SOLONS SIDESTEP VOTES FOR WOMEN

Senate Resolution Asks for a Plebiscite on the Question

PUTS DECISION UP TO NATIONAL CONGRESS

House Tables Kupahe's Bill Granting Equal Rights to Women

SENATE

Sixth Day

The women of Hawaii are not going to leap at once into the full possession of the right to cast their ballot with their husbands, sons and brothers. That is the effect of the action taken by the territorial senate at this morning's session. But this does not mean that all hope must be abandoned by the advocates of votes for women. The whole matter was shoved onto the broad shoulders of the national congress by a resolution presented by the chairman of the judiciary committee. The resolution given below calls upon congress to permit the holding of a plebiscite, at which the people of the territory will have an opportunity to decide for themselves whether they wish equal suffrage or manhood suffrage. The committee's resolution met with the approval of the senate and was adopted.

Another resolution, introduced by Senator Chillingworth directs the health committee of the senate to proceed at once with plans for the regular visit of the solons to the Leper settlement on Molokai Island, instead of waiting until the end of the session's work before making the trip. Senator Chillingworth, speaking for his resolution pointed out that his plan would give the solons an opportunity to act at once upon the conditions found there which might need change.

The session lasted but three-quarters of an hour, but was packed full of results. Senator Brown was the only one not in his seat during the morning.

When the senators reached their seats this morning they found printed copies of senate bills numbers 19, 22, 23, 24 and 37 on their desks. No. 22 is the re-appointment bill, likely to raise much trouble in legislative halls this session. No. 32 is the act repealing the so-called peonage law of the last session. No. 34 is the bill introduced by Senator Baker dealing with rape and carnal abuse of female children. No. 37 is the act permitting the acceptance of the gift of Kaula Park, by the late Archibald Scott Cleghorn, and No. 19 is the act conferring additional powers to corporations in the territory.

Senator Judd presented petitions from the Hawaiian Humane society and the Free Kindergarten and children's aid association asking for provision for the care of young indigent children, and pointing out the need of a detention home, where children may be kept pending the finding of permanent homes. The petition asks for $60,000 for the erection of such a home. The petitioners were referred to the educational committee on motion of Senator Rice. The feeling in the senate seemed to be that the establishment of such a home property is the duty of the counties, and that it is out of the jurisdiction of the territorial authorities.

The printing committee reported the printing of the bills mentioned above. The bills passed second reading by title. They went to the following committees:

No. 19, Judiciary committee; No. 22, referred to committee of the whole, on motion of Senator Rice; No. 32, Judiciary committee; No. 34, Judiciary committee; No. 37, public lands committee.

Senator Judd presented a report of the judiciary committee, which is an unanimous report although signed by but four of the five members, Senator Brown concurring. The reports follow:

"Your judiciary committee, to whom was referred senate concurrent resolution No. 3, requesting the congress of the United States to amend section 60 of the organic act so as to extend the elective franchise to women, begs leave to report as follows:

"Your committee, after full consideration and discussion of this resolution, is of the opinion that the present resolution requesting congress to enact such legislation should not be passed at the present time, but is unanimously of the opinion that this matter should be referred to a vote of the people to ascertain their will in the matter. Your committee therefore has prepared a substitute resolution requesting the congress of the United States to refer the matter of

PUBLIC WORKS TO BE PROBED BY COMMITTEE

Capt. Evan da Silva of Hawaii Heads Special Body Preparing to Investigate

CHAIRMAN SAYS WILL EMPLOY LEGAL COUNSEL

Talks of Sending Away to the Coast for Witnesses and Possible Evidence

That the affairs of the department of public works is to receive a thorough probing at the hands of the territorial investigating body was made certain yesterday afternoon on the appointment of a sub-committee of the committee on public lands and internal improvements. Captain Evan da Silva, who was selected by Chairman Huddy to serve as chairman of the sub-committee, announces that he and his conferees are preparing to employ an attorney as legal counsel, also a special stenographer.

Representative Evan da Silva of Hawaii, chairman of the important subcommittee on public lands and internal improvements.

He states that preparations are in progress to make a lengthy and very detailed investigation of the department's administration under former Superintendent Marston Campbell, and intimates that the committee may even send to the Coast for some witnesses and evidence requisite to thoroughness.

The other two members of the sub-committee are Archie Robertson and J. K. Loh. The inquiry will be just as soon as the further preliminary details can be arranged. This is in pursuance of a resolution recently adopted by the lower house, empowering the public lands and internal improvements committee to summon all witnesses and call for any documents in the public lands, public works or other departments that may be desired to make its work thorough and comprehensive.

Virtually all contracts entered into by the public works department during the recent administration will be examined. It is likely also that the committee will visit the various improvement projects entered upon or finished during the period in question, and this may require several junketing trips to the other islands.

Taking general lines of Hawaiian products, the Mission Navigation's steamer Enterprise is expected to sail from Honolulu for San Francisco by the last of this week.

HOUSE MEASURE WOULD FURTHER DIVORCE TERRITORY AND COUNTY

Intended to further divorce the counties from the parent territorial government and, in the words of Governor Frear, "bring them out of the stage of infancy," it is understood a house measure is in preparation proposing a special tax for specific improvements which may be applied in any county upon the approval of a majority of the property-holders.

Whether it is a party measure is not known; neither is it known whether it is suggested by the administration, though it undoubtedly will receive official approval.

Substantially, it will propose that a fraction of one per cent tax on the assessed valuations may be assessed in any county, to be authorized by the board of supervisors; only, however, after a petition setting forth specific improvements needed in the

TERRITORIAL GUARD IS NOW ON DEFENSIVE

Adjutant General Puts Blame for Shortcomings on Lack of Armory

MAKE PUBLIC DETAILS OF ALL OFFICIAL REPORTS

Declares That in Publicity Lies the Only Answer to the Accusations

The National Guard has been put on the defensive by the senate, and the guard's defense is a request for full publicity of its affairs. That some of the conditions existing in the Hawaiian militia are no what they should be, the adjutant general, Colonel J. W. Jones, freely admits, but Colonel Jones finds one door at which to lay the blame for nearly every shortcoming of the citizen soldiers—the armory, or rather lack of it.

The storm which has been hovering over the guard broke yesterday, when Senator Coke introduced a resolution calling on the adjutant general to produce a field and inspection reports of United States army officers on the condition of the guard, during the last two years. This means that the upper house intends to go through militia affairs with a fine-tooth comb, and Colonel Jones says he stands ready to give the legislators every assistance in their investigation. In fact, he courts the fullest inquiry, and will then leave it to the judgment of the investigators as to whether the existing conditions could have been otherwise under the circumstances.

Armed with a mass of documentary evidence, Colonel Jones expects to go before the senate either this afternoon or tomorrow.

"Probably Senator Coke did not know that most of the reports he has asked for were to be incorporated in my biennial report, which is now in the hands of the printer," said Colonel Jones to a Star-Bulletin reporter this morning. "If he had waited a few days he could have had all the information he wants in printed form. I have had to take back some of the copy from the printer, in order to comply with the requests of the senate, and this will delay the remainder of my report."

Guard Sharply Criticized

The field inspection report made by Captain E. A. Shuttleworth, Second Infantry, who was the regular army officer with the guard at its annual encampment, made September, 1911, is certainly a straight-from-the-shoulder document. Captain Shuttleworth doesn't mince words in some of his comments, but he, as well as Captain W. H. Johnson, Major Dunning, Major Van Vleet and Lieutenant Colonel Bullard, who have inspected the guard in different years, all point to the lack of an armory in extenuation of lack of interest and efficiency.

The Shuttleworth report is the severest criticism of the guard, and if the legislature comes to the opinion that more than an armory is needed to make an up-to-date military organization out of the Hawaiian militia, its conclusions will probably be based on this document. Captain Shuttleworth found that the enlisted men had a fair knowledge of their business, and that the non-coms were in most cases efficient and alert, but his report on the commissioned officers can hardly be considered complimentary.

