Be just and fear not;
Let all the ends thou aim'st at be Thy Country's, thy God's, and Truth's.

TUESDAY, : : JULY 24, 1888.

LAST night's Bulletin contains a very sensible and able editorial on the veto of the Military bill. Can it be that our neighbor's digestion is improving? It looks as though the paper were going to wheel into line and stand for the ideas of the Reform party.

IF THE answers of the Minister of the Interior may be taken as authoritative, it looks as though the Road Board system had already demonstrated its immense superiority to the old order of things. Of course the new men have not got their hands fully in as yet, but they have already done enough to demonstrate their solid utility. In Hilo especially it is stated that the roads are getting into better shape than they have ever been in before. Hilo begins to see that blessed ideal—macadamization—almost within her grasp, and a carriage road to Papaikou is already a fact, or at least, as we suspect, a half one. The eminently humdrum mission of good government here is illustrated by the fact that any Government which builds good roads is pretty sure to commend itself to a very large public. Armies and Governors are luxuries which may be dispensed with, but good roads are a joy forever, and are likely to be a magnet which will draw a good many votes at the next general election.

THIS morning's Gazette contains the text of six more bills which have received His Majesty's signature. They are all important, those of principal interest being the ones relating to the manufacture of poi, the inter-island cable and the Chinese permits. All of these have already been discussed in our columns, but everyone should familiarize himself with the full text of the Acts and for that purpose we refer readers to the columns of the Gazette. The bill fixing the prices to be paid for recording instruments, and directing that the funds shall be paid into the Treasury, is an excellent one, but the rate fixed is too high. The poi bill is an exceedingly useful measure, but it is to be regretted that the same end cannot be attained by private enterprise. We still insist that the limitation of the validity of the Chinese permits already issued to July 1, 1889, is not strictly just, but the time for effective protest has gone by. The only objection we have to make to the Submarine Cable law is that it does not contain a clause imposing a penalty in case the cable is not laid! All of the bills granting charters should be provided with such a clause to be used in terror, and prevent the legislators wasting their valuable breath in passing bills that never come to anything.

A VERY amusing half-hour may be spent over a document which belongs, perhaps, to ancient history by this time, and yet to a history which bears very closely on that just now in process of making. We refer to Hoapili Baker's reply to the Ministerial utterances published in 1880. The pamphlet, which violates every rule of sense and syntax, is a singularly foolish defence of the famous $10,000,000 loan scheme. The author, whoever he may be, raves extravagantly of a system of fortifications extending over all the Islands of the group, connected by a network of railroads, an essential part of the defences which are to make the group invulnerable. The author thought the nation should prepare for a foreign war with China, the Tartars, or the Russians. It is well known that this document was not the work of Baker, who was incapable even of its absurdities. It is rumored that it was inspired from the throne.

Whatever the origin of the scheme may have been, no doubt the money, if obtained, would have been spent with all the madness which the pamphlet foreshadows. Luckily the money was not forthcoming, and the scheme must forsooth remain in abeyance. It is sleeping, not dead. It should not be forgotten that there is an Act now in force in this country which reads quite as fervidly as any of Hoapili Baker's after-dinner speeches—we mean the military bill of 1886. There, too, everything is organized on the grand scale, the pages fairly bristle with Generalissimos, Adjutants and Major Generals, Aides-de-camp, Intelligence Officers, Secretaries of war. The army is for the whole group—Governors have the power to proclaim martial law. "The King is the sole judge of the necessity for organizing, disbanding or consolidating volunteer military companies."

Anyone who can put two and two together may, from the pamphlet and the Act, arrive at a shrewd guess at another reason for the veto, not specified in the Royal message. If the Throne can but recover the power which has passed from it forever, this is perhaps its dream. Under the bad law of 1886 it does not despair of again building up an irresponsible power, with forts and bayonets and great guns. Appealing for support to all that is worst in the people—to the desire for free opium and free liquor, to superstition, licentiousness and heathenism. After us the Deluge, has been the motto of about every Hawaiian Government since the present incumbent has sat on the throne. The deluge came sooner than was expected. It has only rained enough to frighten thus far. The waters may yet rise, as they did in Louis Sixteenth's time, high enough to drown.

It is for the Legislature to consider these questions to-day. They are to consider and decide whether for the King to be the sole judge of the necessity for organizing or disbanding all military companies is the thing most conducive to the welfare, safety and freedom of the nation.

The Hamakua Temperance Society.

