Council of State Sanctions Request of Executive.

United States Thought It Should Be Settled—
Hawaii Still Maintains It was Right.

An open meeting of the Council of State was convened at 2 o'clock this afternoon. There were present:

President Dole, Ministers Cooper, King, Damon and Smith; Councilors P. C. Jones, John Phillips, M. P. Robinson, A. V. Gear, John A. Kennedy, A. G. M. Robertson, M. A. Gonsalves, J. L. Kaulukou, W. C. Achi, S. K. Kane and F. M. Hatch, Minister to Washington.

H. C. Bolte, secretary, being absent, Mr. Gear was asked by the President to act until his arrival.

Messrs. Robinson, Gonsalves and Kaulukou were sworn as members.

The President requested Stenographer Maix to read a resolution passed by the Executive Council yesterday with regard to the Japanese claims.

The resolution says that the Executive Council, in view of the Hawaiian Government's having been requested by the United States Government to dispose of the matters in controversy between this Government and the Government of Japan before the sovereignty of this country is transferred to the United States, and the Executive Council deeming the matter one of great public emergency requests the authority of the Council of State for paying to Japan the sum of $75,000 in full payment of that country's claims, but without in any manner waiving the conviction of this Government that it was right in resisting the demands of Japan according to the facts and principles at issue.

The President reiterated the terms of the resolution, saying that while the payment of the claims was humiliating to this Government, yet being at the request of the United States Government, and meant as a compromise to facilitate annexation, the Executive Council had after mature deliberation decided to yield without admitting that this Government was in the wrong. He had invited Mr. Hatch to be present, as he had received a request at Washington to use his endeavors to secure a compromise. Mr. Hatch had better make a statement before the reading of a letter from the United States Minister.

Mr. Hatch told of an interview he had held with the Secretary of State the day the Joint Resolution was passed. Mr. Day expressed regret at the circumstances that dictated the request for a compromise, but there were reasons of state for making the request of the Hawaiian Government. Further, the Secretary of State said that the request was not meant in any way to bear the construction that Hawaii was in the wrong. It was very desirable on the part of the United States Government that this controversy with Japan should be set at rest before this country comes under the sovereignty of the United States. The speaker replied that he had no power in the matter beyond recommending the acceptance of the proposition by this Government. Minister Cooper then read a letter from Minister Sewall, further preferring the request of his Government and expressing regret that it should have been deemed expedient. He also read his reply to the United States Minister, conveying the acceptance of the request, but strongly affirming the conviction of this Government that it was right in its action toward the Japanese immigrants attempting to enter the Hawaiian Islands contrary to the laws of the country. Mr. Jones moved that the amount requested be granted. Seconded by Mr. Kaulukou.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Cooper, addressing the Council of State, expressed himself strongly in justification of the course of the Government. It was certainly a very humiliating thing for him to compromise the matter, but under the circumstances he thought it was better for the Government to yield. At least the point was gained that the settlement was a compromise, as the amount Japan agrees to accept is but half of what was claimed. Another consideration was that the amount was small compared with the probable expense to this country of arbitration proceedings.

Attorney General Smith told of the proposition of the Japanese Government, through the Secretary of Legation in the absence of the Minister, to accept half of the amount claimed. He went on at length to vindicate the course of this Government. He told of the fairness of the treatment that had always been accorded to Japanese laborers in this country—the conditions of contracts giving them doctors, interpreters and inspectors at the expense of this country. The troubles underlying these claims were wholly caused by attempts to evade the laws of this country by immigration and steamship companies.

Mr. Robertson had been connected professionally with the controversy and could support its contention of being right. There was another view of the matter as it now came up, which was that this request was virtually a demand by the United States that this Government should settle the matter. There seemed no option but to vote the money.

President Dole put the question, that $75,000 be appropriated to pay the Japanese in full of all demands.

Carried unanimously. Mr. Phillips wanted to know if the British claims should not be settled also. He understood the British Government was ready to compromise all the claims of its subjects, for alleged false imprisonment in 1895, for less than one certain claim of the number.