Here are a few excerpts from the Shuttleworth report on the officers: "Physical qualifications—A number of the officers did not appear to be able to withstand much physical hardship and after some of the field exercises were 'all in.' A careful physical examination would eliminate several.

"Mental qualifications—The officers were generally of sufficient mentality

GIRL TOURIST A VICTIM OF OWN REVOLVER

Miss Margaret Harriman Taken to Hospital After Alleged Attempt at Suicide

Miss Margaret Harriman of Seattle, Wash., recently arrived in Honolulu as a tourist visitor, was taken to Queen's hospital in the police ambulance at 4:45 o'clock this morning, suffering from a bullet-wound in the left breast above the heart, said to have been self-inflicted.

According to what can be learned at police headquarters, Miss Harriman attempted suicide early this morning, and that she was the victim of mental depression is indicated by the report, which is not yet entirely confirmed, that she received a letter on the Honolulu yesterday containing bad news. The letter, it is believed, was from relatives or friends at her home.

Miss Harriman was reported at the hospital this morning as being already on a fair way to recovery, the bullet, which was from a 32-caliber revolver, having made only a comparatively slight wound.

Miss Harriman, who is a young woman apparently of good family and refinement, has been stopping at the Shady Nook, 1049 Beretania street, but little is known of her there, as she had been at the boarding house but a short time. The police think there is a possibility that financial worry may have been the cause of the act. Those who knew her said today that last night she had appeared for a short time at a dance given for guests of the boarding house, and did not at that time seem to be depressed. Later, she retired to her room, it is said, and there turned the revolver upon herself. The noise of the shot alarmed lodgers and the police and hospital authorities were summoned.

BERLIN, Feb. 1.—The offer of Charles E. Finley, president of the International Bank of New York, of $1,600,000 for Dr. Friedmann's tuberculosis serum has caused a stir in medical circles here.

Dr. Friedmann said last week he would give the government his discovery on a certain day, but a week has gone by and he has not done so. On Saturday night he said he had cabled a New York paper that he would sail on the Maureania today, and he notified Mr. Thackara, the American Consul-General, personally of his sailing at this time. The Consul-General immediately asked who would watch the American patients now here and others who expected to arrive to get the cure. Dr. Friedmann replied that Prof. Schleich, one of Germany's famous surgeons, would take care of them. Later in the week Dr. Friedmann appeared to be undecided as to when he would sail for New York. He said he was in negotiation with the German government and that this might delay his departure.

MOBILIZATION OF ARMY CONTINUING

Uncle Sam's Troops Continue to Rush Southward but Merely as a Test of the Recent Reorganization of the Forces, Declares Secretary of War Stimson—Conditions in Southern Republic Reported as Quiet, with Huerta in Full Control of Situation

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Despite the fact that reports from Mexico City report the situation there and elsewhere through the republic as quiet, the mobilization of the American forces at Galveston is being continued as speedily as possible, under orders from the War Department. The crisis in the affairs of Mexico is believed to have passed for the time being, at all events, and, according to a statement issued this morning by Secretary of War Stimson, the gathering of Uncle Sam's troops on the border is merely to test the recent re-organization scheme of the army, and not with any ulterior motive.

Senate Votes One Battleship

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—It was a busy day in the United States senate. The upper house passed an amended labor department bill, the changes in which will necessitate a conference with the committee of the house, and then settled down to a discussion of the naval program. After much discussion the body decided upon the one battleship idea and so voted.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, Feb. 26.—An earthquake, the worst felt here for many years, shook the entire district this morning. Although the tremor caused much alarm it did but comparatively little damage, and that of a minor nature only. The few persons injured suffered but slightly.

EWA MAINTAINS HIGH STANDING

Ewa Plantation Company made a net profit for the year 1912 of $699,297.12, according to the report of C. H. Atherton, treasurer, submitted at the annual meeting held at Castle Cooke's this morning. Dividends of 13 1/2 per cent were paid, amounting to $675,000, and the balance carried forward to this year was $1,621,492.75. Assets amount to $6,817,384.44, of which $314,664.41 stands for mill and mill buildings.

Manager George F. Renton reports a yield of 31,448.187 tons of raw sugar of an average polarization of 97.59 per cent sucrose. This was harvested from 3916.23 acres, of which 912.62 were plant cane and the rest seven different grades of ratoons. In addition 895,065 tons were manufactured from 106.25 acres of the Apokoa Sugar Co., making a grand total of 32,343.252 tons manufactured at the Ewa mill. The estimate for Ewa plantation, made a year ago, was 30,000 tons, so that the yield was 1448.187 tons, or 4.8 per cent over the expectation.

For the 1913 crop there is an area of 3930.45 acres, of which 1079.19 are plant cane, and the rest ratoons, of which the largest item is 1208.93 long fourth ratoons. Grinding began on December 12 and up to date of report, February 6, sugar manufactured amounted to 6858.43 tons. Sucrose content of cane runs somewhat higher than last year and although the fields have been set back somewhat on account of the drought of last year, Mr. Renton expects a yield of about 30,000 tons. During the past two years over 20,000 tons of manure from the plantation stables and Schofield Barracks have been applied to the older fields, and the manager expects results that will justify the high cost.

For the crop of 1914 there is an acreage of 4140.89, of which 1241.64 acres are plant cane, 777.58 long first ratoons, 751.11 long second ratoons and the remainder five other classes of ratoons. All of the cane for this crop, with few exceptions, the manager says, presents a very good appearance. In his opinion the fields for 1914 look healthier and stronger and have had a better start than those of the present year.

"During the season of 1912 the factory performed its usual good work," the report says. "The crushing apparatus, an eighteen-roller mill, gave an average extraction of 96.40 per cent of sucrose in the cane with a dilution of 34.17 per cent, and an average output of 54.51 tons of cane per hour."

The total spent for stock expenditures for the fiscal period has been $54,692.02, distributed for the following purposes: Buildings, $13,229.78; mill machinery, $17,264.72; pump machinery, $5451.03; waterways, $4408.92; railroads, $3042; live stock, $1920; tools and implements, $2533.22; clear-

Dr. Frederick Cook, the noted polar explorer now here on lectures, this morning went to the public schools and addressed the children and teachers. Many of the schools had the opportunity to hear him speak and he made a great hit. Dr. Cook likes to talk to the school children and has given free lectures to many thousands of children on the mainland. He is to speak at a number of private schools here, at their request.

such an amendment to a plebiscit to be held in the Territory of Hawaii to ascertain the will of the citizen thereon.

"For the foregoing reasons you committee recommends the passage of this substitute resolution:

"Be it Resolved by the senate of the Territory of Hawaii, the house of representatives concurring:

"That the congress of the United States is hereby requested and respectfully petitioned to direct, in the usual manner, the holding of an election in the Territory of Hawaii to ascertain the will of the citizens thereof as to whether or not section 60 c 'An Act to provide a Government for the Territory of Hawaii,' approved April 30, 1900, be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 60. That in order to be qualified to vote for representative, a person shall—

"First. Be a male or female citizen of the United States.

"Second. Have resided in the territory not less than one year preceding and in the representative district in which he or she offers to register not less than three months immediately preceding the time at which he or she offers to register.

"Third. Have attained the age of twenty-one years.

"Fourth. Prior to each regular election, during the time prescribed by law for registration, have caused his or her name to be entered on the register of voters for representative for his or her district." And

"Be it Further Resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the president of the United States, the president of the United States senate and the speaker of the house of representatives at Washington, and to the Hon. Jonah K. Kalaianale.

The report was adopted without dissenting vote.