MR. EDITOR: The 19th of June, 1888, spent at Paauhau, Hamakua, Hawaii, will be remembered with pleasure by those who participated in its festivities. The birthday of the temperance society it was my privilege to form. For several weeks earnest pleas had reached me from special committees and private individuals to be present on that occasion, offering to pay my expenses and send an escort to conduct me thither. After a rough voyage and a few stormy days, the morning of June 19th broke clearer than we feared. A kind Providence kept the impending rain at bay. By 11 o'clock the church was filled, the people having gathered from Lanipahoehoe, 16 miles south, and Waimann, as far north. The church was decorated with palapalae (ferns), awapuhi (the fragrant ginger) and lovely flowers. Back of the pulpit was worked "Aloha," bordered on each side by "Welcome." A decorated arch of bamboo plants was over the speakers. At the further end of the church was "Aloha Oukou." Fragrant leaves and bright flowers were interwoven and festooned from the four corners of the church, meeting in a center of beauty overhead. Our pathway to the church was spread with the favorite palapalae and the sweet ginger, as were the steps and floor of the pulpit; and so outside and inside Nature's welcomes peeped from each nook and corner, and "Aloha Nui" beamed from every face. Bonnie blue ribbons were worn by all; by many who had nobly resisted temptation, and had come off victorious.

At my left presided Judge Mian, the President of the Society. At a signal from him, the audience rose, salams were interchanged, God's blessing was invoked, and the report of the delegate to the Honolulu Annual Temperance Convention heard, after which, in rich, clear tones, sang Mrs. Haena, the wife of the Secretary.

The orator of the day was Mr. Charles Williams, a half white gentleman, educated at Punahou, under Prof. W. D. Alexander. In an evil hour he became a victim to strong drink; but through the interposition of Mr. R. A. Lyman, Treasurer of the Society, he had been able to overcome. His utterances, as he stood before us that day, elicited close attention. The President's annual report states that he established at Kaala a branch society, numbering 47 members. At Paauilo also a society numbering 27, at Waimann a society numbering 49.

Mr. J. M. Horner of Kukaia, interpreted by Mr. Williams, followed in words that thrilled the audience. He led us on to victory through license, high license, local option, until he reached the highest round in the ladder—Prohibition. When he drove the nail in the lid of the encoffined demon of strong drink, it created a round of applause. As for me, no words could express my joy in referring to one year ago, and to the present occasion. The work had been carried on with a degree of faithfulness and success that was truly gratifying. It was an unspeakable joy to look into faces, and hear voices of those who hailed me as their "makua."

The exercises were closed by singing "My Country 'tis of Thee," we adjourned to the house of my hostess queen, Mrs. R. A. Lyman. The long front veranda, commanding a magnificent view of mountain, slope and ocean, was spread with greenery, and a choice variety of viands. Haole and Hawaiians did the feast justice. There was a banquet hall for the little ones, and the parlors of the Lyman house were thronged with merry guests. Good-byes and alohas were said, and each departed, grateful and happy over this birthday of the one year old Society of Hamakua; child of our love, God bless and keep thee ever!

MARY E. GREEN.

Pay of Postmasters.

MR. EDITOR: I see by a recent issue of your paper that there has been an additional $2,000 appropriated for Postmasters, making $20,000 for the current biennial period; also $26,000 for clerks in General Postoffice (this latter does not include the P. M. General and Deputy P. M. General). On first reading these two items they appear out of proportion; $26,000 for some eight or ten clerks and $20,000 for 53 Postmasters. On due reflection I find the former sum is not any too much for the clerks in the General Postoffice, but the $20,000 I emphatically pronounce as altogether inadequate to the amount of labor required (leaving brains out altogether). Ten thousand dollars per annum equally divided among fifty-three Postmasters (which is the amount given in the P. M. G. report) would be $188.67 per annum, or $17.39 per month, for each man—$2.39 more than is given the last importation of Japs, which I believe is the cheapest labor in the country. Consequently country Postmasters rate second to Japs, and a long way inferior to Hamakua police or mule drivers. But even this is not the pay of Postmasters. Money order and banking business offices are paid $10 per month and minor offices $8, and have the privilege of supplying all necessities for their respective offices, such as wrapping paper, twine, stationery, etc., out of their salary, and moreover, the man must be capable, honest and obliging—always on hand seven days of the week (as Sunday is the only day Japs and Portuguese have for mailing and registering letters, getting money orders, etc.). In fact, he must be instant in season and out of season, and all for the meagre sum of $10 per month. We would strongly recommend the Finance Committee to reconsider the Appropriation bill and allow the Postmaster General a few thousands more, so that he may be enabled to make glad the hearts of his many faithful and tried servants (even at the expense of the Law Library). Nothing will give our worthy Chief, for whom we have the highest respect, more pleasure.