Minister Cooper said it was time enough to cross a bridge when they came to it. There was no necessity for acting on the British claim.

Minister Smith said the British Government was able to look out for itself.

The President said the only reason for compromising the Japanese claims was that it had been requested by the United States Government.

Mr. Phillips [laughing]—I move we adjourn.

The Attorney General interposed to pass encomiums upon the work of Minister Hatch at Washington for annexation. He thought it should be recognized.

Mr. Kennedy suggested a committee.

Mr. Robertson moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Hatch verbally. Carried.

Mr. Phillips eulogized the conduct of foreign affairs by Mr. Cooper, also his labors—a peg beyond any of them (laughter)—for annexation.

Mr. Jones moved to amend by including President Dole and Ministers King, Damon and Smith.

A voice—Thurston. Mr. Phillips—"Oh, we're not saying anything about Mr. Thurston now."

The motion passed as amended. Adjourned at 3 o'clock.

GEN. OTIS INTERVIEWED

He Denies the Ill Treatment of Troops in Transports.

Also Gives an Interesting Talk on War
Matters and Other Vessels Expected and Due.

Major General E. S. Otis courteously received a BULLETIN reporter at his headquarters on board the S. S. Peru this morning. Mention was made of the complaints about accommodations and food on board the two transports in port, and the gallant commander was asked if there was anything in the talk. He answered in effect:

"Nothing at all. You know that in transporting troops the vessels have to take as many men as possible. Of course soldiers will talk, many of them just for the fun of it."

"You see the men on board and about the dock. There doesn't seem anything wrong with them? Fifteen were reported sick this morning, but on examination were found to have only slight ailments."

General Otis referred to the low condition of the man in the Queen's hospital, whose death elsewhere reported had not as yet been announced to him. He said this man was a recruit from Chicago, who had contracted fever before leaving San Francisco, his constitution having probably been undermined previously.

The War Department and not the shipowners furnished the rations to officers and men. General Otis remarked on this subject:

"The experienced stewards and cooks of the ships would not serve after the ships were chartered as transports. They did not want to go to the war. So new men had to be got in a hurry. Then the galleys are too small for this service, although additions have been made to them."

"Still I think there is no substantial ground of complaint about fare. The men seem to be very well contented, and I have nothing to say against my own treatment." This last was said with a pleasant smile.

General Otis was then asked about the probability of troops occupying the important points in the Philippines.

In reply he said he knew nothing more than what had been published before these transports had left San Francisco. The arrival of the second expedition at Manila had not yet been announced. Much probably depended on the events of the war in general.

Santiago had been surrendered with, it was reported, 10,000 Spanish troops, but General Otis hardly believe there were so many. With 10,000 men a stronger resistance ought to have been made.

Whenever the three other transports of the present expedition now about due had coaled here, the whole fleet would sail for Manila waiting for nothing. There would be about 4800 men in this expedition. Oh, yes, more welcoming according to the plans matured before he left the Coast.

General Otis had contracted with the Pacific Coast Steamship Co. for transporting the New York Regiment to Honolulu. Smaller vessels would carry them than the preceding transports, as the supply of large vessels had been exhausted. These would be the Alaska boats, but he could not give their names. According to the terms of the contract, however, they ought to arrive almost any time now.

General Otis is a stalwart and well preserved veteran of the war of the Rebellion. His demeanor toward all who approach him is one of rare urbanity bleeding into geniality, but his countenance bears the stamp of firm candor and unaffected honesty. Thus he impresses one as being a perfect gentleman whose words cannot be construed for anything but what they exactly mean.

"I am a pretty old man for this work," he said this morning upon an allusion being made to his long military career. A remark was ventured that it was exceedingly fortunate for the Nation that there were such men as he to step into the breach upon this occasion. In reply he spoke with pride of the rapid manner in which 200,000 men were being mobilized in the present emergency.

PRIVATE STRICKLAND DEAD.

Succumbs to Fever This Morning at the Red Cross Hospital.