Senator Chillingworth then introduced the following resolution:

"Be it Resolved, That the clerk of the senate be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to proceed to compile the journal of the senate, session 1913, for which services he shall be allowed the following compensation:

"For preparing the original copy of the journal of the senate to be filed with the secretary of Hawaii one copy thereof for the printer, and one copy thereof for the proof reader seventy-five cents ($0.75) per typewritten page; such compensation to be in full for all compiling, indexing and clerical duties to be performed after the adjournment of the legislature sine die; and

"Be it further Resolved, that the said clerk of the senate be and he is hereby authorized to hire such proof reader or proof readers as may be necessary to complete the publication of said journal, whose compensation shall be seventeen and one-half cents ($0.17 1/2) per printed page; and

"Be it further Resolved, that the committee on accounts of the senate be, and they are hereby directed to approve for payment, all bills for such services as aforesaid."

The resolution went to the accounts committee.

Senator Chillingworth also introduced the following resolution: "Whereas, it has been customary heretofore that visits to the Laper Settlement were made towards the end of the sessions of the Legislature; and

"Whereas, upon such visit, many matters of needed legislation were found and should have received due and just consideration, but failed, primarily for the reason that the proper time to legislate upon such matters had elapsed; and

"Whereas, the needs of the inmates of and improvements needed at the Settlement should and ought to be one of the first charges upon the revenues of the Territory; and

"Therefore, be it resolved by the Senate that in order to enable the Legislature to secure direct information in due time for consideration and action during this session of wants of the inmates at the Settlement and other legislation, required to improve conditions and promote the welfare at the Settlement as a whole, the health committee of the Senate is hereby directed and empowered and authorized to arrange, make preparations and have full charge and control, on behalf of the Senate, of the visit to be made to the Laper Settlement, at Molokai, as soon as same can be satisfactorily arranged.

"Be it further resolved, that the Senate health committee is hereby directed to confer with the health committee of the House and also is hereby authorized and empowered to take steps and make such joint arrangements as may deem advisable to carry into effect this resolution."

Secretary Mott-Smith forwarded a communication dealing with the printing and binding of the laws of the Territory previously called for. He also inclosed a draft of specifications and call for tender for publishing, printing and binding the session laws of 1913. The letter asks for information on the number of copies needed, whether the legislature wants an Hawaiian version of the session laws of 1913, and whether the legislature cares to enter into a contract with the secretary whereby the expense of the English version shall be borne by the Federal appropriation and that of the Hawaiian version and translation, should one be ordered, borne by Territorial appropriation.

The matter went to the accounts committee on motion of Senator Chillingworth.

Senator Coke gave notice of the introduction of Senate bill No. 42—a act to amend Sec. 2295, chapter 15, of the revised laws of Hawaii, the rules were suspended and the bill, No. 42, passed its first reading by title. It deals with the appointment of guardians for minors. It makes the age from 13 to 16.

The third reading of House bill No. 1 was then taken up. This measure appropriates $25,000 for the expenses of the House. The bill passed third reading, 13 ayes, no nays.

The Senate then adjourned until 2 o'clock.

7, brought smiles to the faces of his brethren in the house when he commented on what impotency would be if the measure should become law. He said he is alone at home as well as in the house of representatives in his political views. His wife, he asserted, is a staunch Democrat, while he is an ardent Republican. Therefore, if they were enfranchised, he would not amount to much, but he thought the women are entitled to the ballot here, just as much as on the mainland, where their political strength is being recognized.

The house finally voted to adopt the committee report, tabling the bill.

The measure in question is entitled "An Act to provide the qualifications of voters for county officers in the counties of the territory of Hawaii; and to repeal section 31, Chapter 10 of Act 29 of the session laws of 1905." It reads in part as follows:

"Section 1. That in order to be qualified to vote for county officers a person shall—

"First—Be a male or female citizen of the United States.

"Second—Have resided in the Territory not less than one year preceding and in the county in which he or she offers to register not less than three months immediately preceding the time at which he or she offers to register.

"Third—Have attained the age of twenty-one years."

The number of news bills for the over branch has simmered down materially, and in contrast to the first day's rush, the legislators recorded only four new measures. Three bills were passed in the house, however, and one of these, senate bill No. 1, providing an appropriation of $23,000 for the senate's expenses, now requires only the signature of the governor to become effective. The two other bills relate to courts and now go to the upper house for consideration.

Of the four new bills introduced, three were by Sheldon. Two affect the courts, while the third is to protect materialmen, by requiring bonds from contractors who accept public improvement work for the territory.

Speaker Holstein called the house to order promptly on the hour this morning. After invocation by the house chaplain, Rev. Akalo Akana, Clerk Woodward read the minutes of yesterday's business. S. S. Paxson, Wakekau, Geo. Cooke, Kanio, Coney, and Dr. Huddy were absent from their seats at the opening of the session. Wakekau is still detained by illness.

After a brief session of routine the treworks started, when the judiciary committee reported adversely on Kuliha's suffrage bill, Chairman Sheldon stating that it conflicted with the Organic Act, and recommending it be tabled.

Kuphea moved that the bill be referred back to the committee, that he might appear before that body and explain some of its provisions. He said he believed it could be so amended that it would not conflict with the Organic Act.

In this matter he raised the cry of fear of eventual Asiatic control of Hawaii at the polls, urging it as a reason why the Hawaiian and haole women be permitted to vote with men.

Chairman Sheldon of the judiciary committee addressed the house in the Hawaiian tongue. "There is no need of crossing a bridge until we get to it," he reiterated in English. "It seems to me the Organic act is clear. The learned gentleman from Oahu had noticed the committee was considering his measure. 'Just now, I cannot see that the committee can take further action, and therefore second the motion to adopt the committee report.'"

Kawewehi took the floor in an impassioned address on woman's rights, arguing the time has come when the female must be recognized.

"While I myself am the sole Home Ruler in this body, this is not a party proposition," he said. "My family is of divided political faith; my wife is a Democrat and my sister is a Republican, and if they are allowed to vote, then my Home Rule vote is not worth much, because they offset it. But I heartily favor Kuphea's measure."

Representative Kanio, through the interpreter, then held the floor for some minutes in support of the measure. He sought to explain why it does not conflict with the Organic Act.

On a vote the committee's report, to table the bill, was adopted by an easy majority.

House bill No. 20 passed second reading, on adoption of the finance committee's report and was made the order of business for third reading tomorrow.

Senate bill No. 1 was then called up for third reading. This was passed without comment, receiving 29 votes. Makekau being absent. The measure is to provide $23,000 for the senate's expenses.

House bill No. 22 then passed its third reading in a similar manner. This relates to excusing jurors after service and is quoted in full elsewhere in this paper.

House bill No. 31, giving jurisdiction to district and circuit court judges in juvenile cases, came up for third reading. Tavaras arose and proposed an amendment, to add a letter making the words "magistrate" and

"judge" plural. This was read by the clerk and passed, 29 to 0.

The speaker, during the passage of bills on second reading called attention to bills 2 and 63, which he said covered precisely the same subject. He stated it is the duty of the printing and revision committee to combine bills of this kind, thus avoiding duplication and unnecessary expense.

Immediately following the second reading of nine bills, the noon recess was called, at 11:23 a. m.

ALDRICH MUST FACE TRIAL

A warrant will be issued today for the arrest of William Arnold Aldrich, connected with a local automobile agency, who is alleged to have driven car No. 57727, the property of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley of Los Angeles. Aldrich is charged with having driven the machine without first procuring a license. The police also allege that additional charges may be brought against the young man exceeding the speed limit.

Special Motorcycle Officer Chiles has completed his investigation of the disaster that took place last night near the intersection of King and Alapai street, when the automobile crashed first into a hack belonging to the Hamada stables and driven by an Hawaiian named Haiola.

According to the police, Aldrich was under the influence of liquor while at the helm of the machine then returning from Waikiki.

