in regard to the work. He also gave a little more attention to the plans and specifications of the work.

Tomorrow Mr. Kellogg expects to go to the dam and make further investigations. Tomorrow is the day when all who have any fault finding to do are invited to visit the work and point out any defects in the work they may desire to do to Mr. Kellogg.

Two cross cuts have been made in the dam to determine the character of the structure. It is expected that by tonight the dam will be pumped clear of water so that the foot of the dam may be examined tomorrow.

"We have continued the investigations," said Mr. Kellogg this morning "and if we have good luck we should finish the work by the first of next week."

"As was proposed by Mr. Patterson a shaft is being sunk to determine the safety of the place where the artesian spring is said to be located. That should be completed by Friday at the latest and that vital point settled."

"Today I am busy with the correspondence that has passed between the contractor in charge of the work and the engineer who planned it. I hope by this time to glean some additional matters bearing on the subject."

"Tomorrow I am to meet all who have any defects they wish to point out at the dam and see what I can do in the way of remedying them. I wish to satisfy all that my report will be fair and unbiased."

Yesterday Mr. Kellogg put in a hard day's work at the dam and saw many points of interest about the big structure. Accompanied by C. H. Smith the engineer in charge of the work, he crawled through the big pipe at the bottom of the gulch in order to make a close examination of it. As this pipe makes many turns and twists and is some 550 feet long it was with some relief that the two men crawled out at the far end of the pipe.

Considerable time was also spent yesterday in looking over the pits that had been sunk to show the material of which the dam is built.

Mr. Kellogg does not say anything about the result of his investigations until his final report goes to the Governor.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

A. F. Cooke will speak in the meeting in the hall, corner of King and Nuanu streets tonight. The meeting will commence at 8 o'clock, and everybody is cordially invited.
