HER BRITANNIC MAJESTY.

To-morrow, May 24th, Queen Victoria, sovereign of the British Empire, will have attained the advanced age of seventy years. This is the limit beyond which the royal singer of Israel predicated sorrow and trouble for those whose superior strength enabled them to pass it. Since that day, however, the span of human life seems to have lengthened, for in our own times we see influence and power, even to a degree unsurpassed in history, wielded by septuagenarians and even octogenarians instead of their tottering under trouble and sorrow. Some of them, indeed, make a good deal of "trouble and sorrow" for their political opponents at home and diplomatic rivals of other countries abroad. The late Emperor William of Germany died at over ninety years, having maintained his mental powers and grip of the sceptre unabated to the last. W. E. Gladstone at seventy-nine has no peer as an orator in either House of the British Parliament, an article in a London paper, describing his delivery of the tribute to Bright's memory, stating that but for the deep lines in his face and his frosted, scanty locks he revealed none of the marks of age. Prince Bismarck, the Chancellor of Germany, is aged seventy-six, yet still holds the helm of state with a firm hand. As an instance of his complete grasp of affairs, it may be recalled from the late foreign news that, when the American Commissioners to the Samoan Conference were presented to him, they were surprised at his thorough knowledge of every detail of the Samoan question. To return to the illustrious personage under consideration, at last accounts there was no intelligence of an alarming nature regarding the health of the now venerable Queen Victoria. She had been spending a short season at Biarritz, the charming seat of the late Emperor Napoleon III.'s summer residence, and visiting en route various points in the south of Europe.

The prayers of the national anthem—"Long live our noble Queen," and, "Long to reign over us"—have been signally fulfilled. Queen Victoria if spared to the 20th of June will then have completed the fifty-second year of her reign over the Empire whose morning drum-beat rolls round the globe. No British monarch has reigned so long, with the exception of George III., who died in 1820 in the sixtieth year of his reign. We may on this occasion quote from a sketch of the Queen in Chambers's Encyclopedia: "In Queen Victoria," according to Macaulay, her subjects have found a wiser, gentler, happier Elizabeth. No former monarch has so thoroughly comprehended the great truth, that the powers of the crown are held in trust for the people, and are the means, and not the end of government. This enlightened policy has entitled her to the glorious distinction of having been the most constitutional monarch this country has ever seen. Not less important and beneficial has been the example set by Her Majesty and her late Consort in the practice of every domestic virtue. Their stainless lives, their unobtrusive piety, and their careful education of the royal children, have borne rich fruit in the stability of the throne, and have obtained for the royal family of England the respect and admiration of the civilized world. The progress made by the nation in the various elements of civilization, especially in that of material prosperity, has been unparalleled; and perhaps during no reign has a greater measure of political contentment been enjoyed." We congratulate Queen Victoria's representative here, together with all her resident subjects, upon the eve of this most auspicious anniversary, and join with them in a hearty "God Save the Queen."

CENTRAL UNION CHURCH.

Report of the Committee on Plans for the New Building.

The following is the full text of the report of the committee on plans for the new church, submitted to the congregation of Central Union Church yesterday evening:

To the Members of the Central Union Church and Congregation:

Your Committee on Church Plans beg to submit the following report for your consideration. Since their appointment there has been hardly a time when some one member has not been absent from the kingdom, but this has not worked altogether to a disadvantage, for during travel the proposed Church building has been in mind, and a number of new churches have been examined in different parts of the United States, with a view to our requirements here, and we have thus tried to do duty when away. Some of the buildings seen were far too expensive, while others were not well adapted to our tropical climate. We have also examined many plans given in leading architectural publications, but have found little help from this source. Early after our appointment, the attention of your committee was called to the picture and description published in the Christian Home, of the new Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, of which Dr. Chapman is pastor; this plan met with just criticism from some persons who preferred that the Sunday School room should join the auditorium by means of sliding door, so that the two apartments could be thrown in one when so required; another objection made to the plan was, that there seemed to be no available lot of sufficient size, but this reason was removed, when the Committee of Building Site recommended the lot on the corner of Bereitania and Richards streets, which report was finally adopted. Although other plans were discussed our committee fell back on the plan of the Presbyterian Church, and our opinions were strengthened in its favor, as being the best adapted to our wants, from reports of the building received from several of our church members and one of our committee, who had looked over the church with our wants in view. We felt more confidence also in this plan, after hearing that Rev. W. Fear had said it was a fine church, and was about that we needed here. Rev. J. A. Cruzan wrote one of the members of our church thus: "This church auditorium would be too small for you (it seats 550), but with galleries it would seat 750. Of course this auditorium could be increased to any size desired. But the Sunday School and social apparatus of this building, I have never seen equalled, and I have seen nearly all the noted Sunday School buildings in the United States. It is far superior to the celebrated Akron Ohio, M. E. Church, or Wabamaker's Bethany Sunday School building of Philadelphia." It seems wise to your committee to recommend a plan that has been so carefully studied, by one who has had so wide an experience in Church buildings (especially in relation to complete Sabbath school apartments), as Dr. Chapman has had, who after making careful examinations of many of the recently built churches in the U. S. incorporated their improvements into this new church. In March as another member of our committee was to visit San Francisco, we requested him to make still further examinations of the Brooklyn Presbyterian Church, and to call upon Mr. Bordwell the architect, and obtain from him preliminary plans with certain modifications, as follows: size of the auditorium, rear gallery, enlarging certain rooms, and choir loft, etc. estimate of cost of the church here. It built of wood, and if of brick, etc. to look at other churches more especially the Methodist Episcopal Church of Brooklyn recently finished. Of this building he obtained sun prints of plans and a copy of the specification, but those who have seen both sets of plans, are almost unanimously in favor of the plans before you this evening.