Private Isaac Strickland, aged 25, a member of Co. G, Third Artillery U. S. A. who came here on the way to Manila on the Peru, died at the Red Cross hospital shortly after 9 o'clock this forenoon. He went there just after the arrival of his ship for Manila and lingered along until his death. The very best of care was given him. Nothing was left undone.

Private Strickland was taken with fever seven days ago.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of H. H. Williams. A detail of soldiers will be sent to accompany the remains of the cemetery.

WITHIN ARE DOGS.

The Canine Nuisance Annoys People at the Public Market.

Complaint is made of dogs frequenting the public market too numerous. Nine of them of all degrees were counted by a lady while marketing yesterday. A few days ago a big brute, about three feet high, ran against a lady and knocked her prone on the pavement. She was bruised in the elbows and had to be assisted to her feet.

David Keliipio, the fish inspector and a member of the Board of Health, was told by a reporter of the complaints. He said the dog catchers would be around next month. People do not care, though, whether a dog has his tag all right or not if he comes nosing about their fish and meat.

Mr. Keliipio himself told the reporter of a dog belonging to one of the stall holders, which fiercely attacked and bit a Japanese boy in the market not long since.

Puebla Officer Hurt.

Third Officer Spiers of the City of Puebla had a very narrow escape from being killed this morning while the steamer mentioned was hauled from the Oceanic to Brewer's wharf. He was in charge of a part of the crew engaged in the work of letting go the anchor. One of the small lines broke while the bight of another attached to the anchor twisted about his arm and threw him into the air. His side was severely bruised but fortunately no bones were broken. Spiers was not taken ashore but was allowed to remain aboard under the care of one of the surgeons.

BOYS ON THE TRANSPORTS

Talk of Condition on Ships Still Continues.

Officer Thinks Boys Might Go Into Camp—
Items and Incidents from the Troops.

Last night seven or eight native singers went aboard the City of Puebla according to orders from one of the committee on reception to the boys in blue and there dispensed sweet music to the officers and men. One of the former called for "Ua like no a like" but his pronunciation disconcerted the boys for a short while. During the progress of the music several officers of the N. G. H. called on the officers aboard.

Complaint now come from the boys on the City of Puebla about the condition of that vessel and the great need of a thorough cleaning before starting out for Manila. The bunks of some of the men are said to be so dirty that certain little insects have begun to crawl. Then the smell that meets one's nostrils upon going below is not pleasant. How the men sleep in such a place is a mystery. The officers of the ship are in favor of having the men vacate for a short time, so that the cleansing process can be gone through with. Why the men have not been taken into camp cannot be understood.

The story comes from one of the officers on the City of Puebla that one of the soldiers while on his way to Honolulu had not had a mouthful to eat for 16 hours. He stole a loaf of bread and was court-martialed and fined $10.

The California boys aboard the transports are looking for the men who sent back to the States reports of the outrageous doings of the boys in blue on the first transports to Manila. They say it had such an effect on the powers that be that the men were put under the very strictest orders to refrain from loud noises on board the ships or on shore. They must not applaud, they must not cheer. They cannot even wave Old Glory. The worst part of the whole thing is that not a cent of two months' pay will be given the men for fear they will create trouble in town. The responsibility for this is placed upon the correspondents for California papers.

The boys in blue remained on the Executive building grounds long after the completion of the luncheon yesterday. The band remained and played several selections, while Miss Annie Kanoho sang a song or two. Then the young ladies were scattered all over the grounds and of course that was an additional incentive to remain.

As was the case with the other soldiers who passed through here, the boys in the Peru and City of Puebla cannot say enough about the kindness of the Honolulu people. Several simply remarked: "We needed that meal badly and we shall never forget it."

Aboard the City of Puebla is a nephew of the great German composer, Wagner. He bears the same name and is but a private in the ranks.

German Count on the Puebla.

