Webb Is Sore At Coastwise Trade Law

IS COMPELLED TO GO HOME ON DORIC AND IS COMPELLED TO PAY $200 FINE.

Senator S. H. Piles, and Representatives E. Y. Webb, Charles McGavin, and J. W. Kiefer, members of the Congressional party, arrived here early this morning on the Mauna Loa from Hawaii, where they left the remainder of the party which will return tomorrow on the Kinau.

In the case of Congressman Webb, his trip ahead of the others was a necessity as he is obliged to return to the States as soon as possible, and leaves on the Doric tonight. He will go direct to his home in North Carolina, where his wife is ill, and he has other important business demanding his attention.

Mr. Webb was obliged to agree to forfeit the $200 fine in order to secure passage on the Doric, which is a British boat, and under the American coastwise laws not permitted to carry passengers between American ports. Mr. Webb was compelled to go, and so forced to make the sacrifice, which he did with poor grace. "I don't know whether my position as Representative will enable me to get the $200 refunded," said he, "but I have to go just the same. But it's an outrage, and that's all I can call it. I'm an American all right, but I don't believe in robbing Peter to pay Paul, and inasmuch as the American vessels are not equal to the task of handling the traffic of these islands, they shouldn't be allowed to keep the people here from getting any service they can. The law might be all right in ten years from now, but at the present time it is decidedly one-sided. I'm sure the law could be modified in Congress without trouble if the people here would only get busy and ask for it, but the American shipping interests, I understand, are pretty strong and it's hard to get up an active campaign under such circumstances."

Mrs. Marie K. Ena, the widow of the late John Ena, declines to accept the terms of her husband's will and proposes to reserve and take her dower right in the estate of deceased.

Such notice was given this morning in a document filed with the court clerk by her attorney, A. G. M. Robertson. ## HALF MILLION DOLLAR THIEF SEEN ON DORIC

PURSER THORN REPORTS CON-NECTICUT MAN, WITH PRICE ON HIS HEAD, IN CHINA.

William F. Walker, absconding treasurer of the Savings Bank of New Britain, Connecticut, who got away last February with nearly half a million dollars and for whose arrest a reward of five thousand dollars is offered, was for a time aboard the S. S. Doric while she was in the Orient on this last trip and about the time that suspicion was aroused and a move was made for his arrest he made a quick disappearance at a Chinese port.

Purser Thorn of the Doric when that vessel arrived in this port this afternoon from the Orient stated that Walker had been aboard and that he was the man wanted in Connecticut for the embezzlement of a fortune as treasurer of the Savings Bank of New Britain.

Photographs and a detailed description of Walker were received in this city some time ago and his picture is posted at the Judiciary building and at the police station, with the notice of $5,000 reward for his apprehension.

Not only is $5,000 reward for his arrest offered, but $1,000 is offered for his body if he should be found dead. Pinkerton men are after the absconder and the police of all the world have been notified in regard to his crime.

Chief of Detectives Taylor this afternoon boarded the Doric on matters connected with his bureau and learned from Purser Thorn of the appearance and disappearance of Walker. Walker is supposed to have passed through here early in March.

He is 61 years of age, 5 feet, 7 inches in height, weighs 145 pounds, shallow complexion, gray hair, blue eyes, gray mustache, gray, trimmed Vandike beard and is slightly stopped shouldered.

Jared On Rubber Industry

SAYS CAPITAL TO THE AMOUNT
OF $300,000 HAS BEEN INVESTED IN IT HERE.

Director Jared G. Smith, of the United States Agricultural Experiment Station returned to Honolulu yesterday from Kahului, Maui, where he went to attend a meeting of the rubber growers of that island. The meeting was for the purpose of effecting an organization by which the rubber industry in the Territory, which is just now fairly under way, may be promoted. At the present time there are three large companies on Maui which have gone into the business on a large scale, and each of these was represented.

The organization was effected and the following officers elected: President, D. C. Lindsay; vice-president, H. A. Baldwin; secretary and treasurer, Hugh Howell. Meetings will be held from time to time and all matters affecting the growing of rubber in the Territory will be discussed, and the business carried on for the mutual advantage of all. Inasmuch as the demand for rubber will for a number of years much exceed the supply, it is not likely that there will be any difficulty in getting good prices and ready sale for all that can be grown in the Territory, and the interests of one will be the interests of all who are engaged in the business. The discussions at the first meeting were largely of a general character, relating to the scope of the organization.

Director Smith, who was present to lend such assistance as he could in launching the new association, by way of suggestions, from his experience in similar agricultural organizations, and knowledge of the industry in question, speaks optimistically of the outlook for rubber growing, not only in the limited section in which the present attempts are being made, but throughout the Territory generally. The only thing about it to detract in any way from the bright outlook, is the possibility of over-production, but this will probably not occur, he thinks, inside of ten years, by which time a good deal of money is likely to be realized by the promoters.