The machine proved an interesting spectacle to hundreds who passed the locality this morning.

The Bradley machine is a sorry-looking wreck. The rear wheel has been torn off, the wind shield broken, the front fender on the left side of the car, which is said to have come in contact with a telephone post, is badly battered and damaged.

The back was minus shafts and a dashboard, when gathered into the repair shop this morning.

Aldrich will be remembered to have taken one of the principal parts in the recent presentation of "The Tourist," the young man essaying the role of a well-known publisher of Honolulu, which was intended as a burlesque on a local character of Honolulu.

Her Choice

By F. A. MITCHEL

Patience Goodman was a young Quaker widow of Philadelphia some 200 years ago and but twenty-three years of age. Patience's conscience and heart were so tender that when she found herself obliged to disappoint or pain any one she stood stock still. When she married Enoch Goodman it was as a dutiful maid in obedience to her father's mandate. She had preferred Pardon Fairweather, but parental authority was all powerful in those days, and she did not even encourage him.

When her husband died, as soon as it was proper for a man to ask her to be his wife Benediction Turner did so. Then came Fairweather, just one week later, and gave her the same invitation.

There was no parental authority now, for her father was dead and she had become her own mistress. She found herself obliged to give pain to one of her suitors. Each urged his suit and gave her to understand that if she refused him he would seek death. Pardon vowed he would seek it in battle with the Indians, who were lurking near the settlements with hostile intent, and Benediction declared that he would turn pirate.

Patience was horror stricken at these threats and almost felt it her duty to marry Benediction because by turning pirate he would certainly lose his soul, which was far more precious than a man's life, but she was unable to decide upon any course, so she kept putting her lovers off with one excuse after another till they were worn out with delay, while she was worn out with their importunities.

Finally they both agreed that if she would tell which of them in her heart she preferred the one whom she did not prefer would abandon the field to the other without laying any blame upon her. But it was not a matter of blame from them, but a disinclination to give either of them pain. She declined to consent to this proposition, but said she would pray to be shown her duty. She prayed, but no sign came to guide her.

One day when she was making candles her two lovers came to her together, and Benediction said:

"Miss Goodman, by thy indecision these are giving both of us pain, whereas if these would choose one of us that one would be happy. We pray thee therefore to choose between us, naming that one thee would wed."

The widow heaved a deep sigh, but did not reply for some time, evidently trying to say something and failing. Finally, taking up a candle in each hand, she made the following proposition:

"Take each of you one of these candles, light them at the same moment and the one that burns the longest time will I wed."

Thankful at the prospect of ending the suspense under which they lived, each took a candle. They had been cast in the same mold and were consequently of equal length. Each would burn from two to three hours. The widow brought her steel and flint and, lighting a blaze, touched it to each candle at the same moment. Then she told her suitors that when they had burned to the socket of their candlesticks she would send for them that they might see with their own eyes which would go out first and that one she would wed.

"We need not fear, Patience," said Benediction, "that these will tamper with the candles, because these have only to choose between us without their deciding for you. Therefore we may safely leave them in your care."

"But," said Pardon, "we will come in at the end, that he who is favored and he who is not shall see with his own eyes."

Benediction went to the wood and walked back and forth with his hands clasped behind his back, sorely disturbed by anxiety. During the long period of his uncertainty there was no suspense like this. Pardon went into his library—there were but two books in it, the Bible and a copy of Shakespeare's plays—and, taking up the latter, read a few scenes from "Othello."

In this way each passed the time till he should be summoned to learn his fate.

At last a messenger came from the widow that the candles were burning low, and each suitor repaired to the neat kitchen of Dame Goodman, where they were burning. Benediction turned white at seeing that his candle was but half an inch long, while that of his rival was an inch. Pardon's countenance did not change, but he cast a glance aside at the widow.

"It is not meet," groaned Benediction, "that I should remain longer here, since it is certain that I have lost." He went out, the widow still keeping her eyes fixed on the floor and her hands clasped on her bosom.

Then Pardon went to the table, looked first at one candle, then at the other, and, seeing a few tiny white grains that had been spilled on the dark polished wood, bent low to see what they were.

Wetting a finger, he put it on the grains and touched it to his tongue. He started, his face lighting up with a look of great happiness. Then he went to the widow, who stood still bent, and put his arms about her, while her head sank upon his breast.

The grains on the table were salt. Placed on a wick salt causes a candle to burn slower.

INSURANCE MAN EXTOLS HAWAII

Emphasizes Historical Pageant Gives Valuable Advice Regarding Insurance

If Washington Irving, a visiting insurance man from San Francisco, should follow the example of his famous literary namesake to the extent of writing his travels, Hawaii would certainly command many pages of rare promotion value therein. For fear that he might not have such a project in view, a reporter of the Star-Bulletin sought out Mr. Irving, finding him at the office of the Home Insurance Company. Besides obtaining just what he went for—something in the selfish interest of Hawaii as an objective point for tourists—the interviewer captured various suggestions of value in the visitor's province of insurance.

"This is my first visit to Honolulu," said Mr. Irving, "and I am much more delighted with the results of the trip. I have been trying to get here for the last five years, and finally I just shut down my desk and came."

"You have one of the most remarkably beautiful places I have ever seen, and the hospitality of the people is most delightful. I do not know when I have spent eight days more pleasantly and profitably. I was much delighted with the carnival. One point that impressed outsiders more than any other was the landing of Kamehameha. We can see floral parades almost anywhere, but a historical pageant such as that, in so grand a setting of ocean and mountain, with tropical scenery between, cannot be produced elsewhere. If special attention should be given to historical pageants, illustrating the ancient customs of Hawaii, I am sure it would be the great feature of your carnivals of the future."

"I have been much impressed with the condition of the roads on Oahu, especially that one leading out toward Haleiwa. That is a splendid boulevard drive, the bits of natural scenery along the route being unsurpassed either in beauty or grandeur. Haleiwa itself is one of the most beautiful spots I have ever visited."

Asked if he had made any study of the insurance situation here, Mr. Irving, who represents the Phoenix of London, replied:

"I think it is not so much that the rates are high in Honolulu, but certain inequalities manifest themselves. Some risks are higher than others in substantially parallel conditions. What's that Hawaiian word you use to express putting off things? 'Mahope,' yes. There seems to have been too many mahope in rating the town for insurance. Rates were put on, say, seven years ago and conditions have changed in the meantime but the rates continue the same. One risk is rated pretty low and another in the next block, with similar characteristics, is rated higher."

"Yet the average is not high in what you call the conflagration area, because this town in some parts must certainly be classed as liable to conflagration."

Mr. Irving here mentioned one prominent business stand where merchandise of exceedingly inflammable and even explosive character is stored without restriction.

"There is an absence of restrictive ordinances here regarding the storage of explosive and combustible merchandise," said Mr. Irving, "which should be remedied. You have no restriction on garages—there are frame garages right in the heart of town."

"The trouble here is construction is so mixed. You will see a pretty fair building and then next to it a big frame building. People do not take into consideration the exposure hazard—do not stop to think that the building next door may set them on fire."

"I am leaving in the steamer Wilhelmina. This is just a preliminary look around," Mr. Irving said. "After this I will come here every year. I expect to be here again a year from next July and spend about a month in these beautiful islands."

An untidy damsel never yet made a tidy wife.

THE CLARION

ANNUAL DINNER OF CIVIC FEDERATION

The annual dinner of the Civic Federation was held in Cooke Hall, Y. M. C. A., last night, Arthur G. Smith, president, having on his right Mayor James Clinksill of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada, and on his left Presidents Gilmore and Griffiths, respectively of the College of Hawaii and Oahu College, ex-presidents of the organization. Senator Baker was a guest along with the Canadian visitor.