Count von Waldeck is a corporal in one of the companies aboard the City of Puebla. He was granted a twelve months' leave of absence from the army in Germany and came immediately to America to join in the fight against the Spaniards. He is a strapping fellow and a gentleman through and through. That he is a trained soldier is apparent from his conduct when on duty.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Thanks for Flag and Resolutions on Late J. I. Dowsett.

A well attended meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held this morning.

The first business was the reading of the letter from the Chamber of Commerce in San Francisco which accompanied the American flag presented to the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu. Messrs. J. B. Atherton, B. F. Dillingham and F. A. Schaefer were appointed a committee to prepare a suitable letter of thanks to be forwarded at the first opportunity.

The members then considered the matter of raising the flag over Chamber of Commerce hall. It was finally decided that this should take place on the same day that Admiral Miller hoists the American flag over the Executive building.

A committee composed of Messrs J. B. Atherton, B. F. Dillingham and T. May was appointed to prepare resolutions on the death of J. I. Dowsett one of the oldest members of the Chamber of Commerce. These will be presented before the annual meeting to take place on August 10.

AUGUST TERM.

Heavy Criminal Calendar Including
Three Homicides for Trial.

Deputy Attorney General E. P. Dole is busy making up the criminal calendar for the August term of the First Circuit Court. It will be a rather formidable one. There are twenty-four persons charged with crime, and a long list, not yet completed, of misdemeanants.

Of the crimes the three following cases are homicides:

Hok Yuk Yung, a Chinese woman charged with killing her children.

W. D. Hamilton, who shot A. Davis.

Heaka Naiwi, charged with manslaughter in killing his mother by thrashing her.

There is a case of infamous crime.

Stole Pair of Shoes.

While a soldier from the Peru was in bathing at one of the bath-houses Sunday, someone walked off with his shoes. Officer Lambert happened to be on the scene and, asking a few questions, soon had the thief spotted. He followed him to Russian Frank's place and found the man lying on the bed with the shoes on. It was not long before the soldier had back his property again.

Did Spanish Navigators Discover the Hawaiian Islands?

It is a moot point whether Spanish or British navigators first discovered the group of islands constituting the Hawaiian Kingdom. The solution of this point is full of doubt and difficulty, but as it is of general interest the following translation from an address delivered by Sr. Don Ricardo Beltran y Rozpide, before the Royal Geographical Society of Madrid, and published by that Society in their "Bulletin" of 1881, will be appreciated by all who have given attention to this question.

"In the 16th century and the earlier years of the 17th, the Spanish flag dominated, without a rival, in the waters of the two oceans. Spain continued the work of Colon, sought for and found a new route to Oriental India, and the fearless navigators, desiring to extend the dominions of their country, and by so doing gain honor and renown, fitted out numerous expeditions by sea, which resulted in the discovery of the Philippine Archipelago, the Ladrone, the Marquesas, Solomon, Santa Cruz and Caroline Islands, as well as many other smaller ones in the Pacific Ocean. In the ports of Peru and New Spain (Chile) were anchored the renowned galleons of that epoch, whose course was directed towards the coasts and archipelagos of Oriental Asia, and to re-open with their keels the broad ocean which was first divided by Vasco Nunez de Balboa.

"The sailors and soldiers of Carlos I. and Philip II. first saw the major part of the innumerable islands that constitute the maritime world in this ocean. Faith in God or in destiny, venturesome, disregarding dangers, and with the courage of true Spaniards, they led the way in these heretofore undiscovered seas, carrying the proud name of their country, and the emblems of their religion, not forgetting in their search the baser metals. One of the most important expeditions was that of General Lopes Villalobos in 1542, which sailed from New Spain (Chile) for the Molucas, and who was accompanied by Juan de Gaytan in the capacity of pilot or navigator.

"In his report of the voyage, Gaytan mentions 'las islas del Rey,' the King's islands, about 900 leagues from the coast of Mexico (a little over 2,000 miles), and as the expedition of Villalobos followed the approximate latitude of 'the Archipelago of Hawaii,' or 'the King's islands,' it is reasonable to suppose, in fact there can be no doubt, that 'the King's islands' are the very same which Captain Cook discovered 300 years later, and named 'Sandwich.' And this supposition is not gratuitous. It is founded on dates and documents, charts and maps, eminently worthy of belief and credit, and which demonstrate conclusively that the Spaniards were the original discoverers of this archipelago, and that in the 15th or 16th century.