Willet And Gray On The Outlook

THEY ENDORSE THE OPINION OF EXPERTS THAT LOW PRICES
NOT LIKELY TO OCCUR SOON.

The following is from the latest current number of Willett & Gray: RAWS.—During the week under review Europe has led the advance, which has been more notable than any rise of recent months. Best sugar rose from 9c. 6d. to 10c. 9d. (parity of 4.12c. for Centrifuagals), and cane sugar rose 6c. 3d., with a very strong market at the close.

Prominent sugar experts in London have recently said that the action of the best sugar market at the time of lowest quotations, 7c. 12d., remaining firm and refusing to decline further although Cuba quotations were forced 4c. per 100 lbs. lower than the best parity, is a good evidence that the trend of values of sugar have completely changed.

When best sugar was at its lowest it stayed there without support or manipulation to put it on the lower basis of Cuba sugar. These experts maintain that the market evidence given is the strongest sort of evidence that such low prices will not be seen again for several years to come. We are inclined to agree with this opinion and to look for extremely prosperous conditions for the whole sugar trade from steadily increasing values from the present basis. Europe takes the lead and is now on a parity of 4.12c. for Centrifuagals sugar 96 test against present spot value of 2.83 per lb.

The highest level reached last year for Centrifuagals sugar in our market was 41-5c. nett. (Sept. 30, 1906), or the present parity of best sugar, but this season promises to exceed this level with Centrifuagals. The Cuba weather crop situation does not improve at all and the closing of the present crop season before the appearance of the rainy season is quite suggestive of poorer crop conditions for the next campaign.

Such remarkable weather conditions as have recently prevailed in Cuba and the United States and Europe are detrimental to all crop interests. Cuba Centrifuagals working are reduced

DELEGATE INTRODUCES ATKINSON AS BEING NEXT GOVERNOR

(Special by Wireless to The Star.)

HILLO, May 24, 11 a. m.—It was great meeting last night. The Business Men's Meeting was held at the Armory, and was presided over by Delegate Kuhio. There was much enthusiasm shown. Kuhio introduced Atkinson as our next Governor. This was greeted with cheers.

The Congressional party sailed by the Kinau at noon today, except a few who left by the Mauna Loa yesterday. Those who left by the Mauna Loa were General J. Warren Kiefer, Congressman C. W. McGavin of Chicago, Senator S. H. Piles and Congressman E. Y. Webb.

Thinks Our Requests Certainly Reasonable

CONGRESSIONAL VISITORS ARE WARM SUPPORTERS OF THINGS
HAWAIIAN.

The four members of the Congressional Party who arrived from Hawaii this morning on the Mauna Loa, in advance of the main body of the party, are enthusiastic with their trip, notwithstanding the fact that they are all about played out from their exertions and loss of sleep.

Those who came this morning are Senator S. H. Piles, of Washington, and Representatives E. Y. Webb, of North Carolina, Charles McGavin, of Illinois and J. Warren Kiefer, of Ohio.

"It was a strenuous old trip, all right," said Congressman Webb. "I think every body who took it lost about 25 pounds in weight as a result. Yesterday we drove 35 miles, and the day before we made 18, and got to bed at 1 a. m. and got up at 3 a. m. This morning we were routed out on the boat about three o'clock and I'm just about dead for sleep."

"But it was a great trip," he continued, and everybody enjoyed it to the utmost, and notwithstanding we are all more or less tired, nobody has suffered any ill effects from the exertion. It was amazing to see the way the ladies of the party stood it. We were travelling all sorts of ways and in all sorts of manner, both night and day. We made the trip to the top of one of those volcanoes starting at 2 o'clock in the morning, and riding horseback, but the women came out as fresh as any of us.

"Yes, this visit to Hawaii has been an unqualified success. It means inestimable value to the Territory and it means a great deal to all of us. Most of us came here with little idea of the place or people, and now we know about both. The general impression was that we were coming to a land half civilized, and without culture. We have been amazed at the climate, the people, the intelligence and industry which has greeted us wherever we went."

"And I guess we went about everywhere," he added. "I think we probably know the Islands better now than half of the people who have spent their whole lives here."

"Our trip means just about 27 members in Congress who will do everything in reason to help the Territory of Hawaii."

"We have tried to see everything in the way of improvements needed in the Territory, and have been pretty conscientious about it too. We have not seen anything that Hawaii is asking for that she should not have, or that is not entirely reasonable. In fact I believe we will all agree that the people here are most modest in their wants, and I know that when Congress is again in session that all of us who have been on this trip will loyally support and work almost anything that will help the Territory. Instead of having one delegate to speak for you, you will have twenty-seven."

"There are some big problems to be solved," said Mr. Webb, "and the land question is not the least of these. I question is not the least of these. I don't think many of us expressed ourselves on the matter very much in speeches made during the trip, but I believe that the sentiment of the delegation is in favor of Americanizing the Territory by means of diversified farming industries, instead of the system of big estates as at present. I am convinced that any legislation looking to this end will have the support of all of us."