A CHIEF OF POSTMASTER.

Honokaa, Hawaii, July 19th.

The Portuguese and the Post Office.

MR. EDITOR: Have the kindness to publish the following: It is a matter of extreme regret to the Portuguese, that the ardent and pleasing proposition held out to the Postmaster-General in your paper of the 20th, has met with such a blunt refusal from the gentleman, to comply with the expected wishes of all the colony, as to give a chance in his office to an understanding Portuguese. The ability of said expert, Mr. Deslia, in deciphering many addresses, which to the eyes of the inexperienced are illegible, may not be called in question; but as a matter of fact it may be mentioned, that a list of alleged "Portuguese letters," sent last week for publication to the Luso Hawaiian contains quite a number of names, which are either not Portuguese at all, or otherwise designed to an extent that leaves a great doubt in the reader's mind whom they are all addressed to, and therefore cannot satisfy those of the Portuguese, who justly desire that their letters and affairs in general in the Postoffice are as well attended to as those of any other people. It is not asking any too much of Mr. Wundenburg to give steady employment to a Portuguese in his department, for a striving colony that will get ahead, which prejudice may have prevented him from doing; but the request made is simply a well meant proposal of an idea, in the carrying out of which, he may not only confer a great boon upon the clamoring Lusitanians, but it will also prove an excellent assistance, in solving many puzzling questions that are put to his corps of undoubtedly able assistants, which though simple and to a full understanding will be explained by an able PORTUGUESE.

Defense of an Assessor.

MR. EDITOR: In last Tuesday's Gazette a letter appears, vilifying the newly-appointed tax assessor of the Hamakua District, and setting forth that the Hamakua people in general were opposed to his appointment. Such is not the case.

Mr. Kaekauaiwi is a very worthy man, and has served the Government on previous occasions. He will be assisted by Mr. Chas. Williams, who is an exceptionally intelligent man, and one who speaks both native and English fluently.

Hamakua, July 20th.

THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Fifty-Sixth Day.

MONDAY, July 23.

The House met at 1 o'clock, p. m., the President, Hon. W. R. Castle, in the chair. Absent: Nobles Wilder, Robinson, Dowsett, Smith, Hitchcock, Baldwin, Richardson, Campbell, Widemann, Makee, Wilcox, Bertlemann and Dole. Repts. C. Brown, F. Brown, Maguire, Daniels, Horner, Nakaleka and Paehaole. Minutes read and confirmed.

PETITIONS.

Rep. F. Brown presented a petition from T. H. Davies & Co. for a refund of $66.33, customs duties on 100 barrels chemical manure imported October 14, 1884, which they claim to have been an illegal exaction. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Kamaoaha presented a petition from Hulaia, Kauai, with 30 signatures, (1) that parents having five children be not required to pay school taxes, (2) that places be provided for the pasturage of animals, (3) that lepers be taken care of in the districts where they reside. Referred to Committee on miscellaneous subjects.

Rep. Kamaoaha presented a petition praying that when a husband or a wife is afflicted with leprosy, the other party may marry again without the formality of a divorce. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Noble Townsend read four reports of the Committee on Education.

1. On the item proposed on the 16th inst., to be inserted in the appropriation bill for printing and binding a school geography of the Hawaiian Islands, $500. On interviewing the Education Office, Committee learned that it thought feasible to insert a tolerably complete description of the physical and social features of the islands in the forthcoming history, and the Board will be free to purchase any geography published as a private enterprise that they may approve. Committee recommended that the item be not inserted. Adopted.

2. On the proposed item of $2,000 for an Assistant Clerk in the Education Office, Committee recommended that this item be inserted. Adopted.

3. On the bill introduced by Rep. Helekuhi, June 9th, to provide for raising the period of compulsory attendance at school by three years. Committee do not think the status of education in the country warrants the proposed change, and recommend that the bill be laid on the table. Adopted.

4. On the bill introduced by Noble Baldwin, July 9, providing that "anyone duly authorized" by the school agent may initiate proceedings in alleged cases of truancy. Committee recommended that the bill pass. Adopted. The bill passed to engrossment to be read a third time on Tuesday.