Messrs. Griffiths and Gilmore gave addresses on the work accomplished by the federation, the latter expressing the idea that some people think a city grows old with them, whereas in reality a city is forever young as with problems to be solved.

Mr. Clinksill gave an account of the growth of cities in the Canadian northwest, and Saskatoon in particular where the municipal ownership of public utilities is in vogue.

WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 26, 1913

To get peace, if you do want it, make for yourself nests of pleasant thoughts. None of us yet knows, for none of us has been taught in early youth, what fairy palaces we may build of beautiful thoughts—proof against all adversity.—John Ruskin.

THE OPPORTUNITY OF 1913

The legislature of 1911 did a grand work for the public schools of Hawaii.

The legislature of 1913 has the opportunity to do as great a work, perhaps a greater, since it offers more chance for foundational development.

This opportunity is in the establishment of vocational training as an essential part of the system of public instruction in the territory. As to the value of vocational training, that has long been proved elsewhere—and in communities far less dependent upon manual industry for support than is Hawaii. As to the specific plan that the lawmakers will be asked to pass upon, that will soon be presented. There is now at work a special committee of the board of education and a special committee of practical and interested citizens, cooperating on the details of a plan of action. The plan now discussed is that of a series of supervisors for the various public schools of the counties under one supervisor in general charge of the work, all of which, of course, is under the department of public instruction.

Vocational training, in spite of its somewhat formidable name, is a perfectly simple, workable scheme to teach the children of the public schools some of the things that will help them in life—some of the plain, every-day, home tasks and duties that give them an insight into the forces of production. For instance, boys may be taught the fundamentals of agriculture, girls to sew neatly, skilfully, helpfully. Some of this has been done in Hawaii. Now it is proposed to organize the teaching, to give the children greater opportunities.

The great work of the legislature of 1911 was in passing large appropriations that put the school system of Hawaii on its financial feet, that extended the benefits of education to thousands of eager young minds.

The legislature of 1911 now has the opportunity to turn these enthusiastic, fresh, inquiring and aggressive minds to the inspiring truths of life growing from the soil, of handiwork growing under the skilled touch. And this lesson leads on and on to a wonderful system of training to make the children of Hawaii citizens of the productive kind, of the useful kind.

BANANA CLAIMS AND CLAIMANTS

There does not seem much chance of passage for the Democratic measure calling for the appropriation of money to pay the so-called "banana claims", and there is no reason why the measure should pass when the Republicans have a very excellent bill covering the subject immeasurably better.

The Democratic plan would probably work out as a lump appropriation with numberless chances for graft and waste of public funds. Since the newspapers of Honolulu, led by the Star-Bulletin, exposed the manner in which Representative "Jack" Kalakiela was working up banana claims and pulling down snug fees for doing it, there is not much confidence in the Bourbon program for paying these claims so stridently and flamboyantly put before the voters at the last campaign.

Under the bill proposed by the Republicans, the governor is to name a commission and the commission to appoint appraisers to pass upon the merits of all claims, with the assistance of the board of health, the board having collected much valuable information on the number of banana-trees destroyed during the anti-mosquito campaign and the damage claims later filed with it. Thus a competent body will take sworn testimony—at open hearings—and will sift the multitudinous claims down to those cases in which actual loss was suffered.

This kind of a bill will protect the territorial treasury from greedy and unscrupulous fingers and will do ample justice to claimants. As between the Republican and Democratic measures, there is not even room for doubt. The Republican bill should and will be made the basis for action.

Mainland suffragettes may easily out-strategize the collegiate rat by heading their parades with Carrie Chapman Catt.

WORKING TOWARD JUDICIAL REFORMS

New York state lawyers have taken up in earnest the matter of reform in judicial procedure, a subject that from time to time has come before the attorneys of Hawaii. While Hawaii has not the tremendously burdensome and complicated civil procedure that New York has struggled with for years, the principles that are guiding the mainland attorneys in their efforts to simplify the code are applicable here or anywhere else.

New York's troubles have largely arisen from excess of zeal on the part of code-tinkerers of the various legislatures. At every session some worthy solon would propose and succeed in passing an amendatory act or acts, until the code is now a labyrinth through which the most learned of barristers can scarcely proceed.

The New York bar's special committee has rendered a report which deserves attention here. The committee suggests that all matters relating to substantive law and special practice shall be eliminated from the new code and be incorporated in appropriate consolidated laws or in the new statutes. It is urged that the bulk of the rules of practice be made by the courts themselves, to provide so far as possible for but one form of action, one trial of facts and one course of appeals. Changes modernizing proceedings in courts of general jurisdiction are suggested, and several important recommendations relate to expediting cases. For instance, it is urged that all the cases be classified and distributed among the various trial judges so that all preliminary motions in a case be made before the same judge. It is claimed that by this method judges will be able to arrange their calendars according to the urgency of the respective cases. Other recommendations are along the line of disregard of technicalities where the substantial rights of the parties are not hazarded, and of doing away with the lengthy and useless forms of documents that now cumber the files. It is recommended that, as in many other jurisdictions, the demurrer be abolished.

There is now pending in the lower house of the territorial legislature a bill by Representative Sheldon which is a move in the right direction, inasmuch as it would prevent the setting aside of court decisions on errors that do not affect the essential rights of the case. Hawaii is up with New York in agitating this subject.

The committee is proceeding on a theory that is becoming as well recognized in Hawaii as in New York, namely that the wise plan of procedure is to have the most general and fewest rules possible and so framed as to require the fewest applications to the court.

James F. Fielder, who succeeds President-elect Wilson as governor of New Jersey, is a banker of Jersey City. He is one of the group of New Jersey progressives—not the Roosevelt kind of Progressive, of course—who have helped Wilson in his notable fight to reform the "mother of trusts." Fielder has been president of the state senate and enjoys the fullest confidence of his illustrious chief.

In another column today the Star-Bulletin publishes a communication from George R. Carter relating to the Chamber of Commerce Peace Essay contest for 1913. The communication contains a summary of material available at the public library for study of the subject, which will be found of much use to intending contestants.

Of the 1913 Floral Parade, tourists say: "It was better than the Portland Rose Festival, the Seattle Potlatch or the Pasadena Flower Carnival." Don't forget this, you people who objected to the spending of six or seven thousand dollars. The Coast cities think nothing of spending ten times as much.

London papers express doubt that Madero was killed while trying to escape. In which they are eminently correct.

More Americans killed in Mexico. Taft still refuses to take the initiative toward intervention.

All Mexico City needs now to make it a real riot is a society of suffragettes busy campaigning.

In view of the Bulgarian difficulties now, it is evident that Tchatalja is not to be sneezed at.

Have the British suffragettes overlooked the Isle of Man?

MATERIAL FOR PEACE ESSAY STUDY AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Honolulu, T. H., Feb. 24
Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Sir:—During 1912 you assisted the Chamber of Commerce committee on international peace with considerable publicity. This resulted in thirteen essays being submitted for that contest written by contestants of different nationalities. The contest this year is for an essay on "The Price of War".

Mr. W. A. Bowen, last year's chairman, collected the nucleus of a "Peace Library", and in order that the contestants this year may have access to this literature the Chamber of Commerce committee has decided to give all of the material in its possession to the Honolulu Library, where it can be in reach of all interested. Will you not therefore publish the enclosed catalogue of authors and subjects in order to give as wide a publicity as possible of all the material on hand available for the contestants to assist them in their study and preparation?

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

J. L. THONEY, Cleveland—Hawaii offers more for tourists than any city I know of.

OLE HANSON, Seattle—We don't know enough about your country, you may say. If we did, the tourist traffic would double.

A. M. BROWN, San Francisco—Your Floral Parade was fine and so was the military parade, but what appealed to me most was the picturesque landing of King Kamehameha.

F. DOHRMANN, JR., of San Francisco will arrive here in the Sierra on Monday. He comes for recuperation, having been very ill, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Dohrmann.