Regarding the entertainment on the trip Representative Webb was profuse in his praise. He also took occasion to speak in the highest terms of the service on the various Inter-Island steamboats which the party traveled on, and particularly of the Mauna Loa, on which he said the fare and accommodations were as good as on any boat on which he had ever had occasion to travel.

WASHINGTON ORDERS IMMIGRANT REPORT

INSPECTOR RAYMOND BROWN LOOKS UP S. S. SUVERIC'S PORTUGUESE BUT CANNOT TALK.

United States Immigration Inspector Raymond Brown was recently instructed from Washington to make a tour of investigation on this island to ascertain the conditions of the Portuguese immigrants who arrived here in the S. S. Suveric.

Mr. Brown has made the trip, visiting all Oahu plantations where any of these people are employed. He has sent his report to Washington and is not at liberty to state whether it is satisfactory or unsatisfactory until the report has reached the department and has been made public. He will not authorize the statement that he was pleased with what he found, nor will he authorize any statement indicating the result of the investigation.

OUR NEXT

EDITOR STAR:—If one may judge anything at all from appearances and from actions, then it would seem a positive fact that Governor Carter has always had the most implicit confidence and aloha for his secretary, Mr. Atkinson. Now, as the community of not only Honolulu but entire Hawaii has the very same confidence and aloha for the man, believing that he is faithful to his trusts, honest sympathetic, earnest-minded, frank, a son of the soil; knowing the native as the native knows himself, knowing Hawaii from mountain to sea, knowing every need of the Territory today and what its future needs will be; strong, not too young, not over-confident, a man pre-eminently gifted, as very few are, with a sort of sixth sense—a peculiar faculty or "knack" of reading human nature as found in men and women, and getting along with them, winning their respect and not losing any of his own dignity, at the same time. This is something akin, to the public mind, in thinking of "Jack." But of course there are others.

No stranger, no new face would suit our community, however brilliant or capable, for Governor. It would never work, but would, work harm. We must have an Hawaiian and many declare that "Jack" would suit. But, are you sure that Jack wants to be Governor of this or any other? It may be he would prefer to try "farming" in the future, why don't you ask him?

P. S.—But would not Mr. Atkinson be rather a good man for our "next"? Rather. A. M. P.

The cause of the filling up of the Aorangi at Australian ports is the taking off of the Oceanic boats.

COMMISSION NOW DIVIDED

SOME FAVOR MAKING AN EXCEP-TION TO ORPHEUM SALOON IN
MATTER OF SALOON DISTRICT.

The Liquor License Commission is undecided as to whether social clubs are affected by the new liquor law. There was considerable discussion of this matter at the session of the commission yesterday and finally it was decided to ask Attorney General Peters for an opinion on this subject. Under the former law clubs can supply their members with liquor.

The Commission took up the matter of making exceptions to the granting of license in the districts outside of the saloon limits. Commissioner Campbell, Long and Lucas were disposed to make an exception to the application of Charles Lambert of the Orpheum Saloon. Under the enforcement of the rule previously adopted by the commission, the license of this saloon can not be renewed. It was agreed that Lambert had conducted the place in a very orderly manner and there was a public demand for a saloon in that particular locality.

Campbell thought that the granting of a license to the Orpheum Saloon would shut off an application for a license for a saloon right around the corner on Beretania street. He thought that such a saloon would be more objectionable than would the Orpheum Saloon.

Commissioner Gilman offered a resolution reaffirming the former stand taken by the Commission in respect to the saloon license district and Commissioner Ballentyne favored such a position. Ballentyne said that the Commission would stultify itself if it adopted a policy one day and then shooting holes through it the next. He later expressed himself as being against paying any more attention to the protests of the Kakaako saloonmen whose licenses will probably not be given under the district saloon policy of the Commission.

Lucas and Long declared that their understanding of the saloon district was that it was subject to revision as the commission thought individual cases warranted.

Ballentyne opposed such a position. He said that the law saloon applications would come up later. It seemed to be the general opinion of the Commission that the saloon by the church in that district would have to go. Ballentyne said that the argument for saloons on the score that their removal would cause "blind pigs" to be started was a false alarm.

M. A. Gonsalves, wholesale liquor dealer, appeared before the Commission and spoke in favor of the saloons at Pauoa and on Punchbowl near Lagoon streets. Some strong objections on the part of citizens in the Punchbowl section will, it is said, be made.

The application of the Eagles for a third-class license for their annual picnic celebration on May 27, was referred to Inspector Fennell.

Nineteen new applications for saloon licenses were discussed and ordered advertised. Two new applications from Alea appear.

An expression of approval from the W. C. T. U. of the work of the Commission, was received, also a protest from the W. C. T. U. against saloons being located in the vicinity of the fish market.

PRESENTED WITH BADGE.