Rep. Kinney read the report of the Sanitary Committee on the bill, introduced by Noble Smith, to amend section 6 of Chapter XI, of the Penal Code, relating to seduction, recommending that the bill pass. Adopted. The bill passed to engrossment, to be read a third time on Thursday.

The same member read the report of the Judiciary Committee on the item in the Appropriation bill, Makiki claims, $1,400, recommending that the item, $1,350-46, be inserted. Laid on the table to be considered with the Appropriation bill.

The same member read the report of the Sanitary Committee on the bill: to repeal an Act entitled "An Act to amend section 34 of the Civil Code, approved on the 18th day of July, 1879; and to exempt passengers from the liability to carry lepers or others suffering from any contagious or infectious disease. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

Rep. Horner read the minority report of the Committee on the bill relating to the cultivation of coffee. Both this and the majority report, presented 21st inst., were ordered to be printed.

Rep. F. Brown reported a bill, and the resolution introduced by Rep. Kinney, June 28, subsequently amended by a special committee, July 19, relating to instruction in schools on the contagiousness of leprosy, printed.

RESOLUTIONS.

Rep. Rice introduced a resolution that $3 taxes paid twice be refunded Wm. Abney. Referred to the Committee on Double Taxation.

Rep. Kamaoaha moved that when the House adjourn to-day, it will be to 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Adopted.

Minister Green moved the following: Resolved, That a select committee of five be appointed by the President of this House, to whom shall be referred the report of the Auditor-General, which committee shall examine into the working of the present Audit Law and report to this House what changes, if any, should be made in the present system of accounting for and auditing the receipts and expenditures of the public monies. Such committee is hereby authorized to employ such assistance as they may consider necessary to facilitate the accomplishment of their work.

Rep. Kamaoaha said the Ministry had got rid of an Auditor during the last session; they have a new man now, and he does not suit them. He did not want the Ministry to become as bad as Gibson's.

Rep. Nakaleka expressed similar views. Rep. Paehaole would vote for the resolution, but he was sorry the question was introduced. It looked like being referred to a part of Ministers that, if they wanted the Audit Act amended, they did not bring in a bill for the purpose.

Noble Baldwin said the course taken by the Minister was the best under the circumstances.

Noble Young also supported the way in which the matter was brought forward. The resolution was adopted.

BILL APPROVED.

Minister Green stated that the King had signed the Challenge to Jurors bill.

NOTICES OF NEW BILLS.

To regulate the importation and sale of opium.

To amend Section 2, chapter L, of the Penal Code, relating to bail.

Rep. F. Brown gave notice of a bill relating to the charge and delivery of freight at the various landings in the Kingdom.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

Pounds and Estrays.—Postponed until after the report of committee on referred sections is received.

Keeping of Accounts.—Second reading of the bill relating to the keeping of books of account and the report of committee presented 9th inst. thereon. Considered section by section. Amended and passed to engrossment, to be read a third time on Friday.

Taxes.—Second reading of the bill to amend chapter XLIII, of the Session Laws of 1882, being an Act entitled "An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to internal taxes." The amendment withdraws the exemptions by which school teachers and clergymen are relieved from the payment of personal taxes.

Considered with the majority report, 7th inst., and the minority report, 10th inst., of the Finance Committee.

Minister Thurston moved the bill pass.

Noble Waterhouse moved indefinite postponement.

The motion for indefinite postponement was lost, on the following division:
Ayes—Jaeger, Smith, Waterhouse, Wright, Wall, Richardson, Bertlemann, Kalaupapa, Naone, Kaula, Deacon, Helekuhi, Kawaiuni, A. S. Wilcox, Rice, Gay, Nakaleka—17.

Noes—Austin, Thurston, Ashford, Robinson, Young, Foster, Nodley, Hitchcock, Bailey, Makee, G. N. Wilcox, Dole, Huse, F. Brown, Kamaui, Kinney, Maguire, Kamaoaha, Paris, Daniels, Horner—21.

At 4:30 the House adjourned to 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Simeona, an inmate of the Reformatory School, for insubordination and desertion, is sentenced to three months' imprisonment at hard labor, at the expiration of sentence to be returned to the school.

Jim Crow is tried for assaulting Police Captain Hopkins while in the discharge of duty, and remanded to the 24th for judgment.

O. Hansen is fined $8 for furious and heedless driving.

Thos. Harvey is tried for using threatening language. He told the owner of a dog that barked at him that he would kill the dog and him too. Defendant, on stating that he has no intention of doing any harm to complainant, is discharged.