The depth of our lot from Bereitania street in the centre is 173 ft., the ground plan of the proposed church has been cut out of paste-board on the same scale and pasted on the survey of our lot, to show how the building will fit, and the position we propose it would occupy on the land. Should the church be built of wood in accordance to sizes given in these plans, there will remain only 7 1/2 feet in the rear, which is not sufficient width for a driveway, and should we decide to build of brick or stone a part of this space will be taken by the increased thickness of walls; such being the case, we would suggest that no horses and carriages be allowed on the grounds, and that the lot be well laid out with cement walks, lawns, gardens, etc., and that the surroundings be made as beautiful as possible. In view of this your committee have made application to the Trustees of the Oahu College what they would charge to allow horse and carriages to remain in the Preparatory School grounds during all the services of this church. We are informed that an arrangement could be consummated at the rate of $200.00 per annum this would include keeping the part so used in order, and lighting the back yard.

The following are the dimensions of the various apartments for the proposed building:—
Vestibule is about 68 ft. long by 9 ft. wide, being entered from Bereitania street by 9 steps, through three doorways each six feet wide; there will be stairways at each end leading to gallery. The two doorways to the auditorium are each six feet wide.

Auditorium is proposed to be 68 ft. by 68 ft., and about 44 ft. high with groined ceiling. The floor has an incline of five feet towards the pulpit, over the vestibule will be a gallery projecting into the auditorium as far as the first row of seats. It is estimated that the auditorium will seat 514 adults, and the gallery 104, making a total of 618, this is allowing 22 1/2 inches for each person, "pew-makers figure more often 19 to 20 inches." Our present auditorium is 57 1/2 x 57 1/2 with a gallery of 41 ft. x 57 1/2, together seating 440 comfortably, when five occupy a seat 550 persons can find room, with the same crowding the new auditorium will seat about 740. The pews are arranged in semi-circular form, there will be five aisles, the centre one extending only about two-thirds of the way. Upon either side of the choir loft and leading to the main hall of the Sunday School department are two entrances, these being on the lowest level of the floor will be appreciated by those who wish to avoid ascending the front steps, as well as connecting the auditorium with all other parts of the church. In the matter of ventilation Mr. Bordwell expects to meet all that is required. When the committee requested that both the auditorium and Sunday school room be so ventilated as not to depend on the doors and windows, thus avoiding draughts with the heights of these apartments and the cupola or ventilators over each of both, this end can doubtless be accomplished.

Choir loft as planned is 18 feet deep and 26 feet wide, by 24 feet high, with dome-shaped ceiling towards auditorium to centre of arch. It has been suggested by choir members that the depth be increased two feet by bringing forward the floor into the auditorium, by so doing this apartment will be cooler and less of the appearance of the choir being "cupped in," our present choir loft is 20 1/2 x 19 1/2 ft. depth.

Sabbath school, prayer meeting, and social room, is proposed to be 64 ft. x 35 ft. high and 9 1/2 ft. height under the gallery (12 feet wide) around two sides and rear. The desk of the superintendent or leader can be seen from every part of this room and is well arranged. On account of our warm climate, it has been thought best to leave out the sliding doors and sash curtains under the side galleries, but to retain those under the rear gallery, that they may be closed when the room is used for prayer meeting, and thus decrease the size of such a large room. The ceiling is on the same plan as that of the auditorium, the floor level, and floors of the gallery, on a slope but stepped. Our present Sunday school rooms have an area of 2872 square feet against 4100 square feet in our proposed room, not including gallery and primary room, which would add 2700 square feet, or a whole area of 6800 square feet; about two-thirds more space than we now have.