Members of the local Aerie of Eagles have presented Sam McKeague, who leaves Honolulu soon for northern California where he goes to try the curative properties of some famous mineral springs for rheumatism, with a beautiful gold and enameled Eagles' badge, made by a local jewelry firm from special design. The pin is set with a diamond and is exceedingly handsome. On the back is engraved the following inscription:

QUEER BITS OF HISTORY.

Although it was Abraham Lincoln in his Gettysburg speech who made famous the phrase, "Government of the people, by the people, for the people," the father of the sentiment was really Daniel Webster, who, thirty years previously, had spoken of "the people's government, made for the people, made by the people and answerable to the people." The next stage in the crystallization of the phrase was in 1850, when another great American, Theodore Parker, alluded to "a government of all the people, by all of the people, for all the people." Then in 1863 Lincoln put the finishing touch and gave democracy its watchword.

Tuberculosis Heads The List

The number of deaths from contagious disease in Honolulu during the first fifteen days of May was 19. Tuberculosis, as usual headed the list, furnishing almost half the entire number, 9 in all. There was one death from diphtheria and two from typhoid fever. People work themselves up into a panic when a few cases of some infrequent contagious disease occurs, but remain unmoved month after month, year after year, though tuberculosis, a preventable disease, carries off more adult lives in the very prime of usefulness, than any other one cause—on the average between a fourth and a fifth of the whole number from all causes.

We condemn the oriental and some nationalities of our own race because they will not reform their customs and methods of living so as to render impossible certain recurring forms of contagious disease, from which, even in our own midst, they are the principal sufferers. At the same time we do nothing, or next to nothing, to reform our customs and methods of living so as to render tuberculosis impossible, when we have every reason to believe that tuberculosis could be banished from civilization within a generation, if we would only do what we know ought to be done.

Old And New World Colleges

In view of the appeal of Lord Curzon, the new Chancellor of the University of Oxford, for a million dollar subscription to enable it in a measure to keep up with the demands of modern educational efficiency, an analysis of British and American conditions is certain to suggest itself. Nature, the well-known English scientific weekly, has already addressed itself to this task, and it points out that British universities and colleges do not show the progress and development of those in America. All the statistics it collects tell the same tale. The contributions to higher education in the United Kingdom during the thirty years from 1871 onward were only one-eighth of the sum contributed in the United States during the same period. The property value and income of institutions of higher education in the United States increased within a lapse of five years 30 and 50 per cent, respectively. The same growth is shown in the statistics of the students attending the universities. In 1899-1900 the total number of students was 87,100, of whom 25,300 were women. In 1903-1904 there were 72,000 men and nearly 31,000 women. A comparison of the teaching staff for the same years shows a similar growth. The figures rose from 14,000 to 18,000. Especially noticeable was the increase of women teachers. The English periodical is especially interested in contrasting the popularity of scientific and humanistic studies. In this respect it notices little change, but it points out that the technological institutions are not counted in these statistics, and on that account the whole survey would have to be modified, but this modification would only make more prominent the lesson of America's educational supremacy.

French And German Trade

The Department of Commerce and Industry has compiled some very interesting figures of the Trade of the United States with Germany and France for the past year. It amounted to about 572 million dollars, and in the year which ends with next month seems likely to reach nearly or quite 700 millions. About three-fifths of this large total trade occurred with Germany and about two-fifths with France. In the trade with Germany, exports to that country are much greater than the imports therefrom, but in the case of France the exports are slightly less than the imports. In the nine months of the present year or which the Bureau of Statistics is able to supply detailed statements, the exports to Germany were 207 million dollars and the imports therefrom 123 millions in value, while in the same period the exports to France were 91 millions and the imports therefrom 99 millions, these figures being in round terms. France is one of the few important commercial countries of the world to which our exports are less than the imports drawn therefrom. In the last ten fiscal years the imports from France have amounted to 783½ million dollars and the exports thereto 783 millions; in the same period imports from Germany amounted to 1,047 millions and the exports thereto 1,826 millions.

The details of the trade with Germany and France in the last fiscal year have been prepared in tabular form by the Bureau of Statistics. Of the 135 million dollars' worth of imports from Germany in the fiscal year 1906, 71½ million dollars' worth was manufactures ready for consumption, 32 millions manufactures for further use in manufacturing, 23 millions crude materials for use in manufacturing, 5 millions foodstuffs partly or wholly manufactured, and a half million dollars worth foodstuffs in a crude condition. Of the exports to Germany, amounting to 232 million dollars in 1906, crude materials for use in manufacturing amounted to 112 million dollars; foodstuffs partly or wholly manufactured, 44 millions; manufactures for further use in manufacturing, 34 millions; manufactures ready for consumption, 22 millions, and foodstuffs in a crude condition, 20 millions. In the trade with France the imports therefrom were 108 million dollars in value, of which 58 million dollars' worth was manufactures ready for consumption, 17 millions crude materials for use in manufacturing, 16½ million manufactures for further use in manufacturing, 12½ millions foodstuffs partly or wholly manufactured, and 2½ millions foodstuffs in a crude condition. Of the exports to France, amounting to 96½ million dollars, 53 million dollars' worth was crude materials for use in manufacturing, 18 millions manufactures for further use in manufacturing, 12 millions manufactures ready for consumption, 7½ millions crude foodstuffs, and 5½ millions foodstuffs partly or wholly manufactured.