TOM MERLE—I was just wondering if all the dances in Russia were made up of the same kind of movements as are being shown by the Russian dancers now at the Liberty theater.

JAMES LOW, representing a Hilo automobile concern, who has been a visitor to Honolulu and the floral parade festivities for a week or ten days past, departed for the Big Island in the steamer Kilanea this morning.

B. VON DAMM—Nearly every tourist I have talked with since the Floral Parade seems to think that the biggest feature was the Kamehameha landing. That seems to be the feature we ought to develop and make permanent. It will be even more valuable a few years from now.

MRS. MARY STUART SMITH, Yuba City, Cal.—This is my first visit to Hawaii, and I was most agreeably surprised to find such a wide-awake newspaper in this part of the world as is the Star-Bulletin, and I have sent a number of copies home. That feature, "What Every Tourist Should Know", is thoroughly appreciated by myself, and I know it must be by other tourists who are making their first visit here.

ADVANCE MANAGER BAKER—The Lambardi Grand Opera company is an instance of the ability of a man originally in another line of work. Signor

SOME LEGISLATIVE BILLS IN BRIEF

TO REPEAL NOTORIOUS RAILWAY ACCIDENT LAW

One of the minor fruits of the investigation conducted here by Secretary of the Interior Fisher last September has developed in the bill introduced in the house by Representative D. M. Kupihea, which passed its second reading yesterday and was sent to the miscellaneous committee.

One of the bitterest charges brought against the railways of the territory during Secretary Fisher's inquiry was that they were legally not responsible for accidents to pedestrians on their rights-of-way, and that moreover, persons found on those rights-of-way were guilty of a misdemeanor. Secretary Fisher expressed astonishment that such a measure should be on the statute books.

The one in question is Act 141 of the laws of 1911, and Representative Kupihea's house bill, No. 41, proposes to repeal it in its entirety. Act 141 reads as follows:

"Section 1. No person, other than those connected with or employed by the owner or operator of any railroad, shall walk along or be upon the right-of-way, or walk or be upon in the bridges, cuts, fills or tunnels of such railroad; provided, however, that this act shall not apply to any persons using public highways or crossings, or their own private rights-of-way which they have acquired over or through said railroad rights-of-way, bridges, cuts, fills or tunnels."

"Section 2. Any person violating any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not exceeding ten dollars."

"Section 3. No owner or operator of any railroad shall be liable in damages for the death of or injury to any person arising out of a violation of the provisions of this act."

"Section 4. The term 'railroad' as used in this act, shall include temporary or portable steam railroads, as well as steam railroads operating upon a permanent right-of-way; but shall not include street railroads."

JURY BILL PASSED BY THE LOWER HOUSE

The second measure to pass the lower house in the present session, and which received a unanimous vote yesterday afternoon after being recommended by the judiciary committee, is house bill 22, relating to the excusing of jurors. The first measure to pass the house was its own expense account for the present session.

House bill 22, introduced by Representative Evan da Silva on the opening day and which now goes to the senate is as follows:

"Section 1. Section 1775 of the revised laws of Hawaii is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 1775. Panel excused when. Any circuit court or judge may, whenever it shall deem proper and necessary so to do, having regard to the length of the term thereof and equitable distribution of the duties of jurors, excuse any panel or number of jurors, after service, and order another panel or additional jurors to be drawn as nearly as may be as in this chapter provided to complete the business of the term."

"Section 2. This act shall take effect from and after the date of its approval."

The original section is changed by omitting the words "of four weeks or more," thus permitting the excusing of jurors at any time after they have given service. Under the present section they cannot be excused until they have served at least four weeks.

FAVORS DIRECT PRIMARY FOR ALL FOUR COUNTIES

Representative Norman K. Lyman, as evidenced by his measure introduced in the house yesterday, is in favor of the direct primary for all officials of the territory. His earlier bill proposing the direct primary provided only for a trial of the new system on Oahu. His second, house bill 73, is to cover the counties of Oahu, Hawaii, Maui and Kauai.

The world usually sides with the man who makes a noise like ready money.

SHELDON WOULD EXEMPT HOMESTEADERS FROM TAX

Representative Sheldon would exempt homesteaders from all manner of taxation save the poll, for a period of three years beginning January 1, 1914. To that end he has introduced house bill 32, which passed on second reading in the house yesterday and was referred to the finance committee. The measure, proposing to amend chapter 98 of the revised laws by adding a new section, gives this section as follows:

"Section 1223A. For the three years from January 1, 1914, the buildings and all other improvements and crops upon the 'homestead,' the carts and all other vehicles; the cattle, dogs and all other livestock; the tools and all other implements used and kept by a 'homesteader' for his immediate use and for the betterment of his 'homestead,' shall upon the request made to the tax assessor or deputy tax assessor no later than January 30 of each year, be exempt from taxation of any kind."

"Provided, however, that the 'homesteader' is not delinquent in the payment of his poll taxes and other taxes and payments due to the government of the territory of Hawaii or municipal government; and provided further, that such exemption shall not apply to said articles and items used by a 'homesteader' upon a 'homestead' under the '999 year lease' form of 'homesteading,' and provided further, that such exemption shall not be made and given to 'homesteaders' who have or maintain another home and who are not living permanently and continuously on the 'homestead.'"

MEASURE TO PREVENT SHORTAGES IN COUNTIES

Supposedly to prevent a repetition of Hawaii county's scandal of last year, when one of the county officials was sent to the penitentiary for embezzlement of public funds, Representative N. K. Lyman, of Hilo, yesterday introduced a bill proposing to require a careful audit of the county treasurer's and auditor's accounts from two to four times each year by the territorial treasurer.

The measure, intending to amend section 1514 of the revised laws, would have the territorial treasurer, immediately on the completion of each examination, make a detailed report of his findings to the board of supervisors of the county. It would include Honolulu, Maui and Kauai offices as coming under the treasurer's supervision.

HOUSE BILL 61 WOULD OPEN SCHOOL BUILDINGS

Representative Poepe's measure, which would permit citizens to use the school houses as clubhouses or meeting places when school is not in session, is house bill 61. It reads as follows:

"Section 1. That the fullest freedom shall be given to American citizens of the Territory of Hawaii to use for lawful purposes all public school buildings throughout the territory during the hours such structures are not in use for strictly educational purposes; providing however, the person in charge or the caretaker of any such building shall issue a permit to the applicant, when the proposed use is shown to be lawful by the said applicant."

This bill has been sent to the house educational committee.

WOULD GIVE MORE TIME TO FOURTH CIRCUIT

House bill 19, introduced by Capt. da Silva and which passed second reading yesterday, being referred to the judiciary committee, would amend the session law relating to court terms by giving the fourth circuit court the privilege of beginning jury hearings in civil suits in March, June or November, and of beginning the trial of any term case in July or August.

The law at present prohibits the beginning of these hearings during the months mentioned, placing the fourth circuit court in the same class with the first circuit court.

STRENUOUS IS NO NAME FOR THIS IRATE WOMAN ON HIS TRAIL

Struggling through long stretches of adhesive glue bushes and prickly cacti, with the hot sun beating down upon them and supplied only with such food and drink as could be procured before starting on their quest, twelve men yesterday searched in the vicinity of Waimanua for the exact location of an ancient pa-aina, or community wall. The twelve are members of a jury empaneled Monday morning in Judge Robinson's court and they started out early yesterday.

Inspector and Assistant Attorney-General Arthur G. Smith, to decide a land claim judged in favor of the government in Judge Whitney's court several months ago but since appealed by L. McCandless. McCandless claims that the boundary line to his property is defined by a pa-aina running in a line several hundred yards distant from the boundary fixed by the land registration court. The only way for the jury to acquire a knowledge of actual conditions was to pay a visit to the disputed territory.