"In many of the letters, charts and MSS. of that period, numerous islands are mentioned with Spanish names. In the approximate latitude and longitude of these islands, 'Ortelius' Map of the World' of 1587 mentions that 'situated between 18 and 20 degrees N. latitude and 202 and 214 degrees of longitude of Hierro, equivalent to 155 and 160 degrees Greenwich, lying S. E. and N. W. are the Islands Desgraciada (unfortunate), Vezina, Monges, La Farfane and Los Volcans (Volcanoes), and whose positions and appearances permitted those names to be applied to them. In Anson's statement in 1748 mention is made 'of a group of islands in same latitude as that of the Archipelago of Hawaii, but with a difference of 10 degrees of longitude.'

"There are in the archives of the Bureau of Hydrography in Madrid, many letters and MSS. giving very clear and authentic information in regard to these islands, notably the chart of the frigate Buenfin in 1773, on which the 'Monges' are called 'Mira and Ulloa to the eastward of the Island of Hawaii.' These are the islands first seen by Gaytan in 1555, but from the imperfect instruments then in use errors of latitude and longitude were made. In the Bureau of Hydrography in Madrid is a curious MS. of the latter part of the 18th century, which contains the chart or map of the Sandwich Islands with this inscription: 'These islands were discovered by Juan de Gaytan in 1555 and named by him 'Islas de Mesa,' (or table lands). 'An appropriate name,' says La Perouse, 'to Hawaii, as now known, whose mountains have the form of a high table or flat appearance.'"

The evidence is uncontrovertible that these islands were known before 1778. It is also known that a tradition has been handed down among the natives of this group that there were white people on floating islands, in a remote epoch, and that they cruised among the islands. Can there be any doubt that Capt. Cook became possessed of copies of charts or MSS. of the real discoverers of these islands, and with these re-discovered them? Where was he from and where bound when he made Nihaui, the first island? Certainly not from the north. Was he not beating up from the southwestward, hunting for these islands? Whence came the iron tools, pieces of armor, etc., found by him on Hawaii and taken to England, and placed in the British Museum where they now are? Whence came the helmets used by the kings and chiefs, the form and style the same as those used in the middle ages? Everything shows that the discovery of the islands by Gaytan antedates Cook's by two hundred years or more.—[L., in Hawaiian Almanac and Directory, for 1887, Robert J. Creighton, editor and compiler.

Mr. Bush also states, that in some instances there were twenty hemorrhages a day.—Glenville, W. Va. Pathfinder. A CHRISTIAN AND WAR

Rev. T. D. Garvin Gives His Flock His Views.

Never For Territorial Aggrandizement—Always For the Good of God's Kingdom.

Rev. T. D. Garvin, pastor of the Christian church delivered a sermon recently in which he attempted to answer from the standpoint of the Christian pulpit the pertinent question "May a Christian go to War?"

The pastor's well known reputation for pronounced views on all questions affecting Christian citizenship, was well sustained in his prefatory statement that, while a man might be patriotic without being a Christian, he could not be a Christian without being patriotic, for a loyal support of properly constituted authority. "The Powers that be," which are "Ordained of God," is not only in keeping with the Divine injunction voiced by the Apostle Paul, but of the highest type of earthly citizenship and in perfect accord with the genius of the Christian religion and citizenship in the Kingdom of Christ.