The principal articles imported from Germany are chemicals, drugs, and dyes, 19 million dollars, of which nearly 5 million dollars' worth was potash and 4½ millions coal tar colors and dyes; cotton manufactures, 16½ millions, of which knit goods amounted to 6½ millions, and laces, embroideries, etc., 6 millions; iron and steel manufactures, 6 millions; silk manufactures, 6 millions; hides and skins, 5 millions; leather and its manufactures, 5 millions; wool manufactures, nearly 5 millions, and paper, 4½ millions. Of the exports to Germany raw cotton amounted to 101 million dollars; lard, 19½ millions; copper ingots, 17½ millions; corn, 12 millions; mineral oils, 8½ millions; iron and steel manufactures, 7½ millions; oil cake and meal, 4½ mil-

RUBBER OUTLOOK IS PROMISING

The reason for apprehension that the business may be over done, is, as Mr. Smith explains, due to the craze which seems to have overtaken capital all over the world in regard to rubber. "The world has gone rubber mad," Mr. Smith declared in an interview yesterday, "and everybody with money to invest seems to be wanting to get it invested in this industry."

The madness is not without some sound reason, for the decrease in the production of the natural supply of rubber from the wild forests in several parts of the world, and the huge increase in consumption demanded by the increasing use of this indispensable product, particularly in vehicle tires, has forced the price to a point which makes the rubber business, as Mr. Smith puts it, "the greatest agricultural gold mine in the world today."

Regarding the outlook for the industry in Hawaii, Mr. Smith says that there is no question that it will be a success, although up to the present time there has been no output from the big plantations. Some of the companies, however, have trees which should be large enough to bear within the next eighteen months, and many more will follow in rapid order. One of the Maui companies has between 800 and 900 acres set out in rubber trees, which number 300,000. The other companies have also lately added largely to their acreage, and at the present time the investment in rubber in the Territory must represent at least $300,000.

Almost all of the business up to the present time is in the form of big companies, but Mr. Smith states that he sees no reason why it should not be profitably carried on on a small scale by limited capital, and in time, by selection of trees, increase the yield which is now possible per acre. Inasmuch as up to the present time the methods of gathering the product and preparing it for market has been of the simplest and most primitive imaginable, the outlay for plant need be almost nil. The variety of rubber tree which seems best adapted for Hawaii, is old enough for tapping in from four to six years.

The Only Sanitary Wall Coating Made-- Beautiful Alabastine

Do you realize that every material now made for wall decoration, except Alabastine, is insanitary? This is true. Wall-paper and oil-cloth coverings prevent proper circulation of air and actually breed disease in the paste used to fasten them to the wall. As the paste decays, the covering loosens and leaves places for insects to congregate and multiply.

Alabastine is a pure mineral product put up in powdered form in five-pound packages. You can apply it yourself. It is the most economical and lasting wall coating made. And its dainty tints make the home so bright and cheerful. Come in—you'll be interested. See window display.

TOPICS IN BRIEF.

W. T. Stead declares that "surface courtesy is not true chivalry." Hence his careful avoidance of surface courtesy.—Chicago Post.

If Standard Oil really has to pay that $25,000,000 fine, the motto of many a home will be "Turn down the light."—Atlanta Journal.

When Mr. Stead said that church influence for universal peace wasn't worth a row of pins, perhaps he was thinking of the choir.—Detroit Free Press.

One difficulty with Mr. Bryan is that he insists on taking seriously subjects which have hitherto been regarded as belonging exclusively to the domain of magazine articles.—Washington Star.

The prosperity that simply ignores what is called a panic must be the real thing.—St. Louis Globe Democrat. Why doesn't some one suggest that the Federal Irrigation Bureau secure the services of Mr. Harriman?—St. Louis Republic.

The License Commissioners will doubtless find they have no easy job.

PROMISING SUGAR CONDITIONS

to 45, against 82 last week and 174 last year.

A longshoremen's strike, and also a sugar factory strike of uneducated and unskilled laborers, with curtailment of the coming week.

Sales at the close comprise Centrifugals nearly at equal to 3.83c, landed, 96 deg. test, and for late May shipment at 21-20c, c. & f. 95 deg. test, equal to 3.83c, landed, 96 deg. test, and for late May shipment at 21-20c, c. & f. 95 deg. test. Holders are now asking 4c. for Porto Rico Centrifugals and equal to 3.93c. to 3.99c. landed for Cuba, May-June shipment, basis 96 deg. test.