Two Texas men have patented a set of vest buttons containing electric lights, fed by a battery carried in a pocket.

An irate young woman, bent upon vengeance is declared to be a passenger in the Tcyo Kisen Kaisha liner Shinyo Maru, that is speeding across the Pacific from Yokohama, Japan, and expected to reach Honolulu Monday morning.

Miss Grace Gardner has expended considerable money in a series of cable messages flashed from the Japanese port to Honolulu in which this young woman states that she is desirous that one W. A. McMurray, alleged as a representative of the Pacific Mail and the Southern Pacific Company, be either placed under arrest or be made to pay a neat little bill of five hundred dollars.

Miss Gardner is doomed to meet with disappointment upon his arrival here for McMurray, while a passenger in the Pacific Mail liner Korea, has neither been detained or contributed the much sought funds.

Chief of Detectives McDuffie was reluctant to detain McMurray upon the personal request of the woman. Had the matter of a demand for the man's arrest come from an authorized source in the Japanese government

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT for the Territory of Hawaii. In the matter of Angus P. McDonald, an alleged bankrupt. Amended Order Directing Service by Publication.

Whereas a petition was on the 19th day of February, A. D. 1913, filed in the above entitled court for an adjudication of bankruptcy against Angus P. McDonald, and it appearing in said petition that said alleged bankrupt departed from Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii and from the jurisdiction of this court upon the 8th day of February, 1913, and is now beyond the jurisdiction of this court by reason whereof personal service of a subpoena herein cannot be made upon said alleged bankrupt, and the return of the marshal upon the subpoena herein being that after due and diligent search the said alleged bankrupt cannot be found;

Now, therefore, upon motion of Smith, Warren & Hemenway, attorneys for petitioners, it is ordered that the said Angus P. McDonald appear, plead, answer, or demur to the said petition on or before the 24th day of March, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m., and in default thereof that the court will proceed to hearing and adjudication on said petition; and it is further ordered that service of such subpoena be made by publishing the order in the "Star-Bulletin," newspaper published at Honolulu, City and County of Honolulu, District aforesaid, once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the last said publication to be on or before the 6th day of March, 1913, and also by mailing a copy of this order and said petition and subpoena to the last known place of abode of the said Angus P. McDonald in the District of Hawaii, on or before the day of the first publication thereof.

Witness the Honorable Charles F. Clemons, Judge of said Court, and seal thereof at said Honolulu, in said District, on the 26th day of February, 1913.

the result might have been far different.

McMurray was asked to give his side of the story to the local police officers, and he replied by absolutely denying the charges filed in the cables. On the other hand he alleges that the woman now possesses a valuable ring, once his property.

He admitted that in company with the young woman, he had made a trip from the states to the Orient.

As far as the local officers are concerned the incident is closed.

IN BOUNDARY DISPUTE

To determine the exact location of the pa-aina or community wall which is alleged to form the boundary of the disputed property in the suit of the Territory of Hawaii vs. L. L. McCandless, appealed from, the land court, a jury in Judge Robinson's court yesterday took a trip to Keaau. There is a difference of opinion between the government and McCandless as regards the exact boundary of the property and the jury found it necessary to go out and investigate for themselves.

As guardian of the persons and estate of Mary Luke and Edward Luke, minors, Emma Luke was authorized in Judge Whitney's court yesterday to sell some lots located in Kalihi. The upset price on the property was fixed at $600.

Accompanying their answer with a certified check for $17,089.58, subject to a decision in equity, Theo. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., filed papers yesterday in the suit of Robert Horner vs. Albert Horner, H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., and Theo. H. Davies & Co., Ltd. Directing Dr. Victor A. Norgaard to appear in court at nine-thirty o'clock Saturday morning and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court, an order was issued in Judge Whitney's court yesterday morning. Norgaard is alleged to have failed in the payment of alimony.

Mme. Ester Adherio, leading dramatic soprano, Lombardi Grand Opera Company. This noted artist is shown above in the character "Tosca".

There was another eager crowd on hand at the Hawaiian promotion rooms when the general public sale of seats for the Lombardi Grand Opera Company opened. The first two days had been devoted to supplying patrons with tickets who had subscribed in advance for their reservations. Many of these secured seats for the entire season's repertoire, and will be seen in their regular places each evening enjoying the famous masterpieces that, in the large cities of the states, constitute the chief features of the amusement season. In New York, Chicago, Boston and San Francisco the big event of the year in theatrical and society circles is the grand opera. It is the most eagerly awaited attraction of all, while dinner parties, banquets, box parties and other social functions are arranged with a view to connecting up with the grand opera performances.

Already the leading merchants of the city have begun to feel the effect of the much-looked-for opera festival. A healthy increase in the sale of fineries, such as dainty fans, gloves, wraps, hats, sandals and the like points to the decided society character which the occasion will assume. Box parties are being arranged and luncheon gatherings will be more numerous than at any time in the past.

The big organization of Italian artists is now en route for Honolulu, having sailed from San Francisco yesterday on the steamship Sierra.

Nervous Woman Stopped Coffee
and Other Things

No better practical proof that coffee is a drug can be required than to note how the nerves become unstrung in persons who habitually drink it.

The stomach, too, rebels at being continually drugged with coffee and tea — they both contain the drug — caffeine. Ask your doctor.

A lady tells the old story thus:

"I had used coffee for six years and was troubled with headaches, nervousness and dizziness.

"Often I got so nervous and miserable I would cry without the least reason, and I noticed my eyesight was getting poor.

"After using Postum a while, I observed the headaches left me and I got over my excessive nervousness. I feel decidedly different now, and I am convinced that it is because I stopped coffee and began to use Postum. I can see better now and my eyes are stronger.

"A friend of mine did not like Postum but when I told her to make it according to directions on the package, she liked it all right."

Always boil Postum well and it will surprise you.

INSURANCE MEN LOUD IN PRAISE OF HAWAII NEI

Two prominent Pacific Coast insurance men left on the Korea yesterday declaring that the past few days in Hawaii make up one of their happiest experiences. The two men were W. L. W. Miller, San Francisco manager of the British-American and Western Assurance company, and A. M. Brown, senior partner of A. M. Brown & Sons, big insurance agents of San Francisco and handling half a dozen lines represented here.

Loaded with leis and shaking hands with friends on all sides, Mr. Brown and Mr. Miller were outgoing passengers on the Korea. Zeno K. Myers, manager of the Home Insurance Company and chairman of the promotion committee, a personal friend of both men, bade them farewell and they assured him that they will certainly be back here.

"I have certainly had the time of my life," beamed Mr. Miller. "Your pageant was great. The Star-Bulletin may go as strong as it wants in saying what a good time you have given your visitors, and I'll sign my name to it."

"Mr. Myers came up to San Francisco and asked us all to Hawaii. Well, four of us in the insurance business up there are down here now as a result of his efforts. He's the kind of a looter any town may feel proud of."

"What I liked best about your carnival," said Mr. Brown, "was the landing of Kamehameha. One can see parades of all kinds in many cities, but nowhere else can you see such a distinctive feature as this of yours."

"Honolulu is a good business town and a good insurance town. Insurance rates are too high here, as everybody must admit, and they will have to come down, as I believe they will when your water-main system is completed."

"Your fire department is A. No. 1, efficient and well handled. Honolulu may well feel proud of its fire-fighting department and equipment."

VIRGINIA BRISSAC COMING BACK AGAIN

A return engagement of indefinite length in Honolulu for next September was announced for the World's Fair stock company by John G. Wray, its stage manager and director, between the second and last acts of the performance of "The Thief" at the Eljoun last night.

Featuring Miss Virginia Brissac this company, which closes its present engagement Thursday night, has been popularly voted the best of its kind ever seen in Honolulu, and Director Wray's announcement last night comes as a pleasant surprise to local theatergoers.