May a Christian go to war? the very question propounded by a disciple of the One who came to earth in the role of the Prince of Peace, suggests anomaly, but the peerless teaching of Jesus as to the relations of man with man as individuals, notably in "the Sermon on the Mount" cannot rightfully be construed into a reason for allowing a tyrannical power to perpetrate with impunity a long continued system of cruel and barbarous outrages on its helpless dependencies, such as has been the cause of the present Spanish-American conflict. Into such a war and with the high and holy end of bringing liberty to the down trodden the Christian may, nay, more, it is his duty to go. Personally he could and should turn to the smiter of one cheek, the other also, but doing duty as a guardsman in the service of the God ordained power governing his country, he should call out in Jehovah's name a "halt" to the aggressor against human liberty and the oppressor of the meek and the helpless, and if disregarded then let the power necessary to compel respect for the rights of those too meek to demand them themselves be brought to bear and the blessing of the God who delivered Israel from her oppressors may be expected.

May a Christian go to war? If it be for the purpose of securing God given rights and liberty to those who cannot obtain them otherwise, yes! If it be for the acquisition of territory, the extension of national domain and sovereignty, never! I believe that God intends to open Manila to the reception of the gospel and that not only will the political bondage of the people be broken but the ecclesiastical despotism that has gone hand in hand with, and fostered and fattered such misrule will receive a rebuke, from which in the light of American freedom it cannot recover. I believe further, that before this all ends China will be open to the reception of the gospel of Christ, which alone can bring deliverance to her millions of souls now in the bondage of superstition and ignorance. I would, that the world was full of Christian warriors ready to do and to die if a need be for the truth, that truth of God which, to know, Jesus says makes men free, and when that day comes there will be no more war for the principles of the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ known and lived by all men as we believe they will yet be, will for ever banish the spirit of strife from the son of men. Then shall be the glad time when the spear shall be beaten into the pruning hook and the sword into a plowshare.

What the Doctor Ordered.

"I was in poor health and the prescriptions I tried did not benefit me. At last the doctor began to give me Hood's Sarsaparilla and it proved to be the best of all medicines for me, and I can speak of it only in the highest terms and deem it a duty to recommend it." Charles S. Powell, 429 Iowa Street, San Antonio, Texas.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Cure all liver ills.

THE CINCINNATI'S MEN.Chaplain Chidwick Has Nothing but Praise
For Their Bravery.

The Rev. Father John P. Chidwick, who was chaplain of the battleship Maine when she was blown up in Havana harbor and is now chaplain of the United States cruiser Cincinnati, was recently visiting in New York on a short leave of absence. When seen the other morning, Father Chidwick spoke of the bombardment of Matanzas, the only important engagement in which the Cincinnati has participated.

"It was a new experience for me, as it was for most of the officers and the crew," said he. "We did not go into action at first, but stood off while the New York sent screaming shells into the enemy's earthworks. I never saw men so wildly anxious for anything as were the crew of the Cincinnati to get into the fight. When the order for them to go into action came from the flagship, the men acted like boys. They fairly hugged one another. The story of the bombardment is too old to need repetition. Every one has heard how the boys on our ship fired so rapidly that the vessel seemed a continual sheet of flame. This is no exaggeration. The roar of our guns was like incessant thunder. The post of a chaplain in an engagement is in the sick bay, but it is only optional. He may, if he wishes, go on deck or among the men to encourage them."

"The sailors of the Cincinnati are a fine lot, all patriotic, all enthusiastic. They hold the next place in my heart to the crew of the Maine. The watchword 'Remember the Maine' is a potent admonition to the jacksies down in Cuba. It shares a place with their religion, and it makes them fight like fiends."—New York Sun.

A Projectile Dodger.

It is said that Cervera is a skillful guitar player, so he has probably had more or less experience in dodging projectiles, such as water pitchers and old shoes, hurled from upper windows.—Cleveland Leader.

A man in Virginia rode forty miles, to Fairfax Station, for the express purpose of getting Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and took home with him a dozen bottles of the medicine. The druggist who relates the incident, adds: "Your remedy seems to be a general favorite wherever known." Its effects are indeed wonderful in all lung and throat troubles. Procure a bottle at Benson, Smith & Co., drug store. *

BRIEF WAR NOTES.

Prominent negroes are endeavoring to have provision made for the enlistment of 25,000 volunteers.

Two secret service agents penetrated the lines of General Linares' army and obtained valuable information for General Shafter.