A very considerable business, believed to amount to about 75,000 tons, has been put through within a fortnight or so in Java crop sugars for June-July shipment at 10s. 11-2d., 10s. 3d., 10s. 4-11-2d. and up to 10s. 6d., equal to 3.94c. to 4.02c. per lb. duty paid, 96 deg. test. The Java holders, by maintaining a firm position throughout the depressed period, are now able to make sales on their own terms, the requirements for consumption late in the year showing necessity of importations of full duty-paying cane or beet sugars to a larger extent than anticipated.

REFINED.—The market for refined sugar opened quiet at unchanged quotations, but became firmer as the position of raws increased in strength. Toward the close when it became evident that refiners would be obliged to pay much higher prices in order to secure further supplies of raws, a general advance of 10 points was made in refined, to the basis of granulated at 4.80c., less 1 per cent. cash by the American, Howell and Arbuckle, and 4.75c., less 1 per cent. by the Federal refinery.

But little chance was given buyers to contract for sugars at the old figures and the advance is now firmly maintained by all the refiners.

Withdrawals are received in very satisfactory volume.

The strikes of longshoremen prevent or delay the deliveries of raws to the refineries and the labor troubles in the sugar houses will reduce the production for the present at least, but refiners will do their utmost to effect shipments as called for against contracts.

The Havemeyers & Elder plant of the American Sugar Refining Co. have just closed until strike matters adjust themselves, meanwhile certain repairs will be made. At this writing no other refinery has actually shut down, but the operation of all are more or less effected by the labor situation.

Captain Ingalls, who came here for that purpose will go up in command of the Eleu.

The Eleu has been put in first class condition and is not expected to give any trouble on the way up. She is completely manned so that she can care for herself in the event of the Rosecrans losing her tow in rough weather.

NEXT SATURDAY.
There is to be another grand time at Halolwa next Saturday night. The second of the moonlight dances will take place and the best music obtainable will be on hand for Saturday and Sunday. The last affair of this kind was so satisfactory to our guests and to us that it will be a pleasure to repeat it. Summer rates are now in force and this will be a good time to engage accommodations. St. Clair Biddood, manager.

The Strength of a Surety Company lies in its Surplus. This Company's Surplus amounts to $2,836,381.39. Whenever the Surplus of a Surety Company is exhausted the Stockholders must be assessed or the Capital reduced and a portion carried to Surplus, or the Company must be liquidated. It is the duty of the Public Officers, when approving Bonds for Fiduciaries, Public Officers or Contractors for Public Work, to take note of the Surplus of a Surety Company, in order to ascertain whether the Company could pay any claim that might be made against it under the bond. Bank Officers and Managers of Corporations should observe this rule in approving surety bonds. Departments of the United States Government have recently issued orders limiting the qualifying power of a Surety Company to 10% of its Capital and Surplus on the penalty of any bond. The Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland ends the sixteenth year of its existence in a stronger and better condition than it has ever been since its organization.

BIG PREPARATIONS FOR TRANS-PACIFIC RACE

MUCH INTEREST ON COAST IN NEXT YEAR'S EVENT—NOT LESS THAN DOZEN STARTERS.

That the great Trans-Pacific Yacht race of 1908 will be the biggest sporting event in the history of yachting in the Pacific, or even in the world, would seem to be assured from the preparations which are making on the coast. That interest is not lacking is evidenced by the following article reprinted from the pink sheet section of the Los Angeles Times for May 12:

The trans-Pacific yacht race from San Pedro to Honolulu promises to be a splendid event, with a large number of entries. The San Francisco yachtsmen will be represented. The Victoria yachtsmen will enter her yachts. The whole Pacific coast will be interested, from Victoria to San Diego, for they will all be eager to have their favorites bring home the coveted trophy.

The yachts in the 1908 trans-Pacific race likely will be:

One from Victoria, the Maple Leaf; three from Seattle, the Bonita, and new schooner and yawl building; three from San Francisco—Jessie, Nixie, Hanley (schooner); two from San Pedro Anemone and Lurline; one from Catalina, a new schooner for Catalina Yacht Club; one from San Diego—the new ketch for Mr. Dorr; and one from Hawaii—the Kamehameha.

This makes an even dozen. There are many more boats on the coast capable of making the trip, but they are not counted on. For instance, the yawl Ariadne might come from Victoria. Seattle has the Transmontana, formerly one of the San Francisco Bay yachts. San Francisco has the Lady Ada and there is Story's new schooner Chipmunk and several other yachts big enough to make the voyage if the owners were willing to enter the race. San Pedro has the schooner Ramona, Aloha and Bailey's auxiliary yawl. San Diego has the Josephine. These yachts that are eligible would swell the number to twenty-four and T. W. Hobron of the Honolulu Yacht Club expects a fleet of a dozen. This would be one more than participated in the greatest race ever held on the Atlantic for the German Emperor's $5,000 cup in 1905.