The case against Lau You Chee, charged with insanity, is discontinued.

A charge of gaming against ten Chinese is continued to the 24th, and one of perjury, against another Chinaman, to the 27th.

The Hawaiian Gazette.

Six of the laws that have received the royal signature are promulgated in the current issue of the Hawaiian Gazette, now ready at the office and news stands. There are nearly ten columns of close type occupied by the proceedings of the Legislature. The principal speeches on important topics are reported fully. About five columns are taken up with editorial discussion of public affairs. There are two columns of proceedings in the Honolulu Courts. An unusually large amount of news and discursive correspondence of an interesting nature appears, and there is the usual great variety of local news, much of it being more than ordinarily stirring. Commercial and shipping are given the prominence they have always held in the Gazette. This issue is up to the best issue in a long time and contains ten full pages.

Verdict in the Shooting Case.

The Coroner's jury held two sessions yesterday, about 10 o'clock in the evening agreeing unanimously upon the following verdict:

"That the said John Flennelly, a marine of the U. S. S. Omaha, aged about 25 years, came to his death Sunday, July 22, 1888, from hemorrhage, the result of a gunshot wound in the left arm, inflicted by Manoel Gomes Comancho, on the night of Saturday, July 21, 1888, between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock p. m."

The Late Mr. Hart's Will.

The will of the late Henry J. Hart was on Monday filed in the Clerk's office of the Supreme Court, together with an application for probate filed by Messrs. Alex. J. Cartwright and Wm. C. Parke, the executors named in the will. Wednesday, August 15th, is set for the hearing of the application. The estate is put down at the estimated value of $25,000, and consists of certain policies of life insurance and the business of the Elite ice cream saloon and candy factory.

Mind-Reading This Evening.

This evening Mr. Washington Irving Bishop will give his farewell entertainment, which, as announced in another column, is in aid of the leper settlement at Kalaheo. The box plan is now open at the office of J. E. Brown & Co., and those desirous of obtaining good seats should make early application to avoid disappointment. Many seats were engaged yesterday.

A Queer Ticket.

McGregor, who was with Flennelly up to the time of the shooting, was before the Coroner's jury four times, telling a somewhat different story each time. This man applied for enlistment on the Omaha the previous Saturday, but failed to pass the examination. He is admittedly a former deserter from the American navy, and works his way in the world under two names.

A NOBLE SHIP.

Quick Passage of Ship Cockermouth From Liverpool—Material for the Street Railroad.

The British clipper ship Cockermouth, Captain Ravee Little, arrived July 23d at noon, after a smart passage of 116 days from Liverpool, G. E., with nearly 1,800 tons general cargo, including 700 tons iron rails for the Hawaiian Tramways Company, consigned to Messrs. G. W. Macfarlane & Co. The Cockermouth sailed from Liverpool March 29th. Experienced favorable winds to the equator in the Atlantic, which was crossed in long. 27 deg. W., 19 days out; thence had fine weather till 28 deg. S. was reached, when constant adverse winds and a series of gales were encountered. Thence light winds to Cape Horn which was passed on June 1st, 64 days out, and passed Diego Keimaraz the following day; light southerly winds were experienced there. Was 12 days in crossing from 50 deg. S. to 50 deg. S., thence variable winds from N. to S. W. which lasted to 37 deg. S. Took the southeast trades in 16 deg. S. losing them again in 10 deg. N. Crossed the equator in the Pacific July 9th, 102 days out, in long. 125 deg. W.; thence had favorable winds to port. Sighted Maui and Molokai at 2 o'clock Monday morning, and arrived in Honolulu harbor at noon the same day, and was docked at Brewer's wharf.

Spoke the British ship Star of Bengal in lat. 42 deg. N. and long. 15 deg. W., from Cardiff bound for San Francisco. Sighted the British ship Langdale from Liverpool for San Francisco in lat. 35 deg. N. and long. 18 deg. W. The Captain stated that since passing 48 deg. S. in the Atlantic, no vessel was sighted till arrival here; there was nothing but birds seen off the Horn. The Cockermouth is an iron vessel of 1,207 tons register, and was built at the Clyde in 1876. The highest run per day during the passage hitherto was 275 miles, which was accomplished on this side of the Horn. The Cockermouth is a superb looking vessel, possessing superior cabin accommodations. The Captain's cabin is elegantly fitted up, and the entire vessel presents a clean appearance.