Red Cross flags have been placed on many buildings in Santiago. Officers believe the enemy are using the Geneva cross to protect their defenses.

Secretary Gage announced that the war loan has been oversubscribed three times. Allotments of $40,000,000 of $500 and less have already been made.

General Augusti offered to surrender Manila to the German admiral, a Berlin dispatch reported, but the admiral rejected the offer in view of the American blockade.

"Our customers say you manufacture three of the best remedies on earth," said the mercantile firm of Haas, Harris, Brim & McLain, of Dawson, Ga., in a recent letter to the Chamberlain Medicine Co. This is the universal verdict. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the finest preparation in the world for rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back, quinsy, sore throat, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, pains and swellings. A bottle of this liniment in the house, will save a great deal of suffering. Buy it at Benson, Smith Co., drug store. *

But do not for a moment think that the Anchor Saloon is just like them. Liquid refreshments, to be refreshing, require a certain dash of skill and experience in the mixing. For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

AN IMPORTANT LAND DEAL

Pearl City Fruit Company Sells Out to Oahu Sugar Company.

Leasehold Has One Hundred Acres Prime Sugar Land—The Fruit Business Was Presently Unprofitable.

An important transaction was completed today whereby the leasehold of the Pearl City Fruit Co. was transferred to the Oahu Sugar Co.

There is probably one hundred acres of the property than which there is no richer sugar cane land in the country. This is proved by the appearance of a plot of ten acres planted in cane last year by the Pearl City Fruit Co. It is extremely luxuriant and ten tons of sugar to the acre is the minimum promise. The company finding pineapples yielding no profit, owing to a variety of circumstances, planted this patch with a view of extension to sell the product to either Ewa or Oahu mill.

The fruit matured in splendid condition on this land, the soil being deep and rich and the situation sheltered. But there has been no money in pineapples for export. The distance from the wharf in Honolulu, coupled with the uncertainty in times of sailing of steamers, made the culling of the fields for shipping usually very precarious. Then, until Congress provides otherwise under the Annexation Resolution, pineapples are subject to a duty of one cent a pound in the United States.

Under these circumstances the Pearl City Fruit Co. had to decide, when it received an offer of purchase from the Oahu Sugar Co., between three things—to go on with cane planting until all the holding was occupied, to trust to better fruit prospects under annexation and to sell out. In the first case there was the uncertainty of profit in selling the product with a long haul to a mill. The second question involved doubt as to there being any improvement in shipping facilities for a long time to come. Therefore the last option stated, given a price mutually satisfactory, was the most sure thing.

The price is for the present a private matter.

NO REFINERY PROJECTED.
Such an Enterprise Would Be Neither Profitable Nor Feasible.

J. B. Atherton was asked this morning if there was anything in the current surmise that with annexation the Hawaiian sugar planters are going to start a local refinery.

His reply was that there was not the smallest particle of foundation for any such a thing. The planters have a refinery now—the California—and believe they can make contracts as usual with more advantage than could be gained by starting a refinery in Honolulu.

Sugar refining would, moreover, be more expensive here than on the Coast. Everything excepting the raw sugar would have to be imported.

It was not deemed necessary by the reporter to further prosecute inquiries on the subject.

Appeal for Flowers.

Mrs. Sewall and ladies of the Red Cross Society desire to have flowers sent to the hospital for the funeral of Private Strickland which will occur tomorrow at 9:30.

Police Court Notes.

In the Police Court this forenoon Gow Tai was fined $50 and costs for unlawful possession of opium. Deputy Marshal Hitchcock appeared for the prosecution and attorney A. G. M. Robertson for the defense.

Wong Chan was found guilty of the same charge and sentence was suspended.

Other cases were postponed until tomorrow and Friday.

Boating News.

The three boat clubs—Myrtle, Healan and Leilani are now hard at work getting ready for the championship and the Regatta day races.

Last evening the Myrtles had out thirty-four men in their various boats while the Healanis and Leilanis had out a goodly number.