The race last year was the greatest event in yachting history for 1906. The race to Bermuda, only 650 miles was the next, but out of the whole Atlantic squadron only three showed up at the starting line and only two finished the race, the third returning owing to bad weather and hard luck. They were small boats, not over forty feet deck length. One was only twenty-nine feet and the owner had his wife on board. This boat, the Gauntlet, ran into a gale in the Gulf stream and was nine days making the passage down.

WATER-LINE LENGTH.

The conditions are that boats of not less than forty feet water-line length shall be eligible. The South Coast Yacht Club make this the limit in their conditions. While smaller boats can make the voyage, they are too cramped for carrying provisions and water and cooking regular meals, and their cruise would be apt to end in a "hard luck" story which would have a tendency to discourage trans-Pacific racing.

Yachtsmen have time to construct boats for the race. Several are now building, the owners intending to enter. The race has been a bonanza to the

BARNEY JOY PLAYS IN VERSATILE ROLE

HAWAIIAN TRYs A ROUND BE-HIND THE BAT AFTER DOING
SOME STUNTS IN BOX.

The following from the San Francisco Chronicle of the 14th inst. would indicate that Barney Joy is "some pumpkins" in other places besides the box: "Barney Joy of Coast League fame pitched against Santa Rosa Sunday and demonstrated that he was too fast for the 'country' bunch. He pitched three and two-thirds innings, in which time fourteen batters faced him, ten of which carried their bats to the bench and were glad to sit down. At this stage of the game Catcher Tommy Burrows had his right hand laid open by a foul ball and was forced to retire. As there was no one available who cared to take a chance, Joy donned the mask and with the assistance of Pitcher Stevenson held the home boys safe at all stages.

"He carried off the batting honors with one single and three doubles to his credit. The Santa Rosa fans seemed to take to the southpaw immediately and cheered him and again."

FOR KAMEHAMEHA DAY.

The celebration this year of Kamehameha Day (June 11) will probably on a more elaborate scale this year than for several years past. The Oahu Polo Club is making preparations for a series of events in which a polo game will be the chief attraction, but there will also be other interesting features including racing of various descriptions.

HONOLULUANS AND COLONIES.

James D. McInerney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halstead and William Woon will leave on the S. S. Manuka in June for a tour of the Colonies.

South Coast Club. Enthusiasm runs high in the club because the two yachts brought home the calabashes. The membership of the club has doubled. A $10,000 clubhouse has been erected. The club has authorized $1000 for trophies for this race. Owing to there being so many craft participating there will be one large cup, and probably three minor prizes, to make things interesting for everyone.

This time the race should not be a procession. In the last event the winner and order of arrival were predicted correctly. Each took a different course. Commodore Sinclair chose the best, following the trade wind belt. Next year probably all the yachts will take the Lurline's path across the chart. This will tend to make the event very even. The finishes will be exciting for the yachts should be fairly well together on their arrival off Diamond Head in Honolulu. There are to be fifty or more amateur yachtsmen there on the boats.

While the yachts were there last year they remained in harbor. A race around the island wherein the local yachts could compete with the visitors may be arranged. Adding the Hawaii, Gladys, Helene, Kapolei, La Paloma, Kamehameha and Spray, there would be a fleet of nineteen yachts in a 120-mile contest. It would be the banner event in yacht racing in Hawaii. When the visitors leave, a race may be arranged to Hilo, for, with the exception of the Lurline, none of the yachts have been there, and the owners and guests may like to take in Hawaii's burning mountain.

DEATH OF LEADING PORTUGUESE CITIZEN

MANUEL S. PERREIRA, A KAMA-
AINA AND INFLUENTIAL CITI-ZEN, PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY.

Manuel S. Perreira, one of the wealthiest and most influential Portuguese citizens of Honolulu, died last night at his home on School street near Liliha, after an illness of only a few days from acute inflammation of the bowels. He was 62 years of age, and is survived by a widow and one brother, the latter living in Pico, Azores Islands. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence, services being held in the Catholic Cathedral, and interment being at the Catholic Cemetery on King street.

Manuel S. Perreira came to this country from the Azores when he was 24 years of age, and began work as an employee in the store of Consul Perry, father of Judge Perry of this city. Within a few years he was able to purchase the business, and for many years he conducted one of the most successful mercantile businesses in the Territory, at the corner of Hotel and Nuuanu streets. About fourteen years ago he retired from active business, and since that time has been interested in the welfare of the Portuguese colony which has grown up in the islands.

He was especially interested in the San Antonio Portuguese Society, and through his direct efforts and intervention prevented that important organization from going to ruin on a number of occasions.

In his death Honolulu, and particularly the Portuguese element, has lost one of its strongest men, and the regret will be universal among all who knew him.

The First Okolehao Distillery

THE OUTPUT FOR THE PRESENT
WILL BE 75 GALLONS A DAY—
FIRST RUN ON MONDAY.