He said the company, virtually intact, intends returning early in September en route to the Orient, with a new list of late productions, including all the best recent plays that have appeared on Broadway, New York. He gave the names of several, including "The Bird of Paradise."

It was impossible during the present engagement to present this big Hawaiian feature, which has proved a great success everywhere on the mainland, because the Eljoun's stage is not large enough, and moreover a vast amount of special scenery is required, but Director Wray said Manager McGreer has promised to provide the additional stage space.

"In order to give two shows a week it is necessary for us to learn and rehearse most of them before beginning our performance," said Wray. "But we shall endeavor to obtain all the best, and all will be new ones, never before seen in Honolulu."

"Furthermore, if anyone is particularly anxious to see certain productions now appearing in the East, we will endeavor to meet the desire if he will notify Mr. McGreer. The latter will write us after we have reached the coast and we will obtain and rehearse the play, bringing it down here for Honolulu's benefit."

The company gives its final performance of "The Thief" tonight, and its farewell show of the present engagement tomorrow evening, when "The Third Degree" will be repeated. This was the first show given by the company here, and is regarded as probably its most successful effort. The entire cast is called in to action and every member of the really brilliant troupe appears to excellent advantage.

TEAL PRESENTS GALAXY OF AMATEURS TONIGHT

Not only has Raymond Teal planned a big program of vaudeville and motion pictures for tonight but he has also arranged for the presentation of the efforts of quite a host of local amateurs. Wednesday night was always a Teal favorite for amateur performances, and the different stunts presented by the "would-be's" usually contributed much to the measure of enjoyment passed out by his regular company. Now, with most of the company gone, the amateurs' efforts will be even more of a feature and Teal promises that all the stunts will be interesting, anyway.

The surprise feature that Teal has been hinting at will very soon be ready for more definite notice, and it is believed the public at large will thoroughly enjoy the act when it finally gets onto the "boards."

Star-Bulletin Story of Results

The popularity of a newspaper as an advertising medium is judged by its CLASSIFIED COLUMNS. The following "results" have been reported to the STAR-BULLETIN CLASSIFIED DEPT. and are only a fraction of the ACTUAL number of advertisers who have more than received their "money's worth":

Jan. 21 FOUND A valuable horse advertised as lost, 5 days.
Jan. 22 SOLD A $14,000. House advertised in classified "Real Estate for Sale" column only three times.
Jan. 22 RENTED A House at $50. per month, advertised twice.
Jan. 23 SOLD A $1,500. House. Snapped up after being seen in "Classified" three times.
Jan. 24 FOUND A high-class Sales Manager for a large concern, one insertion only.
Jan. 26 HELP The right kind of man, as driver for prominent firm in town.
Jan. 29 SECURED A cottage for four, which filled the bill. The advertiser had been looking for a long time for what they wanted before advertising in STAR-BULLETIN CLASSIFIED. Results in Two Days.
Jan. 31 FOUND A book containing valuable records. Brought to STAR-BULLETIN office, finder having seen "ad" in the CLASSIFIED.
Feb. 4 POSITION A clerical position. Young man had worn the soles off his shoes tramping around to the different places that he "thought" might want him. Somebody told him to advertise in STAR-BULLETIN CLASSIFIED; now his room rent is paid and he has a "pie - card" in his vest pocket.
Feb. 8 FOUND Valuable horse, which had strayed from home.
Feb. 10 HELP The right man for manufacturing concern, 3 times.
Feb. 11 RENTED House at Kaimuki, advertised three times.
Feb. 18 FOUND Envelope containing Money Order. Brought to STAR-BULLETIN office the same day. Result: happiness.
Feb. 20 FOUND An heirloom, perhaps of trifling intrinsic value, but with priceless associations and memories. A CLASSIFIED, only four days old, brought back a trinket a hundred years old.

If CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING can benefit others, why not try it yourself?

Cable News PROPOSED CABINET

(Associated Press Cable)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Upon excellent authority from Democratic congressional quarters it is announced that President-elect Wilson has completed, practically, the makeup of his cabinet. According to the statement it is as follows:
Secretary of state, William J. Bryan.
Secretary of treasury, William McAdoo, New York.
Postmaster-general, Albert Sydney, Burlington, Texas.
Secretary of navy, Josephus Daniels, North Carolina.
Secretary of war (probably), Col. George W. Goethals.
Secretary of interior,

APPROPRIATION PAU FOR HARBORMASTER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The item of $3000 in the naval appropriation bill for a harbormaster at Pearl Harbor has been stricken out by congress, leaving that office vacant.

Under the provisions of the appropriations recommended by the navy department, Rear Admiral Cowles recently commissioned Capt. Nelson, formerly of the Inter-Island service, as harbormaster of the Pearl Harbor channel and locks. The captain was appointed a few weeks ago and entered upon his duties immediately. The position was one which was strongly recommended by the navy department as necessary in order to carry out the regulations provided for the commandant. The regulations gave the commandant authority to prohibit shipping moving in or out of the channel between sunset and sunrise.

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

The slaying of another brother of President Madero is reported tonight. Emilio Madero was on his way to Laredo with a small following when he was overtaken by the troops of General Huerta, according to the report, and killed.

The next president of Mexico probably will be either Gen. Felix Diaz or Francisco De La Barra, with Diaz the favorite. President Huerta is conducting the work of pacifying the country quickly and with a firm hand. Huerta today notified the native population that the only way to prevent ultimate intervention by the United States is to support his administration.

There is an undercurrent of resentment against the killing of Madero and Suarez, but no one dares voice open disapproval.
Emilio Vasquez Gomez, revolutionary leader who recently proclaimed himself Provisional President of Mexico, has agreed to accept a cabinet position under Huerta.

Jack Johnson will be unable to appear for trial for two weeks. Johnson's attorneys state he is critically ill with pneumonia.

Retreat of the Bulgarian force, investing the Tchatalja lines is reported today in messages from the front. These, say the Bulgarians, were forced to withdraw to the west because the impassable roadways about Tchatalja made it impossible for them to obtain supplies.

Olat A. Treitmoos, one of the labor leaders convicted at the "dynamic conspiracy" trial at Indianapolis and taken to the federal prison at Leavenworth, signed a sixty thousand dollar bond for his release. He will probably be released this week, his attorneys states.

President-elect Wilson has revealed the state of his mind with respect to the formation of his cabinet and recommendations for legislation at an extra session of congress. The announcement of the date of the extra session was not made today.

"My thought of the personnel of the administration is to get the best force, impetus and snap into it so that it will be a group of fellows that will do team work," said Wilson.

"I am thinking of a feasible method of currency reform," said Mr. Wilson, "and, of course, am studying the exact provisions that will go into tariff revision."

The Texas Rangers force received orders this morning to proceed to Brownsville. One troop of the United States Fifth Cavalry has left for Brownsville carrying equipment for thirty days' field service.

Company D, Signal Corps, arrived early today, the first of the troops to reach Galveston for mobilization. Following the signal corps, trainloads of soldiers continued to arrive throughout the day. The army transport McClellan arrived today and docked alongside the Sumner.

General Carter Goes to Border. Freight cars for carrying the impedimenta of the Twenty-Seventh Infantry from Fort Sheridan to Galveston as well as the coaches for men and officers were run into the siding at the fort near Chicago this noon.

Maj.-Gen. William H. Carter, commanding the second division, and his staff left tonight on a train carrying 784 men.

Eleventh Infantry on Way. Four sections carrying the Eleventh Infantry left Fort Russell today for Galveston.

UPSET STOMACH AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" Cures Sour, Gassy Stomachs in Five Minutes

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, floating, foul breath of headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain remedy in the whole world and besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know now it is needless to have a bad stomach.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. It should be kept handy, should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night it is there to give the quickest, surest relief known.—advertisement.