An amusing story has been told about town lately. Just two or three days ago, three kahunas, particularly qualified from long practise, went down to the Healan boat house and, after throwing into the water, pieces of awa root and taro tops, waved red rags over the water and then threw these in to float whither the tide and the wind might take them. Who called on the kahunas for help is not known, nevertheless the Myrtle boys have ever since felt a premonition of coming evil.

Old Time Friends.

Many of the visiting soldiers have found in Paddy Ryan an old time friend in the States. The boys are made to feel at home at the Old Commercial which under the new management is gaining for itself a popularity not surpassed by any saloon in town. With so many newcomers in town "hello Paddy" is almost as usual as "What yours?" The celebrated John Wieland beer on draught as well as all brands of the best wines and liquors. Corner of Beretania and Nuuanu streets. Telephone 323.

Nurse from the States.

One of the most energetic workers at the Red Cross hospital is Mrs. Moses, who arrived here from the States only a short time ago. She was a great worker over there and upon arrival here gave her services at once to the Society here. She is a thorough nurse and understands just how the work should be conducted. Her help has been invaluable.

Champion Blood Purifier

Probably all of our readers know something of George W. Walker, of 227 Bourke St., Surry Hills, Sydney, N. S. W. He gives us this unusual and most remarkable experience:

"After being a victim to typhoid, brain and rheumatic fevers in 1902, my system was left in a debilitated condition. Besides being very weak I had numerous abscesses on the lower part of my back and spine from which a great number of pieces of bone were taken. As fast as an abscess would appear and was lanced another would form. I was treated at two different hospitals without success, the surgeons in attendance informing me that I was suffering from blood poisoning. The abscesses continued to form and I was never without pain until six months ago I was induced to try

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

When I had taken the first bottle I found an improvement and after finishing twelve bottles I now feel as well as ever I did in my life. The old abscesses have all healed, new ones have ceased to come and my health is splendid. Before using the Sarsaparilla I weighed 154 lbs., and now after using a dozen bottles my weight is 200 lbs. Is not this a sure sign that I have been taking the champion blood purifier of the world?"

SPANKED A BICYCLIST.

Story Told of Private Gregory. One of the Peru Soldiers.

A good story is told on Private Gregory of one of the cavalry companies on the transport Peru. Gregory is a great, strapping fellow, and one can readily believe the story by a look at him.

It seems that while he was in San Francisco he was riding about the streets on his own cavalry horse that is now on the way to Manila on the Tacoma. A boy of about sixteen summers, an expert on the wheel rode up quickly, grabbed the reins and darted off again in another direction.

The horse had been trained to start off on a jump and in a few seconds Gregory was alongside the fresh lad, whom he jerked off the saddle and carried up over the horse's neck. He spanked the bicyclist soundly in the presence of a large number of people and then dropped him to the ground again.

Several little newsboys ran up and cried out: "Go home and tell your mamma, Spud."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

There will be no meeting of the Board of Health this afternoon.

Tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. is the regular time for the fortnightly meeting of the commissioners of education.

There have been a great many publick received at the fishmarket during the past two days. The other fish are scarce.

After the regular drill last evening the Co. B boys entertained a number of the Boys in Blue in their company room in the drill shed.

The City of Puebla soldiers marched about the streets for a little exercise this forenoon while the Peru soldiers went to Waikiki for a bath.

A deep toned whistle resembling very much those of some of the foreign steamers that call here was heard shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon. "Central" was kept busy in consequence of this. The whistle was from the steamer Mauna Loa. Engineer Keech has so repaired and fitted up the old one that it now gives the tone referred to.

The City of Puebla hauled from the Oceanic over to Brewer's wharf this morning to make room for ships now taking on sugar for San Francisco. Her bow is pointed out into the stream and just a small gangway from the stern to the wharf has been rigged up.

The Hawaiian bark Mauna Ala, Smith master, arrived in port at 8 o'clock this morning after a trip of thirteen days from San Francisco with a cargo of 1770 tons of general merchandise consigned to W G Irwin & Co. She has a large deck load of hay.