There will have to be a tremendous lot of okolehao drunk in these islands to keep up to the capacity of the new okolehao distillery that has been started in Kona, near Napoosop. The distillery which by the way, is the first of the kind to be started in the islands under the authority of the government, began operations yesterday. The first mash was set then, and by May 27, it is expected that the first run-off will be made. The capacity of the distillery is now about 75 gallons a day, which will bring the monthly capacity to about 2,250 gallons. It is quite probable that this capacity will be increased greatly as the distillery gets into better operation.

The new company of which Mr. Edwards is the head, was started yesterday under the direction and personal supervision of Ralph Johnson of the internal revenue office. Warehouse Agent Pringle was also present, the pair having gone up the first of the week to superintend the inauguration of the distillery. Until July the distilling will be largely of an experimental character.

Acting Collector Drake approved the bond of the distillery yesterday. The new concern proposes to use only the 11 root in its distilling. The proof of the liquor will be 100.

Pringle will remain on duty at the distillery. His position here has been taken by R. W. Macaulay who is now Storekeeper Gauger in Honolulu.

SHIPPING TROUBLES FROM UNION SIDE

LETTER FROM "A UNION SAILOR" UPHOLDS HIS ORGANIZATION AND TELLS A FEW THINGS.

Honolulu, May 21, 1907.
EDITOR STAR:—Dear Sir: Reading the article stated in the paper concerning the crew of the ship Manga Reva, I must certainly say that there is no truth in some of the Union sailors being in a bad fix. It is also mentioned that there is only three Japanese amongst the crew. A good reason why there is not more. A member of the water police seeing he could not get a crew of white men for the rate of $25 per month at first, he went to a well known Japanese employment office and got a crew of Japanese. But the shipping Commissioner refused to sign them on with their bogus discharges; it was then that Mr. Lee secured the men that the Manga Reva sailed with.

In the papers a few days ago the crew of the Manga Reva were mentioned as prune-pickers and waiters. But now she has got something worse than prune-pickers, as there is only three or four that as any idea of what a ship is. I hear from a well known person that Mr. Lee has his wages reduced by some $40, so has he can do the shipping of the crews for deep water ships that come to Honolulu. He wears the badge of a special police one who is by calling to look after the interest of the wharves. But instead of doing that he is what is known as a crimper of the worst kind. The paper mentions that the two Union sailors that stowed away on board the Santa Rita were in a very bad fix; his is certainly untrue, as they speak for themselves. There is not one Union sailor that has not got a bed to sleep in or enough money to back him up with, even if it was so, is there any reason why the supposed water police should try and keep the Union sailor's wages down? True, there was a few Union sailors trying for the Manga Reva for the rate of wages at $30 per month, as I think that the sailor who is not worth a dollar a day sailing around the Horn is no sailor at all in my estimation. The Union sailor does not want the month's pay for the purpose of letting the water police mentioned here to take him to a store, so as he can receive interest when the ship has left port, as the Union sailor always carries enough clothes to take him to sea, not like the Hobo who at present sail in deep water ships.

I think perhaps you heard of the ship Atlas who after leaving Honolulu had to put back to procure a better crew at Valparaiso. Don't be surprised if the Manga Reva does the same.

I am, yours truly,

A UNION SAILOR.

IMPORTANT PERJURY CASE IS ON

JAPANESE ALLEGED TO HAVE GIVEN WRONG TESTIMONY BEFORE AUTHORITIES.

An interesting case is now on trial before U. S. Judge Dole. It involves certain points that have never before been presented in just such shape before the local Federal court. If the decision is in favor of the Government the effect will be important so far as Japanese and other immigration to this port is concerned.

Kinosaki, a Japanese man, is charged with perjury. He is alleged to have sworn falsely before the Immigration authorities while being examined for admission to the Territory. He first stated that he was coming to this island to secure employment, but during a later examination he admitted that his ultimate destination was San Jose and he was merely going to stop over here temporarily.

Judge Kingsbury is appearing for the defendant and Assistant District Attorney J. J. Dunne is prosecuting. It has been claimed in the past that the Japanese have been using Hawaii as a stepping stone to reach the mainland. Since the enactment of the new immigration laws, however, prohibiting Japanese from going to the mainland of the United States from Hawaii, the effect of the present prosecution can not be so far reaching as it would have been several years ago. But if it is against the defendant the decision would affect Japanese stopping here for the purpose of going ultimately to Canadian or Mexican ports.

THE GUBERNATORIAL SITUATION TODAY

CONSIDERABLE ACTIVITY BEING SHOWN BY FRIENDS OF PINKHAM.

There has not been any very prominent candidate mentioned for Governor today. It is understood that very strong support is being given President Pinkham of the board of health. His friends are very active and he has strong supporters in Washington.

Secretary Atkinson will return tomorrow from Hawaii, with the Congressional party and Delegate Kuhio and then some thing ought to be doing in favor of the candidacy of Atkinson. It is not likely however that Atkinson will make any very strong effort for the position, unless he learns positively, that Carter will not take another term. In such an event, Atkinson would be a candidate for the place.