Primary department room measures 28 x 28 ft., to be entered from the upstairs hall, by large sliding door-way, this room corresponding with the pastor's study (24 x 21) on the Richards street side. It has been thought by some that the room is not of sufficient size for our primary school, but it is suggested that only the youngest scholars be kept for this part of our school and with the two triangular rooms each side that 75 to 80 scholars can be well accommodated.

The ladies' parlour is 18 x 21 1/2 ft., entered from the down stair hall, and to be connected with the hall by large sliding doors, thus increasing the capacity of the room 6 ft., which would be necessary to 30 ft. This room is intended for ladies only, and not a social room as our present parlours are. It is thought by some ladies that this room will be too small, but it is the opinion of the committee, is that the size will be found ample.

The kitchen 19 x 15 1/2 ft. located on the opposite side of building from ladies' parlour, will be found convenient for socials, etc., with sink, tables China closets, and a "pass window" which opens into the main hall.

Of the lavatories, hallways, drinking fountain, library, windows, doors external appearance, etc., these plans show more clearly, than can be described in this report.

Mr. Bordwell when asked what would be the cost of a church as proposed, said, "taking the Brooklyn church as a basis, cost including everything excepting carpets, Sunday school chairs, pulpit furniture, organ, gas fixtures, side-walk, heating apparatus, fences and outbuildings, $24,586.00. Your church will be larger, but leaving off of classroom curtains will just about make an offset. To this must be added whatever may be the freight, otherwise there will be but little change." Estimating freight to be about $2,400.00 would make the cost by his figures in round numbers $27,000.00. Mr. Bordwell estimates that brick construction faced with cement would cost 35 percent above wood. Your committee consider this percentage a low one, but taking it as a basis would make the cost here $33,450.00 if freight is figured at the same amount.

Messrs. Voice & McKenzie, builders of the Methodist E. church of Brooklyn, agree to furnish complete in every respect (except cushions for seats) erected on the lot in Honolulu, a church edifice of the enlarged dimensions as shown in plans and notes prepared by Mr. Bordwell, for the sum of $38,300.00.

Mr. Bordwell agrees to furnish plans complete for the sum of $500 for wood, and $600 if for brick. We have made no enquiries for price of plans if the church is constructed of stone, neither have we enquired of him if this plan could be well carried out in stone, but we are of the opinion that there will be no difficulty in so doing if the sum of $75,000.00 to $80,000.00 can be secured, in which case we would recommend that it be constructed of stone.

Your committee has spent thus far the sum of $45.75 for these preliminary plans and those of the M. E. church which amount has been paid by your Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. M. COOKE,
ALEX. YOUNG.

The Hon. Chas. R. Bishop was also a member of the committee on plans, but is absent from the kingdom.

The report of the committee was accepted as far as the plans were concerned. The material to be used in construction has not yet been settled upon, and there may be slight modifications.

The plans for the new church can be seen in the vestry of the Central Union church at any time.

AN AMUSING WITNESS.

A sailor named Humphrey belonging to the bark Royal Alice, was charged in the Police Court this morning with using threatening language. From the evidence it appeared that he threatened to kill a native woman. A friend of his, a sailor on the Kikikat, desired to be called as a witness. On being sworn, he said he was a good man, was going to tell the truth, and then entered upon a long harangue in defense of his friend, which was exceedingly amusing, and caused considerable laughter. He did not speak over well of a native policeman. The Court thought a reprimand would be sufficient, but after an address from the prosecution sentenced Humphrey to 24 hours' imprisonment at hard labor.

Spring is with us at last; but there are many cold days ahead for the Government office-holder.

He (tenderly)—May I see you pretty soon? She (reproachfully) Don't you think I am pretty now? Snopser—You call that a picked choir, do you? Chorister—Yes; why do you ask? Snopser—It strikes me that it was picked too soon.

The Editor Consoles Himself—The death of the head of the great distillery at Cognac removes a famous man, but his spirit is still with us.

"What were you thrashing your boy for last night?" asked a neighbor of Mr. Caution. "Wild oats," was the old man's reply.

News Letter in its social notes, says: "As a young lady, Mrs. Hatch was a most deservedly popular belle, and I believe has not an enemy in the world. Pretty, attractive, charming mannered, she has hosts of friends in this city, and will probably reign as a queen in her island home.
